U. S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE 7—2034

AT CHARLESTON, WEST VIRGINIA

CONRAD H. FRANKLIN, JR., who resides at 622 Columbia Boulevard, Charleston, West Virginia, stated that he had recently read an article in the September 8, 1938 issue of KEN which disclosed some amazing facts as far as he was concerned.

He stated that for the first time he learned that an individual by the name of GEORGE DEATHERAGE was alleged to be implicated in and affiliated with organizations that were directly or indirectly responsible for radical movements against certain races and governments. He stated that he is presently employed in the Printing Division of the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corporation located at 437 McCorkle Avenue, South Charleston, West Virginia, and that in the event it is desired to telephonically communicate with him, he can be reached at 4131 South Charleston and at 24809 at his home during the evenings.

FRANKLIN stated that he was born in Charleston, West Virginia, where he attended grade and high school, taking up printing as a hobby even in his later years in grammar school and continuing this until he was graduated from high school.

He stated that he first met GEORGE DEATHERAGE when he was acting in the capacity of an Office Boy at the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corporation in 1934. He stated that he thought at this time that Mr. DEATHERAGE was a very influential man since he held a high position with the company. Further, that after he had known DEATHERAGE a short while, DEATHERAGE learned that FRANKLIN had a printing press at his home and was capable of doing some fairly good work. He stated that DEATHERAGE on occasions would give him jobs to do. FRANKLIN stated that he was somewhat of a business man and to get the business from Mr. DEATHERAGE he made him a very attractive price for the first bit of work that he did and later raised his prices to those of the market and even higher as time went on.

The actual printing matter that was prepared for DEATHERAGE will be taken up later in the report, where it will be set out and described.

FRANKLIN stated that he thought nothing of the work that he was doing for DEATHERAGE, but that now after reading the article in KEN, he realized that there was a great deal more behind the whole thing than appeared on the surface and that although the material was not directly in conflict with any existing laws of the United States, he could easily see how it had been used for the purpose of furthering organizations that were certainly not in the best interests of the United States and its existing Government.

FRANKLIN stated that he was prompted to submit this information to the Federal Bureau of Investigation due to the fact that after he had read the article, he thought that possibly he would be implicated along with GEORGE DEATHERAGE and KOSITSIN in the event they were prosecuted by the Government since the printing matter could be easily traced as he had never made any effort to hide the fact that he was working on printing in his off hours.

FRANKLIN stated that at the time he contacted his superior and told him that he was going to give the information to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, he learned that his superior was already aware of the fact that he, FRANKLIN, had done printing for DEATHERAGE since certain receipted bills of his, FRANKLIN'S, had been found in the desk belonging to GEORGE DEATHERAGE after he had made a rather rapid exit after having been discharged. FRANKLIN stated that he was also a little apprehensive about the whole matter due to the fact that he was of German descent.

FRANKLIN stated he is a member of the Elks organization and that he has never been arrested. He stated that he wanted to do everything in his power to aid the Federal Bureau of Investigation in the investigation concerning GEORGE DEATHERAGE and V. N. KOSITSIN.

In connection with KOSITSIN, FRANKLIN stated that he had met him on several occasions and that KOSITSIN also placed orders with him for certain printed matters, both in person and by mail. FRANKLIN stated that he had forwarded packages of the printed material to DEATHERAGE and KOSITSIN in several different cities in the United States and that he had also billed them for the printing work both jointly and separately; further, that they were good customers, paying for the work promptly. FRANKLIN also stated that DEATHERAGE and KOSITSIN would never have him deliver any printed matter in and around Charleston, but that they would call for it at his home and always asked him if he could get the work out without the aid of any assistant.

FRANKLIN stated that on one occasion KOSITSIN and DEATHERAGE approached him on the idea of putting out a booklet, "THE WHITE KNIGHT", featuring articles in connection with the Jeuidall, etc., and that he was all set to help them put out this book and was going to buy any equipment he would need when they decided they could do it cheaper somewhere else. He stated that he later saw a copy of this booklet, but that he did not have one in his possession at the present time.

FRANKLIN stated that if the Bureau desired, he would be more than glad to keep in contact with these individuals and obtain all information he could from them. FRANKLIN was advised by this Agent that this matter would be taken up with the Bureau as to whether the Bureau desired him to keep in contact with these men and report any information he received to the Bureau.

The following is a list of the different types of printing matter which was printed for DEATHERAGE and KOSITSIN by CONRAD FRANKLIN:

1. Questionnaire - 3,000 copies.
2. Membership cards for Knights of the White Camellia, 75,000 copies.
3. Letterheads Knights of the White Camellia, Established 1867 - 10,000 copies.
4. The American Nationalist Confederation, The News Bulletin, headings only, 20,000 copies.
5. Seal of the University of California - 10 copies.
6. Economic Royalists, Attention!! - 500 copies sent to Senators with open letter, of which FRANKLIN does not have a copy.
7. Letterhead showing a man typing - 500 copies.
8. Letterhead showing a ship with a swastika on it - 1,500 copies.
9. American Nationalist Confederation name plates - 5,000 copies.
10. Membership cards with the swastika border - 5,000 copies.

11. Small business size envelopes - 500 copies - with a return address on the back, as follows:

"Karl Neumeister
New York City"

Samples of the printing matter which were obtained from FRANKLIN are being forwarded to the Bureau under separate cover.

FRANKLIN stated that his printing shop and his home are open for inspection at any time an Agent of the Bureau desires to make an inspection, and he stated that he sincerely wanted to cooperate in every way he could.

While conducting another official investigation, this Agent had to contact Major JAMES I. PRATT who is presently Director of the Kanawha County Welfare Department, and he submitted to this Agent a September 8, 1938 issue of KEN magazine which contains an article entitled, "Exposing Native U. S. Plotters". There are being quoted in this report portions of this article that deal directly with Subject GEORGE DEATHERAGE:

"Two of ALLEN'S close friends are also native Americans: C. F. Ingalls of 2702 Bush St., San Francisco and GEORGE DEATHERAGE (the mysterious "G. D." mentioned earlier). DEATHERAGE now lives and operates out of St. Albans, W. Va. He organized the American Nationalist Confederation which used to have its headquarters in Palo Alto, Calif. Both of these gentlemen also co-operate with Hermann Schwinn.

"On Jan. 7, 1938, a letter signed 'C.F.I.' was sent from San Francisco to DEATHERAGE in a plain envelope without a return address. The letter is very long and detailed. We quote in part:

"'We must get busy organizing grid-lattice-work or skeleton for a military staff throughout the nation, and in this we need representatives of Fascist and Nazi groups, and we need Americans with whom these others may be incorporated....All must believe in being ruthless in an emergency. . . .They must fire and kill even these if we would save our own.

"'The political and the military organizations must not be unified. They have different aims. With one hand we offer the public a political program. Whether they accept it or not and whether they wish to return to the ideals embodied in a representative form of a constitutional federal republic or not, is of secondary importance. Of first importance is the need of the emergency military organization to function simultaneously should our enemies revolt if we should win politically or should we revolt if our enemies win politically.'

"On Jan. 19, 1938, DEATHERAGE received a letter signed with the code name 'Laura and Clayton.' 'Laura' is Hermann Schwinn in case Hermann thinks that only DEATHERAGE knows it. This letter, too, is long and goes into details on how best to organize the secret military group and have it ready for instant action. The letter states at one point:

'"After we do all this, now then we shall have the national military frame-work all steamed up and oiled and coupled to the multiplicity of working parts ready to appear on all fronts. . . .'

"As remarked earlier, all this seems like an incredibly fantastic plot but--Nazi and Italian agents in France built a network of steel and concrete fortifications, stocked them with arms and manned them by a secret army before some of them were discovered. When this is remembered, these plans assume a greater gravity.

"After 'C.F.I' and 'Laura and Clayton' had decided on the details of the secret military body in which they needed the aid of 'Nazi and Fascist' forces, they needed money and arms.

"Early in January, Allen was given $450 to go to Washington, D. C. by a mysterious "Mrs. Fry and C. Chapman" who live in Santa Monica but use Glendale for a post office address. This money was spent between Jan. 13 and Feb. 10, 1938 according to the expense account Allen turned in to the Fry-Chapman combination.

"Three days after he got the money, Hermann Schwinn, on Jan. 16, 1938, gave Allen a letter of introduction to Fritz Kuhn, addressed to the Amerikadeutscher Volksbund, 178 East 85th Street, New York City. The letter was written in German. Following is the translation:

My Bund Leader:

The bearer of this letter is my old friend and comrade in arms, Henry Allen, who is coming east on an important matter.

Mr. Allen knows the situation in Los Angeles and California very well and can give you important information. We can give Allen absolute confidence.

Hail and Victory

Hermann Schwinn

"The 'important matter' on which Allen was coming east and which he wanted to discuss with the national Nazi leader in this country, was to contact the Italian Embassy, the Hungarian Legation, James True of the James True Associates which distributes Industrial Control Reports from its headquarters in the National Press Building, Washington, D. C., George DEATHERAGE in St. Albans, W. Va. and several others.

"Allen reported regularly to Chapman, signing his letters with the code name 'Rosenthal'. We quote in part from one letter written from Washington on Jan. 24, 1938:

'"Upon calling at the Roumanian Embassy, I found the Ambassador with all his attaches are of the Carol-Tartescu regime, and they are sailing on Wednesday, Jan. 26. The new Ambassador will arrive with his staff on Saturday, I am told. The letter which you gave me I mailed to Budapest myself, not daring to entrust it to the present staff at the Embassy. At the Italian Embassy I found the Ambassador away, but I had a very delightful and satisfactory conference with Signor G. Cosmelli who is the Italian counsellor...'

"Shortly after the conference at the Italian Embassy, True and Allen had another meeting. Subsequently, True wrote to Allen and added a postscript in long hand: 'But be very careful about controlling the information and destroy this letter'.

"Allen did not destroy it immediately. The letter, dated Feb. 23, 1938, reads in part:

"'The bunch of money promised off and on for three years may come through within the next week or two. We have had so many disappointments that I hardly dare hope but there seems a fair chance of results. If it comes through we will have you back here in a hurry.

You, George, and I will get together and prepare for real action.

"'If your friends want some pea shooters, I have connections now for any quantity and at the right price. They are United States standard surplus. Let me know as soon as you can'.

"There is a Congressional Committee investigating subversive activities in the United States. It might start with Allen, True, DEATHERAGE, Schwinn, et al."

During the conversation with Major JAMES I. PRATT, he stated that at one time he had made an investigation concerning GEORGE DEATHERAGE and that he would endeavor to find his rough draft notes on it, which he had made and which were in some way responsible for the above-mentioned article.

During the course of the conversation, MAJOR PRATT called in Lieutenant Colonel JUSTUS STALNAKER, who submitted to this Agent a copy of the report he made concerning GEORGE E. DEATHRAGE, which reads as follows:

"I have the following report to make regarding George E. Deathrage, 921 Columbia Blvd., Charleston, W. Va., 'phone 32-144, who, unannounced, walked into Claude L. Smith's office shortly after the election and began talking about the national and international situation:

"1. At one time he held an important executive position with Carbide and Carbon Corporation of South Charleston, W. Va.

"2. Claims to have been in British service in near East during World War. Claims to have been in Russia. Speaks with familiarity of important persons formerly in British Intelligence Service.

"3. Is extremely hostile toward Jews. Says Jews are planning to set up Communistic State in U. S. Intimates that the President does not know what it all is about and that the President is being taken for a ride. Says Communistic Jews are planning to get control of key positions in Department of Justice and in the War and Navy Departments.

"4. Seems to know details about and connections of every prominent person mentioned.

"5. Claims that within a week or ten days he can get a report on the character, habits and connections of any important person in the Government Service.

"6. Without exactly saying so, intimates that a check is being made of Army and Navy personnel to see what reaction would be in case of Communistic war.

"7. Says nation will not wake up until it gets its toes mashed just as Russian upper classes were blind to the impending crisis before the Russian Revolution.

"8. Regularly receives "World Service", a German bulletin published in seven languages.

"9. Claims to have close personal connection with wealthy men in New York, Philadelphia, Washington, etc.

"10. Says a strong nationalistic movement should be organized in the United States and that it will take a hundred million dollars to form such an organization - make a survey of who is 'friendly', 'hostile', etc. etc.

"11. Is reported quietly to have approached several persons suggesting that they join the "Knights of the White Camelia". Paul Brothers, former commander of the American Legion Post at St. Albans, was one of these. Brothers evaded the issue.

"In the presence of Smith and myself Deathrage mentioned casually that the above organization is the 'Dramatic Front' of nationalistic movement. He remarked that Hitler's supporters in Germany 'did things' to create public sentiment.

"12. "Says that Captain John E. Kelly, President of Kanawha Chapter, ROA, is a soldier of fortune and is playing both ends against the middle. Says Captain Kelly had a part in the Irish Rebellion and in Latin America disturbances. Says that he (Deathrage) formerly furnished Captain Kelly with a lot of information regarding communistic activities, but that he has been cut off of list.

"13. Says that Joe Webb, a radical Jew, of Charleston, has a card file of every piece of property in this region giving liens, owners, etc.; and that in addition Webb has code map reference to these cards which refers to a secret record of individuals giving personal habits with special reference to 'dirt', etc.

"14. Claims O. J. Morrison of Charleston held finance the miners armed march in Southern W. Va. some years ago.

"15. Claims he knows who Key Communistic leaders are in every important town in West Virginia and that he has confidential agents placed to get inside information.

"16. Claims that 'Bill' Blizzard, of South Charleston, leader of Miners Armed March, recently received several large boxes, each requiring several men to handle and that these boxes came from Philadelphia. Claude L. Smith reports that he checked this statement and saw several presumably empty cases piled against Blizzard's garage.

"17. DEATHRAGE has recently returned from a trip to Washington, Philadelphia, and New York.

"I do not have time to make a complete investigation, but suggest a check be made to determine whether Deathrage is:

"a. Nut.
"b. Agent of some Government or organization.
"c. A legitimate operative.

SIGNED JUSTUS STALNAKER,
Lt. Colonel, Inf-Res."

STALNAKER stated that in the event the Bureau desired further information concerning this individual it could be obtained through PAUL VASSER, State Police; GEORGE COCKRON, Commerce Cafe; PAUL BROTHERS; CLAUDE L. SMITH, 605 Virginia Land Bank Building, all Charleston, West Virginia.

Due to the fact that it is quite possible that the Bureau has extensive files on both DEATHERAGE and KOSITSIN, no further investigation is being conducted at this point until instructions are received from the Bureau as to whether or not they desire FRANKLIN developed as an informant for subversive activities, especially for DEATHERAGE and KOSITSIN; and whether or not they wish additional investigation made in connection with the above-mentioned individuals who might have valuable information concerning DEATHERAGE and KOSITSIN.

UNDEVELOPED LEADS

THE HUNTINGTON FIELD DIVISION

After receiving instructions from the Bureau will contact CONRAD H. FRANKLIN, JR. at Charleston, West Virginia, and also in the event the Bureau requests additional information, will contact the other individuals who are alleged to have information concerning Subjects DEATHERAGE and KOSITSIN at Charleston, West Virginia.

ECONOMIC ROYALISTS, ATTENTION !!

Will YOU help to drive the Communist Gang out of the White House?

¶ On the 2nd of May, Attorney Harrison F. McConnell of Washington, D. C. filed a Brief with the United States Senate setting forth the pernicious Red activities of the LaFollette Civil Liberties Committee and protesting its subpoena of the membership lists of the patriotic Silvershirt Legion of America.

¶ That Brief was a classic of legal indictment of the Administration for the sabotaging of the nation and the nation's industries. Franklin D. Roosevelt, charged Attorney McConnell, has known from the first that a program of Communistic destruction was going forward under his executiveship—and has sponsored it!

¶ Immediately the Brief was filed, the newspapers wanted copies of it. It came to the attention of other attorneys. Soon patriotic organizations were applying for copies in quantities. One of the outstanding pieces of anti-New-Deal literature of the year had been produced. Soon old-line Democrats and Republicans in the various States were wiring for prices in quantities. This Booklet—

"THE PRESIDENT KNOWS" can force Roosevelt from power!

—if at least 1,000 copies of this devastating work could be handed out for reading and loaning in every city, town, and hamlet in the United States! No President can long retain the confidence of the nation's voters after they become aware of the dastardly chicanes that are documented and presented in doughty legal form in this unique piece of literature.

¶ If just ONE corporation, business firm, or "economic royalist" in each city of each American State, due to lose their ALL if the Red policies of Roosevelt are allowed to continue, would send in an order for 1,000 copies of this work and see that they are properly distributed—to prominent citizens or employes—this Moscow directed regime of Franklin and the Frankfurters would be whipped!

¶ Will YOU do your share? Will you contribute $100 by sending your cheque to the Publishers today for 1,000 copies at the low price of 10c each, to utterly expose the crew whose existence the Dies Committee has so recently authenticated?

¶ In 1777, when the war fortunes of the American colonists were at lowest ebb, Thomas Paine wrote a monograph called The Crisis. General Washington thought so much of it that he gave orders for thousands of copies to be printed, and for its reading by every soldier engaged in fighting the American Revolution.

¶ The history of these present times may show that Attorney Harrison Fargo McConnell, by his writing of The President Knows! has right to be called the Tom Paine of this current revolution against Roosevelt's Red New-Dealism.

¶ But on the other hand, you must be the Washington who brings it to the attention of our ruined nation! 2,000,000 copies of this booklet can rid the United States of Federal Bolshevism. Be the representative in YOUR city to see to its local distribution! There is no law on the statute books that prohibits any citizen from buying and making gifts of a booklet on Americanism to his friends.

Make a $100 donation to the "Whip-Roosevelt" Campaign in such a way that the money gets results!

Mr. McConnell has been our attorney and a member of this organization for five years.

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

GEORGE DEATHERAGE, St. Albans, National Head of the Knights of the White Camellia, interviewed. DEATHERAGE advised he is an Engineer and was formerly employed as General Superintendent of the plant of the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Co., South Charleston, W.Va. at a salary of $10,000 per year; was requested to resign in 1936 because of his outspoken beliefs and expressed feelings toward the Jewish Race. DEATHERAGE claims he was born of American parents at Duluth, Minn. and attended a Minnesota Technical College, now non-existent, and later completed an Engineering Course which he took with the International Correspondence Schools. DEATHERAGE claims to believe there is a Socialist and Communist drive now underway to overthrow the U. S. Government and that this drive is controlled by members of the Jewish race. DEATHERAGE is opposed to the New Deal Administration because of its policies which he considers to be Socialistic and Communistic. DEATHERAGE advises the only reason to his knowledge, that Subject ALLEN made trip to Washington, D.C. from California in 1938 was to endeavor to secure desired legislation for Prune Growers of California. DEATHERAGE claims Militant Christian Patriots and American League of Christian Women are organizations formed by MRS. LESLIE FRY and that neither of these organizations collect dues; that both organizations are Anti-Communistic and Anti-Jewish.

DETAILS: AT ST. ALBANS, WEST VIRGINIA

MR. H. N. RIDDLEBERGER, Postmaster, St. Albans, was contacted in connection with GEORGE DEATHERAGE and advised that he has known Mr. DEATHERAGE only slightly as his contacts with him have been limited. According to Mr. RIDDLEBERGER, DEATHERAGE was formerly connected with and held a very responsible and prominent position with the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corporation of South Charleston, West Virginia, and was known to be an Engineer. Mr. RIDDLEBERGER advised Mr. DEATHERAGE lives with his brother-in-law, Mr. C. R. BARTON in a fine residential district of St. Albans known as College Hill and that he very seldomly contacts any of his neighbors or interfers with any of the townspeople in any manner or means. Mr. RIDDLEBERGER advised that a great amount of mail formerly came for DEATHERAGE, but in recent months, it has dropped off considerably, although he stated that on that morning a large mail sack of franked mail had come to Mr. DEATHERAGE from a representative, J. THORKELSON of Montana and that other times great quantities of mail had come under Government frank to DEATHERAGE from United States Senator REYNOLDS of South Carolina, and it was his opinion, although he could not back it up that this mail consisted of Congressional records or excerpts from Congressional records, or consisted of speeches made by Legislators and that it was sent to DEATHERAGE in order that he could address it to all on his mailing list and then re-mail it. However, Mr. RIDDLEBERGER advised that he could not definitely state this .

Mr. RIDDLEBERGER stated that there have been numerous people contacting him in connection with DEATHERAGE and that some individual connected with the DIES Committee had been to St. Albans and interviewed DEATHERAGE.

Mr. RIDDLEBERGER also advised that about the middle of March of this year Mr. DEATHERAGE spoke before a group of invited persons in the City Hall at which time the Mayor of St. Albans was there, the Minister of the Baptist Church and other prominent persons of the Town. At the same time there were two reporters present. He advised that DEATHERAGE, in his opinion, did not make any statements attacking the United States Government. However, he "gave the Jews hell", and stated that the Jews had caused a great deal of difficulty in European countries and would cause the same trouble in the United States if they were not removed from strategic positions. Mr. RIDDLEBERGER advised that DEATHERAGE gave those present an opportunity to ask questions and answered them as they were submitted to him.

Inasmuch as Mr. DEATHERAGE lives out of the City limits of St. Albans in a residential district, the postmaster agreed to point out his home to reporting Agent, which was done and the postmaster returned to town.

When Agent called at the home of Mr. DEATHERAGE, he found it to be a very attractive home maintained in good condition and of excellent appearance. A colored maid greeted the Reporting Agent who knocked at the door and the Agent was then taken to Mr. DEATHERAGE'S office on the second floor of his home at which time he was courteously greeted. Mr. DEATHERAGE advised that he had sometimes wondered how long it would be before a Department of Justice Agent would contact him inasmuch as he had been in contact through letters with the Department and had requested a report concerning the investigation which the F.B.I. conducted in connection with the German American Bund.

Mr. DEATHERAGE explained that he is the Head of the Organization known as the Knights of the White Camellia, and stated that this Organization was in existence prior to the Klu-Klux-Klan in the South and in fact, that nearly all men in the South subsequent to the Civil War had either belonged to the Klu-Klux-Klan or to the Knights of the White Camellia.

He stated that he was born of American parents and that his ancestors had been in this country for over a hundred years; claims that his father was born at Bowling Green, Kentucky, while his mother was born at Ceredo, West Virginia and that she was a member of a prominent West Virginia Hatfield Family. He claimed that his father had been connected with The American Car and Foundry as foreman in a Forge Shop located at Huntington, West Virginia about fifty years ago and that when this firm enlarged and opened a branch at Duluth, Minnesota, his father was transferred to that branch, and that he was born at Duluth, Minnesota and attended a Minnesota Technical College at Duluth, which is now non-existent, and later finished an Engineering Course with the International Correspondence Schools. He advised that one time he had been General Foreman of the Duluty, Minnesota Steel Company, which position he left in 1916. He advised that he then worked one year for the MCKENZIE Railroads in Canada and was subsequently "loaned" to the India Iron and Steel Company with Offices in London, England; that he went to London and worked for this firm until after the War and in connection with this he traveled quite widely in Europe. He advised the reason that he severed his connections with this Firm was to return to America inasmuch as his mother was very ill at the time.

Mr. DEATHERAGE stated that for five and one-half years he was General Superintendent of the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corporation, South Charleston, West Virginia, and at the time he severed his connections with this Corporation in 1936 he was earning $10,000. a year, but that the President of the Firm whom he referred to as Mr. JIM LAFFERTY, had come to him and told him that information had reached the officials of the Firm concerning statements which he had made and expressions of feelings which he made toward the Jewish Race and that he was given the opportunity to remain with the Firm and discontinue his writings, his talks and to cover up his feelings against the Jews. At which time he stated that he considered this an infringement upon his rights inasmuch as he felt that he should be able to do as he wished after working hours and therefore severed his connections with this Corporation.

Subsequent to this he went to work for the California Chemicals Company at Palo Alto, California and this firm was interested in an experiment dealing with the extraction of magnesium oxide from sea water. According to Mr. DEATHERAGE, he severed his connections with the California Chemicals Company due to the fact that his work in connection with the Knights of the White Camellia became so large that he could not take care of it and his Engineering work and he preferred to remain as head of the Knights of the White Camellia.

Mr. DEATHERAGE is a man approximately 6' 2" tall, about 50 years' old, weighing approximately 210 pounds. He is well poised, self-confident and apparently very well redd. His office was maintained in good order and he appeared to have quite a library; in fact, he boasted of his fine library.

Mr. DEATHERAGE claimed that he knew very little concerning MRS. LESLIE FRY with the exception that he thought she had entered the United States through Canada under an assumed name, but stated that he considers her to be one of the cleverest women of the country and stated that investigation would show that she collaborated with Lady QUEENSBOROUGH, who was formerly EDITH STARR MILLER of Washington, D. C., on a book entitled "OCCULT THEOCRASY"; that this book had been printed in France. He advised that MRS. FRY had also written a book entitled "WATERS FLOWING EASTWARD" which had been published in London.

He stated that the two organizations known as the Militant Christian Patriots and the American League of Christian Women were two organizations which had been started by MRS. FRY; that the American League of Christian Women was really a Woman's Auxiliary to the Militant Christian Patriots. According to Mr. DEATHERAGE, there are no dues in connection with either of these organizations; membership is entirely voluntary and both of these organizations are Anti-Communist and Anti-Jewish in aptitude.

Mr. DEATHERAGE was questioned concerning Subject ALLEN's trip from California to Washington, D. C. in 1938 and claimed that the only reason why ALLEN had made this trip so far as he knew, was in an effort to secure legislation to benefit the prune growers of California and stated that the reason he knew this was that he had been requested by a group of prune growers from California to go and present this legislation to the California Representatives and Senators. DEATHERAGE claims that he corresponded with these growers of California and informed them that such a trip would be futile and the money would be expended with negative results inasmuch as they did not have their plan well organized and workable. However, he advised he did go to Washington without achieving any results. He stated that ALLEN then made a trip to Washington and stopped to see him at St. Albans, at which time his plan was not well formulated, his information was not well in hand and that ALLEN could not expect to have been successful. Mr. DEATHERAGE blamed the entire prune situation in California on the Jewish race. He also advised that the character of the Knights of the White Camellia is Anti-Communistic and Anti-Jewish and supplied Agent with two pamphlets which set forth the background, principles, and other information concerning this Organization. One of these pamphlets is being forwarded to the Bureau with copies of this report and the other is being forwarded to the Office of Origin.

Mr. DEATHERAGE advised that he is opposed to the New Deal Administration inasmuch as he considers it to be Socialistic and Communistic in plan and to be controlled by Jews. He also advised that he feels that he feels there is a socialist and communistic drive to overthrow the real American Government. Mr. DEATHERAGE is very much opposed to the Jewish Race and to members of that race as Jews, stating that while there are individual Jews who are good citizens, that as a race, they are undesirable in his opinion. He expounded at great length on his idea that the Jew is a Jew first and owes his allegiance to the Jewish religion first; that this allegiance will come before any Country or any other organization. He stated that when HITLER first began to gain power in Germany, that it was not Anti-Semitic, but the Jews had come into Germany, purchased the land for pittances and had made it impossible for the German Citizens to obtain positions and that out of this evolved HITLER'S Anti-Semitic feelings.

He further advised that the Anti-Jewish feeling in the United States today is five times more powerful than that feeling was in Germany at the time HITLER took control and that in his opinion, the American Citizens, once aroused, will handle the Jewish question in a manner much more forceful than has this question been handled in Germany and that the people now criticising HITLER'S treatment of the Jews will treat them in the same manner in this Country.

Mr. DEATHERAGE referred to Assistant Director HAROLD NATHAN of the FBI and pointed him out as being an example of a Jewish individual high in the Government Service. At this point, Agent asked DEATHERAGE if he had ever met Mr. NATHAN, or if he had ever had any contact with him or any dealings with him and the reporting Agent was informed that DEATHERAGE had not, but that he could not trust him because he doesn't trust any Jew. He further stated that he would give Agent two charts, one showing the different positions of the Jewish Citizens in the United States Government and the other, a chart showing how various organizations interlocked and overlapped, but that he felt these charts would not reach the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Agent informed him that if the charts were given to the reporting Agent that they would be sent to the Bureau and would be directed to the Attention of the Director Mr. HOOVER. Mr. DEATHERAGE gave these charts and they are being sent under separate cover.

DEATHERAGE advised that he had been interviewed by a METCALF who is connected with the DIES Committee, but he was unable to recall METCALF'S given name or intials and stated METCALF has misquoted and misinterpreted him and smeared him in an article which appeared in KEN and that as a result of this article and as a result of remarks which had been incorporated in the Congressional Records concerning him, he had on ten different occasions offered to appear before the DIES committee and that these offers have not been accepted and recently his communications have not been acknowledged. He advised his offers to appear before this committee still stood and therefore he felt that if the Committee wanted the real information, all they had to do was to subpoena him.

Mr. DEATHERAGE referred to such individuals as the retired General VAN HORNE MOSLEY and Father COUGHLIN of Radio fame, as people who are also allying with the growing feeling against the Jews. He advised that General VAN HORNE MOSLEY brought the Jewish question out into the open when he appeared before the National Defense Committee in Philadelphia in March 28, 1939.

Mr. DEATHERAGE advised that he had sent two charts similar to those which are being forwarded to the Bureau under seprate cover to Mr. JIM TRUE of Washington, D.C. with a request that these be delivered to Mr. RHEA WHITLEY of the Dies Committee, and expressed great admiration for Mr. WHITLEY, stating that had R. S. COPELAND, the late U. S. Senator, lived, that he would have the position which Mr. WHITLEY now has as the late Senator COPELAND had discussed this matter with him.

Mr. DEATHERAGE used vehement language in referring to Jews and their activities and referred to the B'nai B'rith as a Secret Intelligence Service for the Jews and stated that when Representative DICKSTEIN of New York was connected with the DIES Committee that all information which the DIES Committee collected was in the hands of the B'nai B'rith within twenty four hours.

He derided the fact that a man by the name of LOCKNER, initials also unknown, a Jew, is the head of the Americanization Committee of the American Legion and stated that at the present time Mr. LOUIS B. MAYER of Hollywood, California is entertaining one ERNST TOLLER who was the head of the Central Committee of the Proletariot Revolution of the Munich Area in Hungary. He stated that the only reason he could figure out for TOLLER'S having come to Los Angeles was to prepare films which would be Communistic in nature. He also stated that one GRAPEJUICE SEGAR often referred to as BUDDIE SEGAR, is living with one SAM UNTERMEYER in New York. Mr. DEATHERAGE advised that he expected fine results from the DIES COMMITTEE now since they have obtained a real investigator to head the Committee, referring to Mr. RHEA WHITLEY.

Dear Sir;

This organization wishes to protest the pro-Communist attitude you are taking on foreign affairs, and altho we realize that such a protest will go unheeded, we register it in any case.

A member told me the other day that there were two men that were not going to this war that is being cooked up for the Jews-"My boy and Key Pittman". You can understand from this just how violent the feeling is.

You are dealing with a dangerous mess. If you win you may get away with it, but if you lose; I would take the first boat for Palestine.

#245238
ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
DATE 4/12/85 BY SP8BJ/CLS

The Knights of the White Camellia organization is presently headed by George Deatherage. Deatherage lives with his brother-in-law, C. R. Barton, in the residential district of St. Albans, West Virginia, known as College Hill. Deatherage maintains his office on the second floor of this home. He was born of American parents and the claim is made that his ancestors have been in this country for more than one hundred years; that his father was born at Bowling Green, Kentucky, while his mother was born at Ceredo, West Virginia. The father of Deatherage was connected with The American Car and Foundry as a foreman in the Forge Shop, located at Huntington, West Virginia, about fifty years ago. When the firm was enlarged the father of Deatherage was sent to Duluth, Minnesota, where Deatherage himself was born. Deatherage attended the Minnesota Technical College at Duluth, which school is now out of existence. He later finished an engineering course with the International Correspondence Schools. At one time he was general foreman of the Duluth, Minnesota, Steel Company, which position he gave up in 1916. He worked for one year for the McKenzie Railroads in Canada and was subsequently "loaned" to the India Iron and Steel Company with offices in London, England. Thereupon Deatherage went to London where he worked for this firm until after the termination of the World War. In connection with his duties with this firm in London, he travelled extensively in Europe.

For five and a half years Deatherage was General Superintendent of the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corporation, South Charleston, West Virginia. In 1936 he severed his connections with this Corporation, at which time he was making a salary of $10,000 per year. The reason for the severance of his employment was the fact that officials of the firm received notice of Deatherage's statements with reference to the Jewish race. The firm officials gave him the opportunity of discontinuing his writings or the retention of his position. Deatherage chose to continue his anti-Semitic undertakings and was, therefore, released from the firm's employment.

Subsequent to his release from the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals firm Deatherage obtained employment with the California Chemicals Company at Palo Alto, California. This firm was interested in an experiment dealing with the extraction of magnesium oxide from sea water.

Deatherage severed his connections with this firm allegedly because his activities on behalf of the Knights of the White Camellia became so extensive that he could not give his attentions to both undertakings and preferred the latter.

As of 1939 Deatherage is described as follows:

Height	6' 2"
Age	about 50 years
Weight	210 pounds.

He is well poised, self-confident and apparently very well read. He has explained that the character of the Knights of the White Camellia is anti-Communist and anti-Jewish. Deatherage is opposed to the New Deal Administration, inasmuch as he considers it Socialistic and Communistic in objective and controlled by the Jews. It is Deatherage's belief that there is a Communist drive to overthrow the American Government. He is opposed to the Jewish race and to members of that race, stating that while there are individual Jews who are good citizens, as a race they are undesirable. It is Deatherage's belief that such individuals as the Retired General Van Horn Moseley and Father Coughlin are allying themselves with the growing feeling against the Jews.

It has been impossible to locate a criminal record for Deatherage.

Henry D. Allen, who is associated with numerous anti-Semitic and so-called vigilante organizations in the United States and who is well acquainted with Deatherage, has declared that Deatherage is definitely militaristic in his views, being anxious to organize a strong military unit which can be brought into action in the time of a national crisis. He informed further that Deatherage uses the swastika as his emblem.

The Knights of the White Camellia were established in 1863, (the National Headquarters being presently located at Post Office Box 467, St. Albans, West Virginia.) With reference to the origin of the organization it has been learned that immediately following the Civil War the Knights of the White Camellia was formed for the purpose of re-establishing the supremacy of the white minority in the South. Its numerical strength was reported to exceed two million members and was regarded as the largest and most militant organization during the time immediately subsequent to the Civil War. The objects of the organization having been accomplished subsequent to the Civil War, the organization itself was temporarily disbanded. It has, however, been reorganized and revitalized. Its membership is secret. Its immediate object and purpose is anti-Semitism and anti-Communism as an organization. It denies that it is in any way endeavoring to promote or invite religious prejudice. It is claimed that:

> "Judaism, the so called religion of the Jew is not a religion in the Christian understanding. It is a political faith whose sole purpose is the destruction of Christianity and the complete domination of the world by Jews.
> .....the Knights of the White Camellia wish to guarantee to all, the right to worship the God of his own choice.
> However, the Knights of the White Camellia are dedicated to the proposition that this nation shall be ruled by White Aryan Christian stock who are the numerical majority. And that we shall use the rights and privileges guaranteed us under the Constitution and the Bills of Rights in the traditional American manner to enforce that right."
> Membership in the Knights of the White Camellia
> "is limited to males of white Aryan racial stock who are citizens of the United States and who are firm believers in the Christian principals upon which this nation was founded.
> Each member is required to take an oath that is in keeping with these principals and to be prepared to defend them to their last drop of blood. We have no room for cowards.
> No individual holding political office or standing for election as such, shall hold membership in the organization."

The program of the Knights of the White Camellia provides for the following "Fundamental Principles":

> "It is clear that the major political parties have failed and are unable to do anything for the constructive welfare of our prople, having bowed to the power of the purse as wielded by the international Jew.

It is clear that there must be a realignment of political forces within the nation and a purge of selfishness and greed resulting in a spiritual rebirth. That we must revert to the fundamental principles of The Constitution and the Bills of Rights in order to build within their corporate framework a system of political and economic Nationalism as was originally intended.

1 Members re-assert their belief in individual and national honor as the only basis on which a happy, free and unified people may reach our ideals of personal security, welfare, freedom, and peace.

2 Members maintain that this nation consists of a unified group of Aryan peoples, settled in the land of their fathers, having a common racial and cultural growth, and they reassert their belief in the principle of a Militant Nationalism to preserve this heritage.

3 Members stand always for individual and national liberty, and repudiate any suppression or interference with the freedom of conscience or worship, provided always that the practical application of this freedom does not tend to destroy the Christian national philosophy of life and public order.

'WE SET FORTH THE FOLLOWING FURTHER AIMS AND IDEALS:'

4 The blending and fusing of the peoples, now within our borders, into a national unity of Christian manhood and womanhood devoted to the ideals of honor and decency in all their relations with each other, and with mutual respect for the others rights and privileges. Immigration to be stopped.

5 The awakening of National pride into a spirit of sound American Nationalism both economic and cultural; the stimulation of Comradship and Co-Operation; the abolishment of class strife and hatred; all opposed to the existing Jewish Internationalism.

6 The implanting in the minds of the people of strong spirit of self reliance and independence; the educating of the people to return again to the responsibilities of their citizenship.

7 The upholding of Christian civilization and the protection of Christianity against the attacks of Jewish Communism.

8 The establishing of the United States of America on a firm basis of righteousness; the elimination of crime, oppression, corruption, and injustice; and the application of practical Christianity throughout the public and private life of the nation. That the common action of both Protestant and Catholic, as well as other Christian creeds shall be devoted to this end.

9 The membership condemns the existing party system of professional parliamentarianism of machine politicians, as being corrupt and controlled entirely by the international bankers through party conventions. The membership pledges itself to revise this existing system and to re-place it with a purified and effective system of true Republican government which shall conform to the requirement of our revitalized National character in line with the true intent of the Constitution.

10 Self preservation insists that we accept the distinction and classification of races as a principle of national and world order and as a basis for world peace. We therefore aim at racial purity, White supremacy, and a Christian guardianship over racial groups that cannot be assimilated.

With respect to the Indians, the organization adopts the aim of giving them full rights and privileges accorded any other citizen.

With respect to the Negros, the aim is the uplifting, development, segregation, and government in accordance with their own racial character and traditions.

With respect to the Jews, we maintain that they are not those that can be assimilated so as to form a cultural and racial unity with the American nation, and must therefore remain an un-national and anti-national element. Regarded from a National view point, they are not a producing, self supporting group, but one which lives and flourishes on labor, production, means of livlihood and rights of workingmen of all nations; thus they are a dangerous and injurious element. We favor the stoppage of immigration and their deportation to a land of their own, in accordance with our present policy with other Asiatics.

11 The membership acknowledges the family as the foundation and first principle of our social order and national welfare.

12 It is recognized that the economic policy of the nation is controlled by a clique of international bankers of whom the Jews are in a majority. That we pledge ourselves to the elimination of this control in our national economic affairs which will release the people from economic bondage, eliminate unemployment, poverty and distress. We demand an honest money system.

13 The organization stands for an agricultural policy based on the development and protection of farms, the farmer and farming communities, with private ownership and legislation to prevent alienation of the land the subdivision of farm properties.

14 The membership acknowledges that in this day and age, social and economic policy cannot be separated, but are parts of the whole National structure on which the welfare of the people depends, and the following program is to be enacted.

A Protection of all workers against the power of Jewish State Capitalism.

B The establishing and promotion of public group corporations, each consisting of persons who make their living from a given industry and trade, who shall elect their representatives to the Senate and Congress, each endowed with authority, subject to the checks and balances of our Constitutional government, to control all matters affecting conditions of work in that industry or trade.

C Opportunity for every citizen to work at a wage, that will insure a decent American living, with the requirement that each shall exercise his capacities of work to the best of his ability and strength, in order to maintain his family and serve the nation of which he is a part.

D Hours of work to be shortened in line with the advances made in the installation of labor saving machinery, and wages to be correspondently increased to meet the needs of the worker.

E Minimum wage laws to be enforced to eliminate sweat shop conditions; Unemployment insurance for all workers and Old Age pensions to be enacted which shall guarantee each deserving citizen incapable of support thru his own reasonable efforts, or those in his immediate family; a definite security at the age of sixty. This not as charity but as a right of citizenship."

The skeleton organization of the Knights of the White Camellia provides that a Castle or Post be created in every community within the nation, comprising not more than ten members. Each Castle or Post has a Commander selected by secret ballot, who in turn elects both State and National officers. It is pointed out that in an organization of this type it is not possible for any one member to betray other than his own immediate group.

A fee of $2.00 is required to accompany each application for membership. Dues of $1.00 per quarter are required; one-half of which is retained by the local Castle and the balance remitted to the National Headquarters. There are no uniforms or regalia charges.

The Knights of the White Camellia are reported to be a non-profit organization, incorporated under the laws of the State of West Virginia and that all remittances are accepted only as unconditional voluntary contributions. The Knights of the White Camellia publish Vigilante Bulletins periodically, together with other literature.

It is claimed that the Knights of the White Camellia devote themselves to the education and organization of the mass of Americans who believe in the above principles.

The Knights of the White Camellia claim that the plan of the New Deal is Communist; that while Roosevelt is an acknowledged humanitarian he is misguided by such men as Felix Frankfurter. The organization cautions against going the way of Russia, France and Spain. It alleges that the press of America is controlled by the Jews, making the distribution of the truth impossible. It claims that the religion of the Jews is based upon the Talmud,

"which is really not a religion, for it is a religion of hate and vengeance, of viciousness and hypocracy, of the lusts of the flesh and the lust for gold and power — cruel power over every Gentile in the world."

The group argues that Communism is of Jewish origin and that "Communist" and "Jew" carry the same meaning.

The Knights of the White Camellia rely upon the alleged utterances of Benjamin Franklin, George Washington, Abraham Lincoln and General Ulysses S. Grant in their railings against the Jews and bemoan the fact that Jews are not workers, but money-lenders, living from the toil of the Gentiles. The Knights borrow liberally from the alleged diary of Charles Pinckney of the proceedings of the Constitutional Convention which formed the United States and in which Benjamin Franklin is alleged to have prophesied that, unless "Jews were excluded from the country within two hundred years our descendents will be working in the fields to furnish them substance."

The Knights refer also to an alleged order of General Grant disseminated as General Order No. L2, issued at Oxford, Mississippi, December 17, 1862, ordering all Jews to leave the areas of operations of the Union armies for having violated regulations of the Treasury Department and the further denial of trade permits to the Jews. The Knights hold that Communism was first brought into the world by Karl Marx, a Jew; that the Russian or Bolshevik revolution was financed by Jewish bankers in New York City and carried out by Lenin and Trotsky, both Jews.

The Knights of the White Camellia publicize themselves as offering a "militant opportunity to ARYAN AMERICANS." The program of the Knights of the White Camellia is given as follows:

> "Jewish communism is insidiously endeavoring to undermine and destroy the Christian American principles upon which this nation was founded.
> Let it be understood that The Knights of the White Camellia are, in no way, endeavoring to promote or incite religious prejudice. The international Jew has hidden behind the cry of 'religious prejudice' down through the ages, ever since they crucified Christ.
> Let it be understood that International Zionism, the so-called religion of the Jew, is not a religion in the Christian understanding. It is a political faith, whose sole purpose is the destruction of Christianity and the complete domination of the world by Jews, as they now dominate and own Russia, France, Spain and Mexico.

Let it be understood that The Knights of the White Camellia wish to guarantee to all, the rights to worship the God of his own choice, without governmental dictation, such as is the rule now in Russia.

Let it be understood that The Knights of the White Camellia favor the right of all, Christian and Jew, white and colored, to the pursuit of life, liberty and happiness, each in his own place and without interfering with any other.

The Knights of the White Camellia insist that, because of our numerical strength in this country, the nation be ruled entirely by whites.

The Knights of the White Camellia rule on membership is that each one MUST be a white Aryan born in this country and a firm believer in the Christian principles upon which this nation was founded.

The Knights of the White Camellia are dedicated to wiping out in this country all subversive movements to pledge themselves to be prepared to defend Christian principles and teachings.

The Knights of the White Camellia are asked to take an oath that is in keeping with ALL Christian faiths and the Constitution whereby all members pledge themselves to be prepared to defend Christianity and the Constitution to their last drop of blood.

IF you are an Aryan, born of WHITE parents in this country, you are eligible for membership in The Knights of the White Camellia and should join at once with hundreds of thousands of other Christian Americans in preparing to defend your nation, your church, your home and your womenfolk from the present imminent threat of ruin from Jewish communism."

The publication entitled "The White Knight" is the official organ of the Knights of the White Camellia. "The White Knight" is published at Charleston, West Virginia, on occasions by The Knight

Organization Associates, Incorporated. It is non-sectarian, non-partisan, and militantly constitutional American. Its editor on one occasion was Ronald B. Beall, while on another occasion its editor was Howard J. Carson. It appears that the first issue of "The White Knight" was that which appeared on August 15, 1936, and which was styled "The Jew Deal Issue." It was published under the authority of "The Knights of the White Camellia, Copyrighted 1936 by Knights Organization Associates, Inc." The only other issue of "The White Knight" known to have been published is that dated September, 1936, styled "The Christian American Issue," which deals to a large extent with the allegation that the Russian or Bolshevik Revolution was financed by international Jewry.

In publishing the issue of "The White Knight" for August 15, 1936, the publishers acknowledged their appreciation for the services of Elizabeth Dilling, James True, Michael Ahearne and Robert Edward Edmondson. Elizabeth is the author of two books entitled "The Red Network" and "The Roosevelt Red Record and Its Background." James True is the head of the James True Associates, an anti-Semitic and anti-Communist organization located in Washington, D. C. He is the publisher of Industrial Control Reports.

Michael Ahearne is co-author of "The Handout" a comprehensive survey of what the Dole really is. Edmondson is a reported publicist, and economist, publishing a weekly service "replete with condensed fact about the Communistic JEW."

"The Jew Deal Issue" of "The White Knight" is devoted to an expose of the leading Jewish officials in the United States Government. Those listed as being Jews and high officials are the following:

Bernard M. Baruch
Cordell Hull
Felix Frankfurter
C. E. Wyzanski, Jr.

"The White Knight" for September 1936 declared:

"Again we make clear the point that we are NOT against all Jews but only Communistic Jews and their sympathizers. Those that are daily giving them aid and comfort."

"I believe in the United States of America as a Government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the governed: Democracy in a Republic: a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it, to support its constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies."

Information has been received that the Knights of the White Camellia movement is confined almost exclusively to the State of West Virginia and perhaps a small part of Southern Ohio. It is reported that one symbol of membership is the placing of a Waltham watch sticker on store windows and in windows of automobiles. The other and principal symbol is the White Camellia. The organization centers itself entirely around the person of George Deatherage. Information confidentially obtained is to the effect that Deatherage claims a membership of approximately 10,000 persons. This statement, however, is without verification. Deatherage is reported to lean toward the Hitler type of dictatorship. It has been reported that Deatherage makes occasional trips to Mexico via California. Deatherage has been known on occasions to attend what are termed "Council Meetings" in Washington, D. C. of Silvershirt representatives. It is claimed that Deatherage is a member of the inner circle of all Fascist groups in America. He has no visible means of support. Deatherage explained to an informant that the Knights of the White Camellia were originally the select group within the Ku Klux Klan. It is said that Deatherage maintains approximately six rifles and three revolvers in his home. The members of the Knights of the White Camellia reportedly receive no military training. Deatherage is said to distribute the literature of William Dudley Pelley and James True. It is now reported that Deatherage has no regular publication. He maintains no printing presses and whatever printing is done is hired. It is said that the publication, "The White Knight" is now suspended.

Deatherage is also the head of an organization known as the American Nationalist Confederation, a coalition of Christian anti-Communist organizations. It is understood that this body was formed in August, 1937, at Kansas City, Missouri, by representatives of the various patriotic organizations who believe an amalgamation of such patriotic groups to be essential. At this meeting George Deatherage was appointed the leader of the body. From a confidential source it is reported that the purpose of this new organization was not the obtaining of new members, but the amalgamation of various patriotic societies, having common aims and common purposes. It has been confidentially learned that this organization has not had a great measure of success.

In September 1937 the letterhead of the American Nationalist Confederation disclosed that it had offices in Boston, New York, Washington, D. C., Chicago, Houston, Miami, Savannah, Los Angeles and San Francisco. One address given was Box 430, Glendale, California, with Miss Frances Maxey as Secretary.

On occasions the American Nationalist Confederation publishes "The News Bulletin." In its own language in its publication of March 12, 1938, "The News Bulletin" is described as:

> "An independent periodical, printing 'The News Behind the News,' upholding the principles of Americanism and the republican form of government--as opposed to the subversive forces of internationalism (already dominating press and communications) now attempting to control the federal government."

The same publication points out that it is published weekly by the American Nationalist Confederation at St. Albans, West Virginia, Post Office Box 467, subscription rate $2.50 for six months.

The American Nationalist Confederation, which will be referred to hereinafter as the Confederation, proposes that the only workable answer to all present problems is the

> "return of America to Americans through a re-awakened Nationalism, and the construction of the State, wherein Capital, Labor and the Consumer are represented for nation-wide service."

It is further proposed that:

> "The present control of the Federal Government, press, radio, movies, and business in general must be taken from the hands of International Jews."

The suggestion is made that the remedy must be drastic and complete but purely American in its character and that a re-awakened Nationalism is the only reply.

The organization suggests that there is sufficient wealth within the nation to guarantee every worker a minimum annual income of not less than $100 a month; that there is sufficient wealth within the nation to take decent care of those workers physically unable to work. It is stated that:

> "The American Nationalist Confederation has set these essential matters as their goal. The platform is constructed to give America back to its own people, and to see that each worker is placed above want."

In carrying out these aims it is stated that the American people

> "must believe and they must be willing to sacrifice in giving obedience and service to that leadership."

The organization further states:

> "America for Americans must be the slogan on which the battle is fought. Control of International Jewry must be forever destroyed, and the present corrupt political system on which it feeds must be destroyed also..... The time has come to act, on a comprehensive militant plan, involving not only political action but that of protecting your home and family from those that would take it from you - through bribery and deceit."

The Confederation is in agreement with the Mexican Nationalists, also known as the Gold Shirts, who are led by Pablo L. Delgado.

The Confederation also disseminates some propaganda with reference to the National Socialist Party of Germany. The Confederation declared that many untruths have been spread in America relative to the aims and ideals of the Socialist Party in Germany, for which reason it was considered pertinent to reprint the program presented by Adolf Hitler and published by the Party in Munchen, February 24, 1920. It is pointed out that the text of this program is constructed to combat the Jewish-led New Deal in Germany. In presenting the entire program the Confederation inquires "Might the same program fit the United States?"

The Confederation recommends that "patriots should back the Silvershirts." It is recommended that persons subscribe to the weekly publication "LIBERATION," published by the Pelley Publishers.

The Confederation likewise recommends the reading of the publications of Robert Edward Edmondson. It is also recommended by the Confederation that persons read "The World Hoax" by E. Elmhurst, which reportedly shows the tie-up between Communism and World Jewry. The Confederation further suggests the following reading material:

"America, Awake!" by O. Brumback.

"Salute the Jew!" by William Hamilton.
"The City of the Red Plague," by G. Popov.
"The Red Network," by Elizabeth Dilling.
"Thus Religion Grows," by Morris Goldstein.
"The Jew and the World Ferment," by B. Mathews.
"The Waters Flowing Eastward," by L. Fry.
"All These Things (Unseen Forces That Rule the World)," by A. N. Field.

The Confederation recommends the following organizations from which literature can be secured:

G. B. Winrod, P. O. Box 836, Wichita, Kansas.
Industrial Control Reports, 209 Kellogg Building, Washington, D. C.
Christian Free Press, P. O. Box 430, Glendale, California.
The Pelley Publishers, P. O. Box 1776, Asheville, North Carolina.
Americans Incorporated, P. O. Box 1043, Portland, Oregon.
P. O. Box 1824, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

It is understood that the American Nationalist Confederation "News Bulletin" commenced publication on or about January, 1938, and that in a period of about two months it had built up a considerable circulation. It was found that bundles of "The News Bulletin" were being sent to China, Canada, Germany and England.

Deatherage in the conduct of his two undertakings, the Knights of the White Camellia and the American Nationalist Confederation, is assisted by one V. M. Kositsin, who is reportedly a Russian.

It has been disclosed that George Deatherage has connections with the German-American Bund, the Silvershirts, the Britons (an organization in England headed by Henry Hamilton Beamish), American Liberty Party (headed by Frank Clark of Tacoma, Washington, a disgruntled Silvershirt), Militant Christian Patriots, American League for Christian Women, James True Associates and the Mexican Nationalist movement or Gold Shirts.

The nature of Deatherage's undertakings are perhaps best illustrated by the type of literature which he furnished to an informant. The literature is listed herewith as follows:

ANTI-RED REVEALS LIAISON WITH ROME

Deatherage Tells Dies Group of World Drive—Predicts 'Wave of Suicides' Here

By HAROLD B. HINTON
Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—An international anti-Communist organization, with headquarters in Rome, under the direction of a man named Colsocchi, is maintaining liaison with a number of American organizations, the House Committee on Un-American Activities heard today from George Edward Deatherage, national commander of the Knights of the White Camellia. His organization is one, he told the committee, that keeps up a liaison.

The international headquarters in Rome is a new venture, he testified, and is intended to coordinate and make easier the voluntary and informal contacts among individuals and organizations all over the world. It is designed to parallel and checkmate the Communist International Organization, Mr. Deatherage said.

In that part of his testimony, although without tracing any connection, Mr. Deatherage predicted that this country would soon see a wave of suicides "such as we saw after Germany occupied the Sudetenland and Czecho-Slovakia." He added that "one more defacing of a Catholic Church in New York will mean 750,000 Irishmen on the rampage."

Asked by Representative Voorhis of California if he thought this wave of suicides would be a good thing, the witness thought for an appreciable interval and replied:

"That's a difficult question to answer."

A few minutes later he reverted to this topic.

"In spite of what 10,000 Dies committees can do, you are going to have civil disorder," he declared. "Any expedient is justified if it's peaceful. The time is over for taking pills. We must have a surgical operation."

Military "Rule" Suggested

The last reference was to a plan suggested by James E. Campbell of Owensboro, Ky., to substitute military courts for the Federal Government and the State governments until such time as the people of the country should have reestablished their ability to govern themselves.

Mr. Deatherage is also sponsor of a plan to set up a fascist form of government under the leadership of Major Gen. George Van Horn Moseley, retired. He said that he had discussed the situation of the nation with General Moseley in Atlanta on two occasions, once for three days and again over a period of three weeks.

He explained that General Moseley, although he had talked with him a number of times, had never indicated his willingness to accept the leadership of such a movement. General Moseley is expected to testify later this week.

After an initial belligerence, Mr. Deatherage turned out to be a willing and informative witness. When Chairman Dies asked him to take the oath he demanded in a loud voice:

"Is that a Christian oath?"

Mr. Dies, considerably taken aback, said that he would administer the oath in the form usually employed by Congressional committees.

"I want your assurance it's a Christian oath," the witness insisted.

The chairman said he could give no further assurances and asked if he objected to testifying under oath. Then Mr. Deatherage took the oath and remained standing, apparently to address the committee. Mr. Dies instructed him to answer responsively the questions that would be put to him and to volunteer no information.

"We'll see about that," the witness shouted and Mr. Dies interrupted him with an order to be seated.

"You come over here and make me sit down," Mr. Deatherage replied. At the chairman's instructions, two police officers forced him into the witness chair and the questioning by Rhea Whitley, counsel for the committee, began.

After his nervousness wore off, Mr. Deatherage interrupted the flow of the hearing only once. He remonstrated that some man among the spectators was sneering at him and everything he said. Mr. Dies called for order and told the spectators they must observe decorous and courteous behavior or he would have the committee room cleared.

Asked about the history of the Knights of the White Camellia, Mr. Deatherage said that it had been organized in 1867 by former officers in the Confederate forces. It was allied with the Ku Klux and took orders from General Bedford Forrest, he said.

The reconstitution of the Ku Klux Klan in 1915 had nothing to do with his present organization, he explained. He and four or five other descendants of original members of the knights got a charter in West Virginia in 1935 and incorporated the organization, with headquarters at Mr. Deatherage's home in St. Albans, W. Va. His oath of office, he explained, forbade his naming any of its members, telling how many chapters of the organization, how many members, or any details of that kind. The committee did not press the point.

Mr. Deatherage described how he had come to know and to work with Mr. Campbell. Mr. Campbell disseminated reports of a "conspiracy" for a Communist uprising, said to be hatching in the Harmonie Club in New York. These reports were based on information allegedly supplied to Dudley P. Gilbert of New York by a George Rice, who represented himself as a waiter in the Harmonie Club.

Mr. Deatherage did not take Mr. Campbell's reports very seriously, he told the committee, when General Moseley on the occasion of one of their Atlanta conferences showed him thirty-five or forty of them. He said General Moseley apparently placed no credence in them. Committee officials have said that they were of such an inflammatory nature as to make it inadvisable for the public to know of them.

However, Mr. Deatherage said, he accepted Mr. Campbell as a sincere fellow worker in what one of their letters called "our common cause." Asked what this was, the witness said it was "fighting this world-wide drive—and especially in the United States—of Jewish communism."

The Knights of the White Camellia have "stooges" in all the Communist organizations and "many of these so-called liberal parties," Mr. Deatherage said. None of their reports corroborated the plot that Mr. Campbell was exposing. That was why Mr. Deatherage counseled General Moseley not to use any of the Campbell material unless it could be substantiated.

Mr. Whitley asked him what was meant by a reference to "our international friends" who were soon to cause trouble in one of the letters Mr. Campbell sent him. He explained that the reference meant "international Jew bankers."

He said that he had corresponded with Fritz Kuhn, leader of the German-American Bund, and had talked to him once for half an hour in the Harvard Club in New York. There had been no cooperation, however, because the Bund does not care to work with any one else.

He said that he had never had any dealings with the Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, although he thought the Detroit priest's Social Justice plan was excellent. Father Coughlin needs no help, he said, because he has 21,000,000 Catholics in the country as potential supporters.

Mr. Deatherage's candor and eagerness to testify were in marked contrast to the attitude of Felix M. McWhirter, Indianapolis banker, who was the only other witness heard today. The committee had asked Mr. McWhirter to appear because of his long acquaintance and considerable correspondence with Mr. Campbell.

Mr. McWhirter could not remember details concerning letter after letter read to him by Mr. Dies and Mr. Whitley, some of them written as recently as last month. He explained that he is a very busy man, interested in all sorts of causes in Indianapolis, and that the Campbell letters were such an unimportant part of this activity that he could not place them.

Warning on Moseley Is Quoted

In one he wrote to Mr. Campbell on April 11, he said that "from reliable information received, I understand General Moseley is being very thoroughly shadowed." Today he could not recall what information had prompted him to send Mr. Campbell this warning.

He said that he had never believed the authenticity of the supposed inflammatory reports Mr. Campbell was spreading, presumably about persons of high repute. Mr. Dies then read a letter he had written transmitting to John D. M. Hamilton, chairman of the Republican National Committee, a letter from Mr. Campbell, in which Mr. McWhirter described as a "tried and proven friend" who was in possession of "precise information" which might be of use.

Harmonie "Waiter" Called "Myth"

The management and officers of the Harmonie Club, 4 East Sixtieth Street, described as "a myth" yesterday, the waiter, "George Rice," whom Dudley P. Gilbert, wealthy New Yorker, has cited before the Dies Committee, as his informant concerning Communist plans to seize control of the government.

The management declared that for fourteen years no such person as "George Rice" had been employed as a waiter or in any other capacity. Ralph Wolf, attorney, 30 Broad Street, president of the club, also said that he could find no trace of "George Rice."

DETAILS: AT HUNTINGTON, WEST VIRGINIA

About 10:45 A. M., August 22, 1939, Mr. SLOANE called over the telephone from Charleston, West Virginia, stating that he was one of the Ticket Agents for the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Station of that City and that he just received information to the effect that Subject had made a pullman reservation for the 10:25 P. M. train and apparently intended to leave Charleston on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad train at 10:25 P. M. The reservation was Upper 5, Car 21. Mr. SLOANE stated that he had already made a reservation in the

A teletype summary of the Subject's description and a possible New York contact was furnished to the Bureau, Washington, Philadelphia and New York Field Offices by teletype on the afternoon of August 22, 1939. In this connection, it might be stated that the description of DEATHERAGE is as follows:

Name:	GEORGE DEATHERAGE
Weight:	210
Build:	Solid
Hair:	Light brown
Complexion:	Dark
Peculiarities:	Has the appearance of being a military man; smokes cigarettes incessantly, lighting one from the other; smokes a cigarette until it appears to be burning his fingers, which results in his hands being highly discolored from nicotine. When smoking his cigarette, he draws vigorously, which for most people would make the cigarette too hot to enjoy. Swears continually in his conversation.

For the information of the New York, Washington, and Philadelphia Field Offices, it should be pointed out that in letter dated July 6, 1939, the Bureau advised that the State Department had requested that a surveillance be maintained of DEATHERAGE during the course of any trip which he might make to California, Mexico, or Washington, D. C., and that appropriate arrangements should be made to maintain surveillance of Subject so that all pertinent information concerning his trip and the contacts which he makes may be obtained.

DEATHERAGE is at the head of an organization known as the KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE CAMELLIA, which is an anti-Semitic organization and anti-Communism. Its contention is that the plan of the New Deal is Communistic. DEATHERAGE himself formerly was General Superintendent of the CARBIDE AND CARBON CHEMICALS CORPORATION of South Charleston, West Virginia. In 1936 he severed his connection with this corporation at the Corporation's request and at that time was receiving a salary of $10,000 per year. He later obtained employment with the CALIFORNIA CHEMICALS COMPANY at Palo Alto, California. He is well poised, self confident, and apparently very well read.

Prior investigation of DEATHERAGE indictates that he and one V. N. KOSITSIN have a number of contacts, one of whom was apparently KARL NEUMEISTER, 1898 Daly Avenue, New York City.

A summary of the foregoing information was furnished to the Field Offices receiving copies of this report by the above mentioned telephone calls and teletype message.

Arrangements were made whereby Special Agent L. I. BOWMAN would board the above mentioned Chesapeake and Ohio train at Huntington, West Virginia, leaving Huntington at 9:25 P. M., August 22, 1939. He will occupy Upper 6 in Car 21 of this train and will maintain appropriate surveillance of Subject DEATHERAGE during the trip from Charleston to New York. This information was furnished all interested offices

Late during the afternoon of August 22, 1939, Special Agent M. M. REED called from Charleston and advised that he had been informed that DEATHERAGE purchased the ticket for New York City, the same being a round trip ticket and having a 30 day stop over privilege. Agent REED further advised that a discreet contact with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Ticket Agent at St. Albans, West Virginia, elicited the information that about three weeks ago an individual came to St. Albans and was overheard to call DEATHERAGE over the telephone and remark "This is PAUL". Agent REED advised that PAUL is described as being 32 to 35 years of age, 5' 7 to 8" tall, 170 pounds, stocky, muscular and square shouldered, apparently well educated. He had a revolver in his possession. This man was believed to have been from Pennsylvania, in view of the fact he had stickers on his luggage indicating he had attended some college in Pennsylvania. DEATHERAGE is not known to have carried any firearms.

The WASHINGTON, PHILADELPHIA, and NEW YORK OFFICES will carry out the undeveloped leads previously requested by telephone and teletype.

The HUNTINGTON FIELD DIVISION will continue to maintain appropriate contact with this case at Charleston and St. Albans, West Virginia, with a view to maintaining surveillance of the trips which DEATHERAGE takes.

name of "BLAINE", which might be used by an Agent of the Bureau if so desired, this reservation being Upper 6 in Car 21 of the Chesapeake and Ohio train leaving Charleston, West Virginia, at 10:25 P. M. on August 22, 1939.

Mr. SLOANE was asked to kindly keep in close touch with the situation and to immediately advise Special Agent M. M. REED at the Kanawha Hotel in Charleston or this office in the event there were any changes in DEATHERAGE'S plans. He stated he would do so.

The writer called Mr. AL ROSEN of the Bureau, informing him of the foregoing circumstances. Mr. ROSEN stated it appeared advisable to maintain surveillance over the trip which DEATHERAGE intended to take. It was agreed that appropriate contact would be made with the Washington, and Philadelphia, as well as the New York Offices so that DEATHERAGE'S activities could be surveilled by the Washington and Philadelphia Offices in the event he got off the train in either of those two cities.

Mr. SLOANE was also successful in contacting Agent REED in Charleston and furnished him with the same information set forth above and stated he would keep in close touch with DEATHERAGE'S movements.

About 1:30 P. M., the writer called Special Agent SPENCER J. DRAYTON at the New York Office and advised him of the foregoing and briefly informing him of the background of the case. Appropriate arrangements were made to have Agents of the New York Office meet the train upon its arrival in New York City. In this connection, it might be stated that it was previously ascertained that the Chesapeake and Ohio train which leaves Charleston, West Virginia, at 10:25 P. M., arrives in Washington, D. C. at 8:20 A. M. the following morning, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, at 11:14 A. M., and at New York City at 12:55 P. M., the following Noon.

About 1:40 P. M., similar arrangements were made telephonically with the Washington Field Office, Special Agent CHARLES BOLAND of that office being advised of the plans and the necessity for Agents of that office to contact the train as it passed through Washington, and to conduct a surveillance over DEATHERAGE in the event he got off the train in that City.

At about 1:47 P. M., the writer advised Special Agent in Charge, H. B. FLETCHER, of the Philadelphia Office of the foregoing and made arrangements for Agents of that office to contact the train as it passed through Philadelphia.

The title of this case is marked changed to include the initial "R" in subject's name, as, "GEORGE R. DEATHERAGE."

DETAILS:

This investigation is predicated on a telephone call received from SAC J.W. Warnes of the Huntington, West Virginia, office, who advised the New York office on August 22, 1939, that GEORGE DEATHERAGE was arriving in New York City on August 23rd at 12:55 P.M. Eastern Standard Time, at which time he was being surveilled by Agent L.I. Bowman.

Agent L.I. Bowman on arrival in New York City dictated the following memorandum regarding GEORGE DEATHERAGE, only the pertinent parts of which are being noted:

That in Washington, D.C. Deatherage contacted two individuals at the Union Station. Regarding these two individuals the reference letter from the Washington field to the Huntington office dated August 24, 1939, sets out the details.

Agent Bowman in his memorandum set out that Deatherage is an associate of KARL NEUMEISTER, 1898 Daley Avenue, Bronx, and that he is also associated with one V.N. KOSITSIN, apparently of Russian origin, who is known to have visited Deatherage in St. Albans, West Virginia, on a number of occasions. Deatherage is also associated with one HARRY D. ALLEN who testified on August 23, 1939, before the Dies Investigating Committee. Agent Bowman also advised that Deatherage is interested in the American Nationalist Confederation and that the secretary of this organization is Francis Maxey, Box 430, Glendale, California, and that in this connection the American Nationalist Confederation is very favorably disposed towards the following organizations:

German American Bund
Silver Shirts
American Liberty Party, headed by Frank Clark, of Tacoma, Wash., a disgruntled former member of the Silver Shirts.
The Militant Christian Patriots.
American League for Christian Women.
Gold Shirts.
James True Associates.

Agent Bowman noted that DEATHERAGE makes frequent trips to Washington, D.C., Mexico, and other points on the west coast where he is further engaged in his present activities. Agent Bowman requested that copies of the picture of Deatherage be furnished to the Huntington office.

The following surveillance was conducted by Special Agents L.H. Barnard, J.C. Holmes and J.M. McGrath.

On August 23, 1939 Special Agents J.M. McGrath and L.H. Barnard boarded Pennsylvania Train #126 at Newark, N.J. on which train DEATHERAGE was traveling, and at which time he was being surveilled by Agent L.I. Bowman. The surveillance was taken up at Pennsylvania Station where it was observed that Deatherage took a cab, New York License #020521, for the Commodore Hotel. At this point HOLMES participated in the surveillance. Deatherage registered at the Commodore Hotel, and was assigned Room 485. At 4:10 P.M. DEATHERAGE emerged from the elevator and went to the Liggetts' Drug Store, unaccompanied, the store being on the northwest corner of 42nd Street and Lexington Avenue, where he had a sandwich. He then stopped at the haberdasher's located in the Commodore Hotel Building and returned to his room in the Commodore Hotel.

At approximately 4:30 P.M. on August 23, 1939, Special Agent J.M. McGrath overheard the following conversation through the transom of Room 485. It had been ascertained from the hotel that the person in the room with DEATHERAGE was DR. W. SOHIER BRYANT, of New York City. An inquiry was made by Bryant if MISS FRY is 100% "down our alley". DEATHERAGE stated he thought she was O.K. but that he (Deatherage) did not have $100 for a trip to the coast.

The conversation overheard at the transom was necessarily interrupted several times when people were going through the corridor and it is being noted that it was at times incoherent. At another time DEATHERAGE stated that CONRAD KAPLAN put up the money in connection with some activity performed by Deatherage for him and that subsequently Kaplan told Deatherage that inasmuch as Kaplan paid the money it was necessary for Deatherage to make known all his contacts and to furnish complete details.

The conversation returned to MISS FRY with a statement that she "stopped the paper" and that she had disappeared, having left the country.

Miss FRY "double-crossed" HORACE BRASIL (phonetic) at which point there was a discussion of London, England, and in this conversation Miss Fry failed to turn $200 over.

DEATHERAGE asked Dr. BRYANT if there were any signs of more money coming "as now is the time to get on the band wagon and get it". Bryant advised that the money was in New York. Dr. Bryant asked Deatherage what the situation was "across the pond" stating that "they must be desperate and that this situation across the pond will scare them to death."

DEATHERAGE stated that an FBI man was down to see him about "her" and it was believed he was referring to Miss Fry stating "but I told him nothing." Deatherage stated that she did a lot of good work and that she came in and out on a passport.

Deatherage stated that the "gentleman here in New York is getting very hot". Dr. Bryant stated that the majority of the people here in New York are under the influence of Jews and they work for Jews because they are unable to get other employment.

Deatherage stated that he was asked to speak on Gentile Day at Chicago, Illinois, but that he did not do so.

Deatherage stated that JIM TRUE and his wife spent the week-end here.

He further stated that he was straightening out the Pittsburgh situation, and regarding some matter, which was not understood, he advised that the situation was in the hands of the Archbishop.

He stated that a man who used to work for the FBI, who can't leave liquor alone, and who is a rabble arouser" and has a wife and child, was involved in some subversive activity. Deatherage asked, "have the people in New York got money?"

The following was overheard at the transom by Special Agent J.C. Holmes at 5:40 P.M. and around 6:00 P.M. on August 23, 1939.

DR. BRYANT asked DEATHERAGE "how long will you be here" to which Deatherage replied, "I really don't know - haven't any business being here at all. You know I had to pay my own expenses up here." In this connection it was noted that at the speech which Deatherage made at the mass meeting later in the evening he explained in his introductory remarks that when JOSEPH McWILLIAMS, head of the CHRISTIAN MOBILIZERS, telephoned him by long distance to West Virginia to invite him to speak at this meeting he told him that he would be given an "honorarium". Deatherage then explained to the audience that he was accepting nothing from the organization, indicating that he was paying his own expenses or that they were being paid by the organization of which he was the head. A few minutes later DEATHERAGE was heard to remark to Dr. Bryant "Maybe you better go down there and give them a damn good rabble rousing speech." A few minutes following this conversation Dr. Bryant and Deatherage were heard to discuss FATHER COUGHLIN. Deatherage told Dr. Bryant that "they" were having a big meeting in Cincinnati and that the papers were full of it out there." He said that it was a Non-Sectarian meeting and that they were "raising hell".

MR. P. CARNEY, Assistant Manager of the Commodore Hotel, was contacted by Special Agent J.M. McGrath and he checked all the rooms on the fourth floor and advised that the only one available was Room 471 which was diagonally across the hall from Room 485. Subsequently, on the following day, Room 487 was obtained by agents. At the time of this original interview with Mr. Carney, arrangements were made to have all telephone calls incoming and outgoing from Deatherage's room routed into the room in which agents were present.

At 6:15 P.M. on August 23, 1939, a telephone call from JOE McWILLIAMS, Commander of the CHRISTIAN MOBILIZERS, to DEATHERAGE, was overheard at which time McWilliams advised Deatherage that he would pick him up at 7:15 P.M. and go down to the Park and that "by that time the band will be there and things will be moving."

At 6:25 P.M. another incoming telephone conversation was overheard from a Mrs. YAEGER (phonetic) at which time Deatherage informed her that "the doctor" was the only one he had talked to and that he was going to speak that evening. Mrs. Yaeger advised Deatherage that she could throw a lot of light on the subject and an appointment was made for her to interview Deatherage at his room, Room 485, at 10 AM on the following day, August 24, 1939. She gave Deatherage her telephone number as SACRAMENTO 2-7[illegible]4. It was ascertained that this number was listed to MRS. [illegible] YAEGER, 339 East 87th Street, New York City.

At 6:40 P.M. Deatherage left his hotel room and walked to the Grand Central Concourse Liquor Store where he purchased a half-pint bottle of Bourbon Whiskey. From the liquor store he proceeded to a nearby news stand where he purchased a newspaper and returned to his room in the Commodore Hotel.

At 7:40 P.M. on August 25, 1939, Deatherage was observed by agents in the lobby of the Commodore Hotel at which time he was met by JOSEPH E. McWILLIAMS and another party who escorted him to a Dodge sedan bearing New York license plate #NY 2 V 40-03 at which time surveillance was taken and these individuals proceeded to Innisfail Park, West 240th Street, Bronx, N.Y. This park is located in the north Bronx very close to the Hudson River.

At that place a mass meeting was being held sponsored by the CHRISTIAN MOBILIZERS. The attendance at this meeting was estimated by agents as five thousand, although McWilliams stated the attendance was fifteen thousand.

Upon arriving at the park, DEATHERAGE entered with McWilliams and met a group of about ten individuals, a few of whom Deatherage appeared to know. McWilliams introduced DEATHERAGE to the remainder of the group and the subject stood around with this crowd talking for about ten minutes after which he and FRITZ KUHN walked away from the group and were seated at a table in an outdoor beer parlor located in the Park. Deatherage and Kuhn engaged in what appeared to be a very animated discussion for about twenty minutes, immediately preceding the opening of the mass meeting ceremony.

The Master of Ceremonies at this meeting was MR. STEWART of the CHRISTIAN MOBILIZERS, and the first speaker was a MR. DOWNEY of the Christian Mobilizers. The third speaker was CAPTAIN COLLINS, Commander of the Protestant War Veterans. FRITZ KUHN was the next speaker, at which time he said that he was "shoulder to shoulder" with the Christian Mobilizers. McWILLIAMS spoke next, and condemned vituperatively the Roosevelts and the LaGuardias at which time he put on a very entertaining demonstration of hand waving which culminated in his personal appearance becoming quite ruffled, with his hair rumpled.

Deatherage made the principal speech at this meeting. Preceding the meeting the band appeared, bearing banners indicating it was the "Mount Carmel Battalion, Father Duffy's Cadets". This band accompanied a juvenile unit attired in naval uniforms and carrying rifles. This was, apparently, a school organization, the officers being adults and attired in uniforms similar to the uniforms of officers of the United States Navy. These officers carried side arms.

There were also present in the march which preceded the speech about sixty members of the GERMAN AMERICAN BUND attired in gray shirts, black ties, and dark trousers, with no headgear. They were not carrying any arms. A group of civilians followed the uniformed Bund men and it was believed that they were also Bund members.

It was also noted that commands were given in German and that the military drill executed by this organization was the "square drill" typical of Continental armies and not the "close order drill" familiar to military organizations of the United States.

Another unit in military formation was observed consisting of two platoons of 26 men each who were wearing dark trousers and white shirts with a blue arm band bearing the letters "CM" indicating CHRISTIAN MOBILIZERS. This unit was also unarmed and for the most part was composed of young men not over twenty-five years of age.

The stage setting for the speakers had as a background a large blue flag, having in the centre, a red ball upon which is superimposed a white cross. This red ball is surrounded by forty eight white stars. Outstanding in McWilliams' remark was his introduction to this new flag of the "Christian Mobilizers" at which time he stated they were showing the flag for the first time and requested that the audience take a good look at the flag because it would soon fly over places of power in Washington. This remark was greeted with cheers and the extending of the Nazi salute. The particular panel in question was about sixty feet high and there were on each side of it two smaller panels of approximately thirty feet high. Each panel was about ten feet wide.

A resume of the speech made by Deatherage indicated that he was appealing to youth and advised all uninformed people to believe in their leaders "if you don't know yourselves" inferring that the people should follow McWilliams.

A resume of Deatherage's speech runs along this line:

DEATHERAGE discussed the trampling and strangling of enemies, the hanging of officials from telegraph poles and the furthering of what was described as a revolution already in effect in the United States brought about by international Jewish bankers. At one point in the speech Deatherage pointed out suddenly a man who was taking notes, stating that "they are taking down everything I say" and continued with "let them take it down".

DEATHERAGE advised that the government is afraid to say anything about FATHER COUGHLIN and that the Dies Committee has failed to subpoena him (Father Coughlin) to testify before their hearings because he is too powerful a vote getter.

In his address he discussed counter-revolutionary tactics.

He also inferred in connection with Soviet-German non-aggression pact that there was a great rebuilding of the Christian faith inside Russia, and told the audience who had earlier booed Communism that they should contain themselves until they obtain the real facts on the Soviet German pact. He advised the people that anything that was confusing in their minds was brought about by Jewish intrigue.

He then proceeded to tell about the big surprise move indicating that the revolution is about to start and that the Communists are planning on attacking New York based on a drastic plan to paralyze governmental services. He stated as follows:

"Trotsky says a revolution must be so sudden that nobody understands it. It is coming. It is here now. You are now under the direct control of Jewish Communism."

Deatherage stated that the Jews were using laborers, college professors, professional writers, reporters and others to make slaves of the working class in this country and advised that at this time they control the administration in Washington. He stated thatthe plans of the Communists to take the United States will be predicated on the plan used in Madrid but that it will be worked out in more detail in the United States and he gave a description of just how it would be done, how utilities would be shut off, tunnels blown up and finally the way supplies would be shut off. He advised that the Communists would proceed along the streets, in automobiles, with guns and that when they saw police officers they would take "pot shots" at them and continue.

Referring to officials in Washington, he classified them as a "gang of intellectual prostitutes."

McWILLIAMS stated in his talk that in the event of war, England and France would get hell kicked out of them, to which the German Bund members present cheered.

Deatherage also stated that EARL BROWDER had observers at this meeting and he stated that the DIES COMMITTEE had purposely failed to call Browder before the Committee, inferring that certain interests in the U.S. Government are Communistic.

A copy of the newspaper article appearing in the New York Post, dated Thursday, August 24, 1939, setting out the details of this meeting, is being enclosed for the information of the Bureau. The articles did not appear in other newspapers in New York City.

The general theme of all the speeches at this meeting as well as the purposes of the organizations whose representatives spoke, was entirely Anti-Semitic.

All the addresses of the evening were of inflammatory nature, designed to bring ridicule upon the President of the United States and the Mayor of New York. McWilliams was particularly vitriolic in his remarks against the President, referring to the Administration as "Roosevelt's Jew Deal" and asserting that the present government is a Leftist government which has "sold out" to the Jews and Communists and is dominated by international bankers. Particularly inflammatory remarks were greeted by cheers and by numerous individuals in the audience arising and giving the Nazi outstretched hand salute. At many times the audience was worked up to a high pitch of excitement many of whom exclaimed "hang the Jews" and "shoot them".

There was no violence at the Innisfail Stadium and it is being noted that it was policed by seventy five officers of the New York Police Department. Literature was obtained, which is being forwarded to the Bureau. During the course of the meeting numerous circulars and pamphlets were distributed asd are being set out in this report.

It is being noted that the various organizations represented by the speakers on this program were evidently acting concertedly in an Anti-Semitic movement and throughout the meeting reference was made to "Buy Christian" and that there was a heavy preponderance of BUND members present.

On August 24th 1939 at 10 A.M. at the Commodore Hotel, New York City, agents had obtained Room 487 adjoining DEATHERAGE'S room from which place the surveillance was continued.

At 10 A.M. DEATHERAGE called a MR. FERGUSON of Ferguson Company on the telephone. From the conversation it appeared that these two men were old friends. Deatherage stated he was in town for a day or two and just called to say hello to Ferguson who asked him to go to lunch but Deatherage declined indicating he had numerous appointments. Ferguson inquired whether Deatherage was doing any building and Deatherage replied "not at the present time". Ferguson asked Deatherage's opinion as to what effect the German-Russian non-aggression pact would have on the Japanese and Deatherage stated he thought the Japs would remain in line. The conversation terminated with Ferguson indicating that he would look Deatherage up the next time he was in Charleston, West Virginia.

Immediately after this conversation MRS. P. YAEGER, 339 East 87th Street, New York City, arrived at Deatherage's room to keep her appointment. Contact microphone surveillance of this conversation was conducted but due to the extreme German accent with which she (Mrs. Yaeger) spoke and the low tones in which the conversation was conducted only fragments of the conversation could be heard. It was no longer practicable to overhear conversations through the transom of Deatherage's door at Room 485 because he had closed the transom. This conversation dealt principally with Jew hating and the possibility of a European war. During the conversation, Deatherage was heard to ask "in case of war, wherewill you go?" to which the woman replied, "to the Embassy" indicating that this woman is an alien. At another time Deatherage was heard to inquire, "and they are to antagonize every other nation?" to which the woman replied, "yes". More definite identification of the subject matter could not be ascertained.

At 10:40 A.M. on August 24th a Mr. JUPRE (phonetic) called, giving his phone number as CANAL 6-2835 and advised that he would call before 5 P.M. It was learned that CANAL 6-2835 is listed to the PERFECT STAPLE COMPANY, John R. Oliver & Son, Printing, 45 Lispenard Street, New York City.

During the conversation with MRS. YAEGER Deatherage informed her that he had a manuscript showing the Communist plan for the capture of the city of New York and notes accompanying it, showing how the plan compares with the capture of Madrid by the Communist forces when they first gained power in Spain. Deatherage explained to her that the matter in his possession goes into counter-revolutionary tactics and is indexed. In reply to comments by the woman, which could not be overheard, Deatherage was heard to state, "That man GRAY ought to be checked up as to who he represents".

At one time the woman was heard to ask, "Who is Stewart?" and after some pause, Deatherage replied, "Well, he is doing some investigative work here."

During this conversation the woman was heard to give Deatherage an address of "Box 69, Station G". It is not known whether or not she indicated that this was her address.

Deatherage left the hotel at noon to keep a luncheon appointment with FRITZ KUHN and the woman was observed to go to #41 West 42nd Street.

She left the elevator in this building on the seventeenth floor and it was not seen what office she entered, however, it was noted that the AMERICAN CHRISTIAN ALLIANCE and the PROTESTANT ACTION were listed on the building directory as being located in Room 1712 and it is believed she entered this office. After remaining in the building for about an hour this woman proceeded on foot to the MURRAY HILL HOSPITAL at 30 East 40th Street where she picked up a mesh bag containing market packages from the desk where she had apparently left the bag and proceeded by bus and on foot to 215 East 76th Street, an address in the Yorkville section of New York City where she held a short conversation with the occupant of Apartment 1-A. The listing on the apartment directory indicates that this apartment is occupied by a party named FREYTAG. MRS. YAEGER then proceeded to 339 East 87th Street on foot, making several purchases of foodstuff on the way and produced a key from a handbag and entered this address which is a private residence and bears the name "P. YAEGER" on the mail box. Thereupon the surveillance of Mrs. Yaeger was discontinued.

At 1:03 P.M. McWILLIAMS phoned and was advised by the switchboard operator that DEATHERAGE was not in. He left word that he would call later. At 2:50 P.M. Deatherage returned to his room. At 2:55 P.M. an individual phoned Deatherage, identifying himself as a MR. MORGAN stating that he was calling for Mr. McWilliams and requesting that Mr. Deatherage dine with Mr. McWilliams at the Commodore Hotel at 6:55 P.M. The invitation was accepted.

At 3:20 P.M. an individual giving his name as FISH or FISKE called and Deatherage stated that he recognized his voice. Fish stated that he desired to confer with Deatherage and was advised to come right up. He arrived at the hotel at 3:45 P.M. at which time a lengthy conversation of Jew hating and attacks on the present administration followed. Fish warned Deatherage that the German military display of the previous evening would not be met with approval by loyal americans. In response to this criticism by Fish DEATHERAGE passed it off as follows, "It was as natural for a German to join a military organization as it was for a nigger to dance when he heard a jazz band."

At5:50 P.M. McWILLIAMS called from the lobby and was advised to come up to the room. At 5:55 P.M. Fish departed, and McWILLIAMS and DEATHERAGE engaged in a Jew-hating and political discussion during which time McWilliams was heard to state, "I tell you Fish is the man in New York who has the dough". The conversation between these two created the impression that although Jew-hating was a common attribute they were merely interested in conducting their respective organizations in such a manner as to derive the highest possible revenue. Considerable discussion was also given over to how many votes the Christian Mobilizers could turn in for the Republican candidate when nominated. Nothing in this conversation indicated that this group had been fostered by the Republican party but it was quite apparent that the organization had adopted the Republican Party and intends to use that organization as a stepping stone for complete political domination of the United States after which political ambition is achieved the Jews are to be disposed of in true Nazi fashion.

At 6:35 P.M. an individualcalling himself "BEN" called from the TRIBORO PALACE and stated that they needed a speaker to address a meeting at Hosey Street Park.

DEATHERAGE advised BEN to ask "JOHN" if he wanted to go and speak, and if that could not be arranged, to get JOHN ALLEVIO, BURKE, CANAN, OR BROWNIE. Deatherage informed "BEN" it would be impossible for him to address the meeting personally as he intended to speak at a meeting at the Triboro Palace that evening.

At 7:00 P.M. August 24, 1939, an individual called for Deatherage but upon being told by the operator that Deatherage was not in his room, left a message that KARL had called. It is possible that the KARL referred to in this surveillance is identical with KARL NEUMEISTER who has an address at 1898 Daley Avenue, Bronx, New York, but it is being noted that Special Agent George J. Starr of the New York office advises that KARL NEUMEISTER with whom he is familiar does not have a marked German accent.

At 7:00 P.M. August 24, 1939, agents observed McWILLIAMS and DEATHERAGE leave the Commodore Hotel at which time they proceeded to Stouffer's Restaurant, 100 East 42nd Street, New York City.

At this time agents, being of the opinion that Deatherage would keep a speaking engagement at the TRIBORO PALACE, 3rd Avenue, Bronx, N.Y., Agents L.H. Barnard and J.M. McGrath proceeded to this meeting and Agent J.C. Holmes maintained surveillance of the sound equipment at the Commodore Hotel, New York City.

At approximately 7:55 P.M. Deatherage and McWilliams left Stouffer's Restaurant, and parted company at the entrance to the Commodore Hotel. Deatherage then proceeded alone to Room 485 where he was immediately advised by the hotel operator that a Mr. KARL was waiting in the lobby. At Deatherage's instructions, Mr. Karl was advised to come up to Room 485 which he did immediately and from this time until 11:00 P.M. Deatherage and Mr. Karl engaged in a conversation, the general theme of which was ways and means of finding a common interest which would enable them to bind the various organizations with which they were associated together. The individual named KARL spoke with such a marked German accent and in such low tones that very little of his conversation could be overheard, but from the remarks which Deatherage made it was obvious that the idea agreed upon between them was that the best method to arouse the groups with which they dealt was to appeal to their prejudice against Jews. Deatherage spoke to Karl concerning McWilliams and expressed very great admiration for that young man and the way in which he was aiding the Christian Mobilizers. He told Karl that he intended to do everything in his power to help McWilliams in his fight for the "Christians."

Mr. KARL left DEATHERAGE'S room at approximately 11:00 P.M. and a telephone call was received by Deatherage at 11:10 P.M. A woman was speaking but her name was not obtained. She advised Deatherage that her husband had missed Deatherage'sspeech on the previous evening much to his regret and that he wished to make an appointment to see Deatherage on the following day. Deatherage told her that he wished very much to see her husband and that he would arrange a meeting with him around noon on the following day.

On the evening of August 24, 1939, Special Agents BARNARD and McGRATH proceeded to the TRIBORO PALACE located on 3rd Avenue, Bronx, N.Y. where a Christian Mobilizer meeting was on the program. The Master of Ceremonies was Mr. STEWART who advised in his opening talk that he was a war veteran, and that he had been misled into participation in the recent world war because the war had been engineered by Jewish international bankers and that in the event of a new war he would not participate and that he could be located in the event of war in a concentration camp. Stewart advised that he was formerly a Christian "front" man but because this organization was disputing too much he took up with the militant fighting Christian Mobilizers organization.

The next speaker on the program was a Mr. HARPER who is a very dynamic speaker and the gist of his talk was to "buy Christian".

The next speaker on the program was WILLIAM BISHOP BAILEY, National Historian of the Protestant War Veterans and an organizer of the SILVER SHIRTS who also has, from information obtained, some connection with the Silver Shirts.

BAILEY stated that the FBI was conducting an investigation of Un-Americanism and that he had recently been contacted by an FBI man by the name of GEORGE STARR and that he showed Starr his birth certificate indicating that he was born in England and his Naturalization papers and he told Starr that he had served in the U.S. Army during the war and that he asked Starr to show him a better record for Americanism. He advised that Starr stayed and interviewed him for two and one-half hours and that at this time he advised Starr that if he stayed long enough he would convert him.

The main speaker at this meeting was JOSEPH McWILLIAMS who went on in a violent tirade against the Jewish people. He was very patronizing in his talk to Catholics, and referred in very hushed tones, to priests and the Sunday service of Catholics, for which he received considerable applause.

McWILLIAMS also discussed the collection of money with which to finance the CHRISTIAN MOBILIZERS and advised that the meeting on the preceding evening at Innisfail Park had cost approximately $600.00. He displayed to the audience the flag of the Christian Mobilizers, which is similar to the banner that was used at the meeting the previous night.

McWILLIAMS then went on to discuss DEATHERAGE as one of the greatest men in the United States fighting for the place of Christians in the United States. He stated that at the moment DEATHERAGE was conductingsome business with a bunch of wealthy men who were going to give him money with which to fight for Christianity.

He pointed with considerable pride to the fact that during the time that DEATHERAGE was in London, England, he was closely associated with an unnamed individual who had fought side by side with ADOLPH HITLER at the Munich Beer Hall Putsch, indicating that the organization greatly favored the political activities of ADOLPH HITLER and was striving to emulate them. At this point McWILLIAMS paid great homage to Major General GEORGE VAN HORN MOSELEY, U.S.A., Retired, stating that he was possibly the most outstanding possibility as the next President of the United States and one which the Christian Mobilizers and all of their affiliated sides could support without hesitation and further advised that General Moseley would give a speech at Innisfail Park on September 6, 1939 at which time he wished to have everyone present.

This particular meeting at the TRIBORO PALACE was under police surveillance there being approximately twelve police officers present. The attendance was very small, not more than 150 being present, largely due to the fact that it was raining at the time of the meeting.

Agents observed, during the intermission that there were two plainclothes detectives in attendance at the meeting in addition to the uniformed men who gave the appearance of acting as observers for city officials. There were several squad cars outside of the building.

On the morning of August 25, 1939 DEATHERAGE had his breakfast at the Liggett Drug Store at the corner of Lexington Avenue and East 42nd Street and returned to his hotel room.

At 9:45 A.M. DEATHERAGE telephonically contacted Father PETER DUFFY at the Franciscan Monastery and arranged an immediate appointment in order that he might talk with Father Duffy and stated he would proceed by taxicab. Deatherage left the Commodore Hotel at 9:50 A.M. and proceeded by taxicab to 133-35 West 31st Street, at which address the FRANCISCAN MONASTERY is located. He entered the building at this address and Deatherage had approximately an hour and one-half interview with Father Peter Duffy and was observed as he departed, at which time he had lunch at Liggett's Drug Store at the northeast corner of 6th Avenue and West 31st Street. He was then observed to take a taxicab and proceed north to 112 West 72nd Street, New York City, which is the HARGRAVE HOTEL, arriving there at approximately 12:30 P.M. August 25, 1939.

At approximately 3:00 P.M. this subject was seen to emerge from the Hargrave Hotel and proceed on foot to West 72nd Street and Broadway at which point he got the subway train and returned to the Commodore Hotel.

DEATHERAGE then packed his bag and made all arrangements for checking out of the hotel, and while he was out of his room at 4:20 P.M. a woman called who did not identify herself, asked for Deatherage and when she was told by the operator that he did not answer stated that she thought he would call her. At 4:45 P.M. while Deatherage was in the lobby of the hotel, McWILLIAMS called and left the message that he would call in half an hour. However, he did not later call. At 6:00 P.M. Deatherage had checked out of the hotel a woman called for him but left no message when she was told that he had checked out. The telephone surveillance was then discontinued.

At the hotel it was ascertained that DEATHERAGE made the following telephone calls -

CALEDONIA 5-0480 which is listed to
DR. W. SOHIER BRYANT
30 East 40th Street,

BUTTERFIELD 8-8347	which is listed to the GERMAN AMERICAN BUSINESS LEAGUE 178 East 85th Street New York City.
CANAL 6-2835	which is listed to PERFECT STAPLE COMPANY, John R. Oliver & Son, Printing, 45 Lispenard Street, New York City.
BOWLING GREEN 9-7257	which is listed to TEXTILE REMNANT COMPANY, #2 Stone Street, New York City.
PENNSYLVANIA 6-0895	which is listed to ROSAL SILK MILLS, 147 West 29th Street, New York City.

At approximately 4:45 P.M. on August 25, 1939 DEATHERAGE was observed by agents in the lobby of the COMMODORE HOTEL standing in front of the Transportation Office, at which time he was observed fumbling through his pockets and checking his wallet at which time he appeared disturbed. He then returned to his room and immediately left the hotel at which time he proceeded to 30 East 42nd Street, New York City, and returned with a gentleman to the hotel. After paying his bill at the hotel, Deatherage and this individual took a New Haven railroad train to Rye, New York, where they were kept under surveillance by Agents BARNARD and McGRATH.

On arrival at Rye, New York, DEATHERAGE and this individual were met by an individual driving a Cord automobile, Illinois license plates #777442, and departed from the station. Agents were unable to obtain any means of transportation with which to pursue the surveillance and the surveillance was lost.

A check at Rye, New York, resulted in the location of this automobile parked in front of the home of H.E. THOMPSON on Griswold Road which estate is within the confines of the WESTCHESTER COUNTRY CLUB property. There was also observed in front of this house a Chrysler Cabriolet car bearing license plates 7 V 7881, New York 1939 and a car bearing New York license plates 3 G 1533. It is being noted that the car was located in front of THOMPSON'S residence Saturday night. A surveillance was planned and considerable difficulty was encountered inasmuch as the Westchester Country Club has private booths at the street entrances to the confines of the Westchester Country Club property with officers observing all suspicious individuals and stopping all people who core within the confines of the Country Club property. Surveillance was also maintained at the Rye station of the New Haven Railroad and also at the Pennsylvania station in New York City and a stop was placed on the Lost Ticket Department of the Pennsylvania Railroad it having earlier been ascertained at the Commodore Hotel that DEATHERAGE had reported the loss of his return ticket to Charleston, West Virginia from New York.

A check was also placed on all Pullman reservations on the Pennsylvania Railroad. It was not possible to place a surveillance on the residence of H.E. THOMPSON on Griswold Road in Westchester Country Club property because of private police officers and Harrison, N.Y. Police Department officers cruising the roads. This surveillance was maintained at all points until Sunday night at 6:30 P.M. Eastern Standard Time at which time a phone call was made to MR. THOMPSON at Rye, N.Y. from the Pennsylvania Station with the view of speaking to DEATHERAGE on the telephone in connection with his lost ticket.

Mr. THOMPSON advised that DEATHERAGE had left his residence Saturday night at which time he was proceeding directly to Charleston, West Virginia and confirmed the information that he had lost his return railroad ticket.

The CHICAGO office was requested to get a listing on the Illinois automobile at which time they were given the registration number of the automobile incorrectly, however, before advice had been received from the Chicago office it had been ascertained that this automobile was the property of [redacted], a brother of H.E. THOMPSON who is visiting at Mr. H.E. Thompson's residence.

An inquiry was made of MR. JOHN FINLEY, the manager of the WESTCHESTER COUNTRY CLUB who advised that H.E. THOMPSON is connected with the Carbide and Carbon Corporation, Chemicals, 30 East 42nd Street, New York City.

MR. FINLEY advised that the only guest that THOMPSON had at the Westchester Country Club was his brother, GLENN THOMPSON, who owns the Cord automobile with the Illinois plates.

Inquiry was made at the Commodore Hotel on ascertaining information that Deatherage had departed for Charleston, West Virginia, and it was ascertained that he had not registered on Saturday or Sunday at this hotel. A check was also made at the B & O RR for any reservation that he might have made on that train with Charleston, West Virginia connections, with negative results.

However, it is being noted that an individual could purchase a ticket at the B & O RR without furnishing his name or having previously made a reservation and it is further being noted that the B & O main terminal in New York City is across the street from the Grand Central Station where DEATHERAGE arrived from Rye, N.Y. on Saturday night.

UNITED AIR LINES.

The Bureau was advised by teletype on August 25, 1939 of the developments with regard to the investigation up to that point. Teletype was received from the Chicago office on August 26, 1939, regarding Illinois license 774442, which it is being noted, was the incorrect number on the car driven by GLENN THOMPSON. Teletype was sent to the Bureau on 8/27/39 setting forth information to the effect that GEORGE DEATHERAGE was reported as returningto Charleston, West Virgibia Saturday night to return to his home. Teletype was sent to the Huntington office on this date, requesting that they verify the arrival of GEORGE DEATHERAGE at his home in West Virginia.

The HUNTINGTON office desires copies of the picture of DEATHERAGE which was furnished to Agent J.M. McGrath at the time the surveillance was conducted by agents of the New York office.

In view of the nature of this surveillance no leads are being set out to conduct further investigation. Many of the individuals involved are well known to the Bureau and it may not be the wish of the Bureau to further investigate them.

Statement

BY

Before House of Representatives Committee on un-American Activities,

In House Caucus Room, Washington, D. C.

(At the conclusion of the statement upon motion of Congressman Dempsey, seconded by Congressman Voorhis, the Committee ordered the Statement's exclusion from the record of the proceedings.)

AT WASHINGTON, D. C.

Mr. Chairman, in complying with your instructions, I have verified all references in the statement I am about to read. Also, to save the time of the Committee, I found I could cut out a number of pages referring to matters already fully covered in my answer to the questions put to me by the Committee yesterday.

I gladly accepted your instructions to appear here without subpoena. It was impossible for me to reach Washington on the date originally set. It was necessary for me to stop over in Atlanta to rest up a little after travelling two weeks, and especially, to visit a hospital in connection with a bruised ankle — something which had occured on the trip. I read with much interest the report that this Committee had concluded to adjourn until August. It made me realize that there was nothing in my action which seemed to demand immediate investigation, from the point of view of the Committee. Apparently, the Committee felt that our Republic was safe until August, at least from being overturned or blown up by me.

FROM MY POINT OF VIEW, the two great problems which confront our republic today are: first, the battle for honorable peace and the elimination of the campaign of international hate; and, second, the battle within our gates at home to overcome those subversive influences which are definitely attempting, I believe, to destroy us or to change our form of government fundamentally. We are the oldest republic existing today in the world. We have made the world's record in the length of our existence. Has our time come now to go? I hope not. But, the handwriting on the wall is as "clear as a bell" for those who are willing to read the evidence.

An accurate portrayal of what would happen to the world in connection with Communism was written by the Netherlands Minister at Petrograd, who was then handling certain affairs for the British. This communication was received by Mr. Balfour, September 18, 1918. I quote the following from his letter:

"The danger is now so great that I feel it my duty to call the attention of the British and all other governments to the fact if an end is not put to Bolshevism in Russia at once the civilization of the whole world will be threatened. This is not an exaggeration, but a sober matter of fact; and the most unusual action of German and Austrian consuls-general, before referred to, in joining in protest of neutral legations appears to indicate that the danger is also being realised in German and Austrian quarters. I consider that the immediate suppression of Bolshevism is the greatest issue now before the world, not even excluding the war which is still raging, and unless, as above stated, Bolshevism is nipped in the bud immediately, it is bound to spread in one form or another over Europe and the whole world, as it is organised and worked by Jews who have no nationality, and whose one object is to destroy for their own ends the existing order of things. The only manner in which this danger could be averted would be collective action on the part of all powers." —("British White Paper"—Russia No. 1, 1919, Report No. 6, Page 6.)

As illustrating the tremendous power of organized Jewry, it must be noted that the "British White Paper" referred to was followed by a revised "White Paper" omitting entirely the reference to the role of Jews in Bolshevism!

The statement in the original "British White Paper" accords with what United States Ambassador to Russia, David R. Francis, wrote in January, 1918:

"The Bolshevik leaders here, most of whom are Jews and ninety per cent of whom are returned exiles, care little for Russia or any other country but are internationalists and they are trying to start a world-wide social revolution." —("Russia from the American Embassy," by David R. Francis, page 214.)

The Jewish Chronicle (London), of April 4, 1919, also carried an article in accord with both the Netherlands Minister and Ambassador Francis:

"There is much in the fact of Bolshevism itself, in the fact that so many Jews are Bolsheviks, in the fact that the ideals of Bolshevism at many points are consonant with the finest ideals of Judaism."

In September 10, 1920, issue of the American Hebrew and Jewish Messenger, the following also appears:

"What Jewish idealism and Jewish discontent have so powerfully contributed to accomplish in Russia, the same historic qualities of the Jewish mind and heart are tending to promote in other countries."—(Vol. 107 "American Hebrew," Page 507.)

The three quotations just given to you are found in the Congressional Library.

The experience of Russia, where millions of Christians were killed, stands before us. Trotzky, the Minister of War, who, himself, ordered the killing of some 3-million Christians, is now our neighbor in the so-called democracy of Mexico. Then, we have before our eyes, the case of Hungary, where Bela Kun led the murder squads. Fortunately, we see that the tide has completely turned in Hungary, where steps have been taken to prevent a recurrence. Then, we have, for our benefit, the terrible experiences of Germany, under the internationalists after the Armistice. Do you realize that Russia expected Germany to be the next State in Europe to go Communist? But, fortunately, the character of the German people was aroused, and they have thrown off the Communist yoke.

Those who stupidly accept Communism as 20th Century Americanism should read the Manifesto of the 8th convention of the Communist Party of the United States, in April, 1934, declaring:

"The revolutionary way out of the crisis begins with the fight for unemployment insurance, against wage-cuts, for wage increases, for relief to the farmers—through demonstrations, strikes, general strikes, leading up to the seizure of power, to the destruction of capitalism by a revolutionary workers' government."

If this does not awaken the American people, they would do well to read what Earl Browder declared in his book, "What is Communism?" published in 1936:

"The revolution does not simply happen; it must be made." (Page 163.) "There must be what we Communists call 'a revolutionary situation'." (Page 163.) "Thus, some form of violence is unavoidable. There is no possible choice between violence and non-violence. The only choice is between the two sides of the class struggle." (Page 169.)

If they are still unconvinced, they might turn to the September 9, 1928, issue of Pravda (Moscow official Communist organ), declaring:

"The worldwide nature of our program is not mere talk but an all-embracing and bloodsoaked reality. It cannot be otherwise. Our ultimate aim is world Communism; our fighting preparations are for world revolution, for the conquest of power on a worldwide scale, and the establishment of a world proletarian dictatorship."

At this point, I want to state most emphatically that I do not by any means endorse the proposition that all Jews are Communists, or that all Communists are Jews. In the very nature of things, no loyal Jewish American can possibly be a Communist. That outstanding Jewish American, Samuel Gompers, who was head of the American Federation of Labor, was so resolutely opposed to Communism, that he declared:

"I can think of nothing that would constitute a more needless and base betrayal of civilization than American recognition of Soviet Russia."

Individual Jews can be as good American citizens as anyone else. But, unfortunately, serious embarrassments are placed in their way by organized Jewry proclaiming that all Jews "are a distinct nationality." In his book, "The Jewish Problem—How to Solve It," by the great Jewish leader Louis D. Brandeis, it is asserted:

"Let us all recognize that we Jews are a distinct nationality of which every Jew, whatever his country, his station or shade of belief is necessarily a member." (Page 25.)

That is followed by the further assertion:

"Organize, Organize, Organize—until every Jew in America must stand up and be counted—counted with us—or prove himself wittingly or unwittingly, of the few who are against their own people." (Page 26.)

Such a condition of affairs manifestly creates divided or dual allegiance, wholly inconsistent with wholehearted loyalty to any nation, by those affiliating with such organized Jewry Brandeis' said proclamation cannot be lightly brushed aside, when it is borne in mind that, in a worldwide poll of Jewish communities in 1937, he was elected (along with Red Litvinov) to the Jewish Hall of Fame, as among the 120 Greatest Living Jews.—(1938 "World Almanac," page 413.)

Moreover, the existence of an organized World Jewry is also declared in "Fireside Discussion Group Leaflet No. VII" of the Anti-Defamation League of the Jewish B'nai B'rith:

"Approximately a race, definitely a type, and consciously a unity, we are an historic people—a world community." (Page 3.)

The same proposition is reaffirmed by Rabbi Louis T. Loeb, of Washington, D. C., who proclaimed his "creed" in favor of "Jerusalem as head capital of a United States of the World." — ("Who's Who in the Nation's Capitol, 1929-1930," pp. 447-8.)

All subversive activities are largely dependent upon false propaganda. The latest case of such propaganda is in connection with the war just closed in Spain, where our sympathies were worked upon in the interest of the so-called Loyalist government, one of the vilest governments in all history, now that the curtain has been raised and we see the complete picture. During the progress of that war, the press would not accept anything to the contrary. From coast to coast our people were fed with the most unfortunate kind of propaganda. With the war over, what are the facts? I quote the following from one of our national dailies:

"It took the last days of the Spanish war to strip the mask of democracy off the face of Communism in the so-called 'Loyalist' government.

"The cleverly named 'Loyalists' had a lot of people deceived for a long time, particularly in the United States.

"But when the last vestige of ideological camouflage and subterfuge has been removed, the fact that Communists had been running the Loyalist government of Spain stands out clearly and incontrovertibly icans who have been giving their money and lending their names and reputations to the cause of 'Loyalist' Spain, thinking they were aiding democracy, must now realize that they were misled into supporting a Communist enterprise.

"American educators and scientists and clergymen who thought they were upholding the cause of democracy must now at last understand that they have been stooges for Communism.

"These Americans have been the victims of a brazen sham and a most deliberate fraud.

"They have been in the company of the desecrators of churches and religious institutions, the despoilers of the sacred emblems and symbols of a people's faith, the mutilators and murderers of priests and nuns.

"They have given moral support and financial aid to revolution and anarchy conceived in Red Russia.

"They have abetted the spread of atheism and godlessness, by which Communism has striven to undermine civilization and to turn people from their faith in God." — (Atlanta Georgian, March 13, 1939.)

I ask you, wouldn't it have been better and fairer to our people to have given them the facts in reference to the Spanish situation from day to day? With these examples before us, wouldn't it be better for us to enlighten the American people fully and frankly in reference to the serious problems confronting us today?

When I stated yesterday that the Army is not permitted to investigate Communist activities, I was not merely surmising. The Congressional Record of Sept. 10, 1935, (Vol. 79, pp. 15270-1), published a "Naval Intelligence Memorandum" of April 1, 1935, which described itself as "a comprehensive survey of Communist activities in the United States at the present time," including "fringe revolutionists too lacking in intestinal fortitude to go all the way with Communism, but who stand by and urge the Communist to do his worst and provide him with protection, sympathy and defense while he commits the overt act they have not the courage to commit themselves."

In less than three months thereafter, the New York Times of Dec. 7, 1935, carried an article regarding this subject stating:

"Following a conference with representatives of religious organizations, President Roosevelt has instructed the Army and Navy to make no comments on any civilian organization or its policies without his specific consent, it was declared today by the National Conference of Jews and Christians."

There has never been any denial of the matter set forth in this article nor is there any evidence of any investigation of Communist activities by either the Army or the Navy since then.

Now, let us come to my letter involving Mr. Louis L. Strauss, member of Kuhn, Loeb and Company, New York bankers. Let us expose that correspondence fully and completely to the light of day. I shall be glad to leave decision in the hands of the American people. Given the facts, their reactions, I find, are fair and just. The trouble today is that too often the facts are withheld from them and tainted propaganda is given out instead. The following letter is self-explanatory. I shall read it in full:

"Major General George V. H. Moseley
Atlanta, Georgia.

"Dear General Moseley:

"Writing to you recalls to mind our service in France you at G.H.Q. and I as G-1, 79th Division and it seems good to get in touch with you again.

"General I thought that I would drop you a line to find out if you planned in the near future to be in New York or in the vicinity I would like to arrange if you would be so gracious, to meet Mr. Lewis L. Strauss who is a Member of the firm of Kuhn, Loeb and Co New York Bankers.

"I have known Mr. Strauss for some years and know many of his friends he is a most charming gentleman, of attractive personality and a real loyal American, was I think closely associated with President Roosevelt, holds a Naval Reserve Commission. Mr. Strauss stands high in the community, is President of one of the largest and most influential churches in New York, has a host of friends, General Harbord knows him well and I think you would spend a most profitable and enjoyable time with him.

"Mr. Strauss is most anxious to have a chat with you as he has been greatly distressed at quoted statements of yours in the press regarding his firm and which of course are not true as he can prove, and both he and I know that you will be most favorably convinced of the loyalty and true American spirit and actions of his firm and members thereof both in the past as well as now, and a chat of that kind would be not only fair, but I feel certain to your mutual interest. Knowing you as I do to be so fair, just, and honest I said that I bet that you would gladly meet him.

"Thanking you in advance for this courtesy and if you will let me know where and when we can meet it will be very much appreciated.

"With kindest personal regards and all good wishes, I remain,

Sincerely,
(Signed)
Walter A. DeLamater
Brigadier General, N.Y.N.G."

General Declines to Meet Strauss

And here is my answer:

"Atlanta Biltmore,
April 21, 1939.

"Brigadier General Walter
A. DeLamater,
Headquarters Eighty-seventh Brigade,
New York National Guard,
Park Avenue and Thirty-fourth Street,
New York, New York.

"My dear General:

"Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of the seventeenth instant, in reference to a meeting with Mr. Lewis L. Strauss, member of the firm, Kuhn, Loeb and Company, New York Bankers. The matter to which he refers is only a very small incident in a world-wide problem.

"In the work I am trying to do, I am only interested in one thing, and that is the future of my country. That involves material questions which should be secondary, and American manpower and breeding which are, after all, primary and all important.

"The condition of American manpower at any given moment is the barometer of our ability to go on as a Republic.

"Initially I never mentioned the word, 'Jew', in any statement, except once in New York City, (Indianapolis, Indiana) when I made an appeal to the Jews to help us lick Communism. From that moment they have attacked me at every turn in the road. In their publications they call me a Fascist, something I am not; and as far as I know, I have never seen a Fascist. I belong to no organization. The Jews have forced me to discuss the problem of the Jew in self-defense. They are doing everything in their power in an effort to intimidate me and to force me into the camp of their enemies The feeling against the Jews is growing rapidly from coast to coast. History is repeating itself, and the Jews are making the same mistake that they have always made in actually compelling history to repeat itself.

"Whether it is right or wrong, the Jews must bring themselves to the realization that the one hundred twenty millions of people composing this nation are not going to be run by Jews, in whole nor in part.

"In a few days, I am speaking in the Middle West. A letter comes this morning telling me that the Jews are moving heaven and earth to prevent it. They have done that several times before. They have gone so far as to threaten me with bodily harm. Do the Jews think that that makes for friendship towards them? In all they are doing, they are simply promoting anti-Semitism. It all goes to make us realize that many a Jew in our midst is an actual menace, a fomenter of Communism and anarchy.

"I go to New York quite often, but I do not care to meet Mr. Strauss nor any other Jew or Jews, until they put a definite stop to the action of the Jews who are attempting to curtail my freedom of action and my freedom of speech.

"My mother was an Englishwoman, but I often have occasion to criticize the British and British policy as far as America is concerned. There is no difficulty when one criticizes the British, the Irish, the Germans or the Italians; but let him mention the word, 'Jew', and immediately he is attacked. But, the fact is that the most serious problem confronting America today is just this problem of the Jew and how to get rid of his influence definitely — locally, nationally and internationally.

"The Jews may feel that they are in the ascendancy now; that they can beat the game this time. No, the American people are slow to act; it is difficult for them to sense the insincerity and dishonesty of propaganda, whether that propaganda comes from their government or from the outside. Slowly, however, they are becoming aroused to the dangers of the present situation, and when they act, they will act in no uncertain terms.

"If I were the best friend the Jews have in the world, my advice to them would be to change their plans before it is too late!

"I am enclosing a carbon of this letter so that Mr. Strauss may have it in full.

Very sincerely yours,

GEORGE VAN HORN MOSELEY."

That closed the incident as far as I was concerned. It struck me that my letter was rather a complete answer, easily understood.

My letter to General DeLamater was dated April 21, 1939, and mailed on that day, I believe. How greatly was I surprised, then, in reading in one of those highly confidential reports furnished by J. E. Campbell, and dated April 26, 1939, the following statements:

"This, Gentlemen, is the Meranus Plan. It might interest you to know that we have tried to find Moseley's price. We even tried to arrange a meeting in Sir Bill's office, but were unsuccessful. Other means will be used to render him harmless, as we cannot tolerate his actions. He is becoming a menace to us."

"In closing, he also said Carp's plans for taking over or wrecking arsenals, depots or arms factories had been so well advanced that any Franco type of Nationalist uprising in U. S. could be crushed at start, due to lack of munitions. (Carp, is Litvinoff's of Russia, brother-in-law)."

I have no objection to that statement, nor to the plan indicated to liquidate me, but the incident checks up so accurately with my letter of April 21, 1939, that I read the remainder of the report very carefully. The following was included in the same report:

"Example: Our enemy, Gen. Craig, will soon retire. If after he does, he should suddenly, due to acquiring heart trouble, or because of acute indigestion of some sort, change his address to—Arlington! We would be well rid of him. We cannot afford any more Moseleys!"

I reported this matter, confidentially, to General Craig, giving him a copy of General DeLamater's letter to me and my reply in reference to the proposed meeting with Mr. Strauss. I have since had an acknowledgement from General Craig.

From another secret report dated April 20, 1939, I take the following which will be of interest to this Committee:

" . . . I would like to announce right now, that in the face of the attack of the Dies Committee, the League for Peace and Democracy now has a membership of 4,025,920 members. The largest in its history. 2,814,372 of them are young men of military age, who will join the Peoples Army under No. 2 plan; or under No. 3 when time is right, will make possible a Soviet America. In either case, they can be counted on to purge the country of the Moseleys, the Coughlins, the Red Baiters, and all other Anti-Semites . . . "

As already stated, this Committee has heretofore found to what high places in the government, Communism has penetrated. It is interesting to note how many of these individuals, also, are members of, or connected with, organized Jewry. If this Committee is interested in determining definitely the power of the Communists, in connection with the campaign for economic planning and regimentation, locally, nationally and internationally, it should study the organizations of the various planning boards, noting down the names of the directors of each and seeing how these directorates interlock, so that the final control remains in the hands of a very few. Such a study will give quite a clear view of the problem and the difficulties involved; also, it will indicate in what organized group the power lies.

It is not generally realized how complete is the Jewish State as it is organized and operating within the United States — a nation complete within a nation. Your inquiry should include an investigation of the controlling organizations of that State. The big four are:

THE AMERICAN JEWISH COMMITTEE

THE AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS

THE B'NAI B'RITH (An international fraternal organization; membership open to both Zionist and non-Zionist Jews. This organization does much of the espionage work of the Jews in connection with the ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE)

THE JEWISH LABOR COMMITTEE

There are other powerful organizations of Jews which you will come to as you proceed Bear in mind. their nation is complete in every respect, including their own courts so prominently displayed recently in the press.

This question of Communism and national and international control will not be settled until it is thoroughly investigated at the top. We are not interested in the poor, downtrodden Communist running down the alley, but we are interested in the great power at the top, and the names of those individuals who control that power. I have had the temerity to challenge that great octopus and to expose it in an effort to protect our Republic. I wish to see control revert to an honest government and to millions of truly loyal Christian American people.

Every loyal American citizen will support all efforts of your Committee to save and preserve our great Republic by such a frank and thorough exposure of the truth about existing conditions that the people will be on the alert against both revolution and counter-revolution, either of which would jeopardize our Republic's future. Our Republic must not be permitted to be taken over by either Semitism or anti-Semitism. Discrimination or persecution against either Jews or non-Jews is contrary to fundamental Americanism, and this notwithstanding the undeniable fact that our Republic is founded upon the Christian philosophy of life, and has been, on that account, properly called a Christian nation.

Yet it is obviously absurd, and courting national disaster for us to sanction or permit dual or divided loyalties on the part of any group

Consequently, it is self-evident that those Jews who affiliate with organized World Jewry and thereby accept the status of being its nationals, as proclaimed by Brandeis, should be denied office-holding, suffrage and all other citizenship rights in the American Republic, just the same as we would deny such rights to nationals of Nazi Germany or any other nation or nationality. If American patriots are to be further harassed and persecuted as un-American, merely because of their efforts to make known to the public the real truth about the nature and character of organized World Jewry, we should hang a sign on the Statue of Liberty, saying:

"UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES WELCOMED. AMERICAN ACTIVITIES TABOOED!"

PLEA FOR UNITY

IN AN adjoining column is the exciting story of the meeting at Ebling's Casino. We wish a dozen such meetings could take place not only in Jew York City, but throughout the nation. It is the only answer to the attempts of a conniving Judaistic minority to split Christian forces and once they are split, bring into full realization the prophecy of the Protocols of the Elders of Zion.

The Protocols have already received a setback in Germany, Italy, Spain three Christian nations which nipped Communism in the bud and inspired American patriots to do the same. Tolerant, easy-going, friendly Americans can stand so much and no more. The bursting point must some day come, and unless Jewry is willing to take its place as a minority people, then it will invite historic persecution Justice where justice is due. Enpugh said.

A Christian United States can be brought about only by Unity among the various patriotic organizations. A common fight against a common enemy requires a united Christian front. There is no room for dissension. No time, no room for splits. No time for pussy-pussyfooting. No place for individual glory. This is a fight for Christianity. And what is needed is Unity: wholehearted and integrated Unity. It is the only language the enemy will understand, the only blow that will smash him between the eyes and in their pocketbook.

THE CHRISTIAN CRUSADER

The Crusader was inspired by the historic meeting at Ebling's Casino. It signified more than the joint meeting of two patriottic groups. It showed the strength which comes of unity; the courage which is born when kindred folk get together, and it foretold the eventual victory which may well be the result of united, coordinated, intelligent leadership. If America is to be restored to Christian Americans, then a united and militant front there must be. The Christian Crusader pledges itself to the nationwide realization of that Glorious and Practical Dream.

MOBILIZERS ATTEND BUND MEETING

Cooperation Pledged by Leaders at Historic Assembly Marking Spiritual Union of Christians Fighting Communism

New York- In a historic assembly at Ebling's Casino Thursday night, the Christian Mobilizers joined in a meeting held by the German American Bund. It was the first spiritual union of Christian forces of Jew York and marked a trend which may well spread to other groups. The meeting went on record as opposed violently to Communist-Judaistic domination of the country and all forms of international horsetrading. "America for the Americans" was the rallying cry of more than 2,500 men, women and children present at the thrilling patriotic rally.

Leaders of the Mobilizers and the Bund delivered inspiring addresses and pledged mutual support. "You do not stand alone," said a speaker for the Mobilizers from the American Flag draped platform. "We are now fighting with you side by side, in a common Christian front against the enemy.

Here was the answer of Christian Americans of Jew York against breaknock attempts of international Jewry to split Christian forces. Here was the answer to Hisssszzenor, the Mayor. Here was the answer to all the stinkweeds and stooges of City Hall who have been yelping "Wolf, wolf," when the record shows them to be wolves and parasites in unmistakable wolves' clothing.

FATHER COUGHLIN LAUDS NEW YORK CHRISTIAN FRONT

THE CHRISTIAN FRONT, parent organization for similar Christian groups in New York, received well deserved praise in the July 31 issue of Social Justice. Commenting on its founding, the national weekly said: "From a modest start of only 36 men banded together in Brooklyn last year for the purpose of combating Communism, the organization has penetrated all boroughs of the metropolis. Under the leadership of John Cassidy of Brooklyn (and Albert Gunnison of Manhattan - Ed.) there are now five central units operating in the metropolitan district.

It is understood that this patriotic group will hold mass meetings in September, not only in Jew York City but in other cities throughout the United States, as indicative of a United Christian Front against bolshevism and the stooges of unAmericanism.

IT IS not enough that Christian Americans must bear the cost of Jewish domination in political and economic life, it now becomes apparent that they must also pay $200,000 a year to locate the fugitive from justice, Lepke Buchalter, prize racketeer. District Attorney Dewey himself has admitted the exhorbitant cost of the search which already is in its second year !!!

Nor is that all on the Jew York crime scene. One Yasha Katzenberg, now a resident of the Federal pen, has turned squaler on Lepke to aid the FBI in their hunt for the notorious Yiddish narcotic king.

It is also noted that Dixie Davis, who used to wear $10 necktics and $24 shirts, was nabbed on multiple other charges as soon as he left jail last week. Dix was Yid lawyer for Yid beer baron, Dutch Morgesihoimer Schultz.

Nor is that all. Things have become so hot up in Saratoga Springs, stronghold of Ghetto Jews that an investigation has been ordered for "the existence of prostitution gambling and other violations of law." There must, after all, be some truth to the charge that Jews are far from being the "chosen people" and the "angels" they represent themselves. When the devil was called a devil, someone once said, he yelled "Persecution." There is something in that.

DONOVAN HALL MOVIES SUCCESSFUL

A WIDE-AWAKE group of young Christians, all members of Social Justice Distributors Club, of which Carl Pinkston is president, sponsored a highly successful patriotic motion picture show at Donovan's Hall, July 29 and 30. A packed audience was present at each of six performances. Proceeds will be used toward the preparation of similar educational films showing Christian progress against the Communist-Judaist front.

William O'Connor and Nicholas Agayoff were responsible for the film, which was accompanied with sound effects. The film will be shown in other parts of the country.

ALL-CHRISTIAN PARADE, AUGUST 19th

SATURDAY, August 19th, will mark an epochal event in the history of Jew York City when 10,000 Christian members of two dozen organizations are expected to march down Eighth Avenue and into Red Union Square. It will be a mass demonstration of united Christian strength, and will serve to answer efforts to squelch those civil liberties which are the cornerstone of the United States. A feature of the parade will be the burning, in effigy, of the vicious, un-Christian and terrorist symbol of the U.S.S.R - the hammer and sickle.

The parade is being arranged by Lawrence Gilpatrick. Watch for the details in the next issue of the Crusader. In the meanwhile reserve Saturday afternoon, August 19th, for the great mass demonstration of Christian strength and Christian patriotism.

Literary contributions for The Christian Crusader are welcome. Address the editor, at Tri-Boro Palace, 2514 Third Ave., Bronx, New York.

MUDDOM ELEANORA VISITS REFUGEE

THOSE very "popular" madames of the country, Muddams Perkins and Eleanora Roosevelt, are always up to something. The latest stunt of Muddam Eleanora, as recorded in the August 2 issue of her daily column, is her visit to the Hudson Labor School. She reports that she visited a "German refugee girl" at said Labor School. Did Muddam say German, or did she mean to say Jewish refugee. We'd like to wager 10 to 1 that she came from the German ghettos. Indeed, it's not enough that they come to the United States, but immediately enroll in so-called Labor School instead of going straight to Americanization classes.

Muddam Eleanora goes on with her story of how she spent the day: "I came back to meet Carl Hasley, the state administrator for the National Youth Administration (which has often been charged with Communist control). "At 7:15," Muddam goes on, "I had dinner with Mrs. Morgenthau... and after that we went to see a movie." (Jew produced, no doubt).

How thrilling... how exciting a time you must have had, Muddam Eleanora. While 12,000,000 Americans are out of work, and famine stalks in a land of plenty, you attend movies and encourage so-called Labor schools. We'll wager that the tactics taught there are Communist labor strategy.

THE CRUSADER INVESTIGATES

Each week the Christian Crusader will "investigate" a prominent organization, either patriotic, communist or so-called tolerant. In our next issue we will lead off with our own investigation of the Dies Committee. Watch for it. Watch Congressman Dies sizzle on the frying pan

WHEN COUGHLIN'S ON THE AIR !

Dedicated to Rev. Charles E. Coughlin

By Albert J. Heil

There's a treasured, Christian story
The treasured leaves among;
That Truth came down from heaven,
In the shape of a fiery tongue.
And Peter no longer fearful,
(It seemed so strange and odd)
Rose up like a warrior, shouting
The wrath of an angry God!

He blasts the devil's hireling,
The lying journalist
And drags from secret ambush
The murderous Communist.
While the millions held in bondage,
While countless hands applaud,
The Voice of Coughlin, shouting
The wrath of our angry Lord!

O, ye lordlings of the hour,
Who walk the broad, smooth path -
Beware of Gentiles' power,
Of Gentiles' Christian wrath!
For justice cries for vengeance
And Hope springs everywhere,
As Truth comes down from Heaven.

TRIBESMEN BREAK ARM OF MRS. NALLAN

St. Jerome's Church scene of Assault on Organizer of Woman's Auxiliary; Christians Aroused at Cowardly Act

Mrs. Pauline Nallan, organizer of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Christian Mobilizers, was attacked Tuesday afternoon by three thugs at least two of whom were tribesmen, and a third, according to William Nallin might hav been an Irish stooge. The attack took place in shadow of St. Jerome's Church and Alexander Ave. in the Bronx, at 1:30 PM.

It was one of the most cowardly attacks ever perpetrated by the Asiatic tribesmen The attack has aroused Christians and spurred the organization of defense units against similar brutality. Mrs. Nallin is now resting in a private hospital, safe from further attempts to forever seal her Christian lips.

The story as reliably reported is that the thugs followed Mrs. Nallin, knocked her on the head, then fractured her arm in three places. Friends picked her from the sidewalk and carried her home.

"These things have just begun to happen," said Edwin Westphal, miltant speaker for the Mobilizers. "The enemy is now showing its teeth If we let them get away with cowardly attacks on defenseless women, much worse things will follow." Mr. Westphal indicated the need for defense units among all Christian organizations of New York City.

CHRISTIANS IN ANTI-COMMUNIST PARADE

10,000 Expected to Turn Out August [illegible] and March in Body to Union Square; Sponsored by all Christians

Saturday, August 19th will witness the second greatest demonstration of true Christian sentiment held in New York City, the first being the patriotic rally of the German-American Bund in Madison Square Garden.

The event, however will be unlike that historic event, in that it will take the form of a huge mass parade to assemble at Columbus Circle and march down Eighth Ave. into Union Square. Members of every Christian faction in New York will take part.

Marchers will carry 2500 placards denouncing Communism. 150,000 leaflets already have been distributed. Movies will be taken by Bill O'Connor and Nicholas Agayoff.

"We have obtained the license" said Lawrence Gilpatrick, parade Commander, "and nothing can stop us now from carrying the Crucifix into Red Union Square and show Communist elements of the City that Christians also have a say in the affairs of this country. It will be a Banner Day for Christianity."

Patriotic Americans everywhere are urged to get in touch with their organization leaders for instruction. Christian Americans must march triumphant into Communist Union Square!!

EDITORIAL

Once again reports have come of Christian factions in the city knocking each other. It is painful to hear this news No good can come of it. We are merely playing into the hands of the enemy. "Divide and rule" has long been his cunning strategy. This news paper serves no cause but that of Unity among the Christian Patriotic groups. Now, as always, our policy will be: "A Common Christian Front Against a Common Un-Christian Enemy." Let us rally to it!

AMERICAN NATIONALIST PARTY OPENS UNIT IN SEVENTH STATE

In a private interview, Stanely Smith, chairman of the American Nationalist Party meetings, which are held Wednesday evenings at Tri-Boro Palace, the Bronx, said that the Party had opened up headquarters in seven states and that its membership was well up "in the thousands." "Our goal is 50,000 members by September," said Mr. Smith, "and we're not far from that now." The Nationalists were organized less than two years ago, and staged highly successful meetings at Innisfail Ballroom before the tribesmen connived to remove them from there. Henry Curtis, John Cecil and Russell Dunn have been some of the speakers for the Nationalist Party.

COMMUNISTS INVADE STREET MEETING AND SING "INTERNATIONALE"

New York - A peaceful street meeting of the Christian Mobilizers was disturbed last Wednesday night by a rowdy gang of Communists. Holding its meeting at the corner of Valentine Ave and Fordham Road, the assembly was suddenly surrounded by a dark and sinister mob of tribesmen, who according to reliable estimates numbered at least 1500. Additional police were immediately sent for, and the prompt arrival of these Christian guardians of the law saved the day for the Reds, otherwise say observers, few would have gone back without a souvenir of Christian wrath.

Nonetheless, the mob occupied itself by singing the "Internationale," theme song of the Soviets. Then it attempted to sing "The Star Spangled Banner" but were laughed down because of the "oi, oi, oi" accents. It then attempted to heckle the speakers, but again prompt police intervention prevented rioting. More than once, a comrade was seen jotting down a policeman's number for reporting to the stinkweed politicians at City Hall. The cops are afraid of nothing! It is their duty to enforce the law, and there is a law against heckling, and tribesmen are just as liable to it, even though their cohorts run New York City and the Jewnited States.

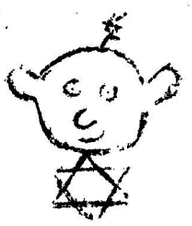
As we go to press, there has been no news from the two Yiddish flyers who took off from New York City to fly - of all places - to Ireland. Just before leaving, pilot Alex Loeb said, "We may go to Palestine after we land in Ireland."

Of course, it's none of our business to tell these Jewboys where to go, but it would have been a better thing if they went to Palestine first - and stayed, instead of defiling Erin's Emerald Isle. As a matter of fact 5,000,000 Jews in this country might well do the same. When that happens, we'll declare a national holiday!!



Exclusive pix of Mr. Dies as he will appear one year from now. He will then have received the Jewish Crown of Honor, and will take his place with F.D.R. who got a Jewish medal for "humanitarian services to Jewry." Dist. Att'y Dewey has also received a "prayer robe" from a clique of rabbis. If things keep up as they are, Mr. Dewey had better say his prayers, he and other pink little hysterical politicians at City Hall and higher up in Washington.

FREE AMERICA FROM STINKWEEDS

Our "investigation" of the Dies Committee has been deferred for next week. Watch it!

"POOR REFUGEES":

According to a newspaper dispatch dated August 12, authorities at Smyrna, Turkey, made detail a gunboat to escort a steamship with 500 refuJews on board because of a threat by the "poor refugees" to kill the captain of the boat if he obeyed Turkish orders to leave the harbor. According to the news item, the frightened Captain had summoned police, saying his life was in danger and that the refugees had tried to fire the ship, wreck the engines and otherwise destroy the steamer if it left Turkish waters. "Poor, poor refugees." Yet this brand of cut-throats are coming by the thousands to America!!

HOUSE PASSES FIVE ANTI-ALIEN BILLS

The American Immigration Conference Board which did admirable patriotic work in beating down attempts of international Jewry to make a dumping ground of this country, reports that the House of Representatives passed five bills aimed to free America of some of its social and political parasites. 1. The Dempsey Bill providing deportation of aliens who want to overthrow the government. 2. The Hobbs Bill establishing detention camps for deportable aliens pending deportation. 3. The Walters Bill, also dealing with attempts to overthrow our government. 4. The Starnes Bill providing for the deportation of alien spies. 5. The Starnes Amendment, doying relief to aliens. This Bill has already become a law.

The news release by the Conference Board continues: "The passage of so many immigration bills, by the House, reflects the fine work which the 90,000 individuals and organizations on our mailing list have done in response to the million pieces of immigration literature we have distributed. It has not come about by accident. Congress reflects the trend of national thinking," the report states. "We have made the country 'alien conscious.' We must not stop till every bill is passed through both Houses of the next Congress."

The name of the political party herein consituted shall be the American Nationalist Confederation, hereinafter referred to as "the Party."

The Party seeks to include in its membership all Christian Americans who are opposed to the advent of alien communism under the direction of International Jewry - popularly called "The New Deal - and to build up a form of government, under the Constitution, which shall give each deserving citizen equal opportunities for wealth and happiness.

2. FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES AND AIMS

The fundamental principles of the Party are briefly set forth herein. Basically, it is quite evident that in order to eliminate graft, corruption, and the control of our individual and national lives, a fundamental change is necessary.

It is clear that the major political parties have failed and are unable further to do anything for the constructive welfare of our people. The liberation of America can only be accomplished by a unified and military-minded leadership, who, realizing that economic policy and social policy are no longer isolated processes, will carry the nation through this world upheaval - with our ideals and national honor intact and strengthened.

a) Party members acknowledge and profess the name of God, His supreme authority and guidance in all our individual and national actions.

b) Party members re-assert their belief in individual and national honor as the only basis on which happy, free and unified people may reach our ideals of personal security, welfare, freedom, and peace.

c) Party members maintain that this nation consists of a unified group of Aryan peoples, settled in the land of their fathers, having a common ethnographical, racial and cultural growth, and they re-assert their belief in the principle of a militant Nationalism to preserve this heritage.

d) Party members stand always for individual and national liberty, and repudiate any suppression or interference with the freedom of conscience or worship, provided always that the practical application of this freedom does not involve a danger to the State, and does not tend to destroy or endanger the Christian national philosophy of life and public order.

3. FURTHER AIMS

The Party sets forth the following further aims and ideals:

a) The blending and fusing of the peoples, now within our borders, into a National Unity of Christian manhood and womanhood devoted to the ideals of honor and decency in all their relations with each other, and with a mutual respect for the other's rights and privileges.

b) The awakening of national pride into a spirit of sound American Nationalism, both economic and cultural; the stimulatting of the spirit of Comradeship and Co-operation; the abolition of class strife and class hatred.

c) The implanting in the people of a strong spirit of self-reliance and independence; the educating of the people to return again to the responsibilities of their citizenship.

d) The upholding of Christian Civilization and the protection of Christianity against the attacks of Communism (alias Marxism or Bolshevism, alias Judaism, etc).

e) The establishing of the United States of America on a firm basis of righteousness; the elimination of crime, oppression, corruption, and injustice; and the application of practical Christianity throughout the public and private life of the nation

4. STATE AND GOVERNMENT

a) The Party pledges itself to abolish this existing system and to re-place it with a purified and effective system of true Republican government which shall conform to the requirements of our revitalized national character, and which system shall have as its basis Responsible Leadership and Group Representation rooted in the principles of mutual trust, responsibility, discipline, loyalty, and service to the nation.

b) The Party repudiates expressly the principle of dictatorship as being opposed to the spirit of our people. It insists, however, that individuals and groups are subordinate to the State, and that mutual co-operation is necessary and conductive to the general welfare.

c) The Party insists on the purification of our legal system from the throttle hold of innumerable statutes through which it is practically impossible to secure justice.

5. RACIAL POLICY

A. The Party accepts the fact as such, that the "Melting Pot" idea has never worked, except in the minds of impracticable individuals, and that tolerance has been practiced by our people to the point that it has undermined the very existence of our nation.

Self-preservation insists that we accept the distinction and classification of races as a principle of national and world order and as a basis for world peace. We therefore aim at racial purity, White Supremacy, and a Christian guardianship over racial groups that cannot be assimilated.

B. With respect to the Negroes, the Party adopts and aims at a policy pointing towards the uplifting, development, segregation, and government in accordance with their own racial character and traditions. With a view of protecting and safeguarding the Negroes, it will sternly suppress communistic, revolutionary, and other propaganda designed to diturb peaceful race relations.

C. With respect to the Indians, the Party promises them immediate relief from their present communistic dictators, with full citizenship and privileges, in full realization that they are a race that can be assimilated within our people.

D. With respect to the Jews, the standpoint of the Party is as follows:

a) The Jews, a race of Oriental and Semitic origin, form a separate, detached, non-Christian and anti-Christian group with a national identity of its own, which maintains its distinctive racial qualities, religious traditions, codes of morals, and is internationally consolidated and organized.

c) Jewish interests in America are purely financial interests, pertaining either to groups or individuals which are in no sense American national-economic interests; they therefore create conditions which disturb the equilibrium of the life of our people in practically every domain - economic, moral, national, social, and political.

d) The Jews, by virtue of their world-wide dispersion and the capitalistic power which they wield over the workers, and which is of an international nature, constitute the only real international people, and as such are the chief propagandists of Capitalism, Imperialism, and an impossible Internationalism - under the guise of the (Jew-conceived) Bolshevik Capitalistic State.

e) The Jews, regarded from a national viewpoint, are not a producing, self-supporting group, but one which lives and flourishes on the labor, production, means of livelihood and rights of existence of workingmen and women of all nations; thus they are a dangerous and injurious element.

THEREFORE, the Party undertakes and pledges itself to a policy of:

a) Stringent legislation designed to control absolutely the influx of Jews from other nations and all future immigration.

b) Complete destruction of the existing Jewish dominance of our national, state, and local governments, and the limitation of Jewish influence in every sphere, especially in the legal and academic professions, medical services, governmental positions, trade unions, and in agriculture.

c) Legislation designed to settle the Jewish problem considering Jews as definitely aliens who shall be tolerated only so far as they respect the rules of Christian morality, obey the laws of the land, and adapt themselves to the requirements of American national existence.

d) Deportation of all Jews who render or who have rendered themselves guilty of miscegenation.

6. SOCIAL WELFARE AND ORDER

The Party acknowledges the Family as the foundation and first principle of our social order and national welfare. It therefore:

a) Will seek to achieve a clean and sound family life and shall strenuously oppose those communistic influences tending to the breaking up of same.

b) Aims at legislation for the furthering of the national Public Health, and Federal hospitalization. The Party is definitely opposed to the principles of birth control as advocated by the forces of internationalism.

d) The Party supports the furtherance of Child Welfare and supports the principle of lowered taxes on large families.

e) The Party re-affirms its belief in the principle that human rights take precedence over property rights.

7. ECONOMIC POLICY

The Party recognizes that the economic policy of the nation is controlled by a clique of international bankers of whom the Jews are in a majority. That the elimination of this control in our national economic affairs will release the people from economic bondage, eliminating unemployment, poverty, and distress.

The Party therefore definitely pledges itself to immediate and drastic economic reforms through the advocation of:

a) The right of each citizen to an equitable share in the country's wealth, with equal opportunities for all.

b) The maintenance and protection of private property, the encouragement of personal initiative, the support of private undertakings against monopoly and monopolistic combines - including the suppression of communism, or Jewish State Capitalism.

c) The confiscation of the illegal hoardings of the international bankers for the payment of the national debt.

d) Establishment of National and State banks which will render the people free and independent of international finance and bondage to money lenders and money lending institutions.

e) The establishment of honorable and reliable business methods, and the combatting of speculation, usury and exploitation.

f) The establishment of interest-free loans, making it possible for any citizen to acquire a small home or farm with a provision that it will not be taken away from him in case of default because of circumstances over which he has no control.

g) A new basis for our monetary system which shall have as its basic foundation a fluctuating value based on human needs in the form of goods.

8. AGRICULTURAL POLICY

The Party stands for an agricultural policy based on the development and protection of farms, the farmer, and farming communities, of which the following points are indicative:

a) The systematic reduction of mortgage burdens - to promote the independence and consolidation of the farming industry and to induce a return to the land.

b) The furtherance of farm-to-consumer methods of the disposal of agricultural products, eliminating the abuses at present existient in distribution (the middle man).

c) Promotion of practical and sensible crop insurance legislation.

d) Proper and adequate prices for products of the farm - in line with the people's needs, but insuring the farmer an equal benefit.

e) Solution of the tenant problem by the issuance of interest free loans.

f) Legislation to prevent the alienation of farm lands and the subdivision of farm properties.

9. THE WORKER

The Party acknowledges that in this day and age social and economic policy cannot be separated, but are parts of the whole national structure on which the welfare of our people depends. On the basis of such an integral structure, the following shall be enacted:

a) Protection of all workers against the power and abuses of capitalism in any form, and especially that of Jewish State Capitalism.

b) The establishment and promotion of public group corporations, each consisting of all persons who make their living from a given industry and trade, and each endowed with authority to control, subject to supervision of the government, all matters affecting conditions of work in that industry or trade.

c) Opportunity for every citizen to work at a wage that will insure a decent American existence, with the requirement that each shall exercise his capacities of work to the best of his ability and strength, in order to properly maintain his family and serve the nation of which he is a part.

d) Old age pensions, so administered as to guarantee each deserving citizen definite security at the age of sixty. This not as charity but as a right of citizenship.

e) Private employment agencies shall be eliminated and such service provided by a branch of the government, all of whose employes are under Civil Service.

f) Federal and State Hospitalization to be provided for all workers.

g) Unemployment insurance to be provided all workers. There are to be no exceptions to this.

h) Hours of work shall be shortened in line with the advances made in the installation of labor-saving machinery, and wages to be correspondingly increased to meet the needs of the worker.

i) Minimum wage laws which will prohibit sweat shop conditions.

j) Child labor legislation which is practical, preventing the exploitation of children, but permitting certain types of work for specified hours in special cases.

10. NATIONAL EDUCATION

The system of education promoted by the Party must have its very foundations rooted in the national life, culture, and nature of our people - fostering true patriotism and national pride and contributing to the upbuilding of true Christian character.

The Party therefore pledges itself to the establishment of national education on these principles:

a) Furtherance of national and Christian cultural ideals of the American people.

b) That subversive and atheistic, so-called academic freedom - to be drastically suppressed.

c) The formation of a National Youth Movement which shall form the foundation of character-building in line with the principles of practical Christianity.

d) Compulsory military training for its great value as a character building instrument, and to protect the nation in case of attack.

11. NATIONAL DEFENSE

Unstable conditions in world affairs make a strong military force imperative. The greatest assurance of continued peace is the ability to protect ourselves without calling on the help of other nations. Alliances therefore are not necessary - which in itself eliminates pacts and treaties of this type.

The Party stands for complete separation of Church and State - in no matter what shape it may appear. The principle of freedom of worship is ingrained within our people, and so it shall remain.

A religion which does not stay within the accepted bounds of Christian morality shall be suppressed.

13. OATH OF LEADERS

The Leaders of the Party, realizing that this nation is beset with the greatest crisis in its history, bind themselves under oath to carry out, without fear or favor, the principles of this Party, to preserve and protect our national existence - even at the cacrifice of their lives.

FASCIST LEADER, HERE, LAUNCHES NATIONAL DRIVE

Deatherage Addresses 5,000—Fritz Kuhn Also a Speaker

By O. R. PILAT

George Edward Deatherage, national leader of the Knights of the White Camellias, a Protestant southern organization once allied with the Ku Klux Klan, made his first major appearance in New York last night.

He served as the imported fireworks for 5,000 persons who met at Innisfail Stadium, 240th Street and Broadway, in what was described as the first of a series of "nationwide" open air gatherings uniting all Christian Fascist groups.

The second such meeting, at the same stadium September 6, he announced, will feature Major General George Van Horn Moseley, whom Deatherage is urging for national co-ordinator of those groups.

Fritz Kuhn Also Speaks

The oratory was violent, but seventy-five policemen outside stadium under Inspector James Brady kept perfect order.

Deatherage and the other speakers, who included Fritz Kuhn of the German-American Bund, discussed the trampling and strangling of enemies, the hanging of officials from telegraph poles and the overturning of what was described as a revolution already effected in the United States by international Jewish bankers. They denounced President Roosevelt and Mayor La Guardia repeatedly.

"They're taking it all down," he shouted. "Let them take it down."

Warns Against Coughlin Curb

"Nothing would set the country on fire like the arrest of one of our leaders. If anything like that happens, or they try to stop Father Coughlin, the country will be up in arms overnight."

Deatherage is a man of forty-six, urbane and be-spectacled, who used to be construction superintendent for the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corporation of St. Albans, W. Va., where he still lives.

His address last night ranged from a discussion of "counter-revolutionary tactics" to an appeal in behalf of Russia.

"I know what has been happening behind the scenes," he told the audience. "It will surprise you to know there has been a great rebuilding of the Christian faith inside Russia."

Audience Becomes Uneasy

The agreement with Germany was forced by pressure within and without Russia, he added.

"Stalin didn't dare do anything else! If he had mobilized, he would have been wiped out in twenty-four hours."

Previously enthusiastic, the audience turned uneasy and silent at this point. Deatherage paused.

"You are going to be confused," he said. "That is part of the Jewish plan. But keep your faith and you will be all right."

Because the light was poor on the platform in front of great sixty-foot high panels exhibiting a white cross on a red circle against a blue background, Deatherage had to discard his notes. As a result, perhaps, his remarks seemed inconsistent at times.

"The Revolution Is Here"

After telling in detail the Communist program for taking over New York, based on the Trotsky plan of paralyzing governmental services, he burst out:

"Trotsky says the revolution must be so sudden that nobody understands it. It's coming! It's here now. You are now under the direct control of Jewish Communism.

A few minutes later, he blamed "international Jewish bankers" for the same thing. He said they were using liberals, intelligentsia, college professors, professional writers, reporters and others to make slaves of the working class in this country.

"At this minute they control the Administration in Washington," he said.

U. S. Like Spain, He Says

"The same bankers who control England and France control the United States through our Federal Reserve System in which the United States does not own one share of stock."

The situation in the United States today is like that in Spain before the Franco revolution, Deatherage said.

"In Spain you had a leftist government in power. In Washington today you have a leftist government in power.

"In Spain the army and navy were split. Franklin D. Roosevelt has sabotaged the navy. He has stopped the investigation of subversive acts. The army can't buy a 15-cent pamphlet any longer.

"In Spain, there was active liaison between leftist organizations. In the United States, bureaus in Washington are controlled by atheistic, apostate, Communistic Jews."

"Intellectual Prostitutes"

In his peroration, Deatherage referred to "that gang of intellectual prostitutes at Washington," quoted Lincoln on the right of the people to overthrow government, and Jefferson to the effect that the tree of liberty must be refreshed from time to time by the blood of tyrants.

Before Deatherage spoke, the audience listened actively to a variety of local spellbinders.

Chief favorite of the crowd was Joseph McWilliams, leader of the Christian Mobilizers, host of the evening, an organization only two months old which claims to have absorbed a good portion of the membership of the earlier pro-Coughlin Christian Front.

Speaking of the possibility of war, McWilliams predicted that England and France would "get hell kicked out of them."

Must Be Ready to Fight

"If America is involved in the war, there won't be enough telegraph poles available to hang those responsible," he said.

"The only war I'd fight would be shooting down the war mongers under the leadership of Roosevelt and LaGuardia.

"You must be ready to go out and fight—and I mean to fight physically—the LaGuardias and Roosevelts and all like them. You must learn to hate the Roosevelts and LaGuardias as a rattlesnake for they are more dangerous than a rattlesnake to the American people."

The Late Lt.-Col. A. H. LANE

A LIFE OF SERVICE

With the passing of Colonel Lane the Free Press has suffered an irreparable loss, and unknown to itself the Empire has lost an ardent defender, whose unique knowledge of the Alien question placed him in a class by himself.

About three days after the completion of his latest work, "The Hidden Hand" he was taken ill and died after a very short illness on June 16th, at the age of 70. The cause to which he devoted his entire energies and outlook for years will never again know such a man. His most important book, "The Alien Menace" will stand always as a reference work for anyone who is sufficiently patriotic to investigate what it is that is sapping the life-blood of Britain. It ran into five editions.

Colonel Lane's great ambition was to unite all patriotic people and he held many meetings at his hospitable house on Campden Hill with this object in view. Whether at home or on the lawns at Ranelagh, where he loved to entertain his friends, he was a delightful and gallant host. He neither spoke nor heard a word of gossip or scandal, and money was a thing he never considered except as a means of service to his country or fellow-citizens. He never turned a deaf ear to any appeal he considered it is duty to help.

Underneath his lovable foibles and dictatorial manner he secretly yearned for a primitive simplicity of life. He saw through the shams of civilization, and observing the character and morals of our liberal aristocracy he was convinced that they were moving towards their own destruction. He loved children, although he had none, and to the end looked at the world with the bright blue eye of a man who never grew old at heart, and who was never weary or disillusioned; yet he had an acute shrewdness which detected insincerity and conceit of which he was ever impatient and openly contemptuous.

It is a matter for regret to those whom he has left behind to carry on his work, that in his eager desire to awaken people to the dangers of the moral disintegration of England, he distributed gratis hundreds of copies of his "Alien Menace," a book which now is rapidly becoming unobtainable as a result.

Colonel Lane was the son of a clergyman, and was born in Yorkshire. His early life and career were spent in straitened circumstances. After three years on a cattle ranch in America he was gazetted to the Army in 1893. Of his distinguished military career he gave few personal details, but as early as 1896 he was specially mentiond by Lord Kitchener, with whom he was serving in Egypt. In 1897 he was transferred to the Remount Department, and was sent on a mission to the Argentine to buy horses and mules for South Africa. Later in the same year he returned to headquarters and in company with Lord Milner he travelled South Africa and reviewed the situation regarding horses in view of the threatening war in that country. His report was that most of the Argentine horses in Cape Colony had proved of little use; this was sent to the War Office by General Sir William Butler, who had taken over command. General Butler was a fine soldier, who was fully aware of the Jewish conspiracy to make war with the Boers; he warned the Government in London. Colonel Lane was with him for ten months and gave him valuable information about the large number of South African horses available, about the Boer rifles and other things. Everything which he reported proved true, but for some mysterious reason General Butler was ordered home and placed on the retired list, and Colonel Lane was blacklisted. The Staff Officer of Remounts at the War Office at the time was a Jew, Major Peters. Large contracts for the importation of some 40,000 Argentine horses were placed at his orders, together with the contracts for forage, etc., which according to Colonel Lane, the expert, could have been bought in South Africa. Most of the horses failed when pushed, and Colonel Lane alleged that this was one of the chief causes of the War lasting so long, as it depended largely on horses.

He served throughout the South African War without a day off duty, including two years on the staff of General Sir L. Rundle, who twice recommended him for award. He retired in 1913 in disgust at his treatment, but of course rejoined in August 1914. He served on the staff of the 60th (London) Division in France and Salonica. He had six war medals.

On returning to civilian life, this man of fine brain, who could have filled any public office with distinction had he desired to seek it, devoted his remaining years to unremitting work in exposing the conspiracy of silence about the real state of public affairs. In addition to his "Alien Menace" (11,500 copies) he wrote "War Debts" and "Alien Immigration" (5,000 each) and in collaboration he also produced "Our Perilous Position" (8,000 copies), "An Admirer of Lenin" (Life of Lansbury) and "The Firm of Webb" (Sidney Webb), both of 5,000 copies. All these were published at his own expense.

In January last, Colonel Lane wrote to the Editor of the Free Press informing him that he had made arrangements that all his political books, papers, pamphlets, etc., should be handed over to the Editor on his (Col. Lane's) death.

A life of service has ended. England will never know his like again. Democracies cannot produce men of the stamp of Lt.-Col. Arthur Hugh Lane, and England is greatly the poorer for his death.

DIES PROBE TOLD OF MOVE TO BUY KLAN FOR $75,000

Witness Says Wizard Evans Turned Down Coast Woman's Offer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24 (UP).—Henry D. Allen, Pasadena, Cal., liaison man for so-called Fascist organizations, told the Dies Committee today that Mrs. Leslie Fry of Glendale, Cal., sought last year to buy the Ku Klux Klan for $75,000.

Allen, as agent of Mrs. Fry, testified that he visited Imperial Wizard Hiram Evans in Atlanta last year but did not go beyond discussing a revival of the Klan on the West Coast—a suggestion Evans turned down.

"Mrs. Fry desired in some way to get control of the klan," Allen said. "She seemed to have the idea that Mr. Evans would seel the membership list for a price. There was a vague mention that she thought the thing could be arranged for $75,000."

Names Coast Klan Chiefs

Allen named Charles Slocombe of Long Beach and L. D. Baker of Fresno as Klan leaders in California.

He was questioned about a letter to George Deatherage, leader of the Knights of the White Camellias, from Clayton F. Ingalls of San Francisco, which said that "every organization must be dissolved and be remolded into the army machine which we must build" and that "we must secretly spread our web of leadership."

Curb on Envoys Pressed

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24 (AP).—Chairman Dies (Dem., Tex.) asked counsel for the House committee investigating un-American activities today to determine whether this country has recourse against countries whose displomats "meddle in domestic affairs."

Dies made it plain that this action was the result of testimony by Henry D. Allen, who said he visited the German and Italian Embassies on a trip to Washington in 1938.

Allen described himself as a West Coast leader of activities against Jewish-Communism."

"It occurs to me it's an intolerable situation," Dies said in the open committee session, "when the diplomatic representatives of foreign Powers seek to divide our people into hostile camps.

"If American representatives in Germany or Italy joined a movement contrary to Nazi or Fascist ideals, it would cause an international crisis, probably threats of war."

Investigators, meanwhile, searched for William Dudley Pelley, Silver Shirt leader, cited by Dies as attempting to sabotage the work of the committee.

A committee source disclosed that a subpena has been issued for the Asheville, N. C., publisher-lecturer shortly after Dies declared the Silver Shirt organization had attempted to place an undercover agent on the committee's staff.

The committee yesterday recommended Federal "prosecutive action" against Fraser Gardner, thirty-seven, Washington political researcher who was employed by Pelley's Skyland Press while seeking a job as investigator with the Dies group.

Clear Case, Says Dies

"This is a clear case," Dies said, "that Pelley and his Silver Shirts have undertaken by this method to secure information in advance and sabotage this investigation."

Dies said several Senators and high Government officials had recommended Gardner. The latter afterward said Senator Tydings (Dem., Md.) was one of these.

Gardner testified that he was not employed or paid by any group under investigation by the committee when he sought a job on the investigative staff, but acknowledged later that he had been employed by the Skyland Press since March to make reports on "trends of immigration."

PREFACE

The supreme conflict in the world today, including wars, is, fundamentally, a struggle between Bolshevism and Anti-Bolshevism. Our own unfortunate country, under the powerful control of the Kahal (the Cahilla*)—The Jewish Hidden Hand, whose tool and agent is Bolshevism—has allied itself and us to Bolshevik Russia and semi-Bolshevik France: hence the policy of our Government against Germany and Italy and the attitude of our Jew-controlled Press against Hitler and Mussolini: also our policy regarding Abyssinia and sanctions which has brought us so much ridicule in the eyes of the world; and, further, the attitude of our Government with reference to Spain and non-Intervention.

In a desire to place some of the facts of the case before my fellow countrymen, I feel that perhaps the best way to approach the subject is to insert first a challenging article which I contributed to "The National Citizen" of February, 1937, after the publication of the 5th edition of my book "The Alien Menace" where I had put numerous facts and figures as a warning to the Government and the nation.

CONTRIBUTORY CAUSE OF UNEMPLOYMENT. ANTI-ENGLISH ACTIVITIES.

"Our Civil Lord of the Admiralty is Mr. Kenneth Lindsay, for several years a protégé of Israel Moses Sieff, who placed Lindsay in charge of the office which started P.E.P., a dangerous scheme designed to betray small traders into the hands of large alien controlled combines. All papers connected with P.E.P. were secret and the plans kept underground for the first two or three years.

"Sieff is in touch with the same racket in U.S.A. with Felix Frankfurter, one of the men who control that country. More recently Sieff has got considerable hold of our (so-called) Conservative Press—vide his articles in "The Morning Post" last year (1936.)

"It is rumoured that the Secretary of State for War, Duff-Cooper, has gained greatly by his friendship with Otto Kahn and his gang. It would be interesting to know if this is true. Otto Kahn started a German, became an Englishman and finished as a citizen of U.S.A.

Little Progress.

"Under-Secretary for Air is Sassoon, a Parsee Jew.

"For several years the Chairman of the Air League was Dr. Gerald Merton, whose name originally was Eric Siegfried Schmiechen. During this time little progress was made in this most important arm.

"That our armaments have been largely in the hands of aliens has been shown in published statements regarding Sir Basil Zaharoff, to whom crowned heads and leading statesmen were merely puppets.

"During the War Lloyd George swept away the Master-General of the Ordnance and formed the Ministry of Munitions. This was handed to Edwin Montague, who, without loss of time, gave a big share of the business to Bernard Baruch, probably the most powerful man in the United States then and now. After this we had enormous quantities of defective munitions which often killed our men and were unreliable for attack or defence, thereby prolonging the War.

"Anthony Eden, Secretary for Foreign Affairs, seems to be in the grip of Litvinov, who, through the League of Nations —where he is all powerful—carries out the aims of the Moscow Soviet, causing unrest and revolution throughout the world.

In his speeches Eden sympathises with the Reds in Spain, and throws blame for ghastly massacres on to loyalists fighting for country and religion against Bolsheviks strongly supported by Moscow.

Cause of Distress.

"A deal is written about 'Distressed Areas,' especially South Wales, which contains the best coal in the world. But nothing is said about the chief cause of distress; the penetration by Bolshevik agents for the past twenty years. Several are of foreign birth and all are provided with ample funds. This is the cause of much unemployment in South Wales, and other mining districts.

"Communist trouble is organised by foreign agents, hence the riots in the East End. One has only to see these Communists, especially of the East End; most of them show dark, foreign blood.

"Only the unemployment returns from the Ministry of Labour are published. The returns of the Ministry of Health, showing about 1½ million drawing public assistance (not counting tens of thousands in 'institutions'—the workhouses and asylums, the latter containing a large proportion of aliens) are not included.

Illegal Entry.

"One cause of unemployment is the enormous number of aliens allowed to enter this country, especially since 1918. Some of these have entered on passports, but thousands are entering illegally, one of the simplest ways being through Ireland. It was stated in Parliament on November 9 that persons naturalised in the Free State do not become British subjects. Yet no passports are required between Ireland and Great Britain.

"This influx of aliens has greatly increased, for thousands of revolutionary Jews from Germany have come over, many of them obtaining work. There is scarcely an English musician employed in Great Britain today, while aliens get all sorts of jobs, although there is no job which cannot be done by a Briton.

"The Ministry of Labour, like the Home Office, seems to be greatly influenced by the Jewish Board of Deputies. Until 1933, Statistics showed the number of aliens allowed to enter Great Britain to take up work. Since 1933 no statistics seem to have been published. (In 1933-37, some 40,000 to 50,000 Jews were admitted from Germany. Any patriotic person who has studied the front page of "The Times" this year (1938) must be aghast at the large number of aliens who daily advertise re their naturalisation. Many of these are probably Jews who were expelled from Germany in 1933 for the reason that they were revolutionaries or otherwise undesirable.

" It was stated in Parliament in April (1938) that 12,000 Jews had been (legally) admitted into Great Britain from Austria during March. How many have sneaked in illegally by various ways known to the Jews (and often published by the Author)?

" Most of these, both from Germany and from Austria, are revolutionaries, and all undesirables. Most of them seem to get jobs, although some three million English people are drawing doles of some kind because of unemployment, directly or indirectly.

" Our Government has no register of aliens. It is impossible to know how many aliens live permanently in the British Isles, where they are, or what they are doing. What Judaeo-Masonic influence caused this? In other European countries everybody is registered, nationals and foreigners. The average alien in our country looks with contempt on our laws.

Seats of " Learning."

" At Oxford University in recent years some forty Professorships or Fellowships have been given to 'German' Jews. Rhodes Scholars from U.S.A. are chosen for their Communist ideas, hence the red anti-patriotism of undergraduates and graduates of this University. (These foreigners, owing to heredity and environment, cannot be expected to possess a love of Britain and the British Empire. Students of every colour and class come from overseas.) A large number of teachers in elementary schools belong to the Educational Workers' League, affiliated to the Educational Workers' International; founded in 1919 to bolshevise teachers. (About fifty per cent. of the undergraduates now come with scholarships from Secondary Schools or Council Schools; some of these become dons, tutors or lecturers.) (The President of the Oxford Union this year (1938) is Phillip Toynbee, a Red.)

Conservative Central Office.

" In the old days one was taught that everything emanating from the Conservative Central Office was good and patriotic, and many people hold this erroneous idea still. Few people realise that the most powerful man in the Conservative Office is Sir Albert Clavering. This son of Isaac Abraham Clozenberg, a Jew from Eastern Europe, had the effrontery to change his name in 1920 to the old English name of Clavering.

"He put up for Hampstead at the Parliamentary election as a Lloyd George Liberal, and failed, but shortly afterwards appeared at the Conservative Central Office, where soon he took over the prop aganda department. During recent years old Conservative working men speakers have been discharged and replaced by Jews and Socialists.

("Incidentally, it may be mentioned here that a few years ago Baldwins Ltd. was taken over by Waley Cohen & Co.)

"War now is not between nations but between Bolshevism and Anti-Bolshevism (not only in Europe but in the Far East), and our unfortunate alien-penetrated country, or at any rate our Government, in the grip of the League of Nations, seems to be against Germany and Italy, who are doing everything in their power to prevent Bolshevism spreading throughout Europe and the World.

(" This is the chief cause of so much re-armament of nations. And Bolshevism is the agent, the instrument, of the Jews, whereby they are achieving World Domination chiefly by creating chaos.")

" BRASS TACKS ! "

The British people in the past have been much led away by speeches—especially by speeches of Lloyd George, Winston Churchill, etc., etc., whose political careers strongly suggest their rôle as associates of the Hidden Hand.

It is a matter of common knowledge that Winston Churchill, like his father, has at times had the benefit of Jewish friendship. The two appointments in the Cabinet which particularly affect the Jews are Home Secretary and Chancellor of the Exchequer. He held the former post when only 30 years old, and when quite young the latter.

It must not be forgotten that Winston Churchill was largely instrumental in killing the Aliens Bills of 1905-1910 in Committees, and was appointed Home Secretary in the latter year.

Re Lloyd George, The Jewish World, 16/4/31, throws a good deal of light regarding his work for the Jews. See page 19.

It was Lloyd George who ordered Trotsky to be liberated from prison in Halifax, Nova Scotia, in 1916. If Trotsky had been kept in prison, the history of Europe—in fact, the history of the whole world—would have been very different. It is probable that Bolshevism would not have developed and spread as it has done without this very clever and unscrupulous organiser.

If seemingly brutal at times, solid facts and truths are, however, preferred by most folk. Camouflage, "soft soap," "beating about the bush," and all such subterfuges get us nowhere.

Plain words for ordinary plain-speaking people.

And one plain word is that we have permitted the reins of government either to fall into the hands of aliens or alien agents, or in our stupidity have allowed aliens to jockey themselves into key positions.

The vast majority of those aliens are of the Hebrew race! Jews!

Most of our anxieties, and the troublous times through which we have gone; and the further troubles which lie only just ahead, have their beginnings in schemes that are Judaeo-Masonic in origin!

BRITAN'S FINANCIAL EXPERTS.

Why do we trust our finances to the hands of Jews and men of recent alien extraction such as Otto Ernst Niemeyer, Guggenheim Gregory, and Henry Strakosch (who, according to the Evening Standard, 17/9/29, was born in Moravia)?

The first two named above were sent out a few years ago to Australia and New Zealand to give advice And the gist of their advice was for those Dominions to borrow more money from the U.S.A.!

So it would appear that Bristish taxpayers paid the expenses of these men in order to put more business into the hands of the Jew financiers of New York!

Another sinister sidelight on the permeation by Jewish influences is that for the past ten years these two "experts" were the only two representatives of Great Britain on the Financial Committee of the League of Nations!

THE PROTOCOLS OF THE ELDERS OF ZION.

Much has been said and published about the documents called "The protocols of the Elders of Zion."

This is a book containing parts of the text of a lecture under 24 headings, which outlines the political, economic and financial programme to be followed for the establishment of Jewish World Domination. The text of this work, which was drawn up between 1889-1895, appears to have formed the subject of a debate at a secret meeting of Jewish Freemasons at Basel in 1897, at the time of the First Zionist Congress at that place. According to the Russian S. A. Nilus, who first published them in the second edition of a work on Anti-Christ in 1905, these notes were abstracted from the minutes of a secret Masonic meeting of Jewish leaders, and came into his hands in 1901, via his friend Major and Court Marshall A. N. Suchotin.

These Protocols are in complete and accurate accord, not only with other Jewish writings over a period of centuries, but also with the political, economic and financial occurrences of to-day. The numerous attempts of Jews and non-Jews alike to "prove" the Protocols to be anti-Semitic forgeries cannot stand the test of a searching enquiry. The methods employed by the Jews and their defenders are strongly suggestive of a guilty fear, and a terror lest the truth should come out.

The late Lord Sydenham, a former Governor of Victoria and of Bombay, a member of the Committee which re-constructed the British War Office, and the first Secretary of the Committee of Imperial Defence, 1903-8—a man who has studied life in many phases and places—wrote an interesting letter on this point to the "Spectator" of August 27, 1921.

In the course of this letter, Lord Sydenham mentioned that the Protocols were alleged to "embody" a forgery perpetrated by the Tsar's police, and again that they were adapted from a French "pamphlet of 1864." Mrs. Nesta Webster, and Mr. Lucien Wolf, Lord Sydenham said, had traced certain similarities which, he added, must be expected in a document that had, in any case, been carefully compiled.

All these allegations and similarities, said Lord Sydenham, could not remove the sinister nature of the subject matter in the compilation; neither could they "have any bearing upon the deadly accuracy of the forecasts in the Protocols, most of which have since been fulfilled to the letter."

A copy was in the British Museum thirty-two years ago; that is, more than twelve years before they were translated into English! The leaders of Zionism have attempted ever since to secure the suppression of the copies and have actually succeeded in some countries. They have pretended that the Protocols were forged by the Russian Secret Police for the purpose of inciting the Tsar and his Government against the Jews. The whole of the Jewish case really rests on the flimsy and contradictory evidence of two persons, whose careers show them to be entirely untrustworthy as witnesses. The recent attempts to revive the " forgery stunt " come too late in the day, and indeed discloses the fear that has come with discovery!

In his introduction to the reprint translation by the late Victor E. Marsden (who was formerly Russian correspondent of the London "Morning Post"). Mr. A. N. Field* mentions that " the basis of the whole programme set out in the Protocols is to control nations by controlling money, and using their money systems to undermine their institutions and enslave their people ": and he adds that " to prefer the claims of the money-lender and speculator to those of industry and labour—is to destroy the State."

The Protocols are coming true! They fit in with most that has happened since 1914, and that is happening now! Their authors must either have had uncanny foresight or a guilty for-knowledge of how some kind of underground conspiracy was to be worked out! The fact of the world-conspiracy is sun-clear when you have read the Protocals.

(Reader, you can get a copy of Protocols for yourself from The Britons Publishing Co., 40, Great Ormond Street, London, W.C.1., price 1/3d. You can get pamphlets explaining briefly the terms. Read them, and use your own judgment. That is all I need to ask of you.—Author.)

THE WORLD-PLOT.

Although the Protocols show clearly the Jewish intention to replace existing governments and institutions by a Judaic control, that document is not needed to prove such intention! The ordinary man of this land of ours knows this! He has commonsense and can see the signs of the times.

He himself knows of many instances where Jews, in all kinds of devious and doubtful ways, have got into key and controlling positions and have proceeded to bring their tribesmen in as well. Certainly, Jewish methods of permeation, of patient plotting, of smug oily cunning, are well known!

What is not so well known is the true identity of the scoundrels behind the scenes who " pull the strings " attached to their duped and bemused puppets who are public men!

The reader may recall the words of Hilaire Belloc who, in his book " The Jews " (1922) wrote:—

> " The Great War brought thousands upon thousands of educated men (who took up public duties as temporary officials) up against the staggering secret they had never suspected—the complete control exercised over things absolutely necessary to the nation's survival by half a dozen Jews who were completely indifferent as to whether we or the enemy should emerge alive from the struggle."

An elementary safeguard is to don a new name, and this is easy even when done by legal formality. So we find that David Beidenkopf becomes David Cope; Mary Fasbender, Mary Dawson; Yukiel Lichtenstein, Jack Stone! Surnames like Bakon, Barlasoff, Dzwonkowski, Chapfleisch, Abramovitch, Brumengraber, etc., can be put aside in favour of homely English-looking names like Bacon, Barlow, Jack, Barker, Butcher, Janes, Stanley, Gordon, Curzon, etc.

Verily, good British names hide many a miscreant, and that clique of megalomancies who think they are destined to impress their will on mankind, would not let a trifle like an unfortunate name be a bar to their work, although some of them have left it too late in their careers for any change of name to be effective.

By unscruplous means, the Hidden Hand has obtained possession or control of the bulk of the world's monetary wealth, and thereby exerts influence particularly over democratic governments. It is, in fact, a band of super-criminals that will finance atrocities on any scale, to advance the cause of world domination.

Whenever a decision is arrived at in public affairs that may help this devilish plot, and whatever the constitution of the tribunal, the Jew in it or the Zionist influence within it can always be discerned.

Whenever our own Cabinet makes an important move or plan, which might possibly affect Jewish interests, the Jewish Board of Deputies (a super-Government!) exerts its whole influence to render its effects innocuous from their standpoint.

The Devious Ways.

We do not need to be either "Jew-haters" or "Jew-baiters" to find warrant to assail the Zionist permeation.

It was Lazare the Jew who wrote:—

"The Jew is not satisfied with de-Christianising, he Judaises; he destroys Catholic or Protestant faith, he provokes indifference but he imposes his idea of the world, of morals, and life upon those whose faith he ruins."

Here is a part, at least, of the cause of the turmoil engendered in our religious circles which is fostered by Jewish

It is universally recognised now that the foundation of the Russian Soviet was entirely a Jewish movement, aided by the German Staff. Nearly 300 Jews, all revolutionaries, recruited from the large cities of Europe and U.S.A., were sent with Jewish money into Russia together with Lenin and Trotsky, to organise and conduct the revolution that led to the Soviet; and in 1920 that Bolshevist Administration of 540 officials included close on 450 Jews: a position which continued right up to 1937. It is therefore ridiculous to speak of the "Russian" Government as so many papers and people do.

Over and over again it can be proved that Jewish "Nationalism"—camouflaged ofter as "Internationalism"—adopts the Jew-conceived Bolshevism to create chaos and a terrorist control, side by side with Zionism which effects spiritual and religious chaos. So is is aimed that these two forces, by the aid of the evil group of Jew International financiers, will make the place ready for the introduction of International Jewry.

The plain Man-in-the-Street asks a few questions, such as:—

1. Why were foreign revolutionaries not deported years ago, instead of being allowed to remain? Why are Jew criminals of foreign birth hardly ever deported? Why are our laws flouted, or put aside, or watered down, for particular people?

2. Why is the receipt of money from abroad—from Moscow and New York—to these foreign agents and to British dupes and other traitors, permitted to flow in in thousands?

3. What is this influence that so often gives such an un-English twist to our national policy and procedure?

And the blunt answer is:—"The Kahal!"

The Kahal is the ruling council of World Jewry, of which the Grand Sanhedrin at the time of Christ was the prototype. Most fanatical Jews are allied with the higher grade of the evil thing called Grand Orient Masonry. English Masons claim that there is no connection between them and the Grand Orient Masonry. But there are Lodges in the British Isles completely controlled by Jews. It is unbelievable that these Jewish Lodges have no connection with Jewish Lodges under Grand Orient control, in other countries. Some authorities trace the power of this ruling council called the Kahal or Cahilla, from the days of Babylon; there is little doubt but that the Kahal was instrumental in compassing the downfall of the Roman Empire.

In the 18th century these fanatics and their followers co-operated with " Jacobins " and " Illuminati " in the age-old aim of Gentile destruction.

In every country there have been, and are, agents or representatives of the Kahal; Jews who influence the policy of that country.

One reason of the great power of the Kahal is the extreme secrecy. Not only is the Gentile kept in ignorance of their plans and activities—of their very existence—but also the majority of their own race.

How many members of the Kahal are in our Cabinet? The same people continue to remain, only a reshuffle of jobs. The only new member recently is Hore-Belisha who, in July 1929, in the House of Commons, supported other Jews in demanding that Trotsky should be allowed to live in England.

Jacobinism sought to achieve the world-state in accordance with the Talmud whereby " when the times of the Messiah is come the Jews will hold under their keys the properties of all the peoples of the world " (from a letter of Baruch Levy to Karl Marx).

That is the object of the Kahal—the Cahilla—today. It involves the acquisition of an Oriental Empire—Russia, China, India, etc.—and present day upheavals in those countries are explained by this desire!

The headquarters of the Kahal today is said to be in the United States of America.

JUDAISM.

Jews' main allegiance is to Judaism, and in carrying out its aims and interests of the country in which they may live are secondary; they snatch at opportunities which would be detestable to the patriotic native of any land.

Thus it was that during the world chaos after the Great War of 1914-1918, the Jews in several countries worked themselves into key positions and secured a controlling influence both in Government and Commercial circles, debasing and degrading all that is noble and natural, especially in the world of Art. The great Cinema, Radio and Theatrical industry, the Press, an enormous part of financial and industrial business, came to be mostly in Jewish control during those years of difficulty and reconstruction.

Those opportunities were snatched, and indeed created by the Jews for the basic reason of the advancement, by any and every means, of Judaism.

> "When we sink, we become a revolutionary proletariat, the subordinate officers of a revolutionary party; when we rise, there rises also our terrible power of the purse!"

That is what Theodor Herzl, one of the greatest of modern Jews and in 1897 leader of the Zionists, himself wrote. And that is why you find the Jew at both ends of the social scale, cunningly, insidiously at work.

They are the instigators of Bolshevism as one means of causing collective chaos. In fact, the Kahal works entirely for collectivism whereby to achieve its more conveniently.

Centralisation of all activities is the basic creed of the Kahal, whether in financial, revolutionary, or international matters; and, if the centre is not already in their grip, to penetrate it.

As Protocol number five states:—

> "We shall create an intensified centralisation of government in order to grip in our hands all the forces of the community."

> "In order to put public opinions into our hands we must bring it into a state of bewilderment by giving expression from all sides to so many contradictory opinions and for such length of time as will suffice to make the Goyim lose their heads in the labyrinth and come to see that the best thing is to have no opinion of any kind in matters political."

The greatest example of Judaic centralisation today in the League of Nations, on which the Kahal have had a strong hold ever since its inception. The constitution of the League of Nations was drawn up at a Masonic convention held in Paris in June 1917, and this constitution was actually adopted with slight alteration in 1919 at Versailles. Other instances of purposeful modern centralisation, which (while on the surface seemingly wise) can be traced to this same Zionist influence and inspiration, are the Union of South Africa, the London County Council, the British Legion, the London Passenger Transport Board, Imperial Chemical Industries, General Electric, etc., etc.

That is why, also, the German states remained united during the war, 1914-1918—a matter of wonder to many people. Jews were getting more and more control in Germany right up to the time when Hitler brought off his coup in 1933 and upset the work of the Kahal in that country. That is why, also, the Jew-controlled Press of most countries has made systematic and persistent attacks on Hitler ever since.

Whatever one's views on Hitler's methods of government may be, he did at least put the brake on Zionist control in Germany. He also has purged Germany of most of the filth and immorality with which Jews had permeated that land in their design to bring down the Gentile order and to get money. Hitler, in fact, prevented Germany becoming a second Russia, and thus probably preserved the civilisation of Europe.

The tentacles of this Judaic octopus reach far. Here in our own country, the Kahal has effected an unpatriotic line of conduct by our Governments over and over again for several centuries. Even a casual study of this Jewish conspiracy makes the brain reel by the constant discovery of new evidence of its dastardly actions and influences.

People who have knocked about the world and have studied events in other countries, and who have read histories (not paying too much attention to Carlyle), appreciate all this. But the average stay-at-home Englishman who reads only our Jew-controlled Press remains in ignorance of the work and power of the Kahal's hidden hand.

Why did Queen Victoria so long hesitate to give recognition and "honours" to Jews? Here are her own words, written to Mr. W. E. Gladstone when a Knighthood was proposed for a Rothschild:—

> "It is not only the feeling, of which she cannot divest herself, against making a person of the Jewish religion a Peer; but she cannot think that one who owes his great wealth to contracts with foreign Governments for Loans, or to successful speculation on the Stock Exchange, can fairly claim a British Peerage. . . . not the less a species of gambling because it is on a gigantic scale and far removed from that legitimate trading which she delights to honour, in which men have raised themselves by patient industry and unswerving probity."

Today, the Kahal has a stranglehold on Credit, Publicity, and essential commodities and services, so that Jews are stage-managing all "International Situations" and "World Affairs." Honours have become to them mere commonplaces, where a hundred years ago Jews were plotting and scheming for honours to a disgraceful degree, as Queen Victoria knew!

That great Queen knew also that the demeaning of Britian's aristocracy by the inclusion of the Jew meant also a poisoning of the race. She lived in days when blood counted for much, when breed had placed England high in the world; and she knew that a Jewish intermixture would tarnish the stock, and through the principles of heredity would impoverish and contaminate future generations. Today we are witnessing the fruits of dangerous and damaging marital unions such as Queen Victoria may have foreseen.

WAR-MONGERING AND RE-ARMAMENT.

Since the time when Cromwell, in return for money and "information," readmitted th Jews to this country, our Cabinets have slowly and steadily been passing under the influence of the Kahal. It is the power of the Kahal which has forced our Government to admit Jews by thousands into this country, especially since the Great War. From 1933 to 1937, it is computed that between 40,000 and 50,000 Jews were brought into this country under the aegis of the Jewish Board of Deputies, aided by pro-Jewish Gentiles, and this invasion has lately greatly increased, owing to the flight of Jews from Austria. Most of these are revolutionaries. There are now some two millions or more Jews in the British Isles, most of whom have jobs, which accounts in a great measure for our millions unemployed.

In order to bring about Jewish World Domination, it is necessary from time to time to engender wars, so that the most virile and patriotic men are killed or crippled physically or mentally.

Then again, wars greatly fill the coffers of the Kahal, and so give more power for the fell work. This was particularly seen in the Great War, during which Jew financiers in the U.S.A. amassed millions, and which at the same time robbed Great Britain, Russia, Germany, France and Italy of their virile and best men.

Since the war of 1914-1918, revelations of an astounding nature have come to light! Matters which must have been within the knowledge of members of our Government have been exposed in their sinister nakedness. Yet today we have some of those very Government leaders daring to stay in the public eye and having the effrontery to criticise actions which are meek and mild compared with their own nefarious activities of twenty odd years ago and their then inactivity which is possibly worse!

A very brief examination of world affairs will prove the Jewish control of armaments, and the names of large shareholders in munitions firms only adds to the evidence.

It is no answer to say that armaments should be entirely in Government hands, for without tremendous expenditure of taxpayers' money, a Government could not produce sufficient munitions for a modern war of any extent. Private firms must continue. Government supervision of work, capital, and the powers behind those private firms certainly is necessary, and vital.

The Jew in the world of armament manufacture is a sinister example of this exploitation. I shall have something to say about a man known in his day as Zaharoff, although he was really Zachariah! He was the embodiment of the Jew in armaments—selling to all and sundry; encouraging nations to embark on costly adventures, and not caring whether friend or foe were involved so long as the particular war material in which he might be interested at the moment was selling well. There you have a true Jewish method of causing the Gentile world's downfall—the piling up of individual profits from munition making, coupled with incitement to antagonism and to anti-racial activites.

Although the "Man-in-the-Street" does not need the production of such evidence, I feel it advisable to point out to him the opening words of the seventh of the Protocols, written, be it remembered, very long ago:—

> "The intensification of armaments, the increase of police forces—are all essential for the completion of the aforementioned plans. What we have to get at is that there should be in all the States of the world, besides ourselves, only the masses of the proletariat, a few millionaires devoted to our interests, police and soldiers."

SPAIN

The international arms traffic to Spain is run by the following Jews, whose headquarters are in Barcelona:—

Vladimir Bischitzki, Lurge,
Fuchs.

Bischitzki is the head, and has established a network of Jewish agencies all over Europe:

In Paris, the agents are the Jews

Fratkin, Rosenfield, Schapiro.

In Rotterdam
Cohen,
Grünfeld, Kirsch,
Simon.

In Denmark
Moses Israel Diamant.

In Prague
Kinler, Kahn, Abter,
Hithner.

In Austria, Bischitzki worked with the Jew Mandl, now under arrest in Austria.

BOLSHEVISM

The chaos following the Great War of 1914-1918 gave the opportunity for the Jews to use their other great instrument, Bolshevism; and they proceeded inter alia to break up the British Empire which has stood in the way of world-domination for so long.

Working through secret societies, chiefly Grand Orient and high Masonry, and by bribing and controlling traitors and Bolshevik agents and our Press, the Kahal has made great strides during the past quarter of a century.

We have, in real effect, lost Ireland mainly through Lloyd George; Egypt mainly through Ramsey MacDonald; India mainly through Edwin Montague and Lord Reading; and South Africa mainly through Lord Milner* who had Jewish blood, and certain members of whose staff (1897-1901) had Jewish connections.

No doubt the Jews are looking forward to the time that India will be in a state of chaos. They can then loot the gold and jewellery of the Princes, as they did in Russia twenty years ago.

The loss of trade with these countries must inevitably bring us to poverty, and probably starvation.

The Kahl is, of course, at the moment up against the two men, Hitler and Mussolini, who have checked the great plan.

The policy of our Cabinet regarding Abyssinia and

* Note—According to the Sigilla Veri, Berlin, Milner was of Jewish descent.

Spain is undoubtedly governed by the Kahal who are against the two dictators, Mussolini and Hitler.

In the light of what appears in previous pages it is comparatively easy to see the hand of the Kahal behind the great world-push for re-arming—especially with the memory of the immense profits of munition-making.

Parallel with that aim is the consequent and logical tendency to make real use of the great munition Colossus built up at the secret behest of the Jews.

And so we come to the War! And then the other aim of Judaism is reached—the elimination of the strong men who may be opponents to the coming downfall of the Gentile races.

After the Great War, during which millions of the most patriotic and virile men were eliminated by death or by physical or mental disability, the Kahal's activities were concentrated on Germany. The revolutionary government, which replaced that of the Kaiser, was full of Jews, occupying most of the Key positions.

As soon as the Disarmament Commission had left Germany, re-arming was begun, the aim being to make Germany one of the centres for world revolution, working in conjunction with Russia. Meanwhile, Britain was to disarm. But when Hitler seized power in 1933 and turned out the revolutionary Jews, the Kahal was forced to change its plans. Britain must be a centre; Britain must re-arm and become powerful, to be used as the chief tool in their plans for world revolution.

The Kahal, whether for power, for a twisted personal pride, or for mere dirty money, trade in human blood—your blood and my blood; the blood of our dear ones, and indeed, of anybody's dear ones!

They manufacture Soul-Fear; they foster human weakness and chaos. Enmity 'twixt brothers and kindred, and nation and nation: this is the breadth of their evil lives—the manure from which grows the fungus of their canker!

By bringing about wars or rumours of war, by revolutions and by causing unrest in countries, the Kahal can cause slumps and booms in the share market, thereby making enormous profits—generally at the expense of the Gentile.

Yet many of them are labelled "respectable"! They have "honour" and "honours thrust upon them—often because they part with blood-soaked money for divers reasons, and sometimes in reward for "services rendered," which services dare not be named!

Men who were undoubtedly traitors have been given honours, some of which are hereditary; so are their characters and propensities.

Truly, it is an evil thing—this low commerce in the means of destruction.

Judging by the recent disclosures re building aircraft, it would seem that History is repeating itself. Surely, in the Great War, we experienced enough of the dangers resulting from placing contracts for munitions of war in the United States of America.

"THE TRIUMPH OF UNARMED FORCES"

"The Greatest Tragedy in History."

"In War one of the chief duties of the Navy is to arrest ships supplying the enemy. . . . This was most efficiently carried out by the British Fleet. . . . But the effectiveness of the work was seriously impaired by the release of many ships without the sanction of the Prize Courts. . . .

"The Admiralty knew the position, but were in conflict with the Foreign Office, whose officials also knew —none better—the state of the case. The Government of the United States were also aware that Great Britain was trading with the enemy. . . . It was this knowledge which inspired American opposition to the exercise by this country of the right to stop supplies to the enemy sent by American traders while America remained neutral."

It was impossible for Lloyd George to have been ignorant of this conspiracy, which so greatly prolonged the war.

MUNITIONS SCANDALS.

Before the Great War, 1914-1918, the department of the Quartermaster-General gave out more contracts than any other in the Army, including those for food for man and beast, transport, and animals, etc., etc. To a great extent this department was in the hands of the Jews, together with Masonic influence.

On the other hand, the Ordnance department contracts were comparatively small until the Great War brought mechanisation and enormous demands for guns and munitions.

Then the Jews saw another chance.

In view of this growth, the Jews had already got busy behind the scenes, and thereafter Lloyd George, at their behest, did away with the office of Master-General of Ordnance, and started the Ministry of Munitions. This new plan was greatly boomed in our Jew-controlled Press, and Lloyd George got great kudos. As a young solicitor, he had been solicitor to the Zionists in Manchester,* and later was entangled in the notorious Marconi Scandal of 1912. Lloyd George's policy before the War, during the War, and after the War, proved most disastrous to us.

To get to the root causes of Jewish permeation in this and other directions we can forget matters like the Protocols which are alleged to be debatable subjects, and go to the Jews' own printed word here in England.

The "Jewish World" of February 9, 1883, announced in its leading article that the great Ideal of Judaism was not for the Jews to be merely "allowed to flock together one day in some hole and corner fashion. . . . " but that the whole world "shall be imbued with Jewish teachings . . . . but that . . . . in a greater Judaism . . . . all the separate races and religions shall disappear!"

The next week, February 16, 1883, another leading article was even more cogent and prophetic. It referred to the "new Constitution of the (Jewish) Board of Deputies" which, said the journal—

> "enables the Board to become representative of all the congregations under the authority of the Chief Rabbi. . . . The measure is an important one, and reflects much credit on the sagacity of Mr. Samuel Montagu, to whose initiative it is due. . . . The real importance of the new Constitution is . . . . that it provides a machinery for enabling the Jews of England to work together when the occasion requires—that in short, it organises the Jews of the whole Empire, and renders their aggregate force available in cases of emergency."

Coming back now to the Lloyd George Munitions Ministry, where no business-like accounts seem to have been kept, this root cause of Jewish permeation and operation sheds a strong light on strange events. Sir P. Sassoon, a Parsee Jew, was Secretary to Lord Haig, our Commander-in-Chief, and later at the Peace Conference with Lloyd George! Rufus Isaacs went to the U.S.A. on special mission, mainly financial! Edwin Montagu was given the Ministry of Munitions in 1916, following Lloyd George, who had reaped all the kudos he desired in that job. Thus, and otherwise too, the Kahal became well represented in most powerful quarters.

In Lord Haig's diaries, published in the Sunday Pictorial 29/9/35, the following appears: —

> (1916) " Among the notabilities whom Lord Haig interviewed in France, Edwin Montagu, who had succeeded Lloyd George as Minister of Munitions, impressed him (Lord Haig) as ' a capable and agreeable man who seemed to understand his job though he has only recently taken over. He is full of determination to help the Army as much as he possibly can. ' "

It appears from this that Lord Haig did not realise the kind of man he was interviewing. Montague showed himself to be an arch enemy of the British Empire when in India a few years later. (Sir P. Sassoon was Secretary to Lord Haig 1915-1918.) What about the Intelligence Department at the War Office?

It would be interesting to know whether Edwin Montagu placed the armament business to all intents and purposes into the hands of Bernard Baruch, who became head of the War Industries Board of the U.S.A., and probably even then the most powerful man in the U.S.A. If not, who did? and whether all the millions of British money spent in America were accounted for to this country? But by far the worst part of the business was the faulty Artillery ammunition supplied from the U.S.A. which killed thousands of our men, these shells bursting often over our own lines; and the defective ammunition for rifles and machine guns which so often caused jams. The writer has collected a mass of evidence on these matters. The British Public were at that time never allowed to hear about this and the full story has since been apparently suppressed. The chief censor in France in the War was Lord Birkenhead (who owed £42,000 Income Tax when he died).

There now seems every reason to believe that this supply of munitions from the U.S.A., which had such a marked effect on the War, was carefully planned. First it was necessary to do away with that important and powerful post on the Army Council, the Master General of Ordnance, who would of course have prevented the development of the U.S.A. scheme. Why was Major-General Sir Stanley Von Donop accused in 1914-1915 of neglect in his preparations, seeing that he was then in touch with some 2,500 munition firms in this country? (Vide the evidence by General Von Donop before the Royal Commission on the Private Manufacture of and Trading in Arms, October 10th, 1916.) Was Mr. Lloyd George an agent, conscious or unconscious, of the financial gang in America, who made such enormous profits out of our urgent requirements?

Why was the Ministry of Munitions Investigation Committee 1920, Sir Arthur Michael Samuel chairman, closed down after two or three weeks and no report issued except "that it was not in the public interests, etc., etc., that a report should be made"?

Another question which would seem to bear is why were the Income Declarations of certain very prominent members of the War Industries Board of the U.S.A. destroyed or lost by the Income Tax Bureau, when their production now would throw light on the question of the amount of personal profit made by these gentlemen from the supply of ammunition? (Vide Senatorial Commission U.S.A.)

Few people have realised that the greater part of the money said to be due from the British Government to the U.S.A. ("War Debts") is not on account of anything bought by us but in payment of munitions and other things ordered by Russia, and which the U.S. Government refused to supply unless we backed the bill. This Jewish gang in the U.S.A. probably then knew that Russia would soon be in a state of revolution and would never pay up.

Most of the accounts for munitions supplied to the British Government (direct) had already been settled.

Lord Reading was in Washington 1915-1919.

The report of the recent "Royal Commission on the Private Manufacture of and Trading in Arms, 1935" is of interest on this subject. It seems to be a "crank" Commission judging by some of the members on it and the evidence given by Dr. Addison on most important matters. This Commission consisted only of a great lawyer, an ex-servant of the League of Nations, three well-known writers, a Lancashire cotton merchant, and a member of the Co-operative movement—not a single soldier; or an expert in armaments; not a scientist, even!

It is scandalous, and strangely so too, that Major-General Sir Stanley Von Donop was not notified about the assembly of this Commission, but on reading the statements made by Dr. Addison he requested to be called. General Von Donop in his evidence showed that these statements were inaccurate and misleading—in fact, lies.

All ex-Servicemen will remember the casualties we suffered in the Great War from bad fuses and short-burst shells! Lord Bertie, British Ambassador at Paris during the War, notes in his Diaries that the advisers and supporters to the Government would experience " great losses to their businesses by the exposure of the unconscionable profits that munition makers had been receiving. We are paying 16s. for shell fuses, the equivalent of which can be made here for 2 francs." That was one result of our paying Jew conspirators to provide munitions.

Lloyd George's much belauded Ministry of Munitions, with unlimited help, money, etc., did not produce a single completed shell until April 1916, ten months after it was set up, June, 1915. For more than eighteen months the Army was furnished with continually increasing supplies under the original arrangements made by the War Office.

Down to the opening of the Battle of the Somme, the munitions expended in the field had been ordered before the formation of the Ministry of Munitions.

Much capital was made out of Sir Stanley Von Donop's German name. But Sir Stanley's father was a British Admiral, and previous generations of his family had served in our Army and Navy.

CONTRACTS

And what about the enormous contracts now in connection with this great re-armament (1938)? Have steps been taken to prevent a repetition of 1914-1918? Judging by the recent disclosures regarding the building of aircraft, it would seem that history is repeating itself. Surely in the Great War we experienced enough of the dangers resulting from placing contracts for munitions of war in the United States of America. A great noise is now being made about the shortage of aircraft. Yet our Government admits that fighting aircraft of the value of $2\frac{1}{2}$ million pounds were exported last year. And what about the enormous number of commercial planes exported, that can quickly be converted.

BY ORDER OF THE KAHAL.

For Judaism to succeed, the united British Empire must be broken asunder as a preliminary to its entire destruction. The Kahal is attending to this today.

The power of the Kahal was seen in bringing about the South African War, 1899-1902.

General Sir William Butler, G.O.C. troops, S.A., 1898-1899, was a fine soldier, and a Catholic. He " saw through " this Jewish conspiracy. He knew his world, and warned the Government against the War.*

He was summarily ordered home and put on the retired list, and those who had helped him were blacklisted; yet everything he had said or done proved later only too true and right. He knew that the real object of the Jews was to get complete control of the Gold Mines.

In 1906 self-government was given. We lost South Africa. In the Union of South Africa the Jews secured a centralisation away and apart from the whole Empire.

THE ZIONIST HEADQUARTERS.

Berlin was the Zionist headquarters before 1914, but in 1916 that centre was shifted to New York, and it was here that the instructions for the drawing up of the infamous Balfour Declaration were issued.

In Germany, the Kaiser's advisers and most intimate friends were Jews like Rathenau, Ballin and Bethmann-Hollweg. The German Press was owned and edited also by Jews. Even we had a Jewish Ambassador in Berlin—Goschen.

It was Rathenau the Jew who said that " 300 men, each of whom knows all the others, govern the fate of Europe." He it was who was the only man with a private wire to the Kaiser! The Junker elements, who were then rather out of favour at Court, had not as much influence as the Jews. It is often said " Wars are the Jews' harvest."

THEN CAME THE GREAT WAR.

And after it had been " won " by the Allies, the Peace Conference was packed with Jews: Paul Baruch, Morgenthau, Lippman, Paul Warburg and his brother Max, Strauss, Jaffe, Mendelsohn-Bartholdi, Sassoon, Mandel, Mantoux interpreter to the " Big Four," and the rest! So it was that even in those unsuspecting and unenlightened days, the Kosher nature of the Conference was remarked upon!

And in that Great War, many signs of sinister portent were witnessed! Why, for instance, were general officers who were known to be incompetent sent to Gallipoli? Did the Kahal intend that the expedition should be a failure, so that British prestige might be, as it certainly was, damaged?

We lost thousands of men and millions of money in Mesopotamia, to capture the great oilfields there; oil kings, mostly Jews, possess them today.

POWER IN WHITEHALL.

It is no secret now that Jews held important and confidential posts in Whitehall, 1914-1918. Lloyd George was, to a great extent responsible for our unpreparedness, both naval and military, in 1914, and for misleading our people as to the true situation, and for assuring the German General Staff that we would not support France. It was Lloyd George who so constantly interfered with Lord Haig in France during the War. He frequently took troops, which were greatly needed in France, for expeditions elsewhere ("sideshows"). The main reason that the Fifth Army was pressed so terribly in 1918 was that General Gough was relying on reinforcements promised from England. These were held back by Lloyd George.

What was the power in the Autumn of 1918 which prevented the Allies in France from pursuing the German Army, who were demoralised and "in a bottle neck," and carrying the War into Germany, instead of making "The Armistice"?

Why was the victorious advance of the Franco-British army under Franchet d'Esperey held up when the Bulgarian army's resistance collapsed in 1918?

As Prime Minister Lloyd George must be held responsible for the failure of the attempt to save the Tzar and his family by means of a British warship.

Since then, other wars and revolutions have been brought about through Moscow Jew Bolshevik influence and money, notably Spain and China. And there have been rumours and threats of other wars from the same source.

The break-away of the Irish Free State can be traced largely to the financial and other machinations of a Zionist Jew called Robert Briscoe, backed by unlimited money from Jew financiers in New York, working through Lloyd George.

The work of Edward Montague and Rufus Isaacs in India was a primary cause of the upheaval there, which continues.

Our leading politicians seem to have been "fixed," to use an American expression, by the Jew, i.e. bribed, bullied or blackmailed; and many of our M.P.'s are so mixed up in business with men of this race that their hands are tied. They are not free agents! (Our senior Civil Servants retire and get Directorships.) Thus it is that time is wasted in throwing dust into the eyes of the public, to cover the misgovernment.

There appears to be no limit to the amount of misrepresentation to which politicians are prepared to go when it is a question of pleasing Jewry. A prime example of this was the speech made by Sir Samuel Hoare (a Quaker) to the Rotary (Masonic) International Club on May 7th, 1938, when he said:

> "For time out of memory there had been no Jewish question in Great Britain. Anti-Semitism we had refused to countenance, and Great Britain had gained morally, intellectually, and economically from these long years of unbroken toleration."

To-day Jews are buying up the mortgages on properties of leading men in this country, as they have been doing in other countries.

In almost every country and wherever one looks into the greater public events, the hand of the Kahal is clearly discernable.

OIL !

Those who own the Oil of the world at the present time rule the world.

Almost the whole of our naval ships and most of our commercial ships are now run on oil.

All our Air Force is entirely dependent on oil.

Our home transport is becoming more and more dependent on oil.

From where does our Government expect to get this oil in time of war? The only British Colonies which supply oil are Trinidad and Burmah, and this in compartive small quantities. It is significant that there have been serious revolts in the former country.

Thousands of lives were lost and many millions of money were spent in the War on the campaign in Mesopotamia. The main aim was to get hold of the oilfields. But who controls the oilfields in that part of the world now, including Persia? International Jewry has the control of these oil companies! Besides, this is dependent on the long and vulnerable pipe line.

It is the Kahal that has captured the monopoly of the world oil.

Our mercantile marine is much smaller now than in 1914, and a considerable portion of these ships are tankers, which carry nothing but oil as our requirements of oil are much greater.

OUR FOOD SUPPLY.

What about our food supply? We have four million more people to feed as compared to 1914. We spend a million pounds per day now on imported food. Have we got the ships to transport this?

We have the best ships' coal in the world; but the Kahal has decreed that our ships must be run on oil—their oil—thus giving the Jews yet another stranglehold of our unfortunate country.

The recent propaganda of our Government on increasing food production is an insult to the intelligence of the public.

It seems to propose to increase the productivity of our farms in a few weeks. It would take five years to make our farms produce what they did twenty years ago.

The average farmer has been so impoverished that he has not been able to buy fertilisers or to feed his stock so well. Also, there is a great reduction in horse manure.

The consequences of these are that our land has become weak and poor.*

The late Minister of Agriculture, the Fabian Walter Elliott, seemed to concentrate on destroying the farmer. He certainly achieved his object, namely, to make the farmer and his men the slaves of a Soviet system as in Russia.

Further—so much good agricultural land has been taken over for rebuilding, for roads, etc., etc. This is a serious matter in our small island.

PROTOCOL VI.

The aristocracy of the Goyim, as a political force, is dead —we need not take it into account; but as landed proprietors they can still be harmful to us from the fact that they are self-sufficing in the resources upon which they live. It is essential therefore for us, at whatever cost, to deprive them of their land. This object will be best attained by increasing the burdens upon landed property—in loading lands with debt. These measures will check land-holding and keep it in a state of humble and unconditional submission. . . At the same time we must intensively patronise trade and industry, but, first and foremost, speculation, the part played by which is to provide a counterpoise to industry; the absence of speculative industry will multiply capital in private hands, will serve to restore agriculture by freeing the land from indebtedness to the land banks. What we want is that industry should drain off from the land both labour and capital, and by means of speculation transfer into our hands all the money of the world, and thereby throw all the Goyim into the ranks of the proletariat. Then the Goyim will bow down before us, if for no other reason but to get the right to exist.

POLITICAL PARTY ORGANISATIONS.

When we make investigation into the various political party organisations we find the same hand of the Jew pulling the strings and whenever necessary providing the money for the upkeep of the tame and sycophantic committees which are thought to be " in charge."

Of course in many cases the source of the money is secret —" confidential "—and the finance is afforded in devious ways. Jew finance for a party newspaper is a favourite method, and this does not fall in the category of " election expenses "! Other means are by way of payment of official salaries, and by simpler means such as entertainments, sports trophies, prizes and the like all seemingly pure philanthropy but actually carried out on so lavish a scale as to be exceedingly like bribery and corrupton.

In the Socialist Party, we can understand the Jew influence. Wherever the Jew can stir up discontent and breed Bolshevism, there he sets his minions to work, so that in that part of the social world he can undermine the Gentile order. So-called Labour orators and workers are largely alien, as any person who attends the public meetings can testify by the evidence merely of his own eyes.

In the Liberal and Conservative Parties, the Jew works more by means of financial support. But he extols his toll for this, and Jewish heads of Committees and departments are the result.

I have referred to this matter in an earlier page, but it is no secret that in recent years the so-called " Central " Conservative Office has been mainly financed by Jews. This has resulted in an extraordinary kindness when dealing with aliens entering the country, especially Jewis aliens.

And Ashridge College, founded in memory of Mr. Bonar Law as a Conservative School, which employs as lecturers people who vary from pink to deep red.

It may also account for the confusion—probably intentional confusion—that has been brought into newspaper reports concerning the Spanish revolt, whereby the Reds are described as " The Government," and by a strange reversal of the ordinary practice receive continuous and violent support from our Socialists, which really goes to prove that the so-called Spanish Government forces are a gang of Bolshevists. There has scarcely been any mention that this revolution was largely organised by Bela Kuhn, with unlimited Moscow money.

So far as I have seen the "Daily Mail" and "Sunday Despatch" are almost alone in describing the two parties in Spain as "Reds" and "Anti-Reds," which are, clearly, correct descriptions.

This Judaeo-Masonic influence at Party headquarters is manifested in many ways, but always in a way that happens to be detrimental to our national interests, and helpful to the opponents of British practice and policy. It cannot be accidental. It is assuredly designed and planned!

It is designed and planned in order that Gentile philosophy and Gentile influence shall be brought to nought!

One wonders, indeed, if any "Party" is exempt from the Zionist germ. Certainly most of our charitable bodies have been "brought up" by the Jews, who are "charitable" wherever their ends may be served. Their motive can almost always be seen to be ulterior, except in a few cases where policy requires a gesture, and there the financial support is strangely nominal!

Our Government cannot say that they were not warned.

Reporting to London on September 6, 1918, the representative of Britain in St. Petersburg, M. Oudendyke, warned our Government against Bolshevism which he said "should be put an end to at once or the civilisation of the whole world would be threatened." He added "as it is organised and worked by Jews who have no nationality and whose one object is to destroy for their own ends the existing order of things."

In a Foreign Office White Book in April, 1919, this statement appeared, but it was quickly withdrawn from circulation and was succeeded by a bowdlerised edition omitting this last sentence (in italics) about the Jews. If this was not done by Jewish influence here, then why was it done?

JEWISH LEADERS SPEAK

Nahum Sokolow, President of the Executive Committee of the Zionist Congress, on the 25th August, 1932, said: "The League of Nations is a Jewish idea." Lucien Wolf, former Plenipotentiary of the Jews at the Peace Conference, 1919, and Delegate to the League, said: "If the League of Nations went under, the whole edifice so laboriously built up by the Jewish delegations of England and America at Paris, in 1919, would collapse." Hermalin, a Jew lecturing in New York in 1917, said: "The Russian Revolution was brought about by Jews. We formed secret Societies. . . . We Jews suggested the Reign of Terror. . . . We Jews made the Revolution a success at last by our convincing propaganda and by means of mass assassination, intending to make a Government of our own." The Jewish World, 15th March, 1923, wrote: "Fundamentally, Judaism is anti-Christian." Bolshevism is Jewish.

Russia is under a Jewish dictatorship. France is governed by Jews and Grand Orient Freemasons, with whom members of the British Cabinet have the closest affiliation. In order to encircle Germany, which has deposed Jews from political power, France has joined in an armed alliance with Bolshevik Russia. Other states of Europe, notably Czecho-Slovakia and Roumania, take their orders from Dr. Benesh, a Mason of high degree. Geneva is dictated to by Litvinoff, a bank robber, one of the gang who committed foul murders and mass assassinations in Russia. Through the League, successive British Ministers have deliberately subordinated the peace, welfare and prosperity and happiness of the British people and of the Empire to a sordid Jewish conspiracy for World Power. Germany, menaced by immense armies, in defence of the national home, with customary German skill and determination, has rebuilded her armed forces. She has re-occupied the Rhineland with her own troops, as any prudent and self-respecting nation would do. At the time of the King's funeral, Litvinov was invited by the Government to Buckingham Palace and to conversations. He, with other Jews, and the head of the Russian army, were engaged in diplomatic conversations, visits to British and French armament factories, all of which manoeuvres, with other sinister European figures, Jews and political puppets threatened peace and what has been called "the Locarno Spirit."

The policy of our recent Governments has been against the two dictators. The popular cry now, influenced by our Jew-controlled Press, is "We Want no Dictators."

Yet the policy of our Cabinet has been dictated for many years by men who have no country—by Jews. Examples of this are the various Boards (Milk, Bacon, Eggs, Transport, Housing, etc., etc.) which are really Soviets, and exercise a power just as dictatorial as anything in Germany or Italy today. The right of appeal to a jury is denied. And what about P.E.P. (Political and Economic Planning)? Recently our foreign policy has been dictated by Litvinov through the League of Nations.

The points emphasise what I have already written. If the various coups of Herr Hitler make the world uncomfortable, it is principally because Hitler has so much upset the Zionist plans, and roused the Jews to a frenzy of rage and persistent underground propaganda against him.

Actually, at the moment, Hitler is the Jewry's worst foe! People and our Press make all kinds of objections to his acts and methods, and to his whole dictatorship, but they fail to realise that he and Mussolini saved Europe from Bolshevism. And the Jews do see definitely that he is their greatest enemy. I marvel that he has been able to hold his position and his life for so long, in view of the Judaic antagonism alone which he has engendered!

Not that the Jews are to be blamed for all the causes of unrest in the world today. But they can and do exploit those causes to their own foul end and to their major aim of world domination.

Here again, in this organisation, we can see the Judaic Bolshevik tradition expressed blatantly by a lot of so-called "highbrow" people who actually have sunk in mental efficiency far below the lowest of "lowbrows."

Cozened and cajoled by effeminate men and "sexless" women, it has adopted a superiority in all its words and acts; pouring contempt on those "lesser" folk who will not consort with it nor its tenets, because they feel that what is called "modern thought" is frankly an insane obsession. It is more than that, too, for it takes the soul back to jungle ways and extols all that we have come to regard as base.

And if a man may be judged by the company he keeps, then the "Left Book Club" is condemned as an unpleasant thing of alien Jewish origin.

In January, 1938, there was a meeting of the Left Book Club sympathisers at Albert Hall, when fully fifty per cent. of the audience were clearly of recent alien extraction and, of course, the speeches were largely revolutionary.

In the journal "The New Statesman" on November 6, 1937, Frederic J. Warburg wrote:—

> "For some time now the firm (Martin Secker and Warburg) of which I am a director has sought to provide a representative selection of books embodying the most advanced thought on modern problems for those who were interested. . . .

"In this way we have issued books by English Communists, members of the I.L.P., Pacifists, Russian Communists, Trotskyists, negro revolutionaries, Eurasian Radicals, Communist sympathisers of various kinds, and Socialists maintaining independence of any political party."

The "Left Book Club" seems to be well-served in this class of "literature," which is so "advanced," in my opinion, as to pander to all kinds of unpleasant reasoning and which indeed is largely a throw-back to the aborigine. It is one of the things which Jewry loves to inspire in the world so that in the end the Gentile shall be demeaned and shall wallow in vicious and antagonistic thought.

A further manifestation of this character is the so-called "Christian Book Club," who sponsors include Victor Gollanz and the Dean of Canterbury. The latter's Red sympathies are too well known to need comment. The prospectus states "The Christian Book Club will work in close association with the Left Book Club."

A SETBACK.

Patriotic people have been hoping that under Neville Chamberlain we should have a patriotic, anti-Bolshevik regime. But when Hore-Belisha* was sent to "talk" to Signor Mussolini, April last, it was evident that Chamberlain either does not realise the grave dangers of Bolshevism, or that he is not in power. It was an insult to Mussolini, and a deliberate affront to Chancellor Hitler.

CONCLUSION.

It has often been asked, particularly by pro-Jewish and "Liberal" minded persons: If the Kahal is so powerful in Russia, why was Stalin allowed to execute recently so many important and prominent Jews? They were executed by order of the Kahal headquarters, because they were not obedient to the laws of the Kahal. That the Kahal has never hesitated to execute its own agents both Jewish and Gentile, who fail to carry out its orders in fear or in revolt, is a fact which numerous examples in former and in recent times testify. The accused had been willing tools of foreign powers in a conspiracy to bring about the dismemberment of the Soviet Union.

* The French paper Gringoire (29/4/38) stated that Belisha's family originally came from the Jewish quarter (ghetto) of Mogador, Morocco, where the ancestral home of England's "future Prime Minister" is pointed out with pride to tourists.

PROTOCOL XV.

"We are obliged without hesitation to sacrifice individuals who commit a breach of established order, for in the exemplary punishment of evil lies a great educational problem."

"Death is the inevitable end for all. It is better to bring that end nearer to those who hinder our affairs than to ourselves to the founders of this affair."

In spite of all these executions so dramatically written up in the Jew-controlled Press of the world, the Jewish control of administrative and foreign contact positions in Russia remains unaffected. Lazrovitch Kaganovitch, Stalin's father-in-law, who in 1937 had no less thn 67 relations and friends in various posts in the central administration of Russia, remains at Stalin's elbow and as the Soviet Diplomatic Agent, Theodore Boutenko, who escaped from the Soviet Embassy in Bukharest on February 6th, 1938, has pointed out, the new "Bourgeoise" which has formed is composed of 100 per cent. of Jews who enjoy the protection of Stalin's most intimate adviser, Kaganovitch. All the big Fabrics and Factories, the monopoly of industry, war industry, the railroads, trade big and small, are virtually and effectively in the hands of Jews, whilst the working class figures only on the theoretical abstraction as "the Patroness of Economy."

Abroad, Russia is still invariably represented by a Jew or Jews, particularly in the case of the Great Powers, and in the cases where the ambassador is not a Jew, the secretary or assistant is nearly always Jewish. Further, the arch-Jew Litvinov (Finkelstein-Wallach) remains as Russia's representative at Geneva, and the Jew Maisky, Russia's ambassador at the Court of St. James.

A FINAL WORD.

The writer may be accused of having, in these pages, overstated the case. But we British people are so very trusting; so prone straightway to accept a man's word because our own word has always been our bond. It seems almost monstrous to suggest that pleasant-spoken people can have designs against our peace.

The reader can be assured that we have, in these pages, most vastly understated the case!

The law has been so cunningly and intentionally turned and confused that to say coal is black or water wet may be a criminal offence. We cannot here publish one tenth of what we know but we can only give an indication of the great peril, and actually we take risk in doing even this. But we feel we must do it, let the consequences be what they may. Our statements and more are being confirmed and added to by every daily newspaper today to those who can read between the lines.

If I seem to stress the success of Hitler, I am just a man who has reviewed phases of life in many lands and amongst all classes of individuals. I admire a brave, patriotic leader—would to God that we had one in our unfortunate country! I have certainly made a study of this Jewish plot and know from my own wide experience the tenacity of their purpose, the depths to which they will sink, and the heights they seek and are determined to attain. I believe Hitler and his friends have similar knowledge, and that in his Germanic patriotism he has determined to root out the Jews from the German lands.

He is accused, amongst other things, of suppressing foreign news in his country, and one great reason for this is because he knows its source is tainted by Zionism! The news would come to his people from Jew-ridden countries outside Germany, and Hitler will not have it! His dictatorship enables him to permit only the minimum of Judaic influence to enter Germany.

IRELAND

As this book goes to Press, we read that a member of our Cabinet (the son of one of the most contemptible traitors in our history, who at a critical period of the Great War tried to start a revolution) has made a treaty regarding Ireland with a man alleged to be an American-born Portuguese Jew.

This treaty includes that certain naval bases and harbours are to be handed over entirely to the (so-called) Government of Ireland. No intelligent person believes that, in case of war, these will not be used to help the enemy, even if only supplying oil to submarines, as happened in 1914-1918.

This treaty also states that the advances of over a hundred million pounds to Ireland during the last fifty years or so are to be settled by a token payment of ten millions.

The report of this treaty was cleverly published the day before the Budget, thus detracting notice.

It was Lloyd George and Asquith who set De Valera free on more than one occasion when he was captured or his forces cornered.

When at a critical period during negotiations with Ireland in 1919 Sir Henry Wilson was murdered outside his house in London, it was disclosed that Sir Henry's guards had been removed only a few days before.

THE LIFE OF ZAHAROFF.

The following short life of Zaharoff will undoubtedly throw a good deal of light on this subject.

SIR BASIL ZAHAROFF. PROGENITOR OF ARMAMENT RACING!

I come now to the man known as Zaharoff—he whose love of money or power, or both, led to the modern growth of Armament Racing! At his behest, suggestions, or by his art and craft of salesmanship, wars were engendered! Countries armed themselves against imaginary dangers which—in the soil of rivalry—fructified into real peril, and active warfare!

He was able to exert an influence so great that he could apparently engineer the dethronement of monarchs, and offer their crowns to others, as he did in the case of Portugal.

With his world-wide connections, his money accumulations must have been terrific! By his contract with one firm alone, he became entitled during the Great War to a commission of 67 per cent. on £34,000,000!

This man, who "travelled" in death and "did" so well out of it, grew from humble stock. His parents—Jews in the Greek quarter of Constantinople—escaped, during one of the periodic Turkish massacres of "Christians," into Russia and changed their name conveniently to a Russian-sounding one, Zaharoff! Prior to this, their name was probably one of the following:—Zacharios, Zacharias, Zchar or Sahar.

Eventually they found their way back to Anatolia, where their son Basileios was born, and finally arrived again with their old acquaintances in Tatavla, the poorest Greek quarter of Constantinople.

The son Basileios, in the squalid slums of Tatavla, grew to early manhood and became at various periods, a guide, a money-changer, and also a fireman.

Now the firemen in Constantinople of that day were notorious in that they secured their pay merely by annexing whatever property they could salvage in a fire! They are alleged to have caused fires for this purpose, and this, if true, does certainly in Zaharoff's case, give a pre-view of his after-career when he set nations alight for personal gain!

The young Basileios, after an eventful sea trip to London —where his employer in Greece had him arrested and charged with larceny, resulting in his release on bail and subsequent disappearance—seems to have adopted further multiple "professions," and was successively shopman, barman, and agent.

In 1877 a Swedish sea-captain passed on to him a doubtful kind of job (an apparent sinecure) as Balkan agent for the armement firm of Nordenfeldt; and from that time this young Greek Jew began to go onwards.

Eight years later he sold to Greece their first submarine —a Nordenfeldt one! Then he went to Turkey and sold its Government two Nordenfeldt submarines!

During the following three years he interested himself in the Nordenfeldt quick-firing gun, which, however, was being seriously menaced by a rival gun invented by a new-comer named Hiram Maxim. But Zaharoff attended the trials of the two guns at various places and was able to insinuate doubts as to the newer Maxim gun to such purpose that its sale was retarded, until the Maxim firm was glad in self-defence to unite with Nordenfeldts at the end of 1888 and this new firm with its better gun went ahead by leaps and bounds.

Zaharoff now entered the big armament circles and in those parts of it where bribery and blackmail could be practised and where cunning was a daily necessity. For he worked "on commission" practically throughout his career. The buying of Press control, the secret buying of control in businesses and banks, bribery camouflaged as charity or "good turns," the establishment of arms firms in many countries under local names, with affiliations all over the world, became part and parcel of the Zaharoff creed.

For more than forty years his armament scandal continued—on and on through little and big wars—during which time famous statesmen became involved and enmeshed in the vortex created by Zaharoff. His power grew beyond appreciation! He was probably the most powerful member of the Jew Kahal in which both as Jew and a world-power of himself, he was doubtless a foremost and welcome leader!

Certainly he made blunders; very few though! He was lucky in his scheming—so lucky indeed that he told Prince Christopher of Greece that if he had not been so lucky he would "have been murdered long ago or else serving a life sentence in some prison"! And he certainly knew!

Such was this "Man of Mystery" in Europe, the "Armament Moloch," the "Merchant of Death," the "Arms Monster"—he had been given many such titles. It was left to England to "honour" him with G.C.B., G.B.E., D.C.L. (Oxford), etc., etc.

He has been written about with fulsome flattery by Lewisohn (a Jew of course), as a giver of great gifts. He has been heaped with contumely for his dreadful trade, and has again been glossed over as a mere "salesman." To me, he is almost inhuman—a man preying on his fellow-creatures in the most vile and sinister way!

His financial influence and power was such that he could ruin the banking credit of one firm so that it should be forced into amalgamation with another organisation and become secondary to it. So, he brought about the suppression of many a dangerous rival; and in England and elsewhere he was able to effect such "" unions" over and over again.

His craft was such that he got his clutches into many noble characters and so widespread was his power that it was difficult indeed to escape. There is the instance of the statesman who refused to be bribed and was quite immovable in his honesty. Zaharoff mentioned the next day as being Sunday whereas it was Saturday. On being corrected he insisted that it was Sunday and was so vehement that he eventually wagered the statesman £5,000 that the next day was Sunday. The statesman had to win, of course; but he was not "bribed"!!

One of Zaharoff's few blunders, and this was one that affected our own British prestige, was in the backing of Venizelos; but possibly his seventy years of age and the defection of "friends" who probably now feared him less, were partly responsible for this failure.

It will be remembered that in 1921-22 Zaharoff, Venezelos and Lloyd George encouraged the Greeks in their war against the Turks. Lloyd George promised that the British Army should support the Greeks, but the Turkish Army had greatly improved, under German officers, and drove the Greeks into the sea, after great massacres. Lloyd George even tried to get help from our Dominions.

The result of this war was that we lost a valuable trade in the Levant.

These three men undoubtedly did the work of the Kahal and they dominated modern Europe.

To keep up the sale of Armaments, it was Zaharoff's duty first to make wars and then to sell, if possible, to both sides.

With his great influence with the financiers he was able not only to make or ruin large companies, but monarchs and Prime Ministers were just puppets in his hands!

When he passed out of this life, he left behind a world holocaust of bad feeling, and a host of men whose consciences should smite them throughout life! But he undoubtedly helped the growth of the Judaic plot against Gentile civilisation in a tremendous degree and his danger therefore continues.

Re: GEORGE DEATHERAGE

Dear Mr. Messersmith:

In keeping with the suggestion contained in your letters of May 22, 1939, and June 1, 1939, a surveillance of George Deatherage, head of the Knights of the White Camellia, was recently maintained from Charleston, West Virginia, to New York City.

Deatherage left Charleston, West Virginia, at 10:25 P. M. on August 22, 1939, via the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, destined for New York City. The surveillance was taken up at Charleston, West Virginia. Deatherage arrived in Washington, D. C. at 8:25 A. M., August 23, 1939, but did not leave the Union Station. He was met at the Union Station by two individuals, who were ascertained to be Henry D. Allen and Captain Hunter McGuire, retired United States Army officer. During his forty-minute stop-over in Washington, Deatherage had breakfast at the Gateway Restaurant in the Union Station. The Henry D. Allen by whom Deatherage was met is identical with the Henry D. Allen then testifying before the Dies Committee investigating un-American activities. Captain Hunter McGuire is a retired United States Army officer who now acts as body-guard for Allen. McGuire's address is said to be 2820 28th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. McGuire was born in the State of New York, April 16, 1891, and was appointed Second Lieutenant in the Infantry on August 9, 1917. He was temporarily appointed Captain on June 16, 1918, and was permanently appointed to the position of Captain on July 1, 1920. He retired in the latter capacity on August 31, 1934. McGuire is a member of the Army and Navy Club, 17th and Eye Streets, N. W., Washington, D. C. He is known to distribute Pelley literature at that club. He is a frequent associate of James True, publisher of Industrial Control Reports, an anti-Jewish publication.

During the time that Henry D. Allen was testifying before the Dies Committee in Washington, D. C., he resided at the Lafayette Hotel, where he registered on August 22, 1939, furnishing his permanent address as 2806 Nina Street, Pasadena, California.

After a forty-minute stop-over in Washington, D. C., Deatherage proceeded on the same train to New York City, where he arrived at 12:55 P. M. on August 23, 1939. He registered immediately at the Commodore Hotel and was first contacted by W. Schier Bryant, who discussed matters concerning anti-Semitism. On the evening of August 23, 1939, Deatherage was the principal speaker at a large meeting of the Christian Mobilizers. This meeting was attended by approximately 5,000 persons and was held in Bronx, New York. Deatherage received his invitation to speak at this meeting from Joseph E. McWilliams, who was reported to be a Texan and who is commander of the Christian Mobilizers. Fritz Kuhn also spoke at this meeting, which was attended by approximately sixty members of the Uniformed Order of the German-American Bund, which is commonly referred to as the Ordnung Dienst. Captain Collins of the Protestant War Veterans of America was also a speaker at this meeting.

For approximately three hours on the morning of August 24, 1939, Deatherage discussed anti-Semitism with a Mrs. P. Yaeger of New York City. She is a woman of about sixty years of age. Deatherage had luncheon with Fritz Kuhn from 1:30 P. M. to 3:30 P. M. on August 24, 1939. From 4:00 P. M. to 5:00 P. M. on August 24, Deatherage had a meeting with a Mrs. Fish or Fiske. On the evening of August 24, 1939, Deatherage had dinner with Joseph E. McWilliams, mentioned above, and Deatherage spent the remainder of the evening at the Commodore Hotel with an individual who has not been identified beyond the fact that he is known as Karl. The conversations with Karl concerned anti-Semitism.

On the morning of August 25, 1939, Deatherage had an interview with Father Peter Duffy of the Franciscan Monastery, West 31st Street, New York City. This conversation lasted about one and one-half hours.

While at the Commodore Hotel, Deatherage made the following telephone calls:

Caledonia 5-0480, which is listed to Dr. W. Schier ...ant, 30 240th Street, New York City.

Butterfield 8-8347, which is listed to the German-American Business League, 178 East 85th Street, New York City.

Canal 6-2835, which is listed to the Perfect Staple Company, John R. Oliver and Son, printing, 45 Lispenard Street, New York City.

Pennsylvania 6-0895, which is listed to the Rosal Silk Mills, 147 West 29th Street, New York City.

On the evening of August 25, 1939, Deatherage checked out of the Commodore Hotel, taking a New Haven Railway Car to Rye, New York. Upon his arrival at Rye, New York, Deatherage was met by an individual driving a Cord automobile bearing Illinois license plates 777442. It was noted that this Cord automobile is owned by Glenn Thompson. The Cord was driven directly from the station to the home of H. E. Thompson on Griswold Road, which estate is within the confines of the Westchester Country Club property.

Certain difficulties were encountered which made it impossible to conduct a surveillance of the home of H. E. Thompson while Deatherage was visiting at that point. It was ascertained, however, that Deatherage left the Thompson residence on Saturday evening, August 26, 1939, and proceeded directly to Charleston, West Virginia.

Re: GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE
Subversive Activities, Surveillance

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to the report of Special Agent J. M. MC GRATH dated August 28, 1939, New York City, in the above entitled matter. The title in the reference report is incorrectly carried as GEORGE R. DEATHERAGE, his correct name being GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE, as noted from an article in the "Saturday Evening Post."

In the reference report a request is made for some photographs of GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE. There are enclosed herewith six photographs of subject.

In view of the fact that there is no additional investigation to be conducted in the New York office, this matter is being referred upon completion to the office of origin.

who is principal of the St. Albans, West Virginia High School, who was unable to furnish any further information other than the fact that Subject had returned two days previously to this interview. This information had been obtained from Mrs. E. E. CUMMINGS, an invalid residing a short distance from the house where DEATHERAGE is living. It was believed by LIGGETT that Mrs. CUMMINGS, due to her invalidism, would probably be a good informant as to the activities of Subject inasmuch as she was absolutely reliable and had a clear view of Subject's house. Inasmuch as she would possibly be frightened at the appearance of an Agent, it was suggested that she be interviewed during the evening when her husband would be likewise present.

LIGGETT also advised that when calling at the DAWSON PRINTING COMPANY at St. Albans, he had noticed the presence of Subject there and upon inquiry had learned that he was endeavoring to obtain a contract for writing a column for a newspaper syndicate. It was not believed by LIGGETT that any contact should be made at that company inasmuch as he was not definite as to their reliability.

On November 2, 1939, there appeared an article in the Daily Mail, Charleston, West Virginia, reflecting that Subject had resigned his position as National Commander of the Knights of the White Camellia, a position which he had held for the past four years. It also reflected that J. B. MARTIN of Houston, Texas had been elected as the new Commander.

In view of the fact that reference letter from the Bureau instructed that no further investigation be conducted in this matter, no further action is being taken and this case is being considered CLOSED at this office, unless otherwise instructed by the Bureau.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. E. A. TAMM

SAC Foxworth called with reference to the meeting which he had previously called to the attention of the Bureau, to be held at Miami, Florida, in the near future. It is recalled that Deatherage and the pro-Fascists were to meet at a designated spot. Carl J. Austrian at New York City has informed the New York Office of information which he obtained from an informant. This informant's creditability has not been ascertained, but he has furnished Austrian the information concerning this meeting, and Austrian indicated that if any concerted action was taken by these pro-Fascist groups it might be well to know of any developments which occur at Miami, Florida.

The meeting now has been postponed and will be held outside of Jacksonville, Florida tonight. Austrian's informant is registered at the Windsor Hotel in Jacksonville under the name of [redacted]. Foxworth inquired as to whether it would be well to have [redacted] observed so that the place of the meeting may be ascertained. It was suggested that the Miami Office be furnished with the details so that appropriate surveillance may be made of [redacted] who will attend the meeting. b7D

It has come to my attention rather forceably that your department has employed and is employing,a so-called "blacklist" against my employment on defense projects during this period of emergency,and I am writing you this letter to enter a definite protest.

My past activities may be in opposition to the administration but they have in no sense been inimical to the welfare of my country.Lets get that one point straight at the outset.If you have any evidence to the contrary it is your duty to see that I am locked up instead of employing what I think is a rather underhanded method of putting on the pressure. Possibly I do not have all the facts straight and that you are not aware of what is going on,in such case this whole matter may need some clearing up. I dont think you are starting any "Gestapo"....with your full knowledge.

As you well know my whole past activities have been directed against Communism and the international Jews that are leading and financing it.Thats the whole rub in this situation and your department have investigated me enough times to know it.And I am still of the same opinion.

In my humble way of looking at things,the investigating agencies of the government had better be gainfully occupied with the activities of Mr.Hitler, who is pulling a triple play...Hitler to Stalin to the CIO Communist Unions that are sabotaging the defense work. Stalin is Hitlers stooge at the moment,so we know damn well who is giving the communist leaders their orders to play up these defense strikes. You know it and I know it. Hitler does not ned to sink American supplies that are sabotaged by defense strikes by CIO leaders that follow the party line.

I am of the inclination to put this whole thing up for discussion on the floor of the Senate,but before doing so I would like to have your point of view.

Yours very truly

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. E. A. TAMM

Re: George Deatheridge

With reference to Deatheridge's travel from Huntington, West Virginia, to Detroit, Michigan, he arrived this morning at 10:30 A. M. at that point. He checked his bags at the station, proceeded to the Ford Building and got off either at the fourth or seventh floor - it has not yet been definitely ascertained.

He stayed for approximately one-half hour, after which he left by bus for Wyandotte, Michigan, where he visited the Michigan Alkaline Works, a large chemical plant. He asked for a Mr. Ord, who was a plant official. Being unable to see him, he asked for a Mr. Schulman (phonetic). He stayed for lunch at that point and left at approximately 2:30 P. M., when he proceeded to a railroad station, picked up his bags and from there went to a Greyhound Bus Station, where he purchased a ticket for Midland, Michigan. The Dow Chemical Works are located at Midland, Michigan, and it is believed he intends to go there. Agents will follow him in a car and a surveillance will be maintained.

Mr. Bugas will keep me advised of any developments.

Deatheridge left Detroit yesterday at 4:30 p.m. by bus for Midland, Michigan, to which place he was tailed by Agents in a Bureau car. He stayed at the Day Hotel in Midland last night and went to the telegraph office this morning and received a telegraphic money order from Charleston, West Virginia. It is not known from whom the order was received.

Upon leaving the telegraph company, Deatheridge went to the Dow Chemical Company in Midland where he introduced himself as a chemical engineer and was shown to Mr. Richards, an official in the Chemical Engineering Department. A contact has been established at the Dow Chemical Company so that as soon as Deatheridge leaves, the Agents will be informed of the conversation with Mr. Richards.

SAC Bugas called from Detroit with reference to the surveillance being maintained on Deatheridge, and advised that Deatheridge went to Midland, Michigan last night, where he remained until this morning and contacted the Dow Chemical Company. After visiting the Dow Chemical Company, Deatheridge returned to Detroit by bus, arriving there at 7:15 this evening, after which he went directly to the Michigan Central Railroad station and bought a ticket to Cleveland. His train leaves Detroit at 12:30 A.M. tomorrow, arriving in Cleveland at 5:20 A.M. Mr. Bugas advised that Agents obtained his car and berth numbers, and inquired whether the Cleveland Office should be notified so they can continue the surveillance. He said that they should be able to spot him quite easily, as he is a rather distinctive looking individual and was located quite easily upon his arrival in Detroit.

I advised Mr. Bugas to contact the Cleveland Office and instruct them to maintain a close surveillance on this individual and to keep track of all the people he contacts.

I told Mr. Bugas that the Director is interested in knowing where Deatheridge went on the fourth or seventh floor of the Ford Building and why the Agents lost the surveillance temporarily there. Mr. Bugas advised that Agent Hill probably has that information, but that he was out on the surveillance at the time of this call. I advised him to furnish us information as to what offices in that building he might have contacted, as he may have gone to the Dow Chemical Company office or one of his other contacts.

Mr. Bugas advised that while in Midland, Deatheridge called upon Mr. Richards, who is in charge of the engineering department of the Dow Chemical Company, whom he told that he was with the Ferguson Construction Company of Buffalo, New York, a firm which is in competition with the Austin Construction Company which is presently doing some work for the Dow Chemical Company in Midland. He said that Deatheridge inferred that his call was for the purpose of getting some work for the Ferguson Construction Company which the Austin Company is now doing. Mr. Bugas said that no further inquiries have been made at the Michigan Alkali Company concerning his visit to that firm, for fear of bringing this matter into the open.

DETAILS: AT HUNTINGTON, WEST VIRGINIA

The Agent in Charge of the Internal Revenue Service by letter dated May 17, 1940, forwarded to this Office a letter received by him from ELMO S. ALLEN, Internal Revenue Agent, Charleston, West Virginia. This letter dated May 16, 1940, advised that a Mrs. HAROLD L. PARKS, who lives in a rented house at 714 Hall Street, Charleston, West Virginia, found some of DEATHERAGE'S records under the flooring of a closet or in the attic of the house at the address mentioned. The letter advised that Mrs. PARKS had lived at the Hall Street address for some two or three years and that prior to that time DEATHERAGE lived at that same address. These papers were not examined by ALLEN, but Mrs. PARKS believed that the papers were of such importance that they should be examined by a Federal Agent.

time she advised that she and her husband had formerly lived in a house at 921 Kanawha Boulevard, but which house, since that time, due to construction work on the boulevard, had been moved to a new location, and that it was presently located on Lavell Drive. She stated that they had first moved into the house approximately two years ago and it was just prior to that time vacated by Subject. At that time they had discovered in the luggage closet in the front bedroom a green strong box, described as 6x4x12 inches, in which there had been contained miscellaneous papers and other material belonging to Subject. There was also a wooden box which contained other stuff which was not examined by her or her husband. She stated that this material had been resting where the flooring had been torn up in the closet and was not covered in any way when discovered.

The only part retained by Mrs. PARKS was the green strong box which she displayed to Agent, but advised that all the contents had been destroyed with the exception of a 1936 Diary of DEATHERAGE with the following name appearing on the front thereof: A. WYCKOFF & SON CO., Elmira, N.Y. This diary, upon examination, contained the following notations:

CHARLESTON BROADCASTING - Col. Long?
HENRY WOODYARD - Spencer, c/o of Paper
LETTER - HOW TO ORGANIZE
STATIONARY - ENVELOPES -(Return)
BOX 1274 - CATALINA ISLAND, CALIF.
NO. 2 - BOX 574 - WHITING, INDIANA.
RUTH - BOX 1274 CATALINA ISLAND
WIRE TO HOOVER'S STORE OR BLUEBIRD COTTAGE."

The above notations were contained on the first four pages of this Diary and the remainder of the diary was blank. The Names "SALISBURG, LOPINSKY & HACKNEY" are known to Agent to be the name of a law firm at Charleston, West Virginia. A Colonel LONG is known to be the owner of the Huntington Advertiser, Huntington, West Virginia, newspaper. Information concerning the other notations are unknown. This diary is being retained in the Huntington Field Division file on this case.

In view of the fact that Mrs. PARKS indicated that there was a wooden box which had been left at their old address when they moved, an attempt was made to develop information concerning the disposition of that box. The former home was pointed out to Agent by Mrs. PARKS' small son and inquiry was made of Mrs. MANGUS, #8 Lavell Drive, which is the address of that home. She advised that she had moved into her home in April, 1940, having purchased same from the PARKS CONSTRUCTION COMPANY, which had moved same to its location from its former site on Kanawha Boulevard. She stated that at the time she had moved into the house, it had been entirely reconditioned by the Construction Company and there had been no articles in the front bed room closet when she moved in. She indicated that the house had been vacated in February of 1939 and had been vacant for that period up until the time that she had moved in. Agent's identity was not disclosed to Mrs. MANGUS.

On June 27, 1940, LEO COX, Classified Manager of the Charleston Daily Mail, advised Agent that Subject was apparently distributing literature again, inasmuch as they had received a check in payment of account with their paper, enclosed with which had been literature which was headed "The Fifth Column - And What Is It". He indicated that this literature dealt with the origin of the Fifth Column, which was stated to have been in Spain and that the Fifth Column itself was composed of the elite of the City of Madrid, which had contributed almost entirely to success of the downfall of that City. It also stated that the Fifth Column of Germany had been the cause of the fall of the countries which had fallen to the Nazi invasion to date. This article was signed by DEATHERAGE in printed form. Mr. COX was unable to furnish information concerning the check furnished as to the bank on which drawn or the location from which it was sent. The literature described above had since been destroyed by him.

Information was also obtained from SHELBY STURM, St. Albans, West Virginia, who advised the Office that a Mr. PLOTT of the CENTRAL TRUST COMPANY of Charleston, had received some literature mailed at St. Albans by DEATHERAGE, which was Anti-Semitic and pertained to Fifth Column Activities.

In agreement with previous instructions of the Bureau, no further investigation is being conducted by this Office.

Dear Sir:

There is transmitted herewith a photostatic copy of an article entitled "That Fifth Column" which was recovered by MR. B. G. COWELS of the Dead Letter Office and forwarded to this office. It will be noted that on the top of page 1 of this article there is a note signed by GEORGE DEATHERAGE and addressed apparently to MR. MEDUER requesting that 100 copies of MOSELEY'S speech and 100 copies of "Who Wants War?" be addressed to MR. DEATHERAGE at St. Albans, West Virginia.

The envelope that contained the above circular was addressed to the Concord Press, P. O. Box 428, Mount Vernon, Washington, which is apparently the press that is being used at this time by the anti-Semitic and pro-Nazi elements. Copies of the circular, together with copies of this letter, are being forwarded to the Seattle office for its information.

Attention Mr.Edgar Hoover.

Dear Mr.Hoover:

My attention has been called to an article in the Sept.6th. issue of The Washington Post(a Jew paper) in which it is noted that The Friends of Democracy,headed by L.M.Birkhead of Kansas City and New York have advised your department that I am running for Congress backed by Nazi Germany.

I assume that they have backed up such a statement with a certified copy of my announcement and registration with the Secretary of State(as required by law) and have been able to present some evidence that I have announced in the press to such an effect. If not,what does such an accusation amount too? For your information the whole thing is a pure and simple fabrication of hysterical jews. But it might be a good idea at that.

If I have accepted the backing of Na zi Germany or Fascist Italy....your department do not need Birkhead to advise them of it. Your fellows have been on the job too closely.

It is true that I am against the Jew Deal until the last dog is hung and I make no bones about it.Thats still a privelege of an American born citizen of pioneer parents.And more than that. If and when,these Jews and Jew stooges such as Birkhead bring about in this nation,a breakdown of Constitutional law and order,if I have anything to say about it....they will be strung up on a sour apple tree. They might take a cue from what is now happening in Riom,France....where the traitorous dogs making up such organizations such as Birkheads will be properly and fittingly shot.

Certainly we have a national co-alition in this country.You know that.But Birkheads gang are too damn dumb to understand what it is all about.We dont need Nazi Germany or Fascist Italy.The Job we have to do,we can and will do,in a typical American manner and by Americans. It wont be nice but it will be hell for effectiveness.

KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE CAMELLIA

Dear Dave.

I have just returned home from a ten days trip and find your letter of the 24th. Hasten to reply to it in that you may not think that I have neglected it.

As you may know I have been out of a job since the first of August,on account of pressure from our friends,and I am out of funds to the point that I am about in the same position that you are.And I see no chance,until after the election,to get any support from anyone.I do think that momentous things are in the making and that they will move quick when they start, but until that time comes and there is some crystalization of the battle of Britain,everyone is sitting tight—in the hopes that Willkie will get in, and everything will be lovely.

If I were you I would not think of any action until the election is over for I am convinced that FDR is out to pull a fast one od some kind. I hope you can tide yourself over until that time and if there was a chance to help you,I sure would do it.However, being as prominent as I have in the movement I have been boycotted by all the large concerns who would employ me.Hope you understand this,and I know you will.

As soon as things break the other way I will get in touch with you and I think we can go places.

With every best wish,I am

Special Agent in Charge,

RE: GERMAN LITERATURE AND PROPAGANDA; INTERNAL SECURITY; REGISTRATION ACT.

Dear Sir:

The Los Angeles Field Division Office for sometime has conducted investigation relative to literature and propaganda arriving at the Los Angeles port via Japanese ships from either Russia or from Germany by way of Siberia.

In some instances, individuals throughout the United States have received fifty to one hundred or more copies of each type of propaganda or literature, indicating that they might distribute part or all of these copies.

It is not known whether the recipients in the United States have requested this material by communicating with German authorities, or whether their names were secured from some mailing list. This being true, some of the recipients may not be connected with any interests in distributing this literature or propaganda.

Bureau letter of November 27, 1940, advised that it is possible that all or some of the individuals are acting as agents of a foreign principal in the distribution of the propaganda received by them from Germany, but that the mere receipt of propaganda from Germany and subsequent distribution thereof, in itself, is not enough to prove a violation of the Registration Act. The Bureau has advised that in addition there must be shown that the distributor is acting as an agent of a foreign principal.

The Bureau has requested the Los Angeles Division Office to prepare a list of the recipients who received packages containing one hundred copies or more of this propaganda, and this list be forwarded to all field divisions wherein any of the recipients live, with instructions that those field offices open separate Registration Act cases on each of the above-named individuals, to determine if they are operating in violation of the Registration Act.

11 JUL 9 1962

The Bureau further requested that it be pointed out that even though these recipients are not actually operating as agents of foreign principals, the mere fact that they are re-distributing German propaganda should be sufficient to consider them subjects of an Internal Security investigation.

In compliance with Bureau instructions, I am transmitting herewith separate memoranda bearing the name and last known address of the recipients of propaganda which was received at Los Angeles about October 19, 1940. This particular propaganda either bore the title, "MURDER AT SEA," described as a single-page leaflet, or "WHO PROFITS BY WAR?" or "WORLD PEACE OR WAR OF DESTRUCTION?"

The Los Angeles Division Office was not able to keep a sample copy of this propaganda. It was known that the American Legion headquarters at Indianapolis, Indiana, was a recipient of copies of this propaganda.

In substance, the propaganda entitled, "WHO PROFITS BY WAR?" is an attack on the Jewish race.

The back page of this leaflet disclosed that it was published by HEINRICH KESSEMEIER, 127 Hochalee, Hamburg, Germany, and was printed by VEREINIGTE DRUCKEREIEN, Hamburg, Blankenese.

The two page propaganda leaflet entitled, "WORLD PEACE OR WAR OF DESTRUCTION?" was an excerpt from HITLER'S speech delivered before the Reichstag October 6, 1939.

The single sheet leaflet propaganda entitled, "MURDER AT SEA," purports to be an affidavit of six American citizens who in substance related that a British ship was flying the American flag, whereas in fact it was the British auxiliary cruiser "BARALONG." This pamphlet further describes the alleged killing of German sailors.

After the identification and occupation of the recipients is ascertained by your office, it may be your desire to openly interview each Subject, namely, the recipient.

Kindly open a Registration Act and Internal Security Act case on each recipient named in your territory, making your office origin in each case, and comply with the Bureau instructions afore-mentioned.

Very truly yours,

R. B. HOOD,

For the information of the Richmond Field Division regarding GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE, it appears that he first came to the attention of the Huntington Field Division in October 1938 through information furnished by one CONRAD H. FRANKLIN, Jr., then of 622 Columbia Boulevard, Charleston, West Virginia, then an employee of the CARBIDE AND CARBON CHEMICALS CORPORATION, South Charleston, West Virginia, where Subject had likewise been employed. Mr. FRANKLIN engaged in job and commercial printing as a hobby during his spare hours and in the course thereof, was engaged by the Subject to print rather large quantities of different circulars, sheets and phamplets relating to Anti-Jewish Activities and the like on the part of the KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE CAMELLIA, of which organization, investigation later established that the Subject was the Commander. FRANKLIN stated he had been engaged thus for about three years and was afraid that he might become involved with the Subject due to the nature of some of the printing and as he had had no part therein other than the printing, he wished to furnish the above information to protect himself.

Subject was interviewed on April 12, 1939 and claimed to be an Engineer, former General Superintendent of the South Charleston Plant of the CARBIDE AND CARBON CHEMICALS CORPORATION at a salary of $10,000 per annum, being requested to resign in 1936 because of his outspoken beliefs and expressed feelings toward the Jewish Race. He claimed to have been born at Duluth, Minnesota of American parents, attended the Minnesota Technical College, then non existent, and later completed his engineering course with the International Correspondence School. He claimed to believe there was a Socialist and Communist drive then underway to overthrow the United States Government and that that drive was controlled by members of the Jewish Race. He then expressed himself as being opposed to the New Deal Administration because of its policies. Subject is later reported to have resigned as Commander of the KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE CAMELLIA and entered the private contracting field. Nothing of particular value has been heard from or about him during the past year and the file in the Huntington Field Division was closed thereon. However, the letter of reference disclosed that about October 19, 1940, a bundle of German Propaganda apparently printed in Germany and received in this Country at Los Angeles, California, was addressed to the "WHITE KNIGHTS", P. O. Drawer 1237, Charleston, West Virginia. It was suggested that a case under the Registration Act and Internal Security Act be opened. As the Charleston Address was found to relate to the above previous case, this sumarization is being set forth for the information of the Richmond Field Division, which office has not received copies of previous reports. For their further information, the file reflects the following description of the Subject as of August 22, 1939:

Build	Solid
Pecularities	Has the appearance of being a military man; smokes cigarettes incessantly, lighting one from another; smokes a cigarette until it appears to be burning his fingers, which results in his hands being highly discolored from nicotine. When smoking, he draws vigorously, which for most people would make the cigarette too hot to enjoy. Swears continually in his conversations.
Glasses	Does not wear glasses when traveling around St. Albans, West Virginia.

LEWIS NEARMAN, Superintendent of Mails, United States Post Office, on interview informed that P. O. Drawer #1237 had originally been rented by the Subject, then Commander of the KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE CAMELLIA, in which position he came into very much lime light, locally especially; that this box was discontinued on July 6, 1938, at which time a forwarding address was left to P. O. Box 467, St Albans, West Virginia; that they understood that the Subject resided at that point and knew of his former connections withe the CARBIDE AND CARBON CHEMICALS CORPORATION and that he was Commander of the KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE CAMELLIA; that for a time after this forwarding order was left, a large quantity of mail was received and forwarded to the Subject but that later when the Subject resigned that position, the mail almost completely discontinued with the result that since then they have just forwarded the mail as a matter of course and without giving it any serious consideration, maintaining no permanent records thereof. With regards to the receipt of foreign mails, Mr. NEARMAN had no information and interrogated other postal employees to that end without additional information, he adding that any Foreign Mails received by them and requiring forwarding, is done so without a request for additional postage from the addressee. Mr. NEARMAN stated that the Subject has almost become a lost issue around this section as they have heard nothing from him since he left or disorganized the KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE CAMELLIA. Regarding this latter organization, Mr. NEARMAN had no additional data of apparent value.

As the writer was departing, Mr. JULIUS W. SINGLETON, Postmaster, came in and commented on the Subject and the fact that he had lost out, adding that he was recently thought to have been in Charleston in connection with a suit he had pending in the United States District Court against the INTERNATIONAL NICKEL CORPORATION of Huntington, West Virginia, involving the alledged misuse of patents rights alledgely owned or controlled by the Subject. Mr. SINGLETON informed that it was his understanding that the Subject was now somewhere in the State of Virginia working for a construction company, and that he would be able to locate the address if necessary. This became necessary later and for brevity purposes, Mr. SINGLETON'S subsequent interview is being set out at this point. He communicated by telephone with a local Attorney and ascertained that the Subject is presently working on a construction job of a general character, as a Construction Engineer at Petersburg, Virginia, for a firm of Engineers with main offices in Richmond, Virginia, neither exact address being known.

AT ST. ALBANS, WEST VIRGINIA

Mrs. FLORENCE HOWES, Assistant Postmaster, was interviewed in the absence from the City of Pastmaster HARRY E. RIDDLEBERG and she informed that Post Office box #467, that office, had been rented to GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE in the past but that the box has been vacant for nearly a year; that the Subject's mail, such as is now received, is delivered by them to the residence of C. R. BARTON, 508 Central Avenue, that City, with whom the SUBJECT had resided while residing in St. Albans; that they do not know exactly what becomes of the mail thereafter as they have never had the occasion to observe the same, but that she does recall that the BARTONS have in the past occasionally forwarded such mail by merely striking through the address and remailing the same. She made inquiries of other postal employees but none were able to recall the address or the receipt of any particular packages or foreign mail presently.

However, Mr. WAYLAND H. MARTIN, Money Order Clerk, stated that Mr. C. R. BARTON is an old employee of the CARBIDE AND CARBON CHEMICALS CORPORATION and known to him as an individual with a very good general reputation; that he recalls the Subject as a former employee of the same corporation who resigned because of his connections with the KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE CAMELLIA and later on loosing out with that organization, went broke and became down and out. Regarding this latter statement, Mr. MA RTIN informed that he reached that conclusion because the Subject forwards C.R. BARTON a small monthly sum via United States Postal Money Order regularly each month, from Petersburg, Virginia, the last one being under date of January 4, 1941, under Petersburg, Virginia Money Order #893,417, however the same contains no address of the payor, but it is possible the same does appear on the application for that order. Further conversations with these parties brought no information that the Subject was or had ever represented a foreign agency or acted for them in any manner. They were both of the opinion that little literature, if any, is being received by him through their office or they would have naturally noticed it under the present circumstances.

THE RICHMOND FIELD DIVISION

AT PETERSBURG, VIRGINIA

Will endeavor to locate Subject GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE through Postal Money Order #893,417, or its application, issued at that point on January 4, 1941, by the Subject, to the BARTONS at St. Albans, West Virginia, and interview him thoroughly in an effort to learn if he is or has been acting as an Agent of a foreign principal. Will also determine his present activities so far as they pertain to national defense matters, and will determine the present status of the Knights of the White Camellia. Should he not be located through this source above mentioned, then consideration should be given to the fact that he is a construction engineer reported to be working there at this time, on a construction job for a General Contracting Firm with principal offices in Richmond, Virginia.

Upon receipt of a report from the Richmond Field Division, will conduct such further investigations as are necessary.

GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE - 1 A -

American Nationalists Confederation, headed by George Deatherage, is one of several Fascist organizations associated closely with the White Guard, headed by Henry Allan, twice convicted of felonies in California. James True associates, headed by James True, Washington, D. C., works hand-in-glove with Deatherage. In a letter from Deatherage to True dated 11/21/37, Deatherage mentioned muzzling Reserve Officers, the Naval Intelligence, and the Department of Justice. (Lieutenant Colonel H. R. Oldfield, M.I.D., 5/11/38, 61-7560-833)

Deatherage is definitely connected with the James True Associates as demonstrated by the fact the latter sent out its letter as a substitute for completion of the subscriptions to Deatherage's discontinued news letter. (Confidential informant [redacted] of Philadelphia FBI office, 1/20/39, 65-4889-2-P 16)

Bulletin of the Knights of the White Camellia sent to the Bureau by letter signed by George E. Deatherage which sets forth the "Code", "Fundamental Principals", "Organization", and purposes of the organization, showing it to be a militant organization, violently anti-semitic. The cover letter is threatening in tone against Congressman Dies. (4/6/39, 61-7560-1447)

The George Deatherage organization is the "Knights of the White Camellia" with headquarters at St. Albans, West Virginia. This is an anti-Jewish southern white men's organization represented as being militaristic in its ambitions and it has no official connection with the Silver Shirt Legion. (Kenneth Alexander, head of Silver Shirt Legion in California, 4/7/39, 61-7587-204)

Subject interviewed and furnished life history which is set forth. He claimed to head the Knights of the White Camellia which he described as anti-Communistic and anti-Jewish. He furnished pamphlets and charts demonstrating his ideas of Jewish control of organizations and government. (4/12/39; 65-1413-74)

Before the Dies Committee 5/23/39 he testified the Knights of the White Camellia was organized in 1867 as an allied body with the Ku Klux Klan and in 1935 was chartered in West Virginia with headquarters at his home and his oath of office in the organization forbade him from revealing the names of the members, numbers, or other details. He recommended supplanting Federal and State courts by military courts and said his object was the fighting of Jewish Communists. Deatherage said a liaison had been established between his organization and an international headquarters in Rome, Italy, which is to coordinate worldwide combating of Communism and Jewism. (Harold B. Hinton, N.Y. Times, 5/24/39, 61-7560-1561X13)

News editorial states that Subject did not give all the facts when testifying before the Congressional Committee May 23-24, 1939; that although he admitted a link with an international "anti-Red" organization in Fascist Italy and that he had been rebuffed by the Nazis for trying to establish closer connections with them, he was as a matter of fact closely related to the Nazis and, as the American delegate, was invited by the German Ministry of Propaganda and Public Enlightenment to attend the World-Service Conference held at Erfurt, Germany, in the summer of 1938, accepted and delivered a speech entitled, "Will America be the Jews' Waterloo?" Subject held a conference with William Dudley Pelley, head of Silver Shirt Legion of America, Inc., at Asheville, N.C. on 6/21/39. (Confidential Informant [redacted] Charlotte FEI Office, 6/21/39, 61-7587-352X)

At mass meeting of Christian Mobilizers, 8/23/39, at Innisfail Park, Bronx, N. Y., delivered speech entitled "Counter-Revolutionary Tactics" likening current conditions in the U.S. to Spain and denouncing the U.S. Government as Jewish controlled. (N. Y. Police files, 61-7850-22-P-11)

At mass meeting sponsored by Joseph McWilliams, head of the Christian Mobilizers for the purpose of uniting all Christian Fascist groups, on 8/23/39, Deatherage was the principal speaker along with Fritz Kuhn of the German-American Bund and Deatherage announced a second meeting for 9/6/39, with the principal speaker to be Major General George Van Horn Moseley whom he urged for national coordinator of the groups, Deatherage blamed Jewish Communists and Jewish international bankers for the world's ailments. His remarks were violent with references to trampling and strangling of enemies, hanging of officials from telegraph poles, denouncements of President Roosevelt on the basis of Jewish sympathies, and stated that if any leader of the groups gathered there were to be arrested or if an effort were made to stop Father Coughlin "the country will be up in arms over night." Subject very much aroused about the "Jewish Menace" claiming B'Nai B'Raith, an International Propaganda Agency which has 5000 paid agents in the United States and is working very closely with the Communists in an attempt to overthrow the United States Government. Subject denies the "WHITE KNIGHTS" advocate any overthrow of the Government or the use of any force of violence. Subject employed Camp Lee, Virginia. Subject stated the "WHITE KNIGHTS" wish to cooperate with the FBI and that he furnished information to the Director in the past that the Jews were going to besmirch his record.

DETAILS: At PETERSBURG, VIRGINIA

Mr. JAMES B. BRAVES, Secretary to the Superintendent of Mails, Petersburg, Virginia Post Office advised Agent that on January 20, 1941 that subject GEORGE DEATHERAGE was the remitter of Postal Money Order #893417 and that he lived at 1005 W. Washington Street, Petersburg, Virginia.

After several futile attempts subject was located at his home on the evening of February 6, 1941, at which time he was interviewed.

Mr. DEATHERAGE immediately showed he was offended because an Agent of the F.B.I. was interviewing him in regard to his activities in the Knights of the White Camellia. He stated to the Agent that he had testified before the Dies Committee under oath about one year ago and that he had told them the activities, purpose and aims of the Knights of the White Camellia. He said this was a matter of public record and he could add nothing to it. Mr. DEATHERAGE then launched into a discussion of the reasons the White Knights existed.

He stated it was an organization founded over seventy years ago; that their main purpose at present was to drive Communism from America, but that they did not advocate the use of force or violence. He stated that it was a proven fact that the Jews were behind all Communistic activities in Russia, Germany, England, France, and America. Therefore, said Mr. DEATHERAGE, he and the Knights of the White Camellia believed that those Jews behind this should be submerged.

At this point subject became quite serious and stated that the Federal Bureau of Investigation should investigate the B'Nai B'Raith instead of "barking up the wrong tree." Agent inquired as to what subject knew about B'Nai B'Raith to which subject replied that it was an international Jewish propaganda agency with over five thousand paid agents in the United States and is working very closely with the Communists in an attempt to overthrow the United States Government.

He stated that B'Nai B'Raith had a Jewish membership whivh included Directors of every National Bank and similar institution in the United States, England and France. It also includes among its members, he said, many high ranking government officials.

Mr. DEATHERAGE stated that he did not wish to disclose anything further on this occasion since he felt it was not time as the Jews controlled the country.

Mr. DEATHERAGE denied to Agent that he or the Knights of the White Camellia had ever had anything to do with any foreign government or organization. He admitted that he had received anti-Semetic propaganda from Germany and that he had distributed it. He also stated that this literature had been solicited by him but that a great deal of it was sent to him without any request on his part. He stated to Agent that he challenged anyone to find anything in this literature which advocated the overthrow of the United States Government. He advised Agent that he had none of this literature in his possession at the present time.

Mr. DEATHERAGE further stated that the mistake made by the Knights of the White Camellia was in assuming that the American people would awaken if told of this Jewish menace. He said the Knights had abandoned this now and were doing nothing at the present time.

Mr. DEATHERAGE stated that the Knights had never accepted any money from anyone either connected with foreign power or an American organization except dues paid by its various members.

He admitted that he was Past Commander of the St. Albans, West Virginia Post but that he is now inactive with an honorary life membership in the Knights of the White Camellia.

Mr. DEATHERAGE remarked that the Jews tried to put the Knights of the White Camellia on the spot by having the Dies Committee investigate them. He stated this investigation proved that the Knights of the White Camellia were not interested in overthrowing the government or sabotaging the National Defense Program. He stated that the only Sabotage of the National Defense Program came from the Jewish Bankers and Jewish labor leaders in the country.

Mr. DEATHERAGE advised Agent that he had given information to the Director concerning a "Smear Hoover" campaign prior to the institution of this campaign. He stated this information had been secured by the Knights of the White Camellia and that the campaign admitted some Jew Communists in New York City.

Mr. DEATHERAGE further advised he had furnished the Federal Bureau of Investigation a copy of a list he had spent two years preparing, which list contained the names of all the Communistic organizati ns in the United States. He stated this list was furnished to an Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation of the Huntington Office and that it had been furnished in answer to a request from the Director. Mr. DEATHERAGE stated the list showed the membership and the locations of these organizations and that almost all members were Jews.

Subject advised he is presently employed as an engineer at Camp Lee, Virginia working for the Construction engineering company of Doyle and Russell and Wise. He stated that he is a staunch American and wished to work with the F.B.I. and not at cross purposes. He advised Agent that he had written a letter to the Director so stating, and had received an answer from the Director. He told agent that he did not have this letter in his possession as it was with some other confidential papers.

INTERNAL SECURITY - G

Dear Sir:

On March 31, 1941, Senator KILGORE, of West Virginia, telephoned this office that he had recently been to Charleston, West Virginia, and had learned that DEATHERAGE, presumably GEORGE DEATHERAGE, whom he referred to as a member of the Knights of the White Camellia, was supposed to be at the present time on the Defense Council Housing Plan, at Charleston, West Virginia. It is Senator KILGORE'S understanding that DEATHERAGE is supposed to be Inspector in Charge at Charleston, and he indicated that his information was obtained through American Legionnaires.

Senator KILGORE had no additional information, and as no active investigation is being conducted regarding the subject by this office, the same is being submitted for the information of the Bureau.

DEATHERAGE, George E., alias George A. Dethridge

We sincerely believe that internal civil war and economic chaos is inevitable. That being the case, we have tried to build a constructive program-realizing that the only opposition to the present state of affairs can come about thru national allegiance to a program of that kind and its leaders. No war can be fought without disciplined leadership.

Fascism does not necessarily mean a dictatorship, but we certainly are going to have one, of one kind or another. Eventually in this crisis, some leader will come up to lead us. He always has in the past. In Spain, they have Franco. Who the man will be here I do not know-but-I think we know that there will be no opposition unless that crowd has something to offer as a corrective solution.

Personally I am not in favor of Fascism-but-I see no other way out. Pills have failed. Now we must submit to a major operation, whether we like it or not.

County and the following was noted: that a son was born to ISAAC and MYRTIE DEITRICH on April 19th, 1891, and also a son on November 15th, 1892. There was a notation indicating that the father was born in Missouri and his mother in Virginia.

It was also noted that a marriage license was obtained recorded on page 224 of Volume H-2, St. Louis County Sheriff's Office, this license being issued to GEORGE E. DEITRICH, 23 years old and RUTH C. GLOVER, age 25, on October 29th, 1915.

MISS EVA KERN of the Duluth Retail Credit Association exhibited the credit record of GEORGE DEITRICH which shows that his credit rating was checked on February 16th, 1940 and at that time his employment was verified by the H. K. FERGUSON COMPANY of Cleveland, Ohio. It indicated that GEORGE E. DEITRICH was a mechanical engineer for that company and at that time was living in St. Albans, West Virginia.

It was also noted in the report that DEITRICH had a son attending high school in Duluth at that time. Another notation indicated that DEITRICH was in Calcutta, India on an Engineering Project in about 1923. The credit report also contained paper clippings and pictures of an incident which happened in May of 1939 regarding the activities of DEITRICH while he was a witness before the Dies Committee. The report also contained a notation that DEITRICH was employed by the Carbide and Chemical Company of Charleston, West Virginia in 1924. He was also connected with the Horr Shovel Company, a mining concern, selling patented air pressed shovels for mine work. There was also a notation that DEITRICH had formerly attended ROBERT DANFELD High School in Duluth, Minnesota.

MISSEDITH MLODZIK, Secretary to the Principal at Danfeld High School, exhibited the High School record of DEITRICH, which shows that he attended this High School in 1906, 1907, and 1908. In September of 1907 a notation was made that GEORGE E. DEITRICH was fourteen years and ten months of age at that time.

FORREST C. HUYCK, Assistant County Treasurer of St. Louis County, advised the writer that he had received a short letter from GEORGE DEITRICH which is as follows:

> "I would thank you to send me any unpaid tax tickets on my lot at Section 15, Box 59, Lester Park, Fourth Division"
> "Yours very truly",

However, the records in this office were checked by MR. HUYCK and it was impossible to ascertain any definite birthdate of subject from these records other than that already obtained.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to the letter of the Huntington Field Division dated June 3, 1941, in which your office is requested to reinterview subject to determine if he is identical with George E. Deitrich.

The only reason for continuing this investigation is to determine whether or not subject is operating in violation of Section 233 a to g, Title 22, U. S. Code, requiring agents of foreign principals to be registered with the Secretary of State.

The report of Special Agent B. A. Horn, Richmond, Virginia, dated March 21, 1941, indicates there is very little likelihood of this, although subject does admit that he is disseminating German and anti-Semitic propaganda. It is believed that your office should conduct an investigation in order to either establish or negative the element of agency necessary to prove a violation of the above named section.

Your office should therefore, in addition to reinterviewing subject, conduct an investigation to determine whether he is acting as an agent of any foreign principal in the dissemination of his propaganda.

Q2 Second sheet beginning "-3- Today, the American's voice is an.....".
Q3 Third sheet beginning "-4- East that so quickly fades from.....".
Q4 Fourth sheet beginning "-5- of "separate," we find only.....".
Q5 Fifth sheet beginning "-6- 7) The word "separators" therefore.....".
Q6 Sixth sheet beginning "-7- one message. Trans-oceanic mail, if.....".

Result of examination.

The code system described in specimens Q1 through Q6 was examined but it is believed that this system is too complicated for practical use. The complicated manner in which the words are selected from the dictionaries used by the person encoding the message and the person deciphering the message are very involved. When a message has been encoded according to the directions given, the complete message looks like a series of amounts which have been added by means of a tabulator. The code numbers obtained by looking up the words which are used in the message are totaled at the end of each sentence. The code numbers are divided into two parts and the left hand column is totaled first and then the right hand column and the figures are added on the same piece of tabulator paper. In order to decode the message it is necessary to tear the piece of tabulator paper in a line between the total of the left hand figures and the total of the right hand figures and then match the columns to give the complete code words. This method of encoding the message would add to the security of the code.

It is interesting to note that the dictionary used by the writer of specimens Q1 through Q6 in illustrating his method of encoding is the Funk and Wagnall's Desk Standard Dictionary, 1929 Edition.

Photographic copies of specimens Q1 through Q6 are being retained in the Laboratory's cipher key file for future reference.

The original photographs submitted are being returned to your office herewith, photographic copies having been retained for the completion of the Laboratory's files.

Dear Sir:

There are submitted herewith six pages of photographed documents previously enlarged by the Mechanical Division upon the request of the Richmond Field Office. These documents were found among the papers of the subject. It is requested that this code be analyzed, the explanation of which is set out in the documents, and that any information concerning the significance of the code be transmitted to this office together with the documents submitted.

These documents are, likewise, being submitted for the information of the Bureau in the event it is not already familiar with the same.

the effect that Mrs. A. H. LAWRENCE, 617 Ocean View Avenue, had reported that the subject appeared to have un-American literature in his room. Detective CURT MERRITT, of the Norfolk Police Department, and GEORGE KOCH, of Office of Naval Intelligence, proceeded to the above address on June 26, 1941. They discovered by a search of the subject's room that he was GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE, formerly of St. Albans, West Virginia, and that he had in his room a large notebook filled with letters and other literature and materials which appeared to be of an un-American nature. They brought the contents of this notebook to the Norfolk Police Department. Special Agent in Charge C. E. HENNRICH was present at the Police Department at this time. He immediately called the Resident Agent's Office at Norfolk, Virginia, instructing Reporting Agents to bring a camera to the station and take pictures of anything of a pertinent nature. Agents set up the camera, taking pictures of what appeared to be a letter in manuscript form, with certain words underlined indicating a possible code setup of some kind, also an explanation of the same. When copies of the film have been developed, a copy of this manuscript will be sent to the Technical Laboratory for them to determine what type of code, if any, it is.

At the time this material was made available, only a limited time was had to peruse the material inasmuch as Detective MERRITT had to return it by 4:00 P. M., which was done.

The proposed Nationalist Party setup indicating party lines, departmental divisions were likewise photographed; also several letters which the subject had written to a party listed as "JIM" and "REE", and letters which these parties had sent to the subject. The gist of the letters was a discussion of the Nationalist Party, its principles, its policies and aims. In one letter written to "REE" by the subject, he stated that inasmuch as "JIM" was in Washington, D. C., and he was right close by, they would attempt to keep aid from going to Britain. Also in a letter written to the subject by "REE", he stated that in his opinion the subject was a proper man to head the leadership of the party at the present time. These letters were written in the last two or three months. There were no envelopes indicating who "REE" and "JIM" are.

It is to be noted that at the time these were photographed, time was of the essence, and Reporting Agents were more busy with the photography than with reading the documents.

At the time the Reporting Agents were photographing the letters, Special Agent A. M. O'DONNELL took notes on some of the material. Among the material there was noted a book entitled "America's Little Hitlers" written by ROY TOZIER, wherein he listed the subject as being one of them, setting forth a short history of subject's activities and the aim as stated personally by the subject of his Nationalist Party. There were also several anti-Semetic circulars, indicating the subject is violently anti-Jewish. There were letters and material addressed to subject from the National Workers League of Detroit, Michigan, The Constitutional Money League of America at Washington, D. C., or Minden, Nebraska, and the Women's National Committee To Keep U. S. Out Of War, 1825 Jefferson Place, N. W., Washington, D. C.

Reporting Agents then contacted Mrs. A. H. LAWRENCE, 617 Ocean View Avenue, Ocean View, Norfolk, Virginia, who furnished the following information. The subject is presently employed as an engineer for Doyle and Russell Contracting Company of Richmond, Virginia, now doing construction work at the Naval Operating Base in Norfolk. He had been rooming at her house since June 18, 1941, and at the time he came he requested a room on the ground floor of the house, as he could not stand the upstairs. He is supposed to have a wife and son living in West Virginia, just what town is not known to Mrs LAWRENCE. He appears to be a highly educated individual and seems to know the customs of many different countries, and especially those of Germany. He speaks of his German friends. He has made several remarks to the effect that the United States would be ruined along with the other countries that are fighting Germany if we got in the war. He also said that the best thing for these other countries is a negotiated peace with Germany. He has never made any statements in which he indicates a desire for the overthrow of the U. S. Government, but from the conversation it is easy to tell that his sympathies lie with Germany in the present international situation. He listens to short-wave German broadcasts almost every night on a small radio set which he has. He has no sending set or anything like that. Also, he has no visitors in his room. There has not been a single one since he arrived at this address. He arises early in the morning and leaves the house at 6:30 for work. He usually returns between 5:00 P. M. and 8:00 P. M., and when he arrives home he does not go back out at night.

He says that he understands German just a little; however, when he listens to the German short-wave radio broadcasts, it appears that he knows all that is going on.

The Subject takes all of his meals out, but Mrs. LAWRENCE does not know where he takes them. The room which the Subject occupies in Mrs. LAWRENCE's house is the second room from the front on the east side of the house downstairs. There are two windows in this room. They are the third and fourth windows from the front of the house on this east side. There are venetian blinds on the windows. He drives an old black coupe automobile with West Virginia license plates. It was later ascertained by observation that this was a 1937 or 1938 Studebaker Coupe, black, license number 207-418, 1941 West Virginia tags. He has received but one letter to date at this address.

Reporting Agents have maintained a surveillance of Subject during the hours when he is away from his work, which has resulted negatively. The log of this surveillance is being maintained in the files.

Mr. J. K. BATES, General Superintendent of Doyle and Russell Company, in an interview with the writer stated that the subject had been employed by his company since 1939, formerly working at Camp Lee, Virginia, before coming up to the United States Naval Operating Base. He stated that they were highly pleased with his work, he being very efficient. He stated that the Subject works quite late at night, very seldom quitting work before 8:00 P. M.; that since he has been here he has made no statements which might indicate his connection with any subversive groups or that he might be disseminating any propaganda. His employment record reflected that he was born November 15, 1894, at Duluth, Minnesota; that he is married, his wife residing at 5525 Huntington Avenue, Duluth, Minnesota. His Social Security number is 285-10-9545.

In an interview with Commander GASS, Office of Naval Intelligence, Norfolk, he stated that the Subject was very well known to him, and he expressed considerable concern to learn that he was employed at the Base. He stated that the Subject is entirely Fascist and has been one of the leaders in setting up the Fascist Order in the United States. No definite knowledge was ever had that the Subject has disseminated propaganda of any kind advocating the overthrow of the U. S. Government. Commander GASS stated that the American Jewish Committee has a huge file on the subject and that he was sending to get the same, and he would turn it over to the Agents for their perusal. He stated that the Subject was quite active in the Middle West, working in Detroit and Chicago.

On June 27, 1941, Detective CURT MERRITT, of the Norfolk Police Department, and GEORGE KOCH, of Office of Naval Intelligence, again picked up the Subject's notebooks and brought them to the Resident Agent's Office at Norfolk, Virginia, where all of the papers were photographed by Special Agent PEYTON NORVILLE who operated the photo record camera. Due to the shortness of time, no analysis of the papers in comprehensive form could be taken, although nothing was reflected indicating that the Subject advocated the overthrow of the U. S. Government or that he is an agent of a foreign principal. When all of these photographs have been enlarged and returned to this office, a comprehensive report incorporating all of this material will be submitted.

Mr. L. S. BUCKING, Superintendent of the Mails at the Ocean View sub-Station of the Post Office, advised that the Subject did not have a box at this Post Office and that he was not receiving any mail by General Delivery. Mr. BUCKING advised if the Subject got any letters by General Delivery or if he tried to rent a box, he would notify the Reporting Agents at once.

The following description was obtained of the Subject by questioning Mrs. A. H. LAWRENCE, by observation, and by checking the records of Doyle and Russell Company:

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to my letter of July 7, 1941 wherein photograph copies of a code were sent to the laboratory for their analysis and information. This is to supplement the same, submitting the two pages of this material which were previously missing.

It is thought that the author is ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON. To verify this, a copy of letter addressed to subject, by REE, who is synonymous with ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON, is being submitted to determine whether the same typewriter was used in writing the same.

It is further pointed out in the introductory matter to the code, the writer refers to himself as being of Scotch-Irish descent. EDMONDSON is of Scotch descent.

It is requested that these documents be returned to this office together with any information determined therefrom.

SUMMARY FROM THE GERMAN

This document, bearing the heading "A. HITLER: PARTY CONGRESS AND ORGANIZATION OF THE POLITICAL LEADERSHIP," probably dating from 1936, consists of a general review of the purpose of the Party Congress and its history, an incidental statement of the general policy and philosophy of the Nazi party, a detailed statement of the organization of the leadership of the National Socialist German Labor Party and related organizations, the general duties of each, the insignia of the political ranks, and organizational diagrams. The material has been read thoroughly and it seems to reveal nothing which is not already of rather general knowledge. The date is not certain but reference to the "OLYMPIC GAMES of recent months" would tend to date it in 1936. Many sections are prefaced by a quotation of a general nature from the speeches or works of the leader of the section, as for example the section on the "Staff of the Deputy of the leader" has a quotation from Rudolf Hess; the section on "The propaganda of the Movement," a quotation from Goebbels relative to the value to the people of an effective propaganda. Quotations are also given from Ernst Moritz Arndt, German Nationalist poet of the early 19th century, Richard Wagner, and Hitler's, "Mein Kampf". Each section is accompanied by the address of the office or offices of that group in Germany. Brief and very general sections are included on "Foreign Organization," organization for converting and maintaining Germans living in foreign countries to the philosophy of the Nazi Party; "Head of Foreign Press," organization handling all affairs connected with the foreign press in and out of Germany; "Foreign Political Service," charged with explanation and diffusion of Nazi principles and aims in foreign lands visited by Germans, reached by German trade, and in academic exchanges. These sections are too brief to give anything more than the most general statements concerning these groups interested in activities outside Germany proper. This document presents a good general resume of the organization of the Nazi party, as well as the organization and purposes of related, Nazi-sponsored groups, but contains, apparently, no detailed or new information on the Party and its activities.

Haltet das fest, was der Stolz des deutschen Lebens ist, die unvergängliche Idee, welche ihre erhabensten Träume immer wahr macht denen, die mit voller, reiner Liebe an sie glauben und nicht ablassen, zu glauben. Es kommt nicht auf das Stürmen und Sausen an, auf das Klingen mit Tönen und Prunken mit Worten; in dem Stillesten ist das Festeste und in dem Demütigen das Klarste. So in Stille und Demut, in Hoffnung und Glauben, im frommen deutschen Ernst bekennet die Zeit und pfleget sie, nähret den Funken, den sie euch als zarten Keim überliefert, bis zur vollen Flamme des Ruhms und des Glücks. Denn ihr seid das Salz der Erde; wenn ihr dumm werdet, womit soll man salzen? Ihr habt den letzten Krieg gesehen, viele euer sind mit auf seinen Schlachtfeldern gewesen. Ihr habt die hohen Ideen, die fast verschollen und versunkenen, von Vaterland, Freiheit, Deutschland wiedergewonnen; wonach die edelsten Deutschen seit Jahrhunderten mit vergeblicher Sehnsucht griffen, und was ihnen immer entflog, ist mit Fleisch und Bein wieder ins Leben getreten. Und ihr konnt euch nicht entschuldigen, wenn Faulheit mächtiger in euch sein will als Tugend, daß ihr nicht wisset, wohin ihr streben und was ihr arbeiten sollt.

Wenn ihr, die ihr die Zeit und den großen Gott erkennt, der in ihr waltet, wenn ihr, die ihr das fast verschollene und vergessene Deutschland wiedererstehen sahet, die heilige Flamme der Liebe und des Stolzes schüret; wenn ihr die Lehre als eine unsterbliche Lehre predigt, daß ein Volk, das frei sein will, nicht unterjocht werden kann; wenn ihr in frommer Liebe und stiller Demut die Geister zügelt und besänftiget, welche sonst zu fliegend und zu überfliegend werden konnten; wenn ihr Gerechtigkeit, Maßigkeit, Bescheidenheit, Frommigkeit und Tapferkeit als die schonsten Zierden des deutschen Mannes lehret und bewahret — dann werden wir jeder Gefahr gewachsen und jeder Hinterlist uberlegen sein.

Es ist der Glaube der Edleren und Besseren, der die Erde in den Himmel erhebt und den Menschen und das Volk durch die allmächtige Idee zu jeder kuhnsten Tat und tapfersten Tugend kräftigt und ermutigt. Denn wenn ihr glaubet und bekennet, daß das Vaterland ein glorreiches, freies, unvergängliches Deutschland sein soll; wenn ihr glaubet und bekennet, daß die Deutschen immer fromme, freie, tapfere und gerechte Manner sein sollen — so wird der Glaube die neue Zeit gebaren und unsere Enkel und Urenkel werden diejenigen als ihre Retter und Erhalter segnen, welche auch in den dunkelsten Tagen nicht verzweifelt haben, daß eine deutsche Morgenröte wieder aufgehen würde. Und wir haben nun die Morgenröte gesehen und wollten in den Nebeln der Fruhe verzweifeln, daß die Sonne nicht durchdringen werde!

Der äußere Anlaß für die NSDAP., Parteitage abzuhalten, lag in dem Zwang des Vereinsgesetzes begründet; die gesetzlichen Vorschriften erforderten alljährlich eine sogenannte „Generalmitgliederversammlung". Es ergab sich dabei, daß der gesetzlich vorgeschriebene Vorgang, die „Neuwahl des Vorstandes" bei der NSDAP., deren Führung niemals bekanntlich ein Problem gewesen ist, sich in höchstens zehn Minuten abzuspielen pflegte.

Der Gedanke, diesen formalen Anlaß der Zusammenkunft von Delegierten aus dem ganzen Reiche gleichzeitig zu einer Kundgebung im Dienste der Stärkung der Bewegung werden zu lassen, war der Beginn des Parteitaggedankens der NSDAP., der diesen Tagen einen besonderen Charakter verlieh und ihnen die große politische Linie gab.

Bereits in den Jahren 1920, 1921 und 1922 wurden bei diesen Kundgebungen die großen Aufgaben der Partei erörtert und erläutert, allerdings nicht in einer zerfressenden und verflachenden Diskussion, sondern durch Darlegung derer, die berufen waren, dank des Vertrauens der Parteigenossen die Bewegung zu führen und diese Führung auch zu verantworten. Im Jahre 1923 wurde dabei zum ersten Male die Trennung zwischen Mitgliederversammlung und Sondertagungen durchgeführt. Als 1925 die Partei neugegründet war, schien es nicht zweckmäßig, den Beginn der Arbeit mit einer Tagung einzuleiten. Denn die Parteitage der nationalsozialistischen Bewegung sollten ja nicht der endlosen Diskussion bestimmter Probleme dienen, sondern erstens Rechenschaft ablegen über das, was geleistet wurde, und zweitens Aufgaben stellen für die Zukunft.

Da die damalige bayerische Staatsregierung es für gut befunden hatte, aus letzten Endes nicht schwer verständlichen Erwägungen heraus mir das Reden zu verbieten, konnte nur die Generalmitgliederversammlung – weil in ihr gar nicht geredet zu werden braucht – mit der gesetzlich vorgeschriebenen Handlung in München stattfinden. Den Parteitag selbst aber mußten wir anderswohin verlegen, und Führung und Schicksal haben uns damals nach Weimar geführt, nach Thüringen, in eins der wenigen Länder, in denen ich in jener Zeit reden durfte. Hier konnten wir zum erstenmal den Typ des neuen Parteitages entwickeln, vollkommen losgelöst von der letzten demokratischen Fessel, die uns das Vereinsgesetz auferlegte. Es ist auf diesen Parteitagen, glaube ich, mehr an Weisheit produziert worden als auf sämtlichen bürgerlichen und marxistischen Kundgebungen der Vergangenheit zusammen. In dem wurden vor ausgewählten Parteigenossen und Gästen die Resultate des Kampfes der nationalsozialistischen Bewegung und die Resultate der nationalsozialistischen Forschungsarbeit auf allen Lebensgebieten dargestellt.

Denn Zweck dieser Delegierten-Kongresse war nicht etwa der, Mehrheitsbeschlüsse gegen konzentrierte persönliche geistige Arbeit zuwege zu bringen, sondern der Zweck war im Gegenteil der, der Mehrheit Kenntnis zu geben von der konzentrierten geistigen Arbeit einzelner. Es sollte eine Darlegung gegeben werden dessen, was geleistet worden war, aber auch dessen, was wir an Erkenntnis gewonnen hatten, und es sollten weiter die Richtlinien ausgegeben werden für den Kampf in der Zukunft, für das kommende Jahr. Daß wir diese Bilanz der geistigen Arbeit der Bewegung und unsere Richtlinien freimachten von jeder zerfressenden Diskussion, daß wir sie insbesondere befreiten von jeder Abstimmung, das führte zu einer unerhörten Stärkung derer, die an diesen Kundgebungen teilnahmen.

Alle Parteigenossen, die einmal im Jahr aus ihren kleinen Orten zu einem Reichsparteitag zogen, wurden nicht erfüllt mit Zweifeln, mit Unklarheit, die sich aus Einwendungen der Opposition, aus Diskussionen usw. hätten ergeben können, sondern sie kehrten zurück, erfüllt mit einem neuen blinden Vertrauen und neuer, unerhörter Zuversicht.

Wenn der kleine Mann aus seinem Kreise, aus seinem Dorfe, aus seinem kleinen Marktflecken einmal in diese geistige Zentrale der Bewegung kommt, dann will er dort nicht das Gezänk zwischen einzelnen Führern hören, die sich nicht verstehen können oder wollen, sondern er will in diesen Tagen für seinen schweren Kampf draußen eine neue Stärkung erhalten. Er will die Überzeugung mit hinwegnehmen: Meine Führung weiß, was sie will! Denn wenn sie nicht weiß, was sie will, wie soll ich es dann wissen, wie sollte ich dann darüber entscheiden?

die dem Kongreß angegliedert sind, ist es, bestimmte Probleme rein sachlicher Art zu behandeln, wobei auch hier der Grundsatz herrscht: Niemals wird durch Mehrheitsbestimmungen ein Beschluß gefaßt! Niemals! Der Leiter der Sondertagung hört sich verschiedene Meinungen an und trifft dann seinerseits eine Entscheidung. Er erklärt: ich schließe jetzt die Aussprache, ich habe ein Bild gewonnen, und ich werde nun dem Führer vorschlagen, dies oder jenes zu tun. Eine Abstimmung kann darüber nicht erfolgen. Denn wenn sich über irgendein Problem die Fachleute nicht einig zu werden vermögen und dann die Mehrheit allein entscheidend sein soll, entsteht die Frage: Wer trägt die Verantwortung dafür, wenn der beschlossene Schritt sich hernach doch als falsch erweisen sollte und die andere Richtung recht behalten hat? Diese Verantwortung kann immer nur ein Mann übernehmen.

Es gibt keinen Entschluß, für den nicht einer die Verantwortung zu tragen hat. Das ist das oberste Prinzip unserer Bewegung. Es ist das Prinzip einer altgermanischen Demokratie, das nicht Verantwortung nach unten und Autorität nach oben kennt, sondern das nur kennt Autorität nach unten und Verantwortung nach oben!

Die höchste Stelle ihrerseits erkennt dann als ihre oberste Instanz wieder an das gesamte deutsche Volk, dem zu dienen wir uns alle verpflichtet und auch verantwortlich fühlen.

Über Dinge, die klar sind, braucht man nicht abzustimmen. Man braucht also nur abzustimmen über Dinge, die unklar sind. Welche Dinge sind unklar, und für wen sind sie unklar? Es gibt Dinge, die auch der geistigen Führung einer Bewegung oft in ihrer Erkenntnis und Lösung Schwierigkeiten bereiten, die also auch den bedeutendsten Köpfen einer Bewegung – daß an der Spitze einer Bewegung nicht die Dümmsten stehen, darf ja wohl vorausgesetzt werden – nicht klar sind und über die dann Zweifel oder verschiedene Meinungen bestehen. Das sind also die Fragen, über die abgestimmt werden soll. Wer sollte nun darüber abstimmen? Die Massen der Parteigenossen? Aufgaben oder Fragen, über die sich die besten Köpfe der Partei vielleicht nicht ganz klar sind, sollten also nun von diesen Köpfen selbst einem mit diesen Fragen überhaupt nicht befaßten weitesten Kreise zur Abstimmung unterbreitet werden? Damit würde der Politiker auf die geistige Führung überhaupt verzichten; denn dann müßte logisch auch die Masse führen. Wer trägt aber dann die wahre Verantwortung? Halten Sie es für möglich, daß eine wirkliche Persönlichkeit eine Verantwortung übernehmen wird, die ihm von irgendeiner Majorität aufoktroyiert wird? Man wird sagen, daß die bürgerliche Welt und der Marxismus das doch so gemacht haben. Gewiß, aber wir haben auch den „heroischen" Ausgang dieser Experimente erlebt. Sie haben ausgeführt, was ihnen die Masse befahl, aber sie haben nie den Mut zur Übernahme der Verantwortung gehabt.

Wenn niemand die Verantwortung zu übernehmen bereit ist, führt das zur Vernichtung jeder Autorität und damit aller Persönlichkeitswerte. Es ist kein Zufall, daß unter dieser Art von Demokratie die allerschwächste Pflanze groß gezüchtet wurde. Eine wirkliche Persönlichkeit konnte unter diesen Umständen gar nicht in Erscheinung treten.

Und wenn man sagt: Ja, Sie lassen ja auch abstimmen. Ja! Niemals über Detail-Fragen, sondern stets nur über ganz große, dem ganzen Volke sichtbare Aufgaben! Das heißt: Ich erwarte, daß, wenn ich für das deutsche Volk einen Schritt in der Wiederherstellung seiner Ehre oder seiner Freiheit tue, das Volk ihn versteht und dann hinter mich tritt. Ich werde auch dann nicht etwa sagen: ich möchte gern diesen Schritt tun, aber erst muß ich gedeckt werden, erst muß abgestimmt werden, und dann erst, wenn die Abstimmung gut verläuft, dann werde ich diesen Schritt wagen! Nein! Das wird eine wirkliche nationalsozialistische Führung nicht tun! Sie wird ihre Entscheidung treffen und allenfalls hinterher erklären: Volk, wir haben nach bestem Wissen und Gewissen die Entscheidung getroffen: Bitte, nun urteile! Und wir wissen ganz genau, wie dann das Volk urteilt. Je mehr man nämlich das Volk anruft, in Wahlen zu den es am tiefsten bewegenden gewaltigen Fragen Stellung zu nehmen, und je mehr einem Volk zum Bewußtsein kommt, daß es wirklich eine entschlossene Führung an der Spitze hat, um so entschiedener wird es dann hinter seine Führung treten. Denn das Volk ist in seinem Kern urgesund. Schlechte Systeme oder schlechte Führungen waren selbst in Jahrtausenden nicht in der Lage, diesen gesunden Kern abzutöten.

Nein! Das würde dann der Fall sein, wenn ein einzelner Mensch sich anmaßen wollte, an die Spitze der Nation zu treten und zu erklären: Ich regiere. Da könnte man mit Recht sagen: Warum regierst du? Wieso regierst du? Und weshalb regierst du? Jeder könnte ja nun hintreten und das gleiche verkünden. Nein, die Partei steht als lebendiger Volksorganismus hinter dieser Führung! Sie ist das Volk! Sie ist die Organisation der politischen Führung des Volkes, und sie ist das dabei, genau wie alles im Leben, als Ergebnis eines bestimmten Auslesevorganges. In ihr ist alles das aus dem Volk herausgelesen und zusammengefaßt, was überhaupt in politischer Richtung veranlagt ist, was irgendwie die Empfindung im Innern trägt, sich politisch betätigen zu müssen.

Die Partei ist in ihrem Aufbau eine Auslese der politischen Elemente unseres Volkes. Sie ist damit die Führung und tatsächlich die Gesetzgebung. Der Staat ist die Verwaltung und ihm obliegt die Exekutive. Die Partei als Ausleseorganisation erfüllt damit alle Voraussetzungen für eine wirklich volksverbundene Regierung, denn der ganze Apparat, der an der Spitze des Staates und Reiches steht, läuft von unten bis nach oben durch diese Bewegung.

Er baut sich auf aus einem Prozeß fortgesetzter Auslese. Diese Auslese beginnt im kleinsten, in der Zelle, in der Ortsgruppe. Er geht weiter über die Kreise und über die Gaue, und er endet endlich in der Reichsleitung. Und diese Organisation, die unabhängig ist von Mehrheitsbeschlüssen, sie hat nur ein Interesse und kann nur eins besitzen, stets die besten Köpfe von unten herauszusuchen, sie hochzuführen und sie allmählich nach vorwärts und nach oben zu bringen. Denn der Ortsgruppenleiter, der einen fähigen Kopf entdeckt, weiß, daß er nicht zu befürchten braucht, daß dieser fähige Kopf etwa eine Opposition gegen ihn organisiert, um ihn bei der nächsten sogenannten Generalmitgliederversammlung zu beseitigen; denn dieser Kopf ist ja sein Untergebener, sein Weg geht ja nur unter der Voraussetzung geleisteter Arbeit nach oben. Es ist kein Zufall, daß dieses Prinzip mir einen Stab von Mitarbeitern geschenkt hat, wie ihn keine Partei vorher besaß.

Wenn jemals von einer Bewegung behauptet werden kann, sie sei nicht auf zwei Augen aufgebaut, dann gilt das von unserer Bewegung. Gewiß, ich habe sie ins Leben gerufen. Allein die Grundsätze, nach denen sie wurde, haben mir dann allmählich eine Unzahl von besten Menschen an die Seite gestellt. Und wir sind eine unzerstörbare Gemeinschaft geworden.

So entstand diese wunderbare unzerstörbare Gemeinschaft zwischen Oberstem Führer, seinen Mitarbeitern und der ganzen Gefolgschaft. Diese Führung kann niemals entbehrt werden. Damit aber ist die Partei ewig.

Wenn man vor einem Jahr noch so oft, besonders aus „geistreichem" bürgerlichem Mund hörte: „Ist jetzt die Partei überhaupt noch notwendig? Es ist ja alles einig, und es ist ja alles gleichgeschaltet. Es ist nicht mehr einzusehen, warum die Partei überhaupt noch existieren muß" – so ist dieser Einwand genau so geistreich, als wenn ich sagen würde: „Nun ist ganz Deutschland wieder wehrfreudig geworden, und damit ist eine Sonderorganisation, die Armee, nicht mehr notwendig. Wir denken ja nun alle im Geiste der Wehrpflicht und der Verteidigung." Das könnte so vielen passen! Wir wissen ganz genau, daß der Geist stets einen Träger zur Voraussetzung hat. Im rein militärischen Sinne ist es die Armee und im politischen Sinne ist es die Partei. Die Partei wird durch die Auslese ihres Führergremiums für alle Zeiten in der Lage sein, für alle völkischen Führungsaufgaben die erforderlichen Männer zu stellen, und nur so kann man eine wirklich harte und zu allem fähige und reife Führung der Nation aufbauen.

Und daher war es auch kein Wunder, wenn ich vom ersten Tage der Gründung dieser Bewegung der Überzeugung sein konnte: diese Partei wird Deutschland erobern. Nicht durch Zufall sind wir zur Macht gekommen, sondern auf Grund eines ehernen naturnotwendigen Gesetzes.

Von F. H. Woweries, MdR.

Solange die Bewegung im Ringen um die Macht stand, beherrschte das tagespolitische Ziel die Arbeit der Partei. Dennoch blieb jeder Reichsparteitag eine Stufe zum besseren Verstehen und weiteren Übersehen unserer programmatischen Theorienwelt. Wir erhielten aus jenen Parteitagen die Überzeugung, daß unsere Ideen bestimmt einmal große Realitäten sein würden. Das Jahr 1933 gab die eindeutige Bestätigung für die Richtigkeit dieses kühnen Glaubens, den der Führer uns eingepflanzt hatte.

Und wieder trafen wir uns in Nürnberg. Waren die Parteitage nunmehr nur noch Siegesfeiern? Im Gegenteil! Seit der Machtübernahme ist uns jeder Reichsparteitag eine weitere Stufe zum immer besseren Erfassen unserer praktischen Aufgaben an der Fundamentierung eines tausendjährigen Reiches. Wir treffen uns in der ehrwürdigen Reichsstadt alljährlich wieder, um dort vor dem eigenen Volk und vor aller Welt offen zu bekunden, daß die stolzen Erfolge des deutschen Neubaues wohl bereits der praktisch gestaltete Ausdruck der großen nationalpolitischen Realität unserer Idee sind, daß aber dennoch alles erst ein Anfang ist. Was seit 1933 hinter uns liegt, ist ein Beginnen an ersten Stufen, auf denen zu ruhen uns als Verrat an der Idee und als Sünde am Volk gelten müßte. Wie die Partei in den ersten der vierzehn Jahre des Ringens um die Macht ihre parteipolitischen Lehrjahre sieht, so sind, bei aller Berücksichtigung der Größe der vorliegenden Erfolge, die hinter uns liegenden Jahre der Herrschaft auch die Lehrjahre unseres staatspolitischen Reifens. Das Fortschreiten dieser Entwicklung läßt uns den Reichsparteitag Jahr für Jahr erneut zu einem Bedürfnis werden, das keiner missen möchte und für viele Stille im Lande die geistig-weltanschauliche Substanz eines ganzen Dienstjahres liefert. So ist Nürnberg heute der höchste Ausdruck für das Ringen um die Gewinnung immer neuer Stufen der Erkenntnis praktischer Volks- und Menschenführung. Wo wir früher die Wege zur Niederkämpfung und Vernichtung der Gegner suchten, da forschen wir jetzt nach immer besseren Möglichkeiten der Überzeugung und der nationalpolitischen Aktivierung auch des letzten Volksgenossen. Jeder Reichsparteitag, den uns der Führer gibt, hat ein positives Vorzeichen und schenkt uns im Ergebnis neue hochbedeutsame Erkenntnisse.

Es sind Erkenntnisse, die aus den Voraussetzungen kommen, wie sie der Führer in seiner in Weimar gegebenen grundsätzlichen Darlegung über den Parteitag und die Organisation der politischen Führung festgestellt hat, also Ergebnisse des Führertums der höchsten staatsmännischen Klugheit. Erkenntnisse der menschlichen Klugheit sollten nicht an die undurchsichtigen Interessen der überstaatlichen Beherrscher der öffentlichen Meinung einzelner Länder gebunden sein, sondern einen edlen Wettbewerb aller Gutwilligen auslösen. Hier liegt die Möglichkeit des Vergleichs unserer Reichsparteitage mit dem Olympia-Erlebnis des vergangenen Monats. Denn wenn in früheren Jahren ein Nationalsozialist dem Außenstehenden vom Reichsparteitag erzählte, trieb die Begeisterung dieses Erlebnisses leicht zu überschwänglichen Worten, aber dennoch blieb der Zuhörer, der selber noch nie die heilige Leidenschaft der Hingabe an eine Idee erfahren hatte, oft so unberührt, daß wir förmlich einen Mangel der Sprache fühlten. Wir fanden keinen Vergleich, der uns hier hätte helfen können. Seitdem nun Deutschland Gastgeber der Olympischen Spiele war, können wir die gerade von Fremden so oft mit Argwohn und Skepsis aufgenommenen Superlative meiden und doch auch dem Außenstehenden in aller Welt unser Nürnberg-Erleben leichter deutlich machen. Was den Sportbegeisterten aus allen Ländern das Gemeinschaftserlebnis von Berlin war, das ist im politischen Dasein des deutschen Volkes das Treffen von Nürnberg: Fest und Hochzeit des heldischen Einsatzes der letzten kämpferischen Hingabe; Feier der unbedingten Kameradschaft für eine gemeinsame Idee und weihevolle Eh-

Gerade weil auch wir mit leidenschaftlicher Anteilnahme den Kämpfen im großen olympischen Treffen gefolgt sind, dabei nicht allein mit sportlichem Interesse den Ergebnissen entgegenfieberten und dem Echo der Welt zu lauschen suchten, gerade deswegen scheint uns ein Vergleich mit dem nationalsozialistischen Parteitagserlebnis geeignet. So wird begreifbar, was Hunderttausende der besten Deutschen nie müde werden läßt, alle Opfer und Unbequemlichkeiten eines solchen Massentreffens immer wieder freudig auf sich zu nehmen und die Teilnahmeberechtigung als eine besondere Auszeichnung im Bewegungsdienst zu betrachten.

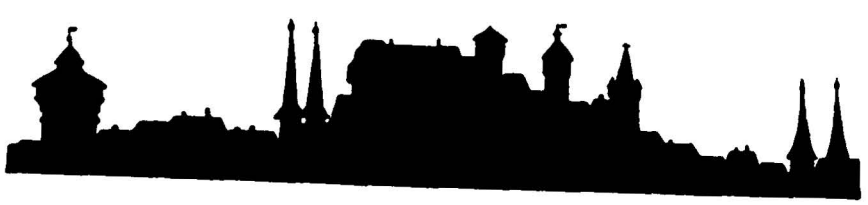
Und warum nun gerade Nürnberg? Die zähe Arbeit des Gauleiters Julius Streicher ermöglichte den Parteitag 1927. Die begeisterte Stadt nahm die Partei auch 1929 auf. Hinzu kam, daß die tagungstechnischen Voraussetzungen dort großzügig genug waren, um auch die wachsende Partei beherbergen zu können.

In diesen Tatsachen liegt eine sicher nicht zufällige Entwicklung. Sie beginnt mit den sagenhaften Anfängen der Pegnitz-Stadt, die früher drei germanische Wolfsangeln im Wappen führte. Nürnberg gilt als eine durch den Hunnensturm verursachte Gründung der Noriker. – Die NSDAP. entstand zur Sammlung gegen den blutigen Ansturm des Bolschewismus. –

Gundlings Chronik berichtet, daß „Anno 936, da Keyser Otto der Große zum Reich gekommen, die Stadt abermals sehr zugenommen . . ." Das ist die Zeit des ersten Erwachens eines deutschen Volks- und Reichsbewußtseins, wo man erstmals nicht mehr nur Stammesnamen findet, sondern auch vom Reich gesprochen wird. Nürnbergs erste historische Beurkundung erfolgt in der Freisprechungsurkunde der Leibeigenen Sigena durch Kaiser Heinrich III. am 16. Juli 1050. Diesem fortschrittlichen Geist bleibt die Stadt der kaiserlichen Reichstage und des wachsenden Handelsverkehrs so verbunden, daß später weltliche und geistliche Mächte um ihre Gunst bemüht sind. Barbarossa hat 1188 in Nürnberg das erste deutsche Landfriedensgebot verkündet. 1274 erfolgt dort der bemerkenswerte Reichstagsbeschluß auf die Einführung der deutschen Amtsschrift. Am 29. März 1424 wurden der wohlbewehrten Stadt die Reichskleinodien anvertraut. Am nächsten Tage verlieh der Papst der Stadt einen Heiligen. Niemals aber ist in Nürnberg eine „Hexe" verbrannt worden. Gegen den Ablaßhandel ist der kluge Rat schon lange vor der Reformation energisch vorgegangen. Auch die „Eiserne Jungfrau", leider noch immer als ein „Merkmal der Stadt" geltend, ist als üble Fälschung erwiesen.

Durch das Primat der Politik in der Führung ihrer Geschicke wurde die Stadt groß und reich an allen Gütern. Berufsständische Klassenpolitik wurde nie geduldet; bis auf eine nicht einmal zwei Jahre alt gewordene Ausnahme gab es niemals Zünfte, aber edelste Handwerkskunst.

Die Juden wurden nicht in Notzeiten als „unschuldige Opfer blinder Volksempörung" ausgewiesen, sondern zurzeit der höchsten Wohlhabenheit und der geistigen Blüte; der Humanist Pirkheimer war damals Ratsherr und des siebenundzwanzigjährigen Dürers Kraft waltete schon, wie auch Hans Sachs' Kindheit diese kluge Maßnahme des völkischen Selbstschutzes erlebt hat. Das sind ganz knappe Beispiele der reichen Tradition, auf der das Dritte Reich sein Führerkorps zum Reichsparteitag auf dem Boden bester Tradition versammelt.



Reichsamtsleiter Fritz Mehnert, München, Haupt-Organisationsamt

und ihrer angeschlossenen Verbände

Die Partei ist vom Führer geschaffen worden aus der Erkenntnis heraus, daß, wenn unser Volk leben und einer neuen Blütezeit entgegengehen soll, es geführt werden muß nach einer uns artgemäßen Weltanschauung. Sie muß als Träger Menschen haben, die sich über den Durchschnitt erheben, d. h. Menschen, die durch Selbstzucht und Disziplin, Leistung und größere Einsicht die anderen übertreffen. Die Partei wird infolgedessen immer eine Minderheit sein müssen, der Orden der nationalsozialistischen Weltanschauung, der das Führertum unseres Volkes umfaßt.

Es gibt in der Partei daher nur Kämpfer, bereit, alles für die totale Durchsetzung der nationalsozialistischen Weltanschauung auf sich zu nehmen und alles einzusetzen. Männer und Frauen, denen Dienst am Volk erste und heiligste Pflicht ist.

Die Neugestaltung nationalsozialistischer Organisationsformung zeigt sich in der Beachtung der folgenden Grundsätze:

1. Führerprinzip,
2. Unter- und Einordnung in die Gesamtorganisationsform,
3. Regionale Einheit und
4. Ausdruckgebung des praktischen Gemeinschaftsgedankens.

Das Führerprinzip

Das Führerprinzip bedingt einen pyramidenförmigen Aufbau der Organisation im einzelnen wie in der Gesamtheit.

An der Spitze steht der Führer.

Er ernennt die notwendigen Leiter für die einzelnen Arbeitsgebiete der Reichsführung, des Parteiapparates und der Staatsverwaltung.

Dabei ist das Aufgabengebiet der Partei klar gegeben.

Sie ist Führerorden. Weiterhin ist sie verantwortlich für die geistige — weltanschauliche — nationalsozialistische Ausrichtung des deutschen Volkes.

Daraus ergibt sich außer der Erfassung von Menschen in den Gliederungen der Partei, der SA., SS., des NSKK., der HJ., NS.-Frauenschaft, des NSD.-Studentenbundes, des NSD.-Dozentenbundes die Berechtigung der Unterstellung der menschenbetreuenden Organisationen unter die Partei. Hier nun zeigt sich schon in stärkster Form nationalsozialistische Führungsgestaltung. Jede einzelne Organisation findet ihre Betreuung durch ein Amt der NSDAP. Jede Führung der einzelnen Organisationen wird durch die Partei gestellt.

Der Reichsorganisationsleiter der NSDAP. ist gleichzeitig der Reichsleiter der DAF. Die NSBO. ist der Organisationsträger für die DAF.

Weiterhin steht das Reichsamt für Agrarpolitik der NSDAP. in engster Verbindung mit dem staatlich verankerten Reichsnährstand. Auch hier ist mittelbare Betreuung und Personal-Union der Führung gewährleistet.

Alle angeschlossenen Verbände, ebenso wie die Ämter der Partei haben ihre Untermauerung in gleicher Art wie in der Reichsleitung in den weiteren Hoheitsgebieten, in den Gauen und über diese in den Kreisen und weiterhin in den Ortsgruppen oder Stützpunkten. In „Ortswaltungen", die gebietlich mit den Ortsgruppen bzw. Stützpunkten der Partei übereinstimmen, werden die Mitglieder der angeschlossenen Verbände erfaßt.

Die Einordnung in die Gesamt-Organisationsform

Der Führungsaufbau wäre immer noch aufgespalten, wenn alle Gliederungen bzw. angeschlossenen Verbände in ihrem jeweiligen Aufbau von der kleinsten Einheit bis zur Reichsführung völlig unabhängig wären und nur in der Spitze dem Führer direkt unterständen.

Das wäre unter Berücksichtigung der vier Hoheitsgebiete gleichbedeutend mit einem vierstöckigen Haus, bei dem alle Pfeiler und Mauern bis unter das Dach gehen, ohne untereinander Stützbalken und Verbindungen in den einzelnen Stockwerken zu besitzen.

Die völlige Sonderstellung jeder Organisation würde weiterhin bedingen, daß jede einzelne der Organisationen einen eigenen Organisations-, Personal- und Schulungsapparat aufziehen müßte. Dies wiederum würde bei noch so gutem Willen aller in der Reichsführung der Partei verantwortlichen Reichsleiter, Hauptamts- und Amtsleiter dazu führen, daß in jedem Falle im Laufe der Zeit Unterschiede voneinander entstehen würden, die zu einem späteren Zeitpunkt den Zustand völlig verschiedener Systeme in regionaler, vertikaler, personeller usw. Beziehung innerhalb des nationalsozialistischen Regimes mit sich bringen müßten.

Aus diesem Grunde sind die Gliederungen (NSD.-Studentenbund, NS.-Frauenschaft, NSD.-Dozentenbund) und die angeschlossenen Verbände und ihre Leiter, während sie fachlich von unten aufbauend der nächsthöheren Dienststelle ihrer Organisation unterstehen, in den Hoheitsgebieten der Partei disziplinär, d. h. in organisatorischer, weltanschaulicher, politischer, aufsichtsführender und personeller Beziehung dem zuständigen Hoheitsträger der NSDAP. unterstellt. Dadurch ist eine feste Verankerung aller Organisationen in das Parteigefüge gegeben und in allen Hoheitsgebieten eine feste und dem nationalsozialistischen Führerprinzip entsprechende Verbindung mit den Hoheitsträgern der NSDAP. geschaffen.

Die regionale und vertikale Gliederung der NSDAP.

Die nationalsozialistische Organisationsform wird immer lebendig und elastisch bleiben. Je nachdem wie es zweckmäßig ist, werden wir die Organisation ausbauen, wir werden aber auch den Mut aufbringen, bei sich aus der Lage ergebenden Verlagerungen einzelne Aufgabengebiete bei Notwendigkeit zu verkleinern bzw. Auflösungen einzelner Organisationsteile vorzunehmen.

Das kleinste Hoheitsgebiet der NSDAP. ist außer den Blocks und Zellen die Ortsgruppe bzw. der Stützpunkt. Dabei können in einer Stadt mehrere Ortsgruppen sein und auf dem Land mehrere Gemeinden eine Ortsgruppe bilden.

Der Ortsgruppe bzw. dem Stützpunkt unterstehen als Hilfsstellen Zellen, diesen Blocks und diese können in Hausgruppen unterteilt werden.

Dann kommen die Kreise mit den Kreisleitungen.

Je nach Möglichkeit bzw. Zweckmäßigkeit können zwei oder mehr staatliche Kreis-einheiten (Amtshauptmannſchaften uſw.) einen Parteikreis abgeben.

Weiterhin haben wir die Gaue der NSDAP. mit den Gauleitungen und im Reich die Reichsleitung.

So einfach der geſchilderte Aufbau ausſieht, ſo wichtig iſt die Erhaltung dieſer Grundſtellung.

Der Blockleiter der NSDAP. unterſteht in jeder Beziehung direkt dem Zellenleiter, dieſer wiederum dem Ortsgruppen- bzw. Stützpunktleiter, der Ortsgruppen- bzw. Stützpunktleiter dem Kreisleiter, der Kreisleiter dem Gauleiter bzw. in deſſen Auftrag ſeinem Stellvertreter, der Gauleiter dem Führer bzw. in deſſen Auftrag dem Stellvertreter des Führers.

Dem einzelnen Hoheitsträger ſteht für alle Aufgabengebiete ein Stab von Amtsleitern und Mitarbeitern zur Verfügung. Die Leiter der Ämter und ſonſtige Mitarbeiter unterſtehen dem Hoheitsträger diſziplinär. Fachlich ſind ſie dem übergeordneten Amt uſw. ihres Reſſorts unterſtellt.

Dies betrifft die bereits genannten Gliederungen und Ämter und deren angeſchloſſene Verbände, die in ihrer regionalen (gebietlichen) Einteilung ſich ſtreng nach dem Aufbau der Partei zu richten haben.

Dienſtſtellen für die folgenden Aufgabengebiete kommen noch hinzu:

1. Organiſation mit Ausbildung und Statiſtik,
2. Perſonal-Fragen,
3. Weltanſchauliche Schulung, Erziehung,
4. Verwaltung (Geſchäftsführung, Kaſſe und Hilfskaſſe),
5. Propaganda,
6. Preſſe.

Es folgen weiterhin Dienſtſtellen fachlicher Art:

7. Agrarpolitik,
8. Recht,
9. Wirtſchaft,
10. Außenpolitik,
11. Kolonialpolitik,
12. Kommunalpolitik.

Alle dieſe Dienſtſtellen ſind zum Teil bis zur Ortsgruppe hinunter vertreten. (Siehe Darſtellungen der mittleren Bildſeite 1.)

Zum Schluß kommt noch von der Reichsleitung bis zu den Kreisleitungen das Parteigericht, welches infolge ſeiner beſonderen Aufgaben eine geſonderte Stellung einnimmt.

Die Unterſtellung im einzelnen iſt z. B. wie folgt:

Der Betriebszellenobmann (NSBO.) in der Ortsgruppe iſt in Perſonalunion Ortswalter der DAF., er unterſteht fachlich-ſachlich dem zuſtändigen Kreisamtsleiter der NSBO. bzw. Kreiswalter der DAF. Diſziplinär unterſteht er ſeinem Ortsgruppenleiter der NSDAP. (ſ. mittlere Bildſeite 3). Oder:

Der Gau-Organiſationsleiter unterſteht fachlich-ſachlich dem Reichsorganiſationsleiter, Haupt-Organiſationsamt, diſziplinär ſeinem Gauleiter (ſ. mittlere Bildſeite 2); uſw.

Der Leiter des Organiſations-, Perſonal-, Schulungs-, Propaganda-, Preſſe- bzw. Volksgeſundheits-Amtes der NSDAP. überwacht die Tätigkeit der jeweils gleichartigen Dienſtſtellenleiter in den Parteiämtern und angeſchloſſenen Verbänden des gleichen Hoheitsbereiches.

Der Gaupreſſeamtsleiter überwacht alſo die Tätigkeit der Preſſeabteilungsleiter in den angeſchloſſenen Verbänden uſw. des Gaugebietes, der Kreisamtsleiter für Volksgeſundheit überwacht die Tätigkeit der Abteilungsleiter für Volksgeſundheit in den angeſchloſſenen Verbänden uſw. des Kreisgebietes, der Ortsgruppenſchulungsleiter überwacht die Tätigkeit der Schulungsabteilungsleiterin der NS.-Frauenſchaft, der angeſchloſſenen Verbände uſw. des Ortsgruppengebietes uſw.

die Überwachungstätigkeit des Amtsleiters (Schulung, Propaganda usw.) Doppelarbeit auf den gleichen Gebieten sowie unfruchtbares Nebeneinanderarbeiten ohne zweckmäßige Fuhlung verhindert. Weiterhin ist erreicht, daß dem jeweils zuständigen Hoheitsträger auf all diesen parteiinternen Fachgebieten nur ein einziger zuständiger Leiter innerhalb seines Hoheitsbereiches verantwortlich ist und er somit als Gesamtverantwortlicher entsprechende Entlastung erfährt.

Durch diese Verteilung der Zuständigkeit und scharfe Abgrenzung der einzelnen Aufgabengebiete und Unterstellung der einzelnen Leiter ist ein Nebeneinanderarbeiten vermieden und damit auch die Gefahr der Übererganisation ausgeschaltet. Es gibt in jedem Hoheitsgebiet nur je eine fachlich verantwortliche Dienststelle für Organisation, Schulung, Personalfragen, Propaganda, Presse, Volksgesundheit usw. Über allen steht in jedem Hoheitsgebiet der Hoheitsträger als disziplinär Fuhrender, unparteiischer Leiter und fur alles in seinem Gebiet Verantwortlicher, der nur dem ihm übergeordneten Hoheitsträger untersteht.

Wenn wir Nationalsozialisten als Ablösung des liberalistischen Denkens den nationalsozialistischen Gemeinschaftsgedanken ins Volk tragen wollen, dann bauen wir auf der Gemeinschaft der Familie und der Sippe auf und kommen zur Volksgemeinschaft.

Volksgemeinschaft kann nicht durch einen Stand vertreten werden. Gemeinschaftsgeist beweist man auch nicht lediglich durch die Tatsache, daß man „Mitgefühl" mit anderen Notleidenden hat und „Barmherzigkeit" zu üben bereit ist.

Hier ergibt sich nun die Aufgabe der „Angeschlossenen Verbände" der NSDAP.

Von der klaren Erkenntnis ausgehend, daß es grundsätzlich falsch ist, Menschen aus fachlichen Gründen zu erganisieren, und in Abkehr des Otbmar Spann'schen Ständegedankens hat die Partei das Problem des Gemeinschaftsgedankens auf dem Gebiet der Menschenerganisation angefaßt und durch Schaffung der Nationalsozialistischen Gemeinschaftsorganisation „Die Deutsche Arbeitsfront" gelöst.

In der Deutschen Arbeitsfront wird auf der täglichen Arbeitsstätte der Gemeinschaftsgedanke exerziert. Im Beruf, im Betrieb bilden Arbeiter, Unternehmer, Beamte und Angestellte als Betriebsführer mit Betriebsgefolgschaft eine Betriebsgemeinschaft. Der Betrieb ist eine Einheit.

So, wie auf dem Gebiet des Familienlebens ist also auch im Beruf, im Betrieb der Gedanke der Gemeinschaft sichergestellt.

Dazu kommt noch die weitere revolutionäre Neuformung, die Betreuung des Menschen durch das Amt der DAF.: NS.-Gemeinschaft „Kraft durch Freude". Hier wird wiederum der Gemeinschaftsgedanke exerziert. „Kraft durch Freude", auf der Grundlage des Volksgemeinschaftsprinzips entwickelt, sichert uns den Menschen in bestem nationalsozialistischen Denken.

Die Parole für die Ausdruckgebung des praktischen Gemeinschaftsgedankens lautet:

Die Gemeinschaft in der Familie, die Gemeinschaft auf der Arbeitsstätte und in der Freizeit, die Gemeinschaft in der Gemeinde.

Stab des Stellvertreters des Führers

Dessen seien wir uns bewußt: Der geistige Kampf des Nationalsozialismus hat erst begonnen. Schafft nicht an Stelle des schwindenden Standesdünkels in eurem Volke einen Standesdünkel in eurer Bewegung. Fühlt euch nicht zuerst als Angehörige einer Sondergruppe innerhalb der NSDAP., nicht als Angehörige einer Teilorganisation, sei es der PL., sei es der SA., sei es einer anderen Formation. Dünkt euch nicht mehr als eure Brüder. Eure Aufgaben sind so groß, die Bereitschaft, die Deutschland von euch verlangt, so immerwährend, daß ihr in euch nicht Raum genug habt für kleines Formationsdenken, nicht Zeit für die Verfolgung kleiner Ziele, statt des einen großen. – Ihr kämpft in der historischen Bewegung, die Deutschlands Schicksal weiter bestimmt in alter Kampfgemeinschaft mit dem SA.-Mann, wie sie sich einst schloß, als er kämpfte, opferte und litt, wie ihr kämpftet, opfertet und littet. Gemeinsam ehrt euch alle, Politische Leiter, SA., SS. und Jugend, der eine Stolz: Angehörige zu sein der NSDAP. Adolf Hitlers.

Nach der Übernahme der Staatsmacht durch die nationalsozialistische Bewegung sah sich der Führer infolge seiner Beanspruchung durch die Staatsgeschäfte veranlaßt, für die Führung der Partei einen Stellvertreter zu bestimmen, zu welchem der Leiter der Politischen Zentralkommission der NSDAP. ernannt wurde. Der Auftrag des Führers bedeutete für den Stellvertreter die Übernahme einer außerordentlichen Verantwortung. Durch die Machtübernahme war die Partei gezwungen worden, einen großen Teil ihrer besten Kräfte an den Staat abzugeben. Wenn diese Männer auch teilweise weiterhin die Parteiämter führen, so waren sie nicht mehr dazu in der Lage, ihre ganze Arbeitskraft der Bewegung zur Verfügung zu stellen, zumal der Neuaufbau des Staates eine ungeheure Kraft und persönlichen Einsatz forderte. Des Führers Stellvertreter war also genötigt, die Partei neu auszurichten und neue Kräfte zu mobilisieren. Die Gliederungen und angeschlossenen Verbände der NSDAP. bedurften einer einheitlichen politischen Führung.

So ist es im jeweiligen Auftrag des Stellvertreters des Führers eine der Hauptaufgaben des Stabes unter der Leitung des Stabsleiters, die Gauleitungen der NSDAP. sowie die Gliederungen und angeschlossenen Verbände politisch einheitlich auszurichten und ihnen politische Richtlinien zu erteilen.

Weiterhin ist es Aufgabe des Stabes des Stellvertreters des Führers, auf Grund einer Anordnung des Führers bei der Gesetzesgestaltung der Reichsbehörden und bei ihrer personellen Besetzung im Sinne der nationalsozialistischen Weltanschauung entscheidend mitzuwirken.

Eine Übersicht der Dienststelle des Stellvertreters des Führers, wie sie die erste Seite des mittleren Bildteiles dieses Heftes enthält, zeigt das weitverzweigte Aufgabengebiet der einzelnen Ämter im Stab.

Der Reichsorganisationsleiter

Der Kampf des Führers und seiner Partei war eine nie erreichte Auslese und Erziehung von Kämpfern für ein politisches Ideal. Darüber müssen wir uns klar sein, das war nur einmal und wird in der Geschichte Deutschlands und aller Völker einzigartig dastehen, es ist durch nichts zu ersetzen. Damit sind auch die Männer, die aus diesem Kampf als die endgültigen Führer des neuen Deutschlands hervorgegangen sind, einmalig und einzigartig. Auch das ist ein Beweis für die Behauptung, daß die nationalsozialistische Revolution eine von den ganz wenigen Revolutionen im Laufe der Jahrtausende darstellt, die wahr und echt ist, nämlich die Tatsache, daß diese Revolution nicht die Mehrzahl ihrer Kinder ‚aufgefressen' hat.

Diese Auslese und dieser Kampf fanden mit dem 30. Januar 1933 nach außen ihren Abschluß. Von nun ab war die Partei nicht mehr verfolgt, sondern sie herrschte. Die Mitglieder waren nicht mehr verfemt, im Gegenteil, sie führten den Staat, die Wirtschaft und die Gesellschaft. Mit einem Wort: für den oberflächlichen Beobachter war jetzt bereits das Ziel des nationalsozialistischen Kampfes erreicht. Jedoch der Führer und seine Garde wußten, daß jetzt erst der eigentliche Kampf begann. Es galt nun, [illegible] Erkenntnis in den Mitgliedern der NSDAP. immer wieder und von neuem wach zu erhalten und die Führer der Bewegungsgliederungen auf die kommende Phase des Kampfes vorzubereiten und auszurichten.

Reichsleiter Dr. Robert Ley

Der Reichsorganisationsleiter ist vom Führer für die Bearbeitung aller Organisationsfragen der Partei, ihrer Gliederungen und der angeschlossenen Verbände eingesetzt. Der Stellvertreter des Führers hat den Aufgabenbereich des Reichsorganisationsleiters mit Verfügung vom 12. Mai 1934 näher umrissen. Hiernach müssen sämtliche Anordnungen und Maßnahmen der Reichsleiter sowie aller Dienststellen der Reichsleitung, welche die Organisation der Partei betreffen oder sich organisatorisch auswirken, vor Bekanntmachung oder Ausführung mit dem Reichsorganisationsleiter besprochen und von ihm genehmigt sein.

Ferner hat der Stellvertreter des Führers mit Anordnung vom 20. Oktober 1934 zur Verhinderung einer widersprechenden Stellungnahme der Parteidienststellen, Gliederungen oder angeschlossenen Verbände ausschließlich den Reichsorganisationsleiter ermächtigt, in allen Fragen der Organisation verbindliche Richtlinien und Anweisungen zu erlassen.

Das Hoheitsrecht der Hoheitsträger und die Selbständigkeit der SA., SS., des NSKK. und der HJ. in reinen SA.-, SS.-, NSKK.- oder HJ.-Angelegenheiten werden durch diese Anordnung nicht berührt.

Der Reichsorganisationsleiter ist in seiner Eigenschaft als solcher gleichzeitig Reichsschulungsleiter und Reichspersonalleiter der NSDAP.

Der Reichsorganisationsleiter hat darüber zu wachen, daß keine Überorganisation entsteht und hat notwendigenfalls die Organisation auf den für sie festgesetzten Rahmen zurückzuführen. Gebietliche Änderungen und Änderungen in den Dienststellen müssen vom Reichsorganisationsleiter genehmigt sein. Weiter hat der Reichsorganisationsleiter darauf zu achten, daß in den Organisationen der Menschenführung der Gemeinschaftsgedanke richtig zum Ausdruck kommt und daß die weltanschauliche Ausrichtung der Volksgenossen in diesen Organisationen gewährleistet ist.

Der Organisationsleiter in den Gau-, Kreis- und Ortsgruppen-Leitungen ist im Auftrag des Hoheitsträgers gehalten, darüber zu wachen, daß der wesentlichste Dienst der Politischen Leiter im Volke selbst, in persönlicher Fühlungnahme, von Mann zu Mann stattfindet und sich nicht etwa die gesamte Arbeit des Politischen Leiters auf mehr oder weniger gut ausgebauten Geschäftsstellen abwickelt. Die Stärke der Bewegung wird immer darin liegen, daß ihre Männer zum Volksgenossen kommen, nicht darin, daß der Volksgenosse lediglich ab und zu Gelegenheit erhält, eine angesetzte Sprechstunde wahrzunehmen.

Aus diesem Grunde hat der verantwortliche Organisationsleiter darüber zu wachen, daß der Ausbau einer örtlichen Parteieinheit sich nicht auf die Errichtung einer Ortsgruppen- bzw. Stützpunkt-Geschäftsstelle beschränkt, er hat dafür zu sorgen, daß das Block- und Zellen-System der Partei einwandfrei funktioniert und beste Parteigenossen als Block- und Zellenleiter tätig sind.

Bei einwandfreiem Arbeiten des Partei-Apparates ergibt sich eine Fülle von Führer-Besprechungen, die besonders geeignet sind, die Politischen Leiter und Mitarbeiter zueinander auszurichten und gleichzeitig praktisch weltanschaulich zu schulen.

Der Organisationsleiter ist dafür zuständig, die Übereinstimmung der örtlichen bzw. Gebietsgrenzen aller Arbeitsgebiete der angeschlossenen Verbände, der NS.-Frauenschaft, des NSD.-Studentenbundes usw. zu den Hoheitsgebieten der Partei sicherzustellen. Er ist für weitere organisatorische Fragen gebietlicher Art zuständig, z. B. Abgrenzung der Gaue, Kreise, Ortsgruppen, Stützpunkte, Zellen und Blocks zueinander.

Die letzte Entscheidung trifft der Führer.

Die Propaganda der Bewegung

Die Propaganda der NSDAP., ihrer Gliederungen und angeschlossenen Verbände liegt verantwortlich in den Händen des Reichspropagandaleiters. Er bestimmt:

1. das gesamte propagandistische Auftreten der Bewegung einschließlich ihrer Gliederungen und angeschlossenen Verbände;
2. gibt er die Richtlinien für die Partei einschließlich der Gliederungen und angeschlossenen Verbände hinsichtlich der Verwirklichung des kulturellen Willens des Führers;
3. übt der Reichspropagandaleiter die Kontrolle über das gesamte deutsche Rundfunkwesen mit Bezug auf seine innere organisatorische, kulturelle und wirtschaftliche Entwicklung aus;
4. ist er durch seine Initiative um die Durchdringung des gesamten deutschen Volkes mit der nationalsozialistischen Weltanschauung besorgt, und
5. klärt der Reichspropagandaleiter das Volk über die Leistungen der Führung von Partei und Staat auf.

Zum Zwecke der Propaganda werden Presse und Film eingesetzt.

Die Aufgabengebiete der Reichspropagandaleitung gliedern sich in fünf Arten, deren jede durch eine Amtsleitung laufend bearbeitet wird.

1. Aktive Propaganda, 2. Film, 3. Rundfunk, 4. Kultur, 5. Verbindungsstab.

Die Amtsleitung Aktive Propaganda

hat die Aufgabe der organisatorischen Durchführung aller anfallenden Propaganda-Aktionen, von der Großveranstaltung riesigsten Ausmaßes mit ihrer architektonischen Ausgestaltung bis zur Durchführung von Veranstaltungen der Ortsgruppen bzw. Stützpunkte. Dies bedingt, daß sie auch die gesamte Rednerorganisation der Bewegung, ihrer Gliederungen und angeschlossenen Verbände in sich vereinigt.

Parallel zur dauernden Behandlung der tagespolitischen Fragen läuft die Durchdringung des gesamten Rednerstabes mit Informationen und die Beschickung aller Propagandisten des Reiches mit der Monatszeitschrift „Unser Wille und Weg".

Für die übrigen Parteigenossen ist der Beitrag einheitlich festgelegt (siehe Rundschreiben des Reichsschatzmeisters 139/35 vom 29. 10. 1935 sowie Rundschreiben 149/35 vom 21. 11. 1935). D. Die Hilfskasse der NSDAP.

Sie wurde vom Führer geschaffen und dient dem Zweck, den verletzten oder verunglückten Mitgliedern oder den Hinterbliebenen bei Unfällen und Todesfällen, die sich bei Parteiveranstaltungen selbst oder auf dem unmittelbaren Weg zum oder vom Parteidienst ereignen, Unterstützungen zu gewähren. Der Führer hat bestimmt, daß die Beitragszahlung zur Hilfskasse Parteipflicht ist! Ihr müssen sämtliche Parteimitglieder, ferner alle Angehörigen der SA., SS. und des NSKK. angeschlossen sein und regelmäßig monatlich den Hilfskassenbeitrag bezahlen. Mitglieder der NS.-Frauenschaft sowie Walter und Warte der der NSDAP. angeschlossenen Verbände, die Nichtparteimitglieder sind, können der Hilfskasse angehören. Die Unfall- und Todesfall-Unterstützungen, die die Hilfskasse bei Erfüllung der notwendigen Voraussetzungen gewährt, sind freiwillige Leistungen der Parteileitung ohne Rechtsanspruch.

Der Ehrensold: Für die Hinterbliebenen dieser im Kampfe der Bewegung für die Freiheit des deutschen Volkes gefallenen Kämpfer der NSDAP. verfügte der Führer am 9. November 1934 die Gewährung eines Ehrensoldes.

Die Ehrenunterstützung: Am 9. November 1935 erließ der Führer eine Verfügung, wonach die Schwerbeschädigten der Partei eine „Ehren-Unterstützung" erhalten. Die Vorbearbeitung aller Anträge erfolgt durch die Hilfskasse bis zur Entscheidung durch den Reichsschatzmeister.

Das Gesetz über die Versorgung der Kämpfer für die nationale Erhebung vom 27. Februar 1934. Jeder Versorgungsantrag ist der Hilfskasse zur sachlichen Prüfung und Entscheidung vorzulegen. Sie erteilt die für die Weiterbearbeitung der Anträge erforderliche Zustimmung.

Die Adolf-Hitler-Spende: In den Aufgabenbereich der Hilfskasse fällt auch die vorbereitende Bearbeitung der Anträge auf Bewilligung von Unterstützungen aus Mitteln der „Adolf-Hitler-Spende", die der Führer aus dem Reichskanzler-Gehalt gestiftet hat.

Der Hilfskassenobmann

Zur Durchführung dieser umfangreichen Hilfskassenangelegenheiten hat jeder Hoheitsbereich einen eigenen Hilfskassenobmann. Seine Aufgabe besteht also in der Betreuung der Verletzten und Verunglückten sowie der Hinterbliebenen unserer Toten. Ihm obliegt auch die vorschriftsmäßige Anmeldung sämtlicher Mitglieder zur Hilfskasse. Er hat alle zur Behandlung von Unfällen und Todesfällen notwendigen Maßnahmen zu ergreifen und durchzuführen. Die Hilfskassenobmänner arbeiten unmittelbar mit der Hilfskasse der NSDAP.

E. Die Reichszeugmeisterei

Um eine streng einheitliche und zweckmäßige Bekleidung der Politischen Leiter, SA., SS., NSKK., HJ. usw. zu niedrigen Preisen und in bester Ausführung zu erreichen, wurde die Reichszeugmeisterei auf Befehl des Führers Ende 1928 ins Leben gerufen. Seit 1. August 1930 untersteht die Reichszeugmeisterei aus organisatorischen Gründen dem Reichsschatzmeister.

Lizenzsystem: Die Reichszeugmeisterei der NSDAP. erteilt namens des Reichsschatzmeisters die Erlaubnis zur Herstellung parteiamtlicher Uniformen, Uniformteile, Gewebe, Fahnen, Abzeichen und Ausrüstungsgegenstände der NSDAP., ihrer Gliederungen und der angeschlossenen Verbände und erläßt Vorschriften über die Herstellung dieser Gegenstände; für die Erteilung dieser Erlaubnis erhebt die Reichszeugmeisterei eine Gebühr.

1. das Gesetz gegen heimtückische Angriffe auf Staat und Par-

tei und zum Schutz der Parteiuniformen vom 20. Dezember 1934, RGBl. I;

2. die Bekanntmachung gemäß Artikel I § 5 des Gesetzes zum Schutz der Parteiuniformen vom 16. Januar 1935, RGBl. I; S. 70;

3. die hierzu erlassene dritte Verordnung zur Durchführung des Gesetzes gegen heimtückische Angriffe auf Staat und Partei und zum Schutz der Parteiuniformen vom 16. März 1935, RGBl. I, S. 387.

Die Strafbestimmungen dieser Gesetze sehen bei Zuwiderhandlung Geld- und Freiheitsstrafen vor. Auf Grund der Anordnung des Führers vom 3. Mai 1934 müssen alle Beschaffungsvorhaben zur Stellung und Durchführung der Reichszeugmeisterei gemeldet werden. Der Reichszeugmeister erließ hierzu am 1. Juni 1934 die notwendigen Durchführungsbestimmungen (Mitteilungsblatt der Reichszeugmeisterei, Ausgabe 2 vom 9. Juni 1934).

Die parteiamtliche Prüfungskommission zum Schutze des NS.-Schrifttums

Die parteiamtliche Prüfungskommission ist keine Zensurstelle, sondern eine Schutz- und Abwehrstelle gegen pseudonationalsozialistisches Schrifttum und wacht darüber, daß das nationalsozialistische Ideengut nicht von Unberufenen verfälscht und in einer die breite Öffentlichkeit irreführenden Weise geschäftlich ausgenutzt wird.

1. Das NS.-Schrifttum im engeren Sinne. Zu diesem zählt das NS.-Schrifttum, das in unmittelbarer Anlehnung an die Bewegung entstanden ist.

2. Das dem Nationalsozialismus wesensverwandte Schrifttum, das sich mit politischen Gedanken und Forderungen befaßt, die in der Linie der Entwicklung zum Nationalsozialismus liegen.

Schriften, gegen die Bedenken bei der Prüfung nicht geltend gemacht wurden, werden in die „NS.-Bibliographie" (NSB.) aufgenommen. In ihr wird festgestellt:

3. Die Schrift stimmt in ihren Forderungen mit den Grundsätzen der NSDAP. nicht überein; sie wird also abgelehnt. In diesem Falle bestehen folgende Möglichkeiten:

   a) Die Schrift darf vertrieben, aber nicht in Verbindung mit dem Nationalsozialismus gebracht werden.

   b) Die Schrift darf nicht mehr ausgeliefert werden.

Die Parteigerichtsbarkeit

Das Gewissen der Bewegung

Während in der Kampfzeit der Haß aller anderen dafür sorgte, daß keiner zur NSDAP. stieß, der nicht von dem ehrlichen Glauben an das Ziel des Führers durchdrungen war, während damals das Bekenntnis zur Partei nur Nachteile jeder Art brachte, glaubten nach der Machtübernahme einzelne Postenjäger und Streber, daß ihnen die Parteimitgliedschaft Vorteile bringen würde und ließen sich daher als Mitglied in die Partei aufnehmen. Die natürliche Auslese, wie wir sie insbesondere in den Gefahren, Opfern und Entbehrungen der Kampfzeit der Bewegung vor der Machtübernahme kannten, muß jetzt nunmehr zum Teil durch eine künstliche ergänzt werden. Parteigenosse zu sein, bedeutet, größere Pflichten zu haben. Diesen über das allgemeine staatsbürgerliche Maß erweiterten Pflichtenkreis zu wahren, in schweren Fällen den Schuldigen aus der Partei zu entfernen, weiterhin offensichtlich ungeeignete Volksgenossen von der Partei fernzuhalten, ist der Parteigerichtsbarkeit anvertraut. Die Parteigerichtsbarkeit trägt damit die Verantwortung für den Fortbestand der reinen Idee des Nationalsozialismus. Sie sorgt nicht nur dafür, daß der offenbar ungeeignete Parteigenosse aus der Partei wieder entfernt wird, sondern ebenso wichtig ist es auch, daß jeder, der ehrlichen Willens und gläubigen Herzens mitzuarbeiten bestrebt ist, der Bewegung erhalten bleibt. Jedes Fehlurteil, das ergeht, tut nicht nur dem einzelnen Unrecht, der davon betroffen wird, sondern vielmehr noch der Partei, die es nicht ertragen könnte, wenn die wahren alten Nationalsozialisten entfernt und Postenjäger gestützt würden.

1. den Kreis-(Orts-)gerichten;
2. den Gaugerichten;
3. dem Obersten Parteigericht.

Die einzelnen Parteigerichte gehören organisatorisch zum Hoheitsgebiet des jeweiligen Hoheitsträgers. Nur in Verfahrenssachen sind die Parteigerichte unabhängig und für die zu treffende Entscheidung an keine Weisung des Hoheitsträgers gebunden.

Innere Organisation: Bei jedem Parteigericht bestehen je nach seiner Größe eine oder mehrere Kammern. Jede Kammer ist besetzt mit einem Vorsitzenden und zwei oder mehr Beisitzern. Einer der Beisitzer muß der SA. oder einer anderen Gliederung angehören und, wenn der Angeschuldigte SA.-Führer ist, mindestens dessen Dienstrang bekleiden. Das entsprechende gilt für die anderen Gliederungen.

1. Strafverfahren;
2. Streitverfahren;
3. Ehrenschutzverfahren;
4. Ablehnungsverfahren (bei Anträgen auf Aufnahme in die Partei);
5. Verfahren in Rasse- und Freimaurersachen.

Vor allen Verfahren muß es aber der Parteirichter ebenso wie der Hoheitsträger zu seiner vornehmsten Aufgabe machen, Verfahren zu verhindern. Nicht jede Kleinigkeit eignet sich dazu, zu einem Verfahren aufgebauscht zu werden. Oft genügt eine Warnung oder ein einfacher Hinweis, um einen Parteigenossen auf seine Parteipflichten aufmerksam zu machen.

Mit jedem anderen Gerichtsverfahren hat das Parteigerichtsverfahren gemeinsam den Grundsatz des rechtlichen Gehörs, nach dem niemand verurteilt werden kann, ohne

Der Politische Leiter

Nur wer durch die Schule der Kleinarbeit in unserer Partei gegangen ist, darf bei entsprechender Eignung Anspruch auf höhere Führerämter erheben.

Die erste Pflicht des Politischen Leiters ist, ein Vorbild im persönlichen Auftreten, in der Dienstauffassung und im außerdienstlichen Lebenswandel zu sein. Die Zelle, der Block, der Stützpunkt bzw. die Ortsgruppe, der Kreis und der Gau sind immer das Spiegelbild ihres Hoheitsträgers.

Die zweite Pflicht ist unbedingte Gerechtigkeit. Jede Vetterwirtschaft hat zu unterbleiben. Tüchtige Parteigenossen sollen nicht vom verantwortlichen Einsatz im Bewegungsdienst zurückgehalten werden. Der Politische Leiter soll nicht alles allein machen. Er muß der Richtunggebende, der Überwachende, der Schlichtende, mit einem Wort: Die Seele des Ganzen sein. Aus Sorgen um seine Gruppe, in vielen Orten sein Werk, muß der Politische Leiter jeden Funken Zündstoff, der sich zeigt, augenblicklich auslöschen. Er muß vorausschauen und nicht nachhinken. Aus all diesen Gründen darf er sich nicht mit der Kleinarbeit überlasten.

Jede Führerstellung erfordert ein erhebliches Maß von Wissen und Können. Deshalb muß sich jeder Politische Leiter dauernd weiterbilden. Daher sieht es die Partei als ihre vornehmste Aufgabe an, eine dauernde Schulung aller Politischen Leiter zu ermöglichen. Nicht das Patent macht den Führer, sondern die Tatsache, daß die Gefolgschaft in jeder Beziehung zu ihm hinaufschauen kann. Nicht jeder Politische Leiter kann ein guter Redner sein, jedoch muß er ein Prediger, ein Propagandist der Idee sein.

Es gibt für den Politischen Leiter nur ein Ansehen, das der Bewegung. Die Pflege eines kameradschaftlichen Verhältnisses zu allen anderen Stellen der Partei ist seine besondere Aufgabe.

Aus dem Angeführten ergibt sich der Typ des Politischen Leiters. Er ist kein Beamter, sondern immer der politische Beauftragte des Führers.

Der Typ des Politischen Leiters ist nicht charakterisiert durch das Amt, das er ausübt. Es gibt keinen besonderen Typ des Politischen Leiters der NSBO., der NS.-Hago, sondern es gibt nur den Politischen Leiter der NSDAP.

Aus der Erkenntnis, daß die Grundlage politischer Arbeit für Deutschland das Soldatische ist, entstand die Uniform des Politischen Leiters.

Durch ihre Schaffung hat der Führer weithin sichtbar zum Ausdruck gebracht, daß es sein Wille ist, eine klare Unterscheidung herbeizuführen zwischen dem Typ des Politischen Leiters der NSDAP. und dem zivilen Politiker früherer Parteien und Staaten.

Nachdem sich die Partei entschieden hatte, für Politische Leiter einen Dienstanzug vorzuschreiben und je nach der Art der Tätigkeit der Politischen Leiter verschiedene Abzeichen vorgesehen sind, mußten aus disziplinären Gründen die einzelnen Dienstgrade in ein bestimmtes Verhältnis zueinander gebracht werden. Die nachstehende Tafel enthält eine solche Rangordnung. (Siehe vorletzte Seite des Heftes! Schriftltg.)

Hierzu ist zu bemerken, daß durch die Schaffung einer Rangordnung die Pflicht der Politischen Leiter zur Kameradschaft untereinander nicht berührt wird.

vorher die Gelegenheit gehabt zu haben, seine Handlungsweise zu verteidigen. Deshalb beginnt das Verfahren vor dem Parteigericht nach Abschluß der der Ermittlung des Anklagestoffs dienenden Voruntersuchung mit dem Eröffnungsbeschluß, durch den der Angeschuldigte von den gegen ihn erhobenen Vorwurfen in Kenntnis gesetzt wird und er die Moglichkeit erhalt, dazu sachlich Stellung zu nehmen. Daran schließt sich, wenn nicht das Parteigericht in besonders gelagerten Fallen das schriftliche Verfahren anordnet, die Hauptverhandlung an.

Im Streitverfahren geht der Hauptverhandlung ein Suhneversuch voraus, in dem die Beteiligten sich unter Vermeidung des formlichen Verfahrens einigen sollen.

Strafen der Parteigerichtsbarkeit

Als Strafen sind vorgesehen:

1. Ausschluß aus der Partei, wenn das Parteigericht der Überzeugung ist, daß der Angeschuldigte durch sein Verhalten das Recht verwirkt hat, in der NSDAP. zu verbleiben.

2. Verwarnung, wenn das Parteigericht der Überzeugung ist, daß der Angeschuldigte durch das ihm zur Last fallende Verhalten nicht unwurdig geworden ist, in der Partei belassen zu werden.

Neben der Verwarnung kann das Parteigericht als strafverscharfende Nebenstrafen verhangen:

a) Aberkennung der Fahigkeit zur Bekleidung eines Parteiamtes auf die Dauer von höchstens drei Jahren;

b) Aberkennung des Rechtes zum Tragen der Waffe auf die Dauer von höchstens zwölf Monaten;

c) Aberkennung der Fahigkeit zum öffentlichen Auftreten als Redner.

3. Verweis, wenn das Parteigericht der Überzeugung ist, daß das Verschulden des Angeschuldigten und die Bedeutung der ihm zur Last fallenden Handlung geringfügig sind.

4. Geld- oder Haftstrafen sind gesetzlich vorgesehen, doch hat die Parteigerichtsbarkeit von dieser Strafmöglichkeit bisher noch keinen Gebrauch gemacht.

Jeder erstinstanzliche Beschluß eines Kreis- oder Gaugerichts, außer wenn letzteres nur einen Verweis beantragt, kann von dem Angeschuldigten beim nächsthöheren Parteigericht durch Beschwerde angefochten werden. Dasselbe Recht steht auch dem Hoheitstrager und dem zuständigen Fuhrer der Gliederung zu.

Mit der Partei ist auch die Parteigerichtsbarkeit aufgewachsen. Ihre Vorläufer, die Untersuchungs- und Schlichtungsausschüsse (Uschla), reichen zurück bis in die Zeit der Neugründung der Partei. So wird auch die Weiterentwicklung der Parteigerichtsbarkeit bewußt nur aus der Partei heraus erfolgen. Nie wird der Eindruck entstehen können, daß von außen etwas Artfremdes in die Partei eingepflanzt werden soll. Als Gewissen der Bewegung werden die Parteigerichte, wenn sie den erhöhten Pflichtenkreis der Parteigenossen wahren, dafür sorgen, daß der alte Kampfgeist nicht verlorengeht und daß die Partei immer mehr wird: der Orden der Besten des deutschen Volkes.

Hoheitsträger — Hoheitsgebiet

Innerhalb des Korps der Politischen Leiter nehmen die Hoheitsträger eine Sonderstellung ein. Im Gegensatz zu den übrigen Politischen Leitern, die fachliche Aufgaben zu bearbeiten haben und zur Beratung der Hoheitsträger dienen, leiten letztere ein bestimmtes räumliches Gebiet, welches Hoheitsgebiet genannt wird.

Hoheitsträger sind:	Hoheitsgebiete sind:
der Führer,	das Reich,
die Gauleiter,	die Gaue,
die Kreisleiter,	die Kreise,
die OG.-Leiter,	die Ortsgruppen,
die Stp.-Leiter,	die Stützpunkte,
die Zellenleiter,	die Zellen,
die Blockleiter.	die Blocks.

Den Hoheitsträgern ist für ihr Hoheitsgebiet das politische Hoheitsrecht übertragen. Sie vertreten in ihrem Bereich die Partei nach innen und außen und sind verantwortlich für die gesamtpolitische Lage in ihrem Hoheitsgebiet. Die Hoheitsträger üben die allgemeine Dienstaufsicht über alle ihnen nachgeordneten Parteidienststellen aus und sind für die Aufrechterhaltung der Disziplin in ihrem Bereich verantwortlich. Sie sind Vorgesetzte aller Politischen Leiter, Walter und Warte ihres Hoheitsgebietes. Auf personalpolitischem Gebiet sind die Hoheitsträger vom Stützpunktleiter bzw. Ortsgruppenleiter an aufwärts mit besonderen Befugnissen ausgestattet. Sie können im Rahmen der allgemeinen Personalbestimmungen Beurlaubungen und Absetzungen von Politischen Leitern, Waltern und Warten aussprechen und vollziehen die Urteile der für das Hoheitsgebiet zuständigen Parteigerichte.

Die Hoheitsträger der Partei sollen keine Verwaltungsbeamten für ein bestimmtes Gebiet sein, sondern sich in dauernder, lebendiger Fühlungnahme mit den Politischen Leitern und der Bevölkerung ihres Bereiches befinden. Die Hoheitsträger sind verantwortlich für eine ordnungsmäßige und gute Betreuung aller Volksgenossen in ihrem Hoheitsbereich. Durch Festsetzung bestimmter regelmäßiger Sprechstunden soll jedermann Gelegenheit haben, mit seinem Hoheitsträger in Verbindung zu treten.

Gauleitung — Gauleiter

Die Gauleitung, d. h. der Gauleiter mit dem Gaustab, hat einen bestimmten territorialen Teil des Reiches politisch zu führen und hierin gestaltend zu wirken. Der Gauleiter trägt dem Führer gegenüber die Gesamtverantwortung für den ihm anvertrauten Hoheitsbereich.

Der Gau stellt die Zusammenfassung einer Anzahl von Parteikreisen dar. Die Festlegung seiner Grenzen geschieht nach Weisungen des Führers durch den Reichsorganisationsleiter. Die in der staatlichen und behördlichen Verwaltung zu einem anderen Gau gehörigen Gebietsteile (Enklaven) unterstehen parteimäßig demjenigen Gau, von dessen Bereich sie eingeschlossen sind.

Der Gau führt die vom Führer genehmigte Dienstbezeichnung. Den Sitz der Gaudienststellen bestimmt der Führer. Der Gauleiter untersteht unmittelbar dem Führer bzw. dem Stellvertreter des Führers. Der Gauleiter ist für seinen Hoheitsbereich dem Führer gegenüber gesamtverantwortlich für die politische und weltanschauliche Erziehung und Ausrichtung der Politischen Leiter, Parteigenossen sowie der Bevölkerung. Der Kreisleiter wird auf Vorschlag des Gauleiters vom Führer ernannt oder abberufen. Die Einsetzung schlägt der Gauleiter vor.

Dem Kreisleiter steht das Recht zu, sämtliche Politischen Leiter seines Hoheitsbereiches, ausgenommen Kreisamts-, Ortsgruppen- und Stützpunktleiter mit der Leitung zu beauftragen, zu ernennen, zu beurlauben oder abzuberufen. Dies hat sich im Rahmen der Bestimmungen des Personalamtes der Partei zu vollziehen.

Der Kreisleiter ist für seinen Hoheitsbereich dem Gauleiter gegenüber gesamtverantwortlich für die politische und weltanschauliche Erziehung und Ausrichtung der Politischen Leiter, Parteigenossen sowie der Bevölkerung.

Der Kreisleiter hat das Recht und die Pflicht, öffentliche und nichtöffentliche Veranstaltungen und Handlungen, die der Zielsetzung der Partei zuwiderlaufen, zu unterbinden. Die im Verfolg dieses Aufsichtsrechtes notwendig werdenden Maßnahmen richten sich hinsichtlich der dabei anzuwendenden Mittel nach den dem Kreisleiter im besonderen erteilten Richtlinien.

Die dem Kreisleiter in seiner Eigenschaft als Beauftragter der NSDAP. obliegenden Rechte und Pflichten ergeben sich aus dem Wortlaut des Gesetzes über die Deutsche Gemeindeordnung vom 30. Januar 1935 (RGBl. I, S. 49), sowie den einschlägigen Ausführungsbestimmungen hierzu.

Entsprechend dem Aufgabenanfall wird zwischen ständig und unständig besetzten Ämtern, Hauptstellen und Stellen unterschieden.

Folgende vorwiegend politischen Ämter sind ständig besetzt:

a) Kreisorganisationsleiter;
b) Kreisschulungsleiter;
c) Kreispropagandaleiter;
d) Kreispersonalamtsleiter.

Der Ortsgruppenleiter

bzw. der Stützpunktleiter ist dem Kreisleiter für die Sicherung und laufende Durchführung der oben ausgeführten Aufgaben der Kreisleitung im Hoheitsbereich der Ortsgruppe bzw. des Stützpunktes verantwortlich.

Neben dem Amtsleiter- und Mitarbeiterstab der OG. unterstehen dem OGL. die Zellen- und Blockleiter. Das gute Funktionieren des Dienstes dieser am unmittelbarsten im Volk stehenden letzten Hoheitsträger ist für die Bewegung von großer Wichtigkeit. Dem unermüdlichen ehrenamtlichen Einsatz dieser Männer obliegt die Pflege ständiger Tuchfühlung zwischen Partei und Volk.

Der Führer sagte einmal: „Es ist leichter, Reflektanten für 30 Gauleiter-, 500 Bezirksführerstellen oder gar 1000 Abgeordnetensitze zu erhalten, als 10 tüchtige Ortsgruppenleiter zu finden."

Die Ehrenwaffe des Politischen Leiters

Außerdem kann auf Vorschlag des zuständigen Hoheitsträgers der Gauleiter Politischen Leitern im Stabe der Ortsgruppe bzw. des Stützpunktes die Berechtigung zum Tragen der Pistole verleihen. In diesem Falle wird vom Kreis-Personalamt ein entsprechender Vermerk auf dem Politischen-Leiter-Ausweis des Betreffenden angebracht.

Die Träger der Ehrenwaffe müssen im Besitze eines polizeilichen Waffenscheines sein.

NSD.-Studentenbund

Der Nationalsozialistische Deutsche Studentenbund ist eine selbständige Gliederung der NSDAP. Im Jahre 1926 auf Befehl des Führers gegründet, ersetzt er die überlebten früheren studentischen Formen durch nationalsozialistische Erziehung zum volksverbundenen Studenten.

Der NSD.-Studentenbund gliedert sich:

1. In die Reichsstudentenbundsführung.
2. In die Gaustudentenkundsführungen.
3. In Hoch- und Fachschulgruppen.

An der Spitze der Reichsstudentenbundsführung steht der Reichsstudentenkundsführer. 13 verschiedene Hauptstellen bearbeiten die einzelnen Aufgabengebiete des Bundes.

Jeder deutsche Student des 1. Semesters, der die Aufnahmebestimmungen der Partei erfüllt, kann als Anwärter in den NSDStB. aufgenommen werden.

NS.-Volkswohlfahrt

Die NS.-Volkswohlfahrt ist (Verfügung des Führers vom 3. Mai 1933) zuständig für alle Fragen der Volkswohlfahrt und Fürsorge. Sie ist ein der NSDAP. angeschlossener Verband (§ 3 der VO. z. Durchführung des Gesetzes z. Sicherung d. Einheit v. Partei und Staat vom 29. 3. 1935) und entspricht in ihrem Aufbau dem Hauptamt für Volkswohlfahrt bzw. den Ämtern für Volkswohlfahrt in allen Hoheitsgebieten.

Die NSV. will nicht dem Einzelnen dienen, sondern dem gesamten Volke, indem sie die Hilfe an die Pflichterfüllung gegenüber dem Volksganzen bindet und Erziehung zur Hilfeleistung und zur Einordnung in die Gemeinschaft sein will.

Volksgenossen und Volksgenossinnen, die die NSV. in ihrem heute schon in der ganzen Welt anerkannten Wirken regelmäßig unterstützen wollen, können die Mitgliedschaft zur NSV. erwerben. Die Mitglieder der NSV. leisten einen monatlichen Beitrag.

Hauptamt für Volkswohlfahrt: Berlin-Neukölln, Maybach-Ufer 48—51. Tel.: F 2 3001

Die NS.-Frauenschaft

Das geschieht:

1. Durch die Ausübung der gesamten weltanschaulichen Schulung innerhalb der Frauenarbeit durch die NS.-Frauenschaft;

2. durch die Beaufsichtigung der weltanschaulichen bzw. politischen Ausrichtung und Haltung der in Ausbildungsstätten und bei allen sonstigen Gelegenheiten sich ergebenden Frauenarbeit;

3. durch Schaffung der zur Erfüllung dieser Arbeit notwendigen Einrichtungen. Bereits vorhandene Einrichtungen der NS.-Frauenschaft sind die:

Reichs- und Gauschulen — Lehrküchen — Mütterschulen — Heime und Umschulungslager — Kochschulen — Säuglingspflegekurse.

Die NS.-Frauenschaft betreut den angeschlossenen Verband: Deutsches Frauenwerk.

Das Hauptschulungsamt

Meine Aufgabe als Reichsorganisationsleiter der NSDAP. ist es, für die Ausrichtung der Politischen Leiter der Partei zu sorgen. Für die weltanschauliche Erziehung der Politischen Leiter habe ich die drei Ordensburgen Vogelsang, Crössinsee und Sonthofen errichtet. Es ist das einzelige Ziel der Partei, daß in Zukunft keine Politischen Leiter der Partei, der Deutschen Arbeitsfront oder NSV. eingesetzt werden, die nicht durch diese Ordensburgen gegangen sind. Dr. Ley

Der Reichsorganisationsleiter ist zugleich Reichsschulungsleiter.

Für die gesamte Schulungsarbeit gilt im Gegensatz zur Tätigkeit der Propaganda der Grundsatz, daß sie sich nur an einen bestimmten, ausgewählten Kreis von Menschen wendet und daher bei ihren Veranstaltungen auf die übliche Form der öffentlichen Propaganda verzichtet.

Aufgabe der Schulung soll es sein, weltanschauliche Auslese zu betreiben. Diese Auslese erfolgt zunächst dadurch, daß die Teilnahme an den Schulungsveranstaltungen für Parteigenossen grundsätzlich freiwillig ist und lediglich die Politischen Leiter zu den Schulungsveranstaltungen pflichtgemäß herangezogen werden. Aus diesem Kreis erfolgt die Auslese für den Besuch der Kreisschulen und Gauschulen, je nach Beteiligung und Bewährung in den Schulungsveranstaltungen der Ortsgruppe oder des Stützpunktes.

1. Das Amt für theoretische Schulung.
2. Das Amt für aktive Schulung.
3. Das Amt für Einberufung.
4. Das Amt für Verwaltung.
5. Das Amt für Schulungsbriefe.

Diesem Aufbau des Hauptschulungsamtes in der Reichsorganisationsleitung entspricht der Aufbau der Gauschulungsämter. An Stelle der einzelnen Ämter des Hauptschulungsamtes treten entsprechende Hauptstellen.

In den Kreisen und Ortsgruppen ist nur ein Kreis- bzw. Ortsgruppenschulungsleiter vorgesehen. Die

untersteht auf dem Gebiet der weltanschaulichen Schulung unabhängig von der völligen Selbständigkeit in bezug auf fachliche Schulung dem Hauptschulungsamt.

Das Hauptschulungsamt der Partei übt über diese Dienststellen eine überwachende Tätigkeit aus. Sofern weltanschauliche Schulung vorgesehen ist, wird diese nach den Weisungen des zuständigen Schulungsamtes der NSDAP. vorgenommen.

Tätigkeit der Gauschulungsleiter.

Das Gauschulungsamt hat folgende Aufgaben:

1. Leitung der Gauschulen.
2. Auslese der Teilnehmer zu den Lehrgängen der Gauschulen.
3. Zusammenarbeit mit den Schulungsbeauftragten der Gliederungen und angeschlossenen Verbände.
4. Überwachung der Schulungstätigkeit der Kreisschulungsleiter.
5. Vertrieb der Schulungsbriefe und Mitarbeit an den Mitteilungen des Hauptschulungsamtes.
6. Bildung von Gauschulungsrednerstäben.

Musterungsbestimmungen.

Für die Teilnahme an den Lehrgängen auf den Ordensburgen bestehen grundsätzliche Voraussetzungen, deren Erbringung durch den Teilnehmer bei besonderen Musterungen festgestellt wird.

Die Meldung erfolgt freiwillig beim Ortsgruppenleiter. Voraussetzung für die Zulassung zur Ordensburg sind:

1. Bisher aktive Betätigung des Anwärters in der NSDAP.
2. Volle Gesundheit und Fehlerfreiheit.
3. Erbgesundheit und arische Abstammung.
4. Positives Urteil des Hoheitsträgers.
5. Alter 23 bis 30 Jahre.

In Ausnahmefällen auch unterhalb oder oberhalb dieser Altersgrenze. Ab 26 Jahre ist der Ledigenstand unerwünscht.

Der Ausbildungsleiter

Die Berechtigung zum Tragen des Dienstanzuges und der dem Politischen Leiter verliehenen Ehrenwaffe, der Pistole, als den äußerlichen Merkmalen des politisch-weltanschaulichen Kämpfertyps der NSDAP., bedingen es, daß der Politische Leiter sich soldatischer Haltung und Disziplin befleißigt.

Das Auftreten des Einzelnen in der Öffentlichkeit sowie die Beteiligung im geschlossenen Verband und bei Großaufmärschen (Reichsparteitag) sowie bei Kundgebungen der NSDAP. erfordern eine entsprechende äußere Ausrichtung.

Darüber hinaus ist es auch mit Rücksicht auf den aufreibenden Dienst des Politischen Leiters notwendig, einen Ausgleich durch körperliche Ertüchtigung herbeizuführen.

Aus diesen Gedankengängen heraus ergeben sich die verschiedenen Aufgaben des Ausbildungsleiters der Partei. Als einziger Politischer Leiter trägt der Ausbildungsleiter eine braune geflochtene Signalpfeifenschnur zum Dienstanzug.

Der Beauftragte des Führers für die Überwachung der gesamten geistigen und weltanschaulichen Erziehung der NSDAP.

Zur Durchführung der Überwachung der gesamten geistigen und weltanschaulichen Erziehung der NSDAP. stehen dem Beauftragten folgende Dienststellen zur Verfügung:

1. Kunstpflege.
2. Schulung.
3. Schrifttumspflege.
4. Weltanschauliche Information.
5. Vorgeschichte.
6. Presse.
7. Wissenschaft.
8. Neuere Geschichte.
9. Nordische Fragen.
10. Philosophie und Geistesgeschichte.

Der Beauftragte gibt zur Vermittlung weltanschaulicher Gedankengänge die Zeitschrift „NS.-Monatshefte“ heraus.

Der Reichsleiter für die Presse

Dem Reichsleiter für die Presse obliegen verlagspolitische Aufgaben.

Er ist beauftragt, dem deutschen Volk eine Presse zu schaffen, die ihm verpflichtet und verantwortlich ist und die das Leben und Erleben der deutschen Volksgemeinschaft widerspiegelt. Ferner hat der Reichsleiter für die Presse die Aufgabe, die zur Verwirklichung der im Programm der NSDAP. unter Punkt 23 aufgestellten verlagspolitischen Forderungen nötigen Anordnungen zu treffen und ihre Durchführung zu überwachen. Die Schutzstaffeln

Meine Ehre heißt Treue

Die Schutzstaffel — SS. —, eine selbständige Gliederung der Partei, wird vom Reichsführer SS. geführt. Die ursprüngliche und vornehmste Aufgabe der SS. ist es, für den Schutz des Führers zu sorgen.

Durch den Auftrag des Führers ist das Aufgabengebiet der SS. dahin erweitert worden, das Reich im Innern zu sichern.

Nur die blutsmäßig besten Deutschen sind für diesen Kampfeinsatz tauglich. Deshalb ist es notwendig, daß in den Reihen der Schutzstaffel unaufhörlich Auslese gehalten wird, erst grob, dann immer feiner. Diese beschränkt sich aber nicht nur auf die Männer, denn ihr Zweck ist die Erhaltung einer artreinen Sippe. Darum wird von jedem Schutzstaffelmann gefordert, daß er nur die ihm arteigene Frau heiratet. Von Jahr zu Jahr werden die Ansprüche gesteigert, die an die Reinerhaltung der Schutzstaffel gestellt werden. Treue, Ehre, Gehorsam und Tapferkeit bestimmen das Handeln des Staffelmannes.

Der Gehorsam wird bedingungslos gefordert. Er entspringt der Überzeugung, daß die nationalsozialistische Weltanschauung herrschen muß. Wer sie besitzt und leidenschaftlich vertritt, unterwirft sich freiwillig dem Zwang zum Gehorsam. Deshalb ist der Schutzstaffelmann bereit, jeden Befehl, der vom Führer kommt oder von einem seiner Vorgesetzten gegeben wird, blindlings auszuführen, selbst wenn er von ihm die größten Opfer fordert. Die Tapferkeit gilt dem Staffelmann als die höchste Mannestugend im Kampf für eine Weltanschauung. Er bekämpft offen und schonungslos die gefährlichsten Feinde des Staates: Juden, Freimaurer, Jesuiten und politische Geistlichkeit. Aber er wirbt und überzeugt auch durch sein Vorbild die Schwachen und Wankelmütigen, die sich noch nicht zur nationalsozialistischen Weltanschauung haben durchringen können.

Wer so wie der Staffelmann für höchste Ideale kämpft, muß außerordentliche Leistungen an Geist und Körper vollbringen können. Es gibt keine Sportart, die in der Schutzstaffel nicht betrieben wird.

Den silbernen Winkel der alten Kämpfer auf dem rechten Oberarm tragen alle Angehörigen der Schutzstaffel, die vor dem 30. Januar 1933 der SS., der Partei oder einer ihrer Gliederungen angehört haben.

Der Reichsführer SS. verleiht verdienten SS.-Männern und -Führern den SS.-Ring.

Das Nationalsozialistische Kraftfahrkorps (NSKK.), eine selbständige Gliederung der NSDAP., wird vom Korpsführer des NSKK. geführt.

Herangewachsen aus der Motor-SA. und dem NSKK. der Kampfjahre, erzogen und bewährt im Geiste der SA., seine Kraft schöpfend aus der freiwilligen Einsatzbereitschaft und weltanschaulichen Festigung seiner Männer, ist das Korps der berufene Banner- und Willensträger des Motorisierungsgedankens im neuen Deutschland. Je höher der Stand der Motorisierung, desto stärker die Abwehrkraft der Nation!

Die über das ganze Reich verteilten Motorsportschulen des NSKK. sorgen in sechswöchigen Kursen für eine planmäßige fahrtechnische, sportliche wie weltanschauliche Nachwuchsschulung. Der junge Fahrer, der aus ihnen hervorgeht, wird, wenn die Zeit seiner Wehrpflicht gekommen ist, wohlvorbereitet an Körper und Geist mit Stolz das Kleid des Waffenträgers der Nation — der Wehrmacht — tragen und nach ihrer Ablegung als ganzer Mann wieder in die Reihen des Korps zurückkehren, um nunmehr in der großen Kameradschaft seiner Breitengliederung — die, unterteilt in 4 Motor-Obergruppen, 3 Motor-Gruppen, 21 Motor-Brigaden, deutsche Kraftfahrer in freiwilliger Dienstleistung umfaßt — seine Aufnahme zu finden.

Reichsarbeitsdienst.

Der NS.-Arbeitsdienst hat als Untergliederung der NSDAP. die Voraussetzung für das Gesetz der Arbeitsdienstpflicht (erlassen am 26. Juni 1935) gegeben. Der NS.-Arbeitsdienst wurde damit zum Reichsarbeitsdienst und untersteht dem Reichsminister des Innern. Der Reichsarbeitsdienst ist Ehrenpflicht am deutschen Volke. Alle jungen Deutschen beiderlei Geschlechts sind arbeitsdienstpflichtig (Reichsarbeitsdienstgesetz).

Das gleiche gilt für die weibliche Jugend im Rahmen der gegebenen Möglichkeiten. (Der endgültige Ausbau des weiblichen Arbeitsdienstes ist Voraussetzung.)

Wie der Name sagt, ist der Arbeitsdienst ein Dienst, der im Unterschied zu dem der Wehrmacht nicht mit der Waffe, sondern durch Arbeit geleistet wird.

Der RAD. hat dabei eine erzieherische und eine wirtschaftliche Aufgabe zu erfüllen.

Die Erziehung geht in geschlossenen Lagern außerhalb der Städte in soldatischer Form vor sich. Ihr Hauptziel ist die Erziehung zu einer nationalsozialistischen Arbeitsgesinnung und zur Volksgemeinschaft.

Dadurch, daß der Arbeitsmann innerhalb einer Gemeinschaft Arbeit für Deutschland leistet, ohne dafür Lohn zu erhalten, wird er zu der Erkenntnis geführt, daß der eigentliche Sinn der Arbeit nicht in dem Verdienst liegt, den sie einbringt, sondern in der Gesinnung, mit der sie geleistet wird. Die Erhebung der Arbeit zum Dienst lehrt ihn, daß Arbeit kein Fluch ist, sondern eine Ehre.

Der Reichsarbeitsdienst arbeitet an der Urbarmachung und Verbesserung des deutschen Bodens. Deutschland ist verpflichtet, seinen Raum aufs äußerste zu nützen und muß darum die brachliegenden Flächen, Ödland und Moore zu fruchtbarem Boden umwandeln. Die Ertragsfähigkeit der deutschen Landwirtschaft kann durch Meliorationen bedeutend gesteigert werden.

Organisation

Der Reichsarbeitsführer steht an der Spitze der Reichsleitung des Arbeitsdienstes. Ihm untersteht außerdem der Frauenarbeitsdienst. Zur Reichsleitung des Arbeitsdienstes gehören folgende Ämter:
Dienstamt;
Personalamt;
Verwaltungs- und Wirtschaftsamt;
Planungsamt;
Heildienstamt;
Rechtshof;
Erziehungs- und Ausbildungsamt;
Pressechef beim Reichsarbeitsführer.

Gebietlich unterteilt sich der Reichsarbeitsdienst in 30 Arbeitsgaue, der Gau zu je 4—8 AD.-Gruppen.

Die Arbeitsdienstgruppe unterteilt sich in 5—10 AD.-Abteilungen.

Die Arbeitsdienstabteilung umfaßt 152 Mann einschließlich Führer.

Hauptmelde- und Meldeämter dienen der Erfassung der Dienstpflichtigen.

Die Jugend des Führers

Geschaffen in den Jahren des Kampfes der nationalsozialistischen Bewegung und gewachsen in den Jahren des Aufbaues im neuen Reich, ist die Hitler-Jugend Ausdruck des Wollens und Werdens der neuen heranwachsenden Generation. Neben die politische Erziehungsarbeit tritt außerdem noch die Aufgabe der körperlichen Ertüchtigung der deutschen Jugend. Diese soll gehorchen lernen und Disziplin üben; aber auf der anderen Seite soll durch die Erziehungsarbeit der HJ. bereits die Grundlage zu wahrem Führertum gelegt werden. Die HJ. soll ihre Aufgabe in enger Zusammenarbeit mit Elternhaus und Schule lösen.

Für alle Fragen der Jugend ist die Hitler-Jugend zuständig. Sie bearbeitet in Verbindung mit den entsprechenden Dienststellen der Partei sämtliche Fragen, die die Jugendlichen von 10 bis 21 Jahre angehen. Eine eigene Schulpolitik unterbleibt. In die HJ. bzw. DJ., BDM., JM. kann jeder deutsche Junge und jedes deutsche Mädel aufgenommen werden, die arisch und erbgesund sind. Im allgemeinen werden neue Mitglieder nur am Geburtstage des Führers, am 20. April eines jeden Jahres aufgenommen.

Die Überweisung vom Deutschen Jungvolk (Jung-Mädel) in die Hitler-Jugend (Bund Deutscher Mädel) findet ebenfalls am 20. April eines jeden Jahres für die 14 Jahre alt gewordenen Mitglieder statt.

Eine feierliche, symbolische Überweisung der Angehörigen der HJ. bzw. des BDM. von der HJ. zur Partei und deren Gliederungen findet am 9. November eines jeden Jahres statt. Hitlerjungen werden nach Vollendung des 18. Lebensjahres, und die Mädchen des Bundes Deutscher Mädel nach Vollendung des 21. Lebensjahres in die NSDAP. unter folgenden Voraussetzungen aufgenommen: Die Hitlerjungen müssen vier Jahre ununterbrochen vor ihrer Aufnahme in die NSDAP. der Hitler-Jugend angehört haben. Gleiches gilt für die Mitglieder des BDM. Voraussetzung für die Aufnahme der Jungen und Mädel in die NSDAP. ist ferner, daß sie die Gewähr bieten, daß sie auch nach Aufnahme in die Partei wertvolle Mitglieder der NSDAP. werden.

Eine Aufnahmegebühr ist weder von den Angehörigen der Hitler-Jugend noch von denen des Bundes Deutscher Mädel zu entrichten.

Die Hitler-Jugend ist organisatorisch und disziplinarisch selbständig. Es ist aber selbstverständlich, daß die Hoheitsträger ein Aufsichtsrecht ausüben.

Die Organisation der HJ.

Die HJ. gliedert sich in:

1. die Hitler-Jugend – HJ. (Jungen von 14 bis 18 Jahren);
2. das Deutsche Jungvolk in der HJ., DJ. (Jungen von 10 bis 14 Jahren);
3. den Bund Deutscher Mädel in der HJ., BDM. (Mädel von 14 bis 21 Jahren);
4. die Jungmädel in der HJ., JM. (Mädel von 10 bis 14 Jahren).

Diese vier Gliederungen sollen die Grundpfeiler der Jugend-Organisation des Führers sein, die sich wie folgt aufbaut:

A. Hitler-Jugend

1. Die Kameradschaft dient zur Zusammenfassung von etwa 15 Jungen zu gemeinsamen kameradschaftlichen Heimabenden und kleinen Fahrten, unter Führung eines Kameradschaftsführers.

Sie trägt einen Namen nach dem zuständigen Ort, dem Stadtviertel oder der Straße und wird außerdem aus technischen Gründen innerhalb der Schar mit arabischen Ziffern laufend numeriert.

2. Die Schar, bestehend aus 2 bis 4, meistens 3 Kameradschaften von gleicher Stärke unter Führung eines Scharführers.

Sie trägt den Namen ihres Scharführers und wird außerdem aus technischen Gründen innerhalb der Gefolgschaft mit arabischen Ziffern laufend numeriert.

3. Die Gefolgschaft, die 2 bis 4, meistens 3 Scharen von möglichst gleicher Stärke zu gemeinsamen Dienst unter Führung eines Gefolgschaftsführers zusammenfaßt.

Während die Kameradschaft der Stoßtrupp bei Einsatz und Arbeit der HJ. ist, soll die Gefolgschaft die erste in sich geschlossene Einheit darstellen, die deshalb auch jeweils eine Fahne verliehen bekommt.

4. Der Unterbann. 3 bis 5 Gefolgschaften von möglichst gleicher Stärke bilden unter Berücksichtigung örtlicher Verhältnisse den Unterbann, der unter Führung eines Unterbannführers steht, dessen Aufgaben sich nach dem Ausdehnungsbereich seines Unterbannes (Stadt oder Land) richten.

5. Der Bann. 4 bis 8 Unterbanne von möglichst gleicher Stärke bilden unter Berücksichtigung örtlicher Verhältnisse den Bann, der entweder einen oder mehrere politische Kreise umfaßt und unter Führung eines Bannführers steht.

6. Das Gebiet. 10 bis 30 Banne sowie 10 bis 40 Jungbanne des DJ. von möglichst gleicher Stärke bilden unter Berücksichtigung örtlicher Verhältnisse das Gebiet, das entweder einem oder zwei politischen Gauen entspricht, unter Führung eines Gebietsführers steht und die höchste Befehlseinheit außer der Reichsjugendführung ist.

B. Das Deutsche Jungvolk in der HJ.

Gleich der Hitler-Jugend baut sich das Jungvolk in folgenden Einheiten auf:

1. die Jungenschaft (etwa 15 Jungen);
2. der Jungzug (etwa 3 Jungenschaften);
3. das Fähnlein (etwa 3 Jungzüge);
4. der Stamm (etwa 4 Fähnlein);
5. der Jungbann (etwa 6 Stämme)

wobei Aufgaben, Bezeichnung usw. entsprechend denen der HJ. sind. Bis zum Jungbann einschließlich ist das DJ. vollkommen selbständig, während es beim Gebiet durch den Gebietsjungvolkführer dem Gebietsführer der HJ. untersteht.

Das Jungvolk ist die Basis der von der HJ. geleiteten Reichsjugend. Die für politische Betätigung besonders geeigneten Mitglieder des Jungvolks, die aus dieser Eignung heraus den Nachwuchs für die Partei stellen sollen, werden nach Vollendung des 14. Lebensjahres in die Hitler-Jugend übergeführt.

C. Der Bund Deutscher Mädel in der HJ.

1. die Mädelschaft (15 Mädel);
2. die Mädelschar (etwa 3 Mädelschaften);
3. die Mädelgruppe (etwa 3 Mädelscharen);
4. der Mädelring (etwa 4 Mädelgruppen);
5. der Untergau (etwa 5 Mädelringe);
6. der Obergau (etwa 10 bis 30 Untergaue und ebensoviel Jungmädeluntergaue);
7. der Gauverband (etwa 4 bis 7 Obergaue);

wobei Aufgaben und Bezeichnung denen der HJ. entsprechen.

D. Die Jungmädel in der HJ.

Die Einheiten der Jungmädel sind entsprechend denen der anderen HJ.-Einheiten wie die Einheiten des BDM. aufgebaut, wobei Aufgaben und Bezeichnung denen der anderen HJ.-Einheiten entsprechen.

Die Jungmädel der HJ. sind bis einschließlich Jungmädeluntergaue vollkommen selbständig, während sie im Obergau durch die Obergaujungmädelführerin der Obergauführerin des BDM. unterstehen.

Die 5 Obergebiete der HJ., die 5 Gauverbände des BDM. und damit die 4 HJ.-Untergliederungen mit ihren sämtlichen Einheiten und deren Mitgliedern werden im Reich durch die Reichsjugendführung zusammengefaßt.

Dem Reichsjugendführer ist zur Unterstützung ein Stab beigegeben (siehe Gliederungsplan). Die unteren Einheiten bis zum Bann bzw. Jungbann, Untergau und Jungmädeluntergau haben ähnlich aufgebaute Stäbe zur Unterstützung der Führer und Führerinnen in den Einheiten (siehe Gliederungsplan).

Die Hitler-Jugend besitzt Reichsführerschulen, Reichsführerinnenschulen, Gebiets- und Obergauschulen. Neben zahlreichen Heimen ist der HJ. der Reichsverband des deutschen Jugendherbergswerkes mit seinen Tausenden von Jugendherbergen angeschlossen.

Wir unterscheiden in der HJ. zwischen Dienstrang und Dienststellung.

Dienstränge sind:

Deutsche Arbeitsfront

Die neue deutsche Sozialordnung beruht auf einem fundamentalen Grundsatz, und alle Werktätigen in Deutschland haben einen unumstößlichen Glaubenssatz: Der Betrieb ist eine Ganzheit. Unternehmer und Arbeitnehmer sind nicht mehr zwei getrennte, sich bekämpfende Klassen, sondern sie sind Soldaten ein und derselben Arbeitsarmee, die vom Schicksal auf verschiedene Kommandoposten gestellt sind. Nicht darunter leidet das Verhältnis der Menschen, sondern allein unter der Tatsache, daß dieses soldatische Verhältnis durch anonyme profitlüsterne Fremdrassige getrübt und vom machthungrigen Dunst des Geldsackes umgeben wurde.

Nachdem durch den Nationalsozialismus den vielen Parteien und ihrer zersetzenden Tätigkeit ein Ende bereitet wurde, mußte ebenfalls der Gruppen-Egoismus und der Klassenkampf in Gestalt der Kampfverbände und Gewerkschaften unter den schaffenden Deutschen verschwinden.

Das Ziel der Deutschen Arbeitsfront ist die Bildung einer wirklichen Volks- und Leistungsgemeinschaft aller Deutschen. Die Deutsche Arbeitsfront hat dafür zu sorgen, daß jeder einzelne seinen Platz im wirtschaftlichen Leben der Nation in der geistigen und körperlichen Verfassung einnehmen kann, die ihn zur höchsten Leistung befähigt und damit den größten Nutzen für die Volksgemeinschaft gewährleistet.

Die Führung der Deutschen Arbeitsfront hat die NSDAP. Der Reichsorganisationsleiter der NSDAP. ist der Leiter der Deutschen Arbeitsfront. Er wird vom Führer und Reichskanzler ernannt. Der Leiter der Deutschen Arbeitsfront ernennt und enthebt die Amtsträger der Deutschen Arbeitsfront. Zu solchen sollen in erster Linie Parteigenossen ernannt werden.

Für die fachliche Gliederung der Deutschen Arbeitsfront ist das im Programm der NSDAP. aufgestellte Ziel einer organischen Ordnung maßgebend.

Die Kassenführung der Deutschen Arbeitsfront untersteht im Sinne der ersten Durchführungsverordnung zum Gesetz zur Sicherung der Einheit von Partei und Staat vom 23. März 1934 der Aufsicht des Reichsschatzmeisters der NSDAP.

Die Deutsche Arbeitsfront ist die Trägerin der Nationalsozialistischen Gemeinschaft „Kraft durch Freude".

Es entspricht im allgemeinen die Dienststellung eines Abteilungsleiters der Deutschen Arbeitsfront der Dienststellung eines Hauptstellenleiters in der Partei, die Dienststellung eines Unterabteilungsleiters der Deutschen Arbeitsfront der Dienststellung eines Stellenleiters in der Partei usw.

Die KdF.-Warte zählen zum Stabe der DAF.-Gauwalter.

NS.-Gemeinschaft „Kraft durch Freude"

Zerstören will ich die Ordnung der Dinge, die Millionen zu Sklaven von Wenigen und diese Wenigen zu Sklaven ihrer eigenen Macht, ihres eigenen Reichtums macht. Zerstören will ich diese Ordnung der Dinge, die den Genuß trennt von der Arbeit, die aus der Arbeit eine Last macht durch den Mangel und den anderen durch den Überfluß. Richard Wagner.

Die früher bestandenen Gegensätze in der Bewertung des Arbeiters, bedingt durch die gegensätzliche und unterschiedliche Bewertung der Arbeit, sollen überwunden werden durch das Erlebnis der menschlichen Werte, die in der Arbeit und im Schaffen selbst begründet sind.

Die NS.-Gemeinschaft „Kraft durch Freude" hat daher die besondere geschichtliche Aufgabe, die bisherige, ausschließlich materielle Bewertung des technisch-mechanischen Arbeitslebens aufzuheben, indem sie die ideellen Werte dieser Arbeit und darüber hinaus des gesamten Schaffens ermittelt und sichtbar macht.

Die von der NS.-Gemeinschaft „Kraft durch Freude" organisierte Freizeitbewegung muß daher stets darauf bedacht sein, die Feierabendgestaltung in engster Beziehung zum Arbeitsleben durchzuführen.

Die NS.-Gemeinschaft „Kraft durch Freude" sieht in der geistig und seelisch erlebten Arbeit des Daseins höchsten Zweck erfüllt. Aus diesem Grunde müssen die von der NS.-Gemeinschaft zur Durchführung kommenden kulturellen Aufgaben auf künstlerischem und geistigem Gebiet stets in Beziehung zum Arbeitsleben bleiben.

Die NS.-Gemeinschaft „Kraft durch Freude" will dem deutschen Arbeiter den Glauben an sich selbst und an seine Fähigkeiten nicht nur im mechanischen Arbeitsprozeß, nicht nur im handwerklichen Schaffen vermitteln, sondern darüber hinaus den Glauben des Arbeiters an seine geistigen und seelischen Kräfte und Fähigkeiten stärken.

Das Amt Werkscharen

Die heute rund 200 000 Mitglieder zählende jüngste Gliederung der nationalsozialistischen Bewegung, die Werkscharen, die erfaßt sind in der NSG. „KdF.", haben folgende Aufgaben:

1. Als eine junge Betriebsgarde überall dort zu helfen und einzuspringen, wo es heißt, dem deutschen Arbeitsmenschen Kraft durch Freude zu bringen.

3. Weltanschaulicher Stoßtrupp im Betrieb zu sein.

Die Werkscharen in den Betrieben werden geführt von Werkscharführern. Die Stärke beträgt mindestens ein Führer und 15 Mann, die Höchststärke soll ein Führer und 93 Werkscharmänner nicht überschreiten. Werden in einem Betrieb infolge seiner Größe mehrere Werkscharen aufgestellt, so soll jede einzelne Werkschar die Stärke von einem Führer und 62 Mann nicht überschreiten. Die Werkscharen sind ausschließlich betriebsgebunden. Eine Gliederung über den Betrieb hinaus gibt es nicht. Der Werkscharführer eines Betriebes gehört ebenso wie der Betriebswart zum Stabe des Betriebswalters. Der Betriebswart überwacht den planmäßigen Einsatz der Werkscharen im Sinne der NS.-Gemeinschaft „KdF."

Amt Werkscharen: Berlin W 30, Neue Winterfeldtstraße 14. Tel.: B 5, 1422.

DETAILS: The title of this case is being changed to reflect the addition of the American Christian Nationalist Party.

At NORFOLK, VIRGINIA.

The following is an outline of the history of GEORGE DEATHERAGE, received by Commander C. J. GASS, Office of Naval Intelligence, United States Naval Operating Base, from the American Jewish Committee of New York City. This history is further supplemented by material of a more recent date, determined by investigation presently being conducted by this office relative to the activities of the subject.

GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE, presently employed by Doyle and Russell Construction Company as executive engineer at the United States Naval Operating Base, was born November 15, 1894, at Duluth, Minnesota. He attended high school there and after his graduation, he pursued a course in civil engineering from the International Correspondence School, and he worked for a number of construction companies in the Middle West and in New York City.

He married in approximately 1920 and has a son eighteen years of age. He is permanently estranged from his wife and son, they living in Duluth, Minnesota. In view of a recent letter received by the subject, his wife is contemplating divorce action.

The subject was, for many years, employed as an engineer in charge of construction for the Carbide and Chemical Corporation, South Charleston, West Virginia, making his home at St. Albans, West Virginia, where he lived in an exclusive residential section with a family by the name of BARTON. He was dismissed from this job in 1937 on account of his Fascist activities.

In 1934, DEATHERAGE organized the Knights of the White Camellia, which organization was incorporated in the State of West Virginia in August of 1935, with DEATHERAGE as national commander. On May 23, 1939, he testified before the Dies Committee. In his testimony, he refused to reveal the membership and number of chapters of the Knights, saying he had taken a compulsory oath, similar to that of the Ku Klux Klan, never to make this information public. He admitted there were chapters all over the country with the exception of the New England States. In instructions to leaders of his groups, he recommended swastika-burnings as a substitute for Klan cross-burnings, to publicize the organization and terrorize the Reds and their Jewish sympathizers. The chief source of finances of the organization was DEATHERAGE'S personal fortune of $25,000 and what he could spare from his salary up to the time that he lost his job. He denied soliciting funds but did acknowledge receipt of occasional contributions such as $300, which he received in 1937 from HOWLAND SPENCER, of Newport, Rhode Island.

DEATHERAGE organized the American Nationalist Confederation in 1937 for the purpose of establishing liason with other groups having the same objectives. It has never been incorporated and DEATHERAGE concedes that the American Nationalist Confederation, throughout its existence, has been only a letterhead organization and does not seek individual members. On Page three of a mimeographed bulletin, dated April 23, 1938, there was the caption "Platform of the American Nationalist Confederation - a Fascist Party". Its official emblem was a swastika. Among those who affiliated themselves with the organization were PELLEY, of the Silver Shirts, GERALD P. WINROD, JAMES TRUE, E. N. SANCTUARY, ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON, CHARLES B. HUDSON (Editor of "America in Danger"), Mrs. FREY (West Coast pro-Nazi leader and head of the Militant Christian Patriots), HENRY ALLEN, DONALD SHEA (National Gentile League), and F. W. CLARK (National Liberty Party).

In August 1937, DEATHERAGE called for an American Christian Conference, under the auspices of the American Nationalist Confederation. Approximately seventy Fascist of varying degrees of prominence, answered the call and came to Kansas City, Missouri. DEATHERAGE arrived from Los Angeles for the first session on August 21st and presided over all the sessions. Among the other speakers present at this conference were Dr. JACOB ELON CONNOR, CHARLES

B. HUDSON and Mrs. DAVID GOODE, of Philadelphia, who has since become active in the Philadelphia Coughlinite Movement. This conference apparently had no permanent results although the resolutions passed indicated un-American bases of agreement on such subjects as "White Supremacy" and the Jewish Problem.

In the fall of 1937, DEATHERAGE was busy on the West Coast. He stayed for sometime at the home of Mrs. FREY, Glendale, California, whom he met together with HENRY ALLEN and CONRAD CHAPMAN, her associates. During 1938, DEATHERAGE'S activities included a speaking tour on the West Coast with HENRY ALLEN, who was said to be arranging an unauthenticated attendance at a World Service Convention in Erfurt, Germany. It is not known whether DEATHERAGE actually attended this convention but an article, written by him, entitled "Will America be the Jews' Waterloo", appeared in the World Service Bulletin.

On August 23, 1939, DEATHERAGE spoke at a Christian Mobilizer Rally at Innissville Park, in New York City, before an audience of 5000, sharing the platform with FRITZ KUHN and JOSEPH E. McWILLIAMS. A man by the name of JUENAMANN, who appears to be DEATHERAGE'S aide in New York, acts as liason between DEATHERAGE, TRUE and McWILLIAMS.

On November 2, 1939, DEATHERAGE announced that he was relinquishing the leadership of the Knights of the White Camellia and that J. B. MARTIN of Houston, Texas, would be his successor. During his active period, DEATHERAGE made several attempts to get German assistance although he apparently tried to minimize this in his testimony before the Dies Committee. He flatly denied receiving any money from Germany although he is an intimate friend of JOHANNES KLAPPROTH, of the American Propaganda Division of World Service. VLADIMAR KOSITSIM, a wholesale distributor of World Service Publications, worked for DEATHERAGE as a filing clerk during 1938. At various times, DEATHERAGE visited the Nazi Consulate in San Francisco, where he saw Baron von KILLINGER, and the Nazi Embassy in Washington, D. C. At the latter, he saw von GIENOW, the Director of Public Relations. In his testimony before the Dies Committee, DEATHERAGE claims that he merely asked von GIENOW how HITLER financed the Nazi Party in Germany in its early stages.

DEATHERAGE'S ideas and program are summed up in a letter he wrote to JAMES CAMPBELL in 1938. In this he said "I believe, as you do, that it will take military action to get this gang (the Jews) out and the organization must be built around a propaganda organization now that can, in a few years, be turned into a military fighting force ..... This is a social revolution just as much as the revolution against slavery ..... I do not think we can create a program under custodial framework; we will get no place except with united and disciplined leadership, plus a politico-economic program, a program that will feed and clothe the masses. That is Fascism, call it what you will..... .....It is no use to raise the issue that private property is to be inviolate".

Since 1940, DEATHERAGE has worked as a construction engineer at Camp Lee, Virginia, under the Construction Quartermaster there. He completed his job there in May of 1941 and took a position as executive engineer for Doyle and Russell Construction Company at the United States Naval Operating Base, Norfolk, Virginia, where he is presently employed.

A perusal of the correspondence exchanged between the subject, JAMES TRUE and ROBERT EDMONDSON, with whom he is collaborating in the formation of the American Christian Nationalist Party, reflects that all of them are violently anti-Semitic, pro-Fascist and pro-Nazi. Of the three, EDMONDSON appears to be the most radical concerning the Jewish question. In a letter dated March 23, 1941, EDMONDSON suggested that all property, tangible and intangible, of the Jews residing in the United States, be confiscated and applied to the national debt. He also advocates the deportation of all Jews and half Jews into a world concentration, preferably Madagascar. In a letter written by JAMES TRUE, dated April 19, 1941, directed to the subject, he anticipates a military dictatorship within the next eighteen months and he indicates that high ranking officials know of this. In a letter dated June 21, 1941, TRUE states "For several weeks the German short wave has been encouraging. They have licked Hell out of the British in Egypt and are absolutely confident of victory. Hope you have been able to listen to their broadcasts. More than half of the British Naval and Merchant fleets have been put out of business. England is receiving considerably less than half of the usual supply of food and prices are way up to give the Juice a big profit. Certainly the end is not far off. There is a story rumored here that FRANKLIN and WINSTON have had a very unpleasant scrap and that WINNIE told the Big Jew where to go". The foregoing is set out in detail in an endeavor to illustrate the anti-British sympathies and the Jewish hatred harbored by the subject and his compatriots.

The following exerpts were taken from a letter in possession of the subject, discovered by Special Agent R. F. FRY on a subsequent visit to the subject's room. This letter was written by EARL B. POWELL, 135 South Grand Avenue, Los Angeles, California, under date of June 29, 1941, and is as follows: (1)

" I think it will not be long until Hitler cleans up that 'snake den' in Russia and England has a revolution and Mr. CHURCHILL may well die in the blood he loves so well. I knew something of his record but did not know he personally had been such a cold-blooded braggart of a killer. I prophesy a violent and terrible death for him and soon. Our day is almost here now. God grant that we may prove worthy of the task that is ahead of us. Our day will come .....

What do you think of a rifle that will shoot twice as far as the 30.06 Springfield - twice the velocity, half the trajectory, and will shoot through three-fourths inches of inches of steel. This is not a dream, it exists..... .....and we are going to step it up to more yet. No, it is not a Jew Garand racket piece of junk".

On June 3, 1941, DEATHERAGE directed a letter to J. EDGAR HOOVER, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, complaining of a black list against his employment on defense projects. In this letter, he stated that his activities may be in opposition to the Administration but were, in no sense, inimical to the welfare of this country. He further states that "if you have any evidence to the contrary, it is your duty to see that I am locked up instead of employing what I think is a rather underhand method of putting on the pressure. I don't think you are starting any 'gestapo' ....with your full knowledge. I am of the inclination to put this whole thing up for discussion on the floor of the Senate but before doing so, I would like to have your point of view".

Also among the papers of the subject was a considerable amount of German propaganda pamphlets, including the function of the German "labor pass", "The Peoples Court in Germany", also "German Sports" and the national political, educational institutes. Another pamphlet, entitled "The Hitler Party, What Is It and What Are Its Aims", sets out the life history of the Reichsfuehrer, Adolph Hitler, the foundation of the Hitler movement and secret of its success, economic principles, principles of leadership, the structural organization, Hitler's attitude towards foreign countries and the racial question.

Further, among the papers of the subject was a manifesto of the Canadian Nationalist Party, setting forth its aims and objects; also, the aims and objects of the South African Nationalist Party; a pamphlet on Socialist Action; a pamphlet entitled "Unrobing the Ghosts of Wall Street" , written by Mr. CHARLES BINDERUP; a pamphlet entitled "The Aims and Purposes of the National Liberty Party; "The Patriotic Instructor", issued by the Veterans of Foreign Wars; a booklet entitled "America's Little Hitlers", written by ROY TOZIER and published by E. HALDEMEN-JULIUS, of Gerard, Kansas. In a letter written by subject to his son, under date of June 17, 1941, the subject describes JULIUS as being "a dirty Jew, advocating the philosophy of free love and atheism; the author, ROY TOZIER, and his Friends of Democracy, work for a chap in the pay of the Jews, a Reverend BIRKHEAD." Dr. BIRKHEAD, who is the head of the Friends of Democracy, once accused one HARRY A. JUNG, who is the founder and promoter of the American Vigilante Intelligence Federation, of being a distributor of Nazi propaganda, sponsored and emanating from the official sources of Nazi Germany. These charges were borne out by correspondence made public by the Dies Committee between OSCAR PFAUS, of the Nazi Propaganda Agency, FICHTE BUND, and a Dr. ANNA B. SLOANE, in which plans were discussed for a Fascist newspaper. Dr. SLOANE wrote PFAUS that she wanted to have a council of twelve leaders run the paper in the hope that this would unify the patriotic movement of the purposes of recovering this country from the control of the Jews. The proposed council included JUNG, HIRAM EVANS, of the Ku Klux Klan, EDWARD HUNTER, of the Industrial Defense Association, DONALD SHEA, of the National Gentile League, WILLIAM DUDLEY KELLEY, Father CHARLES P. COUGHLIN, GEORGE DEATHERAGE, JAMES TRUE, General GEORGE van HORN MOSELEY, GEORGE CHRISTIANS, REVEREND GERALD B. WINROD, and FRITZ KUHN. JUNG later released a statement to the Press denying any connection with Mrs. SLOANE'S project.

WFO

Also among the papers and documents of the subject was a list of contracts awarded or approved by the United States War Department, Office of the Quartermaster General, Construction Division, compiled March 11, 1941. A lead is being set out for the Washington Field Office to ascertain whether or not these contracts are a matter of public record and, if not, whether they are properly in the possession of the subject who, undoubtedly, received this list at the time he was working as an engineer on the Government project at Camp Lee, Petersburg, Virginia.

Lab report

Also in the possession of the subject was a code, the explanation of which is set out in the documents. The same has previously been sent to the Technical Laboratory for their analysis and information. It is thought that the originator of the code is ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON who, in the introductory matter to the code, states that the writer is of Scotch-Irish descent. EDMONDSON is known to be of Scotch-Irish descent. To verify this, a copy of a letter written on EDMONDSON'S typewriter was sent, together with this code, for the Technical Laboratory to determine whether the same typewriter was used.

A document, entitled "Secret Underground Communism", was obtained by FRANK W. CLARK, Chairman of the National Liberty Party and Commander of the League of War Vetermans Guardsmen. The material was seized in one of the raids upon the underground headquarters of the Communist Party by [redacted] b7D and illustrates how the Communist Internationale formulates at present, the problem of organization for Communist Parties of Canada and the United States, and proper proceedings to take to safeguard themselves from the constituted authorities. This material is being designated for the Special Agent handling Communist activities in the Richmond Field Division so that the same may be incorporated into the files on Communist Activities.

It appears that DEATHERAGE likewise is collaborating with one RAYMOND J. HEALY, of 208 East 86th Street, New York City, and one Miss PARKER, Women United, 11 West 42nd Street, New York City, in view of the correspondence exchanged between these individuals, and J. J. GEIS, Route #2, Hempstead, Long Island.

The photographed copies of the foregoing letters, documents and pamphlets are being maintained in the files of the Richmond Field Division.

The following exerpts are taken from the Constitution, Aims and Objects of the American Nationalist Confederation which was attempted to be organized by the subject in 1937. This organization has never been incorporated:

> " The American Nationalist Confederation has been created as a matter of national emergency in order to provide a political, as well as a defense medium, for the mass of the Christian American people who refuse to subscribe to the Jewish-Communist domination now in force in the existing Federal Government - and throughout the Nation as a whole.
> Both major political parties of the present day are no more. The Democratic Party having sold its birthright for a mess of pottage -- for the Communistic radical bloc of Marxism. The Republican Party having proved itself too weak to lead -- will never again be a potent factor in American life.
> The answer is a militant Nationalism-America for Americans and a reconstruction of our Constitution which will provide for a maximum of cooperative effort between Labor and Industry."

The Party structure is divided into national groups, each national divisional secretary of such groups taking his orders directly from the Chief of Staff, at Staff Headquarters.

The following notes are made referring to the American Nationalist Confederation organizational chart regarding the thirty two propaganda groups appearing thereon. They are the subdivisions of the American Nationalist Confederation, constructed for the express purpose of systematizing and directing the work of educating leaders and membership. The Staff Headquarters were to be established at Glendale, California. The Party program group was to be established, the purpose of which was to prepare all details referring to the political platform. Men working in this group are to contact different organizations, labor, agriculture, etc., who will all have definite ideas on these different subjects. A personnel director is to be appointed, his function being to supply personnel for all other groups from among the membership, including voluntary or paid workers. The civic educational group is to concentrate its activities to the education of the people along civic lines. Naturally, the confidential information obtained by this group will be invaluable to a third party movement. Other groups include the Youth Movement, Research, Women's Groups, Fraternal Orders, Financial and Cultural Groups, Labor Unions and foreign liason, this person to keep in touch with the activities of groups in other nations who are doing similar work. There was also established an Intelligence Section, its purpose being to act as the intelligence arm of the Confederation, investigating and reporting on all subversive activities within the Nation, subversive activities being those which are held directly or indirectly incompatible to the Constitution of the United States, the Christian Religion and the Party Platform and Constitution. The Intelligence Section is divided into numerous divisions, such as governmental, veterans, civic activities, youth movements, religions, etc.

Summing the whole situation up, the plan is as follows:

1 - Coordinate all groups under the American Nationalist Confederation, which will act as Staff Headquarters or a clearing house for all groups; to supply data, to advise or suggest action. Later they can take a more definite militant direction.

2 - To organize within the American Nationalist Confederation the thirty two groups on the chart; propaganda groups, each one of which will concentrate along one specific line; The leader and the personnel to be taken from those among the affiliated groups under the American Nationalist Confederation.

3 - To bring all the membership of the affiliated groups, and even those that refuse to officially affiliate, into the folds of the Christian Constitutionalists so that a united front will be presented at the polls.

4 - To eventually bring the membership of all the groups into the armed forces under the direction of the military staff, in case armed resistence is required.

The photographed documents, setting forth the Constitution, the Platform and Purposes of the American Nationalist Confederation, together with all charts pertaining thereto, are being maintained in the files of the Richmond Field Division.

The proposed American Christian Nationalist Party, an American Fascist military organization, is apparently an outgrowth of the subject's attempt to establish the American Nationalist Confederation referred to above. In the formation of the Constitution, the principles and purposes of the American Christian Nationalist Party, the subject collaborated with JAMES TRUE and ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON. They have evolved an elaborate plan for the new organization. It calls for the establishment of a national council, national leader, regional, state, district and post leader, in every county in the United States, the regional districts to conform with the nine corps areas of the United States. As determined by a review of the correspondence exchanged by these men, they are awaiting the rise of a national figure, a "hero", as they refer to him. The name of CHARLES A. LINDBERGH has been proposed but TRUE and EDMONDSON are of the opinion that LINDBERGH is not sufficiently anti-Jewish and they fear they may be entrapped by a Jew-controlled leader. Both maintain that DEATHERAGE should prepare to take the leadership. The election of the leader is to be made by delegates from each state, convening in a Party Congress. The Leader in Chief will hold office for life but may be removed by the Party Congress for misbehavior in office. It would appear that such an organization would ultimately evolve into a Fascistic state.

The following is the proposed Constitution, Platform, Principles, Objects and Aims of the organization:

AMERICAN CHRISTIAN NATIONALIST PARTY.

1 - Name and Origin

" THE NATIONALIST PARTY

Its Platform Principles, Patriotic Purposes and Plan of Action.

Created in a period of national emergency, the Nationalist Party is organized for these specific purposes:

To provide a medium for unified political expression and a defense medium for all Christian American Citizens who are opposed to the alien international interests that have gained secret control of our Government, political parties, national finances and economics and social life through subversion by alien internationalism and the manipulation of monetary gold.

Our platform is entirely American. It is destructive to the forces of alien internationalism. It offers a con"structive political and economic solution to the Nation. And its solution is basically that of American Christian Nationalism as opposed to alien internationalism.

American Nationalism is an unalterable devotion and dedication to the eternal principles of the Constitution of the Republic of the United States. The necessary political, economic, social and financial reforms presented herein, made necessary by the industrialization of the Nation and the trend of world events, may be evolved readily within the provisions of the Constitution.

Nationalism recognizes that the Constitution properly provides for the welfare of the people to be safeguarded by intelligent, honest and patriotic management, rather than the present direction by purely commercial, subversive and alien international interests.

It was not the intention of the founders of this Republic to grant the sacred privileges of citizenship to the illiterate, criminal, alien and subversive elements of the population. The Founding Fathers wisely confined citizenship to those who are honorably and intellectually capable of sound judgment in accordance with basic Christian ethics, and they created, not an alien democracy, but a Christian Republic.

Our contention is that the recent artificial transition from the original Republic to a form of alien socialized democracy is un-American and anti-America, and serves to destroy our Constitutional liberties, to subvert social justice, and to place our Nation further under the control of international Jewish financial interests. These are the interests responsible for the great tide of false propaganda which is intended to force a sacrifice of our youth and our resources in futile international war. The purposes of The Nationalist Party are outlined by the following statements:

In reasserting their conviction that individual and national honor constitute the only basis on which a happy, free, energetic and unified people can reach high ideals of personal

"security, wellfare, freedom and peace, all Party members acknowledge the Christian God, as exemplified and demonstrated by Jesus Christ, and His supreme authority and guidance in all individual and national actions.

Confirming the opinions of courts high and low, the Supreme Court of the United States has decreed that our Republic is a Christian Government. Therefore the Party is dedicated to the proposition of administering all affairs and activities of our Government according to basic Christian ethics and principles, under white supremacy, while tolerating all other faiths and religions whose teachings and practices do not tend to become a danger to the peace and stability of the State.

The Party also has pleged its devotion to the following: The fusing of the citizens into a National Unity of Christian manhood and womanhood dedicated to ideals of honor and decency in all of their relations, and with mutual respect for their inalienable rights and privileges. The reawakening of National pride into a spirit of sound Americanism, political, economic, and cultural. The abolition of class hatred and class strife. The cultivation of self-reliance and independence on the part of all citizens, and the elimination of crime, oppression, corruption and injustice. The upholding of Christian civilization and its protection against all attacks of alien and Jewish communistic philosophy. The establishing of the United States on a firm basis of righteousness, and the application of practical Christianity throughout the public and private life of the Nation.

The Party condemns the existing party system of professional parliamentaranism as being corrupt and entirely controlled by international aliens through party conventions and communizing primaries, a recent example of which was the stealing of the 1940 Republican convention by Wall Street, and the nomination of Wendell Willkie. Therefore, the Party has pledged to abolish the existing system and to replace it with an honest, effective system of true Republican Government, which shall conform, under the Constitution, to the requirements of our revitalized national character. This Nationalistic system will have re"sponsible leadership and representation rooted in the principles of mutual trust, responsibility, discipline, loyalty and service to the Nation.

The Party insists on the purification and simplification of our entire legal system, and its release from the throttle of innumerable statutes through which it is impossible to procure justice.

(4)

The Party accepts the fact that the 'Melting Pot' idea never has worked, except in the opinion of impractical and subversive individuals, and that racial and religious tolerance has been practiced to the point that it has aided in undermining the Nation. Self-preservation demands that we now accept the broad classification of races as a principle of National order and as a basis of world peace. We therefore insist on white supremacy and a Christian guardianship over races which cannot be assimilated. We also shall suspend immigration laws during the reconstruction period and pass stricter laws for the naturalization of citizens, and citizenship will be granted only to the members of those great races which, since the founding of this Nation, have constituted the bulk of the population of the United States of America.

Because the Negroes were forcibly and unjustly brought to this country and deprived of their liberty, The Party pledges full justice to the Negro race and a policy that will strongly encourage a development in accordance with the Negro racial character and traditions. The Party will protect the Negroes by sternly suppressing communistic, revolutionary and other propaganda and activities designed to disturb harmonious race relations.

To all American Indians the Party pledges prompt relief from their present communistic dictators, with full citizenship

"and privileges, and with adequate compensation and a just settlement of all governmental obligations. We recognize the demonstrated fact that the Indians constitute a race which can be assimilated without detriment to the white races which constitute the American race.

The Jews, a race of Oriental and Semitic origin, form a separate, detached, non-Christian and anti-Christian group with a national identity, which persistently maintains its distinctive racial qualities and characteristics, religious traditions and codes of morals. This race is internationally consolidated and organized to the detriment of non-Jewish peoples throughout the world.

Jewish interests in the United States have been proved to be entirely international financial interests, pertaining either to individuals or groups. Therefore, the Jews invariably create conditions which disturb the equilibrium of the life of our people, and are the instigators and promoters of propaganda for commercial state capitalism, imperialism, and an impossible communistic internationalism.

Considered from the viewpoint of Nationalism, the Jews are not a producing, self-supporting race, but one which lives and flourishes from the labor and production, the livelihood and rights of existence, of working men and women of all other Nations, and for this reason are an injurious and dangerous element.

Therefore, the Party undertakes and pledges itself to a policy of stringent legislation designed to control the immigration of Jews from other countries, to destroy existing Jewish domination of our national, state and local Governments, and to limit Jewish influence in every sphere, especially in the academic, legal and medical professions, monopolized industries, moving pictures, radio broadcasting, the press and all publishing, governmental positions, trade unions and agriculture. Legislation will be passed by the National Government and the States to settle the Jewish problem for all time. It will consider all Jews as aliens who will be tolerated only to the extent that they respect and follow the rules of Christian morality, obey the laws, and adapt themselves to the requirements of American Nationalism.

The Party reaffirms the principle that human rights take precedence over property rights, and recognizes the family as the foundation of our social order and national wellbeing. Therefore, the Party will promote a sound family life and will strenuously oppose all communistic and radical attempts at corruption of the family. Legislation will be enacted for the improvement of public health. The Party also vigorously opposes birth control and all other policies for the subversion of the family advocated by the forces of internationalism.

(9)

Subversive activities of publishers, radio operators and moving picture producers will be sternly suppressed. Those found guilty of distorting the factual news for gain or of disseminating false propaganda under the influence of anti-Christian or alien groups shall be deprived of citizenship and the right of dissemination.

Realizing the fact that the economic policy of the Nation is controlled by international bankers with headquarters in New York and London, of whom Jews constitute a majority, the Party pledges immediate and effective elimination of this control. When the people are released from the economic bondage forced on them by the international gold standard, its owners and manipulators, the elimination of unemployment, poverty and economic distress will follow automatically.

As a primary objective, the Party pledges a new basis for our monetary system, and a return to Congress of the power to coin and regulate the value of money, according to Section 8, Paragraph 5, of the Constitution. This regulation will be brought about by the elimination of international gold

"in private hands as the controlling standard, and the substitution of the value based on human needs in the form of production. This will eliminate the opportunity which international Jews have had for many years to transfer national wealth from one country to another by means of paper transactions, thereby creating alternate cycles of prosperity and depression for their own enrichment. Banking will be left in private hands under governmental supervision, and no practice will be tolerated that enables bankers to loan anything that does not actually exist.

Provate property will be maintained and protected. The Party is committed to a policy of encouraging personal initiative and supporting private undertakings; but it is against oppressive monopolies and monopolistic combines. Everything possible will be done to establish honorable and soundly economic business methods and to combat speculation, usury and exploitation.

National and State taxation will be drastically reduced and reformed. The issuance of new tax-exempt securities will be prohibited. The National income tax law will be repealed, because it is an invasion of the retained rights and powers of the sovereign States which is communistically operating for the centralization of power.

The policy of the Party requires the enactment of every constitutional measure that will promptly and effectively restore and promote agricultural prosperity, and to protect the Nation's most important industry from political, economic, financial and other exploitation.

The Party's agricultural policy includes the following: The systematic reduction of the farm mortgage burden and the promotion of the independence and consolidation of the industry;

"the elimination of the costly abuses that have existed for many years in the distribution of farm products; the promotion of practical, privately managed crop insurance; adequate prices in line with the public need that will assure the farmers equitable profits; legislation to prevent the alienation of farm lands and the subdivision of farm properties; the adoption and vigorous promotion of the complete program of Farm Chemurgic.

The scientifically managed utilization of farm products in industry always has been aggressively opposed by the international control, because of the vast benefits and stability it promises to both agriculture and industry. Farm Chemurgy has been proved to be the most beneficial plan ever devised for the rehabilitation of farming. Its program not only will provide a sound and profitable basis for American farming, but also offer a happy farm life with security to several million American citizens.

Realizing that social and economic governmental policies cannot be separated in a united society, but are inseparable parts of the entire national structure on which the welfare of the people depends, the Party pledges the following:

Protection of all workers against the exploitation of alien state capitalism; the establishment and support of public group corporations in each State to provide adequate representation of all industries and trades in the National Congress and State Legislatures; opportunities for every citizen to receive a wage that will provide a decent living, with the requirement that every worker shall exercise his capacities to the best of his ability and strength, in order to properly maintain his family and serve the Nation; old age pensions, so administered as to guarantee every deserving citizen security after the age of 64 - not as charity, but as a right of citizenship; unemployment insurance and Federal and State hospitalization, provided for all workers through their respective group corporations; minimum wage laws that will eliminate sweatshops.

The system of education adopted by the Party has its foundation rooted in the national cuture, fosters national pride and genuine patriotism, and contributes to the upbuilding of Christian character. Its purpose is to establish national education on these fundamentals:

Development of Christian cultural ideals in conformity with the principles of Christianity and American Nationalism; enactment of laws to punish all violations of the Constitutional guarantee of free speech, the abuse of that right by subversive individuals and organizations, and all who attempt to interfere with the freedom of press, radio, moving pictures and all other channels of communication serving the welfare of the people; formation of a National Youth Movement; military training for all boys, not only for National defense, but because of its value in discipline and character building. Talented children will be given every possible opportunity for the development of their gifts. Music, painting, the theater and literature will be purged of their debauching control and propaganda and all of the arts will be developed naturally and in conformity with the National character.

The Party pledges that all laws which discriminate against women shall be repealed. While the Party will do everything possible to encourage marriage and development of home life, it will offer equal opportunity to women.

Unstable conditions of the world make a strong military force necessary for National Defense. The Party recognizes that that assurance of peace depends on the ability of the United States to protect itself without the aid of other Nations. Therefore the Party has readopted the foreign policy of George Washington and the Founding Fathers, and shall enact all legislation necessary to attain the following propositions:

" A friendly attitude toward all Nations, free from alien influences, and alliances with none; a powerful two ocean Navy and adequate Army and air forces for defense; diplomacy based on justice and National honor, with complete withdrawal of the United States from meddling or participation in European and Asiatic differences and alliances, League of Nations activities and the Bank of International Settlements; return of militia jurisdiction to the States in accordance with Amendment 2 of the Constitution.

The Party stands for continued separation of Church and State, regardless of the form it takes. The principle of freedom of worship is ingrained within the minds of our people, and it shall so remain. However, no so-called religion will be tolerated that practices hate and defamation, that furnishes a gypocritical covering for a criminal code, that is antagonistic to accepted Christian principles, or that attempts to undermine or subvert Christian Nationalism.

The Leaders and Members of the Nationalist Party of the United States, realizing that this Nation is beset with the greatest crisis of its history, bind themselves under oath to carry out, without fear or favor, the principles of this Party, and to protect and preserve our Nation, even at the sacrifice of their lives and fortunes. "

Photographed copies of the above, together with the organizational charts, are being maintained in the files of the Richmond Field Division.

Among the papers of the subject was the Constitution and Platform of the Knights of the White Camellia, which was first organized in 1867 as an elite group of the Ku Klux Klan, made up of Confederate

The following is the Preamble and Constitution of the Knights of the White Camellia:

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ORGANIZATION OF LOCAL CASTLES.

1 - Origin of the Knights of the White Camellia.

This order was brought into being in the year 1867, as a result for the need for a militant white non-partisan, non-sectarian organization of native born Americans, to combat the evils following four years of war between the States. Each major conflict results in attempts to radically upset the existing social structure. True now - it was also true during the era of reconstruction - 1866-1872. Then, the problem was the upholding of White Supremacy and the elimination of the parasitic 'Carpetbagger', who attempted to take advantage of a defeated people.

The Knights of the White Camellia, The Ku Klux Klan, Pale Faces, and other similar organizations, were forced to militant action against these subversive forces. In three years they had made the South safe for American womanhood and the ideals of a free democracy. The need for the organizations then being lessened, they gradually disbanded.

In 1915, The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan were revived at Atlanta, Ga. and incorporated under the laws of that State. The Knights of The White Camellia, whose membership totaled over two million in 1870, has lain dormant since that time. Now we ride again, to face a foe far more dangerous - that of Jewish Atheistic Communism. The danger of the alien and the Jew-backed by a RED GOVERNMENT, who are lending every aid possible in the attempt to destroy the Constitution of the "United States, the Christian Religion, the Right to hold Private Property and White Supremacy.

2 - Aims and Ideals

The aims and ideals of this order are to provide again an organization of millions of Christian Aryan Citizens, banded together for self protection and the prepetuation of our freee Democratic institutions.

To be prepared,to fight militantly, the forces that have brought about present day conditions in Russia, France, Germany, Italy and Spain. Unorganized we are more or less helpless against the entrenched minorities in Government. Organized, we are a potent force on the side of Christian decency, and our constitutional democratic form of government.

We especially insist on the principle of White Supremacy.

The communistic Jew and their sympathizers must be eliminated from our national life if we are not to be totally destroyed as a people.

3 - Constitutional Provisions

The Knights of the White Camellia are incorporated in the State of West Virginia as a non-profit organization - for the purpose of the furtherance of the ideals and aims named above.

The National Headquarters are located at Charleston, W. Va., P. O. Drawer 1237; A separate corporation - The Knights Organization Associates, has been formed to publish the official organ, The White Knight - a monthly publication.

All legislative powers granted in the National Constitution are vested in a Supreme National Council. Those not delegaged to it, are vested in the State Constitutions - or the members thereof. Until there are 25 Castles established in a state, the National Supreme Council has sole jurisdiction.

"4 - Religious Test

There shall never be a religious test for membership in this organization - except that applicants must be White Aryan Christians.

5 - Affiliations

The order is not affiliated with any other, and no person holding political office or being a candidate for same, may hold office in the organization.

6 - Fees

The fee for a local charter is five dollars, and must be accompanied by six signed applications of persons of the required qualifications.

The Initiation Fee is two dollars each applicant, and should accompany the application. The Quarterly dues are two dollars.

To assist in defraying the organization expense of local Castles, to assist in publishing the White Knight, etc., one dollar and fifty cents of the application fee of two dollars is remited to National Headquarters. This is split 50/50 with State Headquarters where such are organized. Local Castles retain fifty cents of the application fee.

Of the two dollars quarterly dues, fifty cents is payable to the State organization, and fifty cents to the National Headquarters. If there is no State organization, the entire one dollar is remited to National Headquarters.

There is no regalia, or charges for same. The above constitute all the fees.

7 - The White Knight

The Official Magazine, the White Knight, is supplied to

"local Castles or to individual Knights at ten cents each, postpaid - in any quantity. The retail price is fifteen cents each. Each Castle looks after the distribution in their jurisdiction, selling them to newsdealers at ten cents, or retailing them at fifteen and retaining five cents for the local treasury.

8 - Other Literature

Local Castles are from time to time supplied with other literature in order to keep the membership informed. In the majority of cases there is no charge for this service. If there is a charge to be made for special literature, the Castle will be sent a sample together with price - and they may order as they see fit.

9 - Field Organizers

We do not have paid organizers in the field. Dependence is placed on those enthusiasts in each community who, realizing that we are faced with the destruction of our family life and our Christian religion - voluntarily lead the movement. If paid organizers were to be sent into the field, the application, initiation fees and dues would have to be increased to the point that the workingman of America would find it impossible to belong. The National Officers are ready to help locally whenever they can - and up to date this expense has come out of their pockets.

Voluntary organizers however do quickly take a place of leadership in the community and thru their association with a group such as ours, eventually are looked upon as an effective political force. In the case of an open break - which is surely coming - then they also become the leaders in all movements for self protection.

10 - How to Organize a local Castle.

a. Send in a request for an application to National Headquarters, or if there is a group interested, send in a request for the group - giving their names. Printed applications will be sent each one, on receipt of which, they " are to be returned filled out - to National Headquarters. Each application should be accompanied with the application fee of one dollar fifty cents. The other fifty cents retained for the local treasury.

b. On receipt of the applications, the applicant or applicants will be investigated thru the Intelligence Dept. - and if found acceptable, they will be so notified. If rejected, they will also be so notified and the application fee or fees returned.

c. If only an individual application is made, affiliation is direct with National Headquarters, and the accepted applicants are carried on the National rolls until a local and state organization is effected. In these cases, the individual enters actively into the work of reporting Red Activities, sending out propaganda furnished him, etc. At the same time he attempts to get together five or more additional applicants to form the nucleous of a local Castle.

d. It requires only six persons to start a Castle and these become the first officers - for a period of sixty days - after which they are confirmed by an election in the local Castle. The Officers are Sir Knight Commander, Sir Knight Secretary, Sir Knight Treasurer, Sir Knight Justice, Sir Knight Field Operations and Sir Knight Intelligence Service. The Grand Commander at National Headquarters appoints the six applicants to their respective position for the period of sixty days.

e. On receipt of six applications and a request for a Charter - these being approved, the Charter is mailed from National Headquarters. The Charter fee is but five dollars which should accompany the application.

11 - How to Start Work After the Charter has been Received a. With the Charter, will be mailed, six bound copies of the Constitution, By-Laws and Ritual. Additional copies can be secured on request with the understanding that these must not leave the possession of the officers.

"b. The Props needed are simple - namely: Gavel, American Flag, Bible, six black hoodwinks, Ballot Box, Registration book and three swords. The local Castle may supply all or part of these or they can be supplied from National Headquarters at cost.

c. Printed application blanks, membership cards, Notes for organizers and other necessary supplies are furnished at cost which is very nominal.

d. The first meeting may be held in the home, if there are but a few members, and later a hall can be secured, generally at from five to ten dollars a month - for two meetings per month. At the first meeting, the officers should take their respective places, accept the Charter and proceed with the regular order of business. This is in accordance with Roberts Rules of Order, as called for in the By Laws. Copies of a very good pamphlet on Parlimentary Law can be secured from The Haskin Information Service, Washington, D. C., price ten cents.

e. At this first meeting, plans are laid to increase the membership. This is done by making personal contact with friends and others interested. Literature such as the White Knight, and other pamphlets sent you from National Headquarters, which are mimeographed sheets setting forth the aims and ideals of the order, should be handed them. Securing new members is a matter of education. Once your friends and neighbors understand the aims and ideals - and the seriousness of this communistic menace - you should have no trouble. Each application must be signed by a Sponsor Knight and vouched for by two other Knights. All this is set forth in detail in the Constitution and By-Laws.

f. The password and secret grip will be transmitted to you at the same time as the charter, in a manner known only to ourselves.

g. The initiation of new members is explained step by step in the Ritual. It is very simple but should be strictly adhered to.

"h. Immediately your membership is sufficient, the regular standing committees should be appointed and enter into their work. A list of these is as follows:

l. Remember that the National and State Organizations only exercise a nominal advisory control over local Castles. The Sir Knight Commander is the head of each branch in the community and as such dictates the detailed policy and activity. The local Castles are only subject to such control as is noted in the Constitution and the By Laws.

j. The aim of this organization being to uphold free democratic government and the Christian Church, one of the first things to be done is to list all the Reds and Red Activities in your community. You then take such action as is necessary to put a stop to them. Everey officer should have a copy of the Red Network, and Roosevelt and his Red Record, which can be secured from Mrs. Elizabeth Dilling, 53 W. Jackson Blvd., Chicago. Price of each is $1.15. Also each officer should have a copy of House Report No. 2290, secured from Supt of Documents, Washington, price ten cents, and a copy of ISMS, secured from National Headquarters of the American Legion, Indianapolis, Indiana, price 30 cents.

12 - Necessity for Action

This country is on the verge of open rebellion, fostered and encouraged by the government. Millions say that it cannot " happen here - yet ten million people in Russia who believed this same thing - lost their lives. To date a hundred thousand have lost their lives in Spain, and hundred of Churches have been destroyed. We defy any normally intelligent person to make a study of the facts in this country and not agree that we are faced with the same crisis here. Unless YOU take action, you may see your lifes savings wiped out and your family destroyed.

We have tried in this mimeographed release, to give you simple instructions as how to organize and proceed. If you need any further information, write the National Headquarters and it will be forthcoming by return mail.

Grand Commander. "

OUR RE-DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for the American people to again reassert their Independence, and to again assume their rightful station to which the laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitles them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to such action.

We hold these truths to be self-evident: That all men are created equal under the Law, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights our forefathers fought and died.

After 200 years, we find our nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are "created free and equal, faced with an invasion and the destruction of those rights by groups of organized minorities based on foreign ideas and principles against which the native American has always been opposed.

Prudence indeed will dictate that our Government, established on the principles of the original Declaration of Independence, should not be changed for light and transient causes, and, accordingly, our people have been more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by organizing to abolish the invasion of their native rights. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, that of the destruction of the original aims and ideals of our forefathers who pioneered the nation, it is our right and duty to demand again our freedom as decendents of those who fought and died to establish that freedom.

The history of the last decade in America has been a succession of continuous inroads on our constitutional liberty by numerous Communistic, Socialistic and political rackateering organizations designed to either supplant or ruin the government so firmly established by our ancestors. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world:

1 - The government of the United States of America and its native peoples, are the target for the Communistic activities of 6,000,000 to 7,000,000 undesirable aliens and their dependents, all organized in the different foreign sections.

2 - That from 1,500,000 to 3,000,000 of these are now on Federal and State relief, being paid an income from taxes upon our people who themselves are sorely in need.

3 - That there are hundreds of Communistic and Socialistic daily newspapers published throughout the nation, advocating our surrender to Communism, to be brought about by the supreme international governing body the 'Comintern'.

"4 - That the twenty-one conditions of admission of the U. S. A. includes:

A. Instructions for preparation for civil war.

B. Creation of parallel illegal revolutionary groups.

C. Penetration of the Nation's armed forces.

D. Propaganda in rural districts.

E. Revolutionary overthrow of capitalism.

F. Refusal to transport munitions of war, intended for enemies of the Soviet Government at Moscow, etc.

G. Destruction of the Government by force.

5 - That we feel that activities of these radical elements have taken advantage of the recent depression to gain substantial control of one major political party, and have made serious inroads on the other.

6 - That combining with the Political Rackateer, we feel that they have brought about a condition known as the "New Deal", which is actively and openly bepreached by the Communistic party as an aid to the ultimate destruction of the American form of government.

7 - That we feel that the so-called "New Deal", being a cloak for socialistic and Communistic activities has:

(a)Supported, and is now supporting millions of aliens from Federal Relief Funds.

(b)Increased taxes to the point that one-third of every man's wages is now taken to support these aliens and destroy the American form of government and aimed to eliminate our individual liberty.

(c)Preached destruction of the people's food in times of poverty and hunger; encouraging idleness and putting a premium on charity.

(d)Treating business men as criminals and then competing against them with taxes that the employer and employee pay.

(e)Organized a political spoils system behind which crime runs unchecked.

(f)Eliminated thousands of employees from Civil Service examinations and given to political appointees, none of which are forced to pay either State or Federal income tax.

(g)Entered into private enterprise in competition with legitimate business, financed with tax free bonds.

(h)Attempted to nullify the authority of the Supreme Court and forcing unconstitutional legislation upon the people.

(i)Devaluated the dollar until it is worth slightly more than half; broken faith with the bond-holders, and jeopardized the beneficaries of every insurance policy in the nation.

(j)Repudiated entirely the pledge of the 1932 platform, accepting a combination-socialistic, communistic basis for government in contradiction to the oath of office.

(k)Fostered and advocated class hatred as opposed to the Constitution of the United States.

(l)Supressed free speech and free press.

(m)Doubled the National debt, spending more in four years than the cost of government for 124 years.

" (n)Repudiated government contracts without compensation or review by courts.

(o)Finally, under pressure from the foreign radical groups, have accepted the principles of the Socialistic-Communistic doctrine without the consent of the people; all as set forth above, establishing a virtual Dictatorship in place of free government.

We realize that the native born American people are faced with the greatest crisis of their lives. The issue is whether or not we are to be dominated by foreigners and foreign policies, or retain free speech, free press, individual liberty and the right to hold private property.

That the proof of these statements is evidenced by the fact that those who attempt to uphold American traditions are persecuted by the very government that originally gave them liberty.

That in order to work for the continuance of the Constitution and our constitutional rights, we are forced to organize, meet and work secretly. That in itself is proof of our contentions.

We, Aryan born sons of white Christian parents, therefore, in secret meeting herein assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the World, and in the name of all citizens of American pioneer stock, hereby repudiate allegiance to any party or organization other than those by their actions pledged to the continuance of the American form of government. That we pledge ourselves and each other to band together as a militant non-partisan organization of white Christian Americans, to do any and all things within our constitutional rights, necessary to eliminate as a force in our national government and national life, all the forces of Communism, Socialism, The Political Rackateer, Gangster and others of the same character.

And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually "pledge to each other, our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor.

Photographed copies of the above mailing list are being maintained in the files of the Richmond Field Division.

Results of the surveillance maintained on the subject by Special Agents ROBERT F. FRY, A. M. O'DONNELL and the writer, together with Detectives H. H. HOLTON and L. R. SAUNDERS, of the Norfolk Police Department, has met with negative results to date and the same has been discontinued. In this regard, it is noted that the subject, throughout the course of the surveillance, made no contacts although he has done considerable letter writing throughout the day. From 7:00 A. M. to 9:00 P. M., the subject stays in his office located in the temporary office buildings of Doyle and Russell, Contractors, at the United States Naval Operating Base. A surveillance of the subject is presently being maintained by the Office of Naval Intelligence. The log of agents' surveillance is being maintained in the files of the Richmond Field Division.

Commander W. A. S. MACKLIN, Office of Naval Intelligence, United States Naval Operating Base, advised that no action is being contemplated against DEATHERAGE until such time as it is established that he is engaged in activities inimical to the best interests of this country. He advised that a surveillance would be maintained on the subject while he is at the Base and that he would advise this office immediately of any developments or information ascertained as a result of this surveillance. Commander MACKLIN was of the opinion that the subject was the type of individual who would "holler persecution" if he was dismissed from the Base and, therefore, he thought it best to wait, pending further developments.

Commander C. J. GASS, Office of Naval Intelligence, United States Naval Operating Base, turned over to the writer a considerable amount of material received from the American Jewish Committee at New York City. Commander GASS stated that he expected to receive a greater volume of material concerning the activities of the subject at a later date and would make the same available to agent for his perusal. He advised that no action is being contemplated against the subject at this time.

On July 10, 1941, a thirty-day mail cover was placed on all mail addressed to the subject at 617 West Ocean View Avenue, through the cooperation of Mr. L. S. BUCKING, Superintendent of the mails at the Ocean View Sub-Station of the Post Office, and the Bureau was so advised.

ENCLOSURES: To the Bureau

THE KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE CAMELLIA

The Knights of the White Camellia was established in 1867. It has been learned that immediately following the Civil War the Knights of the White Camellia was formed for the purpose of re-establishing the supremacy of the white minority in the South. Its numerical strength was reported to exceed two million members and was regarded as the largest and most militant organisation during the time immediately subsequent to the Civil War. The objects of the organization having been accomplished subsequent to the Civil War, the organization itself was temporarily disbanded. It has, however, been reorganized and revitalized and is reported to have been incorporated under the laws of the State of West Virginia since 1935. This revitalization was under the guidance of George E. Deatherage who became its titular head. The National Headquarters are presently located at Post Office Box 467, St. Albans, West Virginia, which is also the mailing address of Deatherage in his other activities. The present organization like the original one maintains its membership secret.

The incorporators of the Knights of the White Camellia are said to be George E. Deatherage, C. H. Barton, W. H. Tischer, George Peakes and George Baldwin. (617559-5789)

AIMS AND PURPOSES

The immediate object and purpose of the Knights of the White Camellia is anti-Semitism and anti-Communism as an organization. It denies, however, that it is in any way endeavoring to promote or invite religious prejudice. Based upon the assertion that the major political parties have failed and are unable to do anything for the constructive welfare of our people, and having bowed to the power of the purse as wielded by the international Jew, a realignment of the political forces within the nation and a purge of selfishness and greed is necessary. To bring this about it urges a reversion to the fundamental principles of the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. To further which they have set forth the following "Fundamental Principles."

1. Members re-assert their belief in individual and national honor as the only basis on which a happy, free and unified people may reach our ideals of personal security, welfare, freedom, and peace.

2. Members maintain that this nation consists of a unified group of Aryan peoples, settled in the land of their fathers, having a common racial and cultural growth, and they re-assert their belief in the principle of a Militant Nationalism to preserve this heritage.

3. Members stand always for individual and national liberty, and repudiate any suppression or interference with the freedom of conscience or worship, provided always that the practical application of this freedom does not tend to destroy the Christian national philosophy of life and public order.

In addition, certain further aims and ideals are set forth which in effect urge the blending and fusing of the American people, the stoppage of immigration, the awakening of Nationalism, and the suppression and ultimate segregation of the Jews. The Knights of the White Camellia publicise themselves as offering a "militant opportunity to Aryan Americans." As part of this program the white Aryan-born Americans are pledged to fight Jewish Communism and International Zionism, the so-called religion of the Jew. This organization asserts that International Zionism is not in reality a religion in the Christian understanding, but a political faith, whose whole purpose is the destruction of Christianity and the complete domination of the world by the Jews, as they now dominate and own Russia, France, Spain, and Mexico.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership in the Knights of the White Camellia "is limited to males of white Aryan racial stock who are citizens of the United States and who are firm believers in the Christian principles upon which this nation was founded.

"Each member is required to take an oath that is in keeping with these principles and to be prepared to defend them to their last drop of blood. We have no room for cowards.

"No individual holding political office or standing for election as such, shall hold membership in the organization."

The movement is confined almost entirely to the State of West Virginia and perhaps to a small part of Southern Ohio. It is reported that one symbol of membership is the placing of a Waltham watch sticker on store windows and in windows of automobiles. The other and principal symbol is the White Camellia. The organization centers itself entirely around the person of George Deatherage. Information confidentially obtained is to the effect that Deatherage claims a membership of approximately 10,000 persons. This statement, however, is without verification. Although a militant organization, the members of the Knights of the White Camellia reportedly receive no military training.

OFFICERS

George E. Deatherage

George E. Deatherage was the originator of the organization presently known as the Knights of the White Camellia. He resides with his brother-in-law, C. R. Barton, in the residential district of St. Albans, West Virginia, known as College Hill, and maintains his office at that point. He is approximately fifty years of age and was born of American parents, the claim being made that his ancestors have been in this country for more than one hundred years. His father was born at Bowling Green, Kentucky, and his mother at Laredo, West Virginia. The father of Deatherage was connected with The American Car and Foundry as a foreman in the Forge Shop, located at Huntington, West Virginia, about fifty years ago. When the firm was enlarged the father of Deatherage was sent to Duluth, Minnesota, where Deatherage himself was born. He attended the Minnesota Technical College at Duluth, which school is now out of existence, and later finished an engineering course with the International Correspondence Schools. At one time he was general foreman of the Duluth, Minnesota, Steel Company, which position he gave up in 1916. Subsequently he worked for one year for the MacKenzie Railroads in Canada and was subsequently "loaned" to the India Iron and Steel Company with offices in London, England.

Deatherage proceeded to London where he worked for this firm until after the termination of the World War. In this capacity he traveled extensively in Europe.

For five and a half years Deatherage was General Superintendent of the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corporation, South Charleston, West Virginia. In 1936 he severed his connections with this Corporation, at which time he was making a salary of $10,000 per year. The reason for the severance of his employment was the fact that officials of the firm received notice of Deatherage's statements with reference to the Jewish race. The firm officials gave him the opportunity of discontinuing his writings or the retention of his position. Deatherage chose to continue his anti-Semitic undertakings and was, therefore, released from the firm's employment.

Deatherage then obtained a position with the California Chemicals Company at Palo Alto, California, where he remained for a period but ultimately severed his connections with this firm allegedly because his activities on behalf of the Knights of the White Camellia became so extensive that he could not give his attentions to both undertakings and preferred the latter.

Deatherage is reported to be presently employed as Inspector in Charge of the Defense Council Housing Plan at Charleston, West Virginia. During November of 1939, it was publicly announced by Deatherage that he had resigned his position as national commander of the Knights of the White Camellia which position he had held for the past four years. Deatherage is not known to possess a criminal record. He is described as well poised, self-confident and apparently well read. He has been referred to on occasions as the most dangerous Fascist in America.

RADICAL ACTIVITIES AND CONNECTIONS

To understand the radical activities sponsored by the Knights of the White Camellia, the statements of George E. Deatherage are indicative of its plans and methods of operation. He has explained that the character of this organization is anti-Communist and anti-Jewish. He is opposed to the New Deal Administration, inasmuch as he considers it Socialistic and Communistic in objective and controlled by the Jews. It is his belief that there is a Communist drive to overthrow the American Government. He is opposed to the Jewish race and to members of the race, stating that while there are individual Jews who are good citizens, as a race they are undesirable. It is further his belief that such individuals as the Retired General Van Horn Moseley and Father Coughlin are allying themselves with the growing feeling against the Jews.

Henry D. Allen, who is associated with numerous anti-Semitic and so-called vigilante organizations in the United States and who is well acquainted with Deatherage, has declared that Deatherage is definitely militaristic in his views, being anxious to organize a strong military unit which can be brought into action in the time of a national crisis. He also informed that Deatherage used the swastika as his emblem.

Deatherage is reported to lean toward the Hitler type of dictatorship, and since he is the driving force behind the Knights of the White Camellia, he has obviously used this organization as a mode of transit for this ideal. In this connection he has been known on occasions to attend what are termed as "Council Meetings" in Washington, D. C., of Silvershirt representatives, and is reported to be a member of the inner circle of all Fascist groups in America. He has used the organization to distribute the literature of William Dudley Pelley and James True, well-known Fascists and anti-Semites.

At one time the official organ of the Knights of the White Camellia was put out by Deatherage in a pamphlet entitled "The White Knight." The publication of this pamphlet was at Charleston, West Virginia, by the Knights Organization Associates, Incorporated, and was allegedly non-sectarian, non-partisan, and militantly constitutional American. Its editor on one occasion was Ronald B. Beall, while on another was Howard J. Carson. It appears that the first issue of "The White Knight" was that which appeared on August 15, 1936, and which was styled "The Jew Deal Issue." It was published under the authority of "The Knights of the White Camellia, Copyrighted 1936 by Knights Organization Associates, Inc." The only other issue of "The White Knight" known to have been published is that dated September, 1936, styled "The Christian American Issue," which deals to a large extent with the allegation that the Russian Revolution was financed by international Jewry.

As an indication of its radical connections, the August 15, 1936 issue of "The White Knight" acknowledged their appreciation for the services of Elizabeth Dilling, James True, Michael Aherne and Robert Edward Edmondson. Elizabeth Dilling is the author of two books entitled "The Red Network" and "The Roosevelt Red Record and Its Background." James True is the head of the James True Associates, an anti-Semitic and anti-Communist organization located in Washington, D. C. Michael Aherne is co-author of "The Handout" a comprehensive survey of what the Dole really is. Edmondson is reported as a publicist, and economist, publishing a weekly service "replete with condensed facts about the Communistic Jew."

"The Jew Deal Issue" of "The White Knight" is devoted to an expose of the leading Jewish officials in the United States Government.

Deatherage is also the head of an organization known as the American Nationalist Confederation, a coalition of Christian anti-Communist organizations. It is understood that this body was formed in August, 1937, at Kansas City, Missouri, by representatives of the various patriotic organizations who believe an amalgamation of such patriotic groups to be essential. At this meeting George Deatherage was appointed the leader of the body. From a confidential source it is reported that the purpose of this new organization was not the obtaining of new members, but the amalgamation of various patriotic societies, having common aims and common purposes. It has been confidentially learned that this organization has not had a great deal of success.

In this regard, it is to be noted that advertisement of literature that could be obtained from the American Nationalist Confederation appeared in "World Service," a pamphlet published in Frankfurt, Germany. "World Service" is a strongly anti-Semitic foreign news service mailed to anti-Semitic publications and organizations in the United States from Germany. With further reference to "World Service" it is reported that in the summer of 1938 the Ministry of Propaganda and Public Enlightenment through Doctor Goebbels, its head, invited Deatherage to attend a conference of foreign agents of the "World Service," a notorious Nazi propaganda organization. Accepting the invitation, Deatherage went to Erfurt, Germany, the former headquarters of "World Service," where the conference was held. Introduced as an American delegate, he delivered a talk to the Nazis and pro-Nazis assembled by Goebbels. His theme was "Will America be the Jews' Waterloo?" In his testimony before the Dies Committee, in May, 1939, Deatherage admitted his link with the Fascists of Italy but did not tell the committee of his trip to Erfurt, Germany. He said that he had a "hazy recollection" that he had once made a speech or prepared an article with the title used in Erfurt, but tried to make it appear that he had merely sent a copy of such a speech or article to the Nazis without necessarily actually making the trip to the German Reich. He did not dispute the fact that the Nazis widely distributed the speech in its printed form.

To assist him in his two undertakings, the Knights of the White Camellia and the American Nationalist Confederation, Deatherage is reported to have been assisted by one V. M. Kositsin, who is reportedly a Russian.

It has been disclosed that George Deatherage has connections with the German-American Bund, the Silvershirts, the Britons (an organization in England headed by Henry Hamilton Beamish), American Liberty Party (headed by Frank Clark of Tacoma, Washington, a disgruntled Silvershirt), Militant Christian Patriots, American League for Christian Women, James True Associates and the Mexican Nationalist movement or Gold Shirts.

A total of some twenty-five different publications are known to be distributed by Deatherage in connection with the above two organizations. It has also been disclosed that an article by George Deatherage appeared in the official organ of the German-American Bund, The Deutscher Weckruf und Beobachter, for May 12, 1937, concerning the American Nationalist Confederation. An announcement was made that Deatherage would be the principal speaker at the November 16, 1937, meeting of the New York local of the German-American Bund. Deatherage is reported to have discontinued his publications, to have publicly resigned his position as head of the Knights of the White Camellia, which step was reportedly taken in an effort to place himself above any single group, and thus facilitate his super-organizational efforts at the unification of all the fascistic forces of the United States. It was reliably determined that on the evening of August 23, 1939, Deatherage was the principal speaker at a large meeting of the Christian Mobilizers attended by approximately five thousand people in Bronx, New York. Fritz Kuhn also spoke at this meeting, and approximately sixty members of the uniformed order of the German-American Bund were also in attendance. (97-649-10)

ORGANIZATION

The skeleton organization of the Knights of the White Camellia provides that a Castle or Post be created in every community within the nation, comprising not more than ten members. Each Castle or Post has a Commander selected by secret ballot, who in turn elects both State and National officers. It is pointed out that in an organization of this type it is not possible for any one member to belong other than his own immediate group.

A fee of $2.00 is required to accompany each application for membership. Dues of $1.00 per quarter are required; one-half of which is retained by the local Castle and the balance remitted to the National Headquarters. There are no uniforms or regalia charges. (Quarterly Report, November 1940)

No information is available to the effect that the Knights of the White Camellia is operating in any manner at the present time. An article which appeared in the Herald-Dispatch, Huntington, West Virginia, on November 3, 1938, stated Featherage had announced his resignation as National Commander of the Knights of the White Camellia and quoted Featherage as stating, "We can't stop whatever is going to happen even if we try, because the situation is in a terrible mess. What is the use of my trying to stop something that can't be stopped?" The article also stated that the command of the Knights of the White Camellia had been given to J. E. Martin of Houston, Texas. (61-7560-3754X)

Featherage advised a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on January 29, 1941, that the Knights of the White Camellia was originally founded over seventy years ago, that its purpose at the present time is to drive Communism from the United States, that it did not advocate the use of force or violence. [illegible] was a proven fact that the Jews were behind all the revolutions in Russia, Germany, England, France and Mexico, that neither he nor the Knights of the White Camellia nor any member had ever had anything to do with any foreign government or organization, although he admitted having received anti-Semitic propaganda from Germany and subsequent distribution of that literature in the United States by him. He also stated that this literature had on occasion been solicited by him, but that a great deal of it was sent to him without any request on his part. Deatherage stated to the interviewing Special Agent that he challenged anyone to find anything in this literature which advocated the overthrow of the United States Government, that the Knights of the White Camellia had never accepted any money from anyone connected with a foreign power or any American organization except dues paid by its various members, that he is not presently actively connected with the Knights of the White Camellia but holds an honorary life membership. Deatherage concluded by stating that the Knights of the White Camellia are inactive at the present time, due to the realization that that organization made a mistake in assuming that the American people would awaken if told of the Jewish menace to the country. (97-649-25)

References to Deatherage and the activities of the Knights of the White Camellia are reflected on the following pages of the report of the special committee on un-American activities of the House of Representatives: Volume II, page 1175; Volume III, pages 2243, 2288, 2346, 2369, 2385; Volume IV, pages 3271, 3272, 3273, 3277, 3351, 3455, 3543 inclusive, 3571, 3573, 3616, 3622, 3698.

The report of Special Agent John E. Kissner, Richmond, Virginia, dated August 8, 1941.

The report of Special Agent W. E. Dence, San Antonio, Texas, dated September 1, 1941.

There are also enclosed photostatic copies of the enclosures mentioned in the report of Special Agent John E. Kissner, Richmond, Virginia, dated August 8, 1941.

It would appear from a study of the Voorhis Act that in order to convict an organization thereunder, information must be developed which indicates that the organization is in one of the following listed categories:

1. That the organization is receiving financial help from, or is affiliated directly or indirectly with, or has its policy determined or executed at the suggestion of or in collaboration with a foreign government, political subdivision thereof, or an agency or instrumentality of a foreign government or political subdivision thereof, or with a political party in a foreign country, or an international political organization, and has for its aim or purpose the control by force or overthrow of the Government of the United States, or a political subdivision thereof, or any state or political subdivision thereof.

2. That the organization is receiving financial help from, or is affiliated directly or indirectly with, or has its policy determined or executed at the suggestion of or in collaboration with a foreign government, political subdivision thereof, or an agency or instrumentality of a foreign government or political subdivision thereof, or with a political party in a foreign country, or an international political organization, and is giving or prescribing instruction in the use of firearms or other weapons, or in military or naval science, or is receiving instruction in military or naval science, or engaging in military or naval maneuvers, or further that it is engaging with or without firearms in drills or parades of a military or naval character.

3. That the organization is giving or prescribing instruction in the use of firearms or other weapons, or in military or naval science, or is receiving instruction in military or naval science, or engaging in military or naval maneuvers, or further that it is engaging with or without firearms in drills or parades of a military or naval character, and has for its aim or purpose the control by force or overthrow of the Government of the United States, or a political subdivision thereof, or any state or political subdivision thereof.

4. That the organization has for its aim or purpose the establishment, control, conducting, seizure, or overthrow of the Government or a political subdivision thereof, by use of force, violence or military measures, or by threats of force, violence or military measures.

Will you please advise me whether you have any other interpretation of this act as to the types of organizations which must register.

In addition to the reports which are mentioned heretofore, I also submitted to you a memorandum on July 24, 1941, covering the Knights of the White Camellia and George Deatherage, which individual and organization were listed among the fifty odd organizations and individuals in my previous memorandum to you indicating possible violators of the Voorhis Act.

It is my desire to afford Voorhis Act investigations as expeditious attention as possible. You realize, of course, that the shortage of Bureau investigative personnel makes it highly desirable to limit investigations to those matters which seem the most important. Voorhis Act investigations are of necessity going to entail a considerable amount of detailed work, and demand a great amount of investigative attention. For this reason, before any investigation is initiated in response to your memorandum of August 26, requesting investigation of the above entitled matter, it would be appreciated if you would review my memorandum of July 24, together with the herewith enclosed material, and then render me an opinion as to whether you believe, as a result of the information secured to date, that Deatherage or his organizations come within any of the provisions of the Voorhis Act, as outlined above, or within any other provisions which you feel are not covered in the outline above. Further, if you believe this individual or his organizations are possibly violating the Voorhis Act, in order to limit the investigative time which will be necessary to conduct a thorough investigation of this matter, I believe it would be possible from the information which is presently being submitted for you to advise me the particular section of the act your Division feels this organization is or has possibly violated.

I therefore desire the expression of an opinion from you in this regard.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover

MEMORANDUM FOR J. EDGAR HOOVER,

DIRECTOR, FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Re: Knights of the White Camellia
American Nationalist Confederation
George E. Deatherage

With further reference to our memorandum dated May 3, 1941 requesting information pertaining to various organizations mentioned in your memorandum to us dated November 29, 1940, and the memoranda sent to us with reference to the above organizations under date of July 24, 1941, we now request an investigation of the above named organizations and individual, and the assistance of your Bureau in obtaining for us certain specific information at the earliest convenient date. This investigation and specific information are needed especially in connection with possible prosecutive action under the Voorhis Act by reason of the failure of the above organization to register, but other statutes may also be applicable.

Your memorandum of July 24, 1941 describes these organizations with considerable detail. It appears that these organizations are functioning under the leadership of George E. Deatherage and that the organizations, as well as Deatherage, have consistently followed a profascist policy, and have been the means of distribution of subversive pamphlets and publications to a substantial constituency.

Your references to the activities of these organizations as reflected in the report of a Special Committee on un-American Activities of the House of Representatives, indicate that they are national organizations with branches in various parts of the country. At pages 3471 and 3472 of the testimony given, the Knights of the White Camellia was stated to be a membership secret organization with chapters in all sections of the country except New England. It also appears at page 3473 that Deatherage discussed with Kuhn of the German-American Bund international communism, and that he exchanged pamphlets and other publications with governmental propaganda agencies in Germany as well as Italy. Deatherage prepared an article entitled "Will America Be Jewry's Waterloo?" which was circulated from Erfurt, Germany. (Pages 3493-4) It is also indicated that he had in mind a military organization.(Page 3498) Deatherage had made personal visits to the German Consulate in San Francisco and to the German Embassy at Washington. (Pages 3529-31)

The following enumeration calls for the principal elements of information and documentary data with which we desire to be furnished at this time:

A. Organization Structure

1. Certified copies of certificates of incorporation, constitutions, by-laws, and amendments thereto.

2. Addresses of principal offices, names and location of all branches.

3. Names and addresses of present officers, trustees and directors of the national organizations and all branches, as well as those who have served since 1938.

4. Names and addresses of employees and agents of the parent and branch units and character and length of their employment.

5. Particulars of citizenship of each of the above persons; present business or occupation, name of employer, length of employment and salary; details on financial condition of these officers, agents and employees, including bank accounts, ownership of stocks, bonds and other assets.

B. Membership

6. Requisites for membership and application form; oaths or pledges required of candidates, character of installation, initiation and ritual.

7. Membership cards.

8. Amount of dues or assessments and how payable.

9. Membership lists with addresses of members and particulars, as requested in subsection 5 hereof, of at least the leading members of each group.

C. Management

10. Itemization of all income and origin of all assets, including contributions from all sources and dues, especially income derived from foreign sources, directly or indirectly.

11. Itemization of all expenditures, i. e., operating expenses, officers' salaries, funds expended for publicity, publications, movies and radio broadcasts, uniforms and equipment, or for the staging of demonstrations or pageants; funds paid to other organizations or agencies; all expenditures made to a foreign government or an agency thereof, directly or indirectly.

D. Activities

12. Places and times of meetings; whether open or secret; purpose, character and attendance of meetings; salutes used, oaths or declarations recited, flags or symbols used; speeches or addresses made at meetings, with names and affiliation of persons delivering them; uniforms worn, drills, marches, calisthenics, military maneuvers, or other organized group movements; character of instruction given to members; all other activities of the above organizations and their branches.

13. Radio and newspaper tie-up, if any; samples of manuals, pamphlets or other printed material utilized by the organizations should be obtained if possible, with information as to the source, i. e., where printed, when and by whom compiled or written. Minutes or full reports of meetings should also be obtained, if possible.

E. Foreign Control

14. All activities of the organizations and their chapters that may be carried on, either directly or indirectly in collaboration with, under the direction or with the assistance of, any agent or agency of a foreign government and any correspondence passed between such agencies and the organizations.

We have under consideration the recommendation of proceedings at an early date with regard to the above organization, and we would therefore appreciate as early a response as practicable in this matter.

U. S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE : 1941—O-281888

GERALD B. WINROD has been active for many years in disseminating anti-Jewish propaganda. He operates a publishing business controlled by himself, GERALD POPE and Mrs. M. L. FLOWERS.

WINROD'S wife in a statement to the Wichita, Kansas Police Department advised that GERALD WINROD is very pro-Nazi and aspires to be a dictator of the United States when the revolution occurs.

It was reported that WINROD was visited in Wichita, Kansas by FRITZ KUHN(former head of the German-American Bund)during the summer of 1939.

WINROD receives mail from Germany and has written many articles showing pro-Nazi sympathies.

Several individuals who have known WINROD for many years consider him mentally unbalanced.

The main publication issued by WINROD is "THE DEFENDER", a publication strongly anti-Jewish and considered to be pro-Nazi in sympathies. Many of the articles appearing the past several years in this publication reflect ideas similar to those expressed by ADOLF HITLER in HITLER'S book MEIN KAMPH, e.g.: "All ills can be traced to International Jewery."

GERALD B. WINROD is presently residing at 2515 East First Street, Wichita, Kansas.

On page 7 of the referenced report, it was noted that among the papers of the Subject is a pamphlet entitled: "AMERICA'S LITTLE HITLERS" written by ROY TOZIER and published by E. HALDEMEN JULIUS, Girard, Kansas.

A review of the Kansas City files in connection with ROY TOZIER reflects he is associated with THE FRIENDS OF DEMOCRACY, INC., and is an associate of the Reverend BIRKHEAD, who is the operator of THE FRIENDS OF DEMOCRACY, Inc.

ROY TOZIER is presently in New York City, Suite 714, 103 Park Avenue, and was at one time an informant of the Kansas City Field Office.

THE FRIENDS OF DEMOCRACY, INC., through ROY TOZIER and Reverend BIRKHEAD, collect newspapers and publications from all Fascist and Nazi organizations in the United States, and in all probability that is why ROY TOZIER appears in the papers of GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE.

It should be stated that THE FRIENDS OF DEMOCRACY, INC. is extremely anti-Fascist and anti-Nazi in their activities, although there is some indication that the organization might have decided leanings towards Communism.

On page 68 of the referenced report it was noted the organization DEFENDERS OF CHRISTIAN FAITH appears with the name G. B. WINROD, Wichita, Kansas.

DEFENDERS OF CHRISTIAN FAITH

The orgainzer and leader is Reverend GERALD B. WINROD, a Protestant minister at Wichita, Kansas. Associated with him is Reverend E. F. WEBBER, 207 West 2nd Street, Oklahoma City, who was formerly an active speaker for the SILVER SHIRTS and an organizer for the Nazi party in the state of New Jersey. Also associates are WILLIAM WAULKHAUSER, LELIA V. WEBBER and IDA LANNING, all of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

The official organ is a magazine called "THE DEFENDER."

In 1936 WINROD established an office in Washington, D.C., for his National Christian Party, and headquarters for a printing plant in charge of DAN GILBERT of of San Diego, California, a former Silver Shirt organizer. That office was subsequently closed because of lack of funds.

The DEFENDERS OF CHRISTIAN FAITH for the past several years through GERALD B. WINROD have propounded extremely pro-Nazi and anti-Semetic ideas.

On page 69 of the referenced report was noted the name PRESTON DUNN, Eskridge, Kansas, American Legion leader.

In Kansas City File 61-163 entitled: "GERALD B. WINROD, INTERNAL SECURITY - G" in Serial 16 the following information appears:

PRESTON DUNN, Emporia, Kansas, has been active with GERALD B. WINROD and also is in a high office of the American Legion and is alleged to be strongly anti-Jewish.

On page 70 of referenced report, appears the name DAN A. CASEMENT, Manhattan, Kansas, Fascist, Farmers Independence Council of America.

The files of the Kansas City Field Division were searched in connection with the Farmers Independence Council, with negative results.

In connection with DAN A. CASEMENT, the following information appears in Kansas City File 100-2216, in a letter dated July 12, 1941, from H. J. DAVENPORT, Rural Route #3, Osage City, Kansas.

There has been some organized opposition to the farm program and seems to be headed by DAN CASEMENT and a Mr. CLAYTON CLINE, a Topeka, Kansas attorney. These men have been holding organized protest meetings at various places over the State, causing considerable trouble.

There seems to be a lot of money being spent by someone. We are wondering if these meetings and the trouble they are stirring up could be sponsored by some un-American or some Nazi Agent."

In connection with the above quoted letter, no investigation has been made because of the non-specific nature of the complaint, although H. J. DAVENPORT by letter dated July 17, 1941 was requested to furnish the Kansas City Office with acts or utterances on the part of those individuals in question and it was also requested that Mr. DAVENPORT furnish any other specific information he might have. To date, there has been no reply from Mr. H. J. DAVENPORT.

On page 7 of the referenced report, it was noted that the booklet entitled: "AMERICA'S LITTLE HITLERS" written by ROY TOZIER was published by E. HALDEMAN-JULIUS of Girard, Kansas.

EMANUEL JULIUS came to Girard, Kansas, about twenty-five years ago from New York City. He married MARCELL HALDEMAN, daughter of a local banker in Girard, Kansas. Both he and his wife under the name JULIUS-HALDEMAN in connection with a printing establishment founded twenty years ago in Girard, Kansas, which business is primarily engaged in the publishing and mail order sale of the "Little Blue Books" @ 5¢ each, resided at Girard, Kansas.

EMANUEL JULIUS is president of the company and up to February 13, 1941, he was assisted by his wife MARCELL, who died on that date.

The HALDEMAN-JULIUS COMPANY at one time made a considerable amount of money. In the early 1920's EMANUEL JULIUS obtained national notoriety over his suggestion of companionate marriages. He is generally regarded as a play-boy, who has been involved in numerous escapades with night club performers in the vicinity of Joplin, Missouri. He does not have the respect of local business man and is quite a publicity seeker.

In December 1940 he offered to pay $1000.00 plus all expenses to anyone who would bomb HITLER.

The above concern publishes what his known as the LITTLE BLUE BOOKS, which cover every sort of subject. These books as above indicated sell for 5¢ each each. Some of the subjects dealt with are as follows:

SEX, LOVE, PASSION, SELF IMPROVEMENT
SOCIAL PROBLEMS, HEALTH, SPORTS, SCIENCE, PHILOSOPHY, RELIGION, etc.
in fact, practically any subject.

Up to date this office has developed no specific information reflecting that EMANUEL JULIUS is talking or acting in a manner inimical to the interests of the United States. He has been known to express his sympathy in behalf of the Communist Party, but since the Russian invasion of Finland seems to have lost his Communistic sympathies.

Publications of the above company operated by HALDEMAN-JULIUS are regarded as more socialistic than of a Communistic nature.

On Page 72 of the referenced report appears the name GERMAN-AMERICAN LEAGUE, Kansas City, Missouri. A search of the files of the Kansas City office was made with negative results. In connection with this, the Kansas City office has recently conducted an investigation to ascertain the existence and activity of German-American groups and from investigation the only German-American organizational activity to any excess is the GERMAN HOUSE, Kansas City, Missouri(K.C. File #65-265, entitled: GERMAN HOUSE, INTERNAL SECURITY - G).

At the present time the only German-American activity ascertained is of a social nature in Kansas City, Missouri, which is centered in the German House, which in turn is sponsored by several German-American groups, primarily engaged in social and German cultural activities.

On page 77 of the referenced report appears the name H. D. KISSENGER, 1117 Gloyd Building, Kansas City, Missouri.

In K.C.File #100-92, entitled HERMAN DICK KISSENGER, INTERNAL SECURITY - G, the following information appears:

KISSENGER is an attorney in Kansas City, Missouri, who has been writing articles for German, as well as English, language newspapers and also publications expressing pro-Germanism. He is antagonistic toward Great Britain, President ROOSEVELT and the Jews and has upheld Germany in the present conflict.

In 1939 KISSENGER endeavored to form an organization known as the National American Patriots. A list of correspondents and papers to which KISSENGER had submitted his articles was obtained, and reflects KISSENGER had correspondence with many known pro-Nazi individuals and organizations throughout the United States.

KISSENGER is on friendly terms with GERALD B. WINROD of Wichita, Kansas. He has had correspondence with CHARLES E. COUGHLIN, HANS LUTHER, German Embassy, Washington, D.C. and H. VON STREMPEL, German Embassy, Washington, D.C. and Dr. FRANZ KOEMPEL, President of the American Committee for German Relief Fund, 331 Madison Avenue, New York City.

In Serial 28 of K.C.File #100-92 it is reflected that on November 5, 1940, WILHELM KUNZE, German-American Bund leader and GEORGE FROBOESE were arrested for carelsss driving at Columbia, Missouri, and at that time KISSENGER'S name was found among their papers.

It should be stated that considerable investigation has been conducted by the Kansas City Office and other Offices of the activities of WILHELM KUNZE and GEORGE FROBOESE, both being very active in the German-American Bund and other German-American activities in the United States.

U. S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE : 1941 — O - 281888

File reflected that in the summer of 1940 Dr. THORNING spent three months surveying social and economic conditions in the far East. Dr. THORNING is presently the Director of the Social Science Department of Mount St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, Maryland and is a noted author on Spain.

The Baltimore file further reflects that the New York Times of November 12, 1940, Page 9 Column 5, under the headlines "SEES PERILOUS TREND TO BEFRIEND RUSSIA" and sub-Headline "Professor THORNING assails Oumansky's Ghoulish Feast", the following article appeared:

"Westminster, Md., Nov. 11 - Declaring that the press, with a few exceptions, had begun to 'soft pedal the Soviet policy of aggressive imperialism', Dr. Joseph F. Thorning, Professor of Sociology at Mount St. Mary's College, warned in an address here today, that "no illusion could be more dangerous " to American than a belief that Soviet foreign policy could become an asset for the democracies. He spoke before the International Relations Club of Western Maryland College.

"Dr. Thorning quoted a Washington dispatch printed in the 'New York Times' of Nov. 8 telling about hundreds of officials attending a reception given at the Soviet Embassy by the Ambassador and Mme. Constantine A. Oumansky in celebration of the Russian Revolution of 1917, and reporting that, in contrast to a poorly attended reception at the embassy a year ago, 'today friendliness was evident on all sides'.

"The Professor denounced the reception as 'a ghoulish feast', and added:

'Why this rush of friendlessness for the world's worst autocracy? On what grounds has Hitler's silent partner suddenly achieved respectability? Stalin and the Nazi dictator are brothers under the skin. Both preach and practice world revolution.

'I denounce the new reapprochement with Soviet Russia and Stalin as a mockery of justice as well as an insult to the memory of those millions who have been barborously murdered by the OGPU.

'We want no Hitlerian opportunism in America, etc.'"

An additional article in the New York Times dated April 19, 1940 Page 11 Column 5, is as follows:

"Hits Jackson's Action in Spanish War Case. Dr. Thorning Demands Through Inquiry of Soviet 'Recruiting.'"

"Westminster, Md., April 18 - Charges that 'flimsy and illogical' reasons were given by Attorney General Jackson in moving to dismiss sixteen indictments in Detroit for conspiracy to recruit men for the Leftist Army during the Spanish Civil War, were made today by Dr. Joseph F. Thorning, etc."

The article continued with a blast against Communism.

Bureal letter dated August 12, 1940 to the Baltimore Field Division reflected the following information. [redacted] b7D

[redacted] This letter further reflects that on February 19, 1939 Dr. THORNING spoke at the 107th Infantry Regiment Armory in New York City. That this speech was under the auspices of the General Committee for Americanism and Neutrality. The general tenor of this meeting indicated it was held for the purpose of developing sentiment for recognition of the Franco Government in Spain. The meeting itself was under the leadership of MERWIN K. HART, president of the New York State Economic Council, and that HART and the Council are considered Fascist.

The Bureau letter further reflects that prior to 1933 when Dr. PAUL SCHWARZ was the German Consul in New York he mentioned THORNING to a confidential informant of the Bureau as being one of the people doing propoganda work in the United States.

The letter further reflects that in 1933 THORNING was connected with Colonel EDWIN EMERSON in disseminating Nazi propoganda in the United States. In 1934 THORNING was discovered by the investigators of the McCORMICK-DICKSTEIN Committee as being the real author of the "Vollbehr Memoranda". These memoranda are said to be on file with the State Department, and they were made of essentially Nazi propoganda on behalf of the new Hitler Regime in Germany.

Bureau letter further reflected that during the Spanish Civil War THORNING was considered one of the chief Franco propogandists in the United States. That THORNING was the moving spirit behind the Franco magazine called "Spain".

It should be noted that the Baltimore File on DR. THORNING is in a closed status at the present time.

Reference is made to the report of Special Agent James G. Findlay, Los Angeles, California, dated September 9, 1941, which refers this case upon completion to the office of origin.

A review of the Bureau's file reflects that this case was improperly referred upon completion to the office of origin in view of the fact that the first undeveloped lead as set out in this report is for all Field Divisions. Reference report covers the leads that were specifically set out for the Los Angeles Field Division, but does not cover the lead as was set out for all Field Divisions.

It is therefore my desire that this case be reopened in your office and the additional investigation conducted.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover
Director

Office since the fall of 1938. However, the investigation has been closed in the Los Angeles Office for several months under instructions from the Bureau.

In the report of reference EARL B. POWELL, 135 South Grand Avenue, Los Angeles, California is named as a party who has been receiving literature from subject GEORGE DEATHERAGE.

The Los Angeles Bureau Office has a file on EARL B. POWELL, but it contains nothing of importance. A complaint was made that he was receiving German propaganda material. Investigation failed to substantiate the report, as it was found that the material went to 252 Belmont Street and was not received by POWELL but was destroyed by the proprietor of the rooming house at that address. POWELL is an indigent person, having no regular employment. He is about 50 years of age.

An investigation covering the same matters suggested in the report of reference was made relative to HENRY D. ALLEN, CONRAD CHAPMAN, and Madame DE SCHISMEREFF, alias Mrs. LESLIE FRY, as is shown in the report of Special Agent E. LEWIS NICHOLS, Los Angeles, California, dated March 24, 1939 entitled "HENRY D. ALLEN, with aliases," Los Angeles File 65-103. As there are several copies of said report in the Los Angeles file, one copy of said report is being forwarded with copies of this report to the Richmond Field Division Office.

CONRAD CHAPMAN, An Englishman, was located for some time in Glendale, California, and was associated with Madame DE SCHISMEREFF, HENRY D. ALLEN, and others in anti-Semitic activity, and the distribution of propaganda literature.

CHAPMAN left Los Angeles about two and one-half years ago and returned to England. About 60 days ago, the Los Angeles Bureau Office received information that CHAPMAN had returned to the United States and was then located at 58 West Cedar Street, Boston, Massachusetts. This information was transmitted by the Los Angeles Bureau Office, but to date no information has been received showing that CHAPMAN has been contacted at that address.

PACQUITA DE SCHISMEREFF, alias Mrs. LESLIE FRY, who has spent much time in Europe, came to Glendale, California some three years ago and was associated with CONRAD CHAPMAN, HENRY D. ALLEN, and others in the distribution of propaganda literature and in making anti-Semitic speeches. Mrs. DE SCHISMEREFF left Los Angeles and vicinity approximately two and one-half years ago and returned to Europe. Information has been received from several sources that she is in Rome, Italy and has been there for the past year or more and is in poor health due to kidney trouble. She has a son, CYRIL DE SCHISMEREFF, who is working for Warner Bros. Motion Picture Studio at the present time and has been so employed for the past three years.

It is believed that the information relative to Madame DE SCHISMEREFF being in Rome, Italy is reliable, as it came from her son and also from other sources.

HENRY D. ALLEN lives in Pasadena, California, and in 1935 and 1936 was very anti-semitic. He was employed at that time by Madame DE SCHISMEREFF, CONRAD CHAPMAN, and others, to make anti-semitic speeches and distribute anti-semitic literature. He was arrested at San Diego, California at the instigation of certain Jewish influences, but was released without trial. ALLEN was subsequently arrested in Los Angeles at the instigation of the same Jewish influences on a charge of illegally voting, in that he had not had citizenship restored to him after having been convicted of at least two felonies. ALLEN was very promptly acquitted by the Jury. He has served two penitentiary terms, one at San Quentin, California, and the other at Folsom, California, as is shown by his criminal record which appears in the report enclosed herewith for the Richmond Field Division.

The matter of the manganese mine at Point Concepcion, Old Mexico has been fully investigated by the Los Angeles Field Division and other Bureau Offices. There is nothing in the investigation that indicates that ALLEN or his associates have sold any manganese ore to anyone in any country other than the United States. All the ore produced that has been marketed has been sold to the Tennessee Eastman Corporation at Kingsport, Tennessee. It appears, however, that ALLEN has sold an interest in said manganese mine to several different persons without making delivery of said interest to the parties making the purchase, and as a result of said sales he has realized in the neighborhood of $75,000, $35,000 of said money having been obtained from four individuals at Sacramento, California. Large sums of money have also been received from certain persons at New Orleans, Louisiana, without receiving anything in return therefor.

The Los Angeles Field Division Office has information from FRED SMITH, Post Office Inspector at Los Angeles, California, that the Post Office Department has been investigation ALLEN for some time and Inspector SMITH informed the reporting agent that the Post Office Department has a good case against ALLEN, and that they are proceeding with said case as speedily as possible. It is expected that the matter will be presented to the Grand Jury in the near future.

Since the investigation has been closed at Los Angeles, and no new features are presented by the report of reference, this matter is being referred upon completion to the office of origin.

"Liquidating the Middle Class". This pamphlet written by HUBERT H. HEATH, is directed against the present Administration, the President and the so called deficit system of financing. The writer's views were that the President was leading the Nation into a dictatorship- and has placed a debt burden upon the country that will never be paid. The article also dealt with the present Selective Service Act, which HEATH was very much against.

Upon interview, Informant A stated that there was in his opinion, strong Communistic views by HEATH and that he based his opinion on the articles written by HEATH and the fact that HEATH had received some copies of the "Daily Worker", a Communist publication, through the mails.

Informant A further stated that HEATH received "The World Outlook", a magazine published in Bremen, Germany; "The Defender", a magazine published opposing the present Administration's aid to Britain and published by REVERAND GERALD WINROD, Wichita, Kansas, and various Townsend Clubs.

Informant A further stated that he was of the opinion that HEATH was a anti-Semetic and an avowed Jew hater but could give the writer no facts on which he believed this other than the printed articles which HEATH had in his newspaper and the ones he had written and distributed.

Informant A advised that HEATH had sent many of his printed articles to Senator RUSH D. HOLT and to Representative HAMILTON FISH; to H. D. KISSINGER, 310 Kuth Building, Kansas City, Missouri; (it being noted that KISSINGER as well as REVERAND GERALD WINROD were on the mailing list in reference report) to R. E. WOODEN, Mayor of Kent, Washington; to Dr. J. THORKELSON, Butte, Montana.

Upon interview of other citizens of Hot Springs, New Mexico, it was ascertained that HEATH was regarded as a loyal American citizen but a rabid Republican, very much against the policies of the present Administration, and a "Crusader" type of printer and publisher.

The foregoing information concerning HUBERT H. HEATH was taken from the report of Special Agent HERBERT S. BROWN, El Paso, Texas dated April 9, 1941, in the case entitled HERBERT H. HEATH, Internal Security-R, El Paso File 100-101.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. J. EDGAR HOOVER,

Re: Knights of the White Camellia
American Nationalist Confederation
George E. Deatherage
Voorhis Act

This is to acknowledge receipt of your memorandum relating to the above matters dated September 20, 1941, enclosing certain reports of your Special Agents in various localities, sent to us in connection with our request dated August 26, 1941.

With reference to the inquiries set forth in said memorandum, the request for this investigation arose upon receipt of your memorandum of July 24, 1941 which enclosed data relating to various organizations, including the subject organization, Knights of the White Camellia under date of July 15, 1941. In that memorandum you state (based upon declarations of Henry D. Allen) that Deatherage, the leader of the said group,

> "is definitely militaristic in his views, being anxious to organize a strong military unit which can be brought into action in the time of a national crisis," and that Deatherage uses a swastika as his emblem. It was further pointed out in your report that

> "Deatherage is reported to lean toward the Hitler type of dictatorship, and since he is the driving force behind the Knights of the White Camellia, he has obviously used this organization as a mode of transit for this ideal. In this connection he has been known on occasions to attend what are termed as 'Council Meetings' in Washington, D.C. of Silvershirt representatives, and is reported to be a member of the inner circle of all Fascist groups in America. He has used the organization to distribute the literature of William Dudley Pelley and James True, well known Fascists and anti-Semites."

In speaking of the American Nationalist Confederation which Deatherage heads, the reports refer to advertisements of literature obtainable from this organization, appearing in "World Service," a paper published in Frankfurt, Germany and mailed to various addressees in the United States. That Deatherage in 1938, at the invitation of Dr. Goebbels, went to Erfurt, Germany, to attend a conference of foreign agents of the "World Service," a notorious Nazi propaganda organization where he delivered a talk. It is further reported that in May 1939, Deatherage admitted before the Dies Committee that he was linked with the Fascists of Italy. It further appears that Deatherage had connections with the German-American Bund and other subversive organizations in America and that he was, on August 29, 1939, the principal speaker at a meeting in the Bronx, New York City, conducted by the Christian Mobilizers and attended by approximately 5,000 people; that Fritz Kuhn also spoke at the meeting, and approximately 60 uniformed Bundists were present. (Pages 7 - 8)

In the confidential memorandum from national headquarters of The American Nationalist Confederation (one of the exhibits enclosed by you), there is a clear indication that the form and structure of the organization was on a military basis with military titles of leaders from Chief of Staff down to Post Commanders. In that very exhibit, it is stated:

"Armed conflict being unavoidable, it is necessary that the Party structure be built around a system of disciplined and unified control . . . . . No army can fight a successful war without that disciplined obedience--and this is war that we are faced with . . . . . ."

"The Military Defense Section shall be similarly organized into its respective charted divisions, namely:

1. Recruiting Division
2. Staff Advisors
3. Judicial Division
4. Administrative Division
5. Officers Training Corps
6. Educational Division
7. Intelligence Division
8. Defense Troops Division

"Details of staff organization will be presented through channels as recruiting and organization proceeds.

"Public parades in uniform shall not be held except on permission from the Leader, and the times at which uniform is to be worn shall have also his approval.

(Signed) National Commander
Staff Headquarters
April 2, 1938"

In another memorandum to us dated November 29, 1940, you included the Knights of the White Camellia in a suggested list of organizations which would appear to come within the purview of the Voorhis Act.

From the statements in said reports and the other supporting data therein, we were and still are of the opinion that these organizations and the activities of Deatherage on their behalf, were of such a character as would indicate, presumptively, at least, that there was a possibility that they violated the Voorhis Act and/or the Foreign Agents Registration Act, or other applicable statutes. There is the strong indication of foreign control and political activity as set forth in subdivision 1 of the Voorhis Act. An investigation may also develop such civilian military activity to bring it within the purview of other subdivisions of the Act. In this connection, your general interpretation of the Voorhis Act seems to coincide with our views thereon, with the exception that in the fourth category you use the word "the" before "Government," whereas the statute uses the word "a," indicating that any Government as distinguished from the Government of the United States was probably intended.

Noting your desire to limit investigations at this time to the most important matters by reason of shortage of personnel, and in realization of the fact that a substantial number of organizations have been submitted to you for investigation in connection with possible Voorhis Act violations, we offer the suggestion that the investigation of the subject organizations be deferred until such time as you find feasible under the circumstances.

Dear Mr. Deatherage:

Your letter of the 14th has been received and I am sorry to say that we have very little about Philip Deatherage in our files.

The will of Robert Deatherage was probated in Culpeper County, Virginia, in 1777 and the inventory of a George Deatherage was recorded in that county in 1792.

In 1773 Philip Deatherage was one of the witnesses of the will of James Sims in Pittsylvania County and I presume this will is recorded at Chatham, the county seat of that county. The only other reference I have found to Philip Deatherage is that he was a Private in the Revolutionary War, and the receipt of his payment for his service appears in the volume which is preserved at the Virginia State Library, this city, and is known as Philip Deatherage War 4, p. 169. If you will send this reference to the Archives Department of the Library, I understand they will send you a copy of what appears for the reference.

Very truly yours,

The names of all persons and organizations on the mailing lists of subjects, as set out in reference report, are being indexed in the Newark Field Division. On Page 76 of report referenced, it is indicated that the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, HAROLD R. HARTMAN, 844 Tulip Street, Camden, N.J., is on the mailing list of subjects.

There is no record of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics in connection with HAROLD R. HARTMAN, in the Newark Files, nor is there any record of HAROLD R. HARTMAN personally. There is however, reference to the Junior Order United American Mechanics, in connection with a speaking engagement fulfilled by Special Agents of the Newark Office, and the connection with one applicant.

In a memorandum submitted by Special Agent R.F. BATCH, on April 22, 1941, Newark 62-0-3490, there is set out that an applicant upon being interviewed had indicated that he was a member of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics. Applicant further stated that this order was organized by mechanics about seventy-five years ago, that the membership requisites included being a native born American and belief in God. The purpose, according to the applicant, was to assist in the adjustment of Immigrants to the United States. He stated further that the mechanics now have absolutely nothing to do with the organization.

In a memorandum submitted by Special Agent J.J. MEEHAN, dated April 28, 1941, Newark file 80-0-7066E, there is set out that Agent MEEHAN on visiting the offices of the Junior Order United American Mechanics, 1 West State Street, Trenton, N.J., noted that the stenographers were apparently Jewesses. In a letter, dated May 2, 1941 to the Special Agent in Charge, Newark, 80-0-7025A, which is signed by WILLIAM C. WAKEFIELD, Director of Relations of the United American Mechanics, above mentioned organization, there is a P.S., "Senator Burton ~~K.~~ Wheeler, is to speak on the 13th, in Trenton, of May under our auspices. Of course this institution is on both sides of an American position ---."

In a letter to the Director, dated May 3, 1941, Newark 80-0-7025B, information is set forth to the effect that Special Agent R.E. LETHERT of the Newark Office, spoke at a meeting of the Junior Order United American Mechanics, on April 30, 1941, Mt. Holly, N.J. The letter further states that it was the opinion of the speaker that this organization was merely using the Bureau to insure a good crowd in an appeal for new members.

In a letter to the Director, dated June 6, 1941, Newark 80-0-7066-G, information is set forth that Special Agent M. MC CULLOUGH, of this office, on May 1st, 1941, delivered an address before a meeting of the Junior Order United American Mechanics, at Somerville, N.J. The letter indicates that the speakers at the meeting stressed the patriotic aims of the society, and that ROSCOE C. WALKER, Chairman of the meeting, stated that the society was a secret, patriotic, educational, benevolent, religious organization, and the letter also set forth the decision of the Newark Office that no further speaking engagements by accepted by this office to appear before this order, for it was apparent that such engagements were only an attempt to use the F.B.I: for the purpose of enlarging there membership.

HORST VON DER GOLTZ, subject of Newark Case 65-2299, recently had a case opened in this office regarding him. He is mentioned variously in the Newark Files. In a letter to the Director, from the N.Y. Field Division, with reference to Subversive activities, General Bureau File #61-7559, from the New York Field Division, dated July 7, 1938, (Newark 65-13-7,) the information was set forth that HORST VON DER GOLTZ is a notorious German Agent that worked during the World War for Germany, and had recently been interviewed by Special Agent GEORGE J. STARR, of the N.Y. Office, in connection with a matter concerning codes. No further information concerning VON DER GOLTZ is set forth in this letter. b7D

Information received from Confidential Informant [redacted] also pertains to VON DER GOLTZ and other persons allegedly passing on the membership of certain subversive organizations. This report is being quoted because of its possible connection with the instant investigation:

" Information has been received that COLONEL WILLIAM SOHIER BRYANT, 30 East 40th Street, New York, New York, an inactive reserve officer and a World War Colonel in the Medical Corps, United States Army, and an associate member of the Military Intelligence Reserve Society, New York City, is co-head of an organization composed of leaders of the German-American Bund, the AMERICAN DESTINY PARTY, CHRISTIAN MOBILIZERS, KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE CAMELLIA, and leading individuals of various other anti-war organizations of pro-Nazi and anti-Semitic character.

It is reported that COLONEL BRYANT passes on all applicants for membership in the organization which he heads and that he is endeavoring to gain adherents to the military establishment in order to gain access to military information and ultimately to obtain arms and military equipment for subversive purposes. In this connection, COLONEL BRYANT sent to the office of G-2, Second Corps Area, to apply for employment as an agent and investigator one CHARLES PICHEL, and ex-convict, who was jailed in Atlanta Penitentiary on a narcotic charge and who was arrested in 1919 for possession of explosives. PICHEL admitted the foregoing when closely questioned. PICHEL was connected with "THE BLUE LAMOO", reported Nazi propagenda agency, and was recently dismissed from employment with the REPUBLIC AIRCRAFT CORPORATION for having forged references with which he obtained the position.

It is further reported that after COLONEL BRYANT examines prospective applicants, another co-leader, HORST VON DER GOLTZ, interrogates them. VON DER GOLTZ is an ex-German spy, member of the AMERICAN DESTINY PARTY, author of two books, "My Adventures as a German Secret Agent" and "Nations at War." He is at present living in New Egypt, New Jersey (vicinity of Camp Dix).

JOSEPH GUY JUENEMANN is frequently used by BRYANT and VON DER GOLTZ as investigator, to verify statements made by applicants, to BRYANT and VON DER GOLTZ. JUENEMANN was a Sergeant in the U.S. Army in World War No. 1, serial number 2521047, and was honorably discharged in July 1919. He is an acquaintance of GEORGE A. DEATHERAGE, president of the ORDER OF THE WHITE CAMELLIA - the latter organization being closely allied to the BUND and AMERICAN DESTINY PARTY - which claims to have Army and Navy officers among its members.

After COLONEL BRYANT and VON DER GOLTZ have passed on applicants, they are referred to Miss THERESA HOLM, 339 East 87th Street, Norwegian by birth. Miss HOLM acts as central liaison officer and is endeavoring to form a New York Clearing house for all subversive groups scattered throughout the country. She is especially interested in Russian ex-officers who had prior experience in civil war and street fighting. Furthermore, Miss HOLM is an active recruiting agent for both AMERICAN DESTINY PARTY and GERMAN-AMERICAN BUND.

CHARLES B. HUDSON, 2304 Fontenelle Blve., Omaha, Nebraska, publisher of "America in Danger," is a friend of Miss HOLM and carries on similar activities in that part of the Country. HUDSON has a friend, CHARLES N. PHILLIPS, P.O.Box 373, Lincoln, Nebraska, editor of "Individualist," an anti-British-aid pamphlet. PHILLIPS is said to have followers in the Nebraska National Guard and some 100 Junior Officers in the Seventh Corps Area.

HUDSON is also friendly with DWIGHT V. JOHNSON, P.O.Box 2642, Dallas, Texas, member of the AMERICAN LEGION and believed to be a member of the GERMAN-AMERICAN BUND. JOHNSON is alleged to have been propagandizing young aviators trained in the United States for service in Canadian forces. He advises them not to proceed to Canada after they have finished the course and obtained flying licenses. He counsels them to enter private industry in lieu thereof. He is further alleged to have stated that he has flown over defense factories between Dallas and Fort Worth, taking pictures of said factories for subversive purposes.

BORIS BRAZOL, 230 Riverside Drive, New York City, member of Coudert Freres, international law firm, 2 Rector Street, New York City, the firm's expert on Russian Law, is in close contact with PICHEL and a FATHER PETER DUFFE (DUFFY), a Franciscan friar, who acts as FATHER COUGHLIN's Eastern representative. BRAZOL is at present being sponsored by COLONEL WILLIAM SOHIER BRYANT.

These various societies and individual are anti-war, anti-Semitic, anti-British, pro-German, and as outlined HEREIN ABOVE an attempt is being made to organize and coordinate them under one central committee, to be located in New York City, apparently under control of COLONEL WILLIAM SOHIER BRYANT and HORST VON DER GOLTZ, with Miss THERESA HOLM acting as liaison agent. Extension of the group's activities into other cities is suspected but not known. "

On Page 3 of reference report it is indicated that S. W. CLARK of the National Liberty Party, had associated himself with the DEATHERAGE organization. CLARK is the subject of Seattle Field Division file #65-106 entitled, "----- WILLIAM CLARK, National Liberty Party, et al, Espionage (G)", and it is noted briefly from that file that the National Liberty Party, according to CLARK, when interviewed by Bureau agent in April of 1939, was founded in the Fall of 1936. CLARK indicated when interviewed that the Party had only one objective and that was to put all moneys and currencies under direct control of the Federal Government for the purpose of taking it away from private Jewish interests. CLARK is definitely anti-Semetic and has been reported at various times as being pro-Nazi.

He was at one time affiliated with the Silver Shirt Legion but resigned his membership because he thought PELLEY was conducting a racket. CLARK has been suspected of being mentally unbalanced and at various times during his career has been treated by physicians as a neurotic. On interview, CLARK indicated that he was an American citizen born in Peekskill, New York, July 11, 1892, and served with the American forces in France, having Army Serial No. 128013.

When founded, according to CLARK, the National Liberty Party had 20 members. It is not known by this office what the membership of this Party is at the present time. The address of the National Liberty Party is given as Post Office Box 326, Tacoma, Washington.

CLARK presently resides at the Imperial Apartments at 919½ South Yakima Avenue, Tacoma, Washington, and is a subject for Custodial Detention in this area.

In connection with the alleged mailing list of subject in instant case, it is known that he has possibly been communicating with a friend named FRED WIDMER of 1121 South 2nd Street, Mount Vernon, Washington. WIDMER is a subject for Custodial Detention in this office and has been investigated in Seattle Field Division file #65-1309 entitled, "FRED WIDMER, wa., Espionage (G)". In commenting briefly on the activities of WIDMER, it should be noted that he owns and operates the Concord Press in Mount Vernon.

the American Legion. The national headquarters of the American Legion are in Indianapolis. Mr. CHAILLAUX is constantly engaged in patriotic endeavors.

FELIX McWHIRTER, Peoples State Bank, Indianapolis, Indiana:

Mr. McWHIRTER is President of the above named bank and for many years has been and presently is very active in civic matters in Indianapolis, particularly those along a patriotic line.

Chief, Box 1477, Indianapolis, Indiana:

'Silvershirts' Pelley - P. O. Box 1776, Asheville, North Carolina:

LEO FINEOUT, 1310 East New York Street, Indianapolis, Indiana:

The real name of this man is LEE R. FINEHOUT, 1310 East New York Street, Indianapolis, Indiana, P. O. Box 669. He is a great admirer of PELLEY's and contributes to the latter's organization. In 1937 FINEHOUT put out a circular signing his name as Captain Commanding, Indiana Vigilantes.

GEORGE HENRY, attorney, Security Trust Building, 130 West Washington Street, Indianapolis, Indiana:

Mr. HENRY has acted as attorney for WILLIAM DUDLEY PELLEY in connection with the latter's establishment of the Fellowship Press at Noblesville, Indiana. Mr. HENRY may not definitely be a Silver Shirt member but at least he is willing to assist Mr. PELLEY with legal advice, believing that PELLEY is correct or that his civil rights need protecting.

CARL LOSCEY, Indianapolis, Indiana:

CARL LOSEY at one time was a member of the Indiana State Patrol. When PELLEY decided to move from Asheville, North Carolina, CARL LOSEY assisted him in obtaining a location at Noblesville, Indiana. LOSEY has denied that he is a Silver Shirts member but at any rate he was sufficiently interested to assist PELLEY. He is an attorney of sorts in Indianapolis.

JAMES E. GRIFFITH, Whiting Times, Whiting, Indiana:

Sometime in 1940 an informant in the northern part of Indiana stated that there is an organization known as World Publishing House at Erfurt, Germany, supposed to be a private concern but actually engaged in Nazi propaganda and subsidized by the Nazi Government. This informant had received information that JAMES E. GRIFFITH of the Whiting Times was friendly with this organization. An investigation developed that GRIFFITH is proprietor of the Ben Franklin Press which publishes the Whiting News weekly and that he had served with Battery D-344, Field Artillery during the First World War and remained in the Army of Occupation in Germany and is a charter member and past commander of Whiting Post #80 of the American Legion. He was born in the United States of Welsh descent and no suspicion of disloyalty attaches to him.

WILLIAM IEWIN, Iewin Trust, Indianapolis:

This apparently refers to WILLIAM IRWIN, one of the most prominent and wealthy citizens of Columbus, Indiana, connected with the Irwin-Union Trust Company, interested in the Cummins Diesel Engine Company of that city, and the Noblitt-Sparks Industries, Inc. of Columbus and many others. The Indianapolis Office received anonymous information in 1940 that IRWIN had been dealing with Nazi agents about the time of the Czechoslovakia crisis and that he had attended a meeting of Nazi agents in Ohio about that time. This information was never confirmed in view of the fact that no questioning of his motives or loyalty to this country has ever been made.

The Indianapolis Field Division has no information on the following mentioned in reference report:

Dr. DOBBINS, The Servel Company, Evansville, Indiana

Friends of American Freedom, Robert Hutt, Huntington, Indiana

DUDLEY GILBERT, 660 Park Avenue

B. B. KIEKBRIDE, Bible Company, Indianapolis

Bureau letter, October 29, 1941 (97-649).

DETAILS: AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

The files of the Los Angeles Bureau Office failed to reveal any information about the AMERICAN CHRISTIAN NATIONALIST PARTY under that exact name, but there is some information about the "MILITANT CHRISTIAN PATRIOTS", and because of the fact that GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE was associated with that organization in California, it may be that it is, in fact, the same organization under another "paper organization name."

The MILITANT CHRISTIAN PATRIOTS was headed by Mrs. LESLIE FRY, whose true name is PACQUITA DE SCHISMEREFF, with aliases, who was born in Paris, France of American parentage. She claimed she came to Glendale, California in 1939 and associated herself with FAITH McCULLOUGH, Pasadena, California, General VAN HORN MOSELEY, retired United States Army Officer, CONRAD CHAPMAN, an Englishman, and others, and put out the "Christian Free Press," a newspaper which was devoted very largely to anti-Semitism. She also had some connection with WILLIAM DUDLEY PELLEY.

GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE of the KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE CAMELLIA, became associated with the MILITANT CHRISTIAN PATRIOTS in California. This organization is an anti-Semitic group based on the British MILITANT CHRISTIAN PATRIOTS, with an office at 98 Chancery Lane, London, England, and was headed by J. F. RUSHBROOK.

VLADIMIR KASITSIN of the American Nationalist Confederation of St. Albans, West Virginia, was an associate of GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE, whose home town is St. Albans, West Virginia, and Mrs. LESLIE FRY. None of these parties has been active in or resident in the Los Angeles Area for more than two years.

I - CALIFORNIA WEKRUF,
634 West Fifteenth Street,
Los Angeles, California

The German-American Bund prints an official paper for the Western District which is known as "The California Wekruf." When finances permit, the paper is published once per month. The Bund engages a printer by the name of HARRY LAHY at San Gabriel, California, who prints this paper. ARNO RISSE is the editor of the paper, which is printed for the most part in English. The exception to this is a few advertisements which are in the German language. RISSE has stated that he hopes that the finances will permit a monthly publication in the future. This paper is the official organ of the Western District of the German-American Bund. (Los Angeles File 62-1468-8, 12-2-37)

A check of this matter at the present time shows that HANS DIEBEL mailed 1,251 copies of the "Wekruf" on November 20, 1941, and so far as is known, that was the last issue of said paper.

II - MRS. J. D. CAMERON,
4711 Atoll Street, Van
Nuys, California

On May 17, 1940 DEACON COLBURN, 4276 Van Nuys Boulevard, Van Nuys, California, reported that Mr. and Mrs. J. D. CAMERON, 4711 Atoll Street, Van Nuys, California, were distributing propaganda against the Jews; that the CAMERONS have an extensive library of literature dealing with the Jews. No further investigation has been made of the CAMERONS. (Los Angeles File No. 65-0-1680, 5-17-40).

III - CHRISTIAN AMERICAN CRUSADE,
4245 Crenshaw Boulevard, Los Angeles, California.

REVEREND MARTIN LUTHER THOMAS and the CHRISTIAN AMERICAN CRUSADE are practically one and the same. The Los Angeles Office has quite a file on REVEREND THOMAS and this organization. REVEREND THOMAS was and is very strongly anti-Communist, and so far as is known, has no connection with the German-American Bund. He was commissioned Chaplain of "Los Angeles' own" Regiment 160, The California Infantry, on or about November 21, 1940 with the rating of major and was assigned to Camp San Luis Obispo, California where he has been located since that time. (Los Angeles File 61-150-8, 11-9-39).

IV - CONSTITUTION LEGION OF AMERICA
Box 486 Hollywood Station, Los Angeles,
California

The Chicago Field Division Office submitted a letter to the Bureau dated November 27, 1939 which reported that the CONSTITUTION IEGION OF AMERICA operated from Box 944, Los Angeles, California. The official organ was the "Constitution Legion Herald" the editor of which was JAMES CRAIG, who was editor of PELLEY'S "Silver Shirt Legion Ranger."

The chairman of the organization was FREDERICK BEUTAL; E. K. SPILLMAN was vice-chairman, and L. E. YOUNT Secretary-Treasurer. This organization merged with "The Crusaders," whose purpose, as expressed, "is to organize constitution militant crusader units in all active American communities, destroy the power of the forces of misguided malcontents, and to encourage labor, business, civic and agricultural elements to pull together." (Los Angeles File 65-1866-2, 11-27-39).

The Los Angeles files do not show anything other than above stated about any of these parties. The only other reference is to the "Silver Ranger" which is the same as PELLEY'S "Silver Shirt Legion Ranger" and it is stated that JAMES H. CRAIG is connected with the "El Soreno Spotlight" and was at one time connected with WILLIAM DUDLEY PELLEY; (Los Angeles File No. 100-0-7129, 12-14-40).

V - L. D. DAVIS, 1293
North Fresno Street,
Fresno, California KKK

The Los Angeles Bureau Office has no file on this party.

VI - GERMAN-AMERICAN LEAGUE,
634 West Fifteenth Street,
Los Angeles, California

ARNO RISSE made a statement to Special Agent J. H. RICE, San Francisco, California, December 2, 1934 in the file entitled "NAZI CAMPS IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA; SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES," in which he stated that there are about 125,000 people in Los Angeles County who are either German or of German extraction and estimated that between forty thousand and sixty thousand are eligible to vote. He stated that there are approximately thirty-five German societies active in this area, and these societies have formed an alliance known as the "GERMAN-AMERICAN LEAGUE" which is incorporated under the laws of the State of California. The president of the league is Dr. H. A. GEBHARDT, Los Angeles (who was the attorney for the German Consul at Los Angeles until the date of the closing of the German Consulate). The various German societies are represented in the German League by delegates. The German-American Bund is a member of the League and is represented by a delegate.

According to RISSE the Steuben Society at Los Angeles is the most powerful and influential of the societies represented by delegates in the League.

The German-American League owns Hindenburg Park, located at La Crescenta, California, a park for rental to various German organizations for picnics and gatherings. The park consists of approximately fifteen acres. This organization was formerly known as "Friends of New Germany" with national headquarters at 178 East 85th Street, New York City. (Los Angeles File 62-1468-8-P. 4.)

VII - DAN GILBERT, 5472 Gilbert
Drive, Los Angeles, California.

The only reference to a party by the name of DAN

GILBERT in the Los Angeles files is that which appears in a letter from the Chicago Field Division Office to the Bureau dated November 27, 1939 in the file entitled "RE SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES - GENERAL," Page 3, which states in part:

> "America First, Inc. - This organization operated from the National Press Building, Washington, D. C. JAMES TRUE was its president. Due to lack of funds this organization discontinued in the fall of 1936. JAMES TRUE helped DANIEL GILBERT of San Diego, California, who was employed by GERALD WINROD. TRUE and GILBERT had offices in the Kellogg Building, Washington, D. C. and put out a pamphlet entitled "Inside News From The Nation's Capitol."

Box 429, Glendale, California

The only reference in the Los Angeles Files relative to the above-named magazine is that which was reported on January 31, 1935 by Dr. W. C. VANCE, 809 Medico-Dental Building, Los Angeles, who stated that this booklet had been forwarded to him from Canada, and that he had no knowledge as to why such pamphlets were being furnished to him.

Dr. VANCE stated that another pamphlet entitled "JEWS! JEWS! JEWS!" dated at Beverly Hills, California, Vol. 1, No. 1, purported to be printed "every month by DAVID S. HALL, JR., address Post Office Box 429, Glendale, California. Dr. VANCE did not report that he had received subsequent copies of these pamphlets, and no further investigation has been made. (Los Angeles File 62-0-2973-1-31-39.)

"BETTER AMERICA FEDERATION,"
Johnson Building, Los Angeles.

Miss MARGARET KERR is manager of the "BETTER AMERICA FEDERATION" with offices in the Johnson Building, Los Angeles. This organization has been in operation for approximately the past twenty years and one of its duties is to assemble information about subversive activities. This organization cooperates freely with all law enforcement officers, including the Army and the Navy and is not engaged in any form of subversive activities. In fact, it is a patriotic organization and Miss KERR has prepared many reports for Congressional investigating committees and has appeared as a witness many times.

X - WILLIAM KULLGREN
Atascadero, California

The Los Angeles Field Division Office has had a file on this party for some time. The anti-Defamation League of Chicago, through MILES M. GOLDBERG, reported that KULLGREN wrote a pamphlet entitled "A WARNING PROPHECY FOR AMERICA." This information was furnished to GOLDBERG by ROBERT D. OCHS, a volunteer worker for the Anti-Defamation League at Chicago. The following was quoted from said pamphlet:

> "It has, therefore, been shown that in the event of his election (FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT) again to that great office of such great importance to your country, one can confidently anticipate that within 60 days there will be clamped down upon your newspapers and radio, as well as all other means of public communication, a censorship of a severity never before known in your fair country.
> "There will also be enumerable spies and restrictions of a kind entirely foreign to the principle of your sacred constitution, and destruction of your freedom . . .
> "But fear not! At the height of his career, the occupant of the White House will suddenly pass on to his reward. A man-of-the-hour will arise and will save your nation from the destruction which has been "planned that way". There will be many changes in government offices and others in powerful positions."

KULLGREN has been the speaker of "The Beacon Light," a small country town monthly magazine at Atascadero, California for many years. A cover on his mail shows that he is in contact with CHARLES B. HUDSON, CHARLES W. PHILLIPS, WILLIAM DUDLEY PELLEY, G. ALLISON PHELPS, GERALD L. K. SMITH, and other anti-Semitic writers and agitators. He was the organizer of the Silver Shirts at Atascadero when it was in its prime about 1934 or 1935.

KULLGREN was born in England and he has stated that he was naturalized at San Luis Obispo, California. It is stated that he is not opposed to the United States Government, but is bitterly anti-Semitic.

XI - LEAGUE AGAINST COMMUNISM

The LEAGUE AGAINST COMMUNISM is not known in the Los Angeles Bureau Office by that specific name.

XII - K. MUKAEDA, 355 East First Street, Los Angeles, California.

Mr. MUKAEDA is the president of the Los Angeles Japanese Chamber of Commerce and the Los Angeles Association and is also head of the Japanese Cultural Center of California, which organization is registered with the State Department as being the agent of a Foreign principal. He has been an associate of ITARU TACHIBANA and other Japanese espionage suspects.

MUKAEDA selected PERCIVAL DENSMORE PERKINS to go to Japan in 1935 to become a professor of English at the Daisau Kotogahko University of Kyoto. PERKINS was a member of the committee of the office of Oriental Studies at Claremont College, Pomona, California in January, 1936. PERKINS has written pro-Japanese articles for the Japanese American News at San Francisco and has done some work for the Koekusai Kunka Shinko Kai (Shows For International Cultural Relations) and has written for the Japanese Times.

XIII - BERT MANN, Box 293, Van Nuys, Calif.

This party is unknown to the Los Angeles Field Division Office.

XIV - A. H. NOON, publisher, "AMERICAN MOTHERS' MAGAZINE, 2619 West 54th Street, Los Angeles, California

There is a file in the Los Angeles Bureau Office which shows that this party has been connected with the "MOTHERS OF AMERICA" and put out one or two editions of a magazine known as "AMERICAN MOTHERS' NATIONAL WEEKLY." The promotion of this magazine was frowned upon and was investigated by the California Intelligence Bureau in September, 1940. The California Intelligence Bureau makes investigations for the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce to ascertain the legitimacy of promotions.

Inquiry failed to reveal that this magazine is being published at the present time.

XV - J. H. PEYTON, Box 982, Beverly Hills, California
(AMERICAN RANGERS)

The Los Angeles Bureau Office has a file on PEYTON dating back to April 27, 1939, indicating that he was very anti- Semitic in his speech, writing, and conduct. He left Los Angeles about a year ago and went to Phoenix, Arizona, where he married and remained until about July 1, 1941, at which time he and his wife went to Portland, Oregon, where they were still residing on or about November 1, 1941. PEYTON has been considered for custodial detention. (Los Angeles File 65-1734-32).

XVI - EARL P. POWELL,
252 North Belmont Avenue,
Los Angeles, California.

The Los Angeles Bureau Office has a file on this party under the Registration Act; Internal Security, in which POWELL was reported to be engaged in distributing German propaganda; that propaganda was arising at the port of Los Angeles by way of Japanese ships either from Russia or Germany. Investigation shows that POWELL is an indigent person and has lived at 252 North Belmont Avenue and 135 South Grand Avenue for the past several years and does odd jobs for a living.

He did not receive the literature which he was supposed to be distributing for the reason that it was delivered to his former address, and as he did not call for said literature, it was destroyed by the proprietor of the rooming house.

4245 Crenshaw Boulevard, Los Angeles,
California

See Item No. III above.

XVIII - C. B. MOORE, Western Growers Protective Association, 1231 East Seventh St., Los Angeles, Calif.; home address 826 Fifth Avenue, Los Angeles, Calif.

Mr. MOORE is the Secretary of the above-named association. He is a friend of the Los Angeles Field Division Office. There is nothing to indicate that Mr. MOORE or the Western Growers Protective Association is engaged in any sort of subversive activities.

XVIV - CARL JENS, alias KARL JULIUS YENS
Studio, 2079 Coast Boulevard South, Laguna Beach, California.

The Los Angeles Field Division Office files reflect that JENS is a Swiss by nativity; an artist by profession; that he is about 65 to 70 years of age and has never caused any trouble in the vicinity of Laguna Beach, California, where he has made his home for a number of years. JENS is apparently thoroughly American at heart, but through his association with FERDINAND HANSON in the distribution of "Yens' Moral Painting and the 'peace' message" written by him, he has developed a fanatical desire for peace at any cost. There is some indication, but no evidence, that he is sympathetic to the German cause, probably developed by HANSON. It was from JENS' home in Laguna Beach, California that much of the literature sent out by HANSON, VON LIPPE, STURM, and RISKER was prepared, showing at least a forbearance on his part to the activities of HANSON and his affiliates.

The Los Angeles Bureau Office has a large file entitled "FERDINAND HANSON, with aliases; KURT BERNARD PRINZ ZUR LIPPE, with aliases; KARL JULIUS JENS, with aliases; HANS W. RITTER; WILHELM KLINGER, with aliases; HEINZ FRITCH, with aliases; ERIC J. P. HANSON-STURM, with aliases; FRANK RENE GOLZEN, et al; ESPIONAGE - G; REGISTRATION ACT." This investigation is almost nationwide in its extent.

Under date of September 20, 1941, this office received a letter from J. C. STROUSS, Postmaster, Mill Valley, Calif., which enclosed a letter quoted as follows:

"June 10 '41

"Recd Mill Valley Calif.
Sept. 1941

"Sir:

"In September, 1939, I authorized an acquaintance of mine (Mrs. M. KOZMOVSKY, 5120 Harold Way, Hollywood, to get hold of my mail. Following that only one letter was forwarded to me. I expected more.

"Indirectly, I learned that all my mail was destroyed - on advice of some official. Could that be possible without my consent or presence? Specifically, who authorized that destruction & for what reason?

"As before God, never in my life had I expected anything indecent, obscene or otherwise illegal sent to me through mail. And if anything was wrong, I am positive that I would have been told about such irregularities.

"I do not want any arrest made in connection with this matter, butonly desire to know if this really had happened.

"Respectfully yours,

"c/o 750 Presidio Ave.
San Francisco, Calif."

On October 14, 1941, this office was in receipt of a letter from the Los Angeles Field Division, in which they advised that the only information in the Los Angeles files, outside of the report of Special Agent H. I. BOBBITT, SanFrancisco, dated December 4, 1939, above mentioned, was a report by Special Agent C. B. HENDERSON, Los Angeles, dated March 5, 1940, which indicated that KOSITSIN entered the General Hospital at Los Angeles on September 21, 1939, with a broken leg as the result of an attempted suicide. He was found to be suffering from psychosis, paranoid state, and an insanity warrant was filed September 31, 1939, and he was transferred to the Norwalk Hospital on October 6, 1939.

In the case entitled HENRY D. ALLEN, with aliases; ESPIONAGE (G), Los Angeles origin, S. F. file #61-64, the report of Special Agent E. LEWIS NICHOLS, Los Angeles, dated March 24, 1939, reflects that in a letter dated November 14, 1937, from the American Nationalistic Confederation Headquarters, St. Albans, West Virginia, VLADIMIR K. KOSITSIN advised HENRY D. ALLEN of the expected arrival of Captain H. H. BEAMISH on the West Coast and requested that suitable arrangements be made for him; that BEAMISH is a pro-Nazi, anti-Semetic Englishman, who covered the West Coast on a lecture tour in December 1937 and January 1938 and contacted various German, Italian and Japanese nationalists; that BEAMISH advised he was enroute to South Africa and had served in the British Army during the World War and that he is a son and brother of Admirals of the British Navy. It is further reflected that in a letter from KOSITSIN dated November 26, 1937, ALLEN is advised that when in Mexico to get in touch with Sr. T. RABISHKIN, apartment #394, Tampico, Mexico.

In the case entitled GERMAN-AMERICAN BUND; ESPIONAGE (G), S. F. file #65-1407, the following information is found in serial #56 of that file:

Confidential Informant [redacted] furnished the name of A. KOZMOSKY, 5218 Harold Way, Hollywood, Calif., as a friend of V. KOSITZEN, who is now in the State Insane Asylum and was formerly Secretary to GEORGE DEATHERAGE, P. O. Box 467, St. Albans, West Virginia. Furthermore, KOSITZEN also worked with JOHANNES KLAPPROTH (deceased). [redacted] stated that KLAPPROTH was formerly the individual who introduced the Worldwide Service, a German owned propaganda service. b7D

The names of individuals residing in the San Francisco area, set out in reference report, were searched through the indices of the San Francisco field office, and information concerning each is noted as follows:

1. CLEARY, L. A., Modesto, California, "Vigilantes". The records of this office reflect that L. A. CLEARY is actually LESLIE A. CLEARY, District Attorney of Stanislaus County, Modesto, California.

2. ELLISON, T., 5227 E. 14th Street, Oakland, Calif. The records of this office reflect that ELLISON is the subject of the case entitled THOMAS WOOD ELLISON alias T. W. ELLISON; INTERNAL SECURITY (G), Oklahoma City office of origin, S. F. file #100-4519. In the report of Special Agent T. C. ALLEN, Oklahoma City, dated May 14, 1941, it is noted that subject is believed to be a Nazi, distributes a publication known as "Roll-Call", which is anti-war in sentiment at Oklahoma City. Subject ELLISON expressed his dislike for Jews in a letter to the complainant. Another letter states that he has been held in the County Jail, possibly Fort Smith, Arkansas, for a "chance to overthrow the Government". ELLISON is believed to be in Albuquerque, N. Mexico. The mail cover at Oklahoma City shows that ELLISON was in receipt of a letter from Oakland, Calif., from ---- ELLISON, 5227 East 14th Street. Further information in the same case in S. F. file #100-4519 reflects that MRS. E. ELLISON, 5227 East 14th Street, Oakland, Calif., has received cards from an individual signing himself only as "T" from San Bernardino, Hollywood and Coachella, Calif. Cards have also been received from "T" in San Antonio, Texas, and Cleveland, Ohio.

FOSTER, S, 2473 - 88th Avenue, Oakland, Calif. This name was searched through the indices, with negative results.

GARRISON, WALTER COL., Lodi, Calif., Associated Farmers. The records of this office reflect that in serial #101 of S. F. file #61-52, there is a reference to the fact that the teamsters' blockade was brought to an end in the Bay area on September 28, 1937, and that this involved a dispute between A.F. of L. teamsters and the CIO. It is further reflected that the teamsters were steadily losing ground in the dispute, and that COL. WALTER GARRISON, President of the Associated Farmers of California, Inc., offered the teamsters a chance to save their face. The Associated Farmers of California made a public plea to the teamsters to lift the blockade until the farmers could move their products, which the teamsters readily accepted.

German-American League, San Francisco. This is probably the German-American Vocational League, Inc., or D. A. B. This office has a number of files on the D.A.B. (Deutsche Amerikanische Berufsgemeinschaft). For the information of the Richmond office, it may be stated that this organization is reported to have replaced the German-American Bund as the Nazi propaganda organization in San Francisco, Calif., and the Bay area. It numbers among its officers and members some of the outstanding espionage suspects in San Francisco, and it holds regular meetings at 1553 Page St., San Francisco.

COX, J. F., c/o A. L. CRANFORD, 369 Pine Street, San Francisco, "Longshoreman Action". It is thought that this may be IVAN FRANCIS COX, who was recording secretary of the International Longshoremen's Association, Local #38-79, from 1933 to 1936, and treasurer of that same local in 1936-1937.

HOLMAN, LEE, 400 - 29th Ave., Oakland, Calif. This individual is in all probability LEE J. HOLMAN, who, in 1933, was President Pro-Gem of the International Longshoremen's Association, Local 38-79, and in May 1934 was elected President of that organization. He resigned as a member in 1934 and so far as the presidency was concerned had been thrown out just prior to that. It is further noted that an informant of this office had noticed LEE J. HOLMAN in company with CLAYTON FRICKE INGALLS, a strong Nazi sympathizer and a member of the D.A.B. Informant stated he believed HOLMAN had been under investigation by this office for the interstate transportation of strikebreakers. It is noted that CLAYTON FRICKE INGALLS is the subject of the case entitled CLAYTON FRICKE INGALLS, with aliases, et al; ESPIONAGE(G), S. F. origin, S. F. file #65-1002, and he is the subject of a custodial detention memorandum.

INDUSTRIAL ASSOCIATION OF SAN FRANCISCO, California. This Association is known to the San Francisco office only by the fact that this organization on September 25, 1940, published an anti-Communist bulletin, copies of which were made available to this office.

KINGSTONE, GEO. R., 2540 Post St., "Frisco (Russian leader)". There is no record of this individual in the San Francisco office.

LUCAS, HERMAN REV., "Frisco-Russian Nationalist". It is noted that in the San Francisco file #65-562-30, the following statement appears:

" Re: REV. LUCAS - Confidential Informant [redacted] stated he came to San Francisco from Fresno, California, with some Russians described as 'Volga Germans'. He was pro-National Socialist until 1936 or 1937, than his Pastor Superior sent a bank note to Germany, which was confiscated by the authorities. Rev. LUCAS complained to the German Consulate here, and, when he was informed that nothing could be done about it, because the Pastor Superior was born of German parents, this cooled Rev. LUCAS off, so that he changed to about 80% pro-Nazi. It is noted that Rev. LUCAS is probably HERMAN LUCAS." b7D

McKENZIE, G. W., Box 477, Petaluma, Calif. In the report of Special Agent D. W. MAGEE, Los Angeles, dated October 5, 1940, in the case entitled PAUL OTTO TOBELER, with aliases; ESPIONAGE(G), Los Angeles origin, it is noted that PAUL OTTO TOBELER on August 29, 1940, made a check payable to G. W. McKENZIE for the amount of $7.45, which was cashed at the Security Bank, #100.

NATIONAL AMERICANISM FEDERATION, 935 Market Street. There is no record of this organization. This may be the National Americanism Foundation, 935 Market St., San Francisco, formerly known as the American League Against Communism.

F. file #65-5082. Dr. SANTINI has been the West Coast manager of the Italian Line since 1932. His offices are presently at 323 Geary St., San Francisco. He is an Italian alien, was a contact of the former San Francisco Italian Consul General and a member of the San Francisco branch of the Federation of Italian World War Veterans in the U. S. A., Inc. SANTINI is the subject of a custodial detention memorandum.

SAVATIEFF, TIMOTHY, 2191 Pine St., "Frisco - Cossac, Russian Musketeers". It is noted that in the case entitled UNION OF RUSSIAN MUSKETEERS; ESPIONAGE, Los Angeles origin, S. F. file #65-1053, in the report of Special Agent D. W. MAGEE, Los Angeles, dated June 27, 1940, that this organization has its Pacific Coast branch at 1988 Bush St., San Francisco; that there are approximately 40 members; and that the organization was founded in 1924 for the purpose of combatting Communism and for the establishment of a monarchial form of government in Russia. Re: GEORGE E. DEATHERADGE
INTERNAL SECURITY - G
CUSTODIAL DETENTION

Dear Sir:

In accordance with Bureau instructions contained in teletype dated December 18, 1941, the following person is recommended to be taken into custody in the event that emergency war legislation is passed:

GEORGE E. DEATHERADGE, 617 Ocean View Avenue, Norfolk, Virginia; pro-German.

Subject is a native-born citizen, having been born on November 15, 1894, at Duluth, Minnesota.

According to a United Press dispatch at Kansas City, Missouri, dated 8-23-37, subject was reported as National Commander of the Knights of the White Camellia and President of the American-Christian Conference made up of anti-Jewish Fascist organizations meeting in Kansas City, Missouri, on the date of the press release. At this time subject announced that his organization would undoubtedly support a form of Fascism in opposition to Communism in this country.

Confidential Informant [redacted] on November 11, 1937, reported that at a meeting of the Brooklyn, New York, Local of the German-American League at which FRITZ KUHN was principal speaker on November 6, 1937, the subject was announced as the principal speaker scheduled for a closed membership meeting on November 23, 1937. At this time the subject was referred to as "the well-known American nationalist and editor of the Christian Free Press".

b7D

11 JUL 9 1980

DECLASSIFIED BY SP2 AM/LUTH
ON 11/9/99

[redacted] stated on December 19, 1937, that subject addressed the American Conference at Kansas City, Missouri, on August 20, 1937, with remarks which were violently anti-Semitic, stating that the delegates had been called together to "combat the Communist-C.I.O.,Jew-Radical racketeers". The subject also spoke of the "rape of our country by a bunch of radical Jews with the aid and consent of the fellow in the White House".

According to Lt. Col. H. R. OLDEFIELD, M.I.D., the American Nationalist Confederation which is headed by subject is one of several Fascist organizations associated closely with the White Guard headed by HENRY ALLEN, who was twice convicted of felonies in California. Also, that the James True Associates, headed by JAMES TRUE, Washington, D. C., worked hand-in-glove with DEATHERADGE. On November 21, 1937, DEATHERADGE in a letter to TRUE mentioned muzzling reserve officers, the Naval Intelligence, and the Department of Justice.

That DEATHERADGE is connected with the James True Associates is evidenced by the fact that the latter sent out its letter as a substitute for the completion of the subscriptions to DEATHERADGE's discontinued News Letter.

On April 12, 1939, subject was interviewed and furnished his life history. He claimed to head the Knights of the White Camellia, which he described as anti-Communistic and anti-Jewish. At this time he furnished pamphlets and charts demonstrating his ideas of Jewish control of organizations and government.

In an article by HAROLD B. HINTON in the New York Times dated 5/24/39, subject, before the DIES Committee on 5/23/39, testified that the Knights of the White Camellia was organized in 1867 as an allied body of the Klu Klux Klan, and in 1935 was chartered in West Virginia with headquarters at his home. He refused to reveal the names of the members. Subject also at this time recommended supplanting Federal and State courts by military courts and said his object was the fighting of Jewish Communists. He also stated that a liason had been established between his organization and international headquarters in Rome, Italy.

An article in the Daily Worker, 5/26/39, stated that subject was closely related to the Nazis, and as the American delegate was invited by the German Ministry of Propaganda and

Public Enlightenment to attend the World Service Conference held at Erfurt, Germany, in the summer of 1938; that he accepted the invitation and delivered a speech entitled "Will America Be The Jews' Waterloo?"

STANLEY HIGH in an article entitled "Star Spangled Fascists" in the Saturday Evening Post, 5/27/39, stated that subject serves as one of the distributing agents in the United States of World Service, an English language news sheet printed in Germany by the Nazi International.

A pamphlet entitled "Has Martin Dies Sold Out to the Jewish Bankers" written by subject, who was listed as National Commander of the Knights of the White Camellia, which appeared on June 6, 1939, was violently anti-Semitic in nature.

According to Confidential Informant [ ] of the Charlotte Field Division, subject held a conference with WILLIAM DUDLEY PELLEY, head of the Silver Shirt Legation of American, Incorporated, at Asheville, North Carolina, on June 21, 1939.

The New York police files contain information that on August 23, 1939, at a mass meeting of the Christian Mobilizers at Innisfail Park, Bronx, New York, subject delivered a speech entitled "Counter Revolutionary Tactics", in which he likened conditions in the United States to Spain and denounced the United States Government as Jewish controlled.

O. R. PAILT in the New York Post on August 24, 1939, reported that subject was the principal speaker along with FRITZ KUHN of the German-American Bund at a mass meeting of the Christian Mobilizers, and that in his speech subject urged that Major General GEORGE VAN HORN MOSLEY be appointed national coordinator of all Communist-Fascist groups. He further made remarks which were violent with reference to trampling and strangling of enemies, hanging of officials from telegraph poles, denouncement of President ROOSEVELT on the basis of Jewish sympathies, and stated that if any leader of the groups gathered there were to be arrested, or if an effort were made to stop Father COUGHLIN, "the country would be up in arms over-night".

According to Confidential Informant [ ] subject was one of the leaders of Fascist groups who attended a meeting at the home of Bishop F. A. JEHAN, 1836 Elizabeth Place, Jacksonville, Florida, on December 4, 1939, to discuss uniting to start a "real move" against the present government of the United States.

Captain E. B. NIXON of the Office of Naval Intelligence stated on February 1, 1940, that subject as head of the American Nationalists was invited to attend a three-day conference in Richmond, Virginia, in December of 1939 to consider organizing a united front of all Fascist organizations.

DEATHERADGE directed a letter to the Bureau on March 10, 1940, enclosing the March 9, 1940, issue of Industrial Control Reports, a weekly publication of the James True Associates, which issue contained a denunciation of the Federal Bureau of Investigation being Jew-controlled, and solicited funds for defense of defendants in the Christian Front case in New York.

A photograph of subject appears in Look Magazine making a speech at a meeting against war. Beneath this picture Look Magazine describes him as "a petty fuehrer who knows how to make speeches in the most patriotic of accents".

Due to the numerous activities of subject and his ability to incite to riot, it is believed that his continued liberty is dangerous to the internal security of the United States.

American Nationalists Confederation, headed by George Deatherage, is one of several Fascist organizations associated closely with the White Guard, headed by Henry Allan, twice convicted of felonies in California. James True associates, headed by James True, Washington, D. C., works hand-in-glove with Deatherage. In a letter from Deatherage to True dated 11/21/37, Deatherage mentioned muzzling Reserve Officers, the Naval Intelligence, and the Department of Justice. (Lieutenant Colonel H. R. Oldfield, M.I.D., 5/11/38, 61-7560-833)

Deatherage is definitely connected with the James True Associates as demonstrated by the fact the latter sent out its letter as a substitute for completion of the subscriptions to Deatherage's discontinued news letter. (Confidential informant [redacted] of Philadelphia FBI office, 1/20/39, 65-4889-2-P-16)

Bulletin of the Knights of the White Camellia sent to the Bureau by letter signed by George E. Deatherage which sets forth the "Code", "Fundamental Principals", "Organization", and purposes of the organization, showing it to be a militant organization, violently anti-semitic. The cover letter is threatening in tone against Congressman Dies. (4/6/39, 61-7560-1447)

The George Deatherage organization is the "Knights of the White Camellia" with headquarters at St. Albans, West Virginia. This is an anti-Jewish southern white men's organization represented as being militaristic in its ambitions and it has no official connection with the Silver Shirt Legion. (Kenneth Alexander, head of Silver Shirt Legion in California, 4/7/39, 61-7587-204)

Subject interviewed and furnished life history which is set forth. He claimed to head the Knights of the White Camellia which he described as anti-Communistic and anti-Jewish. He furnished pamphlets and charts demonstrating his ideas of Jewish control of organizations and government. (4/12/39; 65-1413-74)

Before the Dies Committee 5/23/39 he testified the Knights of the White Camellia was organized in 1867 as an allied body with the Ku Klux Klan and in 1935 was chartered in West Virginia with headquarters at his home and his oath of office in the organization forbade him from revealing the names of the members, numbers, or other details. He recommended supplanting Federal and State courts by military courts and said his object was the fighting of Jewish Communists. Deatherage said a liaison had been established between his organization and an international headquarters in Rome, Italy, which is to coordinate worldwide combating of Communism and Jewism. (Harold B. Hinton, N.Y. Times, 5/24/39, 61-7560-1561X13)

News editorial states that Subject did not give all the facts when testifying before the Congressional Committee May 23-24, 1939; that although he admitted a link with an international "anti-Red" organization in Fascist Italy and that he had been rebuffed by the Nazis for trying to establish closer connections with them, he was as a matter of fact closely related to the Nazis and, as the American delegate, was invited by the German Ministry of Propaganda and Public Enlightenment to attend the World-Service Conference held at Erfurt, Germany, in the summer of 1938, accepted and delivered a speech entitled, "Will America be the Jews' Waterloo?" (Daily Worker, 5/26/39; 61-7560-2144X3)

At mass meeting of Christian Mobilizers, 8/23/39, at Innisfail Park, Bronx, N. Y., delivered speech entitled "Counter-Revolutionary Tactics" likening current conditions in the U.S. to Spain and denouncing the U.S. Government as Jewish controlled. (N. Y. Police files, 61-7850-22-P-11)

At mass meeting sponsored by Joseph McWilliams, head of the Christian Mobilizers for the purpose of uniting all Christian Fascist groups, on 8/23/39, Deatherage was the principal speaker along with Fritz Kuhn of the German-American Bund and Deatherage announced a second meeting for 9/6/39, with the principal speaker to be Major General George Van Horn Moseley whom he urged for national coordinator of the groups, Deatherage blamed Jewish Communists and Jewish international bankers for the world's ailments. His remarks were violent with references to trampling and strangling of enemies, hanging of officials from telegraph poles, denouncements of President Roosevelt on the basis of Jewish sympathies, and stated that if any leader of the groups gathered there were to be arrested or if an effort were made to stop Father Coughlin "the country will be up in arms over night." Raymond Joseph Healy, self-styled "Irish Hitler" and an associate of George Deatherage of the American Merchants Confederation, was National Director of the Gentile Workers Party of America. (Anti-Defamation League, Chicago, 11/27/39, 61-7559-5789)

DETAILS: A search through the files of the New Orleans Office revealed that there has been no subversive activities on the part of ARTHUR P. De La HOUSAYE, 710 Masonic Temple Building, New Orleans, La., or Mr. M. E. DODDS, President of Dodds College at Shreveport, La. However, the New Orleans File No. 100-2300 indicated that Mrs. WILLIS P. BUTLER, of Shreveport, La., who is DODDS' sister, was at one time suspected of being a Nazi sympathizer. This was not confirmed.

Special Agent J. O. PEYRONNIN, of the New Orleans Office, advised that ARTHUR P. De La HOUSAYE is an old acquaintance of his, and that De La HOUSAYE was formerly a practicing lawyer in this city and at the same time took a very active part in the Louisiana Coalition of Patriotic Societies, which organization is 100 percent American; and that in this capacity, De La HOUSAYE kept this office informed as to un-American activities. Agent PEYRONNIN further advised that Mr. De La HOUSAYE was presently a Lieutenant Commander in the Eighth Naval District, U. S. Navy, and that if further information was sought concerning the Louisiana Coalition of Patriotic Societies, Mr. De La HOUSAYE should be contacted.

Upon being interviewed by the agent, Lieutenant Commander De La HOUSAYE stated that six or seven years ago, he, as a lawyer, had incorporated the Louisiana Coalition of Patriotic Societies, which organization had been established for the express purpose of combating subversive activity in the State of Louisiana, and that since that time he had served on the executive board up to the time he had been called to active duty by the Navy. He further stated that at the time, the FBI was delegated to carry on this work, the Louisiana Coalition of Patriotic Societies cooperated closely with the New Orleans Field Division. De La HOUSAYE stated that the above-mentioned organization was made up of the following component members:

THE SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

THE SPANISH AMERICAN WAR VETERANS OF LOUISIANA

THE COLONIAL DAMES

and 15 or more Posts of the American Legion

Lieut. Commander De La HOUSAYE further advised that he did not believe that the Louisiana Coalition of Patriotic Societies was at all active at the present time, as most of its leaders, like himself, were taking an active part in the present conflict. However, for our information, he gave the agent the following list of names of individuals who are presently the officers of that organization:

In connection with the investigation of instant case, Bureau File 61-5381, the Bureau has been regularly advised of developments in regard to JOHN L. SPIVAK and his associates, contemplating a visit to the New York Field Division, in order that he may furnish information relative to German, Japanese, and Trotsky agents. Teletype from the New York Field Division to the Bureau dated January 2, 1942 contains information that on December 31, 1941 confidential informant [redacted] saw JOSEPH SILVER of the Daily Worker, in the Daily Worker building, New York City, who furnished him with the information concerning individuals who are being mentioned hereinafter. When SILVER furnished the following information to the informant he advised that the information was already a matter of record, so he would not be talking out of turn. However, SILVER advised that he did not want to go over the head of JOHN L. SPIVAK who, at the contemplated meeting, would be able to furnish detailed information concerning many individuals. In that teletype the Bureau was advised of the names of the individuals referred to by SILVER and the Bureau was advised that the data would be incorporated in separate cases and not in instant AMTORG file.

Inasmuch as the information which SILVER furnished is so interrelated it was deemed advisable to incorporate all of the data in instant letter. As will be noted hereinafter, the index records in the New York Field Division were checked for the various names and it has been noted that other Field Divisions are the offices of origin and have been interested in a majority of the names mentioned. Accordingly, the Bureau and the various Field Divisions receiving copies of this letter are being furnished with extra copies of instant letter in order that the same may be placed in the respective separate files for the individuals referred to hereinafter. In those cases in which other offices are the offices of origin, they should carefully peruse the above information and conduct whatever investigation they deem necessary or advisable, and any additional investigation should be reported in the separate respective cases, instead of in instant AMTORG case.

JOSEPH SILVER told confidential informant [redacted] that b7D
JAMES A. TRUE and HARRY A. JUNG were agents paid by the German and Italian Governments and that they have definite proof of that fact. SILVER stated these two men were assisting MARTIN DIES in his investigation and at the same time were on the payroll of the two foreign Governments. He further stated that TRUE and JUNG know all of the high-ranking German, Italian, and Japanese Agents that operate in the United States, and SILVER remarked that TRUE and JUNG should be apprehended and questioned to find out the names of other spies. He further remarked that they have proof whereby they can prove that TRUE received large sums of money from the German and Italian Embassy in Washington, D. C.

SILVER told informant that the United States Government ought to pick up and question HENRY D. ALLEN who is a German Agent and was operating with German Spies in this country. SILVER stated ALLEN formerly lived in San Diego, California, and later resided at 2860 Nina Street, Pasadena, California. SILVER stated that ALLEN was first arrested by the Los Angeles Police Department on May 17, 1910, their file #7613, and that ALLEN had served time in the Folsum and San Quentin penitentiaries. SILVER remarked that some of ALLEN'S associates are C. F. INGALLS, 2702 Bush Street, San Francisco, California, and GEORGE DEATHERAGE of St. Albans, West Virginia. SILVER advised that ALLEN was a very active German Agent and that they, meaning SILVER and his associates, connected ALLEN with JAMES A. TRUE and that they also connected both ALLEN and TRUE up with SIGNOR G. COSMELLI, a consular at the Italian Embassy. SILVER also advised that ALLEN was connected with HERMANN SCHWINN and that SCHWINN went to Mexico City and organized the Mexican Gold Shirts. SILVER also stated SCHWINN was mixed up with GENERAL RAMON F. ITURBE, a member of the Mexican Chamber of Deputies; with GENERAL YOCUPICIO; with PAUL L. DELGADO; and _____ RODRIGUEZ, a prominent agitator in Mexico. SILVER told informant that SCHWINN operated out of Los Angeles, California which was his main headquarters.

SILVER further stated that some records were stolen from SCHWINN which disclosed the names of German Agents and names of the German Bund. SILVER also advised that there was found a lot of code numbers which related to names of prominent Americans. SILVER told informant that SCHWINN should be made to disclose who these Americans are. He also advised that SCHWINN was connected with DR. GEORGE GYSSLING, the German Consular General of Los Angeles, California. SILVER also told informant that they have established the fact that money was paid by GYSSLING to SCHWINN. He further stated that SCHWINN is a naturalized American citizen and that they have definite proof that he was appointed to the position he was doing by propaganda Minister GOEBBLS and also that he has personal letters of commendation from Hitler for the good work he has done in Mexico and the United States. SILVER also told informant that the American Government brought a case against SCHWINN because he falsified his application for United States citizenship.

Informant was further told by SILVER that the Federal Bureau of Investigation ought to question COUNT VON BULOW (should be BEULOW) a German who had a home at Point Loma, San Diego, California which had a direct view of the United States Naval Base there. SILVER stated COUNT VON BEULOW has since sold this home in San Diego and moved to the Hotel El Cortez in San Diego, California. Informant was advised by SILVER that there was a German Spy by the name of SCHNEEBERGER, who lived with COUNT VON BEULOW at Point Loma; that during September 1936, when a Japanese Naval Training Ship left San Diego, California, that SCHNEEBERGER also departed on that ship. SILVER further remarked that while SCHNEEBERGER was living in VON BEULOW'S home, SCHNEEBERGER, COUNT VON BEULOW, and HERMANN SCHWINN were hanging around together and were very closely associated and did a lot of drinking and going around together. SILVER also stated that there was seen with these individuals on various occasions another German Spy named ____ MAEDER, and another German Spy named WILLI SACHSE. SILVER remarked that MAEDER and SACHSE are still around California and the West Coast.

Informant was further told by SILVER that Germany and Japan signed a treaty on November 25, 1936 providing for the exchange of information on Communists. However SILVER stated that SCHNEEBERGER left on the Japanese ship during September 1936 which was before the treaty was signed and SILVER remarked that the signing of this treaty was a scheme by the Axis partners to set up an espionage service in the United States and to work under the pretext that they were working on Communist matters.

SILVER also told informant that the Government ought to check up and question PETER GISIBLE, 3853 North Western Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, who was a German Spy and was operating with other German Spies in this country. SILVER stated some of his associates were KARL MOLLER and KARL KRAENZLE. SILVER also remarked that FRITZ GISSIBL was a brother to PETER GISSIBL and was in the Middle-West but when FRITZ returned to Germany in March of 1936 his place was taken by his brother PETER. SILVER stated that FRITZ GISSIBL was born in Stuttgart, Germany.

SILVER also advised that EDWARD F. SULLIVAN, formerly known as J. PARNELL FEENEY, an investigator for the Dies Committee, is one individual that the F. B. I. ought to take into custody and question. SILVER stated that SULLIVAN worked with some of the best German and Italian agents in the United States, and received money from them and SILVER stated that they can prove this. SILVER also remarked that SULLIVAN should be questioned as to the identity of the Italian and German agents that he was operating with.

Informant was also advised by SILVER that the Dies Committee picked up some men at the Brooklyn Navy Yard during August 1938. One of these men was WALTER DIECKHOFF whose badge number was 38117 and who lived at 2654 East 19th Street, Brooklyn, New York. Another of these individuals was HUGO MOULTERS, badge number 38166, who resided at 221 East 16th Street, Brooklyn, New York. The other individual was ALFRED BOLDT, badge number 38069, who resided at 6429 -70th Street, Queens, Long Island, New York.

SILVER told the informant that the three above named men were picked up but that there was some kind of a whitewash given and they were let go. SILVER stated that DIECKHOFF was a former officer in the German Air Corps and that he came from Bremerhafer, Germany and that he has a brother living there who is very prominent in the German Military Government. SILVER stated that DIECKHOFF had some belongings in the home of ALBERT NORDENHOLZ at 1572 Castleton Avenue, Fort Richmond, Staten Island, New York. SILVER stated that JOHN L. SPIVAK personally handled this investigation and when he interviewed NORDENHOLZ he was told that DIECKHOFF moved his trunks from the above address several days after he had been called by the Dies Committee, and that NORDENHOLZ furnished SPIVAK with other valuable information concerning DIECKHOFF. In regard to BOLDT, SILVER stated that he has a son named HELMUTH BOLDT who attends an academy in Germany. SILVER also stated that all three of the above individuals have worked as engineers for the North German Lloyd Steamship Company before they took up their residence in the United States and that at different times they have all made pleasure trips back to Germany while being employed in the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

SILVER also told informant that ILLIAM L. Mc LAUGHLIN was the editor of the German newspaper called "Deutsche Zeitung". SILVER urther stated Mc LAUGHLIN was a paid representative of the German Government and is a key man and that he should be given some attention by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Informant advised that he asked SILVER whether or not he knew MORAN and SILVER remarked that he knew of IGNACIOUS MORAN and remarked that Mr. SPIVAK will tell informant plenty about him, and that the trip Mr. SPIVAK is now on took him, SPIVAK, down into parts of Mexico.

During the general conversation informant mentioned to JOSEPH SILVER the name of OTTO KASE whose name was previously furnished informant by the Russians as being the second in command of the German Naval Intelligence in the United States. SILVER stated that they know plently about him and that he is a "smart aleck". SILVER also stated that he is from Stuttgart, Germany and that theyhad him tied up with FRITZ GISSIBL and others. SILVER also mentioned that KASE is an engineer in an aircraft plant.

SILVER also told the informant that the Government ought to pick up and question GUENTHER GROELL of Great Kills, Staten Island. SILVER stated he was a German Agent and was operating with the German Spies in the United States.

The various names mentioned above were checked through the index of the New York Field Division and it was noted that in reference to some of the individuals the New York Field Division has voluminous files which make reference to these individuals. It also might be stated that much of the information which SILVER furnished already appears in the various files and the various offices receiving copies of these letters should give serious consideration to the fact that possibly the individuals or informants who originally furnished information concerning these individuals may also be informants or sources of information for JOHN L. SPIVAK and his associates as it has been noted that some of the New York files reflect information which is very similar to that furnished by JOSEPH SILVER.

HENRY ALLEN is subject in New York File 65-2018 (Bureau File 65-31476) in case entitled "HENRY ALLEN, Espionage -G" of which Los Angeles is the office of origin. The Bureau and Los Angeles Field Division should place two copies of this letter in ALLEN'S file.

ALFRED BOLDT; HUGO WOULTERS; and WALTER DIECKHOFF are subjects in New York File 65-271 (Bureau File 65-1126) entitled "LOUIS JUGGENHEIMER, et al, Espionage -G", of which New York is the office of origin. The New York Field Division has no record of HELMUTH BOLDT or ALBERT NORDENHOLZ. Two copies of this letter should be placed in the Bureau files of these individuals.

GEORGE DEATHERAGE is a subject in New York File 61-538 (Bureau File 61-7560) entitled "GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE, et al; Espionage; Registration Act; Internal Security -G" of which Huntington is the office of origin. (Huntington File 61-2) The Bureau and Huntington Field Division should both place two copies of this letter in their respective files.

FRITZ GISSIBL is a subject in New York File 100-8338 (Bureau File 65-29646) entitled "FRITZ GISSIBL, et al; Internal Security" of which Cincinnatti is the office of origin. (This file reflects that GISSIBL was one of the national leaders of the "Friends of New Germany" and "German-American Bund" and reportedly is now in Germany.) PETER GISSIBL (not GISSIBLE) is mentioned in various New York files which refer to him as being the leader of the Chicago Local of the German-American Bund. Inasmuch as FRITZ and PETER apparently are brothers, the information concerning PETER is being furnished to the Cincinnatti Field Division which is the office of origin in connection with the case regarding FRITZ GISSIBL. As it appears that the Chicago Field Division also is the office of origin in connection with many cases regarding PETER GISSIBL, it is being left to the discretion of the Cincinnatti Field Division as to whether or not the Cincinnatti Field Division should be the office of origin in both cases or whether the Chicago Field Division should be the office of origin in connection with the PETER GISSIBL case. The Bureau and Cincinnatti Field Division should place two copies of this letter in their respective files.

GEORGE GYSSLING is mentioned in New York File 65-2020, in a letter from the Bureau to Los Angeles dated April 16, 1941 entitled "Re: GEORG GYSSLING, Bureau File 65-26108". The Bureau and Los Angeles Field Divisions should place copies of this letter in their files.

C. F. INGALLS appears to be identical with CLAYTON FRIECKE INGALLS who is a subject in New York File 65-5357 entitled "CLAYTON FRIECKE INGALLS, with aliases, et al; Espionage I" of which San Francisco is the office of origin, San Francisco File 65-1002, and Bureau File 65-22046. The Bureau and San Francisco Field Division should place copies of instant letter in their respective files.

HARRY A. JUNG is mentioned in various reports in different New York Files which reflect that he is connected with the American Vigilante Intelligence Federation, Incorporated, of Chicago, Illinois. Undoubtedly the Chicago Field Division is the office of origin in connection with cases relating to this individual and accordingly the Bureau and Chicago Field Division should place two copies of this letter in their files on HARRY A. JUNG.

OTTO KASE is presently being investigated in connection with New York File 65-8597 entitled "OTTO ERICH KASE, with aliases; Espionage -G" of which New York is the office of origin. The Bureau should place two copies of this letter in their file on KASE.

KARL KRAENZLE is mentioned on a New York index card as residing at 3140 North Clark Street, Chicago, Illinois, and is secretary of the German-American National Alliance, Incorporated. Inasmuch as KRAENZLE is believed to reside in Chicago it is believed that the Chicago Field Division apparently has a file on this individual in which they are the office of origin. Accordingly, the Bureau and the Chicago Field Division should place two copies of this letter in their respective files on KRAENZLE.

In connection with [redacted] KAEDER, New York File 65-8636 (Bureau File 65-2489) entitled "MARTIN H. KAEDER, Espionage -G" of which Los Angeles is the office of origin, Los Angeles File 65-246, there appears information that KARL KAEDER was reported to have been seen in the company of HERMANN SCHWINN, Los Angeles Bund leader. The Bureau and Los Angeles Field Division should place two copies of this letter in this mentioned file.

WILLIAM L. McLAUGHLIN is presently being investigated in New York File 65-6373 entitled "KARL S. VOELCHER; WILLIAM LYON McLAUGHLIN, with aliases, et al; Espionage -G" of which New York is the office of origin (Bureau Files 100-7[illegible]9 and 100-15867). The Bureau should place two copies of this letter in their respective files.

KARL MOLLER is presently being investigated bythe New York Police Department in New York File 100-5033 entitled "KARL MOLLER; Internal Security -G. The file reflects MOLLER li ves at 2551 90th Street, Jackson Heights, Long Island, New York, and he either purchased, or made application to purchase, on September 24, 1940 2,000 Rueckwanderer marks for $1,000.00. The Bureau should place two copies of this letter in their files concerning MOLLER.

IGNACIOUS MORAN is presently being investigated in connection with New York File 65-8582 entitled "Banco de Comercia, Espionage -G" of which New York is the office of origin. The Bureau should place two copies of this letter in this respective file.

GUENTHER ORGELL is mentioned in voluminous letters and reports. These files will be reviewed and a new case will be opened incorporating all pertinent data concerning ORGELL.

SCHNEEBERGER appears to be identical with ILLIE SCHNEEBERGER or SCHNELLBERGER, Espionage, of which Cincinnatti is the office of origin. (Cincinnatti File 65-44 and Bureau File 65-36534) This case is New York Case 65-7872 which also contains a report concerning GEORGE ALEXANDRE SCHNEEBERGER who apparently is not identical with ILLIE SCHNEEBERGER. The Cincinnatti reports make reference to the Japanese Training Ship, to HERMANN SCHEINN, and DR. VON BEULOW. The Bureau and Cincinnatti Field Divisions should place two copies of this letter in this respective file.

HERMANN SCHEINN is mentioned in many letters and reports in various New York files. However, there appears to be no record for SCHEINN'S associates, they being WILLI SACHSE; _____ RODRIGUEZ; PAUL L. DELGADO; RAMON F. ITURBE; or GENERAL POCOPICIO. Inasmuch as SCHEINN appears to be located in Los Angeles, it is believed that the Los Angeles Field Division undoubtedly has a file concerning SCHEINN in which theyare the office of origin and if so the names of the above associates of SCHEINN may already be known to the Los Angeles Field Division. Accordingly, the Los Angeles Field Division should be considered the office of origin in connection with HERMANN SCHEINN and his above mentioned associates. The Bureau and the Los Angeles Field Division should place two copies of this letter in their respective files for SCHEINN.

EDWARD F. SULLIVAN appears to be identical with the individual mentioned in New York File 47-2586 entitled "EDWARD FRANCIS SULLIVAN; Impersonation" office of origin, Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh File 47-824 and Bureau File 47-16802. This file reflects that SULLIVAN allegedly claimed he was connected with the Dies Committee and that he caused the arrest of JOHN L. SPIVAK and others and charged them with criminal libel in connection with the attack that SPIVAK made upon SULLIVAN in the book entitled "Secret Armies". Inasmuch as the Pittsburgh Field Division's file contains much background data concerning this individual they are being considered the office of origin and the Bureau and Pittsburgh Field Divisions should place copies of this letter in their respective files.

JAMES A. TRUE is a subject in New York File 100-14,416 entitled "JAMES TRUE, et al; Internal Security -G; Registration Act" of which the Washington Field Division is the office of origin. (Washington File 100-108). The Bureau and Washington Field Division should place copies of this letter in their respective files.

DR. VON KUELO of San Diego, California, undoubtedly has been investigated by the San Diego Field Division who had been the office of origin and accordingly if the San Diego Field Division does not have much data on this individual, possibly the Los Angeles Field Division, who formerly covered San Diego, California, may have additional data. The Bureau and San Diego Field Division should place copies of this letter in their respective files.

All offices receiving copies of this letter should treat the above information strictlyconfidential as confidential informant [redacted] has advised that JOHN L. SPIVAK and his associates do not desire to have it known to outsiders that they contemplate cooperating with the F.B.I. in furnishing matters relating to National Defense. Accordingly, this data should be kept confidential and not be furnished to outside organizations. b7D

If any additional information is received in the future concerning any of the above subjects from informant, SPIVAK, or associates, the same will be furnished to the above mentioned offices in connection with the cases referred to above unless instructed to the contrary by the various field divisions who possibly may be investigating the above individuals in other cases than the ones specified above.

The Bureau and the following Field Divisions are being furnished with instant AMTORG letter and the following number of extra copies of this letter which should be placed in the respective files referred to above:

The files of the Miami Field Division disclose that GEORGE B. HELMER, Post Office Box #4452, Jacksonville, Florida is president of the Southern Vigilante Association, Inc. in Florida with headquarters at Jacksonville, Florida. As a matter of information, it is noted that HELMER since 1930 when his association was chartered as a non-profit organization exempt from Federal income taxes, has been gathering information in connection with communists and their activities in the southeastern states. His organization has been financed by business and professional men who were interested in the cause. HELMER on April 18, 1941 was being considered by the Department of Justice for appointment in the Special Investigative Division of the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization. During the past few years he has cooperated closely with W. W. EYSTER, District Director of Immigration and Naturalization Service in Jacksonville, Florida. HELMER is very cooperative with Bureau Agents and the information in his files concerning the Communist Party and its members is always available to Bureau Agents.

On October 5, 1929 and December 7, 1935 HELMER was investigated for impersonation of a Federal officer. Investigation failed to reveal any evidence of impersonation and prosecution was declined.

DEATHERAGE ~~POST~~ IN DEFENSE STUDIED

Capital Acts on Discovery of Ex-Chief of 'White Camellias' as Engineer in Navy Work

DIES OFFERS DATA TO KNOX

Vinson Orders Agents to Investigate in View of Fascism Charges Against 'Camellias'

By C. P. TRUSSELL
Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21 — Discovery of George E. Deatherage, former head of the alleged fascist Knights of the White Camellia and the American Nationalist Confederation, as chief engineer for private contractors on a $30,000,000 expansion project at the Norfolk Naval Base prompted guarded action in two quarters today.

The Dies Committee on Un-American Activities, which investigated Deatherage's widespread activities in 1939, communicated with Frank Knox, Secretary of the Navy, offering to place its voluminous records concerning the engineer and militant organizer at the disposal of the Naval Intelligence Ser[illegible]

~~Rep~~ative Vinson, chairman of the House Naval Committee investigating the national defense program, ordered an investigation by agents of that body in the light of the Dies committee records.

Mr. Deatherage, of whom little had been heard generally since his turbulent sessions with the Dies committee in May of 1939, was again brought to light earlier this week by an interview which he gave at the naval base.

The war, he was quoted as observing, already had done much in developing in the United States the "disciplined force under central leadership," which the Knights of the White Camellia had made a principal objective before investigations and other circumstances led him out of that organization.

It was interesting, he was quoted further as remarking, that "the liberals, pinkos and internationalists" against whom he long had directed his fire, were the ones who now must forge the centralized control.

The Dies committee, after investigations, held that the spreading of anti-Semitism was also a principal objective of the Knights. The committee, reporting to the House, classified the Knights with the Christian Front, the Christian Mobilizers, William Dudley Pelley's Silver Shirts legion and various Italian Fascist, White Russian and Ukrainian organizations.

These organizations, it reported, worked sympathetically with Fritz Kuhn's German-American Bund.

While leading the Knights of the White Camellia, the Congressional investigating committee found, Mr. Deatherage was active in promoting a confederation of organizations which might go as far as taking military action to "combat the influence and activities" of minority groups.

One of the exhibits which led to this conclusion was a letter in which Mr. Deatherage had written that he believed that "it will take military action to get this gang out, and the organization must be built around a propaganda organization, now, that can in a few hours be turned into a militant fighting force."

"The leaders of some of the organizations," the committee reported to the House, "have worked out elaborate plans and charts for developing the various groups into a propaganda machine which could quickly be converted into a military organization. They have also concerned themselves with the problems of securing arms to be used when the expected military action was undertaken."

Collaborating with Mr. Deatherage in organization of the American Nationalist Confederation, an alleged "united Fascist movement" which never really got going, were Mr. Pelley, the Rev. ~~Gerald~~ B. Winrod, Charles B. Hudson, James True, E. N. Sanctuary, Robert E. Edmondson, E. J. Peyton's American Rangers, Henry D. Allen's American White Guard and the Constitutional Crusaders of America, according to the Dies Committee findings.

Failure of the confederation, which adopted the swastika as its official emblem, to develop into a country-wide force, the Dies report asserted, was due to inability to find among the organizers one acceptable to all as the national leader.

From the testimony the committee concluded that Major Gen. George Van Horn Moseley, U. S. A. (retired), was being considered seriously for the leadership, if he would take it, prior to the time the plans were exposed. At last official reports, the quest for a "man on horseback," was still on.

Naval Base Defense Work Executive, Branded As Fascist, Denies Charge

"Bunch of Nonsense," Says G. E. Deatherage

By BILL DIEHL

George E. Deatherage, executive engineer for the Doyle and Russell construction company, now engaged, according to his own estimate, on about $25,000,000 worth of naval expansion work here, branded yesterday as nonsense a story in the newspaper PM of Sunday, February 15, charging him with being a Fascist.

"It's a damn bunch of nonsense from beginning to end. It's a Communist paper, you know that," he told this reporter in an interview in his room at 1344 Monterey avenue.

According to the story in PM, Deatherage recently proposed to the National Inventors' Council in a letter that it adopt his idea for creation of a semi-military corps of civilian government workers to guard the nation from its internal enemies. It was this letter, the newspaper said, which brought the attention of government officials to his present connections.

In 1939 Deatherage, as commander of the Knights of the White Camellia, testified before the Dies committee that he also was instrumental in the formation of the American Nationalist Federation, which had as one of its purposes an amalgamation of several organizations in the United States for the purpose of fighting Communism.

Deatherage yesterday readily admitted that he was one of the main forces behind that organization. He explained that he was of the opinion that Communistic forces in this nation were seeking to overthrow the government and that these forces were inspired by Jews, whom he blamed for many of today's evils and for the fall of the great French nation in 1940.

The Associated Press, in reporting his testimony before the Dies committee on May 24, 1939, said of his American Nationalist Federation, which it called "American Nationalist Confederation," . . . "For its emblem he chose the Swastika in order, he added, 'to give his enemies something to shoot at and draw them into the open.' The platform mentioned a 'Fascist Party' for the same reason."

Defends Knight of Camellia

Deatherage defended his organization, the Knights of the White Camellia, yesterday. He said it was merely the perpetuation of an organization formed in the South after the War Between the States to protect the people against "carpetbaggers." He pointed out that it was very similar to the Ku Klux Klan, some of its rituals having been copied from the Klan, but that right after the war it was considerably larger than the Klan.

PM said that in 1938, a Fascist boom tried to advance the candidacy of Homer Capehart, phonograph millionaire, for the presidency in 1940 and for that purpose the aid of Deatherage, Fritz Kuhn of the German Bund, William Dudley Pelley of the Silver Shirts and Father Coughlin was sought.

Deatherage denied that statement, saying that he never was approached on the subject of aiding the candidacy of Capehart.

He then went on to speak of the national war effort. He reminded that we are engaged in a bitter struggle and one that will call for united action on the part of all. He specifically tried to impress on this reporter the idea, that "if a man can't publish something helpful, then he's not much of an American" and that if he does publish something that may only stir up trouble and not prove helpful, he may only get himself in trouble.

Speaking of a united war effort, this reporter asked him what he thought of our allies, the British.

"They are a great people," Deatherage said. "If we fought as hard for America as they do for Britain, we would win."

Then he continued, pointing out that when he was in India, under British domination, a wage of eight cents a day was paid laborers whose overseers had the right by law, to whip them. He then ridiculed the idea that such a thing could be democracy and finally flatly declared that actually true democracy doesn't exist.

Jews and Communism

Deatherage observed that "as long as you don't name a Jew, it's o. k. to fight Communism." He added that when a Jew is named, trouble begins and declared that that was what was "worrying" the PM writer of the story, Kenneth Crawford.

Time and again, Deatherage tried to emphasize that he was working just as hard as he possibly could, along with everyone else at the Naval Base, to win the war and that he was a patriot through and through. He showed this reporter a photostatic copy, which he said was a quartermaster's book from the Army of the Revolution. On the page was the name of Philip Deatheradge, whom he said was his ancestor, which was intended as proof of his deep heritage as an American.

The Associated Press, on May 24, 1939, also reported "The House committee on un-American activities was developing today the detailed story of a fledgling movement to unite anti-Communist organizations in the United States with those in Germany and Italy.

"The committee got first information about the movement yesterday, after a turbulent beginning, from George E. Deatherage of St. Albans, W. Va., national commander of the Knights of the White Camellia."

Deatherage also defended himself by suggesting that with all the publicity he has received in the past, it would be almost impossible, it seemed, for him, if he was not all right, to be made executive engineer on such government work, since he was sure the Department of Justice, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Army and Navy must have information about him.

Commander F. F. Ames of the district intelligence office last night said the Navy had no official comment to make.

RESPECTFULLY REFERRED FOR ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND CONSIDERATION

Dear Sir:

I was horrified to learn from the newspaper PM today, that George Deatherage, head of the group known as The White Camellias, has an important position in the Navy work being carried on in Norfolk, Virginia. As you undoubtedly know, The White Camillias are a band of Fascist-minded Americans who at this time, especially, are a tremendous menace to the safety and advancement of our country. It is shocking to learn of his connection with our defense effort. It is sheer treachery for the Dies committee to spend the money of the tax-payers of this nation exposing "dangerous" trade-unionists while such a menace as a man of the type of George Deatherage is welcomed with open arms into defense work, not subject to governmental investigation at all.

I appeal to you, sir, to use your tremendous influence to insure those of us who fear and abhor fascism and who are willing to risk our lives to defend our democracy, that while we are fighting Axis fascism abroad, we will not have our home-grown fascists undermining what security we have left.

Deatherage Asks Vinson For Hearing on Ouster

By the Associated Press.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 27.—George E. Deatherage, dismissed from an important engineering post at the Norfolk Navy base this week, said last night at his St. Albans home he had written a letter to Chairman Vinson asking for a hearing before the House Naval Affairs Committee.

Mr. Deatherage was discharged at the order of Secretary of Navy Knox, who classed him as an "undesirable person" for Navy work.

The engineer said that in his letter to Mr. Vinson he asked why he had not been dismissed from other defense jobs on which he had worked if he was "undesirable."

Mr. Deatherage is said to have revived the Knights of White Camelia and once told the Dies committee the organization was formed to combat Communism and "the Jew problem."

Deatherage Ousted From Naval Work

Knox Brands Him An 'Undesirable'

Exclusion from naval work of George E. Deatherage, former head of an alleged Fascist organization, was announced by the Navy yesterday.

He had been employed by Doyle & Russell, construction contractors at the Naval Operating Base, Norfolk, Va.

"Based on competent investigation," the Navy said, "the Secretary of the Navy has found that Mr. Deatherage is an undesirable person within the meaning of the contract and, as such, will be excluded from the site of Navy work."

Deatherage was investigated by the Dies Committee on un-American Activities in 1939 and at that time was described as a leader of the Knights of White Camellias, allegedly a Fascist, anti-Semitic group.

The Navy said that after an investigation it had invoked a provision of the contract which requires that contractors "shall discharge from employment and exclude from the site of work any person designated by the Secretary of the Navy as undesirable."

THE CASE OF MR. DEATHERAGE

By official order of Secretary Knox, George E. Deatherage has been designated as "undesirable to have access to the work and/or materials of the Navy Department," and consequently removed from the position he held, under a civilian contractor, at the Norfolk (Va.) Operating Base.

The reasons for this order are, doubtless, the facts admitted by Mr. Deatherage in his testimony before the Dies committee. He was the national commander of a secret organization known as the Knights of the White Camelia; as such he devoted himself to debating "the Jew problem." He testified that he maintained contacts with other organizations in this country of a similar nature, and told of efforts to organize an "American nationalist confederation," for which he had selected the swastika as an emblem. His society, he testified, exchanged literature with a propaganda organization in Germany, and he consulted with the German Consulate in San Francisco and the German Embassy in Washington.

The point of view which these activities reflect is at the opposite pole from the American traditions of equality and brotherhood and wholly out of sympathy with the objectives for which we are fighting this war. The Navy Department is to be commended for its acti[illegible]

My dear Mr. Hoover:

I have no desire to add to your otherwise heavy burdens but I notice in the City Reporter of this City, Volume 4, No. 7, issued February 17, 1942, the following statement -- Mr. George Deatherage, who has been prominently identified with the Bund of this City and Fritz Kuhn, now serving a term in Sing Sing, is "engineer for Doyle & Russell, contracting firm working at one of our biggest Atlantic basis" at Norfolk, Virginia, where he is said to be in charge of a "seven million dollar naval construction project."

In view of Mr. Deatherage's admitted record in connection with the Bund, I would say that this is something that should be carefully investigated. Of course, I have no knowledge of the truth or falsity of the statement made in the City Reporter that Mr. Deatherage is connected with Doyle & Russell; or engaged on a naval construction project in Norfolk. I do know of his record, however.

Respectfully,

Dear Sir:

It was with great surprise and consternation that I read that George E. Deatherage who has been investigated by the Dies Committee and found to be in close liaison with the Nazi International should be at the head of a huge war project. This same Deatherage is employed in an executive capacity on a $25,000,000 naval construction project at Norfolk, Va. At the time of the Dies investigation it was discovered that Deatherage was in close contact with Fritz Kuhn and a strong joiner and organizer of pro-German and anti-Democratic institutions.

Naval Base Defense Work Executive, Branded As Fascist, Denies Charge

"Bunch of Nonsense," Says G. E. Deatherage

By BILL DIEHL

George E. Deatherage, executive engineer for the Doyle and Russell construction company, now engaged, according to his own estimate, on about $25,000,000 worth of naval expansion work here, branded yesterday as nonsense a story in the newspaper PM of Sunday, February 15, charging him with being a Fascist.

"It's a damn bunch of nonsense from beginning to end. It's a Communist paper, you know that," he told this reporter in an interview in his room at 1344 Monterey avenue.

According to the story in PM, Deatherage recently proposed to the National Inventors' Council in a letter that it adopt his idea for creation of a semi-military corps of civilian government workers to guard the nation from its internal enemies. It was this letter, the newspaper said, which brought the attention of government officials to his present connections.

In 1939 Deatherage, as commander of the Knights of the White Camellia, testified before the Dies committee that he also was instrumental in the formation of the American Nationalist Federation, which had as one of its purposes an amalgamation of several organizations in the United States for the purpose of fighting Communism.

Deatherage yesterday readily admitted that he was one of the main forces behind that organization. He explained that he was of the opinion that Communistic forces in this nation were seeking to overthrow the government and that these forces were inspired by Jews, whom he blamed for many of today's evils and for the fall of the great French nation in 1940.

The Associated Press, in reporting his testimony before the Dies committee on May 24, 1939, said of his American Nationalist Federation, which it called "American Nationalist Confederation," . . . "For its emblem he chose the Swastika in order, he added, 'to give his enemies something to shoot at and draw them into the open.' The platform mentioned a 'Fascist Party' for the same reason."

Defends Knight of Camellia

Deatherage defended his organization, the Knights of the White Camellia, yesterday. He said it was merely the perpetuation of an organization formed in the South after the War Between the States to protect the people against "carpetbaggers." He pointed out that it was very similar to the Ku Klux Klan, some of its rituals having been copied from the Klan, but that right after the war it was considerably larger than the Klan.

Defends His Organization As Similar to Klan

PM said that in 1938, a Fascist boom tried to advance the candidacy of Homer Capehart, phonograph millionaire, for the presidency in 1940 and for that purpose the aid of Deatherage, Fritz Kuhn of the German Bund, William Dudley Pelley of the Silver Shirts and Father Coughlin was sought.

Deatherage denied that statement, saying that he never was approached on the subject of aiding the candidacy of Capehart.

He then went on to speak of the national war effort. He reminded that we are engaged in a bitter struggle and one that will call for united action on the part of all. He specifically tried to impress on this reporter the idea, that "if a man can't publish something helpful, then he's not much of an American" and that if he does publish something that may only stir up trouble and not prove helpful, he may only get himself in trouble.

Speaking of a united war effort, this reporter asked him what he thought of our allies, the British.

"They are a great people," Deatherage said. "If we fought as hard for America as they do for Britain, we would win."

Then he continued, pointing out that when he was in India, under British domination, a wage of eight cents a day was paid laborers whose overseers had the right by law, to whip them. He then ridiculed the idea that such a thing could be democracy and finally flatly declared that actually true democracy doesn't exist.

Jews and Communism

Deatherage observed that "as long as you don't name a Jew, it's o. k. to fight Communism." He added that when a Jew is named, trouble begins and declared that that was what was "worrying" the PM writer of the story, Kenneth Crawford.

Time and again, Deatherage tried to emphasize that he was working just as hard as he possibly could, along with everyone else at the Naval Base, to win the war and that he was a patriot through and through. He showed this reporter a photostatic copy, which he said was a quartermaster's book from the Army of the Revolution. On the page was the name of Philip Deatheradge, whom he said was his ancestor, which was intended as proof of his deep heritage as an American.

The Associated Press, on May 24, 1939, also reported "The House committee on un-American activities was developing today the detailed story of a fledgling movement to unite anti-Communist organizations in the United States with those in Germany and Italy.

"The committee got first information about the movement yesterday, after a turbulent beginning, from George E. Deatherage of St. Albans, W. Va., national commander of the Knights of the White Camellia."

Deatherage also defended himself by suggesting that with all the publicity he has received in the past, it would be almost impossible, it seemed, for him, if he was not all right, to be made executive engineer on such government work, since he was sure the Department of Justice, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Army and Navy must have information about him.

Commander F. F. Ames of the district intelligence office last night said the Navy had no official comment to make.

Camellia But No Chameleon

George E. Deatherage, one-time Commander of the Knights of the White Camellia, must be a very capable engineer. If he were not, he would hardly be employed as executive engineer by the Doyle and Russell Construction Company on its multi-million-dollar Norfolk naval expansion project.

Fortunately for the Camellia-man, his social and political views, in this free country, do not impair his acceptability as a war-project construction executive, even though these views embrace a virulent anti-Semitism today, and three years ago extended to the advocacy of an "American Nationalistic Confederation" composed of all the organizations opposed to Communism. The most eminent anti-Communist evangels of that period, it will be recalled, were Major General George Van Horn Moseley (retired), Father Coughlin, William Dudley Pelley, of the "Silver Shirts," and Fritz Kuhn, of the German-American Bund. As the emblem of his proposed American-type National Socialism, Mr. Deatherage chose (in order to give his enemies something to shoot at, he explained to the Dies Committee) the Swastika.

Well, 1939 belongs to the pre-war era. But now we are at war to make the United States safe for the Four Freedoms including freedom from racial and religious tyranny. Has Mr. Deatherage, now executive engineer of a great war construction project, changed his views on this subject since the days when he organized the Knights of the White Camellia on a platform featuring anti-Semitism? Apparently not. In an interview with a reporter for the Ledger-Dispatch Tuesday, he expressed the opinion that Communist forces in this nation were seeking to overthrow the government and that these forces were inspired by Jews whom he blamed for many of today's evils.

It is disconcerting to find a distinguished war construction engineer peddling in America in 1942, the same racial and religious poisons that Hitler peddled between 1923 and 1936 in Germany, and which he later made the basis of a program of persecution and annihilation unmatched in modern times, but here it is—the immemorial blatherskite-technic of indicting a whole people for the sins of some of its individuals.

We are willing to take the word of Mr. Deatherage's employers that he is a fine engineer. As to his social and political philosophy, his own words—those just quoted—will suffice. The Camellia-man of 1939 is no chameleon. His social and political philosophy of 1939 is still his social and political philosophy in 1942. Three years haven't improved its smell.

Navy Probes Fascist-But Not Too Fast

By EDWARD P. FLYNN.
Post Staff Correspondent

Washington, Feb. 18—The Navy Dept., highly embarrassed by public disclosure that George E. Deatherage, one of our better known pro-Fascists, is executive engineer on a $25,000,000 naval construction project at Norfolk, Va., is investigating the situation—but the investigation is not setting any records for speed.

In fact, the Navy regards this as a delicate problem for a reason that is somewhat startling. A Navy spokesman here explained that "we have to be very careful about things like this. Just because a man says something at some time in his past. doesn't mean there is a clear case against him.

"People may disagree as to what certain statements mean. A man's reputation and job is at stake."

Plain Statements

Deatherage, who organized the Knights of the White Camelia, and, according to the Dies Committee, was a steady correspondent of the Nazi International, called the World Service, has made some fairly plain statements. Here is one:

"As far as (our) program is concerned that is something else. We do not need Fascism or Nazism, that is true; but to my mind, we will have Fascism—call it what you may—for there can be no solution to this except a disciplined force under central leadership and an economic program that will put three millions back to work and keep them there."

Confidential Job

The office of Naval Intelligence is supposed to investigate carefully all persons employed on Navy work of a confidential nature. The project which Deatherage is directing for the firm of Doyle and Russell under contract with the Navy is so confidential that the Department refused to describe it.

It has been impossible to learn so far whether the Navy ever did investigate Deatherage, and, if so, whether the department concluded he was a fit person to place in a confidential capacity. It has been learned on good authority that the FBI was not asked for a report on Deatherage.

"Spotless Record"

Deatherage's employers apparently intend to keep him on unless the Navy orders them to discharge him.

J. K. Bates, general superintendent of Doyle and Russell, defended Deatherage thus:

"From the little information I have been able to obtain, his record is spotless. He's an exceptionally capable man, an indefatigable worker and as long as he continues to produce and satisfy, that's all that counts."

DEATHERAGE LOSES JOB AT NAVY BASE BY ORDER OF KNOX

Ex-Head of Knights of White Camellia Is 'Undesirable' for Such Work, Says Secretary

WAS ENGINEER AT NORFOLK

At Dies 1939 Inquiry He Told of Contacts With Nazis—Tried to Unite U. S. 'Fascists'

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23—George E. Deatherage, described as the head of a former alleged Fascist organization, today was barred from further naval work by order of Secretary Knox. Deatherage has been employed by Doyle & Russell, contractors on the naval operating base at Norfolk.

The order was announced by the Navy, as follows:

"After an investigation of the activities of George E. Deatherage, employed by Doyle & Russell, contractors on construction work at the Naval Operating Base, Norfolk, Va., the Secretary of the Navy has invoked the provisions of Article 27 (c) of the contract, which requires that the contractors shall discharge from employment and exclude from the site of the work any person designated by the Secretary of the Navy as undesirable to have access to the work and/or materials of the Navy Depart-

Admitted Nazi Contacts

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23—George E. Deatherage was formerly national commander of the Knights of the White Camellia.

Deatherage acknowledged contacts with the German Embassy and with Nazi propaganda sources when the Dies Committee investigated his activities in 1939. He has recently been employed by the contracting firm of Doyle and Russell on a $7,000,000 project at the Norfolk, Va., naval base.

Deatherage told the Dies Committee, at a stormy hearing, that the Knights of the White Camellia was designed to combat communism and "the Jew problem." He testified that he maintained contacts with other organizations in this country of a similar nature and told of efforts to organize an "American nationalist confederation" for which he had selected the swastika as an emblem.

His outfit, a secret society, exchanged literature with a propaganda organization in Germany, he testified, and he consulted with the German Consulate in San Francisco and the German Embassy in Washington.

At Norfolk today, Deatherage had no statement to make immediately. J. K. Bates, general superintendent for Doyle & Russell, said the loss of Deatherage would be a blow to the national defense program.

John W. Russell, member of the firm holding the Norfolk Navy base contract, said at Richmond, Va., that Deatherage would be dismissed.

"Mr. Deatherage has worked for us at Camp Lee and at Norfolk in the engineering department," Mr. Russell said. "He is an extremely competent and highly trained engineer who has held some very responsible positions in the construction field.

"He has done a splendid job while working for us, but any order of the Secretary of the Navy is an order to us and will be observed."

Deatherage formerly was construction foreman for the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corporation at South Charleston, W. Va.

He left the plant, one of the largest in the multimillion-dollar Kanawha Valley chemicals industry, about 1936.

cist form of government in the United States under the leadership of a man on "horseback."

His nominee for the leader was Major Gen. George Van Horn Moseley, retired, although General Moseley, in two interviews he had with the retired officer, never indicated his willingness to take part in the scheme, according to Deatherage.

Deatherage told the Dies Committee that he got the idea for his secret society, the Knights of the White Camellia, from a military society organized by former Confederate officers in 1867 as an ally of the Ku Klux Klan. He asserted that he and four or five other persons, whom he claimed to be descendants of original members, got a charter in West Virginia in 1935, incorporating the organization, with headquarters in his home in St. Albans, W. Va.

One of his chief activities was in sending out mimeographed circulars which purported to expose Communist activities. Another was to send out letters to people who relished the outpourings of his mimeograph machine, asking for contributions to "help the work." He maintained relations with James E. Campbell of Owensboro, Ky., and others attacked by the Dies Committee as "native Fascists" in the "common cause," which he defined as "fighting the world-wide drive—and especially in the United States—of Jewish communism."

Organized "Confederation"

Deatherage admitted that he had corresponded with Fritz Kuhn, leader of the pro-Nazi German-American Bund, and that his organization was one of a number with which an international anti-Communist organization, having headquarters in Rome, Italy, was maintaining liaison.

He organized an "American Nationalist Confederation," an alleged "united Fascist movement" in association with William Dudley Pelley, Silver Shirt leader; the Rev. Gerald B. Winrod, Charles B. Hudson, James True, E. N. Sanctuary, Robert E. Edmondson, E. J. Peyton and Henry D. Allen, several of whom were active in promoting anti-Semitism, but according to the Dies Committee the grouping could never get going because the various leaders could not agree on an acceptable national leader.

Spreading anti-Semitism was a principal objective of Deatherage's secret society, the Dies Committee reported, finding that it was to be grouped with Italian Fascist, White Russian and Ukrainian organizations as sympathetic allies of the pro-Nazi bund.

Deatherage Barred From Navy Project By Secretary Knox

Action Groups Organizer Held 'Undesirable'; Loss From Job Called 'Blow'

Branded as an "undesirable" because of disclosures before the Dies Committee in 1939, George E. Deatherage was barred today by Secretary Knox from further connection with Navy construction projects, although the loss of his services as an engineer was characterized as a blow to the defense program by a spokesman for the company employing him.

According to testimony before the Dies Committee on Un-American Activities, Mr. Deatherage was organizer and national commander of the Knights of the White Camellia, which he said was opposing "Jewish Communism" in the United States. He also organized the American Nationalist Federation and his testimony told of visits to the German Embassy to discuss anti-Semitism and Nazi fund-raising techniques.

He has been employed by Doyle & Russell, contractors, on a $7,000,000 project at the Naval Operating Base at Norfolk.

Navy Explains Stand.

The Navy yesterday issued this statement about his employment:

"After an investigation of the activities of George E. Deatherage, employed by Doyle & Russell, contractors on construction work at the Naval Operating Base, Norfolk, Va., the Secretary of the Navy has invoked the provisions of Article 27 (C) of the contract, which requires that the contractors shall discharge from employment and exclude from the site of the work any person designated by the Secretary of the Navy as undesirable to have access to the work and/or materials of the Navy Department.

"Based on competent investigation, the Secretary of the Navy has found that Mr. Deatherage is an undesirable person within the meaning of the contract, and as such will be excluded from the site of Navy work."

In Richmond, John W. Russell, a member of the firm, said Mr. Deatherage would be dismissed, although "he has done a splendid job while working for us." J. K. Bates, general superintendent for the contractors, said he felt that the ouster of the engineer would hurt the defense program.

Deatherage Silent.

Mr. Deatherage had no comment.

Mr. Deatherage formerly was construction foreman for the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corp. at South Charleston, W. Va.

He left the plant, one of the largest in the multi-million dollar Kanawha Valley chemicals industry, about 1936, three years before an inquiry by the Dies Committee.

He carried on his organizational work from his home at St. Albans, near Charleston, between 1936 and 1939.

Mr. Deatherage told the Dies Committee that the Knights of the White Camellia maintained contacts with other organizations in this country of a similar nature, and related efforts to organize an "American Nationalist Confederation," for which he had selected the swastika as an emblem.

His outfit, a secret society, exchanged literature with a propaganda organization in Germany, he testified, and he consulted with the German consulate in San Francisco, as well as the German Embassy here.

Deatherage Sees Smear In Loss of Naval Post

Says Ouster Resulted From Urging Workers' Uniforms

PETERSBURG, Va., Feb. 25 (AP).—George E. Deatherage, dismissed from an important engineering post at the Norfolk Naval Base at the order of Frank Knox, Secretary of the Navy, said today that he was one of "millions of American citizens who wanted to stay out" of the war, but since we have been attacked "our only job now is to win this war."

"I regret, of course, having to leave the naval base," Deatherage said in a statement. "The men there are doing a great job, and I suggest that for the first time we let the Army and Navy run this war. They haven't had a chance at it yet. Most certainly if running George Deatherage out of the naval base will help Frank Knox avert the Pearl Harbors and Singapores I am quite content."

Secretary Knox earlier this week classed Deatherage, organizer and leader of so-called patriotic societies, as an "undesirable person" for Navy work. Deatherage, according to testimony before the Dies Committee in 1939, was organizer and national commander of the Knights of the White Camelia and organizer of the American Nationalist Federation. His testimony related to visits to the German Embassy to discuss anti-Semitism and Nazi fund-raising techniques.

"The recent episode resulting in my dismissal came about in a very peculiar manner," Deatherage said. "Some weeks ago I addressed a government agency, the National Inventors' Council, suggesting to them that defense efficiencies could be raised at least 10 per cent by putting all defense workers in uniform for the sole purpose of raising their morale and making them feel that they were part of the war effort.

"I received a reply," he continued, "to the effect that such a suggestion did not come within the jurisdiction of the National Inventors' Council and that it was being turned over to Mr. Hillman. Although the letter was confidential it, or its contents, was turned over to the left-wing press, who immediately started a smearing campaign."

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

RE: GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE

On February 15, 1942, the New York newspaper "P M" carried an article relative to George E. Deatherage headlined "Nightshirt Fascist Runs $7,000,000 Navy Job." This article pointed out that Deatherage is now executive engineer for Doyle and Russell, the contractors in charge of construction at the Naval Operating Base, Norfolk, Virginia, and went on to set out a background of Deatherage's connections with the Knights of the White Camellia. It was also pointed out that several years ago Deatherage attempted to unite all native Fascist organizations in one federation, promoting Major General George Van Horn Moseley for American Fuehrer, suggesting to General Moseley that an effort be made to persuade United States Army Reserve officers to take key places in a proposed Fascist army in the United States. Follow-up articles along the same lines appeared in a Norfolk, Virginia, newspaper on February 16, 1942, and in the Washington Post on February 18, 1942.

You will recall that Deatherage gained wide publicity as National Commander of the Knights of the White Camellia, an anti-Communist, anti-Jewish, Fascist group which he founded in 1934 and had incorporated in August, 1935, in the State of West Virginia, with himself as National Commander.

He also organized the American Nationalist Confederation in 1937, ostensibly for the purpose of establishing liaison with other groups having the same objectives as the Knights of the White Camellia. This organization was never incorporated and did not seek individual members. On a mimeographed bulletin put out by this organization dated April 23, 1938, the caption read "Platform of the American Nationalist Confederation--- a Fascist Party." The official emblem of this organization was a swastika. Among those who affiliated themselves with this organization were William Dudley Pelley of the Silver Shirts, Gerald B. Winrod, James True, Charles B. Hudson, Editor of "America in Danger," one Mrs. Frey, a West Coast pro-Nazi leader and head of the Militant Christian Patriots,

Complete and file memo to Watson & Tolson

Donald Shea of the National Gentile League, and F. W. Clark of the National Liberty Party.

During 1937, 1938, and 1939, Deatherage was active in various Fascist movements, went on speaking tours, and on August 23, 1939, shared the platform at a Christian Mobilizer Rally with Fritz Kuhn and Joseph E. McWilliams.

On May 23, 1939, Deatherage testified before the Dies Committee relative to the activities of the Knights of the White Camellia, at which time he refused to divulge information concerning the membership or chapters of this organization, stating that he had taken an oath never to make such information public.

Deatherage was born November 15, 1894, at Duluth, Minnesota, attended high school there, and later pursued a course in Civil Engineering from the International Correspondence School while working for construction companies in the Midwest and in New York City. He married about 1920 but is estranged from his wife and eighteen year old son, who live in Duluth, Minnesota.

He was employed for many years as an engineer for the Carbide and Chemical Corporation, South Charleston, West Virginia, losing his job in 1937 because of his Fascist activities. In 1940 he was employed as a construction engineer at Camp Lee, Virginia, under the Construction Quartermaster of the War Department. He completed this job in May, 1941, and secured a position as executive engineer with the Doyle and Russell Construction Company at the United States Naval Operating Base, Norfolk, Virginia.

Deatherage is now under investigation by this Bureau and a report dated August 8, 1941, at Richmond, Virginia, sets out the fact that he was employed as executive engineer by Doyle and Russell, contractors performing work at the Naval Operating Base in Norfolk, Virginia, together with complete information on his background and activities. Copies of this report were sent to G-2, Baltimore, Maryland, and ONI, Norfolk, Virginia, as well as all field offices in the United States. It was stated in this report that ONI at Norfolk, Virginia, had Deatherage under surveillance. Both ONI and G-2 are being kept advised as to the results of the Bureau's investigation and copies of all investigative reports are being forwarded to them.

Respectfully,

D. M. Ladd.

U.S. Will Win—by Nazi Plan, Says Deatherage, Chief of White Camelia, Now in Key War Job

By Alfred Friendly

Post Staff Writer

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 17.—The war is doing so well in developing "disciplined force under central leadership," the avowed objective of the Knights of the White Camelia, that its national commander, George E. Deatherage, has let the organization lapse and has gone to work as chief engineer of a construction firm in the heart of the great naval operating base here.

Deatherage, whose testimony in May, 1939, before the Dies Committee was lurid with details of his close tie-up with the Nazi propaganda headquarters at Ecfurt, Germany, of his swastika-emblazoned American Nationalist Federation, and of his two visits to the German Embassy to discuss anti-Semitism and Hitler's fund-raising technique, is just as sure now as he was then of the imminence of a national social revolution.

A big man, tweedy and bespectacled, still showing an occasional trace of the old white Camelia ferocity, Deatherage said in an interview today: "I've been hitting 'em on the eight ball pretty right for the last five or six years. Now I'm sitting on the sidelines, waiting. I'll be proved as right or wrong in a hurry. It's coming up fast."

Sitting on the sidelines is not quite right, however, since Deatherage's job is one of key responsibility in 30 million dollars worth of construction orders (official Navy figures are $6,471,400, but these probably do not include subcontracts) held by the Norfolk contracting firm of Doyle & Russel.

Deatherage's work, on expansion projects in the Hampton Roads naval establishments, with its gigantic concentration of ships, planes and supplies, has made him enthusiastic, fiercely optimistic, indeed, about the war's ultimate outcome, even though he believes that the war itself might have been avoided or at least staved off.

"But we're in it now," he says, "and we've got to win it. It's unthinkable that we lose this war. We've just got to win it."

Not that we're winning it now. Deatherage believes that we're losing it at the moment. But changes will be made, must be made, in order to weld a centralized control in Washington of 130 million people, he is convinced.

Liberals to Be Wiped Out

The supreme irony of this the knights' commander laughs, is that the "liberals, pinkos and internationalists" who accused him of being a Fascist in 1939 are the very

of committees running in to argue every decision."

"You can't let this thing go on another 12 months like it has without somebody losing their necks," he argues, referring specifically to Washington "misfits, social workers and political hacks." But the change will come almost automatically, under the pressure of circumstances, he is confident.

The Knights of the White Camelia and the American Nationalist Federation which Deatherage organized from among 30 to 40 similar patriotic bodies such as the militant Christian Crusaders, the National Gentile League, the Christian Free Press and groups headed by James True and Gerald Winrod, is necessary in this process.

"As for the Nationalist Federation," he explains, "we were organized to prevent something. Something has happened that has taken it out of our hands. We can't do anything about it. If history repeats itself, this thing (centralized control) will happen naturally. There's nothing to do about it. Experience in Europe is a pattern; why theorize?"

The man whom the Dies Committee found to have selected the fiery swastika as the symbol of the National Federation, to have advocated striking "terror and fear into the hearts of many by burning a fiery swastika" even as the Ku Klux Klan burned the fiery cross, and to have toured the West Coast with Johannes Klapproth, Nazi Party member and organizer of the Friends of New Germany, has this to say about his own objectives for America:

"I'm for America for Americans, and to hell with the other guys. They'll double cross you every time. (Specifically mentioned, in detail, were the British and the Australians). Americans are naturally isolationists.

"I've got my own ideas on what we are fighting for.

"I think we have enough wealth and opportunity to give everyone in America a chance. I'm not advocating Huey Long's 'Share the wealth' plan, but that's the idea.

"The men in Washington—a perfect example is Hillman—have got to step out and give places to others who are competent.

"The very thing the Liberals and Pinks and Internationalists were fighting against must be cheated to win this war—to discipline, control and regiment 130 million people. We have to fight a machine the Germans built by centralized control. To build it we, too, have to have centralized control. But a man's a fool to build it and then try to call it democracy."

Fascist Deatherage Runs Big Contract for Navy

White Camellia Leader Executive Engineer on U. S. $7,000,000 Job

By KENNETH C. CRAWFORD
PM's Bureau

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—George E. Deatherage, who a few years ago was trying to unite all native Fascist organizations in one federation promoting Maj. Gen. George Van Horn Moseley for American fuehrer, has turned up as the engineer in charge of a $7,000,000 naval construction project at Norfolk, Va.

He is the executive engineer for Doyle and Russell, the contractors in charge of construction at one of the Nation's most important Atlantic bases.

Moreover, Deatherage still is preserving America for its white, Anglo-Saxon citizens. He recently proposed to the National Inventors' Council in a letter that it adopt his idea for creation of a semi-military corps of civilian Government workers to guard the Nation from its internal enemies. He used to regard all Americans except those of Anglo-Saxon origin as potential enemies of the Nation. His letter to the Council was what called the attention of Government officials to his present connections.

Deatherage testified before the Dies Committee in the Summer of 1939 that he was the leader of an organization called the Knights of the White Camellia. It was a Fascist-like organization which at the time was trying to establish a federation of similar organizations to be named the American Nationalist Federation. Deatherage identified correspondence revealing that it was his ambition to make Moseley "the man on the white horse."

To this end he approached Father Coughlin, the National Union for Social Justice, and other such leaders.

The publication of Deatherage's projected amalgamation of the native Fascist organizations, called the Bulletin of the American Nationalist Federation, defined Fascism as "patriotic revolt such as the revolt of the White Russians against Jewrocracy." Deatherage told the Dies Committee his object was to form an organization capable of defending the Nation against Communism.

Associate of Gilbert's

He said he fully expected a Communist revolution.

At one time Deatherage was closely associated with Dudley Pierpont Gilbert, rich young New Yorker who prepared a hideway in the Kentucky mountains against the time when the revolution would make his New York home untenable for an Anglo-Saxon. It was Gilbert who circulated reports on conversations said to have been overheard by a waiter named Rice in a Jewish club in New York. These conversations were supposed to reveal that Jews in the Administration were plotting to take over the country.

The Dies Committee never found Rice. Moreover, its hearings seemed to put an end to the Moseley-for-Dictator boom. However, Deatherage stood by his conviction that the revolution was just around the corner throughout the hearings.

In 1938, a Fascist boom started to make Homer Capehart, the phonograph millionaire, President of the U. S. A. in 1940. In charge of that campaign was James E. Campbell, one of the leading peddlers of native Fascist propaganda. Meetings were held to advance the candidacy, and the aid of Deatherage, Fritz Kuhn of the German-American Bund, William Dudley Pelley of the Silver Shirts, and Father Coughlin, was enlisted. On Dec. 14, 1938, Deatherage wrote to Campbell:

"I believe as you do that it will take military action to get this gang (the Roosevelt Administration) out and the organization must be built around a propaganda organization now that can in a few hours be turned into a militant fighting force. To my mind, we will have Fascism, call it what you may, for there can be no solution for this exeept a disciplined force under central leadership, and an economic program that will put these millions back to work and keep them there. . . . I do not think that we can create a program under constitutional framework."

Deatherage also suggested that Gen. Moseley make an effort to persuade reserve officers of the U. S. Army to take key places in a proposed Fascist army.

Officers' Uniforms Sold Freely, No Questions Asked

PM Shops 8 New York Stores, All Eager to Sell

By Leo J. Margolin

Without the slightest identification, an Axis agent can buy or rent an Army or Navy officer's uniform, complete with correct insignia, in any of about 100 places in town.

I shopped eight of the stores and found I could have bought or rented these uniforms, no questions asked, in any of them.

I discovered that it is not against the law to sell, buy or rent Army and Navy officers' uniforms without proper identification. It's only against the law to wear such uniforms without the proper commission.

In each of the stores I asked to see the uniforms and tried them on for fit. At the point of closing the deal, I asked:

"Don't I have to show you any identification permitting me to wear this uniform?"

"No! None at all!" was the usual answer.

Buyers' Guide

Here are the stores I visited:

Triangle Store, Flatbush and Fifth Aves., Brooklyn.

R. H. Macy & Co., Broadway and 34th St.

B. Altman & Co., Fifth Ave. and 34th St.

Brooks Bros., 346 Madison Ave.

Abercrombie & Fitch Co., Madison Avenue and 45th St.

Army & Navy Accessory Store, Inc., 224 W. 42d St.

Eaves Costume Co., 151 W. 46th St.

Brooks Costume Co., 1150 Sixth Ave.

At the Triangle Store, Leon Shapiro, the proprietor, said he would welcome any law regulating the sale of Army uniforms.

"We would be happy to co-operate," he said.

The salesman at Macy's looked at me suspiciously when I asked ~~about~~ identification.

There's A Law

He hesitated a moment, smiled and said: "You know, of course, it's against the law to wear this uniform if you are not authorized. The penalty is very severe."

Section 125 of the National Defense Act and Section 76, Title 18 of the U. S. Code prescribe a maximum penalty of six months in jail and a $300 fine for the illegal wearing of army and navy uniforms. Impersonating an officer carries a maximum penalty of three years and a $1000 fine.

In Altman's military shop, a pleasant, fast-talking salesman was ready to outfit me in record time.

"You know," he said, "these fellows come in fast and we get them out fast. They're always in a hurry."

At staid, conservative Brooks Bros., I was told "my friend in Washington" could be completely outfitted in the proper officer's uniforms by mail if the proper measurements—and check—were submitted.

They're doing a rush business in military and naval outfits, but the right price will buy there too.

The man at the Army & Navy Accessory Store couldn't understand why anyone, not properly authorized, would want to spend "a couple of hundred dollars" just to parade around in a uniform.

"They're nuts to do that," he insisted.

At Eaves and Brooks, the two largest costume rental places in town, all you have to do is say you want to rent the uniforms. These are among the few places in town where the uniform of an enlisted man in either the Army or the Navy could be obtained for the asking price.

The proper deposit and rental fee do the rest.

Held Key Post on Defense Job

Navy Removes Deatherage As 'An Undesirable Person'

The Navy yesterday ousted George E. Deatherage, promoter and leader of Fascist societies, from a key post with a construction company engaged in expanding the Norfolk (Va.) naval operating base.

Secretary Frank Knox ordered Deatherage's discharge as "an undesirable person" after The Washington Post had disclosed on February 18 that the national commander of the Knights of the White Camelia and the sponsor of the swastika-emblazoned American Nationalist Federation was chief engineer of a company doing important defense work.

An announcement from the Navy Department said that Knox had invoked a provision of a contract with the construction firm of Doyle & Russell, requiring that they fire anyone the Navy considers should not be allowed on defense work.

"Based on competent investigation," the announcement said, "the Secretary of the Navy has found that Mr. Deatherage is an undesirable person within the meaning of the contract and, as such, will be excluded from the site of Navy work."

The investigation was ordered following the publication of The Post story revealing that Deatherage held an important executive post with a company engaged in construction work costing some 30 million dollars at the principal naval base on the Atlantic Coast.

Deatherage then declared that he had let the Knights of the White Camelia lapse and was "sitting on

Sought German Advice

Back in May, 1939, Deatherage told the Dies Committee on un-American activities that he had visited the German Embassy seeking advice on how the Nazis raised money before Hitler came to power in Germany. He also testified that his organization was opposed to communism and "international Jewery" and admitted that he had discussed "anti-Semiticism" with Baron Ulrichc von Gienanth, German Embassy attache.

His testimony before the committee also disclosed that he was in communication with the Nazi World Service in Germany—an organization to spread Naziism—and had received literature from them. He denied that he had received funds from them or had formal contacts.

In a letter introduced into the record of the Dies Committee, Deatherage expressed hopes for a Nation-wide propaganda organization so set up that it could be

A review of the Bureau's files regarding this individual indicates that he is strongly anti-Communist and anti-Semitic, but that no evidence of any connection between him and a foreign principal has been developed. Considerable investigation has been conducted, his private papers have been seized and examined, but to date no evidence of value has been located. In the past two and one-half years he has discontinued most of the activities which caused him to become the subject of Bureau investigation. He has not been head of the organization, ~~Knights~~ of the White Camellia, since November, 1939.

A letter written by the subject to a personal friend on September 30, 1940, indicates that he was out of funds at that time, as well as out of a job. The attack on Deatherage which recently appeared in ~~PM~~ was very probably prompted by the fact that Deatherage, in years gone by, was such a strong anti-Communist. As you are aware, the article in PM accomplished its purpose in that Deatherage was fired by the Navy Department.

No thorough examination of the subject's bank account or accounts, or of his income tax returns, has been made, and letters are being directed to the Norfolk and Huntington Field Divisions directing that this be done.

As previously indicated, no evidence of a Registration Act violation, a Voorhis Act violation, or any other Federal violation within the Bureau's investigative jurisdiction has been developed to the present time. It is believed that once the subject's sources of income have been carefully examined, and if they are examined with negative results, this case should be closed.

Dear Sirs:

March 12th. '42

From a local news paper we learn that the Justice Dept, would not trust a George E. Deatherage "to run a dog show". Neither do we know just why Frank Knox thought he was an "undesirable person". If Knox fired him, he must have hired him, and if Knox hired this Dreatherage, he must have knowm him- or should have known more about the men he gives any jobs to. This article leads me to wonder how many more Snakes are fed in the bosom of Politicians around Washington. Have we last the command of Gen. Geo. Washington to "Put None But AMERICANS On Guard"?.

Even the news paper obviously tries to hide the identity of this "Knight of Corruption" whose First Allegiance is to the Pope in far away Italy. According to Roman authority they are German, English, or American afterwards. The Roman Hierarchy controls the greatest spy system in all the world. I believe this is why Britain had so much trouble in Norway-- yet we can't locate our trouble or havent the guts to call a hault. The Catholic Weekly Albany, N.Y. says in part: When the Pope speaks, God speaks; and on page 89 of Cannon Law of 1400,no, "1918", we find: "All religious ARE Subject to the Pope- whom they are bound to obey". Bishop Markowski says: "The Catholic soldiers of Germany know they are waging a just war.

Richard Werner told the Dies Committe in (Sept) 1940: the New York German-American Bund was trained for "The Day".. So the Pope expects to rule the world by useing the German Emblem. Yet "Loyal" Americans still send millions to Italy so the Pope can support the German War Machine as they did in World War #1. Now I am wondering if former Gen. Geo.VanHorn Mosely is any relation to the Pope, if so, perhaps Gen. W.C.Short and Adm. H.E.Kimmel are Cousins----Prepared for "that day.". Yet we will continue to put unHoly Roman (Alien) Priests in the front line so they can signal the enemy-- then we run around crying "Remember Pearl Harbor". Remember- Sgt.J.W.Lockard told that 'Planes were Coming'-Trouble at hand for a Nation Drunk with the Wine of Procrastination.

The Minute Men of America have been sounding the warning for years "with John, the Revelator" just as they did on the Morning of Dec. 7th. last: The Beast of Revelation,the Horor of many Nations is at our very door; still we sleep on, waiting for "That Day",the 2nd Bartholomew Morn.

We have no desire to cause anyone to have a Night-mare, but March the 17th. will soon be here again. This is the day we are told they drove the snakes out of Ireland; some came to Detroit and they made Policemen out of them; some came to Flint and we don't know how many landed in Washington. While we appreciate what the F.B.I. has done recently; we feel the time has come for a New Side-show along the line of action. ie., in behalf of the United Nations we have reasons which promps us to demand a careful search of every Roman Church, school, workshop, and their leaders homes on a given day, soon. This may seem strange but we are sure you will get-- and information you never dreamed of.

Among many things the Nation demands i[illegible] Therefore, I suggest for the benefit of all tha[illegible] who pays anything to a Union after May 1st. 1942 [illegible]s after close of the war, shall be [illegible] anyone on striko or impedding production [illegible]l be dealt with accordingly! INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Dear Sir:

A review of the file on this subject does not indicate that any evidence of a Registration Act violation, or of a Voorhis Act violation, has been developed against this subject, nor does it appear that there is any evidence of any other violation within the Bureau's investigative jurisdiction. It would appear rather that the subject has almost completely discontinued the activities which caused him to become the object of investigation by this Bureau.

It has been noted that no effort has ever been made to check the subject's bank accounts and sources of income. It is desired that this investigation be conducted by both of the offices receiving copies of this letter, and that efforts be made to trace his sources of income for the past three years. A request is being directed to the Treasury Department by the Bureau to forward copies of Deatherage's income tax returns for the years 1938, 1939 and 1940.

It is desired that the investigation outlined in this letter be conducted and complete reports submitted within ten days.

Very truly yours,

RUC

REFERENCE: Bureau letter dated 3-12-42 addressed to Special Agent in Charge, Cleveland, Ohio (77-20,154).

DETAILS: AT HUNTINGTON, WEST VIRGINIA

It has been ascertained that the Applicant was born at Duluth, Minnesota, 11-15-93, theson of ISAAC DEATHERAGE and MYRTLE BARNETTE. He attended public schools at Duluth and graduated from Denfield Technical High School and later took a course in civil engineering through the International Correspondence School. His wife is the former RUTH GLOVER, daughter of JOHN GLOVER and is said to be the granddaughter of HARRIETT DELANO of Dutchess County, New York.

Applicant was superintendent of yards of the Minnesota Steel Company at Duluth, Minnesota, in 1916, and was later employed by the A. G. McKee and Company of Cleveland, Ohio. Subsequent to that employment he was employed by the McKenzie Railroad in Canada and was lent by that company to the India Iron and Steel Company with offices in London, England. DEATHERAGE went to London where he worked for this same company until after the termination of the World War and in connection with his duties traveled extensively throughout Europe. For five and one-half years the Applicant was employed as superintendent in charge of construction by the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corporation, South Charleston, West Virginia, and at the time he severed his connection with this corporation in 1936 was earning $10,000 a year. Applicant was approached by JIM LAFFERTY, president of the firm who advised DEATHERAGE that information had reached the officials of the firm concerning statements which the Applicant had made and expressions of feeling toward the Jewish race. It is reported that LAFFERTY advised Applicant he was giving him the opportunity of remaining with the firm and discontinuing his writings, speeches, etc. against the Jews. At that time the Applicant advised he considered this an infringement upon his rights inasmuch as he felt he should do as he wished after working hours and thereafter severed his connections with the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corporation. Subsequent to this he was employed by the California Chemical Company, Palo Alto, California, which firm was interested in an experiment in connection with the extraction of Magnesium oxide from sea water. The Applicant claimed that he severed connections with this corporation due to the fact his work in connection with the Knights of the White Camellia became so extensive that he could not handle it and his engineering work and he chose to remain with the Knights of the White Camellia.

The Knights of the White Camellia was established in 1863 for the purpose of establishing the supremacy of the white minority in the south. Its membership was reported to exceed 2,000,000 and it was regarded as the most militant organization during the reconstruction era in the south. The organization temporarily disbanded, and was reorganized by the Applicant. National headquarters were established at Post Office box 467, St. Albans, West Virginia, with Applicant maintaining an office on the second floor of his home in St. Albans. The following information was obtained from perusal of the Knights of the White Camellia publication.

"The Knights of the White Camellia are dedicated to the proposition that this nation shall be ruled by White Aryan Christian stock who are the numerical majority. . . . It is clear that the major political parties have failed and are unable to do anything for the constructive welfare of our people, having bowed to the power of the purse as wielded by the international Jew. . . . We set forth the following further aims and ideals. . . . The awakening of National pride into a spirit of sound American Nationalism both economic and cultural; the stimulation of Comradship and Co-Operation; the abolishment of class strife and hatred; all opposed to the existing Jewish Internationalism. . . . The upholding of Christian civilization and the protection of Christianity against the attacks of Jewish Communism. . . . We therefore aim at racial purity, White supremacy, and a Christian guardianship over racial groups that cannot be assimilated. . . . With respect to the Jews, we maintain that they are not those that can be assimilated so as to form a cultural and racial unity with the American nation and must therefore remain an un-national and anti-national element. Regarded from a National viewpoint, they are not a producing, self-supporting group, but one which lives and flourishes on labor, production, means of livelihood and rights of workingmen of all nations; thus they are a dangerous and injurious element. We favor the stoppage of immigration and their deportation to a land of their own, in accordance with our present policy with other Asiatics. . . . The following program is to be enacted. A. Protection of all workers against the power of Jewish State Capitalism. B. The establishing and promotion of public group corporations, each consisting of persons who make their living from a given industry and trade, who shall elect their representatives to the Senate and Congress, each endowed with authority, subject to the checks and balances of our Constitutional government, to control all matters affecting conditions of work in that industry or trade. C. Opportunity for every citizen to work at a wage that will insure a decent American living, with the requirement that each shall exercise his capacities of work to the best of his ability and strength, in order to maintain his family and serve the nation of which he is a part. D. Hours of work to be shortened in line with the advances made in the installation of labor saving machinery, and wages to be correspondently increased to meet the needs of the worker. E. Minimum wage laws to be enforced to eliminate sweat shop conditions; unemployment insurance for all workers and old age pensions to be enacted which shall guarantee each deserving citizen incapable of support through his own reasonable efforts, or those in his immediate family; a definite security at the age of sixty. This not as charity but as a right of citizenship."

The Knights of the White Camellia claim the plan of the New Deal is Communistic and that ROOSEVELT is misguided by such men as FELIX FRANKFURTER. It alleges that the American press is controlled by the Jews, thereby making the dissemination of the truth inpossible. The Knights of the White Camellia maintain that Communism is of Jewish origin and that Communist and Jew are synonymous. "The Knights of the White Camellia insist that because of our numerical strength in this country that the nation be ruled entirely by Whites."

The official publications of the organization was entitled, "The White Knight" and was published at Charleston, West Virginia. It was copyrighted in 1936 by the Knights Organization Associates, Inc. The first edition of this magazine appeared 8-15-36 and was styled "The Jew Deal Issue" and was devoted to an expose' of the leading Jews in the U. S. government, whose names are: BERNARD M. BARUCH, CORDELL HULL, FELIX FRANKFURTER, C. E. WYSANSKI, JR., DAVID J. SAPOSS, ISADORE LUBIN, LEO WOLMAN, W. I. MYERS, W. C. BULLIT, HAROLD NATHAN, LOUIS H. BEAN, DAVID E. LILIENTHAL, NATHAN R. The below listed literature was furnished to a confidential source by the Applicant: Magazine, "Germany and You;" Paper, "Le Combat National;" list of the publications of ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON, Stoddartsville, Pennsylvania; "The Grunspan Case by Reich Minister Dr. GOEBBELS;" newspaper issue of "Deutscher Weckruf und Beobachter and The Free American" dated 4-6-39, printed speech of ADOLF HITLER delivered 3-7-36 entitled "ADOLF HITLER Offers France 25 Years of Peace;" leaflet entitled "Their Words, Our Deeds," extracts of speech delivered by Herr HILGENFELDT, head of the National Socialist Welfare Organization, at the Party Congress in Nyrnberg; "The German Winter Help" by ERICK HILGENFELDT; "Barter and National Prosperity" by ADOLF HITLER; "To the Poilu of Verdun" - An open letter from a German front line fighter; "ADOLF HITLER's Peace Message;" "Jewry and Penal Punishment"

- a statement by Lt. General DALUEGE to the press; "Bolshevism and the Farm Class" - resume' of a speech by a Reich Minister DARRE at the Reich Farmers Congress at Goslar; pamphlet "The New Order" published by Christian Free Press, P. O. Box 430, Glendale, California, containing an article covering the conference of the American Christian Conference in Kansas City, August 20 to 23 (year not given) under the auspices of the American National Confederation under Mr. G. DEATHERAGE, President; literature order blank of the Pelley Publishers, Box 2630, Asheville, North Carolina; subscription order of the Pelley Publishers, P. O. Box 1776, Asheville, North Carolina; bulletin, "World Service" published by ULRICH FLESICHHAUER, address "World Service" Daberstedterstr 4, Erfurt, Germany.

It is reported that an article by GEORGE DEATHERAGE appeared in the official organ of the German-American Bund "Die Deutscher Weckruf Und Beobachter" on 5-12-37 concerning the American Nationalist Confederation. The same magazine for 11-11-37 contained an announcement that GEORGE DEATHERAGE would be the principal speaker at the 11-18-37 meeting of the New York local of the German-American Bund.

Informant T1 advised that he had been influential in obtaining the below listed printing matter for the Applicant and an associate by the name of V. N. KOSITSIN: questionnaire - 3,000 copies; membership cards for Knights of the White Camellia, 75,000 copies; letterheads Knights of the White Camellia, established 1867, 10,000 copies; The American Nationalist Confederation, The News Bulletin, headings only, 20,000 copies; Seal of the University of California, 10 copies; Economic Royalists, Attention! ! 500 copies sent to Senators with open letter, of which Informant did not have copy; leeterhead showing a man typing - 500 copies; letterhead showing a ship with a swastika on it - 1,500 copies; American Nationalist Confederation name plates - 5,000 copies; membership cards with the swastika border - 5,000 copies; small business size envelopes - 500 copies - with return address on back as follows "KARL NEWMEISTER, 1898 Daly Avenue, New York City."

Informant T2 advised that in conversation DEATHERAGE had referred to such individuals as retired General VAN HORNE MOSLEY and Father COUGHLIN as people who are allying with the growing feeling against the Jews. He advised that General MOSLEY brought the Jewish question out in the open when he appeared before the National Defense Committee in Philadelphia 3-18-39. T2 advised that DEATHERAGE used vehement language in referring to Jews and their activities and insisted the B'nai B'rith was a secret intelligence service for the Jews and stated when Representative DICKSTEIN of New York was connected with the Dies Committee all information collected by that committee was in the hands of the B'nai B'rith within twenty-four hours. On 8-23-39 at Union Station in Washington, D. C. Applicant was contacted by HENRY D. ALLEN who was at that time testifying before the Dies Committee in Washington regarding un-American activities and by a Captain HUNTER McGUIRE, U. S. Army retired, who is known to be a distributor of PELLEY literature in the Army and Navy Club in Washington and who was frequently seen in the company of JAMES TRUE, publisher of "Industrial Control Report," an anti-Jewish publications.

T3 advised on 8-23-39 in New York City DEATHERAGE contacted Dr. W. SOHIER, and on 8-24-39 DEATHERAGE had a luncheon appointment with FRITZ KUHN, whom he contacted at the German-American Bund, 178 East 85th Street, New York City, and that Applicant and KUHN ate in a nearby restaurant. On the following night, 8-25-39, T3 advised, DEATHERAGE was met in the lobby of the Commodore Hotel, New York City, by JOSEPH E. McWILLIAMS and proceeded to Innisfail Park, West 240th Street, Bronx, New York, where a mass meeting was being held sponsored by the Christian Mobilizers. The attendance at this meeting was estimated to be 5,000. T3 advised that among the other speakers was FRITZ KUHN who was observed to engage DEATHERAGE in a very animated discussion for about twenty minutes immediately preceding the opening of the mass meeting. In the audience were about sixty members of the German-American Bund attired in gray shirts, black ties, an dark trousers. T3 advised commands were given in German and military drill was executed by this organization. Another unit in military formation was observed, consisting of two platoons of twenty-six men each who were wearing dark trousers and light shirts with a blue armband bearing the initials C. M. indicating Christian Mobilizers. T3 advised that DEATHERAGE was the principal speaker on this occasion and that particularly inflammatory remarks were greeted by cheers and by the arising and giving the Nazi outstretched hand salute by some members in the audience. At many times the audience was worked up to a high pitch and exclaimed, "Hang the Jews and shoot them." T3 advised that on the preceding night 8-24-39 McWILLIAMS spoke at the Tri-Borough Palace, Third Avenue in the Bronx, at a Christian Mobilizers meeting. In his speech McWILLIAMS stated that DEATHERAGE was one of the greatest men in the United States fighting for the place of Christians in this country. McWILLIAMS pointed with considerable pride to the fact that when DEATHERAGE was in London, England, he was closely associated with an unnamed individual who had fought side by side with ADOLF HITLER in the Munich Beer Hall Putsch.

The "Charleston, West Virginia, Daily Mail" on 11-2-39 contained an article to the effect that Applicant had resigned as national commander of the Knights of the White Camellia after having held that position for four years. His statement was "When members of the organization asked me if I wanted to run for reelection lately, I informed them I wouldn't be available any more. I built the organization up to its present size and I felt it was time for someone else to take charge." He said he "didn't expect to be successful at first as a lot of people think I am a Hitlerite. Anyone who has studies the world situation knows I have never been a Communist-Nazi sympathizer. I have always wanted to keep America for Americans and not internationalists."

In April 1940 the Applicant by letter advised T4 that he would suggest concentrating on education of three or four fellows who could be educated to leadership and not to worry about the rank and file as they would follow when the time was ripe. He suggested that at the conclusion of the national conventions things would crystallize into action and at that time he would have more concrete suggestions to offer. He suggested to T4 that he subscribe to "Vigilante" bulletins sent out by ROBERT EDMONDSON of Stoddartsville, Pennsylvania as they would keep one abreast of things. It is not known to what the above mentioned letter applies.

An article appearing in the "Huntington, West Virginia, Advertizer" 4-2-40 indicates that Applicant instituted suit against STANLEY HIGH and the Curtis Publishing Company to recover damages for alleged libel. Subsequent press dispatches indicated the suit was dropped by the plaintiff.

Informant T5 was advised by DEATHERAGE that he had received anti-Semitic propaganda from Germany and that he had distributed it. He also advised that this literature had on occasion been solicited by him but that a great deal of it was sent to him without an request for same having been made by him. He stated that he was a past commander of the St. Albans, West Virginia, post but that at that time (1-1-41) he was inactive with an honorary life membership in the Knights of the White Camellia. He related to T5 that neither the Knights of the White Camellia nor himself had ever had anything to do with any foreign government or organization and the main purpose of the organization had been to drive Communism from America. He further stated they did not advocate the use of force or violence in so doing. He stated it was a known fact that the Jews were behind all Communist activity in Russia, England, France, and America. DEATHERAGE concluded that the Knights of the White Camellia believed that the Jews behind the movement in America should be submerged; however, he felt that the Knights of the White Camellia had been mistaken in assuming that the American people would awaken if told of the Jewish menace. He advised that the Knights had abandoned this and were doing nothing at that time. He stated that investigation had disclosed that the Knights of the White Camellia were not interested in overthrowing the government or sabotaging the national defense program. He stated that the only sabotage came from the Jewish bankers and labor leaders in this country.

Informant T6 advised that the Applicant had made application for employment with him and that an investigation had been conducted pursuant to which Applicant was not employed. In the investigation it was determined that in 1937 DEATHERAGE attended a conference held by World Service in Erfurt, Germany and as a representative of the Nationalist Confederation addressed the group on the subject, "Will America be the Jew's Waterloo?" Additional information disclosed in this investigation revealed that the Applicant had been connected with FRITZ KUHN, General MOSLEY, GEORGE CHRISTIANS, JAMES TRUE, JAMES CAMPBELL, and WILLIAM D. PELLEY. This report states that DEATHERAGE in testifying before the Dies Committee in the spring of 1939 admitted that the platform of the Nationalist Confederation was completely Fascistic, and that he would like to become the "American HITLER." additional information reveals that in 1938 DEATHERAGE attended a merger of all Fascists and anti-Semitic organizations into one unit called the American Nationalist Confederation. The report indicates that the attempted confederation was a failure.

By letter dated 6-3-41 the Applicant accused Director J. EDGAR HOOVER of the FBI of employing a so-called "blacklist" against his employment on defense projects during this period of emergency. By letter dated 6-11-41 he was advised by the Director that the FBI has no jurisdiction over the personnel policies of the private concerns and he was in error in believing that the FBI had in any way been interested in his employment.

T7 advised that in June 1941 the Applicant was employed as an engineer by Doyle and Russell Contracting Company at U. S. Naval Operating Base, Norfolk, Virginia, at which time he had in his possession several anti-Semitic circulars and received letters and materials from the National Workers' League of Detroit, Michigan, the Constitutional Money League of America, Washington, D. C., and the Women's National Committee to Keep the United States out of War, Washington, D. C. T7 reports that the Applicant possessed a considerable amount of German propaganda pamphlets including "The Function of the German Labor Pass," "The People's Court in Germany," and "The HITLER Party, What It Is and What Are Its Aims." T7 advised that in his testimony before the DIES Committee he had testified that he had instructed leaders of his groups to burn swastikas as a substitute for the cross burning of the Ku Klux Klan and to publicize the organization and to terrorize the Reds and the Jewish sympathizers. T7 further stated the chief source of finances for the organization was DEATHERAGE's personal fortune of $25. T7 informed that DEATHERAGE organized the American Nationalist Confederation in January 1937 for the purpose of establishing liason with other groups having the same objective; however, DEATHERAGE admitted this confederation had been only a letter head organization and did not seek individual members. T7 advised that on page 3 of a mimeographed bulletin dated 4-23-38 there was the caption "Platform of the American Nationalist Confederation - A Fascist Party." T7 stated that the official emblem of that party was a swastika and added that among those affiliating themselves with the organization were PELLEY of the Silver Shirts, GERALD P. WINROAD, JAMES TRUE, E. N. SANCTUARY, ROBERT E. EDMONDSON, CHARLES B. HUDSON, MRS. FRYE (head of the Militant Christian Patriots), HENRY D. ALLEN, DONALD SHEA, (National Gentile League); F. W. CLARK (National Liberty Party). T7 advised that in August 1937 DEATHERAGE called for an American Christian Conference under the auspices of the American Nationalist Confederation, which conference was attended by approximately seventy persons in Kansas City, Missouri, and all sessions were presided over by DEATHERAGE. T7 advised that in 1941 Applicant was collaborating with JAMES TRUE, and ROBERT EDMONDSON, regarding the formation of the American Christian Nationalist Party. Applicant and his collaborators are said by T7 to have evolved an elaborate plan for the new organization calling for the establishment of a National Council, national leaders, regional, state, district, and post leaders in every county in the United States. The regional districts were to correspond with the nine corps areas of the United States. The platform of the Party called for the supremacy of the White Race and Christian guardianship over races which could not be assimilated. It pledged protection to the Negroes in addition to full justice and adoption of a policy which would develop the Negro national character and traditions. The party pledged itself to a policy of stringent legislation to control the immigration of Jews from other countries, to destroy existing Jewish domination of our national, state, and local governments, and to limit Jewish influence in ever sphere especially in the academic, legal, and medical professions, monopolized industries, moving pictures, radio broadcasting, the press, and all publicity, government positions, rade unions, and agriculture. Legislation will be passed by the national government to settle the Jewish problem for all time. The Nationalist Party platform designates all Jews as aliens.

T8 advised that the American Christian Nationalist Party is not known in the Los Angeles area but that GEORGE DEATHERAGE was known to have been associated with the Militant Christian Patriots in California. This organization was headed by MRS. LESLIE FRY who has associated herself with Faith McCULLOUGH, General VAN HORNE MOSLEY, Conrad CHAPMAN, and WILLIAM DUDLY PELLEY. The organization put out a newspaper entitled "Christian Free Press" which was devoted largely to anti-Semitism according to T8. Two packages containing fifty copies of the publication "World Service, No. VIII 6/7" entitled "International Correspondence for Enlightenment on the Jewish Question" were addressed to GEORGE DEATHERAGE, No. 2, East Gore Street, Orlando, Florida, United States.

Informant T9 advised the return address on the packages was Deutsche Welt-Dienst Frankfurt a Main, Schwingstrafze, Germany.

An article appearing in the "Huntington, West Virginia, Herald-Dispatch" bearing a Washington, D. C. dateline 2-23-42 reveals that GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE had been branded as "an undesirable person" to work on Navy contracts, and that he had been ousted from the Hampton Roads establishment where he was employed as a construction engineer. At the time he was employed by the contracting firm of DOYLE and RUSSELL on a $7,000,000 contract at the Norfolk, Virginia, Naval Base. The article indicates that the Secretary of the Navy invoked the provision of Article 27 (C) of the contract, which requires the contractors to discharge from employment and exclude from the site of the work any person designated by the Secretary of the Navy as undesirable to have access to the work and/or materials of the Navy Department. An article appearing in the"Huntington, West Virginia, Herald-Dispatch" 3-3-42 reveals that DEATHERAGE had demanded of the Secretary of the Navy a hearing on his dismissal from employment at the Norfolk Base project and at the same time gave Secretary of the Navy KNOX' name as a reference in connection with a War Production Board position. In his letter to Secretary KNOX as quoted in the newspaper DEATHERAGE stated, "I also demand an open hearing before the authorities having jurisdiction and if I am found guilty of any disloyal or treasonable act I am quite willing to take any penalty that will be imposed."

The writer contacted E. H. VENABLE, Morrison Building, Charleston, West Virgin a, who is secretary of the West Virginia State Registration Board for Professional Engineers. Mr. VENABLE advised that Applicant is registered as a civil engineer with the State Registration Board for professional engineers; that he lists his employment as "business for self"; and that St. Albans, West Virginia, is listed as his residence. Mr. VENABLE advised that engineers register annually and that the Applicant is registered through 6-30-42.

DETAILS: AT NORFOLK, VIRGINIA:

Captain C. H. COTTER, in charge of Public Works for the 5th Naval District, United States Navy, produced records indicating that GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE had been employed by the construction firm of Doyle and Russell as Superintendent of the Field Engineers of that firm, and that he was paid $95 per week. Captain COTTER stated that in this capacity DEATHERAGE did a splendid job in supervising and planning construction being done by Doyle and Russell on the Naval Operating Base and on other Naval facilities in and around Norfolk, Virginia. He said that DEATHERAGE voluntarily put in many hours of over-time work for which he drew no added compensation. Captain COTTER said that JOHN RUSSELL, who headed the firm of Doyle and Russell, once told him that he had paid DEATHERAGE a bonus of $1,500 over and above his regular salary in view of the splendid job DEATHERAGE had been doing.

Captain COTTER admitted that soon after DEATHERAGE came to Norfolk he had heard rumors regarding pro-Fascist tendencies on the part of the applicant. He said that as a result of these rumors he had watched DEATHERAGE rather closely and that he had kept in touch with the Office of Naval Intelligence in order to make certain that DEATHERAGE was not attempting to spread propaganda among the workers at the Naval Operating Base. He said that during the entire period of DEATHERAGE's employment on the Naval Operating Base he had been unable to find any evidence of subversive activities on the part of DEATHERAGE, and that he had been advised by the Office of Naval Intelligence that DEATHERAGE apparently was devoting his full-time to his work.

Captain COTTER said that DEATHERAGE had been discharged on the express direction of the Secretary of Navy on the ground that he was unfit to work on Naval defense projects. Captain COTTER said that he had never heard anything to indicate that the moral character of DEATHERAGE was other than correct.

Lieutenant GUY, of the Office of Naval Intelligence, was then contacted. He advised that he had handled the supervision of the activities of the applicant while employed on the Naval Operating Base. He said that as long as applicant worked on the Naval Operating Base no evidence had been obtained to indicate active participation in subversive activities on the part of DEATHERAGE. Lieutenant GUY stated, however, that through a confidential source information had been received to indicate that the applicant still corresponded with former pro-Fascist contacts. Lieutenant GUY also advised that while this correspondence did not indicate active propagandizing on the part of DEATHERAGE, it did indicate that the pro-Fascist tendencies formerly indicated by DEATHERAGE were dormant rather than surrendered.

Inasmuch as this completes the investigation requested of the Norfolk Field Division, this case is being

RE: DEVERIDGE INTERNAL SECURITY

Dear Sir:

Referring to your letter of March 7, 1942, concerning the above referenced subject, please be advised that subject's true identity was ascertained by Special Agent S. H. Moore, Jr. in an interview had on March 16, 1942, with Johannes Steel, who is associated with station WMCA in this city.

According to Mr. Steel, the individual referred to on his program of Sunday evening, February 15, 1942 was George E. Deatherage, who, according to the Newspaper PM, was the engineer in charge of a seven million dollar naval construction project in Norfolk, Virginia, and was formerly the head of a Facist organization called the Knight of the White Camelia.

Mr. Steel stated, that it was his understanding that subsequent to the above mentioned radio program, Secretary of the Navy, Knox, ousted George E. Deatherage from his post as engineer of the Naval construction project mentioned above.

Very truly yours,

7-MILLION DOLLAR NAVY JOB IN HANDS OF NATIVE NAZI

The man who said on August 23, 1939: "I am not content to walk in the footsteps of Jesus Christ, I want to walk ahead of him with a club" is today executive engineer in charge of a $7,000,000 naval construction project at Norfold, Virginia. He is George Deatherage, leader of the Knights of the White Camelia. In 1939 he spoke at Innisfail Park, the Bronx, with Joe McWilliams, James Downey, and Bundfuehrer Fritz Kuhn. In 1942, he is an engineer for Doyle & Russell, contracting firm working at one of our biggest Atlantic bases.

Deatherage, whose major purpose during the late thirties was to form a great coalition of anti-Semitic, native fascist organizations into the American Nationalist Federation, believed Gen. George Van Horn Moseley was the man to lead the parade. This was before Lindbergh came along. Deatherage's line of thinking, revealed in one instance in a letter to James Campbell, promotor of Homer Capehart's brief campaign for President in 1938, was like this:

> "To my mind we will have Fascism, call it what you will, for there can be no solution for this except under a disciplined force under central leadership, and an economic program that will put these millions back to work and keep them there..."

At Innisfail, Deatherage's speech told off point after point in the anti-democratic line which the boys were to follow thereafter and up to now:

1) "The day is coming, and it is not far off, when a leader will appear on a platform that Catholics, Protestants and everyone else can unit on."

2) "This situation underground is a sullen, smoldering fire, and dangerous. All it needs is to have some wise guy in Washington step off on the wrong foot and then up the whole thing will go in smoke."

3) "The revolution is here now. It is not coming."

4) "This nation was created as a republic, not as a democracy. I can find no mention of the word "democracy" in the Constitution. The Jewish-Communists want democracy..Therefore, you ought to be against it."

RECEIVED

7-MILLION DOLLAR NAVY JOB IN HANDS OF NATIVE NAZI

The man who said on August 23, 1939: "I am not content to walk in the footsteps of Jesus Christ, I want to walk ahead of him with a club" is today executive engineer in charge of a $7,000,000 naval construction project at Norfolk, Virginia. He is George Deatherage, leader of the Knights of the White Camelia. In 1939 he spoke at Innisfail Park, the Bronx, with Joe McWilliams, James Downey, and Bundfuehrer Fritz Kuhn. In 1942, he is an engineer for Doyle & Russell, contracting firm working at one of our biggest Atlantic bases.

Deatherage, whose major purpose during the late thirties was to form a great coalition of anti-Semitic, native fascist organizations into the American Nationalist Federation, believed Gen. George Van Horn Moseley was the man to lead the parade. This was before Lindbergh came along. Deatherage's line of thinking, revealed in one instance in a letter to James Campbell, promoter of Homer Capehart's brief campaign for President in 1938, was like this:

> "To my mind we will have Fascism, call it what you will, for there can be no solution for this except under a disciplined force under central leadership, and an economic program that will put these millions back to work and keep them there..."

At Innisfail, Deatherage's speech told off point after point in the anti-democratic line which the boys were to follow thereafter and up to now:

1) "The day is coming, and it is not far off, when a leader will appear on a platform that Catholics, Protestants and everyone else can unit on."

2) "This situation underground is a sullen, smoldering fire, and dangerous. All it needs is to have some wise guy in Washington step off on the wrong foot and then up the whole thing will go in smoke."

3) "The revolution is here now. It is not coming."

4) "This nation was created as a republic, not as a democracy. I can find no mention of the word 'democracy' in the Constitution. The Jewish-Communists want democracy. Therefore, you ought to be against it."

Dear Senator:

While listening to Johannes Steele's program on Sunday evening, February 15, 1942, I was amazed and shocked to find that a Mr. Deveridge - who for the past five years has been the leader in pro-Nazi activities - has been appointed Manager of a ship yard which just received a seven million dollar contract from the Government.

It is evident that to have a man of this calibre in a key position cannot fail to have a very deleterious effect upon the morale of the people.

What can you do about seeint that he is removed from this position?

Yours Very truly,

S/ Thelma H. Castle wfr

My dear Senator:

I have for acknowledgment your communication of February 20, 1942, with which you forwarded a letter of February 16, 1942, addressed to you by Miss Thelma H. Castle, concerning one Mr. Deveridge.

It was indeed thoughtful of you to make Miss Castle's letter available for my inspection. Inasmuch as the subject of her communication is believed to be possibly identical with Mr. George E. Deatherage who was reported by the press to have been discharged from a Navy Department Project at Norfolk, I have taken the liberty of referring copies of it to the Office of Naval Intelligence. At the same time I have referred copies of the letter to the Maritime Commission inasmuch as the subject was reportedly working at a shipyard.

In accordance with your request, there is returned herewith the letter from Miss Castle.

With expressions of my highest esteem and best regards,

Sincerely yours,

Re: JOSEPH ELLESBURY McWILLIAMS,

Miscellaneous.

Dear Sir

Recently the above named Subject called at the Chicago Office. He stated that he has been in Chicago for the past several weeks endeavoring to secure a position. He desired to know whether this Bureau would attempt to stop him from obtaining any job he sought. He stated that recently George Deatherage, whom he considers a good engineer, was discharged from a plant which had a Naval contract. He felt that Deatherage's discharge was due to his past activities.

Subject stated he has not changed his views and advocates the same things as when he was the head of the Christian Mobilizers. He stated he has spent several months in jail for his anti-Semitic utterances.

This letter is being written merely to inform the Bureau and the New York Office that Subject is presently in Chicago.

The Knights of the White Camellia was formerly headed by George Deatherage. Deatherage lived with his brother-in-law, C. R. Barton, in the residential district of St. Albans, West Virginia, known as College Hill. Deatherage maintained his office on the second floor of this home. He was born of American parents and the claim is made that his ancestors have been in this country for more than one hundred years; that his father was born at Bowling Green, Kentucky, while his mother was born at Ceredo, West Virginia. The father of Deatherage was connected with The American Car and Foundry as a foreman in the Forge Shop, located at Huntington, West Virginia, about fifty years ago. When the firm was enlarged the father of Deatherage was sent to Duluth, Minnesota, where Deatherage himself was born. Deatherage attended the Minnesota Technical College at Duluth, which school is now out of existence. He later finished an engineering course with the International Correspondence Schools. At one time he was general foreman of the Duluth, Minnesota, Steel Company, which position he gave up in 1916. He worked for one year for the McKenzie Railroads in Canada and was subsequently "loaned" to the India Iron and Steel Company with offices in London, England. Thereupon Deatherage went to London where he worked for this firm until after the termination of the World War. In connection with his duties with this firm in London, he travelled extensively in Europe.

For five and a half years Deatherage was General Superintendent of the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corporation, South Charleston, West Virginia. In 1936 he severed his connections with this Corporation, at which time he was making a salary of $10,000 per year. The reason for the severance of his employment was the fact that officials of the firm received notice of Deatherage's statements with reference to the Jewish race. The firm officials gave him the opportunity of discontinuing his writings or the retention of his position. Deatherage chose to continue his anti-Semitic undertakings and was, therefore, released from the firm's employment.

Subsequent to his release from the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals firm Deatherage obtained employment with the California Chemicals Company at Palo Alto, California. This firm was interested in an experiment dealing with the extraction of magnesium oxide from sea water. Deatherage severed his connections with this firm allegedly because his activities on behalf of the Knights of the White Camellia became so extensive that he could not give his attentions to both undertakings and preferred the latter.

Deatherage is well poised, self-confident and apparently very well read. He has explained that the character of the Knights of the White Camellia is anti-Communist and anti-Jewish. Deatherage is opposed to the New Deal Administration, inasmuch as he considers it Socialistic and Communistic in objective and controlled by the Jews. It is Deatherage's belief that there is a Communist drive to overthrow the American Government. He is opposed to the Jewish race and to members of that race, stating that while there are individual Jews who are good citizens, as a race they are undesirable. It was Deatherage's belief that such individuals as the Retired General Van Horn Moseley and Father Coughlin are allying themselves with the growing feeling against the Jews.

Henry D. Allen, who is associated with numerous anti-Semitic and so-called vigilante organizations in the United States and who is well acquainted with Deatherage, has declared that Deatherage was definitely militaristic in his views, being anxious to organize a strong military unit which could be brought into action in time of a national crisis. He informed further that Deatherage used the swastika as his emblem.

The Knights of the White Camellia was established in 1863. With reference to the origin of the organization it has been learned that immediately following the Civil War the Knights of the White Camellia was formed for the purpose of reestablishing the supremacy of the white minority in the South. Its numerical strength was reported to exceed two million members and was regarded as the largest and most militant organization during the time immediately subsequent to the Civil War. The objects of the organization having been accomplished subsequent to the Civil War, the organization itself was temporarily disbanded. It was, however, reorganized and revitalized. Its membership is secret. Its immediate object and purpose is anti-Semitism and anti-Communism as an organization. It denies that it is in any way endeavoring to promote or invite religious prejudice. It is claimed that:

> "Judaism, the so called religion of the Jew is not a religion in the Christian understanding. It is a political faith whose sole purpose is the destruction of Christianity and the complete domination of the world by Jews.
> .....the Knights of the White Camellia wish to guarantee to all, the right to worship the God of his own choice.
> However, the Knights of the White Camellia are dedicated to the proposition that this nation shall be ruled by White Aryan Christian stock who are the numerical majority. And that we shall use the rights and privileges guaranteed us under the Constitution and the Bills of Rights in the traditional American manner to enforce that right."

Membership in the Knights of the White Camellia

> "is limited to males of white Aryan racial stock who are citizens of the United States and who are firm believers in the Christian principals upon which this nation was founded.

Each member is required to take an oath that is in keeping with these principals and to be prepared to defend them to their last drop of blood. We have no room for cowards.

No individual holding political office or standing for election as such, shall hold membership in the organization.

The program of the Knights of the White Camellia provides for the following "Fundamental Principles":

"It is clear that the major political parties have failed and are unable to do anything for the constructive welfare of our people, having bowed to the power of the purse as wielded by the international Jew.

It is clear that there must be a realignment of political forces within the nation and a purge of selfishness and greed resulting in a spiritual rebirth. That we must revert to the fundamental principles of The Constitution and the Bills of Rights in order to build within their corporate framework a system of political and economic Nationalism as was originally intended.

1 Members re-assert their belief in individual and national honor as the only basis on which a happy, free and unified people may reach our ideals of personal security, welfare, freedom, and peace.

2 Members maintain that this nation consists of a unified group of Aryan peoples, settled in the land of their fathers, having a common racial and cultural growth, and they reassert their belief in the principle of a Militant Nationalism to preserve this heritage.

3 Members stand always for individual and national liberty, and repudiate any suppression or interference with the freedom of conscience or worship, provided always that the practical application of this freedom does not tend to destroy the Christian national philosophy of life and public order.

4 The blending and fusing of the peoples, now within our borders, into a national unity of Christian manhood and womanhood devoted to the ideals of honor and decency in all their relations with each other, and with mutual respect for the others' rights and privileges. Immigration to be stopped.

5 The awakening of National pride into a spirit of sound American Nationalism both economic and cultural; the stimulation of Comradeship and Co-Operation; the abolishment of class strife and hatred; all opposed to the existing Jewish Internationalism.

6 The implanting in the minds of the people of strong spirit of self reliance and independence; the educating of the people to return again to the responsibilities of their citizenship.

7 The upholding of Christian civilization and the protection of Christianity against the attacks of Jewish Communism.

8 The establishing of the United States of America on a firm basis of righteousness; the elimination of crime, oppression, corruption, and injustice; and the application of practical Christianity throughout the public and private life of the nation. That the common action of both Protestant and Catholic, as well as other Christian creeds shall be devoted to this end.

9 The membership condemns the existing party system of professional parliamentarianism of machine politicians, as being corrupt and controlled entirely by the international bankers through party conventions. The membership pledges itself to revise this existing system and to re-place it with a purified and effective system of true Republican government which shall conform to the requirement of our revitalized National character in line with the true intent of the Constitution.

10 Self preservation insists that we accept the distinction and classification of races as a principle of national and world order and as a basis for world peace. We therefore aim at racial purity, White supremacy, and a Christian guardianship over racial groups that cannot be assimilated.

With respect to the Indians, the organization adopts the aim of giving them full rights and privileges accorded any other citizen.

With respect to the Negros, the aim is the uplifting, development, segregation, and government in accordance with their own racial character and traditions.

With respect to the Jews, we maintain that they are not those that can be assimilated so as to form a cultural and racial unity with the American nation, and must therefore remain an un-national and anti-national element. Regarded from a National view point, they are not a producing, self supporting group, but one which lives and flourishes on labor, production, means of livelihood and rights of workingmen of all nations; thus they are a dangerous and injurious element. We favor the stoppage of immigration and their deportation to a land of their own, in accordance with our present policy with other Asiatics.

11 The membership acknowledges the family as the foundation and first principle of our social order and national welfare.

12 It is recognized that the economic policy of the nation is controlled by a clique of international bankers of whom the Jews are in a majority. That we pledge ourselves to the elimination of this control in our national economic affairs which will release the people from economic bondage, eliminate unemployment, poverty and distress. We demand an honest money system.

13 The organization stands for an agricultural policy based on the development and protection of farms, the farmer and farming communities, with private ownership and legislation to prevent alienation of the land the subdivision of farm properties.

14 The membership acknowledges that in this day and age, social and economic policy cannot be separated, but are parts of the whole National structure on which the welfare of the people depends, and the following program is to be enacted.

A Protection of all workers against the power of Jewish State Capitalism.

B The establishing and promotion of public group corporations, each consisting of persons who make their living from a given industry and trade, who shall elect their representatives to the Senate and Congress, each endowed with authority, subject to the checks and balances of our Constitutional government, to control all matters affecting conditions of work in that industry or trade.

C Opportunity for every citizen to work at a wage that will insure a decent American living, with the requirement that each shall exercise his capacities of work to the best of his ability and strength, in order to maintain his family and serve the nation of which he is a part.

D Hours of work to be shortened in line with the advances made in the installation of labor saving machinery, and wages to be correspondently increased to meet the needs of the worker.

E Minimum wage laws to be enforced to eliminate sweat shop conditions; Unemployment insurance for all workers and Old Age pensions to be enacted which shall guarantee each deserving citizen incapable of support thru his own reasonable efforts, or those in his immediate family; a definite security at the age of sixty. This not as charity but as a right of citizenship."

The skeleton organization of the Knights of the White Camellia provides that a Castle or Post be created in every community within the nation, comprising not more than ten members. Each Castle or Post has a Commander selected by secret ballot, who in turn elects both State and National officers. It is pointed out that in an organization of this type it is not possible for any one member to betray other than his own immediate group.

A fee of $2.00 is required to accompany each application for membership. Dues of $1.00 per quarter are required; one-half of which is retained by the local Castle and the balance remitted to the National Headquarters. There are no uniforms or regalia charges.

The Knights of the White Camellia are reported to be a non-profit organization, incorporated under the laws of the State of West Virginia and that all remittances are accepted only as unconditional voluntary contributions. The Knights of the White Camellia publish Vigilante Bulletins periodically, together with other literature.

It is claimed that the Knights of the White Camellia devote themselves to the education and organization of the mass of Americans who believe in the above principles.

The Knights of the White Camellia claim that the plan of the New Deal is Communist; that while Roosevelt is an acknowledged humanitarian he is misguided by such men as Felix Frankfurter. The organization cautions against going the way of Russia, France and Spain. It alleges that the press of America is controlled by the Jews, making the distribution of the truth impossible. It claims that the religion of the Jews is based upon the Talmud,

> "which is really not a religion, for it is a religion of hate and vengeance, of viciousness and hypocracy, of the lusts of the flesh and the lust for gold and power -- cruel power over every Gentile in the world."

The group argues that Communism is of Jewish origin and that "Communist" and "Jew" carry the same meaning.

The Knights of the White Camellia rely upon the alleged utterances of Benjamin Franklin, George Washington, Abraham Lincoln and General Ulysses S. Grant in their railings against the Jews and bemoan the fact that Jews are not workers, but money-lenders, living from the toil of the Gentiles. The Knights borrow liberally from the alleged diary of Charles Pinckney of the proceedings of the Constitutional Convention which formed the United States and in which Benjamin Franklin is alleged to have prophesied that, unless "Jews were excluded from the country within two hundred years our descendents will be working in the fields to furnish them substance."

The Knights refer also to an alleged order of General Grant disseminated as General Order No. 42, issued at Oxford, Mississippi, December 17, 1862, ordering all Jews to leave the areas of operations of the Union armies for having violated regulations of the Treasury Department and the further denial of trade permits to the Jews. The Knights hold that Communism was first brought into the world by Karl Marx, a Jew; that the Russian or Bolshevik revolution was financed by Jewish bankers in New York City and carried out by Lenin and Trotsky, both Jews.

The Knights of the White Camellia publicize themselves as offering a "militant opportunity to ARYAN AMERICANS." The program of the Knights of the White Camellia is given as follows:

"Jewish communism is insidiously endeavoring to undermine and destroy the Christian American principles upon which this nation was founded.

Let it be understood that The Knights of the White Camellia are, in no way, endeavoring to promote or incite religious prejudice. The international Jew has hidden behind the cry of 'religious prejudice' down through the ages, ever since they crucified Christ.

Let it be understood that International Zionism, the so-called religion of the Jew, is not a religion in the Christian understanding. It is a political faith, whose sole purpose is the destruction of Christianity and the complete domination of the world by Jews, as they now dominate and own Russia, France, Spain and Mexico.

Let it be understood that The Knights of the White Camellia wish to guarantee to all, the rights to worship the God of his own choice, without governmental dictation, such as is the rule now in Russia.

Let it be understood that The Knights of the White Camellia favor the right of all, Christian and Jew, white and colored, to the pursuit of life, liberty and happiness, each in his own place and without interfering with any other.

The Knights of the White Camellia insist that, because of our numerical strength in this country, the nation be ruled entirely by whites.

The Knights of the White Camellia rule on membership is that each one MUST be a white Aryan born in this country and a firm believer in the Christian principles upon which this nation was founded.

The Knights of the White Camellia are dedicated to wiping out in this country all subversive movements to pledge themselves to be prepared to defend Christian principles and teachings.

The Knights of the White Camellia are asked to take an oath that is in keeping with ALL Christian faiths and the Constitution whereby all members pledge themselves to be prepared to defend Christianity and the Constitution to their last drop of blood.

IF you are an Aryan, born of WHITE parents in this country, you are eligible for membership in The Knights of the White Camellia and should join at once with hundreds of thousands of other Christian Americans in preparing to defend your nation, your church, your home and your womenfolk from the present imminent threat of ruin from Jewish communism."

The publication entitled "The White Knight" is the official organ of the Knights of the White Camellia. "The White Knight" is published at Charleston, West Virginia, on occasions by The Knight Organization Associates, Incorporated. It is non-sectarian, non-partisan, and militantly constitutional American. Its editor on one occasion was Ronald B. Beall, while on another occasion its editor was Howard J. Carson. It appears that the first issue of "The White Knight" was that which appeared on August 15, 1936, and which was styled "The Jew Deal Issue." It was published under the authority of "The Knights of the White Camellia, Copyrighted 1936 by Knights Organization Associates, Inc." The only other issue of "The White Knight" known to have been published is that dated September, 1936, styled "The Christian American Issue," which deals to a large extent with the allegation that the Russian or Bolshevik Revolution was financed by international Jewry.

In publishing the issue of "The White Knight" for August 15, 1936, the publishers acknowledged their appreciation for the services of Elizabeth Dilling, James True, Michael Ahearne and Robert Edward Edmondson. Elizabeth Dilling is the author of two books entitled "The Red Network" and "The Roosevelt Red Record and Its Background." James True is the head of the James True Associates, an anti-Semitic and anti-Communist organization located in Washington, D. C. He is the publisher of Industrial Control Reports.

Michael Ahearne is co-author of "The Handout" a comprehensive survey of what the Dole really is. Edmondson is a reported publicist, and economist, publishing a weekly service "replete with condensed fact about the Communistic JEW."

"The Jew Deal Issue" of "The White Knight" is devoted to an expose of the leading Jewish officials in the United States Government. Those listed as being Jews and high officials are the following:

"The White Knight" for September 1936 declared:

"Again we make clear the point that we are NOT against all Jews but only Communistic Jews and their sympathizers. Those that are daily giving them aid and comfort."

The Knights of the White Camellia propose the following creed which is called "THE AMERICANS' CREED":

"I believe in the United States of America as a Government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the governed: Democracy in a Republic: a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it, to support its constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies."

Information has been received that the Knights of the White Camellia movement is confined almost exclusively to the State of West Virginia and perhaps a small part of Southern Ohio. It is reported that one symbol of membership is the placing of a Waltham watch sticker on store windows and in windows of automobiles. The other and principal symbol is the White Camellia. The organization centered itself entirely around the person of George Deatherage. Information confidentially obtained is to the effect that Deatherage claimed a membership of approximately 10,000 persons. This statement, however, is without verification. Deatherage is reported to lean toward the Hitler type of dictatorship. It has been reported that Deatherage made occasional trips to Mexico via California. Deatherage has been known on occasions to have attended what were termed "Council Meetings" in Washington, D. C. of Silvershirt representatives. It is claimed that Deatherage was a member of the inner circle of all Fascist groups in America. Deatherage explained to an informant that the Knights of the White Camellia were originally the select group within the Ku Klux Klan. It is said that Deatherage maintained approximately six rifles and three revolvers in his home. The members of the Knights of the White Camellia reportedly received no military training. Deatherage is said to have distributed the literature of William Dudley Pelley and James True. It is reported that Deatherage had no regular publication. He maintained no printing presses and whatever printing was done was hired. It is said that the publication, "The White Knight" is now suspended.

Deatherage was also the head of an organization known as the American Nationalist Confederation, a coalition of Christian anti-Communist organizations. It is understood that this body was formed in August, 1937, in Kansas City, Missouri, by representatives of the various patriotic organizations who believe an amalgamation of such patriotic groups to be essential. At this meeting George Deatherage was appointed the leader of the body. From a confidential source it was reported that the purpose of this new organization was not the obtaining of new members, but the amalgamation of various patriotic societies, having common aims and common purposes. It was confidentially learned that this organization did not have a great measure of success.

In September 1937 the letterhead of the American Nationalist Confederation disclosed that it had offices in Boston, New York, Washington, D. C., Chicago, Houston, Miami, Savannah, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

On occasions the American Nationalist Confederation published "The News Bulletin." In its own language in its publication of March 12, 1938, "The News Bulletin" is described as:

> "An independent periodical, printing 'The News Behind the News,' upholding the principles of Americanism and the republican form of government--as opposed to the subversive forces of internationalism (already dominating press and communications) now attempting to control the federal government."

The same publication points out that it is published weekly by the American Nationalist Confederation at St. Albans, West Virginia, Post Office Box 467, subscription rate $2.50 for six months.

The American Nationalist Confederation, which will be referred to hereinafter as the Confederation, proposed that the only workable answer to all present problems is the

> "return of America to Americans through a re-awakened Nationalism, and the construction of the State, wherein Capital, Labor and the Consumer are represented for nation-wide service."

It was further proposed that:

> "The present control of the Federal Government, press, radio, movies, and business in general must be taken from the hands of International Jews."

The suggestion was made that the remedy must be drastic and complete but purely American in its character and that a re-awakened Nationalism is the only reply.

The organization suggested that there is sufficient wealth within the nation to guarantee every worker a minimum annual income of not less than $100 a month; that there is sufficient wealth within the nation to take care of those workers physically unable to work. It was stated that:

> "The American Nationalist Confederation has set these essential matters as their goal. The platform is constructed to give America back to its own people, and to see that each worker is placed above want."

In carrying out these aims it was stated that the American people

> "must believe and they must be willing to sacrifice in giving obedience and service to that leadership."

The organization further stated:

> "America for Americans must be the slogan on which the battle is fought. Control of International Jewry must be forever destroyed, and the present corrupt political system on which it feeds must be destroyed also..... The time has come to act, on a comprehensive militant plan, involving not only political action but that of protecting your home and family from those that would take it from you - through bribery and deceit."

The Confederation was in agreement with the Mexican Nationalists, also known as the Gold Shirts, who were led by Pablo L. Delgado.

The Confederation also disseminated some propaganda with reference to the National Socialist Party of Germany. The Confederation declared that many untruths have been spread in America relative to the aims and ideals of the Socialist Party in Germany, for which reason it was considered pertinent to reprint the program presented by Adolf Hitler and published by the Party in Munchen, February 24, 1920. It was pointed out that the text of this program is constructed to combat the Jewish-led New Deal in Germany. In presenting the entire program the Confederation inquires "Might the same program fit the United States?"

The Confederation recommends that "patriots should back the Silvershirts." It was recommended that persons subscribe to the weekly publication "LIBERATION," published by the Pelley Publishers.

The Confederation likewise recommended the reading of the publications of Robert Edward Edmondson. It was also recommended by the Confederation that persons read "The World Hoax" by E. Elmhurst, which reportedly shows the tie-up between Communism and World Jewry. The Confederation further suggested the following reading material:

"The Roosevelt Red Record and Its Background," by Elizabeth Dilling.
"America, Awake!" by O. Brumback.
"The Key to the Mystery."
"Salute the Jew!" by William Hamilton.
"The City of the Red Plague," by G. Popov.
"The Red Network," by Elizabeth Dilling.
"Thus Religion Grows," by Morris Goldstein.
"The Jew and the World Ferment," by B. Mathews.
"The Waters Flowing Eastward," by L. Fry.
"All These Things (Unseen Forces That Rule the World)," by A. N. Field.

The Confederation recommended the following organizations from which literature can be secured:

G. B. Winrod, P. O. Box 836, Wichita, Kansas.
Industrial Control Reports, 209 Kellogg Building, Washington, D. C.
Christian Free Press, P. O. Box 430, Glendale, California.
The Pelley Publishers, P. O. Box 1776, Asheville, North Carolina.
Americans Incorporated, P. O. Box 1043, Portland, Oregon.
"The Tomahawks", P. O. Box 635, Walla Walla, Washington.
P. O. Box 1824, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

It is understood that the American Nationalist Confederation "News Bulletin" commenced publication on or about January, 1938, and that in a period of about two months it had built up a considerable circulation. It was found that bundles of "The News Bulletin" were being sent to China, Canada, Germany and England.

Deatherage in the conduct of his two undertakings, the Knights of the White Camellia and the American Nationalist Confederation, was assisted by one V. M. Kositsin, who is reportedly a Russian.

It has been alleged that George Deatherage has connections with the German-American Bund, the Silvershirts, the Britons (an organization in England headed by Henry Hamilton Beamish), American Liberty Party (headed by Frank Clark of Tacoma, Washington, a disgruntled Silvershirt), Militant Christian Patriots, American League for Christian Women, James True Associates and the Mexican Nationalist movement or Gold Shirts.

The nature of Deatherage's undertakings are perhaps best illustrated by the type of literature which he furnished to an informant. The literature is listed herewith as follows:

The Deutscher Weckruf und Beobachter for November 11, 1937, contained an announcement that George Deatherage would be the principal speaker at the November 16, 1937 meeting of the New York local of the German-American Bund.

Dear Sir:

It has come to my attention rather forceably that your department has employed and is employing, a so-called "blacklist" against my employment on defense projects during this period of emergency, and I am writing you this letter to enter a definite protest.

My past activities may be in opposition to the administration but they have in no sense been innimical to the welfare of my country. Lets get that one point straight at the outset. If you have any evidence to the contrary it is your duty to see that I am locked up instead of employing what I think is a rather underhanded method of putting on the pressure. Possibly I do not have all the facts straight and that you are not aware of what is going on, in such case this whole matter may need some clearing up. I dont think you are starting any "Gestapo"....with your full knowledge.

As you well know my whole past activities have been directed against Communism and the international Jews that are leading and financing it. Thats the whole rub in this situation and your department have investigated me enough times to know it. And I am still of the same opinion.

In my humble way of looking at things, the investigating agencies of the government had better be gainfully occupied with the activities of Mr. Hitler, who is pulling a triple play...Hitler to Stalin to the CIO Communist Unions that are sabotaging the defense work. Stalin is Hitlers stooge at the moment, so we know damn well who is giving the communist leaders their orders to play up these defense strikes. You know it and I know it. Hitler does not need to sink American supplies that are sabotaged by defense strikes by CIO leaders that follow the party line.

I am of the inclination to put this whole thing up for discussion on the floor of the Senate, but before doing so I would like to have your point of view.

Yours very truly

(Signed)
Geo. E. Deatherage

Attention Mr. Edgar Hoover.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

My attention has been called to an article in the Sept. 6th. issue of The Washington Post (a Jew paper) in which it is noted that The Friends of Democracy, headed by L.M. Birkhead of Kansas City and New York have advised your department that I am running for Congress backed by Nazi Germany.

I assume that they have backed up such a statement with a certified copy of my announcement and registration with the Secretary of State (as required by law) and have been able to present some evidence that I have announced in the press to such an effect. If not, what does such an accusation amount too? For your information the whole thing is a pure and simple fabrication of hysterical jews. But it might be a good idea at that.

If I have accepted the backing of Nazi Germany or Fascist Italy....your department do not need Birkhead to advise them of it. Your fellows have been on the job too closely.

It is true that I am against the Jew Deal until the last dog is hung and I make no bones about it. Thats still a privelege of an American born citizen of pioneer parents. And more than that. If and when, these Jews and Jew stooges such as Birkhead bring about in this nation, a breakdown of Constitutional law and order, if I have anything to say about it...they will be strung up on a sour apple tree. They might take a cue from what is now happening in Riom, France....where the traitorous dogs making up such organizations such as Birkheads will be properly and fittlingly shot.

Certainly we have a national co-alition in this country. You know that. But Birkheads gang are too damn dumb to understand what it is all about. We dont need Nazi Germany or Fascist Italy. The job we have to do, we can and will do, in a typical American manner and by Americans. It wont be nice but it will be hell for effectiveness.

Yours very truly

Deatherage was interviewed by an Agent of this Bureau in March of 1941. At this time he stated that the Knights of the White Camellia was an organization founded over seventy years ago, that its main purpose at present was to drive Communism from America, but that it did not advocate the use of force or violence. He stated that it was a proven fact that the Jews were behind present Communistic activities in Russia, Germany, England, France and America. He also stated that he and the Knights of the White Camellia believed that those Jews should be submerged.

Deatherage denied that he or the Knights of the White Camellia had ever had anything to do with any form of government organization. He admitted that he had received anti-Semitic propaganda from Germany and that he had distributed it. He also admitted that some of this literature had been solicited by him but that a great deal of it was sent to him without any request on his part.

Deatherage, at the time of the interview, stated that the mistake made by the Knights of the White Camellia was in assuming that the American people would awaken if told of the Jewish menace. He stated that the organization was doing nothing at the present time. He admitted that he was past Commander of the St. Albans, West Virginia post but that he is now inactive with an honorary life membership in the Knights of the White Camellia.

On February 15, 1942, the newspaper "PM" carried an article relative to George E. Deatherage headlined "Nightshirt Fascist Runs $7,000,000 Navy Job". This article pointed out that Deatherage is now executive engineer for Doyle and Russell, the contractors in charge of construction at the Naval Operating Base, Norfolk, Virginia, and went on to set out a background of Deatherage's connections with the Knights of the White Camellia. It was also pointed out that several years ago Deatherage attempted to unite all native Fascist organizations in one federation, promoting Major General George Van Horn Moseley for American Fuerher, suggesting to General Moseley that an effort be made to persuade U. S. Army Reserve Officers to take key places in a proposed Fascist organization in the United States. Follow-up articles along the same line appeared in a Norfolk, Virginia newspaper dated February 16, 1942 and in the Washington Post on February 18, 1942. Subsequent to the publication of the above mentioned newspaper article, numerous newspaper articles appeared to the effect that Deatherage was removed from his position at the Naval Operating Base, Norfolk, Virginia, upon the instructions of the Honorable Frank Knox, Secretary of the Navy.

Mr. JOHN MASINGILL, in charge of bookkeeping and accounting of the National Bank of Commerce, the mid-town bank of the National Bank of Commerce, and the Hampton Boulevard branch of the National Bank of Commerce.

All of the above named persons advised that their records showed no indication that GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE ever used their facilities in any way. It is to be noted that the above mentioned banks represent all of the banking facilities in Norfolk proper. The only banks not contacted in the above investigation are located in the Berkley, South Norfolk and Portsmouth sections.

Inasmuch as these banks were so far removed from the subject's residence and place of business, it was not deemed necessary to contact their management.

Mrs. A. H. LAWRENCE, 617 Ocean View Avenue, Norfolk, Virginia, the former land-lady of the subject was contacted by telephone regarding any banking activity on the part of DEATHERAGE which she might have noted. Mrs. LAWRENCE advised that so long as the subject stayed at her home, she never saw him pay for anything by means of a check and she never noted check books, stubs, cancelled checks, or bank accounts in his possession. She said that DEATHERAGE always dealt in cash so far as she knew. Mrs. LAWRENCE did advise that one drawer in the subject's room was "crammed full" of postal money order stubs.

The mail cover maintained on the subject for a period of approximately one month and a half reflected that he is still communicating with JAMES TRUE, of Alexandria, Virginia, and ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON, of New York City, and many others with whom he had formerly corresponded, whose names are all maintained in reference report.

From a confidential source it was ascertained that the subject had in his possession numerous propaganda pamphlets written by different members of the Conservative Party: one entitled "A Message (to Republicans and Jeffersonian Democrats)", written by DAVID BAXTER, General Secretary of the Conservative Party; a pamphlet entitled "Blitzkreig Days", written by DAVID BAXTER; also two pamphlets from the Honest Money Founders, Inc., 111 W. Washington Street, Chicago, Illinois; another pamphlet entitled "The Future United States", by JESSE T. HOWELL, National Chairman, Conservative Party; and one copy of the "Weekly Foreign Letter", A Private Publication, 205 E. 42nd Street, New York City. These are all being maintained in the files of the Norfolk Field Division.

Also in the possession of the subject were two letters written by the subject, one directed to Honorable CLARE HOFFMAN, House Office Building, Washington, D. C., wherein the subject wrote to him commenting on the representative's speech concerning the proposed fifteen per cent tax on payrolls. Another letter was written to LAWRENCE DENNIS, 205 E. 42nd Street, New York City, wherein the subject commented on DENNIS' speech given before the Citizens Keep Out of War Committee. Copies of these letters are being maintained in the files of the Norfolk Field Division.

In the February 15, 1942 edition of PM's Sunday edition, volume II, number 35, the headline appeared "Nightshirt Fascist Runs $7,000,000 Navy Job ... George E. Deatherage of White Camellia Directs Norfolk Work". On the twelfth page of this edition appeared the story concerning the subject, written by KENNETH G. CRAWFORD, of PM's Bureau. The article is quoted as follows:

"Fascist Deatherage Runs Big Contract For Navy
White Camellia Leader Executive Engineer on U. S. $7,000,000 Job

Washington, Feb. 14.- George E. Deatherage, who a few years ago was trying to unite all native Fascist organizations in one federation promoting Maj. Gen. George Van Horn Moseley for American fuehrer, has turned up as the engineer in charge of a $7,000,000 naval construction project at Norfolk, Va.

He is the executive engineer for Doyle and Russell, the contractors in charge of construction at one of the Nation's most important Atlantic bases.

Moreover, Deatherage still is preserving America for its white, Anglo-Saxon citizens. He recently proposed to the National Inventors' Council in a letter that it adopt his idea for creation of a semi-military corps of civilian Government workers to guard the Nation from its internal enemies. He used to regard all Americans except those of Anglo-Saxon origin as potential enemies of the Nation. His letter to the Council was what called the attention of Government officials to his present connections.

Deatherage testified before the Dies Committee in the Summer of 1939 that he was the leader of an organization called the Knights of the White Camellia. It was a Fascist-like organization which at the time was trying to establish a federation of similar organizations to be named the American Nationalist Federation. Deatherage identified correspondence revealing that it was his ambition to make Moseley 'the man on the white horse'.

To this end he approached Father Charles Coughlin, the National Union for Social Justice, and other such leaders.

The publication of Deatherage's projected amalgamation of the native Fascist organizations, called the 'Bulletin of the American Nationalist Federation', defined Fascism as 'patriotic revolt such as the revolt of the White Russians against Jewrocracy'. Deatherage told the Dies Committee his object was to form an organization capable of defending the Nation against Communism.

He said he fully expected a Communist revolution.

At one time Deatherage was closely associated with Dudley Pierpont Gilbert, rich young New Yorker who prepared a hide-away in the Kentucky mountains against the time when the revolution would make his New York home untenable for an Anglo-Saxon. It was Gilbert who circulated reports of conversations said to have been overheard by a waiter named Rice in a Jewish club in New York. These conversations were supposed to reveal that Jews in the Administration were plotting to take over the country.

The Dies Committee never found Rice. Moreover, its hearings seemed to put an end to the Moseley-for-Dictator boom. However, Deatherage stood by his conviction that the revolution was just around the corner throughout the hearings.

In 1938, a Fascist boom started to make Homer Capehart, the phonograph millionaire, President of the U. S. A. in 1940. In charge of that campaign was James E. Campbell, one of the leading peddlers of native Fascist propaganda. Meetings were held to advance the candidacy, and the aid of Deatherage, Fritz Kuhn of the German-American Bund, William Dudley Pelley of the Silver Shirts, and Father Coughlin, was enlisted. On Dec. 14, 1938, Deatherage wrote to Campbell:

'I believe as you do that it will take military action to get this gang (the Roosevelt Administration) out and the organization must be built around a propaganda organization now that can in a few hours be turned into a militant fighting force. To my mind, we will have Fascism, call it what you may, for there can be no solution for this except a disciplined force under central leadership, and an economic program that will put these millions back to work and keep them there.....I do not think that we can create a program under constitutional framework.'

Deatherage also suggested that Gen. Moseley make an effort to persuade reserve officers of the U. S. Army to take key places in a proposed Fascist army."

On February 23, 1942, the subject, who was employed as executive engineer for Doyle and Russell Construction Company, U. S. Naval Operating Base, Norfolk, Virginia, was discharged by the Secretary of the Navy, FRANK KNOX, who branded him as an "undesirable person".

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agents W. F. PARRISH and V. F. DAVIS.

On February 23, 1942, it was ascertained that the subject was in his room located at 1344 Monterey Avenue, Norfolk, Virginia. No activity was noted on the part of the subject on this day. On February 24, 1942, at approximately 8:00 A. M., the subject was observed carrying his luggage out of his room at the above mentioned address, and placing it in his automobile. At approximately 8:30 A. M., the subject proceeded to the Portsmouth Ferry via Hampton Boulevard. At approximately 9:15 A. M., the subject left Portsmouth, Virginia on Route 58 for Suffolk, Virginia. The surveillance on the subject was discontinued at approximately five miles west of Portsmouth, Virginia.

The following investigation was conducted by the writer.

The latest newspaper report on the subject reflects that he is possibly presently residing at Tall Timbers, St. Albans, West Virginia, the home of one Mr. BARTON, the family with whom he formerly resided before coming to Norfolk, Virginia. It is noted that the subject has made application for a position in the Office for Emergency Management at Washington, D. C., the investigation of this case presently being conducted by the Norfolk Field Division.

Photographs of the subject were obtained through the cooperation of Lieutenant LEGERE, State Police Office, U. S. Naval Operating Base, and are being maintained in the files of this Field Division.

The following is the laboratory report covering the examination of code specimens found in the possession of the subject:

"Specimens:

Q1 First sheet beginning '-2- which our racial sympathies.....'.

Q2 Second sheet beginning '-3- Today, the American's voice is an.....'.
Q3 Third sheet beginning '-4- East that so quickly fades from.....'.
Q4 Fourth sheet beginning '-5- of "separate," we find only.....'.
Q5 Fifth sheet beginning '-6- 7) The word "separators" therefore.....'.
Q6 Sixth sheet beginning '-7- one message. Trans-oceanic mail, if...'.

Result of examination.

The code system described in specimens Q1 through Q6 was examined but it is believed that this system is too complicated for practical use. The complicated manner in which the words are selected from the dictionaries used by the person encoding the message and the person deciphering the message are very involved. When a message has been encoded according to the directions given, the complete message looks like a series of amounts which have been added by means of a tabulator. The code numbers obtained by looking up the words which are used in the message are totaled at the end of each sentence. The code numbers are divided into two parts and the left hand column is totaled first and then the right hand column and the figures are added on the same piece of tabulator paper. In order to decode the message it is necessary to tear the piece of tabulator paper in a line between the total of the left hand figures and the total of the right hand figures and then match the columns to give the complete code words. This method of encoding the message would add to the security of the code.

It is interesting to note that the dictionary used by the writer of specimens Q1 through Q6 in illustrating his method of encoding is the Funk and Wagnall's Desk Standard Dictionary, 1929 edition."

General MOSELY stated that in his opinion if the applicant was appointed to a prominent Government position he would be persecuted severely by the subversive element in this country and the Jewish race.

After the writer had left his home, General MOSELY called the Atlanta Field Office by telephone and stated that he did not want to be misunderstood by his statement that applicant would be persecuted if appointed to an important Government position; that he did not mean by this statement that he was in anyway hesitating to recommend applicant for any Government position and did not want the writer to take said statement as being a slight of any kind on applicant or intimating that he would cause trouble for the Government if appointed. MOSELY stated that he would like to see applicant in a responsible Government position as he would be very loyal to the United States.

General MOSELY also advised that applicant had helped him in many matters in giving information regarding subversive activities in the United States and that he, MOSELY, had made quite a study of such matters and had made many speeches and written many articles regarding the welfare of this country. MOSELY stated that in his opinion the youth of America was far below that of any other country in regard to its vitality, stamina and health.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. DRAYTON

RE: JOSEPH E. McWILLIAMS, with aliases
GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE, with aliases

This memorandum is supplemental to an earlier memorandum submitted to you with regard to those names appearing on a list of German sympathizers and agents obtained from a confidential source in Buenos Aires and were designated as being actual German agents.

Inasmuch as there are several hundred files having reference to these two individuals, the following material is taken from the cards which have been made up on McWilliams and Deatherage, as you suggested.

McWILLIAMS, JOE
61-7560-2333 enc. Ex-Communist or present Communist, is the leader of the Christian Mobilizers which meets Monday nights at Eblings Casino, Thursday nights at Triboro Palace, the Bronx, Thursday nights at Prospect Hall, Brooklyn, and at various street corners. McWilliams is one of the most boisterous rabble rousers and riot creators in New York City today. He advocates violence and has been the cause of riots at none of which he was present. McWilliams, it is said, was formerly on the WPA, and it is also said that he wrote Communist articles under the pen name of, or some publications known as, The Red Pen, or Pen and Hammer. The Writers' Project of the WPA knows about him. His guards carry weapons. (GLW) 61-7566-1642 encl. Leader of Christian Mobilizers and openly Pro-Nazi. Connected with "Christian Front". He announced the organization would undoubtedly support a form of Fascism in opposition to Communism in this country. (United Press dispatch dated at Kansas City, 8/23/37, 61-7560-232)

At the meeting of the Brooklyn, New York, Local of the American-German League, at which Fritz Kuhn was principal speaker on 11/6/37, the Subject as "the well known American nationalist and editor of the Christian Free Press" was announced as principal speaker scheduled for the 11/23/37 closed membership meeting. (Confidential informant [redacted] 11/11/37; 61-7566-775)

Subject addressed the American Christian Conference at Kansas City, Missouri, 8/20/37, with remarks which were violently anti-Semitic. American Nationalists Confederation, headed by George Deatherage, is one of several Fascist organizations associated closely with the White Guard, headed by Henry Allan, twice convicted of felonies in California. James True associates, headed by James True, Washington, D. C., works hand-in-glove with Deatherage. In a letter from Deatherage to True dated 11/21/37, Deatherage mentioned muzzling Reserve Officers, the Naval Intelligence, and the Department of Justice. (Lieutenant Colonel H. R. Oldfield, M.I.D., 5/11/38, 61-7560-833)

Deatherage is definitely connected with the James True Associates as demonstrated by the fact the latter sent out its letter as a substitute for completion of the subscriptions to Deatherage's discontinued news letter. (Confidential informant [redacted] of Philadelphia FBI Office, 1-20-39, 65-4889-2-P-16) b7D

Bulletin of the Knights of the White Camellia sent to the Bureau by letter signed by George E. Deatherage which sets forth the "Code", "Fundamental Principals","Organization", and purposes of the organization, showing it to be a militant organization, violently anti-semitic. The cover letter is threatening in tone against Congressman Dies. (4/6/39, 61-7560-1447)

The George Deatherage organization is the "Knights of the White Camellia" with headquarters at St. Albans, West Virgnia. This is an anti-Jewish southern white men's organization represented as being militaristic in its ambitions and it has no official connection with the Silver Shirt Legion. (Kenneth Alexander, head of Silver Shirt Legion in California, 4/7/39, 61-7587-204)

Subject interviewed and furnished life history which is set forth. He claimed to head the Knights of the White Camellia which he described as anti-Communistic and anti-Jewish. He furnished pamphlets and charts demonstrating his ideas of Jewish control of organizations and government. (4/12/39; 65-1413-74)

Before the Dies Committee 5/23/39 he testified the Knights of the White Camellia was organized in 1867 as an allied body with the Ku Klux Klan and in 1935 was chartered in West Virginia with headquarters at his home and his oath of office in the organization forbade him from revealing the names of the members, numbers, or other details. He recommended supplanting Federal and State courts by military courts and said his object was the fighting of Jewish Communists. Deatherage said a liason had been established between his organization and an international headquarters in Rome, Italy which is to coordinate worldwide combating of Communism and Jewism. (Harold B. Hinton, N. Y. Times, 5/24/39, 61-7560-1561X13)

News editorial states that Subject did not give all the facts when testifying before the Congressional Committee May 23-24, 1939; that although he admitted a link with an international "anti-Red" organization in Fascist Italy and that he had been rebuffed by the Nazis for trying to establish closer connections with them, he was as a matter of fact closely related to the Nazis, and as the American delegate, was invited by the German Ministry of Propaganda and Public Enlightenment to attend the World-Service Conference held at Erfurt, Germany, in the summer of 1938, accepted and delivered a speech entitled, "Will America be the Jews' Waterloo?" (Daily Worker, 5/26/39; 61-7560-2144X3)

Subject serves as one of the distributing agents in the U. S. of World Service, the English language news-sheet printed in Germany by the Nazi International. (Stanley High in article entitled Star Spangled Fascists, Saturday Evening Post, 5/27/39; 61-7591-75)

Testified before Congressional Committee that he had proposed a retired Army Officer as military leader of a united front of anti-Semitic and anti-Communist organizations. (Washington News, 5/31/39, 61-7592-3X7)

Pamphlet entitled "Has Martin Dies Sold Out to the Jewish Banker? by George E. Deatherage, National Commander, The Knights of the White Camellia," dated 6/8/39, violently anti-semitic in nature. (61-7587-2-6)

Subject held a conference with William Dudley Pelley, head of Silver Shirt Legion of America, Inc., at Asheville, N. C. on 6/21/39. (Confidential Informant [redacted] Charlotte FBI Office, 6/21/39, 61-7587-352X) b7D

A real active subversive organization is the Knights of the White Camellia headed by George Deatherage. (Lawrence Glick, President, B'Nai B'Rith, 8/21/39, 65-1438-14)

At mass meeting of Christian Mobilizers, 8/23/39, at Innisfail Park, Bronx, N. Y., delivered speech entitled "Counter-Revolutionary Tactics" likening current conditions in the U. S. to Spain and denouncing the U. S. Government as Jewish controlled. (N. Y. Police files, 61-7850-22-P-11)

8/23/39, Deatherage was the principal speaker along with Fritz Kuhn of the German-American Bund and Deatherage announced a second meeting for 9/6/39, with the principal speaker to be Major General George Van Horn Moseley whom he urged for National coordinator of the groups, Deatherage blamed Jewish Communists and Jewish international bankers for the world's ailments. His remarks were violent with references to trampling and strangling of enemies, hanging of officials from telegraph poles, denouncements of President Roosevelt on the basis of Jewish sympathies, and stated that if any leader of the groups gathered there were to be arrested or if an effort were made to stop Father Coughlin "the country will be up in arms over night." (O.R. Pilat, N. Y. Post, 8/24/39, 61-7560-2036X)

On 9/20/39, Joseph McWilliams, head of the Christian Mobilizers, received a letter from Subject advising that Subject had about 50 bus loads of people going to Washington, D. C. from Virginia to demonstrate at the opening of Congress, and urging McWilliams to bring as many as he could from N. Y. and conduct street meetings. (Confidential Informant [redacted] of the N. Y. SAC Hennrich of the Norfolk Office telephonically contacted me and read the following which was copied from a letter that was written by James Trao in Alexandria to George Deatherage in Norfolk:

"This is with reference to the meeting of President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill at sea last August, and this letter is dated August 20, 1941, which is apparently about five days after that meeting. 'Papa bawl cut Churchill something awful, telling him that if he had kept his nose clean and his mouth shut, and if England had paid her debt to us he would have rushed the country into war; but that Churchill had made too many enemies among the American people'. Another friend had a talk with one of the Naval officers present, and this is what he said: 'One evening in the wardroom, Churchill had got well into the second quart of the day, and all others, including Frankie, were high. Churchill told Frankie what to do. Frankie got his back up and said, according to Jimmie's statement, and then Churchill told him not to alibi that there was just one issue before the house, and it was Frankie's promise to put two million men in the field as quickly as possible, and that it had proved to be a God Damn lie. Churchill also told him that if he did not have the two million men on hand, England would quit cold within 60 days, that they were not going to take any more bombings and the risk of invasion for false promises. He also hinted that England would charge this country for the full responsibility of the war and would announce to the world that he declared war only after the lousy lion's sacred promise to bring us into the fight promptly. He then told the lion it was two million men in the inside east or nothing'".

Mr. Hennrich stated that in the report which the agents had prepared concerning this matter, there was an indication that copies would be sent to ONI. Mr. Hennrich stated that there was doubt in his mind as to whether ONI at Norfolk should receive copies of this report even though reference is made to an officer. I told Mr. Hennrich that he should not furnish copies to ONI. He stated that when he was at Richmond, the investigation of James Trao, who is living at Alexandria, was being handled by the Washington Field Office. I told him that this was still being done. Mr. Hennrich stated that he would therefore have the report rewritten, will handle it by letter to the Bureau with copies to the Washington and Richmond Field Offices. I told him that this would be satisfactory.

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

DEATHERAGE took correspondence course in Business Administration from Alexander Hamilton Institute, NYC, 1923-24, receiving above average grades in 15 out of 24 subjects of two year course covered by him. No records of employment at U.S. Steel Corp., indicating that employment was probably for a subsidiary company. Employed by Carbide and Carbon Chemical Corp. at South Charleston, W. Va. 1930-36, released because of connections with Knights of White Camellia, although employment very satisfactory. Confidential Informant T1 recommends he is excellent construction man, but has refused him re-employment with Carbide and Carbon Chemical Corp. because of his political activities. Considers him loyal American, but "slightly wacky on the subject of Jews and Communism." Confidential Informant T2 indicates DEATHERAGE was head of Knights of White Camellia and of proposed American Christian Nationalist Party, and attempted to organize American Nationalist Federation in 1927; that he spoke at a meeting of Christian Mobilizers in 1939 at which FRITZ KUHN of German-American Bund also spoke; that he was the subject of an investigation by the Dies Committee and that he has been known as violently anti-Semitic, pro-Fascist, and pro-Nazi. New York headline paper carried a report of DEATHERAGE discharged from contract construction work at Norfolk Navy Base, by Secretary KNOX. No criminal or credit record New York City.

DETAILS:

EDUCATION:

Mr. L. BEEBE, of the Alexander Hamilton Institute, 14 Astor Place, advised that DEATHERAGE had enrolled at that school to take a correspondence course in Business Administration in 1923 and 1924. He stated that he had taken 15 out of 24 subjects of a two-year course and had received grades slightly above average. He advised that the birth date of the applicant was, on the record, November 15, 1894. He advised that he did not personally know the applicant, and that nothing further concerning the applicant was reflected in his records.

EMPLOYMENT:

Mr. W. A. LANDIS, Personnel Department, U.S. Steal Corporation, 71 Broadway, advised that company had no record of having employed applicant in any position. He stated, however, that if applicant was in the construction work, his employment would be kept by a subsidiary company of the U.S. Steel Company, which company had undoubtedly employed applicant inasmuch as U. S. Steel Company proper has never employed construction men. He indicated that the only subsidiary construction company existing in New York City at the time around 1910 was the American Bridge Company, 71 Broadway,

Mr. E. A. SEYDLER, of the American Bridge Company, 71 Broadway, advised the agent that each plant kept its own records; that he only had in his possession records of employees in the drawing room and of the New York Office. He advised there were a number of plants and yards and stated it would be impractical to verify applicant's employment, unless it was known in which yard applicant worked.

Confidential Informant T1 produced the employment record of applicant with Carbide and Carbon Chemical Corporation, which records indicated that applicant was born November 15, 1894, at Duluth, Minnesota, and was employed by the Carbide and Carbon Chemical Corporation, South Charleston, West Virginia from 1930 to 1936 as a construction superintendent. He indicated that he had been previously employed by the Minnesota Steel Company, Duluth, from 1910 to 1916; by the Arthur G. McKee and Company, Cleveland, Ohio, from 1916 to 1922; by the H. J. Ferguson and Company, from 1926 to 1930. These records indicated that applicant had been released because of his connection with the Knights of White Camellia, although his employment had been very satisfactory. Confidential Informant T1 advised that he could personally recommend the applicant as an excellent construction man, but that he has refused to employ the applicant again with the Carbide and Carbon Chemical Corporation because of his political activities. He stated that he considered him a loyal American, but "slightly wacky" on the subject of Jews and Communism. He said that the applicant was warned to cease his activities along the lines he was pursuing with the Knights of White Camellia if he intended to keep his job with the Carbide and Carbon Chemical Company, but that applicant had continued to be active in the Knights of the White Camellia, and the company had to terminate his services. He said that applicant was a hard worker, capable, energetic individual, but that he did not appear quite normal with reference to his outlook on Jews and Communism. He stated that he did not believe applicant had lived in New York City, coming to New York City only for occasional visits.

Confidential Informant T2 indicated that applicant was born November 15, 1894, at Duluth, Minnesota; that he was married approximately in 1920; has a son, but is estranged from his wife and son and indicated that he attempted to organize the American Nationalist Federation in 1937 and was the head of the American Christian Nationalist Party, and the American Fascist Semi-Military Organization, as well as being the head of the Knights of the White Camellia, an Anti-Jewish; Anti-Communist; Pro-Fascist Organization, and that on August 23, 1939 he spoke at a meeting of the Christian Mobilizers at Innissville Park, New York City, at which FRITZ KUHN, German-American Bund and JOSEPH E. McWILLIAMS also spoke. He indicated further that he and his organization, Knights of the White Camellia, were investigated by the Dies Committee in 1939. He was indicated as being violently anti-Semitic, pro-Fascist, and pro-Nazi. New York City newspapers carried a report of DEATHERAGE'S discharge from construction work at the Naval Base, Norfolk, Virginia, by Secretary of the Navy KNOX, as "undesirable to have access to the work and charge of materials of the Navy Department," on the front pages.

MISCELLANEOUS:

No criminal record for the applicant was found in the files of the New York City Police Department.

No credit record for the applicant was found in the files of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York.

Bureau letter dated March 12, 1942 to Cleveland, Ohio.

DETAILS

AT CLEVELAND, OHIO

MR. S. J. KLEM, Personnel Department of the Arthur G. McKee Company, Cleveland, Ohio secured the personnel card of DEATHERAGE which indicated that he had been employed by that company in the latter part of 1916 or the early part of 1919 at which time it was shown that he had gone to India to work on a contract in which the company was interested.

MR. B. STONE, Personnel Manager of the H. K. Ferguson Company, Cleveland, Ohio presented the personnel card for DEATHERAGE to the reporting agent. This indicated he had been employed from the latter part of 1936 until April 30, 1938. From February 9, 1937 until September 1, 1937 his principal employment had been at Palo Alto, California where he had been superintendent on a job being performed for the WESTVACO CHLORINE PRODUCTS CORP., and the balance of the time he had been working out of the Cleveland Area, employed by the H. K. Ferguson Company.

MR. STONE stated that he believed that DEATHERAGE was not working for the company during the early part of 1938 but was being kept on the payroll during that time as a reward for his services. This was in the nature of being a bonus. In addition to the employment set forth above STONE believed that DEATHERAGE worked for the company several years prior to and including 1930.

There was no record of this employment. However, Stone said that this was not unusual because prior to the social security tax laws these personnel records were seldom kept for employees.

Informant T-1 was interviewed. A chronological record of DEATHERAGE's employment to the best of the informant's knowledge is as follows:

DEATHERAGE was employed by the Arthur G. McKee Company prior to 1919 when the informant started working for this company. DEATHERAGE in the early part of 1919 was sent to India to work for the India Iron and Steel Company. Accompanying him on this trip was MR. J. H. SHARP who acted as Assistant to DEATHERAGE. In 1921 DEATHERAGE returned to the United States and soon afterwards secured employment with the Hoar Underground Shovel Company in Duluth, Minnesota.

Informant T-1 stated that he did not know the exact length of this employment but believed it would be sometime between 1921 and 1926. In this company DEATHERAGE's position was said to be that of a Sales Manager and it is believed that a considerable amount of time was spent by DEATHERAGE In Huntington, West Virginia performing his duties. After 1926 DEATHERAGE was employed by the H. K. Ferguson Company of Cleveland as a Construction Engineer. He kept this position until about 1931 when he secured employment with the Carbide and Carbon Chemical Company at South Charleston, West Virginia.

In the latter part of 1936 DEATHERAGE told the informant he was released from this position upon his refusal to sever his connections with the Knights of the White Camellia and to discontinue his subversive writings in connection therewith.

His employment with the H. K. Ferguson Company was resumed in 1937 and lasted about 2 years. The last position DEATHERAGE had was with the Doyle and Russell Company and this company has its headquarters at Richmond, Virginia. This employment, Informant T-1 advised started about 1940. Informant heard also that DEATHERAGE was employed on a Naval Construction job in Virginia and that he had been removed from this position by the Secretary of the United States Navy due to the notoriety given him in connection with his affiliations with the Knights of the White Camellia. Informant T-1 stated he knew DEATHERAGE as intimately as any man in Cleveland and related the following in respect to his character and activities.

Up until the time DEATHERAGE was employed by the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Company in West Virginia he exhibited no subversive tendencies whatsoever. He never, according to Informant, berated the Jews or the Government. He was a loyal friend and an excellent construction engineer.

Informant T-1 was quite surprised when in 1934 or 1935 he received a chain letter from DEATHERAGE. This letter told about the Knights of the White Camellia and listed the qualifications for membership. These qualifications were, the Informant recalled, that a member must be a white christian and interested in better government. This letter was to be made in several copies and each recipient was in turn asked to mail these copies to other white christians. One copy of each letter was to be sent to a certain post office box in West Virginia. It was these copies which were sent to the Post Office Box in West Virginia that DEATHERAGE, the Informant believed, secured his mailing list of people who might be interested in joining his organization of the Knights of the White Camellia.

Subsequent to receiving this same letter Informant T-1 stated he received frequent literature from DEATHERAGE proclaiming the necessity for ridding the United States of Jews, the inefficiency and extravagance of the new deal administration and oftentimes letters which seemed to be German propaganda inasmuch as they lauded many principles of the Nazi form of Government. None of these letters were retained by the informant.

Informant T-1 further advised that he had heard that DEATHERAGE was connected with subversive organizations other than the Knights of the White Camellia, but the only organizations which he could recall were the Silver Shirts and an association with the Jones True Associates.

At one time possibly in 1935 a letter was sent to MR. J. H. SHARP of the H. K. Ferguson Company, Cleveland offering to him the post of Commander of a "castle", a unit of the Knights of the White Camellia. This post DEATHERAGE wrote would be granted to him if he wished it. In this capacity MR. SHARP would have control of the organization in Ohio and several bordering states. Informant T-1 did not recall just which portion of the country was involved in this offer. He stated that the offer was refused by the recipient inasmuch as he did not care to become involved in anything of a subversive nature nor did he agree with any of the ideals of the organization.

The Knights of the White Camellia never spread outside of West Virginia to the best of Informant's knowledge. Informant T-1 was further of the opinion that DEATHERAGE must have been making money out of this organization otherwise he would not have relinquished his position with the Carbide and Carbon Chemical Corporation.

Informant had also heard that DEATHERAGE had some connection with Pelley and that he believed that he had disseminated some of the literature Pelley was interested in which was of a subversive nature.

From his acquaintance with DEATHERAGE Informant T-1 felt that his subversive activities first became evident in about 1934 or 1935. He stated that DEATHERAGE at this time had a very severe operation on the thyroid gland in his neck and he believes that as a result of this operation DEATHERAGE became somewhat mentally deranged.

Informant T-1 had heard from other persons that DEATHERAGE was said to have tried to force men who were under him in various jobs to join his organization. None of these men are known to the Informant but he suggested the name of one person who might have good knowledge of this. As an incident to this report a lead is being set forth to the appropriate field division to interview this person.

Informant T-2 stated he knew nothing about the Knights of the White Camellia or DEATHERAGE other than the fact that DEATHERAGE was said to have been head of that organization at one time. Informant further stated that he had spent a good deal of time at the Carbide and Carbon Chemical Company at which time DEATHERAGE was employed by this company. As a result of this he was able to offer several names of people at the Carbide and Carbon Chemical Company who would likely know of DEATHERAGE's activities while he was working for that company. These names are also being set forth as leads.

The following information was obtained from Informants T-3 and T-4 who were jointly interviewed:

DEATHERAGE had been employed by the Ferguson Company from two to four years before 1930. During this period there was nothing subversive in his actions or speech. His employment was very good and he was considered a most able construction engineer.

In 1931 he began working for the Carbide and Carbon Chemical Company and in 1936 he was released because of his subversive writings and affiliations.

When this happened he resumed his employment with the Ferguson Company and performed most of his work at the Westvaco Chlorine Products Company in Palo Alto California. In 1938, however, due to his principles which were becoming more annoying to the Company inasmuch as they were receiving unfavorable notices due to his connections with the Knights of the White Camellia, the company told him that they no longer could employ him unless he could be certified to by the Government as not being subversive.

Both informants revealed that he was very bitter towards the New Deal and the New Deal Jews who, he proclaimed, to be running the Government. His principles were closely related to Nazism. They believed that he was pro-German but had never had any first-hand information about his organization from him.

In addition to the above, Informant T-3 stated the following: DEATHERAGE's organization appeared to be militaristic because at one time a workman at the Carbide and Carbon Chemical Company told the informant that DEATHERAGE had told the workman when he was finally admitted to that organization of the Knights of the White Camellia he would have to secure a gun. DEATHERAGE had also tried to induce several men working for this Carbide and Carbon Company to join his organization. He is said to have threatened them with losing their jobs if they did not join. This letter information was intimated to the Informant by various workmen at this company. The names of these workmen could not be recalled by the Informant.

Informant T-3 submitted the names of several men who would be able to furnish further information regarding DEATHERAGE's activities to recruit men for his organization. Neither informant knew of DEATHERAGE's activities in any other subversive organization.

A review of the Cleveland Field Division indices reflects that DEATHERAGE is mentioned several times in our files. However, no information contained therein is not already known to the Bureau and is summarized in their letter to this Division on March 19, 1942.

MR. A. STICKNEY, Cleveland Police Department revealed DEATHERAGE had no police record at that department.

MISS MARIE E. KAPPENHAGEN of the Retail Credit Men's Association stated there was no record of DEATHERAGE at her office.

O KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE CAMELLIA;
O AMERICAN CHRISTIAN NATIONALIST PARTY

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to the report of Special Agent JOHN E. KISSNER, dated at Norfolk, Virginia, March 28, 1942 in the captioned case.

It is noted therein that the report sets out an asterisk lead for all Field Divisions to review the mailing list of Subject and check the indices with regard to the American Christian Nationalist Party and its sponsors. The attention of the Bureau is invited to the reports of Special Agents HERBERT S. BROWN, dated at El Paso September 18, 1941, and MANUEL A. SANCHEZ, dated at El Paso November 26, 1941, with which latter report the case bearing similar title, but with origin at Huntington, was referred upon completion. It is noted that both reports were responsive to an identical lead in the report of Special Agent JOHN H. KISSNER, dated August 8, 1941. It is unknown at this office whether the Norfolk Office was furnished with copies of said reports upon the re-allocation of territory from the Richmond Office.

In view of the above, no further action is being taken by this office in connection with the report of Special Agent KISSNER, dated at Norfolk, March 28, 1942, and this case is being considered referred upon completion.

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS: GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE organized Knights of the White Camellia in 1935 as stated by EDWIN CAMPBELL SHEETS, who served as secretary to organization but resigned when DEATHERAGE advised arming of Knights personally and individually by joining National Rifle Assn. and procuring Springfield rifles. SHEETS suspected DEATHERAGE of later causing the mailing of Nazi propaganda to him. DEATHERAGE recruited members for Knights from subordinates at the Carbide and Carbon Co., also the H. K. FERGUSON Co. SHEETS stated DEATHERAGE extremely anti-Jewish, but never definitely voiced overthrow of this government nor adherence to Naziism or Communism to him.

SHEETS stated that when he first knew DEATHERAGE he was a steady, loyal American and that he had known this because his contact with him had been close socially as well as from business contacts. SHEETS stated that he and his wife were very friendly with DEATHERAGE and his wife. The loyalty of DEATHERAGE could not be questioned up until 1934 or 1935, at which time he was said to have become quite radical. This was first evidenced to SHEETS when DEATHERAGE organized a group of Knights of the White Camellia, of which SHEETS admitted that he had served in the capacity of secretary up until 1938. SHEETS stated that DEATHERAGE had never spoken to him about favoring the forceful overthrow of this government and of civil rights, nor did he ever talk about any alternate form of government. DEATHERAGE was a great reader with unusual power of absorption and memory and he had reached his place in the engineering profession due to his own hard work and with the handicap of not having had a college education.

When asked about anti-Semitism, SHEETS stated that DEATHERAGE was "hot against the Jews" and that this anti-Semitism started at the same time that DEATHERAGE organized the group under the Knights of the White Camellia at Charleston. DEATHERAGE had never spoken even favorably of any of the foreign governments nor had he compared the politics of the United States with those of the totalitarian countries, although he followed the Eurasian political changes closely and bought all books dealing with both foreign and domestic affairs.

SHEETS stated that in 1937 or 1938 he began receiving Nazi propaganda through the mail which bore the Berlin postmark, and while he was never sure of it, he had always suspected DEATHERAGE of having placed his name or causing his name to be placed on this mailing list.

When questioned about DEATHERAGE's forcing employees under him to join the Knights of the White Camellia, SHEETS stated that DEATHERAGE did not force these employess, but "in a manner of speaking did attempt to recruit memberships among his subordinates at the Carbide and Carbon Company and also at the H. K. Ferguson Company for membership in the Knights of the White Camellia". SHEETS stated that he did not believe DEATHERAGE to be the type who would revert to physical damage against this country, but he continued that he had not had close contact with him since 1937 or 1938.

DEATHERAGE claimed relationship with President ROOSEVELT through his wife and had been very much in favor of President ROOSEVELT during his first term, but at the beginning of the President's second term, which closely followed the date of organization of the Knights of the White Camellia, DEATHERAGE became very dissatisfied with the national policy. SHEETS stated that he believed that DEATHERAGE had lost most of his jobs, particularly with the Carbide and Carbon Company and the H. K. Ferguson Company, due to his activities in the Knights of the White Camellia.

SHEETS admitted that he had held membership in the Knights and had served in the capacity of secretary up until 1937, but that he resigned when DEATHERAGE had personally contacted him and all other members that he knew of and suggested that they associate themselves with the National Rifle Association and arm themselves by procuring Springfield rifles through that organization. SHEETS stated that this was meant as an arming of the group and not merely of the individual for sporting purposes.

SHEETS stated that he remained with the Knights of the White Camellia only as long as the principles of the group were held to those that he believed them to be when he first joined, that is, the teaching of intelligent use of the right of franchise and more intelligent reading and interpretation of the news.

SHEETS stated that DEATHERAGE had lived with a man by the name of CLIFFORD BARTON, who lived at St. Albans, West Virginia, and who was employed by the Carbide and Carbon Company in that he was in charge of all outside properties for that organization. It was SHEETS' suggestion that this man by interviewed for further information relative to subject. He also suggested the contacting and interviewing of PAUL HANNON, also an employee of the Carbide and Carbon Company, who lives in South Charleston, West Virginia.

Upon questioning, SHEETS admitted that PAUL HANNON had been a member of the Knights of the White Camellia, but he did not so state nor deny that BARTON was similarly affiliated.

SHEETS stated that DEATHERAGE's wife was a fine woman and was very much against his present radical activities. He believed them to be estranged at the present time, with the son, now about twenty one or twenty two years old, remaining with his father, and at SHEETS' last information, living at St. Albans, West Virginia.

Inasmuch as the applicant, GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE, is also the subject of an investigation entitled GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE; KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE CAMELLIA; AMERICAN CHRISTIAN NATIONALIST PARTY; ESPIONAGE; REGISTRATION ACT; INTERNAL SECURITY (G), of which Huntington is the office of origin, four copies of this report are being designated for that office for information.

It was indicated in the records that he was forced to resign at the insistence of the Secretary of the Navy.

Mr. JOHN W. RUSSELL stated that he knew the applicant very well and found him to be an indefatigable worker who produced a great deal of work in an excellent manner and was considered an excellent employee of the firm. He declared that he inspired those who worked under him and was a man of excellent ability in his line. Mr. RUSSELL had nothing but praise for the applicant and stated that he would make an excellent addition to the Office for Emergency Management and that he would doubtless do wonderful work there.

After stating that he knew of no derogatory information concerning the subject, Mr. RUSSELL was questioned further and stated that he had been aware that the subject had been under investigation for a long time because of suspected un-American activities, but that he knew of no facts to substantiate anything of this sort. He did state, however, that he had heard from several sources that the applicant was anti-Semetic but that he had observed him working with a Jewish client of theirs and found that he got along well with him.

Mr. RUSSELL stated that he hated to lose the applicant but that his resignation was made necessary by the insistence of the Secretary of the Navy that the applicant not be employed on the projects in which Doyle and Russell were engaged.

Mr. RUSSELL further stated that he wished that he could get the applicant back inasmuch as he was such a good worker, but that he felt that, in view of the attitude of the Government, it was his duty not to employ the applicant in any work pertaining to National Defense.

Mr. RUSSELL declared that in his opinion the applicant was a very good American, even though he was at sometimes over critical of certain persons in the Administration. He stated that he would certainly recommend him for whatever position the Office for Emergency Management was employing him.

Re: GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE;

ESPIONAGE; REGISTRATION ACT;
INTERNAL SECURITY - G.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to reports of Special Agent JOHN E. KISSNER, dated August 8, 1941, at Richmond, Virginia, and dated March 28, 1942, at Norfolk, Virginia.

A complete search has been made of the indices of the Savannah Field Division with negative results as to information concerning directors, sponsors, and advisors of such organizations such as "American Christian Nationalist Party".

It is noted in the first referenced report that E. S. FULLER, 209 West Henry Street, Savannah, Georgia, is on the mailing list of DEATHERAGE. The Savannah City Directory shows that ELIJAH S. FULLER of this address is an attorney and maintains his office in his home. Mr. EMANUEL JAVITZ, attorney and secretary of the Savannah Bar Association, advises that FULLER is an attorney and a member of the state bar of Georgia. However, he has no practice and is not a member of the Savannah Bar Association. He goes around talking to himself and wears ragged clothes and only manages to live due to the fact he resides with his brother-in-law. At one time he was associated with Mr. ALPHENE DOWELL, a local attorney who bears a good reputation.

Just prior to the last presidential election, FULLER organized the "GEORGE WASHINGTON PARTY" which advocated Henry Ford for President of the United States. It is not believed that this party gained any strength and at the present time is dormant. FULLER spends most of his time in the public library.

EMPLOYMENT

With reference to applicant's employment with the HOAR UNDERGROUND SHOVEL COMPANY of Duluth, Minnesota T1 was contacted, writer having been advised that he was one of the principal stock holders of this company. He advised that DEATHERAGE was a good engineer and a smart man, and that he did not know about his nationalistic tendencies at the time he was employed by their company as sales manager. T1 also advised that it would be possible to get further information from T2, who was well acquainted with DEATHERAGE, and was also very interested in the Hoar Shovel Company, and could probably give more information concerning DEATHERAGE's background and employment.

Hoar Shovel Company was absorbed by the Allis Chalmers Company of Milwaukee in about 1930. For exact verification of dates of employment of applicant this company might possibly have the records, as they are not in the possession of T1.

Unable to verify employment with Minnesota Steel Company inasmuch as this company has been absorbed by the American Steel and Iron Company years ago, and MR. SHELDON who was the president of this company is deceased, and it is therefore impossible to verify applicant's employment with this concern.

Details: Confidential Source of Information #1 advised that he first became acquainted with Mr. DEATHERAGE in 1933 at which time both of them were employed by the Carbide and Carbon Chemical Company at Charleston, West Virginia. DEATHERAGE was a General Construction Superintendent in charge of plant expansion, work which was being done at that time. Source of Information #1 stated that about two months before the organization known as the Knights of the White Camellia was chartered, he was approached by Confidential Source of Information #2 who "sounded him out" regarding his attitude toward Jewish people in general and particularly its activities in the Federal government. He explained at this time that he was asked to join the organization but refused partially because he did not agree with the purposes and aims as he understood them in a general way and also because DEATHERAGE himself did not ask him to join.

He explained that he received this information from a circular which was published at the time the organization was begun. He said that DEATHERAGE did not discuss the topic with him due to the fact that he had refused to become a member. Previous to this time they had been close friends but their subsequent association was limited to the necessary business transactions between them.

Confidential Source of Information #1 said that from rumor and his own personal observations at that time, he understands that Mr. JAMES MC LAUGHLIN who is Vice President of the Carbide and Carbon Company, had discharged DEATHERAGE because of the publicity he was receiving as the leader of the Knights of the White Camellia.

He stated that DEATHERAGE is very outstanding in his work as an organizer and was competent in his management of the construction work which was cone by the Carbide and Carbon Company. He explained that it is his opinion that he would not intentionally engaged in any activities which would be detrimental to the welfare of this country and that he thinks that DEATHERAGE was sincere in his belief that the organization, the Knights of the White Camellia, would accomplish a good end.

GEORGE PEAKES, former Treasurer of the Knights of the White Camellia, a tubercular bed patient as Saranac Lake, New York, states DEATHERAGE organized the Knights of the White Camellia at Charleston, West Virginia in 1936 but that this organization disbanded after three or four months of operation, when DEATHERAGE was dismissed by the Carbide and Carbon Chemical Company. A "promoter" was reported to have edited the anti-Semitic magazine "The White Knight" and published with money supplied by DEATHERAGE. Members joined believing the organization to be anti-Communistic and not foreseeing the later anti-Semitic activities. DEATHERAGE reported to be a fine person and a capable engineer, with no indication of subversive beliefs or activities prior to 1936. No recent knowledge of the activities of DEATHERAGE known to PEAKES.

PEAKES stated that he and DEATHERAGE became quite good friends there, and that DEATHERAGE was highly regarded by everyone who knew him, as a fine man, honest, popular, generous, and recognized as a capable engineer. DEATHERAGE later sent for PEAKES to come to Charleston, West Virginia to be employed as an accountant in the research department of the Carbide and Carbon Chemical Company, at a time when PEAKES had just returned from a tuberculosis hospital and was out of a job, this being in 1936. DEATHERAGE was reported as being the General Superintendent of Construction of this company and to have a lot of influence there. Somehow, not known to PEAKES, DEATHERAGE became interested in organizing a group to fight Communism. The Knights of the White Camellia was subsequently incorporated in the State of West Virginia, under the direction of DEATHERAGE, the principles of the organization reported as being included in the charter, these being to fight Communism and to uphold the Constitution of the United States. Upon the request of DEATHERAGE, PEAKES stated that he accepted the office of treasurer of the organization, and that many of the employees of the Carbide and Carbon Chemical Company proceeded to join under the influence of DEATHERAGE, feeling that because he was a recognized official of the company it must be all right, and that it would do them no harm to gain his good will by joining the organization. Moreover, on the face of things, the organization was standing for things which could safely be accepted as beliefs of any American, according to PEAKES, and he claimed that none of the members dreamed of the later developments and anti-Semitic activities of the organization. It was related that DEATHERAGE had not been known to use any threats to get members for the organization, and at its peak membership, the organization had between two and three hundred members, and to his knowledge the organization did not reach beyond the state of West Virginia. After a few meetings had taken place, at which DEATHERAGE did most of the speaking, denouncing Communism, a "promoter" somehow got the attention of DEARHERAGE, who took up with the idea of including anti-Semitism in the beliefs of the organization. The name of this "promoter" was not recalled by PEAKES, who stated that this promoter had gotten up a magazine by the name of "The White Knight", including articles denouncing Jews in government and anti-Jewish propaganda of all kinds. The money for the publishing of this magazine was known by PEAKES to have been furnished by DEATHERAGE, and the cost of a single issue of this magazine to be about three or four hundred dollars. It was believed by PEAKES that the promoter had sold DEATHERAGE on the idea of including anti-Semitism in the activities of the organization and that DEATHERAGE felt that this belief tied in well with his previous program of anti-Communism, inasmuch as Jews had been active in the inception of Communism.

It was further related that after the first issue of "The White Knight" came out, officials of the Carbide and Carbon Chemical Company had become outraged, and that they had given DEATHERAGE his choice at that time of giving up his affiliation with the Knights of the White Camellia or his position with the company. DEATHERAGE was thought to have become stubborn, and to have decided to give up his position, maintaining his connection with the Knights of the White Camellia. He was then dismissed from the company, and with this event it was reported that the Knights of the White Camellia began to disintegrate, until two or three months after the dismissal of DEATHERAGE from the company, the meetings of the Knights had ceased altogether, this being in the latter part of 1936.

PEAKES reported that during the meetings held at Charleston, West Virginia there had been no "ritual" as such, but that they opened each meeting with the pledge of allegiance to the flag and ended with a quotation from the charter about pledging to uphold the Constitution. It was felt by PEAKES that DEATHERAGE had become almost mentally unbalanced along this one line of anti-Communism and later adding anti-Semitism to his beliefs. It was a matter of surprise to PEAKES that DEATHERAGE would run off on a tangent like this, inasmuch as he had always been known as a brilliant man, capable in his field, generous to a fault, having a great interest in people, and a man with a conscience. PEAKES stated that he did not know of any pro-Nazi activities of the organization and that he felt that the Knights of the White Camellia had become defunct after the loss of DEATHERAGE to the organization. DEATHERAGE has not been seen by PEAKES since 1937, PEAKES stating that he has been confined as a tubercular patient at Saranac Lake, New York for the past four years, and PEAKES therefore claiming no recent knowledge of DEATHERAGE or any of his activities.

Re: GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE

George E. Deatherage was born on November 15, 1894, at Duluth, Minnesota. He is a former national commander of the Knights of the White Camellia and was President of the American Christian Conference composed of anti-Jewish Fascist organizations which met at Kansas City, Missouri, on August 23, 1937. Deatherage characterizes the Knights of the White Camellia as anti-Communistic and anti-Jewish in purpose. He admitted before the Congressional Committee on Un-American Activities at a hearing on May 23, 1939, the establishment of a liaison between his organization and international headquarters in Rome, Italy, to coordinate world-wide action against Communism and Jewism. Deatherage was invited by the German Minister of Propaganda and Public Enlightenment to attend a World Service Conference held at Erfurt, Germany, in 1938, and at the conference delivered an address entitled, "Will America be the Jews' Waterloo". Deatherage has served as a distributing agent of the World Service, an English language "news" sheet printed in Germany, and has been associated with leaders of other American Fascist organizations. As of 1939 he was reported to have relinquished his office as national commander of the Knights of the White Camellia, but holds an honorary life membership in that organization.

DETAILS: AT SOUTH CHARLESTON, WEST VIRGINIA

This investigation is predicated upon a teletype received from the Cleveland Field Division, dated April 2, 1942 requesting that PAUL HANNON, MARVIN TITUS, LOUIS ROUSH, MR SHETTLER and HARRY MURPHY be interviewed regarding the activities of DEATHERAGE as head of the Knights of the White Camellia, while working for the Carbide and Carbon Chemical Corporation, in South Charleston, West Virginia.

HARRY B. MURPHY, 307 Harris Street, South Charleston, advised that he is Engineering Office Manager at the Carbide and Carbon. He worked with DEATHERAGE in 1929 and 1930 when MURPHY was chief clerk and DEATHERAGE was Superintendent of Construction, while both were employed by Westvaco Chlorine Products Incorporated, in Charleston, West Virginia and later

DEATHERAGE hired MURPHY in 1933 at Carbide and Carbon. He knew DEATHERAGE socially, as well as through employment observing that they visited at each others' homes.

MURPHY was a member of the Knights of the White Camellia during the summer months of 1935, DEATHERAGE having induced him to become a member. DEATHERAGE was head of the organization, GEORGE PEAKES was Treasurer, although MURPHY was treasurer for a time. There were about 100 in the organization at the time.

DEATHERAGE planned a nation-wide organization of which he was to be the leader. MURPHY knows of no branches of the organization that were ever formed. When the organization was first formed the only aim, according to MURPHY, was to fight Communism. DEATHERAGE furnished the organization information concerning officials in the Federal Government with Communistic views. No mention was ever made of the German Government while MURPHY was a member of the organization. DEATHERAGE presided at some meetings, made speeches and distributed literature. MURPHY said he did not think the organization was going to do anything constructive and he dropped out of it after a few months. He believes the organization is no longer functioning.

LEROY WALTER ROUSH, residing at 222 Central Avenue, South Charleston, West Virginia, worked with DEATHERAGE, stating that he first met DEATHERAGE in 1928 when the latter was construction superintendent for the H. K. Ferguson Company of Cleveland, Ohio. He was also with DEATHERAGE during the construction of the Carbide and Carbon plant at Diamond, West Virginia. Along in 1935 he found pamphlets on his desk at work. This continued for several months. E. I. NEWMAN one of DEATHERAGE'S assistants approached him to interest him in joining the Knights of the White Camellia. He, however, never joined the organization. Later ROUSH received literature advertising German-made products, which was sent to his home. He thought that NEWMAN had placed his name on the mailing list for these products, consisting of cameras and the like. Some of the first mentioned pamphlets referred to DEATHERAGE and many of them were anti-Jewish and anti-negro as he recalled.

DEATHERAGE himself never approached ROUSH to join the organization. He believed DEATHERAGE was head of the White Camellia but he did not know much about the organization.

MARVIN TITUS, residing at 310 Forest Avenue, South Charleston, West Virginia, first met DEATHERAGE in 1933. He never became a member of the Knights of the White Camellia. He received the same kind of literature as was received by ROUSH. DEATHERAGE never talked to him about the organization, although he said he understood the organization started out as anti-New Deal and then aimed at opposing Communism. He understood the organization started conservatively and grew more radical. He advised he never got along well with DEATHERAGE and all his information was hearsay. He believed DEATHERAGE was head of the organization, but knew no more about his activity in the organization. He stated that several became members because DEATHERAGE was their boss. He had heard that the organization still held some meetings, but did not know any one belonging now and did not remember who told him meetings were still held. One GEORGE BOLDEN, now somewhere in Texas was very active, he thought, when the organization was first formed. He had heard that DEATHERAGE stayed at the home of CLIFFORD BARTON when he returned to St. Albans, West Virginia.

No one by the name of SHETTLER working at Carbide and Carbon Chemical Corporation had worked with DEATHERAGE, however, ROBERT THEODORE SHIDELER, residing at 306 Shepherd Street, South Charleston, West Virginia, had worked with DEATHERAGE and was interviewed. He first became acquainted with DEATHERAGE in 1929. He attended three meetings of the Knights of the White Camellia until the organization looked ridiculous to him. He believed DEATHERAGE organized the White Camellia. He presided at some meetings. DEATHERAGE talked of organizing on a national scale. He received a magazine for a short time known as the "White Knight". He said the organization at first was formed as he understood, to counteract subversive activity inthe government. When the organization became more radical and anti-Jewish he quit. He does not know whether the organization still holds any meetings or not, however, he believed it had ceased to function.

PAUL HANNON, residing at 605 Glenwood, Charleston, West Virginia, met DEATHERAGE January 1, 1930, whent the latter was with Ferguson Company. HANNON started working for Carbide and Carbon October 1, 1935, at which time DEATHERAGE was his boss. DEATHERAGE organized the Knights of the White Camellia. The organization had a short life according to HANNON, who advised that he was a member of the organization for a short time. The purpose of the organization, as he understood it, when formed was to have the United States government run by native Americans. He related that the organization was an old one and DEATHERAGE obtained the right to revive it. DEATHERAGE made speeches, presided at meetings and distributed literature. He believed the organization died out when DEATHERAGE resigned.

Indices and public hearings of ~~Dies~~ Committee reflect applicant to be former head of the Knights of the White Camellia and the American Nationalist Confederation, both of which groups had strong pro-Nazi sympathies and distributed Nazi propaganda of an anti-racial and anti-religious character. The applicant is described as being notoriously anti-Semitic and pro-Fascist. The indices of the Dies Committee were searched and reflected the following information pertaining to GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE, much of which information, it will be noted, was obtained directly from the public hearings of the Dies Committee:

In a report submitted by Congressman MARTIN DIES, January 3, 1939, he advised that "Propaganda direct from the German Ministry of Propaganda and Enlightenment is distributed by Bund officials, and evidence was produced showing definitely that printed propaganda material was shipped from Germany to citizens of the United States directly. "of this propaganda is designed for the specific purpose of preaching the gospel of National Socialism and the aim of Nazi Germany in foreign lands, from every conceivable angle. Some of the packages containing German material carried with them letters from one JOHANNES KLAPPROTH, who is charge of the American Section of the World Service, one of the chief Nazi propaganda agencies.

"KLAPPROTH was an original member of the German Nazi Party before HITLER rose to power. He is fanatically anti-racial and is deeply interested in the Silver Shirt movement. He is acquainted intimately with DEATHERAGE and corresponds with him. KLAPPROTH is now in Germany.

"Much material of an anti-racial and anti-religious character which is printed here is shipped to Germany to German government agencies and then reshipped to the United States for redistribution in this country. The packages coming from abroad contained pamphlets from the Knights of the White Camellia, an organization headed by GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE of Charleston, W. Va.

"A superior court judge in California, without requesting it, received four pieces of propaganda put out by the Nazis and printed in Germany, and envelopes advertising GEORGE DEATHERAGE and his American Nationalist Confederation of Charleston, W. Va., which utilizes the swastika as its symbol.

"Some tangible efforts have been made to merge these subversive and un-American organizations, without success.

"In the summer of 1937, GEORGE DEATHERAGE of the Knights of the White Camellia and the American Nationalist Confederation fame issued a call for a coalition of Christian organizations to meet at Kansas City, Mo., on August 20 of that year. At this latter conference DEATHERAGE claimed that the organizations present had a membership of more than a million, which was found to be a terrific exaggeration. This same DEATHERAGE urged the adoption of the fiery swastika as a symbol of this new group, explaining that just as the K.K.K. had been brought to greater effectiveness by the burning of the fiery cross, just so his group would bring terror and fear into the hearts of many by burning a fiery swastika."

A further report was submitted on January 3, 1940, by Congressman JOE STARNES of Alabama, a member of the Dies Committee. It will be noted that these reports combine in a summary form testimony made by witnesses appearing before the Dies Committee. Mr. STARNES in his report stated that GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE's Knights of the White Camellia was pointed out as one of many groups numbering as its primary aims:

"1. A radical change in the American form of government.

2. The collection of dues from such misguided citizens as will contribute their support.

"Evidence also reflects these organizations are engaged in a form of racketeering as well as in subversive activities. When the money ceases to flow into the coffers of one organization, they abandon it and start another one. These groups and organizations make their chief appeal the basest forms of religious and racial hatred. They promise to deliver this country from the menace of Communism. They heap scorn on the institution of democracy, and they urge the shortcuts of force and violence.

"In 1938, a so-called anti-Communist convention was held in the German-American Bund headquarters in Los Angeles. Bund literature mingled with that of WILLIAM DUDLEY PELLEY, ROBERT EDMONSON, Mrs. FRY, and GEORGE DEATHERAGE on the tables of this convention.

"Some of the organizations which have been brought to the Committee's attention frankly describe themselves as 'Fascist.' They advocate as a part of their program the accomplishment of a change in our present form of government by force and violence. 'I believe as you do,' wrote DEATHERAGE on one occasion, 'that it will take military action to get this gang out and the organization must be built around a propaganda organization, now, that can in a few hours be turned into a militant fighting force.'

"The Committee has established that numerous of these essentially Fascist groups in America have from time to time attempted to effect a unity. The outstanding effort of this kind was known as the American Nationalist Confederation, which was headed by GEORGE DEATHERAGE, who, at that time, but no more, was the leader of the Knights of the White Camellia."

Mr. DIES, in another statement made January 3, 1941, urged that "DEATHERAGE and his Knights of the White Camellia, who tried to make themselves the nucleus of an American Nazi group under the name of the American Nationalist Confederation, have likewise gone the way of those who could not bear up under the full exposure of their true purpose."

It will be noted that GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE, National Commander of the Knights of the White Camellia, gave as his address Post Office Box 467, St. Albans, W. Va.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. GLAVIN

In connection with preparing the November 15 quarterly summary for the Director, there are attached hereto a number of charts, together with a photostatic copy of a book in German which translated means "The Reichs Instructions Bulletin, Special Edition, Reichs Party-Day, 1936."

This bulletin sets up the organization of the Nazi Party. It has been translated into English and will be placed in this quarterly section. The charts attached hereto are taken from this book and purportedly show the party setup. The charts contain both the German name and the English translation thereof.

It is believed that these charts would be of value in connection with this book, and therefore it is suggested that they be prepared, using the English translation only. A cover chart might well be prepared showing the following general over all setup of the N.S.D.A.P.:

At the top thereof, the Fueher; then a line to show the Deputy to the Fueher; then a line below him showing the Reich or National Headquarters; then a line showing below that the Department Headquarters, and a line below that showing Party District Headquarters; below that a line showing unit or branch headquarters; and then a line showing the smallest unit, the blocks or cells.

Enclosure destroyed per notation on memo Nichols to Belmont dated 8-1-55.

Dear Mr. Helvering:

Reference is made to your letter of April 16, 1942, addressed to the Attorney General with the initials IT:Rec:IW:P-EJR, transmitting a photostatic copy of the income tax return of 1940, filed by George E. Deatherage.

It has been noted that this return contains what appears to be an examiner's notation "See letter July 21-41 Correspondence File." From this and other notations on the return, it would appear that a number of questions apparently have been raised concerning it. If this assumption is correct, would you please furnish me with the results of the inquiry, particularly regarding Deatherage's claim that he contributed $380 to the Knights of the White Camilla during 1940.

Investigation conducted by this Bureau indicates Deatherage resigned as President of this organization in November, 1939, and I am quite interested in establishing exactly what his relationship with the organization has been since that time. In the event you should conduct any further investigation based upon this or other returns filed by George Deatherage, I would very much appreciate being furnished with copies of the reports prepared as the result of such investigation.

RE: GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE

REGISTRATION ACT
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Dear Sir:

The Bureau is in receipt of a recent communication from the Criminal Division of the Department which advises that one Claude L. Smith, an attorney, with offices in the Davidson Building, Charleston, West Virginia, is in possession of certain information relative to the recent activities of subject and the Knights of the White Camellia. Inasmuch as Mr. Smith has indicated that he is desirous of furnishing such information to a representative of the Bureau, you are instructed to have an agent interview him with reference to this matter in the very near future

A review of the file for this case fails to indicate that any evidence of a Registration Act violation or of a Voorhis Act violation, has been developed against this subject nor does it appear that there is any evidence of any other violation within the Bureau's investigative jurisdiction. On the basis of the information received recently concerning him, it seems that he has almost completely discontinued the activities which caused him to become the object of investigation by the Bureau.

It is evident, however, that although a rather extensive investigation as to subject's activities has been made that no careful effort has ever been made to check on his bank accounts and sources of income. As you were instructed in Bureau letter of April 9, 1942, it is desired that an endeavor be made to locate subject's bank account and that through an examination of same a comparison be made between his known expenditures and his reported income as reflected by his income tax returns. Through this procedure, you should be able to determine whether subject has actually received any significant sums of money from suspicious sources. It is essential that this be done before the investigation of this matter can be considered as complete.

It is desired that the investigation suggested in this letter be initiated immediately and that a report reflecting at least the results of the interview with Mr. Smith be submitted to the Bureau within a period of twenty days subsequent to the receipt of this letter.

On January 14, 1941, the Bureau furnished the Philadelphia Field Division with a memorandum summarizing information contained in the Bureau files relating to ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON. This memorandum is being set forth for the information of offices receiving copies of this report and is as follows:

"ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON was born in Dayton, Ohio, in 1872, the son of EDWARD EDMONDSON, an artist. His business career includes nearly forty years in journalism as reporter, editor, publisher, financial writer and investment economist. Politically, EDMONDSON reports himself to be non-partisan, pro-Constitution, pro-National, anti-International, and anti-Communist. He denies being a member of any secret society. He is financially, modestly independent. He is not a churchman but is a believer in Christian Principles. His ancestry is native American, chiefly of Scotch descent and of pre-Revolutionary origin.

"EDMONDSON began his newspaper work in Cincinnati, Ohio, first as a reporter, then as a subeditor for the Cincinnati Post. He later became a representative for the Scripps-McRae Press Association. He has acted as news correspondent in New York City for the Louisville Times, Milwaukee Journal, Minneapolis Journal and twenty other Western newspapers. He was subeditor for the New York Herald after reportorial service on the New York Mail and Express. He has also been an economic writer for the Fairchild Publications and financial editor for the New York Journal. For a few months he was on the staff of financial news reporters employed by the manager of the Daily Financial News Bureau of the now defunct 'Town Topics Weekly.' He refers to the 'Town Topics Weekly' as having been at one time operated by 'Jewish scandal-mongers.'

"In his own biographical statement he declares:

> 'I regard my short connection with this agency in the N.Y. financial district as the most valuable of my entire financial experience because it provided knowledge which enabled me afterward to identify positively the sinister Jewish Leadership forces which were then subverting American finance through economic power, and who later similarly prostituted politics. The knowledge gained during this association was what determined me when I established on a capital of $300 thirty-three years ago my own independent and unsubsidized financial news analytical Edmondson Service, to start the same with a published reward of $1,000 for any evidence that the Edmondson Service could be bribed to bull or bear securities.'

PHILADELPHIA, PA. FILE #61-52

"Additional information with reference to the personal history of EDMONDSON and the philosophy which motivates his conduct is found in his autobiographical sketch published on January 28, 1936, which is quoted, in part, herewith as follows:

'The Edmondson Service established later the American Stockholders' Weekly, the N. Y. Daily Financial News Bulletin and "Coming Events." Finding it necessary in 1923 to take a prolonged vacation owing to overwork-undermining of health, I disposed of "Coming Events" and traveled for a few years on the Pacific Coast, writing on Western economic conditions. With recovering health, I returned to New York City in the latter part of 1932 and re-established the Edmondson Service, going on the staff of the N.Y. Daily News Record as economic writer. I soon found a mysterious wall against recovery, and when President Roosevelt in October, 1933, called for criticism--saying "I rely on you newspaper men; I want your criticism as well as support," I issued an analytical pamphlet headed "Wholesale Reform Blocks Recovery." On Dec. 27, 1933, I sent the President an open printed letter captioned: "Mr. President, Do You Favor This Un-Americanism?", saying: "The time has come to ask, Mr. President: Are you in sympathy with the trend toward State Socialism? If not, why are those who seek to overthrow it allowed to stay in Government service at the expense of and against the interests of American citizens? Is a new form of government to be forced on America by a system of secret covenants secretly arrived at?"

The Beginning of the Crusade

'On March 27, 1934, I issued a bulletin headed: "Bankrupt Leadership," declaring that Republican leadership had shown bankruptcy by refusing to reform anything, and that Roosevelt had indicated it by trying to reform everything. A prominent investment interest asked me why I had published this. I replied that it was a patriotic duty to expose bad political leadership. "Is that all?" I was asked. "Yes," I answered. The questioner then held me spellbound for an hour. He and his associates had studied the Jewish Problem for years. He unfolded a story of politico-economic subversion of France, Britain, Germany, and Russia, producing historical suppressed records of fact and authority, largely Jewish, furnishing documentary evidence that Jewish Leadership had caused the depression and was moving to take over the United States through the Jewish-Radical Roosevelt administration.

'When he had finished I asked: "What are we going to do about it?" He said: "I don't know." "I do," I declared. "There is but one course. Pitiless publicity is the only cure for public evils, and I am going to broadcast Jewish anti-Americanism, and expose the plot. The Real Issue is: Shall a minority rule?"

'I immediately began the campaign, using several thousand dollars of my own resources to get it on a self-supporting basis by revolving receipts. I abandoned my regular economic service, being convinced that until the Jewish Economic Power was broken, I could not conscientiously analyze investments. All literature was and is sold at production cost. My agency is non-salaried as well as non-profit. I have no drawing expense account. All my time has been and is devoted to the work without charge. I have circulated over 1½ million pamphlets, which have been reprinted and distributed by between 1,000 and 1,500 volunteer patriots. My wife has been a volunteer worker. I have desk room in a printing plant of friends, who have loyally stood by me. We have received bombing and other threats; attempts have repeatedly been made to smear and discredit the undersigned and his work. Bribery and violence have been tried without avail. Jewish influence had my pistol permit illegally revoked. Jewish reporters have typically attempted to use "Town Topics' 'smear bait'" against me, but with boomerang effect on account of knowledge gained. As a matter of fact, President David A. Brown of the American Hebrew, after an abusive correspondence wrote me on May 10, 1934: "You may be interested in knowing that I have a complete file on you. This file tells in substance your newspaper and financial history, and not only GIVES YOU A CLEAN BILL OF HEALTH, but shows that there is nothing in your previous history to match the poisonous documents (Jewish anti-Americanism exposures) you have sent out."

U. S. Post Office O. K.'s Edmondson Mail

"Upon Jewish instigation, Department of Justice Agents from Washington have investigated the publishing activities of the Edmondson Economic Service, and have found that it is exercising the constitutional right of free speech and free press. U. S.

PHILADELPHIA, PA. FILE #61-52

Post Office Inspectors have examined its operations and have never denied its product mailing privileges in any way. The Bishop Investigation Agency, 11 Broadway, N. Y. City, has my record on file.

'I have repeatedly announced that I am not against Jews because of their religion, as a race, a people or as individuals, but because Jewish Leadership is actively anti-American, is attempting to jettison the American Political Philosophy and take over the country, and that I would continue to be anti-Jewish until Jewry repudiated such subversion. Were the offender any other than the Jewish minority, my attitude would be precisely the same. This problem is the biggest and most acute thing in the world today. It is an abstract economic problem so far as immediacy is concerned, but it is born of an essentially evil philosophy that has evolved a satanic system the chief weapon of which is monetary. It is, in brevity, MATERIALISM GONE MAD.

'Knowing that its whole subversion is vitally vulnerable through money economics, and hence acutely vigilant to monopolize that field, this alien power is swift to try to discredit independent Gentile economists who expose it. THERE CAN BE NO ECONOMIC OR SOCIAL SECURITY WHILE AMERICAN MONETARY CONTROL IS JEWISH-DOMINATED. Backed by 500 billion dollars, one subversive key-post Jew is deadly.

'I constantly receive authentic information from all over the world, and my leaflets are in demand in England, France, Germany, South Africa, Australia and China, as well as from coast to coast in every State. Edmondson anti-Jewish leaflets are publications of suppressed records of fact and authority. They are THE TRUTH, else they could not have stood unrepudiated. High European authorities have written me that my method of direct attack on the cause is the only effective way to defeat Communism.

Edmondson Backing

'The only backing of the Edmondson Economic Service and myself is that supplied by the great middle-class of America, which has put this agency on a self-supporting basis. Wealthy people seem to think that they may escape Communism, but Communism, the Effect, will not be cured until the Cause, Jewish Leadership, is overcome.

Jewish Capitalism uses Jewish Communizers to enslave Gentiles through politico-economic power resting on international gold control. More progress has been made at minimum expense in 18 months of specific direct action than in 18 years of general attack on the Effect--Communism. Why waste precious finances, time and energy fighting a phantom? Diversion is subversion!

'Jewish publications have frequently declared that my work is based on the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, whose authorship has been repudiated by Jewry. It is not so based. My thesis has been repeatedly proved from Jewish records. America is not concerned about who wrote the Protocols. But it is concerned as to why Jewish Leadership adopted them in the conquest of Russia--whose Soviet rulers and ambassadors are now 95% all Jewish--and why Jewish Leadership in America is using them to overcome the United States. The NRA and AAA are examples of attempted complete regimentation and subversion. Incidentally, Jewry itself is the greatest regimented solidarity the world has ever known. Its masters ruthlessly pogromize their own people.

'Jewish authorities hold that the Protocols were taken from the Joly "Dialogues in Hell," but Joly himself admits that Moses and Solomon were "the ancestors of his doctrines"; so that these writings are logically traced back to the Talmud, which Jewish Author Sombart says is "the soul of the Jew." Talmudic Communism has been called "The Code of Hell"; "A Rabbi Racket" that victimizes its own followers; an international "Satanic System" that is essentially anti-national, anti-patriotic, anti-religious, anti-Christ, doctrinally regarding Gentiles as "A Common Enemy," using the "terrible power of the purse" for politico-economic subversion.

A Triple Liberty or Death Fight

'During the past six months patriotic interest in this crusade has risen 500%. Leading Republican and Democratic politicians are calling for the literature on their own letterheads, and are distributing it to bring the Jewish Problem into the light of debate. This reflects pressure from constituencies. Members of Congress are welcoming Edmondson reports because of their factual information. As a result of warnings, National Republican Committeemen have been flooded with appeals not to accept Jewish contribution-dictation and permit the sabotaging of Republican machinery as in the case of the Democratic machinery. As a veteran journalist I predicted a year ago that the high power of great news value would force this issue into subverted newspapers and politics.

'From the start I have been under no illusions or misapprehension as to acute personal dangers involved in this pro-American crusade; but, with a passionate conviction that the ONLY cure for Public Evils, especially those secretly promoted, is PITILESS PUBLICITY--I would be false to patriotic duty to allow such considerations to divert me from exposing to my countrymen THE CAUSE OF THE COMMUNISM that is destroying The Republic.

'The objective naturally is to liberate America. This can be done by educational publicity to a degree where individual Americanism will patriotically rise and coalesce into an overwhelming demand that the majority instead of the minority shall rule. This can be done peacefully if education is permitted, but as Jewish-Radicalism has gained control of America's First Line of Defense, the press, the air and the screen, it may be impossible to avoid bloodshed and civil war. My plan of action is: Buy Gentile! Vote Gentile! Free the Press, the air and the movies. Purge the Channels of Education! Lincoln said: "I have faith in the people; let them KNOW THE TRUTH--and the country is SAFE." What higher authority can be quoted?

'America faces a fight for "Liberty or Death" greater than that of '76. Then political liberty was at stake. Now, it is also economic and spiritual freedom. German emancipation from Jewish Communism points the way. Jewish press control has concealed that fact. America is A Great Suppression. Its existence as a Republic is menaced. Civilization is in danger. It must emancipate itself from gross materialism--or perish.

'The time for action is here. The time for talk has gone. If you are not FOR Americanism FIRST, you are against it. There can be no compromise. Political compromise will not solve this basic problem. Only statesmanship which burns its bridges can do it. Truth and fact, not opinion and abuse, will decide the issue. BUT TO MAKE HIS "GOING CONCERN" BROADLY EFFECTIVE NOW, THE UNDERSIGNED DESPERATELY NEEDS PATRIOTIC WORKING CAPITAL. It is economic common sense that a non-profit operation, like the Edmondson Agency, leaves no effective reserve for necessary new circulation and extension of vital knowledge. OUR BACKS ARE AGAINST THE WALL!

(Signed) Robert Edward Edmondson

(Publicist-Economist).'

"EDMONDSON has defined his Edmondson Economic Service as a periodical issue and published regularly the first and fifteenth of each month with 'Specials' when justified; that it is a non-profit, non-salaried, patriotic agency distributing Jewish problem factual information-leaflets at production cost; that the basic primary function of the Edmondson Economic Service has been and is to analyze investment financial, economic, political, and such inseparably-related subjects, and present its conclusions in an unbiased information service. The Edmondson Economic Service was founded by Edmondson in 1903.

"The Edmondson Economic Service established the American Stockholders' Weekly, the New York Daily Financial News Bulletin and 'Coming Events.' These publications were, however, disposed of by EDMONDSON.

"EDMONDSON has advised that he started his campaign against the present Administration in the latter part of 1934, using several thousands of dollars of his own resources in the beginning. He abandoned his regular economic service and has since that time published various types of literature, all of which has been sold at production cost.

"In 1932 he established an account with the Audubon Avenue Branch of the Corn Exchange Bank, New York City.

"In 1935 EDMONDSON maintained an office at 80 Washington Street, New York City. In 1937 he maintained an office at 400 West 160th Street, New York City. It appears that he formerly distributed circulars and literature through Post Office Box 19, Trinity Station, New York City, and also out of Stoddartsville, Pennsylvania. On his latest circulars, however, his signature and address appear as follows: 'ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON, Public Relations Counsel (formerly of New York City), Stoddartsville, Pennsylvania, Telephone, Pocono Lake, Pennsylvania, 9395.

"EDMONDSON is an impressive looking individual, a fluent and able speaker but obsessed with the racial question. He has dwelt on this subject for so long and with such intensity that there is some question of his mental stability. He appears to have a deep personal conviction on the racial question and explained that the war in Ethiopia was a plot on the part of the Jews to eliminate Mussolini; that subsequently Hitler was also to be eliminated in the same plot. In an interview EDMONDSON advised that this conspiracy is not self-evident, but that it may be traced through thousands of years of history and is the result of centuries of plotting on the part of the Jews. EDMONDSON has explained that one is not able to understand this matter merely from the reading of history, but that one must first understand the 'Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion'; that the Protocols contain the key and that applying the key it 'all becomes as plain as day.'

"At one time EDMONDSON carried a revolver for his own protection, having the authority of a permit from the New York Police Department. An incident occurring thereafter caused the revocation of the permit to carry a weapon. Investigation disclosed, however, that EDMONDSON maintained a shotgun concealed in his office. He likewise maintained several buckets of water near the entrance of his office, which buckets of water are maintained, according to EDMONDSON, to extinguish bombs with which he has been threatened.

"On June 8, 1936, Mayor LaGUARDIA issued a summons, charging criminal libel against ROBERT E. EDMONDSON, 80 Washington Street, New York City. The Mayor indicated that the language of EDMONDSON'S sheets was strong enough to incite to public disorder. It was also disclosed that in his anti-Jewish campaign EDMONDSON attacked President ROOSEVELT, Professor FELIX FRANKFURTER, FRANCES PERKINS, and many others.

"On June 11, 1936, at New York City, three indictments were returned against EDMONDSON. The first alleged false, malicious, scandalous and defamatory libel of all persons of the Jewish religion. The second indictment contained charges that EDMONDSON had libeled Miss FRANCES PERKINS, Secretary of Labor; while the third indictment alleged that EDMONDSON had libeled Dean VIRGINIA GILDERSLEEVE of Barnard College.

"There were several postponements of this matter and on April 14, 1938, a Memorandum was submitted as Amici Curiae on behalf of the American Committee on Religious Rights and Minorities, the American Jewish Committee, the American Jewish Congress and the Human Relations Committee of the National Council of Women.

"The Memorandum showed that EDMONDSON was charged under Section 1340-1341 of the Penal Law of the State of New York with having criminally libeled persons of the Jewish religion, by false, malicious and calumnious propaganda. While denouncing the acts of EDMONDSON, the organizations acting in this matter questioned whether the cause of religious liberty and tolerance would be advanced by this particular prosecution. They pointed out that there is danger that such use of the criminal libel laws will ultimately react against the very minorities sought to be protected by undermining or abridging the traditional and constitutional right to freedom of speech and of the press; further, that it seemed doubtful that a charge of libel against a religion could be sustained, however untrue and detrimental the statements might be, and that it is still more doubtful whether it would be to the public interest in the long run for it to be sustained; that the statute itself does not by its terms cover group libel, nor do any of the reported cases in New York hold that an indictment for criminal libel will lie where the group libeled is as broad as that defamed by EDMONDSON; that if after trial the defendant should be acquitted on the ground that the Penal Law does not extend to group defamations, the fact that the prosecution failed would almost unquestionably be publicized by bigots as a vindication of the defendant.

"In a written opinion delivered on May 10, 1938, Judge JAMES G. WALLACE dismissed all indictments against EDMONDSON in this matter.

"EDMONDSON is the author of a pamphlet entitled 'Anti-Semitic Causes of Today.' This pamphlet was reproduced from a speech delivered upon the invitation of the representatives of the Cardinal Newman Club of New York on February 7, 1937. In this pamphlet EDMONDSON states, in part:

> "'While the heart of the trouble is economic, in my opinion, the important fields of politics, publicity, religion and race have been invaded in varying extent.
> "'I do not belong to any church; but I am a believer in practical positive Christian Principles. I am not a member of any secret society. My business is that of an independent economist, editor and publisher. I am likewise independent in politics, being merely a patriot who stands for traditional Americanism.
> "'I have never been against Jews as individuals, as to race or religion. Under the Constitution of the U. S. I am for intelligent racial and religious tolerance forever. But I am unutterably against that power-lusting false leadership which is promoting a predatory economic system that is destroying Jews as well as gentiles.
> "'In the United States the real Jewish problem is neither racial nor religious, as many Jews hold and some gentiles believe. Its subversive power is economic.'

"The remainder of the pamphlet is made up of quotations from alleged authorities on the Semitic problem.

"EDMONDSON is also the publisher of a pamphlet entitled 'THE JEWISH SYSTEM INDICTED by the Documentary Record.' This is a fifty-five page pamphlet of anti-Semitism, containing quotations from innumerable persons and organizations which quotations are in the nature of attacks upon the Jews. The material is segregated under the following headings:

(a) Revolutionary Communism.
(b) Incitement to War.
(c) Anti-National Plotting.
(d) Political Subversion.
(e) Treason to Free Speech.
(f) Economic Monopoly.
(g) Judicial Corruption.
(h) Anti-Christian Conspiracy.

"Page 25 of the said pamphlet contains a paragraph headed 'ROOSEVELT'S ANCESTRY,' which is quoted as follows:

"'On Page 237 of the 1937 World Almanac under the heading "U. S. Presidents and Their Wives," appears this: "FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT was the son of JAMES ROOSEVELT, a direct descendant of CLAES MARTENSZAN van ROSENVELT, who arrived in New Amsterdam in 1649 and married JANNETJE SAMUELS."

"'The Oct. 15, 1936, issue of "The Revealer," Wichita, Kans., reprinted "A genealogical chart prepared by the Carnegie Institute of Washington," which confirms the above, and then says that following the ancestors indicated came these names: KUNST, JACOBUS, HOFFMAN, HINDENBURG, then ISAAC ROOSEVELT, to JAMES ROOSEVELT - father of FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT.

"'The magazine goes on: "The N. Y. Times of Mar. 14, 1935, quotes President ROOSEVELT as saying: 'In the distant past my ancestors may have been Jews. All I know about the origin of the ROOSEVELT family is that they apparently descended from CHAES MARTENSZAN van ROOSEVELT, who came from Holland.'" Former Gov. CHASE OSBORN of Michigan gave an interview in 1934, to a leading St. Petersburg, Fla., newspaper, in which he traced the Jewish ancestry of the President, saying that the family, fleeing from Spain in 1620 when Jews were expelled, sought safety in Germany, Holland and other countries, changing the name to ROSENBERG, ROSENBAUM, ROSENBLUM, ROOSEVELT and ROSENTHAL. "JACOBUS" -- listed in the "tree" mentioned heretofore, was declared to have remained true to his Jewish faith.

"'Apparently, "he is not one of us."'"

EDMONDSON has also published and circulated a pamphlet entitled 'The Greatest War in History Now On!' It is pointed out therein that:

"'High honor of welcoming to the U. S. Veterans BEAMISH and ARCAND in the national patriotic movement against the International Jewish System was allotted to ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSOM at the October 31 (1937) meeting of American leaders.'

"The pamphlet is made up of portions of speeches delivered on October 30, 1937, at the New York Hippodrome before a public meeting of the German-American Bund, by Captain HENRY HAMILTON BEAMISH, ADRIEN ARCAND and ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON. The pamphlet reports BEAMISH to be the Founder of the anti-Jewish racial movement in Great Britain, head of the Britons and member of a prominent old English family.

"ADRIEN ARCAND is the Leader of the National Social Christian Party of Canada. The language used by BEAMISH, ARCAND and EDMONDSON in their speeches discloses the close working relationship between the three individuals. The interest of the German-American Bund in the movements sponsored by BEAMISH, ARCAND and EDMONDSON would seem to be indicated by the fact that the speeches were delivered to members of the German-American Bund at the New York Hippodrome on October 30, 1937.

"BEAMISH asserted:

"'The Jew is the same today as in the days of Pharoah,.a microbe in the body politics of any nation.'

'ARCAND in his speech declared:

"'I think that all of us here are fighting Communism. I do it politically by Fascism. For I am a Fascist and I am proud to be and to say it. I am a leader of Fascists and I am proud of them.'

"EDMONDSON'S speech contained his usual anti-Jewish utterances.

"On August 15, 1936, there was circulated throughout the country a pamphlet entitled 'The Jew Deal.' The pamphlet was published under the authority of 'The Knights of the White Camelia,' copyrighted in 1936 by Knights Organizations Associates, Incorporated. A portion of the pamphlet is devoted to the question 'WHO CONTROLS OUR GOVERNMENT? - or - The "Jew" Behind the Jew Who Tells Mr. Roosevelt What To Tell You.' This section of the pamphlet provides photographs of the more prominent Jews who now hold high positions in the Federal Government. Each photograph is accompanied by a brief personal history.

"On Page 5 of this pamphlet the publishers and editors express their indebtedness to several persons, among whom is ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON,

"'for their patriotic unselfish devotion to the preservation of American ideals; untiring and materially unrewarded efforts to enlighten the great American public; to warn them of the impending disaster to Our Beloved Country.'

"The same page of the pamphlet states:

"'ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON, publicist, economist, address 84 Washington Street, New York, New York. He publishes a weekly service replete with condensed facts about the domestic Jew.'

"There appears to be a somewhat close collaboration between EDMONDSON and JAMES TRUE. JAMES TRUE of Washington, D. C., publishes the Industrial Control Reports and heads the organization known as the James True Associates. On page 4 of his Industrial Control Reports for August 29, 1936, he declares:

"'Again we urge you to read and distribute "Edmondson Case," a sixty-two page booklet of facts regarding the indictment and trial of ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON on the charge of libeling the Jewish race. Counsel succeeded in placing an abundance of historical and other facts in the record, giving you a vivid outline of the international plot.'

"It is to be noted that JAMES TRUE is one of the leading anti-Semitic pamphleteers in the United States.

"There has also been certain close cooperation and collaboration between EDMONDSON and the German-American Bund. On May 18, 1937, the Bund sponsored a meeting at the New York Turnhall to discuss the prosecution of EDMONDSON.

"The Deutscher Weckruf und Beobachter, the official organ of the German-American Bund, for February 10, 1938, page 5, column 4, announced EDMONDSON as a speaker for the proposed meeting of the New York local of the German-American Bund on February 24, 1938. The paper also announced that RUSSELL J. DUNN would be a speaker and declared:

> "'Both speakers are most favorably known to our members as well as to the adherents of our movement.'

"At the February 24, 1938, meeting of the New York local of the Bund, EDMONDSON was introduced for purposes of a speech and declared:

> "'Alien usurpers have elected a dictatorship in Washington. The administration does not represent the American people. Under the constitution we have a right to bear arms. We should, therefore, form a national militia and organize in vigilante groups.'

"EDMONDSON did not suggest the overthrow of the Government by force in direct words, but the meaning was unmistakable. He requested the cooperation of the Bund in 'cleaning up America,' though he definitely stated he was neither a Fascist nor a Nazi - 'because the Department of Justice has not only acquitted you of all charges, but attested to your patriotic standing.'

"EDMONDSON was the principal speaker before the Bergen County, New Jersey, local of the German-American Bund on February 14, 1938, at New Milford, New Jersey.

"The Deutscher Weckruf und Beobachter for February 24, 1938, page 5, reports the address of EDMONDSON as follows:

> "'Our speaker, ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON, emphasized the need of a national newspaper without any advertisements which thereby would be removed from the pernicious control of the Jews. His leaflet "Roosevelt's Dictatorship" should be distributed by all locals.'

"The Deutscher Weckruf und Beobachter for April 21, 1938, on page 1 carries a two column article in English styled 'R. E. Edmondson's Great Triumph -

Jewish Congress et al beat a humiliating retreat by asking indictment be quashed - admit that charge brought by LaGUARDIA cannot be sustained under the constitution. Case pending nearly two years and often resulting in failure forces other abortive attempts to silence anti-Communist Jewish Critics. Daily papers, Jewish controlled, ignored this important news development.'

"The Deutscher Weckruf und Beobachter for April 28, 1938, announced that ROBERT EDMONDSON would be one of the principal speakers for a 'Big Nationalist Rally' under the joint auspices of The American Nationalist Federation and the Russian National League of America, to be held on May 1, 1938, at the New York Turnhall.

"The Deutscher Weckruf und Beobachter for May 26, 1938, carried an article in English, allegedly a copy of an open letter sent by ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON to former Attorney General CUMMINGS on May 20, 1938. Briefly summarized the alleged letter informed Mr. CUMMINGS that the Jews have deprived EDMONDSON of his constitutional rights by preventing him from speaking and he asks the Attorney General to investigate on the same basis as the Department of Justice investigated the recent Jersey City episode.

"The Deutscher Weckruf und Beobachter for May 19, 1938, contains an editorial in English signed 'The Editors of the D. W. & B.,' congratulating EDMONDSON on winning his case in New York.

"The Deutscher Weckruf und Beobachter for October 20, 1938, contained an article signed by EDWARD EDMONDSON, who is addressed as follows:

> Public Relations Counsel, P. O. Box 19, Trinity Station, New York City.

"The article is dated October 1st and is entitled 'Nationalism Wins the People - Jewry Loses the War.' In this article he states, in part:

> "'.....can there be any doubt regarding THEIR ACTION when the patriots of this country realize that the welding of Russia and the U. S. was UNDER JEWISH DOMINATION, and know that on vigilanteism DEPENDS the salvation of the Republic? The INFORMED Associated Farmers of California are already promoting a nation-wide organization of American Vigilantes - a posse comitatus - specific legalization of vigilanteism in a determined effort to save the Republic.'

"The Deutscher Weckruf und Beobachter for June 16, 1938, contains a letter of EDMONDSON, in which the latter thanked the Weckruf for two articles on his behalf which appeared in the issues of May 12 and May 19, 1938. In this connection EDMONDSON declared:

> "'Of course, your splendid paper is not receiving its just dues under the reign of Jewry. The only other publicist in North America who is handling this Jewish problem with masterly intelligence, in my judgment, is the brilliant Fascist Leader of Canada, ADRIEN ARCAND, who delivered a great address before your organization last fall.'

"The Deutscher Weckruf und Beobachter for October 6, 1938, carried an article by EDMONDSON styled: 'Would It Be A Jewish War?'

"Allegations have been received that EDMONDSON is connected with an organization known as 'World-Service,' which is located at Erfurt, Germany, and which issues anti-Semitic and pro-Nazi propaganda in its publication printed in English called 'World-Service.'

"The June 1, 1937, issue of 'World-Service' on page 5 deals with 'The Edmondson Case' and says, in part:

> "'One of the most fearless opponents of Bolshevism in the U. S. A. is the publicist EDWARD EDMONDSON, known to World-Service readers through his pamphlets.....The case is more than an ordinary one; it is the fight of Jewry against American Patriotism, and it will be no easy one to conduct in view of the financial superiority of the Jews. American patriots have therefore come to his aid and made the case known over the whole country. World-Service is also ready with any assistance it can provide. Inquiries or donations should be addressed to ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON, 400 West 160th Street, New York City.'

"EDMONDSON is reportedly the moving spirit of an organized group called 'The American Nationalist Party.' The officers of this group are stated to be:

E. Androws Moriarity,
10 East 83rd Street, - Executive Secretary
New York City.

PHILADELPHIA, PA. FILE #61-52

Stanley A. Smith,
261 Van Buren Avenue, - Chairman
Teaneck, New Jersey.

Arthur Goadby,
156 East 87th Street, - Treasurer
New York City.

"The American Nationalist Party is said to have headquarters at 113 West 57th Street, New York City. Attendance is allegedly by invitation only. It is reported that in the course of these meetings the President and the Administration are assailed in the bitterest of language, the constant assertion being that the Government is in the hands of the Jews; that the American people must form vigilante organizations to rid themselves of the 'illegal dictatorship in Washington.' The group is also said to hold meetings at 231 West 58th Street, New York City.

"There is no known criminal record of ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON.

"Following is a list of some of the circulars issued by EDMONDSON:

"The commencement of the War in Europe in September, 1939, apparently opened up new fields for the writings of EDMONDSON. Even before the War started, it was reported that EDMONDSOM was disseminating straight German Nazi propaganda instead of his usual anti-New Deal and anti-Jewish propaganda sheets. In fact, the 'Deutscher Weckruf & Beobachter and Free American' for June 1, 1939, contained on page two a long article in English entitled 'War? Why and wherefore? - Leading British trade journal prints basic facts for the German side of the war problem.' The article stated 'Through the courtesy of ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON we are enabled to reprint from the British Builder-Merchants Journal and Builder's Ironmonger for April 1939.....' It is stated that the article is a rank piece of pure Nazi propaganda and has all the earmarks of having been written not in England but in Germany.

"Ken Magazine for April 27, 1939, contained on page fifty-two several items about ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON. He was described as the sponsor of 'American Vigilantes' and the statement was made that EDMONDSON allegedly had added anti-union propaganda literature to his line of anti-Jewish publications.

"It might be mentioned that the 'Deutscher Weckruf & Beobachter and Free American' which appeared on February 15, 1940, contained an article on page one entitled 'Why we stay out' signed 'Robert Edward Edmondson, Public Relations Counsel, Stoddartsville, Pa.' The article was strongly anti-Jewish and was continued on page seven of the paper. The February 8, 1940, edition of the paper contained on page one an article entitled 'Hitler hate a war breeder' which was copied from the 'American Vigilante Bulletin' and was written by EDMONDSON. The edition of the paper which appeared on February 23, 1939, ran on page one a long article written in English entitled 'Jew-Free Germany recovers despite world Jew boycott.' The article appears to have been written by EDMONDSON and it advocates 'America can also recover -- Jew-free.' In the edition of the paper which appeared on March 9, 1939, there is on page two a reprint from EDMONDSON'S Bulletin entitled 'Exploding Solomon's monument claims on U. S.' The article is strongly anti-Jewish.

"JOHN L. SPIVAK, who has written articles in 'New Masses' Magazine, has indicated that one ALLAN ZOLL and ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON worked closely in efforts to save the Constitutional rights of Father COUGHLIN. No details relative to this association, however, were furnished by SPIVAK.

"It is of interest to note that a book entitled 'Juda Entdeckt Amerika' (Jews discover America) by OTHMAR KRAINZ (published by Deutscher Hort-Verlag, Bad Furth bei Muenchen, Germany - 224 pages - German) contained a chapter beginning on page 128 entitled 'Roosevelt and his Jewish entourage.' This 'proves' that Roosevelt himself is Jewish. Much of the wording of the chapter apparently is taken verbatim from the literature put out by ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON. The chapter enumerates many Government officials in Washington who are listed as Jews. About half of the names listed are pure fiction or of people who are not Jewish or have no Government positions.

"It may be of interest to note the names of some of the more recent pamphlets distributed by EDMONDSON. One is entitled 'DEWEY: Presidential Impossibility.' The subhead of the particular circular reads as follows: 'As Much Jew-Surrounded as "Democracy" ROOSEVELT, LaGUARDIA'S Republican "Racket Busting" N. Y. District Attorney Was "Discovered" By B'nai B'rith's Leader GEORGE Z. MEDALIE, Who Is His "Closest Advisor and Campaign Manager."' The circular listed the names of DEWEY'S Assistant District Attorneys and also those of his Deputy Assistant District Attorneys, who, according to EDMONDSON, have Jewish names. The statement is also made that DEWEY managers were putting Gentile names as 'fronting' for them in the Presidential campaign. The following language is also noted in the circular: 'Unless American moral fibre and courage have completely Jew-rotted, we shall reflect--AND ACT, to recapture what has been taken from us by stealth--peacefully, if we can, forcefully, if we must. Ballots are better than bullets!'

"One of EDMONDSON'S Circulars dated January 15, 1940, is entitled '"Lawless LaGUARDIA."' Among other things this circular makes an attack upon New York City's Mayor for his alleged failure to abide by Judge JAMES G. WALLACE'S opinion delivered on May 10, 1938. The following sentences are noted in the circular: 'Not only that, but this half-Jew head of America's metropolis publicly defies and flouts Judge JAMES G. WALLACE'S last year's court decision-precedent holding that there is no law in New York or any other state of the Union that recognizes and punishes "group libel."

"'If you doubt that this "Lawless Mayor," preaches one thing and practices another--a truly Jewish procedure, as witness the quotations herein--read the record of the WALLACE decision, the N.Y. State Constitution and the Constitution of the United States as regards criminal libel and freedom of speech and the press, and collateral incitement to "breach of the peace."'

"On March 22, 1939, EDMONDSON published a circular entitled 'Proof of Conspiracy to Communize U. S. A.,' the subhead of which read 'Advance Testimony Placed Before the Dies Committee Shows How Power-Publicity Has Exposed the Jewish System's Politico-Economic Plot to Rule the World Through Monopoly of Gold.' EDMONDSON had this to say concerning the report that his campaign against the Jews was being financed by Nazi funds: 'To the best of my my knowledge and belief I have never received a dollar contribution from such sources, directly or indirectly. The allegation falls of its own weight since such financing would be an impossibility in view of the Jewish boast that their International Trade Boycott has bankrupted anti-Communist Germany. How can a bankrupt finance other enterprises? In this matter, however, I take my stand squarely with GEORGE WASHINGTON. He welcomed to his Army of Liberation many German patriots who laid at his feet their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor. Without hesitation, I would gratefully accept any unconditional similar offering to preserve American liberties--whose preservation is worth any sacrifice.' Other pertinent portions from this particular circular follow:

"'What is your proposal for a solution of the Jewish Problem?

"'Disfranchisement of unassimilable Jews as a danger to the peace and safety of the state; their removal from economic monopolies and monetary domination; their purchase of the Island of Madagascar for a Jewish National Homeland State; their deportation self-paid. The Jewish "Way of Life" is not that of Christian America. Occidental-Aryan-Nordic elements dominate the cultural conditions of the U. S., which does not understand or like the Orientalism of Jewish rabbis and the leaders of Jewry.

"'Do you believe we Americans can return constitutionally to traditional government?

"'I do. Enlightenment only is necessary. Once they know the trouble, citizens will remedy it "American-way." No dictatorship is needed. America wants no communism, no fascism, no nazism, no bolshevism, no democracy, in my opinion. Individualistic Americanism demands the restoration of The Republic, with its principles of special privilege for none and justice for all, no more, no less. There ought to be financial avalanche support for such a rescue and restoration, reconstruction and redemption. Free the Press--and the Constitution is Preserved! Free the Press--and the Supreme Court is Protected! Free the Press--and America is Defended--AND SAVED!

"'Until it is free, in self-defense, non-Jews should Buy-Employ-Vote Gentile.'

"It is thought that upon some occasions EDMONDSOM writes his anti-Jewish literature under fictitious names. One particular pamphlet is entitled 'The Wailing Wall,' which allegedly is a confession of a Jew named EMANUEL GINSBERG. A copy of this circular was obtained from a member of the Silver Shirt Movement who stated that the particular circular was not a publication of the Silver Shirts but that it was being distributed along with others of their pamphlets. 'The Wailing Wall' is a bitter indictment of the Jewish race and on the back there is a notation that copies of the pamphlet may be obtained from ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON, Stoddartsville, Pennsylvania. The Editor's Note at the end of the pamphlet is as follows: 'The authorship of this dramatic Confession of Guilt has been guaranteed by responsible Western authority to ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON, who, of his own personal experience, can support in general the substance of the production; having been visited in N. Y. City by a Jew who said he came to offer congratulations, admitting that truthful Jew-exposure publicity was "the only way to save good Jews as well as Gentiles" from the madness of false Jewish leadership. Asked how many "good Jews" there were, the answer sadly came: "Not many"--which may agree with Biblical prophecy that "only a remnant" will achieve redemption. This Jewish visitor added that his life would be forfeit if he were exposed, as "mad-dog Jew leaders are just as ruthless with Jew as with Gentile opponents."' Another publication obtained from a representative of the Silver Shirts was entitled 'Frankfurter Wins - Down Goes the United States Supreme Court,' which was also apparently edited by EDMONDSON.

"A circular dealing directly with the War and entitled 'Stay Out of the Suicide War' appeared on September 4, 1939. EDMONDSON stated in this circular the following:

> "'Neutrality manipulation is for the diabolical purpose of making America A PARTY TO THE WAR, having it act as a Munition Dump for Britain and France, which have been forced into this new great war by the same anti-national alien element that put the U. S. into the last slaughter--to try to get Palestine for World Jewry.
> "'By demanding lifting of the arms embargo Roosevelt exposes (1) his own unneutral casus belli personalized Hitler-hating partisanship because Communist Jews were expelled from Germany; (2) his humanitarian hypocrisy by immediately promoting war activities of Britain and France; and (3) a typical appeal to the soulless profit-greed of those U. S. materialists to whom "wars are Jews' harvests."'

PHILADELPHIA, PA. FILE #61-52

"One of the vilest circulars located in the files is entitled 'Jews Are a Deadly Poison In The Midst Of A Christian Nation.' Although no name appears on this particular circular, it was received by the Bureau from an individual who also enclosed a circular entitled 'Onward Christian Soldiers!' which does contain the name of ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON. In view of this fact and also in view of the contents, it thus appears likely that EDMONDSON also distributed the first-mentioned circular. The particular circular contains a statement to this effect: 'Boycott the Movies - Hollywood is the Sodom and Gomorrha where international Jewry controls vice - dope - gambling - where young Gentile girls are raped.' Also this statement is noted: 'Fathers and mothers, if you do not want your sons and daughters ruined, morally and physically, keep them away from all Jewish influences.' On the back of the circular the following is found:

'12 Million Christian American Workers Jobless

'Over $\frac{1}{4}$ Million Asia - Europaic Jews are now coming to the United States to Throw Christian American Workers Out Of Jobs

'Benjamin Franklin Said:

"Jews are a menace to this country if permitted entrance and Should Be Excluded."

'Samuel Roth Said In His Book: Jews Must Live

"We Jews are a people of vultures, living on the labor of the rest of the world."

'The Jewish Talmud Says:

"Jews are human beings, Gentiles are not human beings, but beasts." (Baba Mezia, 114, 6.)

'Samuel Roth Says:

"We Jews, who come to the Nations, pretending to escape persecution, are really the most deadly persecutors of men."'"

In a report by Special Agent L. L. TYLER, dated 9-11-41 at Washington, D. C., Washington Field Office File #100-108, entitled "JAMES TRUE; THE JAMES TRUE ASSOCIATES; JAMES HUNTER McGUIRE, alias Captain Hunter McGuire - INTERNAL SECURITY - G, REGISTRATION ACT," a copy of which was forwarded to all Field Offices, there was a reference regarding ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON on page 21 of this report.

work at the Naval Operating Base for the Fifth Naval District, had been excluded from the site of all naval work by the direction of the Secretary of Navy. This source indicated that Subject was undesirable for employment on any defense project. An article appearing in the Herald-Dispatch, Huntington, West Virginia, for March 3, 1942 reflected that Subject had demanded of Secretary of the Navy FRANK KNOX a hearing on his dismissal from a Norfolk Naval Base project and at the same time gave KNOX as a reference on an application for a War Production Board job. The following excerpt from a letter made public by the Subject was printed in the above article:

"As an American citizen, I demand that I be advised immediately what is meant by being an 'undesirable' person and whether you have any evidence that I have been disloyal or have committed any treasonable act at any time which would merit such dismissal. I also demand an open hearing before the authorities having jurisdiction and if I am found guilty of any disloyal or treasonable act, I am quite willing to take whatever penalty may be imposed."

Confidential Informant T-1 advised that the Subject had returned to St. Albans, West Virginia, in March 1942 and was presently residing with his brother-in-law C. R. BARTON on College Hill in St. Albans. T-1 stated that to the best of his knowledge the Subject was not employed and was not active in any organization or movement. He stated that he knew of no suspicious mail received by him and knew of no checks or money orders cashed by Subject which would indicate a source of income. T-1 stated that he knew of his own personal knowledge that the only money orders sent by Subject were to his estranged wife and to his son, who is approximately fifteen years of age. He stated that the Subject usually sent $50.00 per month to his wife and $25.00 per month to his son. T-1 did not know of any banking connection had by the Subject. He stated, however, that on Monday, June 15, 1942 he had been talking with Subject at which time DEATHERAGE displayed to him a return receipt received from the War Department, the explanation for which was that Subject had made application for a commission in the U. S. Army, fully expecting not to get it but merely wishing to place himself on record as having offered his services to the United States and was saving the return receipt for future reference.

Confidential Informant T-2 advised that Subject maintains a small two figure, inactive bank account at the Bank of St. Albans. He indicated that there has been no activity in this account since December 1941 and the bank's records designate the account as inactive.

Inquiry was made at the Kanawha Banking and Trust Company and the Charleston National Bank, both of Charleston, West Virginia, to determine whether Subject had any banking affiliations or transacted any business at those institutions, the results of the inquiries being negative.

Confidential Informant [redacted] advised that he has frequently seen the Subject since his return to St. Albans from Norfolk and has observed no mysterious moves on his part. He advised that he frequently sees Subject driving a black coupe around St. Albans and is of the opinion that he travels considerably by automobile and airplane. He could not furnish information as to the itinerary of Subject, but felt that the latter was well fixed financially and could afford considerable travel. He stated that he had recently observed the Subject in a grocery store in St. Albans pay for the few items with a $50.00 bill and observed a substantial number of bills in the Subject's wallet. This informant recalled that several years ago DEATHERAG called a meeting for the public to be held in the St. Albans Town Hall, which was attended by the informant. At this meeting Subject displayed four blue prints, each about two feet by four feet. He recalled that the blue prints called for a new administrative set-up for the United States under a totalitarian form of government headed by a dictator. [redacted] stated that the dictator was to be General VAN HORN MOSELEY, U. S. Army, Retired. DEATHERAGE requested [redacted] to address a letter to MOSELEY urging him to accept the leadership of a movement which Subject would start and which was depicted on a blueprint displayed by Subject.

[redacted] stated that it had been reported to him that the KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE CAMELLIA were still somewhat active in the vicinity of St. Albans, West Virginia. He advised that a group which he believed to be the local Castle of the White Camellia held a meeting on College Hill in St. Albans around the first of November of 1941 and at the meeting the group used lighted flares. He stated that C. R. BARTON of St. Albans, a process engineer, employed by the Carbide and Carbon Company of South Charleston, was the leader and he was assisted by J. J. BIRD. He felt that JAMES G. BARNETT and R. F. SCOTT, both employees of the Carbide Company and both residents of St. Albans, are also active at the present time. [redacted] stated that C. R. BARTON had made the following remark prior to the entry of the United States into war "I hope every Englishman in the British Isles is killed by the Germans".

Mr. OMAR YOUNG, Industrial Relations Manager of the Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corporation, South Charleston, West Virginia, made available to the writer the personnel record of CLIFFORD RALPH BARTON, which reflected that he was born February 27, 1897 at Wallingford, Connecticut. The record contai the following description of BARTON:

Name:	CLIFFORD RALPH BARTON
Height:	6' 1"
Weight:	156
Hair:	Gray
Complexion:	Fair
Eyes:	Blue
Build:	Slender
Scars:	Appendectomy scar

The following information was obtained from the same source on JUSTICE JENNINGS BIRDof 1324 Highland Street, St. Albans, West Virginia, employed as a pipefitter foreman. BIRD has been on sick leave from March 13, 1942 until June 8, 1942. His description as shown on the records is as follows:

Name:	JUSTICE JENNINGS BIRD
Age:	40 (7-27-01, Putnam County, W. Va.)
Height:	6'
Weight:	150
Hair:	Brown
Eyes:	Brown
Complexion:	Medium dark
Build:	Slender

Mr. YOUNG advised that he knew of his own knowledge that both of these men were formerly connected with the KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE CAMELLIA, but he did not know that there was any activity of that group at the present time and was of the opinion that it had been defunct since 1939. The files of JAMES G. BARNETT and R. F. SCOTT were not available at that time.

Accompanied by Special Agent SHELBURNE M. WARREN, the writer interviewed GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE at the home of Mr. BARTON in St. Albans, West Virginia. The interview lasted approximately two hours during which time Subject was quite talkative and was hospitable and quite cordial. He stated that he was being philosophical by having been termed undesirable by the Secretary of the Navy and felt that it was not the action of the Secretary of the Navy that directly caused his dismissal but that it was caused by the coalition of Jewish interests in the government. DEATHERAGE advised that he began a study of Communism many years ago after having visited Russia and witnessed the Russian Revolution. He stated that upon his return to the United States he felt that a similar catastrophe might overcome this nation and as his avocation began considerable research into the background and identity of Communist Party members and affiliates of fellow traveler organizations. As a result of this study he stated that he found that the majority of persons connected with Communistic organizations and seeking to overthrow the United States Government and institute in its place a Communistic form of government were persons of the Jewish race. He became so firmly convinced that the problem could be solved by the elimination from public life of the Jews that he organized the KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE CAMELLIA in an effort to drive the Jews from positions of power which they had assumed. He frankly admitted that he was anti-Semitic in his outlook, but felt that he was being unjustly condemned and maligned by his enemies who termed him a Nazi or who labeled him un-American.

He stated that his original purpose had been to save America from the Jewish plague and for his efforts he had been black-listed by all industries and was now a social outcast. He stated that he had never uttered a seditious, treasonable or un-American statement and felt that the only direct charge which could be made against him was his opposition to Jewish Communists. He stated that he did not condemn the entire Jewish race, but only those Jews who were inclined toward Communism. He stated that the Communist Party of the United States was partly financed by B'nai Brith, which he termed the largest espionage ring in the world today.

Subject made available to the writer two blueprints; one entitled "Communist Third International Created by International Jews, Moscow" which he termed the key to the New Deal mystery and which contained the names of over three hundred Communistic and Left Wing groups. He also furnished a list of about six hundred names of persons and listed the number of Communist organizations to which each individual belonged. From observation of the blueprint it is apparent that the majority of the persons listed are Jews and he has so designated each person of Jewish background by a large X mark. He advised that he had made up the blueprints in 1935 after considerable research and made them available to several outstanding groups which were fighting Communism, but he felt that they were afraid to use the information contained thereon due to criticism which might arise over the racial issue involved.

At no time did the Subject become demonstrative or vile in his denunciation of the Jews and he carried on a coherent and rather intelligent discussion. It was obvious from his manner of speaking that he is highly prejudiced against the Jewish race and was of the opinion that further investigation by the FBI would bear out his previous findings regarding Communism.

It was observed by the writer that the Subject drives a 1937 Studebaker Coupe bearing 1942 Virginia license #450-944.

From Confidential Informant T-3 it was determined that

By letter dated February 11, 1942 the Los Angeles Field Division advised that a Grand Jury subpoena had been issued for two packages of printed matter addressed to Subject at Nr. 2 E. Gore Street, Orlando, Florida, U.S.A. The packages bore a return address "Deutsche Welt-Dienst, Frankfurt A Main, Schundstrater, Germany" and contained printed matter entitled "International Correspondence for Enlightenment on the Jewish Question". The two packages were forwarded to this Field Division and are being retained in the files of the Huntington Field Division.

At the St. Albans, West Virginia Post Office a thirty day mail cover was placed on all first class mail addressed to Subject. It was also requested that their money order records be scrutinized in order to determine whether Subject has sent any money orders to any individuals other than his wife and son.

Dear Sir:

There are forwarded herewith two blue print charts furnished by the captioned Subject to Special Agent CLARENCE H. CORKRAN of this Office, who interviewed DEATHERAGE at his home in St. Albans, West Virginia, on June 16, 1942.

DEATHERAGE claims that the attached charts show the infiltration of Communists into the United States Government and indicate the number of persons of Jewish extraction, who are members of the Communist Party and front organizations.

In the event the information contained on the charts is determined to be of any value, it is suggested that the Bureau make photostatic copies of this material and return the original charts to this Office at the earliest convenience, in order that they may be returned to the Subject, according to the request made by him.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to my letter dated June 9, 1942, requesting that Mr. Claude L. Smith, an attorney at Charleston, West Virginia, be interviewed for information concerning the activities of the subject. It is noted that the interview with Mr. Smith is not set forth in the report of Special Agent C. M. Cookran dated June 19, 1942, at Huntington, West Virginia, nor is a lead set out in his report for an interview with Mr. Smith. This matter should be given attention in the subsequent investigation to be conducted by your office Reference is also made to the report of Special Agent G. V. Doherty dated June 22, 1942, at Boston, Massachusetts, copies of which were sent to all offices receiving copies of this letter. It is noted that this report set forth the names and addresses of many persons and organizations which were found in the subject's notebook, and that investigation was requested on the part of all of these offices that the indices be checked and information reported as to the identity of the officials of the organization mentioned and also of those on the subject's mailing list set out in the report of Special Agent J. E. Kissner, dated March 28, 1942, at Norfolk, Virginia.

Inasmuch as extensive investigation as to the subject's activity has failed to develop any evidence of a violation of one of the Registration Acts or of the Voorhis Act, it does not appear that the time necessary to cover the leads set out in Agent Doherty's report is justified.

It is desired that the Huntington Field Division make a thorough review of the subject's bank accounts and conduct any logical investigation which suggests itself as a result of the review of these accounts. In this review, an effort should be made to trace any suspicious funds which had been deposited in his account. If the deposits are made by check, an effort should be made to determine the identity of the makers thereof. Any other investigation presently contemplated by the Huntington office should, of course, be completed.

In view of the information set forth herein, all auxiliary offices should consider this investigation referred upon completion to the Huntington

Said files contain several newspaper articles; an article dated March 3, 1942 in the Christian Science Monitor indicated that DEATHERAGE had given the Secretary of the Navy's name as a reference to the War Production Board, and that he was to demand a public hearing.

On February 26, 1942, an article from the New York Herald indicated that DEATHERAGE was released from an important position at the Norfolk Naval Base by Secretary of Navy FRANK KNOX as "an undesirable person". Said article indicated that DEATHERAGE was the organizer of the "Knights of the White Camellia" and the American Nationalists Federation; that at the Dies Hearing, DEATHERAGE testified that he visited Embassies in the interest of anti-Semitism and the Nazi fund-raising techniques.

Said article also referred to a letter of DEATHERAGE to the National Inventors Council suggesting uniforms for all workers, which letter was turned over to HILLMAN.

An article appearing in the Boston Herald, under date of February 24, 1942 indicated that DEATHERAGE, a National Commander of the "Knights of the White Camellia" was branded as undesirable; that he was recently employed by the DOYLE & RUSSELL COMPANY on a seven million dollar contract for the Navy Yard, Norfolk, Virginia. Said article continues that DEATHERAGE before the Dies Committee stated that "Knights of the White Camellia" purpose was to fight Communism and the "Jew problem". The article indicates that he is the organizer of the American National Confederation, which used a swastika as its emblem. The article also indicated that DEATHERAGE also admitted German Consular contact. It also indicates that JOHN K. BATES, General Superintendent for DOYLE & RUSSELL, indicated that DEATHERAGE'S loss to the company would be a blow to the National Defense problem.

An article taken from the New York Times, dated February 22, 1942, indicated that DEATHERAGE'S post at the Navy Yard was studied; that little has been heard of him since May, 1939, when before the Dies Committee, he stated his principle object was to spread anti-Semitism, and apparently quoted a letter written by DEATHERAGE in which it was stated that "it will take military action to get this gang out, and the organization must be built around propaganda now that can in a few hours be turned into a military force. The leaders of some of the organizations have worked out plans for quick conversion into a military organization securing arms when the expected military action would be taken." This article also stated that the American National Confederation was a United Fascist Movement really started by G. E. PELLEY, Reverend C. E. WINROD, CHARLES B. HUDSON, JAMES TRUE, E. M. SANCTUARY, ROBERT S. EDMONDSON, [illegible] G. PEYTONS, and the AMERICAN RANGERS, HENRY D. ALLENS (AMERICAN WHITE GUARD) and Constitutional Crusaders of America) according to Dies; that they did not succeed because no acceptable leader was found, but yet Major General GEORGE VAN HORN MOSELEY, U. S. Retired, was being given favorable consideration.

A memorandum dated April 27, 1940, source not being shown, indicated that the Fascist Deatherage sues Saturday Evening Post and STANLEY HIGH claiming statement on program libelous. The suit was to be heard at Charleston, South Carolina, and of seventeen counts originally instituted, sixteen were dropped, going forward only on the one on Jews. It is due to be heard in the Federal Court. The memorandum also indicated that DEATHERAGE was no longer at Albans, West Virginia, but was then employed (April 27, 1940) at the W. K. FERGUSON COMPANY, Cleveland, Ohio.

An article dated April 19, 1942 from "P.M." states that the Navy said in a letter that they cannot fire DEATHERAGE; that DEATHERAGE in a letter is presumed to have stated "we are in this damn thing right or wrong", and a letter dated December 11, 1941 was supposed to have been written by DEATHERAGE in which he suggested the uniformity of all workers; that the Navy indicated in this article its intention to call to the C.I.O. and A.F.O.L. DEATHERAGE'S affiliations and request his removal.

Another article dated September 8, 1938 indicates that DEATHERAGE was mentioned in the KEN magazine; at the time was employed by the WALTER COX CONSTRUCTION COMPANY at Ashland, Kentucky; that DEATHERAGE, according to this article, on August 18, 1938, sent a telegram to HARRY JUNG "no compromise with New York. Advise accordingly. Funds will be supplied when time is right." Signed "Gee Dee".

The article further indicates a telegram sent on May 5, 1938 to an unknown person in Pasadena, California: "Do not congregate in uniforms. Relay same to all parties each district or squadron." It was signed "Gee Dee."

Article dated September 3, 1938 indicated that DEATHERAGE was to address an anti-Communist organization in New England, at which time he was quoted as stating that the "KEN" article was "boloney". A memorandum dated August 12, 1938 indicated that DEATHERAGE as National Commander of the American Nationals, Post Office Box 467, St. Albans, West Virginia, ships radical pamphlets to Nazi leaders and organizers including J. R. HEALEY, Miami, Florida, and the Japanese Chamber of Commerce, 500 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

Another memorandum dated August 12, 1938 indicated that DEATHERAGE as National Commander of the American Fascist attended the Canadian Fascist Convention in Montreal.

Another memorandum dated August, 1941, indicated that Deatherage had a propaganda headquarters near Camp Dix, New Jersey, and attempted to influence persons at Fort Knox, at Camp Dix, and Fort Eastic, Virginia.

Another memorandum, undated, indicated that DEATHERAGE was born November 15, 1894 in Duluth, Minnesota. This memorandum described him as:

Height	6'-4"
Weight	205
Hair	Light brown
Eyes	blue

It is to be noted that Confidential Informant [redacted] has photographs of Subject. Files of informant also contain a list of persons found in a notebook belonging to DEATHERAGE, which in and of itself, does not indicate that the persons named as noted were under suspicion but merely indicated that DEATHERAGE had at one time contact with the individuals or organization. For the information of the offices receiving copies of this report, said list is being set forth in detail:

Reference is made to the report of Special Agent J. V. DOHERTY dated at Boston, Massachusetts June 22, 1942 in the above captioned case. Particular attention is invited to the general lead to all Field Divisions set forth on page 26 of that report calling for a check of the indices for any information contained therein as to persons listed in this report as being on the mailing list of DEATHERAGE.

It is noted that the only person so listed for the Seattle Field Division is FRED WIDMER, 1121 South 2nd Street, Mt Vernon, Washington whose name is set forth on page 23 of reference report.

Your attention is invited to the report of Special Agent RAY MIZE dated at Seattle, Washington on December 3, 1941, entitled, "GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE, Et Al, ESPIONAGE, REGISTRATION ACT - INTERNAL SECURITY - G", which sets forth information concerning FRED WIDMER who is the subject of a custodial detention file in the Seattle Office.

In view of the fact that Norfolk is indicated on the report of Special Agent DOHERTY, mentioned above, as office of origin, two copies of the report of Special Agent RAY MIZE, referred to above, are being transmitted to the Norfolk Office, since it appears that Norfolk is not in receipt of any copies of Agent Mize's report.

This matter is considered referred upon completion to the office of origin.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Gentlemen:

WHY has George Deatherage been "put off the site" at Norfolk and allowed to come back to the scene of his former operations? Please answer that question. Mr. D..... was employed at the Carbide & Carbons Corporation at South Charleston, and the understanding is that he was put off the job on account of his activities at that time. He is familiar with the workings at the above plant - and it would not seem safe or wise to allow him to come back to the same locality - free -- especially since he was put off the site at Norfolk.

There is a name which I would like to give you for your information. This party ~~WAS now~~ located at Barberton, Ohio, near Akron, Ohio... There is nothing, so far as we know, except some "suspicion" in connection with this man --- that he is a full-blooded German ---- At any rate, it might bear investigation. -----Hermansfeldt.....is the name.....

Keep up the good work. You are appreciated, and greatly admired for the intelligence you show in running down the culprits. Keep it up.

An American

P.S. Deatherage is familiar with the workings of the Kanawha Valley plants -- DuPont, Carbon & Carbide, and others..... as the saboteurs called this valley "The valley of the Ruhr" -- it might be well to investigate this part of the world -- and see if it is safe here.

Mr. James Edward Drew, 22 East 40th Street, New York City, recently transmitted to the Bureau the April 16 and April 23, 1938 issues of "The American Nationalist Confederation News Bulletin." You will recall that this bulletin was distributed weekly by the American Nationalist Confederation, St. Albans, West Virginia, Post Office Box 467. This organization is one of those operated by George E. Deatherage who also acted as the National Commander of the Knights of the White Camellia.

Deatherage is a well-known American Fascist, highly anti-Semitic, anti-Communist, anti-Administration, and inferentially pro-Nazi. He is known to have attempted collaboration with other well-known American Fascists such as William Dudley Pelley, National Commander of the Silver Shirt Legion of America, Incorporated; Robert Edward Edmondson, a well-known anti-Semite living at Stonersville, Pennsylvania; James True of James True Associates, and others.

In the two issues of the News Bulletin mentioned hereinbefore, there are set forth lists of organizations which Deatherage urges his readers to support. From a perusal of these lists it is noted that numerous publications, organizations, and individuals appear with Canadian addresses. These are as follows:

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
U. S. Department of Justice
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

In going through the books and papers I brought from San Francisco when I moved to New York I ran across the enclosed bulletins. Although they are old I am sending them on to you believing that you would be interested in checking the names of the post office box holders and the other addresses which are listed on page ten of the April 23 issue and page twelve of the April 16 issue.

These were received by a stooge name at the time I was directing a California fight on communists and bundists.

Very best regards.

Sincerely yours

Ed Drew

THE NEWS BULLETIN

Vol. 1. No. 13 April 16, 1938 Ten Cents

An independent periodical, printing "The News Behind the News," upholding the principles of Americanism and the republican form of government—as opposed to the subversive forces of internationalism (already dominating press and communications) now attempting to control the federal government.

A FASCIST UNION FOR THE AMERICAS

It is gratifying to note that immediate steps are being taken to form a Union of Fascists within the continent of North and South Americas. It is a step long needed and we, the American Nationalist Confederation pledge it our whole-hearted support.

Fascism has been long delayed in the United States, and we can learn much from our brothers in neighboring nations. Especially from Canada and Mexico can we gain much encouragement and strength. The Canadian Nationalist movement is growing rapidly and they have recently concluded a working agreement among the six nationalist organizations of Canada, including the National Christian Party of Quebec.

The Mexican Goldshirts are becoming increasingly active under their new leader, and signs point to their taking over the government there in a short time.

News dispatches report F.D.R. as stating that he would not remain idle if Fascism appeared in Mexico - but we do not think he will be able to do much about it.

All organizations affiliated with us are urged to become members of the North and South American Fascist Union, as soon as the final details have been approved and you are notified. It is only through co-operation that we will succeed in saving both continents from the Jewish domination. True, the Latin American countries have things pretty well in hand, but that is all the more reason why every organization in the United States should stand behind them.

Arrangements are being made for an interchange of literature and speakers. This is your opportunity to further the ultimate solution of our problems - the Fascist State - legally - under the Constitution.

Do your part when notified.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY

The Secretary of Treasury,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

Your very kind letter of March 4th, addressed to me in an appeal to purchase the United States savings bonds has reached me.

I note with very much interest that you have sold these bonds to 1,250,000 people in the United States, and that the maturity value of the 5,000,000 bonds thus sold amounts to one billion, three hundred sixty seven million, nine hundred thirty five million, one hundred and fifty dollars ($1,367,935,150.00).

I also note that the majority of sales are to people of small income and that the amount that any one person may secure is limited.

What I would like to know is - where is the money?

How are you going to pay it back?

If my knowledge of government finance is correct, you have spent the money for Marxist experiment and will have to tax these same people in order to pay themselves back when maturity arrives.

At the same time, the thought strikes me that these 1,250,000 people are going to do some house-cleaning when they find out how they have been robbed of their savings.

Will it not be Morganthoau to the morgue - when that day arrives?

Yours very truly,

H. O. Sucker.

JEWISH SOVIET INSPECTOR ARRESTED IN PARAGUAY

Jose Edelstein, whose nationality you can guess, was recently arrested in the capital of Paraguay. The arrival of suspiciously large remittances of money and extensive propaganda material led to the discovery of the headquarters he established.

WE ARE ACCUSED OF BEIN IN PAY OF THE GERMAN NATIONAL SOCIALISTS

One Harrison George (the name sounds strictly kosher), in The People's World, in a recent review of this Bulletin, states that the National Socialists (of Germany) undoubtedly finance us. Well, well... If they do, they are mighty poor pay. Will Mr. Hitler please send us a check?

PLATFORM OF THE
A FASCIST PARTY

5. RACIAL POLICY.

A. The Party accepts the fact as such, that the "Melting Pot" idea has never worked, except in the minds of impracticable individuals, and that tolerance has been practiced by our people to the point that it has undermined the very existence of our nation.

Self preservation insists that we accept the distinction and classification of races as a principle of national and world order and as a basis for world peace. We therefore aim at racial purity, White Supremacy, and a Christian guardianship over racial groups that cannot be assimilated.

B. With respect to the Negroes, the Party adopts and aims at a policy pointing towards the uplifting, development, segregation, and government in accordance with their own racial character and traditions. With a view of protecting and safeguarding the Negroes, it will sternly suppress communistic, revolutionary, and other propaganda designed to disturb peaceful race relations.

C. With respect to the Indians, the Party promises them immediate relief from their present communistic dictators, with full citizenship and privileges, in full realization that they are a race that can be assimilated within our people.

D. With respect to the Jews, the standpoint of the Party is as follows:

a) The Jews, a race of Oriental and Semitic origin, form a separate, detached, non-Christian and anti-Christian group with a national identity of its own, which maintains its distinctive racial qualities, religious traditions, codes of morals, and is internationally consolidated and organized.

c) Jewish interests in America are purely financial interests, pertaining either to groups or individuals which are in no sense American national-economic interests; they therefore create conditions which disturb the equilibrium of the life of our people in practically every domain - economic, moral, social, national, and political.

d) The Jews, by virtue of their world-wide dispersion and the capitalistic power which they wield over the workers, and which is of an international nature, constitute the only real international people, and as such are the chief propagandists of capitalism, imperialism, and an impossible internationalism, under the guise of the Bolshevik Capitalistic State.

e) The Jews, regarded from a national viewpoint, are not a producing, self-supporting group, but one which lives and flourishes on the labor, production, means of livelihood and rights of existence of workingmen and women of all nations; thus they are a dangerous and injurious element.

Therefore, the Party undertakes and pledges itself to a policy of:

a) Stringent legislation designed to control absolutely the influx of Jews from other nations and all future immigration.

b) Complete destruction of the existing Jewish dominace of our national, state, and local governments, and the limitation of Jewish influence in every sphere, especially in the legal and the academic professions, medical services, governmental position, trade unions, and in agriculture (as middle men).

c) Legislation designed to settle the Jewish problem considering Jews as definitely aliens who shall be tolerated only so far as they respect the rules of Christian morality, obey the laws of the land, and adapt themselves to the requirements of American National existence.

d) Deportation of all Jews who render or who have rendered themselves guilty of miscegenation.

6. SOCIAL WELFARE AND ORDER

The Party acknowledges the Family as the foundation and first principle of our social order and national welfare. It therefore:

a) Will seek to achieve a clean and sound family life and shall strenuously oppose those communistic influences tending to the breaking up of same.

b) Aims at legislation for the furthering of the national public health and federal hospitalization. The Party is definitely opposed to the principles of birth control as advocated by the forces of internationalism.

d) Supports the furtherance of Child Welfare and supports the principle of lowered taxes on large families.

e) Re-affirms its belief in the principle that human rights take precedence over property rights.

8800 AMERICANS DIE FOR RED SPAIN

Franco's legions have decimated the International Brigade. It is a sad tale that these thousand of disillusioned young men should have die for a foolish and insane Jewish cause.

Their deaths lie directly at the doorstep of Franklin Roosevelt and his stooges in Washington, who not only were aware of recruiting in America for the Red Spain, but gave indirect material assistance in furthering it.

Their deaths lie at the doorsteps of the so-called "liberal" ministers of the Gospel, professors, school teachers, journalists and others, who - by their organized, Jewish-financed hue and cry - encouraged and assisted them to die.

MILLIONS IDLE - FOUR BILLION FOR RELIEF - AND WE IMPORT OUR FOOD

In the year 1920, the United States imported only ninety cents worth of food for every dollar we exported. In 1936, under Mr. Roosevelt, we imported $1.84, and for the first six months of 1937,- the sum of $2.65 was sent out of the country to pay for food - for every dollar we got in return.

Yet, millions are idle, the farms are foreclosed, and "Light Head" Harry Wallace curtails farm production. Will American labor and farmers ever awaken? (We strongly suggest that these two classes of our people read A Dictator on Parade, by J. E. Waters, 10¢. It tells the story in a nutshell!)

THE WORLD PRESS AND INTERNATIONAL WAR MONGERING

Two factors - news and advertisement - are definitely in control of the contemporary press. Both have opened the way for the insidious introduction of those forces which today have brought about a spiritual and moral crisis in the world press. And all this has been done under the hypocritical mask of "freedom of the press" (for the Jews, to the exclusion of Gentiles).

About the middle of last century the removal of the tax on advertisements and the withdrawal of the State-controlled advertising organs opened the way for ~~advertisement~~ in the political newspapers. The price of newspapers was reduced in nearly every case to below cost. Circulation was thus increased and matters were made more attractive for advertisers. Hence the purchaser of a newspaper hardly pays for the paper on which the news is printed. This development opened the door for the influence of the press by money and corruption and, at the same time, providing the international Jew with a new and dangerous field of activity.

A second door which opened the way for the introduction of destructive forces in the press is the modern system of reporting news. In the same way that public opinion was influenced by the commercial interests of advertisers so also the misuse of news service was instrumental in introducing press lies among the people of the world.

Contemporary news and information services were founded by Jews as the direct result of intrigue on financial exchanges. By reason of their better inside knowledge, they knew how to turn this to their advantage.

A classical example of this is the London Jew Nathan Rothschild. He is the father of the contemporary press lie. This Jew improved upon various intrigues which his father, Meyer Amschel Rothschild, a Frankfurt Jew, had applied before him. The latter was an adept at bribery and by bribing post office officials was able to come into possession of correspondence addressed to his competitors. His position became all the more assured through this felonious work. His son Nathan established a news service by means of carrier pidgeons and by payments to captains in the mercantile marine and to travellers for information of every description. The knowledge thus gained and accumulated was used at his discretion - either kept strictly confidential or magnified or distorted according to the way it suited his manipulations at the financial exchange.

The Rothschild "Waterloo Coup" is a well-known intrigue. After a quick channel crossing, he was the only person who knew the outcome of the battle of Waterloo. Whilst the market was in a state of general unrest and uncertainty, Rothschild spread the news of the disastrous defeat of the English and Prussians. The result was a heavy collapse in all market values. He instructed his brokers to buy up every available share and when the real news of victory became known in London, he had earned many millions.

All the great news service agencies that during the last century have controlled news in peace and war time, have been founded by Jews. In nearly every case they started by issuing financial market reports. The first news agency of any importance was the Agence Havas, founded by the Jew Charles Louis Havas in 1835, whose father had emigrated from Portugal to France. In 1832 this Jew bought and developed the Lithographische Korrespondenz (Lithograph Correspondence) which had been established by the German Jew Bernstein. In 1848 two of Havas' best colleagues left his services - Bernhard Wolff and Josaphat Beer, the son of a rabbi. Wolff opened up a Telegraphic Exchange Bureau in Berlin. Beer went to England, changed his name to Reuter and under this name built up the vast British Empire news service.

Therefore, these three news service agencies, founded by Jews, have not only for decades past furnished the whole of European press news and information, but they control practically the whole of the world's press information.

The allocation of press news interests in pre-war days left Germany severely handicapped. The German Wolff Bureau supplied news to only a few of the Nordic States whereas Havas and Reuter expanded throughou the whole world.

The terrible effects of this were felt at the outbreak of the war of 1914. The British and French Jew-controlled news services swamped the whole world with fairy tales about atrocities (in the same way as Jew-dominated American press poured mud on Imperial Russia and its people, praising at the same time the slavery of the Kosher Soviet Union) whereas Germany, with its reputation for truthfulness, was only able to gain a hearing in a few neighbouring neutral countries. Without the aid of these powerful Havas and Reuter agencies the atrocity tales (same as lies lavishly spread about "bloody tyrant - Nicholas II" by Jew-monopolized American press) which finally brought Germany to her knees - would never have found an echo in the world.

It was only after National Socialism acquired power that the German News Service was founded as the successor to the Wolff Telegraphic Bureau and the Telegraphic Union. The German News Service is now entirely world-wide and free from all Jewish influence.

B O O K R E V I E W

There Is No Halfway Neutrality! By Ralph Townsend.- Many well-meaning persons are now unconsciously aiding a vicious alien movement to make trouble between America and Japan. They do this because the majority of our newspapers, now as in the past, sensationalize to the utmost every true or imagined item which may be so written as to stir hate - meanwhile concealing all news and interpretations of news which might provide a basis of more moderate judgments.

No honest cause requires misrepresentation, and because of its persistent misrepresentation the campaign to make trouble with Japan deserves the contempt and opposition of all decent people in this country. Americans who have bad observation of things in the Far East and looked upon them with honest eyes, without alien allegiances of any sort, concerned only with avoiding needless trouble which would injure this country - have watched the campaign for hate and war- mindedness here with the deepest disgust.

As one of these Americans, having witnessed former upheavals in Asia and having been there through the beginning of present strife, Mr. Townsend offers his reflections in the above booklet for the possible interest of persons who have not chanced to have similar first-hand observation. Ten cents.

THE MARINES ARE NOT UNDER THE COLLAR

Roosevelt's action in appointing his son as a Lt. Colonel in the Marines has that branch of the service holding their noses. The brave lad in the bright uniform, parading the streets of Washington, does not even have the benefit of R.O.T.C. training. But he cuts a brave figure before the ladies. Bless his heart.

It usually takes a real man twenty-five years to come up through the service to the job of Lt. Colonel - but Papa's boy made it overnight. Personally we think it is just too sweet.

CRIME IN POLAND - EVERY THIRD CRIMINAL IS A JEW

From the Small Statistical Yearbook we learn that the Jews who comprise ten per cent of Poland's population, total 34.5 per cent. of those convicted for treason and sedition.

GREAT BRITAIN'S PROBLEM

With the activities of the British parliament so much in the news these days, our readers will be interested in a few of the leading Jews and Jew sympathizers in the British government. The following list and comment supplied by the Imperial Fascist League of London:

Prime Minister - Mr. Neville Chamberlain. His father owed his career to Jewish support, and offered the Jews a valuable free tract of land in East Africa for their National Home, at a time when the British settler got no free land and had actually to pay a deposit before he could enter the country.

Mr. Joseph Chamberlain's aunt was Jewish (Andrade), and it is believed that there was Jewish blood from the mother's side (Harben). Sir Austen Chamberlain was considered by the Jews to be a veritable champion of Jewry.

Mr. Neville Chamberlain's son has an appointment in Imperial Chemical Industries, the great Jew-controlled monopoly. The Chamberlains, like the Chruchills, seem to have dedicated themselves to the service of Jewry.

In this moment of lucidity, born on the deathbed of six million little pigs, he covered the situation completely. Until we can change the hearts of men! Nineteen hundred and thirty six years ago, a man was born who attempted to do this very thing, and ever since his adherents have crucified - and been crucified. The problem is still with us so it seems. Millions have died by every conceivable type of oppression, torture, intimidation in the attempt to force them to follow the teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ and you can be your own judge as to whether or not it has succeeded. In the face of all this, why attempt to change the hearts of men by any possible type of legislation. The Congress of the United States attempted to change the hearts of men in regard to the simple matter of drinking liquor. Just how far did this succeed - is a matter that all of us are familiar with.

Although we may spend a lifetime studying human behaviourism, emotion and urge, splitting of multiple personalities, hysteria, exaltation, hypnosis, neurasthenia, repression and the complex, psychoanalysis, or any other factor of "Why folks get that way" - the fact remains that sunflower seeds still produce sunflowers and not roses.

In its narrower sense, behaviourism signifies the study of behaviour - plant, animal or human - by the observation, comparison and measurement of physical facts. The method of Mendel - in his studies of the workings of heredity, was to hybridize varieties and species of plants and observe the consequences. The behaviourism of people throughout the world may be similarly studied, - by the observation, comparison and measurement of the facts. A very simple rule is that empty bellies breed contempt for the established order. Few successful revolutions are successfull on full stomachs.

It is an established scientific fact, which it would seem unnecessary to call attention to, that the fertilized egg cell of plant or animal, includes within them, the chromosomes or genes that carry the elements of behaviourism. An apt illustration of this is explained in The Science of Life, by H. G. Wells and Julian S. Huxley, in a chapter headed "The A.B.C. of Genetics. Suppose we cross a mouse of the Japanese "waltzing type" with one which is normal and comes from a perfectly normal stock. The former has an inherited malformation of the inner ear which upsets its sense of direction, and sets it spinning round, sometimes for hours on end, like a puppy trying to catch its tail. The first hybrid generation of such a cross will not show a trace of this waltzing habit. It will consist of perfectly normal mice progressing with irreproachable directness, their inner ears admirably formed. Nevertheless, they are genetically mixed, just as are the pink four-o-clocks. Every cell in their body contains one "waltzing" and one "normal" gene. But the latter overcomes the former. In the next generation, obtained by breeding the first together, it becomes manifest that we have been dealing with mixed, hybrid animals, for we get three kinds of mice. These are true breeding "waltzers" and true breed in "normals," etc.

And so with the species homo sapiens - man. The same fundamental rules of heredity that explain the actions of the mouse that chases its tail, and those that do not find this a pastime, is true in the case of the one thousand seven hundred millions of people that populate the earth. It explains why folks are "pretty much as they are." Though we may have our private opinions as to the effectiveness of natural selection, the survival of the fittest, or any other school of thought, the fact remains that the mixed breeding of the world's populace result in definite inner radial trends - and in the way they behave. How then may anyone logically assume that any system of government can be set up in such a way, that it will remain unchanged forever. That what we term Socialism, Communism, Fascism, Nazism, or any other of the so-called liberal and nationalistic communities will satisfy the people of a hundred years from today. Let us take the Jewish people as an example - a people whose religion is such that they are definitely opposed to intermarriage with other than Jews. Does this not explain to a great extent, at least, why Jews are somewhat different in their mode of behaviour. Although there is no such thing as a pure strain in any people, those that intermarry within their own stock are more nearly alike.

The immutable law of nature is that only the strong shall live. The weakling drops by the wayside and is dominated by those that by strength alone, or by buile, smother the weaker. If you plough and harrow the ground, planting in it the seed of a domestic plant, the battle begins between the weeds and the potential crop. Which one wins will depend on whether you, as the stronger and more intelligent organism - destroy the weeds.

So it is with peoples. Behind the extreme patriotism of the National Socialists (of Germany) or Fascism, whether they admit it or not, is the return of human thought to the very principles of the laws of nature. We shall be strong within ourselves and in that manner we shall be free from attack, or we shall destroy that which opposes us. In any case we have determined that we as a distinct racial type shall band ourselves together that we may live and secure the maximum of the good things of life for ourselves.

In Communistic (kosherized) Russia, the leaders demand that a certain class shall dominate politics and economics, in order that they shall have the best and most for themselves. That in order to do this we must have a ruthless dictatorship, and that we must destroy thirty or forty millions of our people - is a matter of little moment. Stalin (alias Jugashvilli) publicly stated that the deaths of twenty millions would not deter them from their course. And so today, the world is ablaze over the matter of who shall rule. The nations of Europe are feverishly arming for the struggle that is bound to come within our lifetime. And all of this in the name of peace. In the name of an ideal that has never in all the ~~history of~~ the world - ever been practically accomplished. (To be continued).

NOW HUNGARY GOES ANTI-JEWISH IN ORDER TO SAVE NATION FROM COMMUNISM

Hungary has yet a vivid reollection of the rape of that country by Bela Kuhn (Cohen), the Jew murderer of 700,000 people. United Press dispatches, of April 8, reveal the fact that a bill, empowering the government to restrict Jewish influence in Hungary's economic and scientific life to twenty per cent. of the citizenship, is now before the parliament

The bill provides numerous clauses, according to the United Press dispatch, wherein Jewish lawyers, engineers and physicians shall be on the basis of eighty per cent. for the White Race and twenty per cent. for Jews.

Hungary sees the handwriting on the wall. With the success of Hitler in Austria - it means that Hungary must either clean the house or the National Socialists of Germany will do it for that country.

You have a guess as to how long it will be before America will be faced with the actual proble m brought about by Jewish domination, especially in the Federal Government.

America, France and Great Britain (the three great democracies, (otherwise "jewocracies") are the only ones that still continue the ostrich policy - that the Jewish problem does not exist. When it break in this country, as it will, the storm will be intensified many times, due to nothing else than the policy of being afraid to discuss it.

Radio commentators on the nation-wide Sunday night news broadcast, two weeks ago, stated that anti-Jewdaism would be a factor in the next election.

Geo. Sokolsky, himself a Jew (going under a good Polish name), in a recent article, in the New York Herald-Tribune, decried the fact the communist parades "looked Jewish" - "that some day these parades are going to be smashed up and then we are going to have our first pogrom" (and justly so. Then, and only then America will understand why the Russian peasantry resorted to the pogroms). He spoke the truth.

At this writing, the French Chamber of Deputies riot, one half shouting "Back to Hitler" and the balance shouting "Back to the Ghetto, France is at the cross roads. Either France rids itself of Jewish domination or we witness another Spain. The French peasant will not be willing to lose his possessions at the instigation of the Marxists Jew premier Blum.

A great part of the civilized world at the moment has recognized the Jew problem - Germany, Italy, Japan, Poland, Roumania, Spain, Portugal, Brazil, and many other Latin American countries. Only the three great democracies (jewocracies, in fact) - Great Britain, France and the United States - remain under Jew control. They will remain that way only just as long as the populace can be bought off with relief doles - from their own pockets. When the pocket is empty - then their allegiance will turn against their present benefactors.

Mr. Rosenfeldt and his Jews know this full well. Hence, news today of a four billion dollar relief expenditure to ease the Rosenfeldt depression.

The solution then is the only solution possible - that of a fascist state under the constitution.

The wealthy and business interests of the United States have forfeited their right to further consideration. They have consistently refused to lend their aid to those that would and could fight the Jew Marxist onslaught. Therefore, they shall have to pay for their cowardice in future years. That is our prediction.

It Is Happening Here,- Read the facts about communism in this booklet; know what is going on and how communism has its hold in the United States right now - today. This booklet is excellent, except that it employs erroneous terminology (insulting to the true Russians), such as "Russian Communism," "Russian Revolution," "Russian Government, etc., because Communism is Jewish, the present government of Russia is Jewish, and all wars and revolutions were and are Jew-conceived. Nowwhere in the world has Communism had so many powerful organizations furthering its cause as in America. And so - this booklet is for you.

THE MEANING OF THE EMBLEM - THE SWASTIKA

This issue carries at the mast head our newly selected emblem - the swastika.

According to A. E. du Bois, chief American military expert on such matters as emblems for the U.S.Army - the swastika is one of more than 700 types of the Christian Cross that he has been able to identify. It is now used in the U.S.Army as the emblem of the Forty-Fifth Division of the National Guard. They took the idea from the Indians and from the coat of arms of Francisco Vasquez Coronado, Spanish explorer.

Both Finland and Latvia use it as a marking for their aircraft, and, of course, it is best known for its use by the German Government, the Canadian Nationalist Party, the British Union of Fascists, the South African Greyshirts and, in addition, practically by all the anti-communist groups throughout the world. (The swastika, being a real Christian Cross, served as an emblem of the Russian Imperial Family massacred by the Jews).

Jewish propaganda in America, where they control the press, has done its best to cast odium on the emblem. The fact that it is one form of the Christian Cross, which their synagogue teaches them to hate and destroy, is self evidence of the source of the lying campaign.

The fact that it is the very opposite from the five-pointed star of Israel, which is the emblem of Jew-dominated Soviet Union, and the national emblem of Jewry,- is another very pertinent reason.

But the swastika has come to the United States to stay. You will see and hear more of it before America rids itself of the gang of traitors in control in Washington.

RACIAL FASCISM

FASCISM is defined as a patriotic revolt (such as of the White Russians) against Jewocracy (alias democracy), and a return to statesmanship. Fascist (or patriotic) rule insists upon the duty of cooperation.

Fascism itself is less a policy than a state of mind. It is the national observance of duty towards others. The Great War, together with the progress of science and the growth of education, has founded a new ideal. The Fascist community is one that has begun to think historically; to recognize its responsibilities as a link between the past and the future of the race.

A fascist (alias patriot) regards his inheritance as something held in trust for the next generation. He does service to the State as the guardian and transmitter of the spirit of the people. Through it he is able to co-operate with his descendants as well as with the workers of the past in the building up of civilization. He joins with his contemporaries in a compact of loyalty and self-sacrifice. Fascism keeps alive the spirit of the trenches and makes it a traditional inheritance. There is greater satisfaction in service thus voluntarily undertaken than in the false liberty belonging to jewocratic (alias democratic) government. That is why Fascism succeeds.

The response of the governing power so consolidated is three-fold. Fascist rule embodies a more adequate system of representation, a higher standard of administrative efficiency, and stronger measures of protection: whereunder the citizen may cultivate at will his personality and his private interests. The production of wealth is thus left in the hands of the individual who is responsible to, and also safeguarded by the State.

The aim of all politics is to maintain security for the racial and national culture and for its gradual evolution in accordance with native tradition; humanity has no other guide than this. The organization of the Fascist Corporative State removes all matters of price and wage to their proper sphere under the protection of the State, and keeps them rigidly out of high politics.

A serving political aristocracy, in the truest sense of the word is a necessity for the permanently successful working of any government; and there is no short road to its development. It is the object of the American Nationalist Confederation to form its nucleus by trial and proof of character and of good faith. The United States cannot be dominated by one man; a team, acting as one man, must be got together every member of it with complete trust in the good faith of the others, so that the Fascist tradition may become that characteristically American and Nordic one of good faith. (To be continued in next issue).

M A D A G A S C A R

Madagascar, which by many humanitarians of the world fame is considered as an ideal place for settlement of all the "chosen people" from every de-kosherized land,- is a French colony, an island off the Southeast coast of Africa. Area, 241,094 sq. miles. Population (1932) 3,638,607, including the Comoro archipelago. Capital, Tananarive. Cattle breeding and agriculture (two occupations most suitable for the creative genius of the Jews) are the main occupations. Chief crops: coffee, maize, rice, potatoes, and sugar. Mineral production: mica, graphite, phosphates, and precious stones (what an opportunity for the kosher jewellers!). The forests contain many valuable timbers (and the Jews, of course, are crazy for such a healthy work as timber-ctuing in the open fresh air). Madagascar is administered by a governor-general. The island has an ideal climate, not found elsewhere in the world. Making Madagascar a "Promised Land" will forever settle the the Jewish Question, the revolutions, depressions, etc. evils of the modern world.

PLATFORM OF THE AMERICAN NATIONALIST CONFEDERATION A FASCIST PARTY

7. ECONOMIC POLICY

The Party recognizes that the economic policy of the nation is controlled by a clique of international bankers of whom the Jews are in a majority. That the elimination of this control in our national economic affairs will release the people from economic bondage, eliminating unemployment, poverty, and distress.

The Party therefore definitely pledges itself to immediate and drastic economic reforms through the advocation of:

a) The right of each citizen to an equitable share in the nation's wealth, with equal opportunities for all.

b) The maintenance and protection of private property, the encouragement of personal initiative, the support of private undertakings against monopoly and monopolistic combines - including the suppression of communism, or Jewish State Capitalism.

c) The confiscation of the illegal hoardings of the international bankers for the payment of the national debt.

d) Establishment of National and State (as opposed to international) banks which will render the people free and independent of international finance and bondage to money lenders and money lending institutions.

e) The establishment of honorable and reliable business methods, and the combatting of speculation, usury and exploitation.

f) The establishment of interest-free loans, making it possible for any citizen to acquire a small home or a farm with a provision that it will not be taken away from him in case of default because of circumstances over which he has no control.

g) A new basis for our monetary system which shall have as its basic foundation a fluctuating value based on human needs in the form of goods.

8. AGRICULTURAL POLICY

The Party stands for an agricultural policy based on the development and protection of farms, the farmer, and agricultural communities, of which the following points are indicative:

a) The systematic reduction of mortgage burdens - to promote the independence and consolidation of the farming industry and to induce a return to the land.

b) The furtherance of farm-to-consumer methods of the disposal of farm products, eliminating the abuses (the middle man) at present existing in distribution.

c) Promotion of practical and sensible crop insurance legislation.

d) Proper and adequate prices for products of the farm - in line with the people's needs, but insuring the farmer an equal benefit.

e) Solution of the tenant problem by the issuance of interest-free loans.

f) Legislation to prevent the alienation of farm lands and the subdivision of farm properties.

9. T H E W O R K E R

The Party acknowledges that in this day and age social and economic policy cannot be separated, but are parts of the whole national structure on which the welfare of our people depends. On the basis of such an integral structure, the following shall be enacted:

a) Protection of all workers against the power and abuses of capitalism in any form, and especially that of Jewish State Capitalism.

b) The establishment and promotion of public group corporations, each consisting of all persons who make their living from a given industry and trade, and each endowed with authority to control, subject to supervision of the government, all matters affecting conditions of work in that industry or trade.

c) Opportunity for every citizen to work at a wage that will insure a decent American existence, with the requirement that each shall exercise his capacities of work to the best of his or her ability and strength, in order to properly maintain his family and serve the nation of which he is a part.

d) Old age pensions, so administered as to guarantee each deserving citizen definite security at the age of 60. This - not as charity but as a right of citizenship. (To be continued).

WAR IN THE PACIFIC THIS YEAR

In a recent issue we predicted that the United States would be at war in the Pacific during the year 1938. The plans are being made now to see that America is helpless to defend itself on the West Coast, by depriving it of commercial shipping.

Due to communist sabotage under the leadership of alien, Harry Bridges, whom "Ma" Perkins refuses to deport, the West Coast has definitely lost the United Fruit and Grace lines as they have been diverted to the East Coast - to run competition with the ships of Fascist (national) powers.

The Dollar Line has been cut from seventeen to eight ships and has been given six months by the Maritime Commission to fall in line.

The Panama Pacific Line is returning its ships to the Federal Government, although the San Francisco Council of American Legion has offered to purchase these ships at approximately ten million dollars.

The McCormack Lines have been given six months to re-vamp its corporate set up.

Within six months from now, the West Coast will be stripped of its ships.

Remaining are but two ships of the Matson Line, plying between the Hawaiian Islands and the mainland, and two - between the Islands and Australia.

All of this has been done on the orders of Roosevelt.

Now - why the mystery fleet in the Philippines?

Marxian doctrine states that it can be done and that it is practical. Jesus Christ believed that the mere abundant life could be secured and maintained by following Him. In neither case has there been one successful example. Yes, truly,- we must change the hearts of men. Changing the hearts of men can only be accomplished in accordance with nature's law. We might, in thousands of millions of years, by careful breeding of peoples, breed out those inherited tendencies of the struggle for existence through the survival of the fittest. In no other way can this be accomplished. We can better what we have, by education and training, but we cannot materially change the fundamentals. Every mode of government of peoples has been tried, and none succeeded completely. Plato, in his Republic, takes them all apart and, in the final analysis, arrives at the conclusion that the only perfect government is that governed by philosophers.

The burning issue of the moment, world wide in effect, seems to be that of socialism or communism. That in our economic world we should have production for use and not for profit. Thousands of books have been written on the subject - and in Russia we have an example of how it works. Although the strictest type of censorship prevails, it is quite evident that man-made misery and famine is a thing of daily occurence. Although propaganda favorable to socialistic and communistic government refers to it as a democracy, it takes a vivid imagination to include a penalty of death by shooting for disagreeing with the fundamentals of government - as a democracy. It takes mere vivid imagination to call one a democracy where a workingman is not free to work or not, as he wills.

Since socialism or communism is the question before the rest of the world today, and as it is the issue that we must settle in the very near future, it might be well to review the source and progress of this idealism. Who was responsible for the movement, what are its principles, how widely have they accepted - and what of the future. If we are to subject the question to a complete analysis we must first identify the subject. Naturally, in a volume of this kind, only a brief history can be given. Yet we can expose the fundamentals to a searching examination and consider whether or not we want to be controlled by that type of government.

According to the statements of G. E. Sullivan, before the subcommittee of House appropriations in the year 1937, extracts from which were published by the U.S.Government Printing Office, modern communism is apparently the same hypocritical and deadly world conspiracy to destroy civilization that was founded by the secret order of the Illuminati in Bavaria, on May 1, 1776. The recognition of May 1, 1776, as the founding date of this world revolution conspiracy is not difficult to understand, when it is realized that May Day is frequently celebrated even in recent times, by rioting and bloodshed on a world wide scale. It was on that date that an organization was conceived by a German Jew, Adam Weishaupt, that constructed the actual machinery of revolution. Not even the communists know the full significance of the date that in later years was to be the symbol of flying the red flag over some of our American schools and colleges. The symbol of the Illuminati was used by Carl Marx (real name Mordechai) in the center of the latter's chart of abolitions. The American Order of the Illuminati exists today as is proven by the illustration of one of their circulars appearing on the opposite page.

According to the Encyclopaedia Britannica, the Illuminati, better known as Rosicrucians, who claimed to originate in 1422, but rose into notice in 1537, a secret society, combining with the mysteries of alchemy the possession of esoteric principles of religion, preceeded the formation of the Illuminati of Adam Weishaupt, professor of canon law at Ingolstadt, an ex-Jesuit. It was this organization that established relations with Masonic lodges in 1780. Its members included "Novices," "Minervals," and "Lesser Illuminati," the second consisting of Free Masons, Ordinary, Scottish and Scottish Knights, etc. (To be continued).

COTTON MARKET BLOWS UP

In a recent broadcast, Boake Carter revealed that Japan, who in the past has been our best customer of cotton, now is in fifth place. Wherein it used to take half of our cotton crop, Japan now takes only eight per cent. So the sap American, falling for Jew propaganda in their boycott of Japan, have lost our best export market (while epidemic of farm foreclosure is ravaging the nation). Surely a brainly lot of lads we have here in America.

POLITICS IN WEST VIRGINIA

An election was recently held in the town of South Charleston. The New Dealers won by an immense majority. They spent $12,000 for the outright purchase of votes - while the poor Republicans scrapped up but $2600.00 - and they were out of money by ten o'clock in the morning.

Just how much was contributed by industrial plants in the area to the New Deal cause - is not known - but it is known that an increasing number of Pat Beacom's friends are displacing veteran employees in the chemical industry.

A considerable amount of the $12,000 was taken by force from the State and County employees, who already are forced to contribute two per cent. of their salary to the Jew machine.

Prices as low as $1.50 were paid for votes. Three cheers for the great American system (of Jewocracy)!

THE WORLD PRESS AND INTERNATIONAL WAR MONGERING

Now that Germany has its own news service and cleansed its press from all disintegrating influences one might say that there is no reason for Germans to take an interest in the press organs of other countries. But such a press has to receive Germany's attention inasmuch as it is being used for arousing mutual conflicts between other countries and inciting them to war. Whenever nations are desirous of reaching an understanding they cannot tolerate that the press continues to poison international relationships. M. W. d'Ormesson, the French publicist, acknowledges in his book, Confidence in Germany, in 1928:

"Nine-tenths of all the difficulties under which we are suffering can be traced to malicious news reports."

M. H. Chéron, the French Keeper of the Seal, gave his opinion on the press, on November 13, 1934. He stated: "Calumny reigns supreme in the country. Daily exaggerations weaken public opinion and overthrow it. In certain spheres, money plays an unholy role. Certain financial and economic groups are able to destroy mankind at will."

In no other country in the world have political and commercial interests been amalgamated to such an extent as in France. A classical example of this is the outstanding monopoly interests held by the Agence Havas. This concern not only supplies the newspapers with news and information but at the same time controls their advertisements and their distribution.

The Jew Leon Renier is at the head of this French News Service. He is the General Manager of the Agence Havas and also of the Advertising Agency, the Agence National de Publicité. The Chairman of this all-controlling monopolist press organization is the Jew Horace Finaly, Financial Director of the Comité des Forges de France. What paper would have the pluck to take up the fight to throw off such a financial and spiritual stranglehold?

The French press concerns itself more or less with certain definite intellectual and politico-economic problems that is to say, with party and commercial interests, etc. The Anglo-Saxon press , on the other hand is, with few exceptions, directed more towards the love of sensation of the masses and is dependent upon that.

In England to-day, outside the big concerns, such as Lord Rothemore, the Beaverbrook, the Berry-Westminster, and Stamer Group, the Odhams Press,- there are only a few newspapers that are free from control by concerns.

In the United States of America newspaper dependence on the love of sensation of the masses has made considerable progress. In 1913, on the occasion of the annual meeting of the American Press Association, Mr. J. Swinton publicly and quite frankly stated:

There is no independent press in America if we disregard the small provincial newspapers. It is the duty of a New York reporter to lie and bow down before the god of riches. We are the tools and vassals of the rich who remain behind the scenes. We are puppets. They pull the springs and we do the dancing.

A glaring example of such lie, as practiced by the "American" press is offered by the recent European events: every day, for months, we read about the German and Italian volunteers, fighting on Franco's side, German and Italian war machinery aiding the Insurgents, but a word never appeared to the effect that the Civil War in Spain was organized, financed, and conducted by the Communistic Internationale from Moscow. Neither there is mention in the "free American" press that the present struggle in the Far East was conceived, organized, and conducted by the Soviet Union, and that Japan is fighting communized China for the sake of self-preservation.

INFLATION - AS WE WARNED YOU

Wall Street is full of plans for the coming inflation. Remember, year ago, we warned all members to put their money in a safety box d the keys in their pants' pockets. Have you done so? If not, you d better get busy.

A good investment is canned goods at present prices. You must eat to live and these will keep. Remember, you can't eat greenbacks, for the printing of which F.D.R. has just ordered 1600 tons of paper.
In Germany, your year's salary would not buy a loaf of bread - during the days of "planned economy."

Don't be a fool. Inflation is certain. Not a question of - will it happen? - but only one of when?

"N E W A M E R I C A"

The organization "New America," of which you will hear more later, is the organization of communist leaders pledged to build the Soviet States of America. Members wear the ring of the communist inner circle with their number engraved on the inside.

One of these days we will surprise you with the names of Senators and Congressmen who are "wearing the ring." Be on the watch for them and report to headquarters.

(Office holders and their Jew contacts). Lord President of the Council - Viscount Halifax. His heir married the granddaughter of a Rothschild.

Lord Chancellor - Viscount Hailham. His brother, Sir Malcolm Hogg, married the grandaughter of a Jewish Gompertz. His permanent secretary is the Jewish Sir Claud Schuster.

Secretary of State for Home Affairs - Sir Samuel Hoare. Of the Quaker banking family. He is the author of a book, The Fourth Seal, which clearly shows he is aware of the Jew menace; we leave it to him to explain why he did not warn his colleagues about what is going on. His parliamentary private secretary is Mr. W. W. Astor, whose uncle is a director of the Jewish Bank of Hambros; his mother is sister-in-law of Hon. R. H. Brand, managing director of the Jewish bank, Lazard Bros. in London.

THE YEAR 1938 AND FATE

This title, printed in scarlet letters, appears on a booklet of prophecies, stated to be "carefully compiled by the Rosicrucian Bureausof Research." The cover of the booklet is decorated by a menacing clenched fist, holding in its grip the threads of destiny!

We are informed on page ten that Japan is to decline and that China will rise supported by many countries(?). Prosperity is announced for the U.S.A. and contentment for its citizens (?). France is also promised a slight increase of prosperity (?). The inevitable outcome of the Spanish situation is stated to be a considerable scandal and unpleasant discussions (?). On page sixteen we are told that Italy will be severely censured for its diplomatic actions and political operations (?).

"Racial persecution" (?) will continue in Germany and this country will suffer greatly by its continuance of "intolerance"(?). The German populace will be in a very unhappy state of mind (?).

We are further informed that the U.S.A. will sail across the seas to participate in conflict. The activity will be centered in Asia, where U.S.A. will help to establish peace (?) and will protect the unfortunate (the "chosen people," we suppose).

In England there will be a decrease of Fascism (?). The startling announcement is made that the whole affair of the Duke of Windsor is not a completely settled matter but lies more or less dormant in the consciousness of a large portion of British subjects throughout the world, and will, from time to time, rise as an argument and a contention. This will result in some annoyance and unpleasantness to the new king and queen, and present many very difficult problems for the British diplomatists to solve (?).

1938 is stated to be "demonstrative of the Laws of Fate" (?). Grim fate is fortunately not the supreme ruler on earth! It is opposed and modified by a Superior Force, viz. Divine Providence!

This Booklet of Prophecies is valuable for it demonstrates what the "Hidden Hand" had hoped to achieve: it reveals some cunning traps prepared by secret plotters (as outlined in The Protocols of the Wise Elders of Zion).

"Victims of racial intolerance" do sometimes under-estimate Aryan intellect! These pseudo-Rosicrucians apparently forget that a secure haven is being prepared for them in "New Palestine," viz. Madagascar.

No mention is made of any future for the happy citizens of the Kosher Soviet Union! Present conditions in the Bolshevik Paradise are so delightful that all thought of coming days is eliminated...

Copies of "1938 and Fate" can be obtained without cost by writing to Amorc, Rosicrucian Park, San Diego, Calif., U.S.America.

MYSTERY FLEET OFF THE PHILIPPINE ISLANDS

Much comment - relative to the mystery fleet of twenty-two battle ships, reported anchored in Davoa Gulf of the Philippine Islands - appeared in press. Strange as it may seem, U.S.Naval authorities are unable to identify them. Stranger things have happened, such as secret treaties with the Soviet Union. Remember our prediction: war in Asiatic waters this year.

Dear Mr. Drew:

I have for acknowledgment your communication dated July 13, 1942, enclosing several leaflets, including two issued by the American Nationalist Confederation, St. Albans, West Virginia.

It may interest you to know that the American Nationalist Confederation was operated by George E. Deatherage, National Commander of the Knights of the White Camellia, a Fascist type organization. You will probably recall recent publicity reporting the release of Deatherage from an engineering position on construction work at the Naval Operating Base, Norfolk, Virginia, by direction of the Secretary of the Navy.

I want you to know that your thoughtfulness in making the material in your possession available to me is indeed appreciated. Your suggestions regarding the names and addresses contained therein are receiving appropriate consideration.

An investigation of this organization was conducted by Special Agent I. B. HAND, Cincinnati, Ohio, and reported under Cincinnati File #100-1503. This investigation disclosed that the Student Americaneers, Incorporated was granted a permit to send advertising matter with pre-cancelled stamps on May 7, 1936, which permit expired on May 11, 1937 because of their failure to renew same.

Mr. H. R. BURCHFIELD, Clerk, Office of the Superintendent of Mails, Columbus, Ohio, stated that he did not know whether anything was ever mailed under the permit, but that probably not more then one mailing was effected under it.

Mr. LEO ENRIGHT, Clerk, Corporations Division, Office of the Secretary of State, State of Ohio, searched his records and advised that the Student Americaneers, Incorporated filed its articles of incorporation on February 8, 1936. The incorporators were listed as ARTHUR B. BARROWS, 123 Clinton Street, ARDEN S. TURNER, 27 Whinman Avenue, who was designated as agent for the corporation, and NOAH H. RODENHEFFER, R.F.D. #3, St. Marys, Ohio. The articles of incorporation were drawn up by Col. FRANK A. HUNTER, Attorney, 16 East Broad Street, Columbus, Ohio, who is a prominent member of the Columbus American Legion Post.

The purpose of the organization as stated in the articles of incorporation was "To investigate and actively combat all un-American organizations and their propaganda, and to do all things necessary and incident thereto; further, to preserve the Constitution and our constitutional form of government; to defend the United States against all enemies, both foreign and domestic; to maintain peace and prevent war by a sane program of national defense; to cooperate with State and Federal Governments and to report to them; to cooperate with all patriotic organizations; and to preserve the spirit of loyalty to God and to country in American youths."

Col. FRANK A. HUNTER, 16 East Broad Street, Columbus, Ohio, advised that instant corporation was drawn up by him for some Ohio State University students who wanted to see what they could do to combat subversive influences and to ferret out those organizations, publications, and individuals who were seeking to undermine our democratic form of government. They planned to branch out into an organization on a large scale, but this was never accomplished and so-far as Mr. HUNTER knew the organization had become defunct. There was no question in his mind as to the intention and loyalty of this group, and he was positive that the reason for which it had been placed on the mailing lists of Fascist organizations as well as Communist and other subversive groups, was that it might acquire a knowledge of such activities.

In view of the facts as described indicating the nature of the organization, no further investigation was conducted by the Cincinnati Field Division.

Dear Sir:

I am taking the opportunity to write to you with regard to the recent article in the Aug.1st.issue of Liberty magazine,"Americans we can do without",by Walter Lipshitz,alias Walter Baske,alias Walter Winchell. I realize that your dossier on my activities is fairly complete but in order to clarify the record I wish to present the obvious falsehoods that are contained in that article.

1.Winchell claims that I have recieved substantial sums as contributions in years past,from so called "patriotic organizations.That is untrue as your records indicate.

2.It is stated that I organized the American Christian Party.That is ~~mmmmm~~ not true.I had nothing to do with the organization which belonged solely to McWilliams in New York.As I recall it I did not even hold a membership in it.

3.It ~~im~~ is stated that I acted in the above while employed on the building of Camp Lee.Your records will show that McWilliams organized this years previously and its activities were confined to the seaboard States.

4.It is stated that I was in touch with Nzi agents and the German Embassy during the same period and later.That is an outright falsehood as my contacts with the individuals mentioned was confined to a time five years previous,an account of which was made to the Dies Committee under oath.

I dont know what purpose McFadden wishes to accomplish in sponsoring such outright falsehoods on the part of Winchell,but quite obviously it is not furthering unity within a nation at war.No doubt the facts will be developed some time in the future,from force of circumstance alone,and then Mr.McFadden can make his explanation....to the American people.

Yours very truly.
Geo.E.Deatherage.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to Bureau letter dated August 12, 1942, Bureau File #97-649, in which it is stated that the report of Special Agent CLARENCE H. CORKRAN, dated June 19, 1942, at Huntington, West Virginia, does not set forth an interview with Mr. CLAUDE L. SMITH, an attorney at Charleston, West Virginia, as requested by Bureau letter dated June 9, 1942.

The Bureau's attention is directed to page three of Special Agent CORKRAN'S report wherein reference is made to an interview with Confidential Informant [redacted] whose identity is known to the Bureau. b7D Reference Bureau letter also requests that this Office make a thorough review of the Subject's bank accounts and conduct any logical investigation which suggests itself as a result of the review of these accounts. The report of Special Agent CORKRAN indicates that the Subject maintains a small two figure inactive account in the bank of St. Albans. No other account could be located. Due to the Subject's banking conditions it is not believed that investigation of his account is warranted and such will not be conducted unless the Bureau advises to the contrary.

Further reference is made to the letter from this office to the Bureau, dated June 30, 1942, with which were transmitted two blue print charts furnished by this Subject to Special Agent CORKRAN. That letter requested the return of the blue prints at the Bureau's earliest convenience. It is requested that the charts be returned to this office in the immediate future.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. LADD

RE: CHARTS DEPICTING SO-CALLED COMMUNIST INFILTRATION INTO THE GOVERNMENT, SUBMITTED BY GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE

George E. Deatherage, who, as you will recall, is presently the subject of investigation by the Bureau, was interviewed by a Special Agent on June 16, 1942. At the time of this interview, Deatherage submitted certain charts allegedly depicting Communist infiltration into the United States government. These charts have been carefully noted in this case, and it is not believed desirable to take any action predicated thereon, because of the source from which these charts emanated, and further because of the lack of any source material indicating where or how this particular information was derived. It has been noted that the individuals listed on these charts are by no means confined to employees of the Federal government. As an example of this, it has been noted that the name of William Z. Foster is included in this list along with such other names as Herbert Lehmen, Fiorello H. LaGuardia and Upton Sinclair, together with the names of many other individuals who are in no way affiliated with the Federal government. The names of Justice Brandies, William C. Bullitt, Mrs. Roosevelt, William E. Dodd, along with many others prominent in the American government are also listed on these charts.

In view, therefore, of the lack of any source material as to the information appearing in these charts, and the questionable character of Deatherage, who furnished this information, no investigations are being authorized under Public Law No. 135, 77th Congress. However, it is suggested that this matter be referred to the Internal Security Section for possible attention, inasmuch as the names listed are by no means confined to employees of the Federal government.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. IADD

RE: GEORGE DEATHERAGE

Special Agent in Charge Kuhnel of the Huntington Field Division called to advise that Major B. T. Rogers of the West Virginia Ordnance Works, Point Pleasant, West Virginia, informed that the United Press representatives have made inquiry concerning George Deatherage, who is employed at the West Virginia Ordnance Works. According to Major Rogers, he informed the United Press representatives that George Deatherage is a good employee and that he is endeavoring to be a good citizen and if the press continues their inquiries about this individual he is liable to become a bad citizen. Furthermore, Major Rogers advised the United Press representatives that this individual had been cleared by the FBI and the Army and that it was no business of the United Press representatives as to the activities of this individual, especially concerning his employment. SAC Kuhnel advised that he informed Major Rogers that any inference that the FBI had approved the employment of Deatherage was entirely wrong as this Bureau had no jurisdiction or authority to approve or disapprove the employment of any individual in any Army or Navy plant. The West Virginia Ordnance Works is an Army plant. SAC Kuhnel also advised that he has received inquiries from the United Press representatives at Charleston, West Virginia, concerning the employment of Deatherage at Point Pleasant and he advised that he informed the representatives that if any story is published concerning the employment of Deatherage that no inference should be made that he was cleared by the FBI as such procedure is without our jurisdiction.

SAC Kuhnel desired that the Bureau have this information in view of the fact that a release may appear in the papers concerning Deatherage. You will recall that the Bureau has been investigating this individual on the Registration Act and possibly espionage. He is a big leader in the Knights of the White Camilla.

Respectfully,
J. C. Strickland

"I want to thank you for your recent letter and enclosures which you so kindly mailed me. After I have digested that, I will write you more in detail. The first thing to be done, of course, is to break the power of the few in this country for there is no doubt that we are going to have the very same situation that confronted Germany in the pre-HITLER day. Whether we will have sense enough to solve it as the Germans have is problematical. If you will send the San Antonio phone book, I will work on those people with our mail campaign. It will be much appreciated." The original letter is retained in the San Antonio file 100-3089. Dr. HUGO R. FACK answered with a letter dated May 5, 1939, carbon copy of which is being retained in the San Antonio file 100-3089 and this letter was addressed to GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE National Commander of the Knights of the White Camellia. This letter was unsigned by the subject but he has placed his written acknowledgement of authorship upon it. In this letter the subject states as follows: "Dear Mr. DEATHERAGE. I have been delaying your answer until I could secure a copy of the San Antonio phone book which is being mailed to you as printed matter. I could not find a recent issue but there is little change in them from year to year."

Dr. FACK made reference in his letter to the Jewish situation, HITLER, and calls Mr. DEATHERAGE's attention, as a leader, to the fact that he should read the "Free Economy" every month. Dr. HUGO FACK's paper, entitled "Free Economy" constantly deals with the anti-Semitic and pro-German propaganda and often makes statements detrimental to the United States.

On July 24, 1942, Special Agent FRANK D. Enlightenment. The Subject reportedly accepted the invitation to attend and was introduced as an American Delegate. Pertinent portions of the Subject's speech are set out below:

"WILL AMERICA BE JEWRY'S WATERLOO"

"It is a great and much anticipated pleasure to be able to extend to the patriots of Germany and the many other nations represented here today - at this great conference - the greetings and good wishes from your American brothers. For, after all, we are all brothers in race and culture, devoting our lives to a common cause, a cause which ultimately must mean the salvation of the world for Christian and Aryan people.

* * * * * * *

"That we must not fail. That we must - all of us - from every nation on earth, co-operate and co-ordinate our efforts towards destroying the power of Jewish communism - forever. That is the primary reason for our being assembled here together. May God give us strength, courage and wisdom that we may use them solely for the well being of those that depend upon us.

"We are very fortunate indeed to have the opportunity of meeting together within the borders of a nation that has won its fight over the powers of Jewish bolshevism and which is giving us the benefit of its experience.

"Certainly, there is no real reason why Germany today should feel grateful to my country, whose responsible politicians have done and are doing all they can to besmirch the lives and character of the German people. Instead of being graciously welcomed as we come here, the Germans might well and rightfully reject us with scorn and loathing. Realising that, we feel doubly appreciative.

"Of course, this welcome could not have been extended to us unless the German people were fully aware that such attacks that have been made upon their nation by our government, did not emanate from the hearts of the American people, but were created, organised, directed and financed by the forces of international Jewry. The United States today is in the death grip of forces alien to our past history, our aims and our Christian ideals. We have the greatest concentration of international Jews that exists in the world - even more than there are in Russia and Poland combined. Ours is the greatest Jew-ridden nation on earth, and those of you who have been fighting this menace in your various countries can well imagine our problem at the moment.

"It is our hope that we will be able to awaken our people in time to prevent this happening, but the hope is extremely slim. We are rushing into Jewish Communism with the speed and force of an express train. Only a miracle can save us from what appears to be ultimate doom and destruction.

* * * * * *

"The U.S.A. is completely deminated by Jews. Jews control the radio, the press, the cinema, the Protestant Church, the great fortunes that have been left to education and charity, the policies of the great colleges and universities and, in fact, every avenue of publicity and education.

"In the left wing labor unions Jews controlthe militant elements within working class, assisted by an interlocking directorate of Jews in local, state and federal governments.

""What is called "the New Deal", was exposed by General Hugh Johnson, himself, once a member of the inner group, as having been prepared in the office of Barney Baruch a year before Roosevelt was nominated. After the nomination, Johnson states that it was thrown on Roosevelt's desk as the plan of the Democratic Party. That plan was the plan of the Protocols, shaped to meet American consumption. It came from the leader of the Kehillah in the United States - the Jew Barney Baruch.

"The plan and its source was further exposed by JAMES FARLEY, National Chairman of the Democratic Party, in a speech before the Detroit Rotary Club, when he stated: "The President is cool. He has his feet on the ground. His plan was worked out for him even before he was nominated.

"The World War and all that has followed since, certainly as far as America is concerned, was planned, organized and financed by international Jews. This is not hearsay, but fact that can be well established by tons of available documentary evidence.

"General Hugh Johnson, who now exposes the bolshevik plans in the United States 'as a perfect co-ordinated patte n', for years was intimately associated in business and politics with BARNEY BARUCH, the head of the Jewish Kehillah in America. He ought to know what he is talking about, for he is one of the dupes who helped create this thing that now confronts us.

"When our Department of State enters into a tirade against National Socialism or Fascism, bear in mind that it is not the voice of the American people, but the voice of international Jews expressed by Secretary of State Hull, married to a Jewess, or the Assistant Secretary of State, Adolf Berle, a Jew.

"When Secretary of War WOODRING, or Assistant Secretary of War, LOUIS JOHNSON, fill the air with their mouthings, remember that the speeches are written in the Department of State - by a Jew.

"The American people do not know what this is all about as yet. They are kept in ignorance of the facts. When economic collapse or some world crisis forces them to wake up, there will be a much different story to tell. Hell will have no fury like the anger of our people when they finally realize that they have been cheated and duped.

"The Jews in America realize this full well and they are at the present time hysterical. They cannot control their leaders even though they would, and are placing their last dollar on the little red wheel of fortune. If they win, the earth becomes a shambles. If they fail - it willbe the end of Jewry the world over, and well they appreciate it.

"The American Nationalist Confederation, of which I have the honor to be the Leader, has prepared and in force a constructive program of Nationalism which we hope all decent Americans to accept in a nationwide unified attempt to solve our troubles.

"The emblem of the American Nationalist Confederation is the swastika. As it brought Germany out of the depths of despair, so it will bring us. We have faith and confidence in our people. Once they start to react, we shall make great progress. That we know and are preparing for. American will not be sovietized without a battle that will be heard around the world. Of that you may be quite certain.

"And so I ask that you be patient with us. That you realize that we are a great nation sorely pressed from a thousand directions at once, and are trying to find the answer. We ask for and need your help and consideration.

"There are two vital phases of this crisis in America. One, the domestic situation I have briefly and generally touched upon. The other is the international situation, or the deliberate fostering of international war by Roosevelt and his Jews, in order to cover up their attempts to Judize the nation and to save the face of the Jew before the world in general.

"Wars and rumors of wars have been used by unscrupulous demagogues for centuries past, as a means to divert the minds of the people from their suffering and troubles at home. It is no new thing then to witness every avenue of publicity in the United States building up in the minds and hearts of the ignorant masses a feeling that war is inevitable. Once they have this feeling assured, it will be easy to direct their attention to specific nations.

"The greatest help that other nations can be to us in these trying days is to completely ignore the attacks. By placing importance upon them it gives strength to the enemy. The attacks are those of Roosevelt and his Jews, who have no legal or moral right under the law to speak for us. Do not therefore dignify their efforts by taking them seriously.

"Their prime object is to invite retaliation so that the issue can be broadcast over the nation as a means of inflaming the populace. Silence is the best weapon with which to answer the Jews of America, and if there is to be retaliation, let that come from within our borders.

"Bear in mind always that Jewry is united. When Jews instigate boycotts in the United States, it must be remembered that the Jews in other nations were first consulted, and are part and parcel of the scheme.

"In closing, again thanking the leaders of this great gathering for an opportunity to meet with you, I repeat once more - do not dignify the attacks being made by becoming angry. That is just what Jewry desires. If it would be possible for them to pull us into an international conflict, we would be communized tomorrow - under the dictatorship of Roosevelt and his Jews."

* * * * * * * * * * * * * * * *

The Bureau was advised by Confidential Informant T-2 that the Subject makes his home with Mr. and Mrs. C. R. BARTON, College Hill, St. Albans, West Virginia. T-2 stated that Mrs. BARTON is a member of the Red Cross Motor Corps of that vicinity and as such is acquainted with the plans formulated in the event of air raids and emergencies. Mrs. BARTON is said to constantly rant against the Jews, stating among other things that it would not be long until the Jews are run out of this Country as they were out of Germany. T-2 advised that Mrs. BARTON stated that she believes President ROOSEVELT to be half-negro and half-Jew. Mrs. BARTON attended a recent Fourth of July Rally, to which she marched with other members of the Motor Corps, and when the speaker of the day denounced Germany she left the Rally. T-2 advised that C. R. BARTON, who is an employee of the CARBIDE & CARBON CHEMICAL CORPORATION, South Charleston, had stated that England had double-crossed everyone and there was no reason to believe she would not double-cross the United States. T-2 stated that the Subject is not appearing much in public in St. Albans, but is allowing "his disciples" to speak for him. T-2 further advised that Mr. and Mrs. JAMES BURNETT, who live next door to the BARTONS have similar opinions to those expressed by Mrs. BARTON set out above.

The LIBERTY MAGAZINE dated August 1, 1942, contained an article by WALTER WINCHELL entitled "AMERICANS WE CAN DO WITHOUT". In his article, Mr. WINCHELL described the activities of the Subject. This article prompted the Subject to address a letter to the Director of the FBI, which letter was dated August 3, 1942, and stated that he was taking the opportunity to clarify his record with the FBI, characterizing certain statements made by Mr. WINCHELL as obvious falsehoods. He stated that WINCHELL claimed he had received substantial sums as contributions in years passed from "so-called patriotic organizations". The Subject stated flatly that this is untrue. He observed that the article stated that he had organized the American Christian Party. He stated this is not true; he had nothing to do with the organization which belonged solely to McWilliams in New York. He stated that as he did not even hold a membership in that organization.

He stated that the remark that he had been active in the above organization while employed on construction work at Camp Lee, Virginia, could be disproved by the fact that McWILLIAMS' organization existed years previously and its activities were confined to the Seaboard States.

He stated that the charge that he had been in touch with Nazi Agents and the Germany Embassy during the same period and later, is outright falsehood as his contacts were confined to a time five years' previous and stated that he made an account of these activities to the Dies Committee under Oath.

Re: GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE
INTERNAL SECURITY - C
REGISTRATION ACT.

Dear Sir:

On September 7, 1942, Major B. T. ROGERS of the West Virginia Ordnance Works of Point Pleasant, West Virginia, telephonically contacted me at this office.

The purpose of Major ROGERS' call was to inform me that he had just received a telephone call from the local representative of the United Press, Charleston, West Virginia, who was inquiring to confirm the fact that DEATHERAGE is presently employed at the West Virginia Ordnance Works. It appeared from Major ROGERS' statements that the representative of the United Press took the attitude that in view of DEATHERAGE'S record it seemed quite unusual that he would now be employed in National Defense work under these circumstances.

During the course of the conversation, Major ROGERS indicated that he had assumed the rather belligerent attitude toward the United Press in raising this question. In other words, Major ROGERS pointed out to me that while DEATHERAGE is not doing any absolutely critical work in this plant he is, nevertheless, checking engineering plans and doing statistical work which is vitally important to the successful operation of the Ordnance Works. In an apparent effort to justify his position in the matter, Major ROGERS stated that engineers of DEATHERAGE'S ability are extremely difficult to get at the present time. He further definitely stated that DEATHERAGE has been doing an excellent job and there is a vital need for him in the plant.

SEP 16 1942

In commenting on the inquiry of the United Press, Major ROGERS stated that DEATHERAGE has conducted himself as an excellent citizen during the period of his employment there, pointing out that the Plant Police had checked on his activities outside of working hours and found him to be "above any question". It was further stated by Major ROGERS that in his opinion any newspaper publicity concerning DEATHERAGE'S employment would be most unfortunate at the present time. He commented that in the event such a story broke in the papers that it would, in all probability, make a bad citizen of DEATHERAGE, who is, at the present time, making every effort to show his patriotism and loyalty to this country.

Continuing in his comments concerning the United Press inquiry, Major ROGERS stated that he had pointed out to the United Press that before DEATHERAGE had been employed by his organization that the Bureau had been notified and inferred that approval had been obtained. I immediately corrected Major ROGERS on this statement and pointed out to him that this Bureau definitely had no jurisdiction in matters of this kind and was not in the position to make any recommendations, either favorable or unfavorable, toward the proposed employment of any individual. I further told him that in the event any inquiry was received from the United Press along these lines that the same statement would be made to them. Major ROGERS immediately agreed and retracted his previous inferences to the effect that he merely felt that he had acted as far as would be expected of him by notifying this office of DEATHERAGE'S employment at that plant. I reminded him again that he should, under no circumstances, consider even the fact that this matter had been reported to the Bureau that it constituted in any form approval, either actual or implied, concerning this matter.

Shortly after my conversation with Major ROGERS, I talked to the local representative of the United Press in Charleston, West Virginia, who had previously contacted Major ROGERS. I told this individual that in the event the story was published concerning the matter and if Major ROGERS was quoted as having stated or at least inferred in his statements given to the press that prior approval had been obtained from the Bureau that such a statement would be entirely erroneous. I pointed out to the local representative of the United Press that Bureau's position in this matter. This representative informed me that the story would, in all probability, point out in connection with the statements made by Major ROGERS that the Bureau or that I had made the statement that the jurisdiction of the Bureau in matters of this kind was purely investigative and that we had no authority to pass upon the advisability of employing or refusal to employ any person in plants of this kind.

The gist of the above facts were telephonically furnished to Mr. J. C. STRICKLAND of the Bureau on the afternoon of September 7, 1942.

Very truly yours,

E. E. KUHNEL,
Special Agent in Charge.

having national headquarters at St. Albans, West Virginia. The "Knights" were founded following the Civil War for the purpose of reestablishing the supremacy of the white minority in the South. At that time the organization boasted a membership of around two millions. Its militant nature was deemed necessary for self-preservation against predatory machine politics. As the problem of white supremacy was solved, the organization lapsed into doldrums and temporarily disbanded. However, it has recently risen to combat what it calls: "the threatening dominance of the Socialistic and Communistic forces in our Federal Government, Churches, Schools and Industry. This Jewish-led and financed movement aims directly at the elimination of the right to hold private property and the destruction of the Christian faith. It advocates the political and social equalization of the negro and the domination of the white Gentile American by alien groups who would substitute the teachings of the Jew KARL MARX for the Bill of Rights. By pointing to the principals for which our forefathers fought, these very opponents of Christianity hope to hide their own guilt. Their terrible power of the purse, in complete control of the radio, the press, governmental agencies, the movies and other avenues of publicity has not only prevented the truth being made known--but has entered into a nation wide conspiracy to persecute and destroy individuals or groups opposed to them."

As in past requisities, membership in the White Camellias is granted to male "Aryan" citizens of the United States, this practice being the cornerstone of the proposition that the United States shall be ruled by persons of white, "Aryan," Christian stock. Each member must take an oath, swearing allegiance to all the aims of the Knighthood and be prepared to defend his oath with his life. Whereas, the original intent was anti-Negro, the group now feels "with respect to the Negroes, the aim is uplifting, development, segregation, and government in accordance with their own racial character and tradition." The "anti-" feeling is now directed at "Jewry." Lately, as with the Silver Shirts, a Fascistic departure has been taken by the Knights. In the summer of 1937, GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE, Commander of the Knights, writing on stationery of the "American Nationalist Confederation," called for a coalition meeting, at Kansas City, Missouri, by all "Christian" organizations. At this meeting DEATHERAGE urged the adoption of an emblem, "the Fiery Swastika," as a means of effecting unity through a common symbol, as has the Ku Klux Klan with its fiery cross.

After the conference, DEATHERAGE moved to St. Albans, and not only directed the activities of the Knights of the White Camellia but also the "American Nationalist Confederation." This Confederation issued a monthly news bulletin for the first six months of 1938, with a statement on the first page of each copy, "Official organ of the Fascist Party in America--the American Nationalist Confederation." A black swastika on red, white, and blue stripes appeared at the top of the July 16, 1938, issue. DEATHERAGE was the representative of the White Camellias at the last World Service Conference (see below), and apparently still had hopes of making progress along dictatorial lines. Among the fourteen "fundamental principles" of his Knights are the following:

> "7. The upholding of Christian civilization and the protection of Christianity against the attacks of Jewish Communism."

He has distributed pamphlets to women's organizations, headed "Women of America! Rescue the Republic! and, Save All You Hold Dear!" And he has evolved a platform which he believes will be the salvation of the country.

According to EDMONDSON, America is facing a "supreme ordeal" against "the destructive Jewish Economic Monopoly System which, under false leadership that misuses the 'terrible power of the purse' is now not only crowding Americans and their children out of the avenues of opportunity but is undermining the best government ever established by man, demanding 'a thoroughly Socialized Democracy.'" With New York the "Economic Dynamo" of the nation, and Washington the "Political Power" center, EDMONDSON argues that both are dominated by the "International Jewish Economic Monopoly System." In his war against this alleged super-enemy, he believes the main issue is free speech, which he claims is suppressed through Jewish advertising influence and financial subversion. He demands the death penalty for those who tamper with the political independence of the American daily newspapers. His plan of action is: buying Gentile, voting Gentiel, freeing the press, the air, and the movies, all of which he deems controlled by international Jewry.

One of EDMONDSON'S most wide-spread anti-Semitic appeals is the old myth, that Benjamin Franklin was a notorious Jew-baiter. The myth centers around an alleged excerpt from a speech that Benjamin Franklin supposedly delivered before the Constitutional Convention--a vicious attack on Jewry, which includes a warning against allowing a Jewish foothold to develop in this country. The speech, said by EDMONDSON to be in the "diary" of Charles Pinckney of South Carolina, has been widely distributed at the price of three copies for 6 cents. That the "speech" never was made is indicated by the following materials from the Franklin Institute and the Saturday Evening Post:

"FRANKLIN AND THE JEWS"

The clumsy forgers of the latest revelation against the Jews have chosen, ludicrously, to pin it upon the least-bigoted American of the eighteenth century.

Because this stupid lie has survived every challenge, including the scornful denial of the Franklin Institute last August, we reprint here the following extract from The Franklin Institute News:

"Reports have been widely circulated, for several years, off and on, saying that Dr. FRANKLIN made a speech during the Constitutional Convention against the Jewish race. The purported speech is printed, and said to be quoted in full, from a 'private diary' kept by CHARLES PINCKNEY, of South Carolina, who was a fellow delegate with FRANKLIN at the Convention in 1787.

"But this 'private diary' has not been produced. Historians and librarians have not been able to find it or any record of it having existed. The historians have said further that some of the words and phraseology used in the quoted speech cast grave doubt on its colonial origin. In plain English, they have claimed it a fake.

"The CHARLES PINCKNEY 'private diary' containing FRANKLIN'S vitriolic speech is now reported to be in possession of The Franklin Institute.

"The truth is, we do not possess the notorious diary. In fact, we know no more about its whereabouts than we did before, and that was nothing.

"FRANKLIN said, 'There is much difference between imitating a good man, and counterfeiting him.' We want to do a good turn wherever we can. We therefore suggest to those engaged in presumably counterfeiting a good man's language, for furthering their hellish desire to fan the flame of racial hatred, that they spend the same amount of time in doing something useful. With this object in view, we suggest that they first read about some of the things which FRANKLIN is known to have done. One pertinent and authenticized statement is that when the Hebrew Society of Philadelphia sought to raise money for 'a religious house,' or synagogue, in Philadelphia, FRANKLIN signed the petition of appeal for contributions to 'citizens of every religious denomination,' and gave five pounds himself to the fund.

"We haven't the faith to believe that these present-day fanatics will immediately become civilized by reading FRANKLIN'S writings, but some good may result nevertheless. We suggest to our benighted friends that they read what FRANKLIN thought about Honesty, Peace, Virtue, Religion, Industry and Citizenship.

"'A lie stands on one leg, truth on two.' --Poor Richard.
THE DIRECTOR."

In 1936 EDMONDSON'S anti-Semitic activities ran him afoul of the libel laws of New York. The prosecution of the case was started by the City of New York, on complaints of the alleged objectionable nature of articles appearing in EDMONDSON'S pamphlets. However, the case was finally dismissed, through the action of counsel for the American Committee on Religious Rights and Minorities, the American Jewish Committee, the American Jewish Congress, the Human Relations Committee of the National Council of Jewish Women, and the American Civil Liberties Union. Although EDMONDSON wad denounced by these groups, the purpose of their intervention was to aid in safeguarding freedom of speech, freedom of the press, and freedom of religion for the public as a whole, even though certain persons might take advantage of such freedom for propagation of their own bigoted ideas. But in 1938 he was busy publishing "The American Vigilante," an eight-page monthly tabloid, with articles on "New York Now a Jew City," and appeals to "Buy Gentile! Vote Gentile! Free the Press!" In 1939 and 1940 propaganda materials against the "Jewish Economic Monopoly" were handed out on street corners in New York City and Washington, D. C. He was then operating from Stoddartsville, Pennsylvania.

Re: GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE
Norfolk, Virginia

George E. Deatherage was born on November 15, 1894, at Duluth, Minnesota. He is a former national commander of the Knights of the White Camellia and was President of the American Christian Conference composed of anti-Jewish Fascist organizations which met at Kansas City, Missouri, on August 23, 1937. Deatherage characterizes the Knights of the White Camellia as anti-Communistic and anti-Jewish in purpose. He admitted before the Congressional Committee on Un-American Activities at a hearing on May 23, 1939, the establishment of a liaison between his organization and international headquarters in Rome, Italy, to coordinate world-wide action against Communism and Jewism. Deatherage was invited by the German Minister of Propaganda and Public Enlightenment to attend a World Service Conference held at Erfurt, Germany, in 1938, and at the conference delivered an address entitled, "Will America be the Jews' Waterloo". Deatherage has served as a distributing agent of the World Service, an English language "news" sheet printed in Germany, and has been associated with leaders of other American Fascist organizations. As of 1939 he was reported to have relinquished his office as national commander of the Knights of the White Camellia, but holds an honorary life membership in that organization.

Inasmuch as Washington was the office of origin in the above referred to case, the Richmond file in respect thereto is incomplete, but serves to establish that subject was indicted for obtaining money under false pretenses and forgery in the District of Columbia on May 14, 1940 in that he sold certain documents, forged by him, purporting to be correspondence of WILLIAM DUDLEY PELLEY in the latters capacity as head of the Silver Shirts Legion of America. JAMES TRUE, 122 Fairfax Street, Alexandria, Virginia whose name appears on the mailing list of DEATHERAGE as given in referenced report, is the subject of Richmond File #100-595 titled JAMES TRUE, et al, REGISTRATION ACT, Sedition, and as has been pointed out in Bureau memorandum furnished to the Office of Emergency Management and transmitted to the Richmond Field Division under date of March 19, 1942 (Bureau file 77-20154) has been a contributor to "The White Knight", the official publication of subject, is the head of James True Associates, an anti-Semitic and anti-Communist organization located in Washington, D. Pertinent sections of this letter are quoted as follows:

"Don't worry about my loss of a job - [redacted] These are war days and days of internal strife and dissension. One must expect that if they are to take their part in the affairs of the nation. They are pre-revolutionary days - those in preparation for a change in our form of government and way of living. And they are days in which people must familiarize themselves if they are to survive... and especially in business. I hope that you and [redacted] realize this and do not become in hard straights through a bank failure. Keep your balance as low as you can and understand that the ground is the only place for money these days. We are faced with a totalitarian government being forced on us under the guise of a war emergency - as it was brought about in Russia, Germany, Italy - and even Spain. Here is history how repeating itself - at this moment - and although surrounded by it, few people realize it or understand it. We are to have regimentation of the worker, the government setting wages and working conditions, as well as taking over the businesses and placing them under a number of government monopolies - monopolies in which all control will be in the hands of a few. Before this can be accomplished there will be trouble, as there was trouble in all the nations enumerated above. How it will come out is anyone's guess. Yet I am hopeful that it will return to a man's right to think as he pleases, to talk as he pleases, to live where he chooses at work that he has selected. That freedom will not die in the land where it was born. That's what we are fighting for and which we hope to maintain.

"The Negro situation is getting out of hand in the South and there may be a great deal of trouble over this elimination of the poll tax laws in the Southern States. I don't think it will be much in Virginia as that State has already been more or less taken over at present. However, in the deep South it is a current problem with both sides arming themselves in preparation for the November election. This situation may well be the match that sets off the fireworks. The Communists and New Dealers are stirring the Negro up to revolt and trouble is certainly in the wind."

In the letter subject DEATHERAGE mentioned that he was going to Texas or Mississippi this winter to seek employment, and also mentioned that he had been in Georgia, Tennessee and Alabama in recent months. The letter was not in the handwriting of the subject, but was typewritten. He signed the letter "Sincerely, George."

MEMORANDUM FOR THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Re: GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE, with aliases

In view of your request some time ago which resulted in the apprehension of Edward James Smythe and Howard Victor Broenstrup by this Bureau pursuant to the indictment returned last year in the District of Columbia charging them and twenty-six others with conspiracy to commit sedition, I thought you would be interested in the following occurrences which have transpired since the newspaper notices appeared indicating that the captioned individual had been included in a more recent indictment.

The United States Attorney's office in West Virginia contacted the Federal Bureau of Investigation Field Office there and requested that an Agent of this Bureau undertake the filing of a fugitive complaint against Deatherage and thereafter the necessary steps looking to his apprehension. This request was, of course, not complied with since this Bureau had received no advice concerning the indictment of this man. The United States Attorney's office was informed, however, of the most recent information concerning Deatherage's whereabouts. Subsequently, on the basis of that information, the United States Attorney's office in Mississip i advised that they had received instructions for his apprehension and a similar procedure was followed there by representatives of this Bureau.

On January 6, 1943, advice was received by the Little Rock Field Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that George E. Deatherage was then located at Hot Springs, Arkansas. This information was immediately transmitted to the office of the United States Marshal at Little Rock for his information in case he received a request for his apprehension.

In the absence of a specific request from you, no action will be taken by this Bureau in this matter although, of course, I shall continue to have made available to any representative of the Department any pertinent information which is received.

Re: George E. Deatherage;
SEDITION

Reference is made to the attached teletype reflecting that Mr. Toxey Hall, United States Attorney at Jackson, Mississippi, received a telephone call on January 4, 1943, from the Department instructing him to file a complaint against Deatherage for the purpose of having him taken into custody by the United States Marshal and also requesting that this individual's person and effects be thoroughly searched at the time of his arrest. You will recall that Deatherage isone of the 33 individuals who were indicted by a Federal Grand Jury at Washington on January 4 for conspiracy to violate the Sedition Statutes. Mr. Hall requested that Bureau Agents accompany the USM in order to make the searches and question Deatherage and the Jackson Office requested to be advised as to whether this action should be taken.

I telephoned the Jackson Office and in Mr. Untreiner's absence advised SA Good that this case is one which has been handled by the Department and that, therefore, the Bureau did not desire that Agents accompany the Marshal and make the searches unless the Bureau at Washington receives a specific request from the Department to take this action. Mr. Good was instructed to so advise the United States Attorney.

Re: George E. Deatherage, was;
SEDITION

This individual, who was formerly head of the Knights of the White Camellia but discontinued this connection in November 1939, was indicted along with 32 other individuals in connection with the Department's alleged sedition conspiracy.

The Jackson Office has advised that the United States Attorney there received a telephone call on January 4, 1943, from the Department instructing him to file a complaint against Deatherage for the purpose of having him taken into custody by the United States Marshal. The Department also requested that Deatherage be searched and that all of his personal effects be thoroughly examined at the time of his arrest. The United States Attorney wanted Bureau Agents to accompany the Marshal in order to make the search and to thoroughly question Deatherage at the time of his apprehension.

Instructions have been issued to the Jackson Office that this case has been handled by the Department and that the Bureau does not want Agents to accompany the Marshal and make any searches unless a specific request is received by the Bureau in Washington from the Department to take such action. The Jackson Office was, therefore, instructed to advise the United States Attorney that this is a case which has been handled by the Department and that the action he desires to be taken can only be performed upon a specific request from the Department.

Dear Sir:

On January 11, 1943, Mr. MARSHALL W. AMIS, Regional Director, Federal Public Housing Administration, Electric Building, Fort Worth, Texas, called this office by telephone at which time he informed that the firm of NEWTON and GLENN, Hattiesburg, Mississippi, are the contractors in connection with the Federal Housing Project at Jones Mill, Arkansas. GEORGE DEATHERAGE is the General Superintendent for NEWTON and GLENN, in charge of the construction work at Jones Mill.

Mr. AMIS stated that he had been informed that DEATHERAGE had been arrested at Hot Springs, Arkansas, on January 9, 1943, on an indictment from Washington, D. C., charging DEATHERAGE with violation of the sedition statute. He said further that the information he had received indicated that DEATHERAGE had been released immediately on $2500 bond at the time of arraignment before the United States Commissioner.

Mr. AMIS stated that he wished to be advised whether or not the charges against DEATHERAGE were of a nature serious enough so that he should be precluded from work on any federal project. Mr. AMIS was informed that this matter would be presented to our headquarters at Washington, D. C., and it is suggested that the Bureau take appropriate action in regard to furnishing the Federal Public Housing Administration with the information desired.

Very truly yours

R. G. DANNER, SAC

Honorable Herbert Emmerich

Washington, D. C.

My dear Commissioner:

I am in receipt of information from this Bureau's Dallas, Texas, Field Division that on January 11, 1943, it received a telephone call from Mr. Marshall W. Amis, Regional Director of the Federal Public Housing Authority, Electric Building, Fort Worth, Texas, concerning the nature of the case against George Deatherage who, you may recall, was indicted on January 4, 1943, by a District of Columbia Grand Jury for a violation of the Sedition Statutes. This indictment charged a conspiracy to violate the Statutes, and in addition to Deatherage, named thirty-three other defendants.

Mr. Amis commented that Deatherage is employed as the General Superintendent for Newton and Glenn, a firm of contractors which is presently engaged in work for the Federal Public Housing Authority at Jones Mill, Arkansas. Mr. Amis stated that he had learned that Deatherage was released on bond immediately after his arrest on January 9, 1943, and inquired as to whether the charge against Deatherage is of such a serious nature as to preclude his working on a Federal project.

In view of the fact that this matter is being handled by the Criminal Division of the Department of Justice, I am referring the substance of Mr. Amis' inquiry to Assistant Attorney General Wendell Berge in charge of the Criminal Division.

Confidential Informant T-1 advised that on October 22, 1942, Subject made a speech at the Charleston Exchange Club (A Businessmen's club in Charleston, W.Va.) on the Subject "Post War Economics." T-1 furnished a typewritten copy of the text of the Subject's speech, which is set out below:

Mr. Chairman etc. This is my first public talk in over three years, and I wish to thank the Exchange Club for giving me the opportunity and also to Mr. Gillan for his kind introduction. In these days of political and war time hysteria one must be careful not to be misquoted. What I have to say, I am going to read to you from manuscript. It is not usual for me to do this and I hope you will understand the necessity for it, and bear with me. It is just as difficult for me as it is for you.

I am glad to have Mr. Gillan set one thing straight and that is that I am a native born American of native born parents of revolutionary ancestry. I am mentioning this because I have been accused of being a Swede, a German -- everything but an eskimo or being Jewish, and I would not be surprised to hear this any time.

For the past two years, I have been engaged in war work, first as Assistant Chief Engineer in the construction of Camp Lee, and at the Norfolk Naval Operating Base as Chief Engineer for the contractor on the Base expansion. The radicals in government, firmly in the saddle forced my dismissal over the heads of the commanding officer. Mr. Browder, head of the Communist party was released from prison in the name of nation unity. George Deatherage, one of Mr. Browders chief opponents, as well as others, have been dismissed from active participation in the war effort. That tells part of the story.

Now it would be strange if objections have not been made by some of the club membership to my speaking to you. Objections by people who believe the current propaganda. To clear up any misunderstandings, I might state that I have never been accused, indicted or convicted of any infraction of the nation's laws -- wartime or otherwise. It is true that I testified before the Dies Committee at my own repeated request and my own volition. The record of that testimony can be had by anyone who has seventy-five cents to send to the Superintendant of Documents, Washington, D. C.

In writing this speech I recalled with some amusement, that although I have not been indicted before the Washington Grand Jury, at the instigation of the Attorney General, for activities against the administration, before and during war time, that indictment has named organizations to which no doubt some of you belong -- for it includes the American Coalition of Patriotic Societies, whose membership includes the ROTC, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Sons of the American Revolution, etc. The strategy of course in sandwiching these organizations named among the Bund groups, smearing them by association, as Christ was crucified between two thieves. This information is kept from the press or the press refused to enlighten the people. Another part of the strategy is to cause a great hue and cry over an indictment, but to carefully avoid mentioning that the indicted are acquitted.

You will remember the great amount of publicity over the arrest and trial of the Christian Front group in New York. The press outdid themselves, as well as the picture magazines. This case went to trial and the boys were acquitted and released. The same press agencies did not clear the names of these lads but left thepublic under the impression that they had been jailed for attempting to overthrow the government.

Over three years ago I realized that a war was inevitable. Relizing this and anticipating the situation that now exists, I dropped all outside activities and devoted myself to my profession. However, as with the pre-war isolationist Senators, the Left Wing professional smear group--neglecting the need for national unity in time of war -- decided to use the war emergency to break the opposition...or to bring them into line. FRANK KNOX, whose pre-war book criticizing the New Deal entitled "We Planned it that Way" was brought into line by being made Secretary of the Navy. FRANCIS BIDDLE, Attorney General was already a Left Wing sympathizer, his wife being very active, and BIDDLE himself contributing Communist poetry to the Red magazine edited by ROBERT MINOR while BROWDER was in jail. Both of these men who are active in the smear campaign owe their appointment to FELIX FRANKFURTER, at one time chief counsel for the I.W.W. and undercover strategist for the Communist party. At the time of the burning of the wheat fields in the Dakotas, by the I.W.W., THEODORE ROOSEVELT in a letter stated that he was the most dangerous man in America.

At the conclusion of this talk I will be glad to answer any questions that you wish to ask...and I will assure that I will evade none of them.

The Subject of the post war economy is receiving a great deal of attention these days and among those that have shown evidence of that interest is the American Legion. In the August issue of the American Legion Magazine there appears an article entitled "Our Third Front" by Professor RALPH ROBEY of Columbia University. This is the foreword by the magazine editors on this article: I quote --

"Paying lip service to President Roosevelt and the cause of the United Nationa, extreme radicals in the U.S.A. are using the war effort as a screen to their efforts to make a collectivist system of Government here inevitable, once the war is won. We asked Dr. ROBEY, Columbia University economist and writer on current events, to analyze for Legionnaires this under-cover effort to kill the constitutional Democracy under which this country has grown great." (end of quote)

In this article by Dr. ROBEY the situation we are faced with in the post war period is put bluntly as follows: quote--

"There is no question whatever as to our traditional and present system of government and business being gone forever -- that we are moving towards something basically different during the war and the old system just doesn't have a chance of being re-established at the end of the war. In place of that, we will have a system which may be best termed "American Fascism." We are fighting the war, therefore, not to determine what kind of a system we are to have in the future -- we already know that -- but to determine whether our particular brand of fascism will be run by ourselves or by Germany." Unquote.

In other words, and I quote again.."Something is going on in this country that goes far beyond just trying to lick the Nazis and the Japs." And ROBEY concludes that this is our third front, to which I fully agree. Now if the post war system is to be collectivist or fascist, in which wages, prices, production, in fact, all human endeavor is to be set and regulated by Washington, business men and business clubs had better start understanding how it works. At this moment you are faced with wages, prices and production being decided by Washington as a war emergency.

Will this power ever be relinquished by Government?

That is a question on which no man can ever have but an opinion until it is too late to do anything about it.

To understand what this post war world is about. Even to discuss it intelligently we must come to an agreement on definitions. What is Communism, Socialism, Fascism, Nazism etc.? What are their aims? How do they attempt to accomplish them? The best definition must come from those who make up these groups.

1. Communism as you all know is a planned world wide revolution designed to destroy the capitalist system. To destroy the right of any man, any business man, to make a profit out of another's labor. To substitute for that, a collectivist system where there shall be no production for profit but only production for use. It is anti-Christian, anti-family, anti-Union and international in form and character. And its driving force is terror and violence.

2. Socialism from a political and economic standpoint is essentially the same as Communism -- with the exception that the Socialist believes in the destruction of the capitalistic system by peaceful and legislative means. Means such as planned bankruptcy of the vested interests, nationalization of industry and the banks, the bringing about of a collectivist system and also production only for use.

3. Fascism, born in Italy -- by MUSSOLINI, a Socialist, was the outcome of a reaction against Communism particularly, and also outright Socialism, but which is little different Nazism. Both are totalitarian states, extremely nationalistic in character, wherein wages, production and prices are established by the state, although the title to property remains in private hands....the return from that property is regulated, and kept to a pre-determined minimum. Fascism and Nazism are National Socialist--a Socialism peculiar to each of the nations. It is a compromise of a sort between capitalism and outright socialism.

The Fascism that Dr. ROBEY therefore evisions for the future is a bureaucratic state, wherein wages, prices, production and all labor are to be regulated and administered by Washington...to bring the economic system under as complete a control as possible. And that, gentlemen is the thing which is common to all of the systems we have mentioned; Communism, Socialism, Fascism and Nazism. Everyone has a militant minority at the top that controls the political and economic life of every man in the nation. The broad pattern of that control in America, you as business and professional men, can see taking place in the last decade. It is happening now -- under your very noses.

Although the collectivist propagandist raise a great hue and cry in the press and over the radio, that this nation is a Democracy, what are the facts of the case?

The ROTC Engineers Manual says: "Our form of Government is known as a Republic...The Republican form of government is superior to every other form...including autocracy, feudalism, democracy and communism."

The Army Field Artillery Manual states: "The Government of the United States is not a Democracy, but a Republic."

The Constitution of the United States guarantees a Republican form of Government, while the oath of allegiance to the Flag, as recited by millions of American School Children, reads: "I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States and to the Republic for which it stands.

The United States never was a Democracy in any sense of the word. As the U. S. Army training Manual states: "Democracy is a government of the masses...results in Mobocracy. Attitude towards property is communistic...results in demogogery, license, agitation, discontent and anarchy." As a matter of fact the slogan, "Fight for Democracy" was coined in the Seventh International Communist Congress at Moscow. For Democracy is Communism just as the Army Training Manual says it is.

To bring about this post war totalitarianism that is now on the way, and which you are having daily examples brought home to you in your business, the Republic must be destroyed in the hearts and minds of free men. In its place must be the false idea of Democracy...Government by the masses, which as the Army training Manual says --"results in mobocracy. Its attitude towards property is communistic-- results in demogogery, license, agitation, discontent and anarchy."

The popular idea among the masses is that if you are fighting Democracy, you are of necessity a Nazi or a Fascist. Please remember therefore that the definitions I have given you are not mine, but those of the Constitution of the United States, the Army Field Manual and the ROTC Engineers Manual.

What is the idea behind this slogan of "Fight for Democracy?" The answer is a simple one. Democracy is ~~the~~the Army Manual defines... "A Government of the masses" being coined from the Greek "demo" meaning mob. Collectivism, whether it be Communism or Socialism is in theory.. a government of the masses. The masses have the most votes.

A great European Statesman, when asked whether he saw any chance for permanent peace in the world, made the following observation, and told his inquirer to draw his own conclusions:

1. That seventy per cent of the people in the world are governed by instinct and emotion, and are incapable of reasoning. These are "children of trust."

2. That ten per cent of the people are militarists, convinced that militarism can save their country from war's destruction.

3. That ten per cent of the people are politicians who know how to play on the emotions of the seventy per cent for personal profit.

4 That ten per cent of the people are reasonable folk, capable of reliable mass leadership, yet much too honest to compete with politicians for that leadership.

It is these seventy percent of the people, these "Children of Trust" -- governed by instinct and emotion, and who are incapable of reasoning that must be given the impression that they are governing. It is they who are to form the backbone of the collectivist system -- ending up under the lash of a Stalin, A Hitler or a Mussolini. If they are to be saved at all and the Republic is to endure, it must be saved by the ten per cent of reasonable folk who are capable of mass leadership-- yet too honest to compete with the politician. It is you men who are the natural leaders of the community and are capable of mass leadership. If you permit the professional politician to have his way, and only a miracle can save the situation, the capitalistic system is done. Many students and thinkers familiar with the inside facts are convicned that it is done in any case...finished for at least generations to come. You have to make a choice -- to choose between a totalitarian system or go back to the Republic. If you say and do nothing...if you believe the current propaganda without a thought of your own...if you are convinced that you will make money and thrive no matter what kind of a government you have...you will end where all business men end in the crisis of a Marcist revolution.

The politicians in power in Washington today are not Fascists, not Nazis, not supporters of the Republic -- but are man for man a coordinated nation-wide force of Communists, Socialists, Pinks and liberals. A liberal is a person who follows the party line, takes in oxygen and gives off carbon dioxide -- and without guts. These politicians with the power of government behind them control all the agencies of publicity: the press, the radio and ninety-nine per cent of the publishing houses. You are told only what they want you to know, and if you become militant in opposition you are smeared publicly in the press and over the air by professionals. The whole aim and purpose is the destruction of capitalism, your business, your investments and your property.

Now just how is this takeover to be brought about?

1. It is to be brought about by regimentation of the worker. By control so close and personal that he must vote as he is told. That can easily be accomplished by the manpower act now being formed. The legislation as prepared by these collectivists, to be known as the National Service Act, will compel every man to carry a card for his employment. That tells him where and when he will work and if he will work. You know how the WPA was used by the politicians. Are there any so simple as to assume that they will neglect this grand opportunity to compel the voting to suit them? Let's be realists.

2. The Craft trade unions must be destroyed and the government labor front substituted. The government now controls wages in the larger sense. With every worker carrying a government card telling him where and when he will work and his rate of pay set by government, what has a labor union member to negotiate with his employer? All he has left, is what he has left in Soviet Russia....he can complain about his working conditions to a government agency.

3. Small business must be destroyed and all industry concentrated in the hands of Government monopolies. That plan has already been worked out by HAROLD LOEB of the Office of Price Administration and others in key positions. The plan is ninety-two Government Monopolies on the Soviet System. In it there is not place for any small individual business. The rate of production of these monopolies sets the rate of wages for the worker. If you are interested in just how this is being worked out you can send to the Constitutional Educational League, 342 Madison Avenue, New York, for a pamphlet entitled "What's Cookin." The Attorney General has indicted the League for publishing this expose, so it must be good.

The individualist farmer must be eliminated and all farm production put into a government monopoly. That is being done by deliberately bankrupting him by making it unprofitable to raise and sell his product. The refusal to allow increased labor costs and to deduct his farm benefits from the parity prices. That action has already being taken and thousands of farms are going under now each week.

5. Racial equality must be brought about negroes.

The war is accelerating this business. As the September 19th issue of Colliers editorially stated: "There is still a large and fanatical group in Washington which is determined not so much to win the war, as to use the war as means of bringing about a collectivist revolution."

As an illustration, let me point out that the brains of the manpower act is not the beautiful Mr. McNUTT, but Mr. DAVID K. NILES, a Russian Jewish revolutionist, past head of the Communistic Ford Forum in Boston, member of the Communist Aiding American Civil Liberties Union, past brains of the Labor Department and now one of the six confidential secretaries to the President with a passion for anonymity. NILES is the author of the book "Strike Tactics" in which the worker is exorted to rise and take over the nation. McNUTT is the mouthpiece only.

It is, of course, impossible in the time alloted me today to give you complete information on how these radical, interested more in the collectivist revolution than winning the war, are dominating the staffs of practically every agency in Washington. Let's take just one of them, the OPA -- the Office of Price Administration. The head of this agency, having the power of life and death over prices, is LEON HENDERSON, a cautious and clever radical. He is careful not to stick his neck out too far, and it is in his key assistants that we get a clue to what is being planned.

1. The Chief Consultant on whom HENDERSON depends is ROBERT A. BARDY. Salary $7500 a year. BRADY is an internationally known "Fellow Traveller" in an almost inexhaustable list of Communist front organizations. Among others he is a sponsor of the Communist Workers School and a signer of the 1939 Communist Manifesto. He is the author of "The Spirit and structure of German Fascism," containing an attack on the American form of Government and openly endorses the "extermination" of the banker and Industrialist, the high command of the Armed forces and the hierarchy of the Church.

2. HENDERSON's second assistant is TOM TIPPETT, author of "When Southern Labor Stirs"; past instructor in the Communist Brookwood Labor College, etc. Here is an extract from TIPPETTS book "To Marshall the forces of labor to act in its own interest is a task that is not accomplished in a day or a year. Meanwhile privately owned factories are the workers source of bread and will be...UNTIL SUCCESSFUL REVOLUTION IS HERE."

The purpose of the Conference for Progressive Labor Action, to which also TIPPETT and his compatriots subscribe is stated by them as follows: "It seeks to stimulate in the existing and potential labor organizations a progressive, militant labor spirit and activity. It aims to inspire the workers to take control of industry and government, and abolish the present capitalistic system and build a worker's republic, an economic system operated for the benefit of the masses and not of the few." TIPPETT is Assistant Chief of the Rent Section at $5600 a year.

3. The Third Assistant is DEWEY H. PALMER whose communistic activities were recently the Subject of a memo to the President by a Congressional Committee.

4. The Director of the Rent Division at $6500 a year is the notorious KARL BORDERS at one time Educational Director of the North Caucasus District of the Soviet Union. You men who have rental property will have the rate set by this man whose police record is a long one in the Chicago Red Squad.

5. The fifth key man is JOHN EDELMAN. This lad is HENDERSON's liason man between the OPA and the CIO. This EDELMAN was among the leaders of the Continental Congress of Workers and Farmers -- a Communist organization whose platform in 1933 proposed that, and I quote -- "That all income above $25,000 a year shall be recaptured by the government." You have just recently seen this enacted into the tax law. EDELMAN was a director of the Affiliated Schools for Workers, which, partly financed from Federal Funds, and which the New York Federal Grand Jury Association found was teaching:

A. How to foment a strike.
B. How to take over the industries of the United States, expecially the munitions plants.
C. How to bring about a general strike and then sieze and operate the plants.
D. How to overthrow the United States Government and establish a Soviet Union. KARL BORDERS -- Chief of the Rent Section also belonged to this outfit.

6. HENDERSON's senior business specialist, is HAROLD LOEB. salary $4600 a year. LOEB is the chap credited with the creation of the Government monopolies previously mentioned. Here is an extract from his recent book on the Subject: "All activity will center about ninety-two basic industrial monopolies served by twenty thousand communities scattered from coast to coast. Every individual will arbitrarily sign a social contract at the instant of birth. His education, if any, and his vocation will be determined by a board. He will work where, and for as long each day as he is told to work. In exchange for his labor he will receive a "Certificate of Energy", a device identical with the Soviet Bread Card. Should he become difficult, his certificate will be taken away from him until such time as he is willing to "get into line again." (end quote)

This is the intention of the National Service Act, also known as the manpower act. In the guise of a war emergency the worker is to be regimented, irrespective of whether that plan be that of DAVE NILES or HAROLD LOEB.

I state to you bluntly, but factually, that every single bureau and agency in Washington is staffed with men of the type that are making up the OPA. If we are to win this war it is to be secondary to the collectivist revolution. As ADOLPHE BERLE, Assistant Secretary of State, remarked when he was told we were heading for revolution: "This is the revolution." BERLE is right. He had previously stated that he hoped that it could be accomplished without bloodshed.

Now the opposition to this state of affairs, this post war Communism or Socialism, is effected by a smear campaign directed in the press. The ring leaders of this is Marshall Fields paper "PM," also known as the uptown edition of the Daily Worker; the New York Post, owned by DOROTHY SCHIFF BAKER--whose grandfather JACOB SCHIFF was the major financial contributor to the Russian Revolution, MORRIS ERNST, Judge LIEBOWITZ, and the past chief counsel for the I.W.W. -- now a Supreme Court Judge -- FELIX FRANKFURTER. If you oppose these people you will be called a Nazi or a Fascist. That usually scares people off -- expecially during war time. The tactics used can be no better illustrated than by quoting GEORGE SOKOLSKY, columnist in the July 10th issue of the New York Sun: "If you believe in the Constitution, in the balance of power among the executive legislative and judicial branches of Government: If you believe that Congress shall perform its functions in accordance with constitutional provision -- then you are a Fascist.

But if you believe in administrative law, in the assumption of the judicial and legislative, as well as executive authority by administrative offices, boards, bureaus, etc. -- then you are a follower of Democracy.

If you believe ardently in your own country, its soil, its flag, its traditions, its history: if you love it ardently to the exclusion of every other country on earth -- then you are a Fascist.

But if you are an internationalist, a lover of Soviet Russia, China, Great Britain, any place anywhere or all of them put together in some sort of conglomeration; if you dilute your love of country by regarding it merely as a secondary support to a vast congeries of states -- then you are a firm believer in Democracy.

If you believe in private enterprise, in individual initiative, in the right of any person to make his own way in the world, to improve his own lot and that of his family, to save money and invest it productively -- then you are a Fascist.

But if you believe in Socialism, Communis, Collectivism, State control of the means of production and distribution, state aid to all categories of citizens until everyone is dependent on an oligarchy of public job holders -- then you are a true believer in Democracy.

If you believe that a democracy can best function under a two party system, the opposition existing to scrutinize, examine and criticise the party in power: If you believe that elections should be absolutely free without the party in power exercising control over the decision of the voters -- then you are a Fascist.

But if you believe the party in power should be permanently in power; if you believe that its adherents and votaries should devote themselves to stealing the apparatus of the party in opposition; if you believe that officials on the public payroll should devote themselves to political campaigning -- then you are a sanctified believer in Democracy.

If you believe that all public questions should be publicly discussed pro and con on an intellectual plane with a full display of the facts as they are available and an open critque of men and events -- then you are a Fascist.

BUT, if you devote yourself to smearing those that differ from you, defaming them, denouncing them, lying about them, drawing false conclusions from trivial incidents and trifling phrases, misquoting them, abusing their intellects, and denying their integrity -- then, forsooth, you are a paragon of Democracy."

All this and more occurred to me on the Fourth of July and I could not help thinking of very simple men who met on that day in a world as sad as ours but full of hope and ambition, who wrote that paragraph of the Declaration of Independence which begins with the words: "We hold these truths to be selfevident"... Read that paragraph or read the entire Declaration of Independence..and ask yourself whether those that shout men down with the constant cry of Fascist are not in reality seeking to destroy what those men created".

In conclusion I want to say that in my humble opinion, the constitutional republic and the economy that goes with it, with some adjustment to modern conditions, IS the greatest form of government fashioned by the hand of man. Some years ago I was convinced that some sort of a corporate state, within the confines of the Constitution, was the way out of the mess we are in. It seemed the only way out for the mass of the people, educated for a decade or more in the government taking responsibility...would demand that the Government save them from the inevitable. Save them from their own apathy and their own folly. As I gain in years and experience I am wondering if we had better not take our economic licking now, return to the constitutional republic wherein every man prospered or not on his own will -- free as possible from Government subsidy and regimentation.

We will suffer but is not that suffering warranted in saving ourselves as free men?

For you must remember that in considering post war economics it is not enough to complain. We must provide a successful working system wherein men can earn their livlihood and be relatively free of unemployment. If this is not done then something else will be tried. The hour is late and it is doubtful that the situation can be saved from a post war collectivism. That's Dr. ROBEY's conclusion and it is also mine.

Unless a miracle occurs the post war government will be one NOT of the people. Unless American leadership acts without fear of what happens to them personally, the situation is hopeless and impossible to avert. We have got to win this war. It would be unthinkable to lose it. Our job now is to see that in the winning of it we do not lose our rights as free men, the privilege of owning private property, the right to make an honest profit, and all those things for which our forefathers died.

And now I will be glad to answer as best I can, any questions you may care to ask and I assure you that I will not evade a single one of them or dodge the issue in any way. Thank you" (end of speech)

A short time subsequent to this speech by the Subject, a booklet called "Native Nazi" purge plot, was received from Lieutenant V. E. CHILDERS, Intelligence Officer, West Virginia Ordnance works and was purported to have been sent by the Subject, GEORGE DEATHERAGE, to Major BENJAMIN ROGERS of the West Virginia Ordnance Works at Point Pleasant, West Virginia. A perusal of this booklet indicates much of the material contained in the Subject's speech came from this source. This booklet is being forwarded to the Bureau for completion of the Bureau file. An article relative to the Subject's speech before the Exchange Club appeared in the August 25, 1942 issue of PM Magazine and this article from PM Magazine is being maintained in the Huntington Field Division file.

AT ST. ALBANS, WEST VIRGINIA

Mr. C. R. BARTON, College Hill, St. Albans, West Virginia, at whose home the Subject formerly resided advised that Subject was presently travelling in the South and stated that when last heard from by BARTON, Subject was at Greenville, Mississippi. BARTON stated that Subject DEATHERAGE had advised him that he was employed by some well-known Construction Company, the exact name of which BARTON could not recall. BARTON said that it is a small, but well known construction firm.

A few days after the interview with BARTON, a letter was received by the Huntington Field Division from the Subject GEORGE DEATHERAGE and was written by typewriter on the stationery of the Hotel Greenville, Greenville, Mississippi. This letter was received in the Huntington Field Office on November 7, 1942. In the letter the Subject stated that the Communists in Charleston, West Virginia had card indexed all the workers, etc., and stated that this work was done under the direction of one JOE WEBB of Charleston, and partly with the aid of Federal Funds. He further stated that the file containing forty thousand names was alternately in the possession of HAROLD HOUSTON, JOE WEBB, and M. KORNSTEIN. He further stated that he had recently heard that JOE WEBB has the file in question in his possession, and stated that WEBB had recently boasted of this file to an attorney in Charleston, by the name of HERMAN ROLLINS, whom the Subject DEATHERAGE described as "My lawyer." DEATHERAGE quoted ROLLINS as having previous knowledge of the existence of this file, and the reason for it. DEATHERAGE stated WEBB, being Jewish, is associated with a group of Russian Jews, with headquarters on Summers Street, Charleston, West Virginia. DEATHERAGE further stated that WEBB has two files, "a fake one and the real one," the former to throw anyone off the scent". DEATHERAGE further stated that the file in question contained dossiers on all the workmen at the chemical plant and that wherever these files are at the present time, they are keyed to an alarm system so that opening of a drawer or tampering sets off the alarm.

HERMAN D. ROLLINS, The People's Building, Charleston, West Virginia, who resides at 907 Mathews Avenue, Charleston, West Virginia, advised that he is acquainted with JOSEPH I. WEBB of 808½ Kanawha Boulevard, Charleston, West Virginia, and states that WEBB is a civil engineer. ROLLINS advised that on one occasions when ROLLINS was handling an estate matter, WEBB was referred to as a person who had knowledge relative to the title on a certain piece of land, and ROLLINS stated that he talked to WEBB relative to the matter of this title. ROLLINS stated that during the conversation, WEBB advised him that he had a record of every piece of property in the city of Charleston, listing the owners as well as the tenants of the property, the location of the various utility mains and similar data relative to Charleston property. ROLLINS stated that he had no knowledge of any file or files of the type mentioned by DEATHERAGE in his letter to the Huntington Field Division, and stated that he had never heard of WEBB's having two files, "A fake one and the real one, the former to throw anyone off the scent," nor dossiers on all the workmen at the chemical plant in the vicinity of Charleston.

ROLLINS further stated that he had no knowledge of the file in question being keyed to an alarm system so that the opening of a drawer or tampering to set off the alarm. ROLLINS did say, however, that WEBB has admitted to being an anarchist in the presence of ROLLINS. A separate investigation is being conducted relative to the possibility of un-American activities on the part of JOSEPH I. WEBB, and will be reported in that case file.

Confidential Informant T-1 advised that there has recently been a surge of anti-semetic propaganda in several counties in West Virginia, and he believes that there is a possibility of this propaganda being traced to the Subject, GEORGE DEATHERAGE. T-1 stated that he had heard that DEATHERAGE is now travelling through the South, and thought it quite likely that he may be trying to organize a militant negro minority group in the southern states at the present time.

Confidential Informant T-2 advised that the following periodicals contain articles relative to the Subject GEORGE DEATHERAGE:

The CONSPIRACY against CONGRESS

WINNING THE WAR must be the most important concern of every true American. In the speedy attainment of that goal there is a vital essential—UNITY.

Unfortunately, however, inevitable victory is being delayed, at the cost of American lives, because subversive forces are stirring up dissention and creating discord and disunity on the home front.

Such interference with the war effort must be stopped. Accordingly the Constitutional Educational League, Inc. offers this factual presentation in the hope that it will serve as a contributing factor in bringing about a better understanding among our people; that it will help the cause of UNITY by exposing and disarming the persistent promoters of DISUNITY.

"In times such as these, when there should be unity of thought and concert of action by liberty-loving peoples to stop the common foe, we find envy, jealousy, hatred, malice and even revenge seeking justification in the false name of patriotism. . . . True patriotism unites a country's peoples in times of national peril."

—J. Edgar Hoover, at St. John's College.

"At times I stand amazed at the bitterness and hate voiced by some of those who are preaching unity. I do not mean hatred of Hitler and all his works—that I can comprehend—but hatred of Americans. They seem to think that because they were interventionists before the Japs unloaded their bombs on Pearl Harbor they are now delegated to regiment all American opinion and crack over the head all who do not agree with them. They ignore completely the new spirit that I have seen rising since Pearl Harbor—the unspoken determination of the average citizen to see things through to the end."

—Harry Hanson, in the World-Telegram.

"There is a studied effort to destroy the faith and confidence of the American people in their elected representatives."

—Speaker Sam Rayburn, at Muhlenberg College.

"For some months now, there's been a definite, unmistakable trend to smear and discredit and ridicule your machinery of self-government —the Congress of the United States. I can't say it's a campaign or a deliberate plot, because I can't prove that. But I do say that the smearing and discrediting and ridiculing is going on just the same, and the ultimate results are just the same. These attacks on Congress as Congress—on Congress as a whole—are certainly open to suspicion in that they have systematically been based on the grossest sort of misrepresentation . . . actual lies and distortions of fact, which have gained such headway that they find their way into leading editorials of reputable newspapers, columnists, radio commentators."

—Fulton Lewis, Jr., on the Mutual Network.

"Their real reason for the attempted purge is to eliminate those members of Congress who have been actively combatting the subversive influence of Communism in this country. Their ultimate objective is to gain control of organized labor, industry and finally the government itself."

—Representative Karl E. Mundt, on the floor of the House.

"Such a popular approach to the election is one which the Biddles, the Wallaces, the MacLeishes, the Aubrey Williamses and all the others must, however, do everything they can to forefend. What good would victory in the war be if we came out of it with a Congress dedicated to the preservation of democratic republicanism, to the fostering of the evolutionary competitive economic system and to the repudiation of all socialistic, totalitarian programs for the universal distribution of poverty? Why, dammit, capitalism might put us on our feet again."

—HEPTISAX, in the New York Herald-Tribune.

"If Herr Doktor Goebbels can plant in the thinking of enough Americans sufficiently divisive counsels, if he can sow enough doubts and antagonisms among us, and can array labor against capital, white against Colored, Irishmen against Jews, and Protestants against Catholics, he will have weakened our national fiber so fatally as to make successful allied prosecution of the war almost hopeless."

—Virginius Dabney, in the Saturday Review of Literature.

"The important thing is that we are in the midst of a bitter and bloody war and we must win or perish.

"We will not win if our country is split into two squabbling factions. We have mighty enemies to face and we had better take a leaf out of Hitler's book and face them with a united front. Germany and Japan —not fellow Americans—are the guys we have to beat."

—Hempstead (N. Y.) Newsday.

I

Native Nazi Nihilists

It will be so easy to vote "right" this fall.

No need to exercise even ordinary intelligence in considering a candidate's qualifications. It will be as easy as voting "Ja" in Nazi Germany . . . if everything goes according to plan.

The heavy thinking has been done already.

A handful of American Hitlers—who picture themselves as Red-White-and-Blue "non-partisans"—have decided what's best for the rest of us. Whether we like it or not, they intend to see to it that we have Legislators and other public officials who measure up to their own low standard of character and conduct—men who will blindly follow a Leftist "party line" with their heads in a fog and their feet planted firmly in the clouds.

The campaign to tell us what's what and what we had better do on election day—or else—is already under way.

It is carried on by self-styled "liberals," "progressives," "friends of labor" and "friends of democracy" whose principal stock-in-trade is name-calling. They are super-patriots, they insist. All others who don't see eye to eye through the same "pink" colored glasses—yet good Americans by every other test of loyalty—are "Nazis," "Fascists," "appeasers," "isolationists" or "obstructionists" and ipso facto "anti-Semitic," "anti-Negro" and "anti-labor."

And just who are these self-appointed, self-righteous would-be protectors of our political integrity who ceremoniously and brazenly parade their professions of purer-than-the-driven-snow patriotism, and who have the consummate gall to attempt to impose their will on Americans?

It has been charged in Congress, and by the Dies Committee, too, that the leaders in this vicious project are Communists.

Some are Communists. Some were Communists. Some are worse than Communists.

The truth is, they are alien-minded super-collectivists of varying scarlet hues. And, despite their loud sneers and jeers and hymns of hate against Hitler, their own ideology makes them dutiful disciples of his cruel philosophy.

They laugh at Hitler's pretense of an Aryan super-race and then set themselves up as synthetic supermen in America—and follow in his footsteps.

Our Government's Office of Facts and Figures in a recent pamphlet declared:

> "To destroy our national unity, create unrest in all groups of the population and deflect us from our major purpose—the defeat of the Axis—Hitler is trying to set capital against labor, white against negro, Catholic against Protestant, Christian against Jew. He knows that prejudice, in any form, plays his game."

In every particular of this indictment of Hitler's purpose these paralogic patrioteers have served his cause.

They are promoting the class war.

They are agitating the Negro question.

They are raising the religious issue.

They are stirring up anti-Semitism.

They are the disseminators of dissension and disunity.

They are furthering Hitler's "divide and conquer" strategy through which he has promised to defeat America.

They are Nazis at heart.

They are Nazis in fact—Native Nazis.

In the true Nazi tradition they have fathered a pernicious plot to purge Congress and at the same time are pushing plans to emasculate the two-party system of government which has been the foundation of our political success as a nation.

Emulating Hitler they have begun to suppress free speech in America.

Like their Nazi brethren they hate truth, especially in the printed word. Figuratively speaking, they became "Nazi book burners" when they organized campaigns advocating boycott and suppression against writers and publications of standing, with which they disagreed.

And, in common with Hitler's National Socialists, they have an all-embracing scapegoat—capitalism—at which a constant barrage of propaganda is directed.

But these are only first steps.

Behind these outward manifestations is a sinister conspiracy to destroy all of our traditional institutions and the American way of life.

The ultimate aim is to establish a "New Order"—a super-special brand of Socialist Hitlerism embodying the "best" features of Marx's Communism, Stalin's Sovietism, Laski's Leninism and Browder's Bolshevism, all carefully camouflaged with a sugar coating of New Order demagogery and glamorized with Henry Wallace's wishful thinking—expressed in pretty phrases.

The mechanism through which the scheme is to be put over is a crazy-quilt of supercilious organizations composed of and run by Communists, Socialists and Left-wing New Dealers; Union Now-ers, Post War-riors and New Orderites; interventionists and peace advocates; a few alien-minded natives and newly arrived refugees; some plain and fancy fanatics and a fair representation of common, ordinary, run-of-the-mill radicals.

Helping to assure success is a corporal's guard of Red and Pink and even a few quite colorless newspapers and periodicals goose-stepping along together in the drive to abolish "free" elections in America—and eventually to abolish America, too.

The campaign of intrigue is being organized by an almost unbelievable conglomeration of the weirdest of strange bedfellows, including a smattering of good, loyal Americans who have been "taken in" and are being "used"—as dupes and pawns—in what amounts to a disloyal and un-American enterprise.

That some are being fooled is understandable. After all, these scheming scoundrels posed as patriots and pretended they would "clean out" Congress to promote unity and win the war.

Although the paradox should have been obvious, nevertheless many important "names" have been loaned for window-dressing. It is vital, therefore, while this propaganda drive is being organized on a national scale, that the American people be warned. They must not be permitted to become confused. They must learn the truth—before it is too late—before their confusion contributes to a totalitarian victory on the home front.

In order to get a clearer picture then, just take a look at some of the ringleaders of this fantastic fraternity—a few high-priests of the conspiracy:

The man who wrote the original program for the American Communist Party.

A Marxist minister of the gospel who acted as midwife at the birth of a Communist-Socialist society for students.

A self-confessed dupe of Axis agents who wears the uniform of a commissioned officer of high rank in the United States Navy.

A socialite editor who became the staunchest defender of the Communist "party line" and who won national attention for his courageous fight to dodge the draft.

A few leaders of a Red school convicted under the espionage act during the last war for "feloniously obstructing enlistment service of the U. S."

A goat-bearded writer of murder mysteries who received his early training editing a Communist magazine.

A mercenary preacher who when eased out of his pulpit tried unsuccessfully to organize a "socialist church" and who now prospers as the promoter of "smear" campaigns.

The granddaughter of a man who helped finance the Russian Revolution.

A fabulously wealthy playboy with an Oxford accent who manages by subterfuge to escape paying the usual taxes on his swollen income.

And behind the scenes, quite free with expensive advice to at least two of these curious characters, lurks a former Russian revolutionary —a one-time Commissar in the Kerensky régime.

As a final indication of the general make-up of the whole conspirative camarilla, most of the Red publications being used to further the scheme are listed by the U. S. Army as unsuitable for soldiers to read, while one, at least, was registered with the State Department as the organ of a foreign agent.

(And these people are going to tell US how to vote.)

Should the cabalistic clique behind this evil undertaking be successful in their plans, nothing but disunity could follow and the inevitable result would be a serious interference with the war effort. It might mean winning the war, but losing what we're fighting for. It could even mean losing the war to win what THEY are fighting for.

II

Smearing the Senate

Charlie (Mud-Slinger) Michelson, petulant press poohbah for the Democratic National Committee, quite unconsciously no doubt, set the tenor of the scurrilous smear campaign now being waged against Congress. Months ago (and with a straight face), he blamed the election of "an isolationist House of Representatives" in 1918 for all of our subsequent troubles—including the depression and this war.

But in spite of this and notwithstanding the fact that Democratic Chairman ("Paving-Block") Flynn said Republicans were traitors at heart, and pleaded, therefore, that none but Democrats should be elected to the next Congress, the "purge" movement, to date, has been amazingly free from partisan taint—in the ordinary sense.

The elections this year, if certain people of questionable political antecedents have anything to say about it, will not be the usual contests between Democrats and Republicans. Already party lines are being ignored while major political groups are prevailed upon or intimidated to withhold support or enter into "deals" with opposition party "blocs" on behalf of other candidates—so as to insure the defeat of incumbents marked for slaughter.

For propaganda purposes the intended victims are linked together and smeared with a broad brush as "isolationists," a characterization which is supposed to imply treason. The public, it is expected, will readily agree that all those so labeled are disloyal and must be "liquidated" for the good of the country and to insure our winning the war.

When the "purgers" get down to cases, however, it soon develops that all this is just something to talk about. Their real test of a Congressman's fitness to continue in office seems to be concerned in some way with rubber stamps, love for St. Joe Stalin and how many quarts of milk the underprivileged of all the world will get from us after the war.

This nationally organized unconventional "non-partisan" fight on hand-picked "purgees" has all the earmarks of a holy war. It is being staged as a pious crusade against evil, but on closer inspection it reveals itself as a well-planned blitzkreig of ultra-Leftists, flying the banner of the New Deal. They are determined to annihilate courageous Americans in Congress who insist on defending Constitutional government. Such Congressmen are condemned to political death—the subsequent death of the American system is certain if the people fail to realize the true significance of this vile and treacherous assault on our traditional institutions.

The tocsin to battle was sounded early in March by Attorney General Francis Biddle at a gathering of the New Deal's left-wing inner circle at Washington's exclusive Cosmos Club. Biddle is a Leftist of long standing who used to write poetry for a Communist magazine which was edited by Robert Minor, head of the Communist Party while Browder was in jail.

The "political fight" for liberalism, the Attorney General declared, must be carried on regardless of the war. AND this at a time when conscientious Americans of both political persuasions were agreed that politics-as-usual should be abandoned for the duration.

"Hold the political trench," cried Mr. Biddle, as he proceeded to picture the passing of our two-party system of government by declaring that the New Deal "was not just a group of theorists or liberals . . . it is a political party tied up with the labor movement under an able political leader."

The meeting, which was in commemoration of the tenth year of the New Deal, was sponsored by The New Republic, a weekly magazine described as an "advocate of revolutionary socialism" by a New York State Legislative Committee which investigated subversive movements. Michael Straight, Washington correspondent for the publication, was toastmaster and in his unguarded closing remarks he said:

"The New Deal is more dynamic than Fascism and more revolutionary than Communism."

(And no one, mind you, denied it.)

Just before the end of the same month another significant dinner meeting of radicals was held in the Capital at the Hotel Willard. Here again high government officials with Leftist leanings—Justice Felix Frankfurter and the high-priced propaganda boys of Red Poet Archibald MacLiesh's Government Office of Facts and Figures among them—were in attendance, together with their intimate alter egos from Union Square, New York. During the course of the evening there were many angry references to members of Congress by the various speakers and spirited applause greeted such outbursts as:

> "The Senate must be taught the facts of life . . . the important thing is to put an end to criticism by whatever means may be necessary. Be as ruthless as the enemy . . . Get him on his income tax or the Mann Act . . . Hang him, shoot him, or lock him up in a concentration camp."
> (Talk about Nazi technique! And we are fighting a war to rid the world of a system which employs hanging, shooting and concentration camps!)

Although there had been considerable sniping against individual members of both the Senate and the House since early in the year, it was just four weeks later, on international May Day appropriately, that the first bombshell exploded in Washington. Sort of a stench-bomb, to be exact.

The New York Post in an exclusive story told a fantastic tale of enemy intrigue in Brooklyn and made grave charges against a certain "Senator X" under the banner headline:

LINK SENATOR TO SPY NEST

This unnamed Senator was accused of being a frequent visitor to a "house of degradation" where soldiers and sailors were said to have been "plied with liquor" to obtain from them information of value to the enemy. He was further supposed to have been discovered talking to an alien suspected of being a "spy in behalf of the Nazis."

(The nameless Senator was an "isolationist" of course.)

For several days the Post regaled its readers with a daily rehash of the story. All the sordid details, including sly inferences and filthy innuendoes, were raked over and embellished while headlines and illustrations, including a faceless silhouette which might have looked like any one of half the Upper House, were designed to whip up public curiosity and interest in the identity of the mysterious and monstrous "Senator X."

In the meantime the whole of the Senate was under a cloud of suspicion.

Then Lt. Comdr. Walter Winchell, in both his gossip column and his toilet lotion broadcast, pointed the finger of scorn and guilt directly at four members of the Senate by announcing that the suspected traitor's name began with "the twenty-third letter of the alphabet."

And a so-called newspaper named PM which, because it follows the Communist party line, is commonly referred to as the uptown edition of the Daily Worker, explained to its readers that Senator Walsh was "Senator X."

By this time the affair was becoming a national scandal and, in an endeavor to protect the good name of the Senate, Democratic Leader Barkley asked the Department of Justice to conduct a thorough investigation as to the truth or falsity of the charges.

In the face of this development and having done all the wholesale damage it could, the New York Post finally identified Democratic Senator David I. Walsh, Chairman of the Senate Naval Affairs Committee, as the person accused. Senator Walsh, a pre-Pearl Harbor "isolationist," immediately branded the whole story as "a diabolical lie" and at the suggestion of Senator Barkley withheld further action pending receipt of a report from the Department of Justice.

On May 20, Mr. Barkley told the Senate that the Department of Justice had completely exonerated Senator Walsh of "conspiring with enemy aliens," . . . that he had not been involved in any way . . . and further that there was no evidence of spy activities in the case . . . in short, that the whole story was untrue.

The investigation disclosed that the charges had been based on an "alleged affidavit" made by a criminal convicted of "an offense too loathesome to mention in the Senate," as Senator Barkley put it, and that under questioning by the F. B. I., the convict admitted having signed the document without first reading it and without any knowledge as to its contents. He signed the paper, he said, because his lawyer, H. L. Strelzin, asked him to.

In the debate Senator Wheeler charged that Judge Samuel Leibowitz threatened to impose a twenty-year sentence on the then newly-convicted defendant "unless he told the story that Judge Leibowitz and the New York Post wanted told." It also developed that Morris Ernst, attorney for the Post, sat with Judge Leibowitz during part of the man's trial.

Senator Wheeler said he believed there was "a diabolical plot on the part of some persons in New York to smear every Senator who disagreed with them on foreign policy prior to Pearl Harbor," and together with Senator Bennett Clark declared that at least four persons who participated in the smearing should be brought before the bar of the Senate for questioning. These included:

Mrs. Dorothy Backer, publisher of the New York Post,

Judge Samuel Leibowitz,

Morris Ernst,

Lt. Comdr. Walter Winchell, U.S.N.

At times the New York Post has been decidedly left-wing . . . it has shown definite Marxist tendencies, which is not surprising since its owner, Dorothy Schiff Backer, is a prominent member and leader of the Women's Trade Union League which, according to a document seized by government agents in 1922, was considered as part of the open and above-board machinery of the then underground and illegal Communist Party of America. Mrs. Backer is the granddaughter of Jacob Schiff, New York banker who helped finance the Russian Revolution of 1917, as well as the abortive insurrection of 1905.

Judge Leibowitz will be remembered as an attorney in the sensational Scottsboro case, a well-known Communist cause celebre. Interesting is the fact that one of the negro boys who had been sentenced to death on rape charges, then freed and brought to New York from Alabama by Judge Leibowitz, has just been arrested and convicted again, in Brooklyn, for molesting a young white woman in the subway.

For years Morris Ernst has been one of the leading legal lights of the American Civil Liberties Union, an organization described by a Committee of Congress which investigated subversive activities as "closely affiliated with the Communist movement in the United States." The recent Legislative inquiry in Massachusetts reported "the propaganda of this organization is dictated and dominated by Communists and Communist sympathizers."

Lt. Comdr. Walter Winchell's specialty has been the dissemination of dirty gossip, but he has won notoriety, too, as a long-time pal of gangsters and as a recipient of their favors. Congress knows him as the sponsor of John Spivak, the most scurrilous Communist propagandist of our times who did such a nasty job trying to blacken the American Red Cross.

Lt. Commander Winchell is a self-confessed dupe of Axis agents, having given wide circulation to their planted propaganda as admitted in his column of February 2, 1942.

Lt. Commander Winchell is "that commentator who disgraced the uniform of the Navy of the United States," said Senator Clark during debate on the Walsh matter.

This loathsome and revolting plot was fittingly described by Congressman Edwin Hall as "a dirty smear campaign by a dirty set of dirty people."

In support of the demand for a Senate investigation of this whole affair, Senator Nye said:

> "I believe that a reasonable inquiry by the Senate would reveal the existence of a secret organization which has been operating for two years to gather such information as it can that will smear the individual members of the Senate."

(Senator Nye apparently knows something! To quote a well-known non-fighting Naval officer: "Why isn't something done about it?")

"If the propagandists and the smear artists can persuade the people to discredit their own voice, their own will, their own agency of control—the Congress—then a government of, by, and for the people will have disappeared from the North American Continent."

Conspiracy Against Congress

Washington was shocked by the Walsh affair.

But the wiseacres said: "It's all over now—forget it."

But it wasn't over—not even time to catch a good breath in between—before it happened again.

In mid-May, the New Republic arrived on the newsstands with a supplement—a 32-page diatribe and slightly disguised Red blacklist which named 91 legislators and singled out 3 Senators and 26 Representatives as "bad men in Congress—whose re-election would in our opinion constitute a danger to the country."

Titled "A Congress to Win the War," the brazen implication was that unless these Congressmen were turned out of office the war would be lost.

This amazing presentation calling for the defeat of Senators and Representatives, on the alleged ground that they were "isolationists" who had opposed the Administration's foreign policies "before Pearl Harbor," was sponsored jointly by the left-wing New Republic and a left-handed outfit called the Union for Democratic Action, which numbers Morris Ernst and Dorothy Schiff Backer among its members.

The Union boasted that this defamatory document was "the opening gun of a campaign" and that it already had "experienced organizers, a competent Washington office, and offices and groups working in key communities through the country."

Revealing that a million copies of the New Republic blacklist were being printed to start with, an appeal to political workers and leaders said:

> "Campaign committees are urged to employ this supplement against the candidates they want defeated."

To help the drive along, the "Union" has been buying full page ads in local newspapers and has sponsored meetings and radio broadcasts in the various Congressional districts it has taken under its protecting wing. In New York it broadcasts regularly over the Socialist Radio Station WEVD . . . named after America's Reddest revolutionist, Eugene Victor Debs, who went to jail for opposing the last war.

(Of course, all this costs money. But a great deal can be done when checks in four figures begin to roll in. For example, some of this was paid for with a little check for $1800.00 contributed by Louie Rabinowitz, a manufacturer of hooks and eyes. Now, why would Russian born Louie be interested in spending that kind of money to "purge" some Congressman in Michigan or Wisconsin?)

A close inspection of this vicious "purge list" discloses that far from being "isolationists" several of those named had supported the Administration's foreign policy 100% and all of them had voted for national defense measures.

Further examination develops that there was but one interest all of them had in common . . . they were anti-Communist pro-Americans . . . and they had upheld the Dies Committee.

Curiously enough the name of Congressman Vito Marcantonio, who had the worst "isolationist" record of all, was not on the list. He had consistently voted against every defense measure . . . until he practically stopped in the middle of a speech denouncing American preparedness for war to turn and support it when Soviet Russia ended its honeymoon with Hitler. He was entitled to re-election! He had vigorously opposed the Dies Committee and he heads one of the principal Communist "fronts."

Marcantonio fought the Roosevelt program harder than anybody else while he was the lone champion in Congress of the Stalin-Hitler Axis, but it is no longer patriotic or "democratic" to purge a Communist!

When this inconsistency in reasoning was alluded to by too many critics, the Union for Democratic Action sought to cover up its obvious Communist bias by including Marcantonio's name along with 16 others in a post card poll it is now conducting to determine the "ten worst Congressmen." But inasmuch as the ballots are only being sent to a carefully selected list of "liberals," there is not much chance that our one lone Communist Congressman will win a place among the first 10 to be honored.

The UDA divided its "isolationists" and "obstructionists" in Congress into two "main forces"; "the Republicans of the North and Middle West . . . small town lawyers, doctors and merchants . . . the tools for schemers," and "Southern reactionaries" who believe in "the war against progress" and use the Dies Committee "to hound liberals" and "Congress as a sounding board for divisionist speeches."

But it lumps them all together when it utters the contemptible and unspeakable lie that:

> "This minority of obstructionists turned to the despicable Nazi trick of asserting that it was the Jews who were leading America into the war."

There was no evidence presented to prove such a statement against any of those listed, much less against all of them. There could be no such evidence. This is a palpable attempt to stir up anti-Semitism so that Leftist subversives may continue to capitalize on this fraudulent issue which has been artificially maintained by the very forces (and some within their own household) who pretend and presume to be the protectors and defenders of the Jews.

They, themselves, are guilty of "the despicable Nazi trick."

Hamilton Fish, Jr., seems to be the UDA's pet hate, but even after using their best inferences, innuendoes and lying libels, they can't seem to make out much of a case. In fact, the Union started on "Ham" even before the publication of its magazine-sized booklet of blather and bombast. They wrote the Department of Justice (solely for newspaper publicity purposes) demanding a probe of Fish's "suspiciously close collaboration with Hitler's agents" because he had been "actively promoting the distribution of a Nazi propaganda book in this country."

It appears there was some slight basis on which to hang a letter —that is, if a little misrepresentation didn't matter, for way back in 1933 the Congressman did allow his name to be used endorsing an exposé of Communism in Germany which, incidentally, was being distributed by a Committee of Americans under the leadership of General John Ross Delafield, General Samuel MacRoberts and General Walter Cole.

"Do you want a Ham Fish Congress?" the Union for Democratic Action wants to know in its pamphlet, after it had tried with little success to picture Congressman Fish as a modern Benedict Arnold . . . telling its readers in so many words that all the others named were equally as "disloyal" and "unpatriotic." But black as they tried to paint "Ham" Fish, there was one Congressman who was even worse. "The most dangerous man of all," these slippery slanderers averred, "is Joseph Martin."

(Honest, able, sincere and courageous Joe Martin . . . a real American . . . remember when Democrats and Republicans alike voted him the most popular man in Congress?)

The Union chose their victims according to the way they voted on 20 arbitrarily selected issues. The surprising thing is that the UDA wants to purge only 91 Congressmen, because if this yardstick is applied to the voting record of the entire Congress (531 Senators and Representatives), there are but 30 odd men who deserve re-election.

If this was a Presidential election year and they applied their test of fitness to the President's record it would be just too bad for Franklin D. Roosevelt.

To be sure they have already been quite critical of the President's foreign policy, but only in respect to Vichy. They made so many unwarranted attacks on the State Department that Secretary Hull decided to find out what was behind it all and requested an official agency to investigate the UDA and furnish him with the information.

The report based on this inquiry reads:

> "The Union for Democratic Action, despite its name, is an aggregation of persons whose chief claim to public attention is their long record of affiliation with the front organizations of the Communist Party.
> "Even more sinister than the past records of the union's members is the objective of the group. That objective may be summarized briefly as the utilization of America's war crisis for the purpose of effecting what the union believes to be a program of social gains. Translated into stark realism, the union's idea of social gains is in the entrenchment of the proponents of class struggle even more deeply into American life.
> "The case against the Union for Democratic Action may be stated in brief by calling attention to the fact that its outstanding leaders have long records of affiliation with the numerous front organizations of the Communist Party.
> "To cite only a few of these individuals, the following may be named: Reinhold Niebuhr, Freda Kirchwey, John L. Childs, Frank Kingdon, A. Philip Randolph, Herman F. Reissig, Margaret Forsyth, and Morris Schappner. These eight individuals, who are typical of the entire membership of the Union for Democratic Action, have had at least 192 affiliations with Communist front organizations. The affiliations with Communist fronts of all the members of the union would represent a grant total of several thousand.
> "Glancing at the lists of Communist fronts in which the foregoing eight individuals have been active as leaders, we find the following: American League for Peace and Democracy, American League against War and Fascism, American Committee for Democracy and Intellectual Freedom, American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, Medical Bureau and North American Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy, American Student Union, American Youth Congress, National Negro Congress, the New Masses, the Communist Party, and the League of American Writers."

When, recently, after the New Republic-UDA anti-Congress supplement appeared, a storm of criticism broke against the Union for Democratic Action and some of this information was published in the press, Secretary Hull tried to find his secret report. Strangely enough it was not with the data in the UDA folder in the State Department files marked "Communist Activities" . . . it was nowhere to be found.

It makes little difference, however, whether Secretary of State Hull ever finds his secret memorandum again or not, because on June 24 the Dies Committee issued a special report on the movement "aimed at destroying our representative form of government" and exposed the Union for Democratic Action in a slightly more thorough fashion.

It pointed out, for example, that 27 leaders in the UDA were prominently identified with the American League Against War and Fascism, which, the Committee said, was "nothing more or less than a bold advocate of treason," and proved it by quoting from its program.

And this time, regardless of any slurs, the Dies Committee can't be wrong because this is the same organization which was branded as a Communist front, just a few weeks ago, by Attorney General Biddle in his deportation order against Harry Bridges.

The Dies report unmasked the Union's research director who goes by the name of "Lewis Corey" as Louis Fraina, one of the original organizers of the Communist Party in the United States and its first temporary chairman; the editor of the first Communist publication in this country; a member of the Executive Committee of the Comintern in Moscow; a Red agent stationed in Berlin; and once commissioned by Lenin to organize a Communist revolution in Mexico.

The Committee also disclosed that "Corey," or Fraina, wrote the original Communist program for the overthrow of the United States Government.

And fittingly enough Fraina did most of the writing and planning for the UDA in connection with its "vituperative and scurrilous" purge pamphlet being sent broadcast throughout the country. A private investigation disclosed that members of Fraina's UDA Research Council, who helped him decide which of our American Congressmen were loyal enough to continue in office, are Solomon Fabricant, Eduard Heinmann, Simon Kuznets, Sterling Spero, Carl J. Friedrich, Selig Perlman, Abram Harris and Hans Simons.

"Fraina is not the only leader of the Union for Democratic Action who has tried to conceal his real identity under a new name," the Dies report declared. "Listed on the union's letterhead as a sponsor of the organization is one J. B. S. Hardman. Hardman's real name is Jacob Salutsky, born in Grodno, Russia. Like Fraina, Salutsky was once a nationally prominent leader of the Communist Party of the United States."

"In later years," the reference continued, "Salutsky, alias Hardman, was a leader of an organization known as the Conference for Progressive Labor Action. The program of this organization, in whose writing Salutsky had a major part, called for the destruction of the 'sham democracy' of the United States. The publicly avowed purpose . . . . contained the following:

> "It aims to inspire the workers to take control of industry and government, abolish the capitalist system, and build a workers' republic.'"

Along with its analysis of the backgrounds and associations of the union's principal leaders, the report contained an elaborate chart showing the connections of 50 officers, directors and sponsors of the union with 25 separate Communist agencies or fellow-traveler front movements. It was also stated flatly: "At least 11 of the 50 leaders of the Union for Democratic Action listed on the foregoing chart have public records of affiliation with the Communist Party."

"The only possible conclusion which can be drawn from the union's position," the report declared, "is that it belongs to that relatively small group of radicals who are trying to use the war emergency to advance their own revolutionary programs within the United States."

That this organization has a revolutionary program of its own becomes clearly evident when its cleverly camouflaged "Program for Americans" is carefully analyzed. According to this UDA manifesto, "democracy" is a "a liberating revolutionary force" while the Union's aim is the "extension of economic democracy." Truly, a unique way of describing revolutionary socialism.

"Liberals and democrats must recognize that basic changes and new social arrangements are necessary," the program declares. (The Communists say the same thing with weightier wordage.) Then it begins to mouth familiar Red phrases about "the vices and injustices of capitalism," "the efforts of reactionary interests to lower living standards," and "the incompetence and greed of big business."

"There are men in the legislative bodies," the document continues, who "do Hitler's work of 'softening' the country for fascism," the peril of which stems from "outworn capitalist economic relations."

"Planning," the program says, is the solution to this latter problem, concerning which it explains:

> "Among the strategic controls for democratic planning are socialization of the great banks, a measure of government investment, and transformation of monopoly corporations into public service corporations with democratic administration by management AND labor unions."

(Just as in Nazi Germany and Soviet Russia!)

In naming active collaborators in the plot, the Dies Committee listed five publications:

> "Henry Luce's Time magazine has been drawn sucker-fashion into this movement to alter our form of government by attacking its legislative branch," the report said.
> "Our investigation has shown," the report continues, "that a steady barrage against Congress comes from Marshall Field's PM (sometimes described as the uptown edition of the Daily Worker); from the New Republic, one of whose editors, Malcolm Cowley, was recently forced out of an $8,000 Government job by the exposure of his Communist activities; from the two Communist Party publications, the Daily Worker and the New Masses.
> "Following the pattern of the New Republic and the Union for Democratic Action, the magazine New Masses, weekly organ of the Communist Party, features an article entitled: 'Wanted, a Victory Congress.' This article also ridicules the Congress of the United States and publishes the pictures of the Members of Congress in exactly the same fashion as that used by Henry Luce's Time magazine. The article in the New Masses was written by Bruce Minton, alias Richard Bransten, alias Richard Bandenstein."

Reinhold Niebuhr, Chairman of the Union for Democratic Action, the Dies report said, "has been a prolific exponent of Marxist philosophy." And to prove it, copious quotes from his writings were set forth. It was noted, too, that he was Secretary of an organization which calls itself the United Christian Council for Democracy—(commonly referred to by the initiated as the "Red Christian Front") whose platform states: "We reject the profit-seeking economy and the capitalistic way of life with its private ownership of the things upon which the lives of all depend."

The Committee declares that: "In the light of his voluminous writings and his political affiliations, it becomes farcical for Niebuhr to assert or imply that he merely desires 'a Congress to win the war.' What Niebuhr and his associates want is a Congress that will not interfere with their schemes for social revolution."

While the Dies report did not pursue the matter further, it seems pertinent to point out that Dr. Niebuhr, in 1935, stage-managed the amalgamation of the Communist National Student League and the Socialist Student League for Industrial Democracy into a new organization called the American Student Union. With Dr. Niebuhr's help this movement organized nation-wide student strikes against war . . . and against the R. O. T. C. Money to finance these strikes came from the Emergency Peace Campaign, in which Niebuhr was also a leader.

Likewise this rabid Win-the-War-rior was a leading member of the War Resisters League, American affiliate of the revolutionary Communist-Socialist War Resisters Internationale. Its pledge for enrollment, which Rev. Mr. Niebuhr obviously signed, says:

> "I declare it to be my intention never to take part in war, offensive or defensive, international or civil, whether it be by bearing arms, making or handling munitions, voluntary subscribing to war loans, or using my labor for the purpose of setting others free for war service."
> (You know, Doctor, that sounds mighty like treason.)

The President and active leader of the UDA is Dr. Frank Kingdon, who while a leading "interventionist" was at the same time a member of the Executive Board of the American Committee for Democracy and Intellectual Freedom, whose policy the report says "has fluctuated in complete conformity with the line of the Communist Party."

Strange as it may seem, this other organization of Dr. Kingdon's was opposed to all war efforts until Soviet Russia became a participant, and its head, Dr. Franz Boas, was a leader in the movement which picketed the White House to the very day that Hitler marched into Russia.

When anyone implies that Dr. Kingdon's activities and connections are a little bit off color . . . that they reek of alien philosophies and interests . . . he flies into a boiling rage. On the least provocation he will declare in high indignation that he is a better American than any native because, being alien-born he didn't have to be an American, but became one by his own choice . . . just like Fritz Kuhn.

But, does Dr. Kingdon act like the American he says he is?

What is his reaction to the Dies Committee report? What does the active head of the UDA say to all the criticism that has been leveled against his organization and its un-American "purge" campaign?

Ten days after the Dies report was released, Senator Taft debated with Dr. Kingdon over a radio network about the propriety or impropriety of the "purge" and among other things asked him about the Communists and fellow-travelers who predominated in his organization.

Dr. Kingdon was amazed that such a question should be asked. It wasn't fair, he implied. It was all untrue, he was sure, but he couldn't answer specifically because the Dies Committee hadn't sent him a copy of the report, he said. So, not having read the report (or the newspapers?) he had no idea what charges had been made. He suggested that Senator Taft should have a Senate Committee investigate the "un-American" activities of the Dies Committee. He was positive in any event that there were no Communists on his Committee.

Maybe not, but since Dr. Kingdon doesn't think so and evidently isn't going to believe the Dies Committee anyway, it might interest him to have the following brief bits of information about a few of his close associates and sponsors in the UDA:

> Gardner Jackson, who is a special assistant to the Under Secretary of Agriculture, has the principal say-so in spending more than a Million Dollars (through the Marshall Fund) to help bring Communism to America.
> Walter Reuther, who led the bloody sit-down strikes in Michigan, received his education in the finer points of revolutionary strategy in Moscow and with his brother Victor coined the stirring phrase: "Carry on the fight for a Soviet America."
> John Brophy, who journeyed to Moscow in the twenties, was accused by John L. Lewis of bringing funds from Soviet Russia to stir up labor troubles in the coal fields and later ran against Lewis for the presidency of the United Mine Workers with Communist backing.

Ludwig Lore, who has been doing propaganda work for the Government, was for many years a leading Socialist, then helped to build the Communist Party and was found guilty, in Illinois, of conspiracy to overthrow the United States Government. In recent years he was a columnist for the New York Post and a lecturer on the Socialist radio station WEVD.

Frank P. Graham, who is now on the War Labor Board, was a member of the Advisory Council of the Moscow State University Summer School, was affiliated with ten Communist "fronts" and was the first president of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare, identified by Earl Browder as a Communist "transmission belt."

So much for that!

Dr. Kingdon and other apologists for the UDA try to make the point that their activity is quite proper because it is directed against individual members of Congress, who are "lacking in vision," . . . etc.

Actually their purpose is to undermine public confidence in Congress as an institution of representative government. This is borne out by the broad attacks they have made against Congress, without qualification or justification.

They have accused Congress of being responsible for "Pearl Harbor on top of Pearl Harbor" while their Washington lobbyist, Thomas R. Amlie, once barred from a place on the ICC because the Senate, confronted with his Communist record, refused to confirm, now has his inning to declare:

"This is the worst Congress in the memory of the present generation.

The Dies Committee recognizes the issue for what it is. Its report declares that it is a question "whether the Congress of the United States shall be the reality or the relic of American democracy."

And regarding the "purge" it concludes:

"If this movement ever reaches its fulfillment, we shall find ourselves bearing a striking resemblance to the hateful thing against which we are now mobilizing our total resources."

IV

"Semi-Official" Purge Party

General headquarters of the smear campaign forces are not found in Washington—they are in New York. One division is at 50 East 13th St., New York City—location of the editorial rooms and presses of the Communist Daily Worker and National offices of the Communist Party.

Here in the sinister squalor of the Little Kremlin and with the likenesses of Marx, Lenin and Stalin looking down from the walls in approval and encouragement, its High Command formulates the major strategy and outlines the tactics to be used.

From this musty G.H.Q., "operations orders" are relayed to Field Adjutant Adam Lapin, Washington "correspondent," who, in turn, releases them to the "lieutenants of the line" through the official bulletin of his Daily Worker column.

On April 19, 1942, Lapin wrote:

> "A sharp attack on the appeasers is critically important in terms of the primary elections for Congress . . . What is being done about defeatist members of Congress like Reps. Stephen Day, Clare Hoffman and Ham Fish and Senators Burton K. Wheeler and Gerald P. Nye . . . The administration has not yet organized on a large enough scale a real propaganda drive against the appeasers and their doctrines."

Immediately following this official dictum from smear campaign G.H.Q., the Writers' War Board, "party-line" affiliate of the Office of Civilian Defense, went into action.

Operating "unofficially" under the jurisdiction of the Arts Council of OCD, headed by Communist Fellow Traveler movie-actor Melvyn Douglas, the Writers' War Board importuned—with use of the government free mailing frank of the "Executive Office of the President" —all writers in the metropolitan New York area to attend a "war effort" mass-meeting at the Fulton Theatre May 18.

Ostensibly called to acquaint professional writers with the purpose and function of the Board and to solicit aid in the pen-is-mightierthan-the-sword rally, the mass-meeting quickly got down to its real purpose—the smear campaign demanded by the Daily Worker.

"We are as much interested in winning the war at home as we are in winning the war abroad—we will be very busy between now and November—we cannot remain indifferent to the re-election of such men as Congressman Barry, Senator Brooks, Representative Ham Fish and other isolationists," the audience of 300 was told by national WWB chairman Rex Stout, goat-bearded writer of lurid whodonits and former part-owner, executive, and contributing editor of the Communist weekly, the New Masses.

Stout's record as a Communist fellow-traveler is a prize exhibit of the Dies Committee.

He was a member of the notorious Communist "front," the American League for Peace and Democracy and today is playing a leading role in such organizations as the Friends of Democracy, Council for Democracy, Freedom House, and almost every other movement in the Smear-and-Purge circuit.

Melvyn Douglas,* too, has been affiliated with countless Communist and Red front organizations. His Red record is something to conjure with. He is on the Board of the Union for Democratic Action and, like other UDA leaders, changed his name.

The Writers' War Board, originally known as the Writers' War Committee, was formed last December assertedly to carry out a request by the treasury department for assistance in selling war bonds. It maintains New York headquarters in the high-rental skyscraper Chanin Building, with offices, a paid secretary, two stenographers and a file clerk furnished by OCD. It distributed its request for the Fulton Theatre mass-meeting under the postage-free frank of the executive office of the President, Office for Emergency Management. It also used the frank of the OFF and WPB.

Yet Stout repeatedly impressed upon the assembled writers that the Board was only "semi-official."

Previously, postage-free letters had been sent out asking for contributions to finance future activity, while gifts of $20 each were solicited to meet a current deficit.

After briefly and indifferently requesting that members of the audience furnish the Board with "morale building" material, Stout made a vehement plea for 15-minute political speeches to be used in the campaign against the 26 Representatives and three Senators marked

 "I thought Melvyn Douglas had gone into the OCD for the duration. Now, by golly, he's coming back to co-star in 'Miss Grant Takes Richmond' with Rita Hayworth. Yet none of our stars in uniform has been allowed to come back and make feature pictures." —Hedda Hopper, in the New York Daily News, July 6.

for "liquidation," particularly stressing the names of Sen. Waylan Brooks (R. Ill.), Rep. Stephen Day (R. Ill.), Rep. William B. Barry (D., N.Y.), and, of course, Rep. Ham Fish.

"You write the speeches," Stout urged the assembled writers, "send them to us and we'll place them where they will do the most good."

In addition to the 15-minute "purge" speeches, Stout also suggested that a letter-to-the-editor pressure campaign be put into action against the New York World-Telegram's courageous foe of un-American elements, Westbrook Pegler, and against such traditionally 100 per cent American newspapers as the New York Daily News, the Washington Times-Herald, the Chicago Tribune, and the Hearst publications, "and other mouthpieces of Hitler."

Pegler was "doing an outstanding job for the Nazis," Mr. Stout agreed, but, he said, while he had a great deal of faith in the power of words he felt they would be useless in Pegler's case. The only way to "get" Pegler was with a "meat axe," he declared. He suggested, nevertheless, that an avalanche of letters be sent directly to Mr. Roy Howard, Pegler's boss, "it might have an effect," he said.

Preceding the exhortations for the 15-minute purge speeches and following the perfunctory opening of the mass-meeting, a report of the "accomplishments" of the Writers' War Board was read by Clifton Fadiman, marcelled mentor of the radio quizz program "Information Please," leftist-boosting book reviewer for the New Yorker, and author-compiler of the New Masses symposium, "How I Came to Communism."

At the conclusion of the meeting, in response to a suggestion from the secretary of the Communist League of American Writers whose members had been invited along with members of the Newspaper Guild, Mr. Stout declared that the Writers War Board would write a letter expressing "solidarity" with the writers of the Soviet Union and offering "co-operation."

Recently this "semi-official" Government agency joined with the Red-tinged newspaper PM in conducting an essay contest among high school students.

The Communists' interest in sabotaging the contemporary political set-up and in suppressing outspoken writers and newspapers is indicated in a statement made by Earl Browder back in 1939 when he said: "The United States is most ripe, the most prepared for a quick transition to socialism." In outlining the new order he had in mind, he declared, among other things:

1. Opposition political parties would be "put out of business' and meet "the same fate" as the thirteen non-Communist parties that survived the revolution in Russia.
2. The press is a "great industry" and, therefore, it is impossible to think of it continuing as it is.

In 1939 Mr. Browder refused to commit himself directly as to whether punitive measures such as starvation and the constant "liquidation" of officials and leaders would be necessary to the establishment of a Soviet America.

Today insofar as the "liquidation" of officials and leaders is concerned we know the answer.

"We Want Willkie!"

The Government has distributed millions of copies of a booklet of warning telling the public how to recognize enemy Fifth Column activity. It explains how Hitler threatens to conquer America and quotes him as saying:

> "Mental confusion, indecisiveness, panic—these are our weapons."

Well, if that booklet and Hitler knew what they were talking about Mr. J. Edgar Hoover should send a regiment of G-men to New York right away because there's plenty of mental confusion, indecisiveness, and panic everywhere here . . . in the streets . . . in offices . . . in penthouses . . . and especially in the political clubs. The coming gubernatorial campaign has this state in an uproar.

While on the surface it may look like an ordinary political brawl which has gotten a little bit out of hand, careful inspection will disclose a sinister situation underneath. Even though it is much too early to talk about planks, pink and Red termites are already crawling in the woodwork.

Right after Governor Lehman announced he would not seek reelection anybody who would bet on a sure thing would have laid $100 to a dime that Democratic Attorney General John Bennett and Republican Gang-buster Tom Dewey would fight it out in the November election.

Then rumblings were heard in suspicious quarters and without being asked the American Labor Party announced that both candidates were unsatisfactory. In normal times gone by, when Americans took their politics straight and seriously, nobody would have paid much attention to this band of Reds, but times have changed.

Now, there was consternation in both camps. The ALP demanded a "liberal" candidate on each ticket, and when planted echoes sounded a similar demand the fat was in the fire for fair.

The American Labor Party was organized by the Communists and the Communist controlled CIO in 1936 after Earl Browder declared that such an organization would "represent a specific American application of the strategy of the People's Front, formulated on a world-wide scale at the Seventh World Congress (of the Communist Internationale)."

Charles Krumbein, one of the first of the Communist leaders to be jailed for passport fraud, and later State Secretary of the Communist Party, explained "exactly what organizational form the People's Front formation will take cannot be predicated in advance; but one thing is certain: the American Labor Party is the chief agency for such a development, and the backbone of the People's Front."

Today the Party has a right wing which the Left Wing declares is composed of "Trotskyites," while the Right Wing says the Left Wing is a bunch of "Stalinists." But in this fight they are agreed—they are working together.

The Left Wing, admittedly the Communist faction, is headed by Congressman Vito Marcantonio, national head of the legal arm of the Communist organization. The Right Wing, made up of self-styled "liberals," has three principal leaders: David Dubinsky, Luigi Antonini and Alex Rose.

Dubinsky, in his youth, served 18 months in a Russian prison for revolutionary activity and now heads the International Ladies Garment Workers Union which a New York Legislative Committee said "is closely affiliated with the Socialist Party of America," and further that it "seeks to bring about the overthrow of the present system of society."

A slick worker, Dubinsky borrowed $125,000 from the Red Garland Fund and $50,000 from Governor Lehman for his union, and raised $100,000 to help the Red Front in Spain.

Alex Rose, born Olesh Royz in Warsaw, was an instructor at the Communist Workers School. Later he became Vice-President of a CIO union and a member of the executive board of the Trade Union Institute of the Red Rand School.

Luigi Antonini, born in Italy, was the principal factor in financing the newspaper Stampa Libera, official organ of the Italian Bureau of the Communist Party, sponsored the Rand School Institute and supported the American Youth Congress, exposed so many times as a Communist front.

These were the so-called "anti-Communist" "liberal" leaders of the American Labor Party.

Their strategy was perfect, for they started a fire under both major parties at the same time. Dubinsky announced that he was in favor of drafting Wendell Willkie as the Republican candidate and promised his support. Antonini and Rose rushed off to the White House, where they spent more than an hour urging the President to insist on a "liberal" being nominated by the Democrats. The President's announcement that he, too, favored a "liberal" candidate followed.

A few other maneuvers reveal the American Labor Party's purpose and method. While joining whole-heartedly in the drive to "purge" Congress, and denouncing the Republicans at every turn, the Labor Party has made Representative Joseph Clark Baldwin, Republican, its candidate in the primary. Mr. Baldwin was one of the few members of Congress who voted against the Dies Committee.

In the State Legislative contests it has likewise exposed its hand when instead of nominating its own candidates in two instances it decided to endorse both a Democrat and a Republican as a sure-fire means of defeating the encumbents whose re-election it opposed.

The unlucky legislators are Senator Frederic R. Coudert, Jr., and Senator John L. Buckley, both members of the Rapp-Coudert Committee which uncovered Communist intrigue in the public schools. While Senator Coudert's opponent, Jerry Finkelstein, was charged by a Civil Service Employees Union with being identified with a Red Luncheon Club, which met to aid Communists in getting city jobs, Finkelstein explained that, being in the newspaper business, he "meets all kinds of people."

In the meantime the New York Post, PM and the Communist Daily Worker tried to outdo each other in promoting the idea that both Dewey and Bennett were "unacceptable." Read PM a minute:

After admitting that "both are honest, decent men who have served the people of New York State well in the offices they have held" (which ordinarily would have amounted to an endorsement), this so-called newspaper asked editorially:

> "Who wants to choose between Tom Dewey and John Bennett? We don't. It would be like choosing between the Ike and Mike who look alike."

How are they alike?

One is a Democrat, the other a Republican. One is Catholic, the other Protestant. Both were for all-out prosecution of the war . . . but this obviously wasn't the rub. What riled PM and all the rest was that both were Americans—both were outspoken against Communism.

The Daily Worker said as much openly when it accused Bennett of being a "friend of Fascist Franco" because he had presided at an anti-Communist mass meeting staged under the auspices of the International Catholic Truth Society during the Red civil war in Spain.

The Socialist paper, the New Leader, was a little more brazen. They almost made it a straight religious issue insofar as Bennett was concerned. The Catholic Church is anti-Communist . . . they must have reasoned, therefore it is pro-fascist and its priests are pro-fascist. Bennett, an ardent Irish Catholic, is known to have many Catholic priests among his friends. So says the New Leader: "Whatever Bennett's personal record may be, he is the creature of a clerico-political octopus whose loyalties are not with America." This after they explained that "Nazi sympathizers" were "hiding behind the skirts of native reaction and Irish-Italian clerico-fascism."

In a previous issue it was declared that a section of the Catholic Church "wants to go all-out for Hitler and fascism."

Everything in the campaign to sabotage the two-party election machinery in New York went like clockwork. The CIO (which John L. Lewis says is run by Communists—and he ought to know) at its State convention went on record against both Dewey and Bennett, while a full page ad in the New York Times called on the Republicans to repudiate Dewey and nominate Wendell Willkie.

This was followed by the announcement that Vote for Freedom, Inc., was starting a boom for Willkie. Letters signed by Richard S. Scandrett, Jr., were sent to members of the organization sounding them out on the proposal. In the letter Scandrett expressed opposition not only to Dewey, but to Bennett, as well.

"Either choice means defeat for everything we are organized to achieve," the letter said. Vote for Freedom, Inc., is an offshoot of Freedom House, which in turn is an offshoot of Fight For Freedom, Inc., organized originally at Mrs. Roosevelt's suggestion. Vote for Freedom's principal job will be to defeat "isolationist Congressmen," and since its boom for Willkie fell flat, after a number of resignations from its membership rolls, it is now busily engaged in doing its part in the "purge" effort.

Richard Scandrett, Jr., is a Wall Street lawyer who did many legal chores for the Soviet Government before it became necessary, in such circumstances, to register with the Department of Justice as a foreign agent. He is a bosom pal of David Dubinsky and for years has been a leader in Survey Associates, a high-brow Pink movement of which Leon Henderson and Madame Perkins are members; serving on its Board of Directors with Scandrett is Justice Felix Frankfurter.

In a final effort to revive a Willkie boom which was fast developing rigor mortis, Herbert Agar, a Democrat from Kentucky and president of Freedom House ("contributions are deductible from Income Tax"), speaking at a radical labor camp in Pennsylvania urged hundreds of labor leaders, "liberals" and pre-Pearl Harbor interventionists to join with David Dubinsky in "drafting" Willkie.

Many leaders of the American Labor Party were in attendance at this "Camp Tamiment Conference" which was sponsored jointly by a group of revolutionaries, laborites and habitues of Freedom House, of which Mrs. Roosevelt is Honorary Chairman. It was at Camp Tamiment that the formation of the American Labor Party was announced in 1936.

Somehow Mr. Agar's effort didn't produce the desired result and so a few days later the organization of a "Citizens Draft-Willkie-For-Governor" Committee, composed exclusively of Democrats, was announced by Stanley Reinhart. The real "brain" behind this latest political sideshow was Rex Stout of the OCD's Writers' War Board, whose books, incidentally, are published by Mr. Reinhart. Reinhart's firm has been of great help to the Communists in the past. Farrar & Reinhart contributed thousands of books to be sold at Communist money-raising affairs which helped finance the Communist "cause."

This Committee got off to a false start and while it has been holding numerous "conferences" nothing of any consequence has yet developed, and it is quite possible that nothing will, because either realizing that he was being used for a purpose destructive of orderly government, or that there was insufficient enthusiasm to insure victory over Dewey, Mr. Willkie announced, to the relief of many Republicans, that: "I doubt if I shall ever aspire to public office again."

Left-Wing insistence on the Willkie candidacy came about, no doubt, not so much because he sees eye to eye with the President on foreign policy and the war effort, but rather because Willkie had denounced the Dies Committee, is the principal attorney for David Dubinsky's International Ladies Garment Workers Union, and has contributed his services as counsel to appeal the case of Communist Leader William Schneiderman, whose citizenship was revoked on the ground that it had been obtained "illegally."

That was enough to have the comrades shout: "We want Willkie!"

While the Republicans were being kept in a constant stew, things were also happening on the Democratic front. Harry Hopkins, who used to be registered in New York as a Socialist, moved into the St. Regis Hotel and along with his chief henchman David K. Niles, began to plan a blitzkreig against Jim Farley and John Bennett. There were conferences also in the nearby Stork Club where they had the benefit of Lieutenant Commander Walter Winchell's sage advice.

Niles, a protege of the late Edward A. Filene, Boston merchant, admirer of Soviet Russia and founder of the Twentieth Century Fund which financed preliminary work on the NRA, did confidential work for Hopkins in the WPA and in the last election organized all the Reds and radicals hereabouts into an organization called the National Committee of Independent Voters for Roosevelt and Wallace, which was headed by Fiorello LaGuardia.

While currently promoting a campaign for what are called, for political purposes, "Win-the-War" candidates, Niles used to be the main squeeze on the New England Committee of the United States Congress Against War, which later became the American League Against War and Fascism and which finally, when exposed by the Dies Committee as a Communist front, was called the American League for Peace and Democracy. Niles is also a member of the National Committee of the International Juridical Association, a high powered world-wide legal defense organization of the Communist movement.

Soon Niles began to appear in upstate counties "with a message from the White House—from Harry Hopkins." Along with several other "confidential representatives" he began calling on County leaders, a few mayors, and lesser lights in the political firmament trying to wrest away their support of Bennett and to create an artificial demand for Senator Mead as the candidate. He also tried to get signatures to a letter, written by A. A. Berle, Assistant Secretary of State, calling on Mead to become a candidate.

Reluctantly Senator Mead threw his hat in the ring. Immediately he received the endorsement of the American Labor Party and its sworn enemy, Tammany Hall. Then the Communists followed through with their blessing, and Rex Stout, Rev. Birkhead, Algernon Lee, head of the Red Rand School and Bruce Bliven, a registered foreign agent and an editor of the New Republic, joined a "liberal and labor" committee to back Mead. His job about finished, Niles returned to Washington, not to his WPB job, but to become President Roosevelt's newest administrative assistant.

As things look now the Leftists are telling the Democratic Party what's what and the results may be disastrous.

The July 14 issue of the Red weekly, New Masses, quotes the Communist candidate for Governor, Israel Amter, as saying:

> "What is needed in our state is a coalition of the win-the-war forces—the powerful Labor groups, the New Deal Democrats, and Win-the-War Republicans, who place nation above party, yes, a grand coalition of the people, from the conservative to the Communist."

The New Masses refers to its parent movement of Red revolution as "a patriotic organization, the Communist Party."

(So, folks, this "purge" campaign is a patriotic crusade.)

VI

Propaganda–Press Plague

Was your boy killed at Pearl Harbor, Bataan or Corregidor?
Well, your "isolationist" Congressman is to blame!

Do you have to pay higher prices for what you buy?
Again your "isolationist" Congressman is the cause of it all.

That, Mr. and Mrs. America, is the disgusting and insulting "party-line" argument being used by the Smear-and-Purge press in its indefensible campaign to spread suspicion and breed hate against Congressmen to be "purged."

In campaigning against an Ohio Representative, New York's so-called newspaper PM began its account in this fashion:

> "When you go shopping in New York, you find prices higher because long-winded Frederick C. Smith helped delay price-control legislation last Fall. And when your brothers and sons go into battle, they go handicapped by the delays in our Nation's rearmament that Frederick C. Smith helped to cause."

Can a more vicious libel than this be conceived?

PM, with its running campaign against "Bad Congressmen," is one of the ringleaders in this struggle to destroy representative government. Its bitter, violent and carping criticism of what it chooses to call "pro-Fascist Congressmen" is the natural result of circumstances surrounding its inception.

There would be no PM today had it not been for the "professional" advice of a brilliant, fidgety, Svengali-like Russian, Gregory Zilboorg, former Commissar in the Revolutionary cabinets of Lvov and Kerensky, who later set himself up in America as an expert mechanic in mental repair . . . a psychoanalyst.

A few years ago two bewildered and mentally harassed young men found their way to his door. One was Multi-Millionaire Marshall Field, 3rd, who found life drab and uninteresting. The other was Ralph Ingersoll, an embryo editor with an exhibitionist complex. Dr. Zilboorg diagnosed both men as morbid and melancholy. He effected a dual "cure" through joining their "split personalities" into one harmonious whole: Field's money and Ingersoll's hypothetical ability. A fantastic fee was collected from the winnings of the fleetest nag in a racing stable owned by Field.

Soon, with Marshall Field's prestige and money, Editor Ingersoll was able to announce an impending event of national moment—a new newspaper. Then the mountain labored and brought forth a mouse . . . PM.

With 90 per cent of its staff recruited from Communist publications from coast to coast, this uptown edition of the Daily Worker became a journalist's nightmare. Its losses have run into millions. But its proletarian Park Avenue owner has the satisfaction of knowing that it's the best Communist paper this side of Moscow. PM—Pro Marx, for short.

This under-sized smear sheet has taken on quite a job for itself. Its major "causes" include:

> ¶ Keeping Editor Ingersoll out of the draft.
> ¶ Cleaning out Congress.
> ¶ Killing off the Dies Committee.
> ¶ Forcing the FBI to "lay-off" Communists.
> ¶ Making the Attorney General rescind the Bridges deportation order.
> ¶ Seeing to it that the Red Cross stops discriminating and puts White, Jap and Negro blood into the same blood bank without labeling.
> ¶ Calling publishers like Arthur Hays Sulzberger, a distinguished Jew, anti-Semitic because he prints what PM says are "hate" advertisements.
> ¶ Keeping Editor Ingersoll out of the draft.*

The Communist Daily Worker significantly agrees that Editor Ingersoll should be saved from the draft. Editorially it says, in part:

> "The draft board did not use its best judgment . . . Ingersoll can best serve his country as editor of PM . . . the Selective Service administration ought to reconsider the case."

Marshall Field and PM have been decried frequently in Congress. Representative Rankin is introducing a bill that would make it possible to tax Field's $200,000,000 fortune . . . a tax now being avoided by legal subterfuge . . . a tax sufficient to pay the salary of a member of Congress for 4,000 years. So far the only Congressman who has come to Field's defense is Adolph Sabath, a consistent defender of the Communists and of Soviet Russia.

 Ingersoll's petition for reclassification by his Draft Board on the claim of "indispensibility" was recently denied. Following the denial he enlisted in the army.

Another sniper at Congress is THE HOUR. A Communist "party-line" weekly, it is dangerous . . . not so much for the volume of its propaganda . . . as because its material, touted as "confidential," receives a widespread circulation. It claims a newspaper and radio audience of 30,000,000. It boasts Lt. Comdr. Walter Winchell, U.S.N., among those who disseminate its data.

THE HOUR was set up originally by an organization called the American Council Against Nazi Propaganda, Inc. On its boards and committees were such well-known Communists and fellow-travelers as Franz Boas, Lewis Mumford, Frank P. Graham, Gardner Jackson, Archibald MacLeish, and Dr. Frank Kingdon. Frederick L. Schuman, one-time instructor at the Communist Workers School, is on its present editorial board.

THE HOUR is edited by Albert E. Kahn, a former writer for the Communist magazine Friday.

Editor Kahn says:

> "With the Government cracking down on seditious sheets, it looks as if Axis propagandists are going to be left with no publication for their use—except the Congressional Record."

When being questioned about a phony story he published, Kahn told police that his organization was part of a private spy network and propaganda system operating throughout the country.

Mr. Kahn is now writing a book which charges that certain Congressmen are part of a Nazi plot to sabotage American morale. The book, entitled "SABOTAGE," will be published by Harper. It will be released, of course, just before the November elections.

And speaking of "sabotage," on July 12th Lieutenant Commander Walter Winchell, U.S.N., after saluting the FBI for capturing the eight saboteurs landed from U-boats, asked his radio audience:

> "How about the voters going after those other saboteurs who landed in Congress?"

A few days later he concluded his gossip column with this cowardly slur implying treason:

> "Another reason some congressmen are demanding the eight saboteurs be shot is that they might talk too much."

Since the United States entered the war, Lt. Comdr. Winchell has written and broadcast a continuing barrage of jibes and blasts at Congress, and has referred to the elected representatives of the people as "dopes," "hams," "soreheads," and "saps."

Is this the kind of treatment the Legislative branch of the Government should expect from a commissioned officer?

In the August 15 issue of Liberty he writes a scurrilous piece about "Americans We Can Do Without in Congress—yes, within the so-called sacred portals of the Congress of the United States."

"An officer," according to the Articles of War, is prohibited from employing "contemptuous or disrespectful words against . . . Congress of the United States," and if found guilty of such conduct "shall be punished as a court-martial shall direct."

As Lt. Comdr. Winchell would say . . . "Why isn't something done about it?"

In the next issue Liberty concludes an eight-part mystery story, ". . . a traitorous plot revealed, a merciless murderer unmasked." The traitorous killer, believe it or not, is a Congressman who has "swallowed a large dose of isolationism, a large dose of Fascism," and who believes "Communists are going to take over the country if we win the war."

The NEW LEADER, organ of the Social Democratic Federation, is one of the really important leftist newspapers giving support to the Congressional "purge" campaign. The Federation is an offshoot of the Socialist Party, having split from it in 1937. Its members call themselves "democratic socialists."

The New Leader has been working hand-in-hand with the Union for Democratic Action, but actually it began its own campaign against Congress fully six weeks before the New Republic-UDA drive got underway.

Its issue of May 9th says: "Certain highly placed Washington legislators are less interested in winning the war than they are in assuring themselves of a place in a defeated U. S. Government should that tragedy occur. Whether this Lavalism springs from sexual perversion, from sheer hillbilly ignorance, from direction and subsidization of important Catholic clerics . . . remains a mystery in most cases."

"One of these," the smear continues, "is the slickly dressed hillbilly, Senator Robert Reynolds . . . Senator David I. Walsh, friend of the Christian Front in Boston . . . identified as a frequent associate of key German espionage agents . . . Senator Nye . . . Congressman Stephen A. Day and Senator Brooks . . . Day has been a typical pro-fascist . . . If they are re-elected they will be gadflies on the Administration's war record . . . all have access to important military and naval information . . . the White House has taken the offensive against them."

Aside from its anti-Congress crusade the New Leader is constantly harping on its three other principal phobias: Big Business, the Catholic Church and the McCormick-Patterson (newspaper) Axis.

THE JEWISH SURVEY, a well-printed slick paper magazine, is another recruit in the all-out fight on Congress. In a department titled "Throttle American Quislings" it follows the New Re- public-UDA pattern by carrying thumbnail indictments of the Congressmen and Senators it hates most, each with a little slug, "We accuse." In the July issue it pays its respects to Hamilton Fish (of course), Senator Reynolds, Congressman Clare Hoffmann and Congressman Martin Dies, who is "guilty of subversive activities" "following the Hitler tactic" and "doing his bit to pave the way for fascism here."

Its major editorial, "Elect Win-War Candidates," slurs Congress with the following observation:

> "In the United States Congress, a bloc of approximately twenty-five pro-Axis Congressmen have been carrying out their treacherous activities . . . It is by this bloc of gentlemen that the anti-Semitic investigation of the movies was inspired . . . Many things have to be done yet to demobilize the anti-Semites, fascists and fifth columnists. One of the central things that can be done, in the fight against anti-Semitism, is to organize now to drive all defeatists out of the United States Congress."

(What involved reasoning. What vicious maligning!)

Judge Samuel Leibowitz, of Senate Smear fame, writes a feature article in this same issue, and Congressmen Samuel Dickstein and Emanuel Celler "GREET U. S.-ANGLO-RUSSIAN UNITY."

The principal article is the printed address, "Unite on Every Point," delivered by Hon. Morris Mintz before a conference of the Jewish Peoples Committee, an organization of 400,000 originally headed by Ben Gold, a member of the Central Committee of the Communist Party. Mr. Gold was subsequently succeeded by alien Welwel Warszower who, under the alias "Robert William Weiner," was treasurer of the Communist Party. He resigned both jobs a short time ago when convicted of passport fraud. Rabbi Moses Miller is current president of the organization. Top editor of The Jewish Survey is Rockwell Kent, notorious Communist, who recently petitioned President Roosevelt to cancel the deportation order against West-Coast C.I.O. leader Harry Bridges.

THE JEWISH SURVEY, semi-official organ of the Communist front Jewish Peoples Committee, mentioned other Congressmen in the June editorial "Elections for Victory," and declared vehemently it must be presumed that those who were against war before Pearl Harbor will act against the war effort now and should be considered as traitors "regardless of the speeches they make in favor of it."

The Communist DAILY WORKER carries daily stories and a weekly page devoted exclusively to the "purge" campaign. Congressmen are never just Congressmen—they are "Congressional wreckers"

The weekly page feature is intended mainly for the use of all the various groups associated in the smear and purge drive. An editorial printed on July 12 the day the series started, concluded:

> "We hope that it (the weekly round-up) will serve the purpose of organizing and uniting all win-the-war groups, regardless of previous party affiliations, for unity to defeat the appeasers in November.
> "Give Roosevelt a win-the-war Congress.
> "Elect a Second Front Congress!"

That last line just had to include some "party-line" propaganda.

Even the Young Communists have enlisted for the campaign. In their WEEKLY REVIEW they carry a page devoted to the "purge" under the title: "In the Elections—CLEAN OUT THE DEFEATISTS."

THE NATION began its series of character studies of Congressmen marked to get the axe just two days before the New Republic-UDA supplement appeared. The running title is "Keep Them Out!" The putrid pieces are being written by Victor Riesel, once columnist for the New Leader and now labor editor for the New York Post. Riesel's articles were given free advertising over the Blue network by broadcaster Lt. Comdr. Walter Winchell, U.S.N.

The weekly JEWISH REVIEW stoops to a new low by carrying its tirades against Congressmen under the general heading:

UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES

In the June 25th issue Rev. Leon Birkhead concluded his feature "This is War" with the following:

> "Our chief danger, therefore, is that the next Congress may get into the hands of those who will impede our war effort, sabotage the peace and try to create a fascist state.
> "Washington cannot protect us from this danger. The responsibility rests with the people of the United States."

IN FACT, a little Communist party-line weekly, in its August 1 issue laments the fact that its enemy Congressmen were not indicted by the Federal Grand Jury which recently named 28 alleged seditionists. Editor George Seldes was particularly incensed that Martin Dies had not been included. Previously it printed the slander that Dies "might just as well be on the Hitler payroll," and after listing the Congressmen it hates most it blanketed the rest as "native Fascists, Hitlerites, anti-Semites, labor-baiters and enemies of America."

On June 13, it named the "Leaders of Native American Fascism" as issued by the Soviet press bureau in Moscow. They are: " 'War Industry Magnate' DuPont . . . Wm. S. Knudsen . . . Col. Lindbergh . . . Former President Herbert Hoover . . . Jos. P. Kennedy . . . Henry Ford . . . Bruce Barton . . . Senator Arthur H. Vandenburg."

This list of Smear and Purge publications could go on and on, but limitations of space forbid. However, no partial compilation would be representative without a weekly called THE UNITED NATIONS, official organ of the Mazzini Society, which is headed by Prof. Max Ascoli of the New School and a member of the Board of the Council for Democracy. Part of this publication is printed in Italian.

The UNITED NATIONS says in plain English that some Congressmen are "incompetents," others are "political hacks," some are just "mediocrities, while Fish, Barry and Somers are 'sleepwalking Congressmen' . . . their votes pleased Hitler and betrayed the safety and welfare of America."

Congressman Sam Dickstein on June 17, 1941, told the House that the organizers of the Mazzini Society "are Fascists who have fallen apart recently from the councils of the party, and who wish to propagate their own brand of fascism . . ."

Is this surprising? It merely emphasizes that Communism, Fascism and Nazism are kin under the skin.

What American will let the Fascist Mazzini Society, or any of its Socialist and Communist co-campaigners against Congress, tell him how to vote?

Parade of the Poison Peddlers

"With confidence in our armed forces—with the unbounded determination of our people—we will gain the inevitable triumph, so help us God."

In this solemn conclusion to his war message to Congress, President Roosevelt asked the aid of the Almighty in our war effort.

But the leaders in the war against Congress would rather follow the anti-God philosophy of Hitler than the President's leadership—they can get along without God's help.

In fact they have carried their "purge" campaign even against God. One of the newest units in the Smear-and-Purge network is publicly on record as wanting no mention of God in its deliberations.

On the Sabbath, July 12, Thomas Amlie, Washington Director of the Union for Democratic Action called a meeting in Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, of some 250 Communists, Socialists, and "Liberals" to organize a "purge" of all Wisconsin Congressmen, except one.

Shortly after the session was convened the following resolution was offered to the assembly: "We acknowledge man's dependency upon the Supreme Being and petition His guidance in our efforts."

Many of the "comrades" considered this an open insult to Marx and Lenin (and maybe Hitler) and it was promptly squelched when Dan Hoan recently a top executive of the Office of Civilian Defense and for 24 years Socialist Mayor of Milwaukee, led the successful fight against its adoption. Then the conference got down to business and formed the "Wisconsin Committee for United Liberal Action."

In the meantime while thousands of similar committees are being set up all over the country, a dozen headquarters in New York are going full steam ahead.

CITIZENS FOR VICTORY is perhaps the most ambitious of the various groups involved in the conspiracy against Congress. Its leaders have boasted that it will have at its disposal "more money than it will know what to do with." It will take plenty of money to carry out its program which includes organizing "in every congressional district" in the country. It already has more than 250 chapters.

Organized by the Council for Democracy and the Committee to Defend America by Aiding the Allies, CITIZENS FOR VICTORY is being managed by Clark M. Eichelberger, National Director of the League of Nations Association.

Dr. Frank Kingdon and Dr. Frank P. Graham are Vice-Chairmen, while Rev. Leon Birkhead is a member of the Executive Committee.

CITIZENS FOR VICTORY full page advertisements are currently appearing in all parts of the country (one was approvingly reproduced in the Communist Daily Worker), while sectional charts showing Congressional votes on what the "citizens" have decided were vital issues, are being given wide circulation. In addition to its own literature, the organization is distributing pamphlets of such other movements as the United Nations Committee, Committee to Defend America, League of Nations Association, Carnegie Endowment for Peace and Commission to Study the Organization of Peace.

Very much involved in the purge is James H. Causey, a retired department store owner, who heads both the recently organized NATIONAL COMMITTEE OF INDEPENDENT VOTERS and the Independent Committee of the 26th District. In the latter organization Millionaire Causey is associated with Lewis Mumford, an ardent Communist fellow-traveler who signed the call for the first Congress of American Revolutionary Writers.

For years Mr. Causey has been dabbling in Left Wing causes and has contributed liberally to the pro-Communist New School for Social Research. Just a few weeks ago he spoke at the commencement exercises of the Graduate Faculty of the New School. Dr. Hans Simons, of the Union for Democratic Action, is dean of the Graduate Faculty, which is composed of refugees from Europe, and is sometimes called the University in Exile.

In the last presidential campaign Mr. Causey was National Treasurer of the Roosevelt-Wallace Campaign Committee.

VOTE FOR FREEDOM, another participant in the purge plot, was organized "to fight outstanding isolationists in the Congressional elections," according to a statement issued by Hon. Charles H. Tuttle, when he resigned over dissatisfaction with the way in which the organization was being "used" in the New York State campaign.

In addition to Chairman Scandrett and Herbert Agar of Freedom House, previously discussed, the committee includes: Dr. Frank Kingdon and Leon Birkhead and American Labor Partyites: George Backer, Alex

Rose and Max Zaritsky. Zaritsky some time back was a member of the United Action Campaign Committee which launched a program:

> "1. To unite the forces opposed to capitalism.
> "2. To win political power for the masses.
> "3. To build a new social order in America."

Christopher Emmet, Director of VOTE FOR FREEDOM, is a commentator on the Socialist radio station WEVD and writes for the Socialist newspaper New Leader. Emmet is also on the Board of Directors of both the Council for Democracy and the Union for Democratic Action. Before Pearl Harbor he was assistant to Clark M. Eichelberger on the Committee to Defend America by Aiding the Allies.

VOTE FOR FREEDOM'S statement of aims says pointedly:

> "France had its traitors in positions of public trust. In the next elections, we, the American electorate, must make sure that there shall be no Quislings to weaken our war effort."

(Any Congressman who believes in Constitutional government and opposes collectivism is a "Quisling.")

This organization has its headquarters in Freedom House, the successor to Fight for Freedom, Inc., which was financed largely by Marshall Field and which numbers Melvyn Douglas, Rex Stout, Dr. Frank Graham and Luigi Antonini among its members.

Another organization having a part in the purge and smear campaign is the COUNCIL FOR DEMOCRACY which received substantial financial support from both the Luce publications and the Filene foundations.

On paper, the COUNCIL FOR DEMOCRACY appears impressive. Its committees are loaded with important names of the financial and industrial world. As usual in an organization of this kind, the radicals are running the show while the big shot business men are used as window dressing and as contacts for fund raising.

In sending out appeals for help the Council conveniently forgets to list, as an example, three members of its board of directors from Mrs. Roosevelt's favorite pro-Communist New School for Social Research: Max Ascoli, Hans Simons and Alvin Johnson, the School's Director. Also on the Board are Freda Kirchway, editor of The Nation, David Dubinsky, Frank Kingdon, and Clinton Golden, a CIO leader who was a Director of the Red Garland Fund and a member of the Board of Communist Commonwealth College.

The active executive of the Council is Evans Clark, husband of Freda Kirchwey, and director of the Twentieth Century Fund. Maxwell Stewart, former associate editor of the Moscow Daily News and teacher at the Moscow Institute, and Rev. Leon Birkhead, dissident minister and one time speaker for the Friends of the Soviet Union, are members of a working "Committee of Correspondents."

Clark is a member of Survey Associates, publishers of intellectual Socialistic publications, and a member of the Executive Committee of the Socialist-Communist League for Industrial Democracy whose slogan is "Production for use and not for profit."

The Council also has two subsidiary organizations through which it carries on its more blatant propaganda. One is the so-called League for Fair Play, headed by Dr. Alvin Johnson of the New School, and which Dr. Kingdon says: "sends out speakers to combat 'incipient appeasement'." The other is misnamed the National Committee on Morale, which is under the chairmanship of Arthur Upham Pope. Pope was a guest of the Soviet Government in 1935 and has been a rabid apologist for Dictator Stalin ever since.

"Representatives of the COORDINATING COMMITTEE FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION conferred with Government officials in Washington recently," said its "confidential" report shortly after the first of the year. "The spokesman informed the Committee," the document declared, "that President Roosevelt considers the continuation of citizens action groups essential."

Accordingly this self-styled "vanguard of the citizen-soldiers of democratic America" (no connection with the UDA) proceeded to announce its future program and listed (in January, 1942) the enemies it felt called upon to battle. They included:

> "1. *The Western popular isolationists, who regarded war as some thing cooked up by the evil merchants of death—Hiram Johnson, Burton Wheeler, Gerald Nye, Bennett Clark, D. Worth Clark;
> "2. *The industrialist appeasers, who played the role here of the Comite des Forges in France—Henry Ford, E. T. Weir, Max Babb, Edward Ryerson, General Wood, Hanford MacNider, Thomas McCarter;
> "3. *The State department-diplomat clique, who for years had been friendly with fascist dictators and fascist ideas—John Cudahy, Joe Kennedy, Breckenridge Long, Avra Warren, James Dunn, Robert Murphy, Ogden Hammonds;
> "4. *The officers of the Catholic Church, who lent their names and prestige to the cause—Archbishop Beckman, Bishop Shaughnessy, Fathers Gillis, Curran, Coughlin, etc.;

"5. The international traders, who sought cash profit in prolonging division over foreign policy, oil and scrap iron men—William Rhodes Davis, Torkild Rieber, etc.;

"6. The rally-round-the-flag boys—Sen. Reynolds, Sen. Walsh, Sen. Brooks, Ham Fish, Dewey Short, Roy Howard, Hugh Johnson and Hearst."

Ten days before the New Republic smear supplement appeared on the newsstands the Coordinating Committee issued a somewhat similar document of its own. It was more general in its charges . . . but it followed the "party line."

"The 1942 elections can determine the outcome of the War," it started off, and then followed this stupid lie with a bold accusation of treason. Some Congressmen, it said, "felt a kinship for the attackers and obstructed all measures."

A few of the charges made against certain Senators are enlightening: "Nye spoke for the Steuben Society (a patriotic organization of Americans named for a hero of the Revolution of 1776) . . . Wheeler was floor leader for the bloc . . . Holman was a regular reader of Social Justice and Scribner's Commentator . . . Sen. Reynolds' franked envelope was picked up in a subway last week with "Buy Christian' stamped across it."

Voting records were tabulated in a "box score" and percentages were figured to ascertain "batting averages." The committee also found that "The Republican Party held firm, voting consistently against the Administration program."

In a subsequent edition it is stated: "Americans may wake up to discover that the America First Committee has enjoyed a complete renaissance, with its leadership, ideas and objectives under the stolen mantle of the Republican Party."

(And the people who believe and write this sort of rot are telling Americans how they must vote.)

The Coordinating Committee's material on Congress was immediately reprinted in the Socialist paper New Leader, while the document itself is being distributed by a score or more of organizations. Represented on the Coordinating Committee are the Red Methodist Federation for Social Service (which has no connection with the Methodist Church), headed by Rev. Harry F. Ward, who was chairman of the Communist front American League for Peace and Democracy; the Red D.A.R. (Descendants of the American Revolution); the Society of American Friends (to which Mrs. Roosevelt contributes); the Council for Democracy, and the League for Fair Play.

The Chairman of the Board is Rev. Robert W. Searle, who was a leader in the Emergency Peace Campaign and a member of the Fellowship of Reconciliation, American section of the War Resisters Internationale which "believes a new social order can and will be established . . . it believes these changes can be accomplished by revolutionary uprisings." This organization is managed by Maurice Rosenblatt, who confers regularly, at the Roosevelt Hotel, with David K. Niles.

Samuel Untermeyer was justified in organizing the NON-SECTARIAN ANTI-NAZI LEAGUE TO CHAMPION HUMAN RIGHTS, INC., but the subsequent use to which the organization was put cannot be justified or excused. Exposing Nazi persecution and arousing public sentiment against it was one thing; resorting to a boycott against Americans, persecuting Americans, threatening Americans, employing methods that look suspiciously like blackmail, and now blackballing American members of Congress is something else altogether.

Despite its name this organization was not anti-Nazi enough to pass up a good business proposition, for the major advertiser in its Bulletin was the Schering Corp., a Nazi-owned firm. On January 20, the Treasury Department removed all corporation officials in a move to smash Nazi control of the drug trade. Peculiarly this firm began to advertise after the so-called Anti-Nazi League had boycotted its products.

The Anti-Nazi League, as it is popularly known, claims more than 2,000,000 members, most of them without question sincere and honest, and some 2,000 affiliated organizations, many of which are unundoubtedly reputable. It boasts that its National Department of Investigation maintains a spy network that is second to none. The League is headed today by Dr. James Sheldon, former professor at Boston University, who in the distant past was associated with Madame Perkins in Social Service work in downtown New York. It is run by a Government employee in his "spare time." He is Irving Rothberg, alias Alexander Redlick, alias S. K. Roller, alias Richard Collins. At the offices of the Anti-Nazi League he is known as "Col. Richard Rollins." He has also used the titles "Captain" and "Major." At the Government office (OPA) his "receptionist" calls him "Mr. Rollins."

Fiorello LaGuardia, who has raised many thousands of dollars for the support of the Red Rand School* which trains agitators to undermine our system of government and who has just endorsed Vito Marcantonio, the Communist spokesman in Congress, for re-election, is a Vice-President of the Anti-Nazi League.

"We do not believe," its Bulletin says, "that General MacArthur's brave forces ought to be left to Japanese mercies in order that some manufacturer may hold on to his un-American racial or religious prejudices. Neither do we believe that American soldiers in Iceland should bleed to death while the Red Cross tries to decide if it is good etiquette to keep separate blood banks for transfusion purposes to persons of different racial groups." These false charges and vicious implications are typical of the organization's "party line."

* In the last war the Rand School was prosecuted by the Government and found guilty under the Espionage Act for "feloniously obstructing enlistment service of the U. S."

Regarding its spy system it says: "Just as during World War I, it was necessary to develop a nationwide civilian intelligence organization which the Attorney General considered an unofficial arm of the government, so now is an enlarged and strengthened Anti-Nazi League necessary."

In the campaign against Congress the Anti-Nazi League is one of the principal distributors of the Co-ordinating Committee for Democratic Action's "Box Score," while Dr. Shelton calls on his members, and voters generally, to "prevent 'Nazi stooges' from winning the forthcoming congressional elections."

"The Anti-Nazi League recently surveyed the records of all the members of Congress," Dr. Shelton declared on the league's weekly broadcast a few weeks ago, "and found that there were a certain few whose loyalty to the principles of democracy . . . distinguished them amongst their colleagues."

The boast is being heard in labor circles that the unions have a slush fund of $20,000,000 to spend between now and election, and the story goes, if that isn't enough organized labor is ready to throw in another Thirty Million to defeat "isolationist," "divisionist" and "anti-labor" Congressmen.

Left labor leaders have even succeeded in prevailing upon some conservative unionists to go along in the fight against "appeasers." The "pattern" is being followed closely even down to the fact that Representative Joe Martin is labor's "target No. 1."

The Executive Board of the Teamsters Union, the largest union in the country, decided to "Take such action and expend such funds as necessary to acquaint labor and the public with the records of these Congressmen." The board also adopted a campaign slogan: "Check the Quislings," and voted to send a voting record check list to every one of its 625,000 members.

Headquarters for the labor drive have been set up in New York's Piccadilly Hotel, where a "Trade Union Committee to elect Win-the-War Candidates" is already functioning under the leadership of Michael Quill, President of the Transport Workers Union, with John Santos doing most of the master-minding.

Quill has been identified as a Communist by former members of his Communist Party unit, while Santos, alias Desideriu Hammer, alias Jack Weiss, alias John Szantó, is National Director of Organization of the transport union. For years, before coming to New York, he was the editor of the official Hungarian Communist newspaper, with headquarters in Cleveland. Nine months ago he was Secretary-Treasurer of the union, but resigned when arrested for deportation and on a charge of falsifying information to his draft board. Although arrested by both the FBI and Immigration authorities and kept for a time on Ellis Island, he has been mysteriously freed and no one can discover why he hasn't been prosecuted.

From Washington Nathan Cowan, Legislative Representative of the CIO, has been writing to all affiliated unions urging them to purchase copies of the New Republic-UDA blacklist for free distribution in their communities. He notes there are two types of Congressmen some "should be defeated" while others "thoroughly deserve to be beaten." He also advises that: "Several CIO internationals have purchased as many as 7,500 or 10,000 copies of this supplement for distribution to their locals."

All CIO organs are plugging for a "Win-the-War" Congress. The July issue of the Furniture Workers Press takes Congress as a whole to task in this fashion:

> "This Congress has defied the President. This Congress has defied the people. This Congress is endangering the very existence of the United States . . . Such a Congress must go. It must be cleansed of the Goebbel's newsboys, of the proven spies, of the disrupters and appeasers. And organized labor can do that job this fall."

It then urges workers to vote "in the primaries and elections to defeat the enemies of America. If you don't know who these are consult your local CIO. The CIO will give you the record of every candidate."

The latest movement to join the conspiracy against Congress is the "AMERICAN APPEAL FORUM 'FOR AMERICANISM'," (chartered by virtue and under Act of Congress, Chapter XVIII, Subchapter III, organized 1939) which has been blanketing the country with letters calling for the defeat of the same Congressmen listed by each of the other subversive movements and publications in the plot.

At the same time (June, 1942) this organization is distributing through the mails on a large scale an expensive, over-size, profusely illustrated 32-page magazine devoted entirely to an outrageous attack on Henry Ford. While the title is "HENRY FORD MUST CHOOSE," the burden of the smear, which is decorated with a huge swastika, is that Henry Ford is a Nazi.

A foreword is written by Robert E. Sherwood, reputed to be President Roosevelt's "ghost," while an introduction is provided by Rev. L. M. Birkhead, National Director, Friends of Democracy, Inc., which printed the booklet and made it available to the "American Appeal Forum."

Accompanying the booklet is a "Red, White and Blue" letterhead listing, among outstanding Americans, the names of Harold Ickes, Henry Wallace and Lt. Commander Walter Winchell, U.S.N.

The letter reads in part:

> "All the fascists are not abroad . . . some people here are insidiously striving to wreck the very institutions of democracy for which our boys are fighting—and dying . . . This booklet contains the documented story . . . of one of them . . . By exposing these traitorous Americans and their goose-step philosophies, the American Appeal Forum arouses mass resentment which results in their suppression."

These people are talking about Henry Ford . . . the same Henry Ford who issued a public letter just a few months ago appealing for tolerance and understanding between Americans of all races and creeds . . . the same Henry Ford who was the first manufacturer to offer his services and facilities to turn out "a thousand planes a day" to beat Hitler . . . the same Henry Ford who built, equipped and staffed a Naval Training Academy and then presented it as a gift to the Government . . .

The same Henry Ford who was first to give the Red-tinged CIO (which he must have despised) full recognition and the check-off, in the interest of national defense . . . the same Henry Ford who in less than a year, at his own expense, built a huge new plant and began to turn out a big bomber a day . . . the same Henry Ford who is producing, at top speed, hundreds of different machines and materiel of war so sorely needed by our armed forces, and who has, without question, contributed more than any other single individual to a speedy victory for our men-in-arms.

Why this vicious attack? Because twenty-two years ago somebody who worked for Henry Ford was anti-Semitic! It doesn't make sense. It is remembered that Mr. Ford made a public apology at the time and has repeated it at intervals since—the last time shortly after the first of this year. Yet, for some reason, Mr. Ford remains a target for abuse and insult and is made the victim of a continuing barrage of vituperation and vilification.

Could the fact that he is a successful businessman—a capitalist—have anything to do with it?

During this same period highly colored anti-Ford news items, articles and editorials appeared in the Daily Worker, the New Republic and PM.

(Just think: The same slanderers who call Henry Ford a traitor and a Nazi are telling us what's wrong with our Congressmen . . . telling us the kind of people they insist we ought to elect in the coming elections.)

The American Appeal Forum which sponsored the anti-Ford booklet is in a sense an illegitimate offspring of the Friends of Democracy, which probably accounts for the apparent close working arrangement between them.

Shortly after the Rev. Mr. Birkhead arrived in New York from Kansas City, back in 1938, he met Charles H. Ingersoll, single-taxer, Socialist and organizer of Russian Reconstruction Farms. Ingersoll had an office at 1165 Broadway. His lectures over Socialist radio station WEVD didn't take up too much of his time, so the Friends of Democracy moved in and Ingersoll became president. Birkhead remained as chief cook and bottle washer and maid-of-all-work.

On June 15, 1938, the first issue of an official organ called "The Searchlight" was published with Philip Stanley as editor. Its principal feature was a boycott list provided by the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League which also provided the money to pay the printer's bill.

The hate business wasn't very profitable in those days, for Birkhead hadn't yet become the master smearer he is today. He was literally living from hand to mouth. As for Stanley, the crumbs which the Friends of Democracy were able to provide at the time were far from satisfying. Ingersoll could pay his own way, but he was always on the anxious seat looking for new worlds to conquer.

So, being restless, Ingersoll and Stanley got together with two friends, Alfred Moss, an Englishman who claims to have been a Labor Party member of Parliament, and Dmitri Dobkin, a concert artist and professional foe of intolerance whose Brooklyn Free Musicale Society was headed by Franklin D. Roosevelt as honorary chairman. Having plenty of time on their hands, they did a lot of talking and schemed a lot of schemes and, strange as it may seem, came to the conclusion that what was needed was another organization.

Stanley had just the man who could put it over with a bang. What they needed, he told his colleagues, was a "big brain." The fellow he knew, was just that, and a "big time" promoter besides. That's how "Big Sam" Silverman got into the picture.

"Big Sam," a Harding Republican who became a henchman of Hague and then a self-styled bosom pal of Franklin D. Roosevelt, organized the original "Roosevelt-for-President Clubs" in the last three campaigns. It made "Big Sam" a big shot. He got his name in all the papers because somebody suspected that Sam's campaign to raise dollar bills to elect F.D.R. was a kind of racket and the papers exposed his shady past. But that didn't stop him.

"Big Sam" is smart and knows his way around. He knew the ropes and the right people and when he got going he was able to wield mysterious influence in Washington with the result that Congress put aside its weightier problems for a moment to charter this new "patriotic society," which now, Mussolini-like, stabs Congress in the back.

After being chartered, the promoters went into a huddle and decided that "Lawrance Maynard" would be President; Alfred Moss, Secretary-Treasurer; Charles H. Ingersoll, Editor; Dmitri Dobkin, Director of Public Relations. Stanley would remain with Birkhead, but keep his finger in the pie. What happened to "Big Sam"? Silverman simply assumed the name of "Maynard" . . .

When editor Ingersoll's first issue of the new "AMERICAN APPEAL 'for Americanism'" appeared it was the object of much talk, most of it unfavorable, for on its front page was a decidedly unpatriotic photograph of what was clearly a staged setting in which were pictured a huge swastika, photos of Hitler, Goebbels and Fritz Kuhn, AND spread on the floor was an American flag with a spittoon, a table and a chair set on top of it.

The paper was unique in that it had its two editorials end on a single note: "Rush your contributions fast," and "Rush your donations immediately."

Remarkable as it may seem, this fresh, new organization, which mushroomed almost overnight, was able to boast to its readers:

> "We have a nation-wide undercover movement able to obtain all information and plans of the enemy even before they execute them."

The paper didn't meet with the success anticipated. The only place it made the grade was in Winchell's column, which carried this blurb:

> "Talk about fighting newspapers 'American Appeal for Americanism' minces no wordage and is out-selling the 'Ism' gazettes at the latter's own meetings!"

Today Sam Silverman, alias "Lawrance Maynard," is busy selling the government some property for an Army camp; Mr. Ingersoll is busy promoting a movement called "Americans for Peace" which wants peace at any price . . . even without victory; Mr. Moss is busy holding street corner meetings peddling Birkhead's buncomb. So Mr. Stanley (an assumed name) runs the campaign against Congress. And as National Secretary he signed the anti-Ford letter, too.

But here's something odd. This high-sounding organization, chartered by Congress, with a most imposing list of names on its letterhead, doesn't have an office . . . unless it's in somebody's hat. Yes, there is an address on the stationery: "Pulitzer Building, 63 Park Row." But all the American Appeal Forum has at this address is a mailing privilege . . . for which Mr. Stanley pays $5 per month.

Where, then, are these huge mailings coming from?

When Mr. "Stanley", Mr. Ingersoll and Rev. Birkhead who also used the alias B. A. Lloyd, were struggling along together the Friends of Democracy was in pretty bad shape financially. To give you an idea, Rev. Birkhead wrote a prospective contributor as follows:

> "at present, we are carrying on without enough funds to print letterheads and other necessary printing matter which will explain why this letter is written on blank stationery."

Today the Friends of Democracy are riding the crest of the wave ensconced in palatial headquarters in a preferred building on Park Avenue in the expensive Grand Central zone. Suites of private offices, secretaries galore and clerks falling over each other are an indication that business of some kind is brisk.

Here Rev. Birkhead sits in his glory with all the arrogance of a Junker general directing his own private war against good Americans he chooses to brand as Nazis, Fascists, or anti-Semites—which includes almost everybody who is actually anti-Communist and pro-American and makes no bones about saying so out loud.

His meetings are no longer held in dingy crowded offices or on street corners. NOW they are convened in New York's swankiest and most expensive hotel—the Pierre.

Our country is at war with the Japs, the Fascists and the Nazis, but Dr. Birkhead is still fighting the America First Committee. While the rest of us are busy fighting Hitler, Rev. Birkhead is in the middle of a battle to defeat his conception of Hitler's right hand men in America —"Fascist" Father Coughlin, and Lindbergh, "the Nazi." Of next importance are his constant skirmishes against the "MacArthur cult" . . . Republicans to you.

Birkhead is certain that any Republican who so much as thinks that General MacArthur might make a good President one of these days is nothing less than a traitor. If that sounds too absurd to believe, read what this fighting friend of democracy has to say to those Republicans . . and Democrats too . . who have been under the mistaken impression all their lives that the United States is a republic:

> "Our government has been referred to since its beginning as a democracy . . . this controversy as to whether or not we are a democracy or a republic has been a part of the confusion created by totalitarian propagandists. It can be traced for the most part back to Berlin."

Our Generals should be alarmed when they learn this. For the Army Field Artillery manual is spreading "Axis propaganda," according to Rev. Birkhead, when it states:

> "The Government of the United States is not a democracy but a republic."

Perhaps Birkhead would suggest a book-burning ceremony in our Army camps to get rid of the U. S. Army Training Manuals, which describe democracy as "Government of the masses . . . Results in Mobocracy. Attitude toward property is Communistic . . . Results in demagogery, license, agitation, discontent, anarchy . . . "

The R.O.T.C. Engineers' Manual says: "Our form of Government is known as a Republic . . . the Republican form of Government is superior to every other form . . . including autocracy, feudalism, democracy and communism."

The Constitution of the United States guarantees a Republican form of government—while the oath of allegiance to the Flag, as recited by the millions of American school children, reads:

> "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States, and to the REPUBLIC for which it stands, one nation, indivisible with liberty and justice for all."

Is it possible that Rev. Birkhead has never read the Constitution —nor voiced allegiance to the flag?

(Will you let him tell YOU how to vote?)

Since Birkhead will do or say anything for publicity, he frequently gets his name in the newspapers. The New York World Telegram recently made him and his life's work the subject of an editorial which reads in part:

> "We do not know where Mr. Birkhead acquired his information, if any, but when he accuses Alice Roosevelt Longworth, General Hugh (Iron pants) Johnson and Irvin S. Cobb of being "naive" he is unintentionally funnier than Mr. Cobb ever was by design. When he refers to Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, America's World War aviation ace (25 German planes), and Major Al Williams (who has seen more of the German aviation setup than any other American except Colonel Lindbergh) as 'simple-minded people who have no idea what an enemy they had in the Nazis' he fills our sleeves with laughter and our neck with pain."

Rev. Birkhead has frequently written letters to Mayor LaGuardia and President Roosevelt . . . with copies to the newspapers. One letter to the Mayor concerned a noted anti-Communist speaker who was to appear at a Communion breakfast for the Catholic employees of a city department. The Mayor forgot to reply, but Birkhead got an unexpected answer from the speaker in question which said:

> "Your attempt to stop a group of Catholic employees of New York City from having a Catholic priest deliver a Catholic talk at their Catholic communion breakfast is an example of undemocratic bigotry.
> "I understand that Nazi Germany, the enemy of our country, has been guilty of similar totalitarian conduct."

Birkhead has an interesting background. Originally he was a Methodist minister. In 1915 he started a forum for anarchists, socialists and I.W.W.'s in his church in St. Louis and began preaching pseudo-Socialism instead of Christianity. Later, he "resigned" his pulpit. After a time he called his Red friends together and proposed that they organize a "Socialist Church." The idea struck a responsive chord. After hours of discussion, Birkhead brought up the matter of paying the preacher. The "comrades" chided him for being "materialistic" and promptly lost all interest in what promised to be a novel experiment.

The upshot of it was that the Rev. Birkhead left the Methodist Church to become a Unitarian, a Vice-President of the atheistic Humanist Movement and a member of the American Civil Liberties Union.

Since 1917 he has been pastor of "All Souls Unitarian Church," Kansas City, which is generally known as the "Liberal Center." In 1925 he said the Bible was unfit for youth and that 'we need the shock of the sex novels." In 1934 he proposed a test to see if prayer could produce rain. In 1935 he campaigned to legalize gambling. Instead of hymns, Rev. Birkhead had a preference for the Internationale and Solidarity. Instead of prayers, his spiritual flock got a "program" including games, dancing and cards. To replenish his waning congregation he placed "Get Acquainted" want ads in the newspapers.

The American League for Peace and Democracy held meetings in his church. Among the Reds and radicals who "lectured" at the Liberal Center was Thomas Amlie, now Washington Director of the smear-purge plot against Congress.

Birkhead maintains a weekly radio program over the Socialist Station WEVD. Mrs. Roosevelt recently spoke at a meeting under his auspices.

lini putting words in the mouths of our Congressmen or are our Congressmen furnishing the Axis with propaganda?"

Perhaps Congressman Hoffman answered when he charged: "By their own utterances, Birkhead and Friends of Democracy, Inc., stand convicted of disloyalty, of being enemies of our country, and that in time of war."

Although contributions to Friends of Democracy are tax free because Mr. Birkhead has sworn to the Department of Internal Revenue that the "friends" do not engage in political activity, the organization boasts of having been a major factor in two campaigns, one in Kansas, the other in New York.

A few months ago the Friends of Democracy* presented "copy" for a full page ad to a number of important newspapers. The New York Times and Herald Tribune refused to print it because of its scurrilous and libelous nature. PM published it free. It was directed against the publishers of the New York Daily News, the Chicago Tribune and the Hearst Newspapers, who, in effect, were accused of "aiding the enemy."

The ad was a nasty job. It was intimated that Archibald MacLeish and his Office of Facts and Figures had been responsible for providing the basic material; Rex Stout of the Writers' War Board is generally supposed to have done the writing. Birkhead says that MacLeish's Office of Facts and Figures urged him to have it published.

Where do the Friends of Democracy get the substantial funds obviously needed to carry on such extensive activities and to buy page ads in daily newspapers? Does somebody contribute $7,000 per month? Where do they get that kind of money?

Some of it comes from a so-called ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE, which on occasions uses the Friends of Democracy to do its dirty work.

While officially a subsidiary of the B'nai B'rith, a reputable Jewish fraternal organization which numbers many highly respected and outstanding Americans in its membership, the ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE is a low racket which promotes hate, breeds intolerance, fosters suppression and boycott and engages in defamation of the vilest sort. It is a fountainhead of malicious misinformation.

It is reputed to have unlimited funds at its disposal and maintains its own Gestapo—a network of spies—composed largely of highly unreliable and inexperienced amateurs, such as Sam Silverman, of the American Appeal and Roosevelt-for-President Clubs, who was an ADL snooper at one time using the name "Richard Daniels" and falsely representing himself as a reporter for the New York Times.

 In its latest "confidential" report Friends of Democracy promises to continue its activities against Congressional "Quislings" and "Colonel McCormick, Mr. Hearst and Capt. Patterson". Rev. Birkhead is now preparing a Fascist Whose Who, which will name Congressmen who are "propagandizing for Fascism in the United States".

Headquarters of the ADL are in Chicago. The New York office, employing between 40 and 50 people, is located in the Chanin Building.*

A former Congressional investigator declares in a report:

> "In all large cities the ADL has offices with full time agents in charge. These offices are not publicly known as ADL offices, but take on high sounding names. In Pittsburgh, Pa., the ADL office is known as the Joint Committee on Public Relations, with offices in the Grogan Building. The office is in charge of a refugee, Dr. Horace M. Marston.
> "When John L. Spivak, the notorious Communist agitator and propagandist was arrested in Pittsburgh, it was through Dr. Marston and his associates, that Spivak was bailed out and defended in court.
> "The ADL is today the greatest private secret service organization in the United States, with connections and agents in every branch of the government.

During the last presidential campaign these ADL facilities were used to collect an elaborate compilation of names and pictures of so-called "fascists" and "anti-Semites." The list contained the names of many men wrongly accused. This dossier was presented to the principal Republican leaders who were told the individuals named were to be barred from any part in the Willkie campaign under penalty of losing the "Jewish vote." It is certain that no reputable representative of American Jewry was involved . . . but somebody did it.

The behind-the-scenes under-cover contact man and fixer for the Anti-Defamation League is Arthur J. Goldsmith, a wealthy manufacturer of spark plugs for the United States Army and Navy. Mr. Goldsmith is a member of the board of advisors of the Co-ordinating Committee for Democratic Action; Treasurer of the Committee to Defend America; on the Executive Committee of Citizens for Victory; on the Board of Directors of the Council for Democracy; Treasurer of the League for Fair Play; a Director of Freedom House; on the National Committee Friends of Democracy; and Treasurer of Vote for Freedom.

On how many other boards and committees concealed from the public Mr. Goldsmith's influence and financial support are represented . . . God only knows . . . AND SOME CONGRESSIONAL INVESTIGATOR OUGHT TO FIND OUT.

 The private agencies set up in New York and Chicago by probably well-intentioned but in effectiveness vicious people are doing damage because they are devisive, they stimulate antagonism, they stir animosities and will ultimately lead to great trouble. It is difficult to see why they exist, except that they keep on pay rolls a lot of secretaries and such people who are making a good thing out of it. Such persons object to what they call discrimination but they practice it in the most nasty manner imaginable if any one so much as questions their absolute omniscience. I am avoiding names in this story because I am describing not the evils of this or that person or group, but an oppressive trend in this country, a Nazification of those who look under their beds at night to discover a Himmler agency. I can understand the sensitiveness, the nervousness, the irritability and fear of these people. I am conscious, just as they are of the dangers. But I disagree with them that the solution to the problem is hit-and-miss smearing, lying about people, oppressing opponents, private espionage, filthy press campaigns in amenable newspapers and similar evidences of hysteria. Such tactics only increase the danger and divert attention from the national enemy to the hysterical group. —George E. Sokolsky, in the New York Sun, July 2.

Maloney's "Moscow Trial"

Remembering that Attorney General Biddle was in attendance at that New Republic dinner where it all started, it is understandable that his Department of "Justice" should be "used" and legal processes under his control misused, to further the nefarious conspiracy to smear and purge honest and patriotic members of Congress.

For that is the principal and sinister purpose behind the prolonged "investigation" and current indictment of 28 alleged "seditionists" accused of having organized a plot "to interfere with, impair and influence the loyalty, morale and discipline" of the armed forces, and to "cause insubordination, mutiny and refusal of duty" among soldiers and sailors.

The idea that most of the individuals named in the indictment would or could impair the loyalty of our armed forces or cause mutiny is ludicrous—it would be laughable, if the motive behind the indictment and the possible consequences to innocent bystanders were not so serious.

That a handful of those indicted might conceivably have had such a fantastic idea is not beyond the realm of possibility because a few admitted Bundists, pro-Nazis, Axis agents and convicted seditionists are among those named. However, insofar as the rest are concerned, they could not have entered into such a conspiracy. They are, for the most part, fanatic Americans whose enthusiastic loyalty to this country and its institutions has made them conspicuous as anti-Communists, and anti-New Dealers. Unfortunately some of them are also anti-Semitic.

¶ Anti-Semitism is un-American, but it is not unlawful.

¶ To be anti-New Deal is a risky business these days, but it is not a crime.

¶ To preach anti-Communism may be the height of disloyalty in the Marxian minds which abound in official Washington, but it is not treason—NOT YET.

The Grand Jury is not to be blamed for the injustices which have been and will be perpetrated in its name. In its deliberations it has followed the suggestions and accepted the guidance of a Special Assistant Attorney General, one William Power Maloney, a juvenile Vyshinsky-Himmler who is prostituting both his profession and his official position to be a satisfactory hireling.

Maloney is responsible for employing that old trick which the Communists and their Leftist legions have used with so much success. Along with convicted foreign agents, Nazi Bundists, seditionists and an assortment of crackpots, Mr. Maloney includes the names of patriotic critics of Administration policies and political pets. By this device he hopes to make it impossible to defend the patriots without at the same time endorsing the crackpots and condoning sedition.

The whole proposition is so transparent that a blind man—with a well-developed sense of smell—will have no difficulty in seeing through it. It is typical Communist smear technique.

No good American will defend a traitor, or excuse a Nazi sympathizer. Nor will good citizens approve of crackpot vaporings about a "Jewish plot," which seems to be one of the principal accusations in the indictment. But it is hard to conceive of an American jury convicting Americans who, regardless of their lack of good taste in selecting arguments or associates, are guilty of nothing more than:

1. Emulating the President of the United States and the Republican candidate for President in trying to keep our country out of war.
2. Circulating patriotic speeches delivered in Congress and published by the Government itself.
3. Distributing anti-Communist literature among which was a list of fellow-travelers on the Government payroll compiled by the Dies Committee and a bulletin entitled: "The United States is not a Democracy, but a Republic."

A BIDDLE BILLET-DOUX

Early in July Vito Marcantonio, Stalin's stooge in Congress and head of the Communist Party's legal aid division, wrote Attorney General Biddle urging action against "domestic fascists," named specifically the type that "should be brought to justice," and pledged full support to "whatever steps are necessary to insure unrelenting vigor in prosecution of the internal enemies of Victory."

Three days before the 28 "domestic fascists" were indicted Biddle wrote Marcantonio: "I want to assure you of my deep appreciation of the support and approval indicated by the letter in regard to so much of our effort to stamp out organized subversive activity. I also appreciate your constructive criticisms and I can assure you that the Department will take into careful account each suggestion contained in the letter." Marcantonio is a member of 113 Communist "fronts."

The probability is that the prosecutor doesn't expect to convict all of the defendants—that some have been brought into the case for an ulterior motive. Could that motive be the smearing of Congressmen selected to be "purged"?

Long before the indictments were returned Congressman Hoffman on the floor of the House of Representatives charged that Mr. Maloney had said he would "get" every Republican member of the House who had been an isolationist before December 7.

Naturally Maloney denied making the statement and demanded a retraction. It is significant, however, that Congressman Hoffman repeated his charges against Maloney on the floor of the House and refused to retract or apologize. Mr. Hoffman added that Maloney is "with perhaps one exception, and that Charlie Michelson, the No. 1 expert smear artist."

On the day the charges were originally made Congressman Jones said to Congressman Hoffman:

> "I wish the gentleman would ask Mr. Maloney what has become of the investigation and the report that is due Congress on subversive employees on the Federal payroll that has grown from 500 when the Dies Committee first called it to the attention of the House, to 1,100 when the Attorney General asked the Dies Committee for a report just last year, and now the list has grown to over 3,000; and the Attorney General has not seen fit to give the report to Congress even though there is a positive mandate that he should give it? I would like to find out why the grand jury's attention has not been called to these subversive people on the Federal payroll."

If Congressman Jones ever gets an answer to his question from Mr. Maloney or anyone else in the Department of "Justice" he can bet his bottom dollar it will be a white-wash, because in official circles the Communists are our best patriots this season. And anyway, Mr. Maloney has something else on his mind and a job on his hands. He has a definite part to play in the smear and purge campaign, and the Red and pink conspirators expect him to do his duty.

Despite the fact that Grand Jury proceedings are supposed to be secret Mr. Maloney's friends manage to keep close tabs on what is going on behind closed doors . . . they have an excellent idea as to what's going to happen next . . . particularly to those 50 odd members of Congress they claim are involved.

CONGRESSMAN LINKED TO PLOT

—reads a headline in the NEW YORK POST on July 25. "The Federal indictment," said the Washington dispatch under it, "did not tell even half of the story as it is known in official circles here."

"The Grand Jury," it went on to say, "which conducted the investigation has before it a mass of additional evidence concerning ramifications of the conspiracy, some of whose tentacles reach into the halls of Congress. . . . The present indictment only hinted at the extent to which members of Congress have been involved in the carrying out of the Axis conspiracy."

(Is that criminal libel, calling members of Congress traitors?)

Among those named in the article were: Representatives Hamilton Fish, Harold Knutson, Martin L. Sweeney, J. William Ditter, Leland M. Ford, Dewey Short, John M. Robinson, Stephen A. Day, Clare Hoffman, and John E. Rankin.

Who dares question their loyalty? And why?

Lt. Comdr. Walter Winchell, U.S.N.,* who has been broadcasting exclusive "scoops" almost every week about what the secret Grand Jury has been doing, has already made his contribution to this particular phase of the smear campaign. Sunday, July 26, he told his nation-wide toilet lotion audience:

> "Nearly everyone who printed seditious articles has been indicted except those who put the same things in the Congressional Record . . . But, honeychile—all of them will be confronted by the same charges after November 5th."

Whether this is true or not every Congressman named on the various "blacklists" will be under a cloud of suspicion. From now on throughout their campaigns for re-election they stand falsely accused of being involved in an "Axis plot."

Whoever has revealed secret Grand Jury developments to Lt. Comdr. Winchell has violated the law and should be punished. In any event, Congress should investigate the source of Winchell's information, and steps should be taken to prevent further abuse of the Grand Jury system for propaganda purposes.

There is something completely phony about this so-called "investigation." In the first place, if a really dangerous plot, involving Congressmen, prominent Americans and foreign agents was discovered why wasn't a competent investigator put on the job immediately? Doesn't it seem peculiar that J. Edgar Hoover, a real expert on subversive scheming by Axis agents, hasn't been called upon to contribute his talents?

 A New York Grand Jury heard some secret testimony a few years ago accusing Walter Winchell of being the instigator of a frustrated plot to murder. It was charged he tried to get gangster friends to put his editor "on the spot."

Could it be that this case was too much for his sense of honesty and justice?

Why was William Power Maloney, a rank amateur who gets his leads from Communist Daily Worker, put in charge?

How can it be explained that after two years of "investigation" not a single Communist subversive has been discovered? After all, the probe started back in 1940 when the Communists were undermining morale and were openly trying to prevent enlistments in the armed forces; when they were working hand in glove with Hitler's agents and were sabotaging our war preparations by calling unwarranted strikes in war industries from coast to coast. Even the previous Attorney General declared that Communists were responsible for major strikes in West Coast plane plants.

But Mr. Maloney couldn't find Communist subversion.

Instead every enemy of the Communists, for whose blood the Reds have been crying for years is either on the list or is definitely suspect. The Communists actually boast in their newspaper: "Daily Worker pioneered in exposing 28 Fascists" (see opposite page).

Editorially the Daily Worker gave Mr. Maloney its blessing: "Good Work!" it said. "But, there's a lot left that comes under the heading of unfinished business. Let's finish it!"

"We would have liked it better," the editorial declared, "if the names of the financial backers had headed the list of those indicted. They have accomplices and political allies in high places, but these were not named. And what about Martin Dies?"

A feature article in the same issue was headed:

MEN IN CONGRESS HAD TIES TO 28 FASCISTS

It said in part: "Arrest of the fascist conspirators must be followed by the ousting of Hitler's friends in the House and the Senate. . . . These fascists were active supporters of Senator Robert R. Reynolds, publisher of the Jew-baiting Vindicator and Chairman of the Senate Military Affairs Committee . . . These fascists campaigned for America First Senators like Burton K. Wheeler of Montana and Gerald P. Nye of North Dakota, etc."

The Daily Worker also said the fifth column "conspiracy" "points straight to professional Red-baiters such as Rep. Martin Dies."

The tip-off to what is coming is contained in the announcement that the trial will begin early in October . . . which will give Mr. Maloney just a month in which to do a good smearing job. The Con-

FASCISM OR DEMOCRACY?

If you believe in the Constitution, in the balance of power among the executive, legislative and judicial branches of government; if you believe that Congress shall perform its functions in accordance with constitutional provision—then you are a Fascist.

But if you believe in administrative law, in the assumption of judicial and legislative, as well as executive authority by administrative offices, boards, bureaus, etc.—then you are a follower of democracy.

If you believe ardently in your own country, its soil, its flag, its traditions, its history; if you love it ardently to the exclusion of every other country on earth—then you are a Fascist.

But if you are an internationalist, a lover of Soviet Russia, China, Great Britain, any place anywhere or all of them put together in some sort of conglomeration; if you dilute your love of country by regarding it merely as a secondary support to a vast congeries of states—then you are a firm believer in democracy.

If you believe in private enterprise, in individual initiative, in the right of any person to make his own way in the world, to improve his own lot and that of his family, to save money and to invest it productively—then you are a Fascist.

But if you believe in socialism, Communism, collectivism, state control of the means of production and distribution, state aid to all categories of citizens until every one is a dependent of an oligarchy of public jobholders—then you are a true believer in democracy.

If you believe that a democracy can best function under a two-party system, the opposition existing to scrutinize, examine and criticize the party in power; if you believe that elections should be absolutely free without the party in power exercising control over the decision of the voters—then you are a Fascist.

But if you believe that the party in power should be permanently in power; if you believe that its adherents and votaries should devote themselves to stealing the apparatus of the party in opposition; if you believe that officials on the public pay roll should devote themselves to political campaigning—then you are a sanctified believer in democracy.

If you believe that all public questions should be publicly discussed pro an con on an intellectual plane with a full display of the facts as they are available and an open critique of men and events—then you are a Fascist.

But if you devote yourself to smearing those who differ from you, defaming them, denouncing them, lying about them, drawing false conclusions from trivial incidents and trifling phrases, misquoting them, abusing their intellects and denying their integrity—then, forsooth, you are a paragon of democracy.

If you go through life playing fair, meeting your neighbors on a decent basis, asking no impertinent questions and generally minding your own business about matters that do not concern you, following the golden rule of live and let live without too much of a to-do about it—then you are a Fascist.

But if you shriek that the world is full of class and race and religious distinctions and discriminations; if you devote yourself to stimulating hate and interest in hatred; if you frighten certain groups of citizens by calling them minorities and making them so self-conscious that they begin to suffer an inferiority that they never felt before—then you are a follower, pursuer and prophet of democracy.

THE MEN OF 1776.

All this and more occurred to me on the Fourth of July and I could not help thinking of very simple men who met on that day in a world as sad as ours but full of hope and ambition, who wrote that paragraph of the Declaration of Independence which begins with the words, "We hold these truths to be self-evident . . . " Read that paragraph or read the entire Declaration —and ask yourself whether those who shout men down with the constant cry of "Fascist!" are not in reality seeking to destroy what those men created.

—George E. Sokolsky, in the New York Sun. July 10, 1942.

gressmen involved will be busy campaigning during this period, and will be unable to defend their reputations in court because, not having been indicted, they will not be represented by counsel; they will not be able to combat the implication of wrongdoing on their part which will most certainly be inferred, as it already has been, by innuendo.

That Mr. Maloney will resort to the most obnoxious of tactics can be seen from the despicable way in which he has conducted the so-called investigation and also in the nature of the indictment itself.

It should be noted that the defendants are not charged with the commission of certain crimes . . . they are merely alleged to have conspired to commit certain crimes . . . it will be much easier to build up a case, if any, on that basis.

Mentioned in the indictment are a list of publications and organizations which are supposed to have been used in some manner in connection with the conspiracy. Some of the publications are seditious, some are just screwball, but some are as loyally American as the Declaration of Independence—they were included solely for smearing purposes. Mr. Maloney did mention the Congressional Record among them, obviously with malicious intent, but he did not have courage enough to list the two documents the defendants used most: The Constitution of the United States and the Bible.

Among the organizations listed some were treasonable, some were disreputable and some were just plain crazy. Mr. Maloney then added some that were patriotic, absolutely praiseworthy and guiltless but which just had to be smeared. Among these were the America First Commitee and the American Coalition of Patriotic Societies.

Naturally it would have been the height of asininity to have indicted either of these or some of the others mentioned. It would have been fantastic to accuse such American First Leaders as General Wood, General Hammond and General MacNider, who is now an aide to General MacArthur, as seditionists. So America First is just smeared by association, and barred from offering any defense.

To mention the American Coalition in the indictment was likewise absurd. Its member societies include: Daughters of the Revolution, Descendants of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence, Society of Daughters of the U. S. Army, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the U. S., General Society of Mayflower Descendants, National Constitution Day Committee, National Security League, Inc., National Society Sons of the American Revolution, R. O. T. C. Association of the United States, U. S. Naval Reserve Officers Association, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, the Order of De Molay, the Junior Order United American Mechanics, and the Disabled American Veterans of the World War. The complete list of member societies numbers more than 100 patriotic organizations.

The Coalition is headed by Capt. John B. Trevor, once in charge of Military Intelligence Headquarters in New York City. Its Vice-Presidents include Mrs. Grace Brosseau, former head of the D. A. R., Hon. Bainbridge Colby, former Secretary of State, and Madame Cantacuzene, granddaughter of President Grant.

The name of the Coalition was "mentioned" in the indictment intentionally. For many years its principal job has been to fight Communism.

The "comrades" and their dupes and stooges in high places are now in a position to settle some old scores.

If Mr. Maloney has the brazen effrontery deliberately to cast aspersions on the loyalty and patriotism of such organizations and individuals as the foregoing, it is not hard to imagine what he is going to do to those members of Congress whose anti-Communism or efforts to keep us out of war has made them marked men. Their loyalty to America, its institutions and traditions may cost them their political futures . . . if the American people let the Smear and Purge Gang get away with it.

The whole idea is preposterous. Despite the contrary belief of Harry Hopkins, the American people are not going to be dumb enough to believe that good citizens who for years, some since the last war, have been fighting to defend America from totalitarian termites—Communist, Socialist, Fascist and Nazi—have suddenly become black traitors. And they will not believe it of their Congressmen. Neither are they going to believe that all those who during the same period were organizing or aiding and abetting conspiracies to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government have suddenly become our best patriots. That's what the whole argument amounts to anyway. That and nothing more.

Boiled down the situation is just this: The Communists from Union Square, the Socialists from the Rand School, the Socio-Communists from the New School, the "internationalists" from 40th St. and 5th Ave., and the "interventionists" from Freedom House, all within a radius of a mile in the heart of New York City, have joined forces and are determined to dictate politically to the people of the rest of the United States.

And with the help of well placed satellites within the Government they propose to eliminate all opposition by fair means or foul while at the same time punishing every patriotic opponent they have.

Their immediate objectives are:

1. Purge unsympathetic Congressmen
2. Kill off the Dies Committee
3. Put all anti-Communists out of business
4. Muzzle independent newspapers.

Unmindful of the fact that they are aping Hitler, these social workers, social planners, and Soldiers of Socialism are determined to eliminate or annihilate all those who might stand in the way of the attempt to Sovietize America.

It is vicious nonsense to suggest that just because certain people fought Communism or tried to keep us out of war or because certain Congressmen failed to vote as a "Liberal" clique demanded—they are Quislings, Fifth, Sixth or Seventh Columnists, Nazis, Fascists, or enemy agents with direct pipelines to Rome, Tokio and Berlin.

The Union Square-Union Now-New World Order Axis does not hold a patent on patriotism. And neither does the Bureaucracy Bund!

The proposals and plans of this Union for Democratic Disunity, which embraces the whole Leftist kit and kaboodle, are destructive of true patriotism because they attempt to identify national unity with political unity—and political unity in this sense can only mean a one-party system identical with the political systems of Hitler, Stalin and Mussolini.

Prosecutor Mahoney, Dr. Kingdon, Earl Browder, Birkhead, Goldsmith, and all the rest must not be permitted to Nazify or Communize America.

President Roosevelt envisioned the kind of a system they would impose when at 1941's Jackson Day dinner he said:

> "In dictatorships there can be no party divisions. For all men must think as they are told, speak as they are told, write as they are told, live—and die—as they are told. In those countries the nation is not above the party as with us. The party is above the nation, the party is the nation. Every common man and woman is forced to walk the straight and narrow path of the party line, as drawn by the dictator himself."

All Americans are agreed, we want none of that . . . whether it be imposed by a foreign despot or by a lot of little home-grown Hitlers of our own.

But that is exactly what we will get right here in America if our NATIVE NAZIS succeed in their "purge" and their plans.

THE AUTHOR, Joseph P. Kamp, a magazine and newspaper editor and writer, has been investigating and exposing subversive elements since the last war. He was in Michigan when the illegal Communist convention was raided by Federal agents in 1922; he was in Passaic when the Communists staged their first American "lesson in revolution" in 1926; he was in Washington when the Communist-led bonus and hunger marches converged on the Capital in the early thirties. He began exposing Communists and fellow-travelers on the Government payroll in 1933.

The truth of the facts he set forth five years ago in his widely read book "Join the CIO . . . and help build a SOVIET AMERICA" have since been attested by President Roosevelt, former Attorney General Jackson, Congressman Dies, William Green, President of the A. F. of L., and John L. Lewis.

The demand in Congress for the creation of the Dies Committee was originally initiated by Joseph P. Kamp and in the subsequent struggle to keep it alive and functioning he has been in the forefront of the battle.

When Homer Chaillaux, National Americanism Director of the American Legion, in the book "Whither America?", wrote "the inside story of the Fifth Column, from American Legion secret files" he included the statement: "We acknowledge indebtedness to the researches of our good friend, Joseph P. Kamp, who for more than twenty years has been a student of subversive movements." Charles E. Clarke, author and former Assistant Corporation Counsel of New York, in a recent biography declared: "Joseph P. Kamp is recognized as the outstanding authority on subversive activities in the United States."

Mr. Kamp joined the Constitutional Educational League in 1920 and became a Vice-Chairman in 1937.

THE LEAGUE, "organized to preserve the American System—to defend the Constitution and insure the right to Liberty and Property," was established in 1919 by a group of veterans of the last war who returned from France to find Red agitators denouncing the Government for which they had been ready to give their lives. The League was set up to present an intellectual defense.

Outstanding national leaders who have participated in the League's work include: President William Howard Taft, General Leonard Wood, Brig. Gen. Theodore Roosevelt, Hon. James M. Beck, Brig. Gen. Luke Callan, Maj. Gen. Robert E. Noble, and Commander Edward E. Spafford, to mention a few.

Its speakers have addressed thousands of meetings in every part of the country. For the training of speakers and patriotic leaders the League organized the "Soap Box University" in 1920 and "Constitution College" in 1937. It has distributed millions of booklets and pamphlets on the Constitution. Literature and information on subversive elements have been supplied on request to countless patriotic, fraternal and civic organizations, Chiefs of Police, labor unions, newspapers, clergymen, libraries, Chambers of Commerce, American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Members of Congress, United States Civil Service Commission, Army and Navy Intelligence, the War Department and the F. B. I.

CONGRESS SHOULD INVESTIGATE

A joint Committee of the Senate and the House should be appointed to investigate the sinister forces behind every phase of the conspiracy indicated herein. This is not a job for a secret Grand Jury where facts and evidence can be manipulated by a biased or easily influenced prosecutor, nor can the inquiry be conducted successfully by the Dies Committee.

The prestige and influence of both Houses of Congress will be needed to match its authority with the powerful forces involved. It will take plenty of courage, and pressure from many quarters will have to be ignored, if the truth is to be brought into the open.

The secret, under-cover combinations and their activities and influences are only lightly touched on in the pages of this booklet. But, there is an abundance of evidence of insidious machinations and countless "leads" fraught with sinister implications are available to honest and conscientious Congressional investigators.

Let such a Committee discover: Who is promoting the class war? WHY? Who is agitating the Negro question? WHY? Who is raising the religious issue? WHY? Who is stirring up anti-Semitism? WHY? Who is undermining the faith of the American people in their institutions of government? WHY?

Let such a Committee call members of the Senate and the House who have already indicated they know something about the forces operating behind the scenes; let it call investigators and members of the Dies Committee and find out what they have discovered in their years of investigation and about which nothing has been made public; let it call all those mentioned by name in the foregoing pages; let it air this whole foul business and as Mrs. Roosevelt says find out "once and for all" what is going on, and WHY?

It is imperative that Congress investigate—

BUT IT WILL NOT INVESTIGATE

—unless you, and You, and YOU write to your Senators and Representatives requesting that something be done about this situation, without delay. Tell them you are interested in winning the war in a hurry . . . that until steps are taken to counteract the forces which breed disunity, the winning of the war hangs in the balance. Urge them to ACT. Tell them you believe real action is needed NOW!

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. D. M. LADD

Re: GEORGE DEATHERAGE
Sedition

SAC Kuhnel, Huntington, called at the above time with reference to this case. He advised that their latest information as to the present location of this subject is that he is in Hattiesburg, Mississippi; that he left St. Albens approximately 60 days ago and since that time has been floating around Mississippi, Tennessee, and in that area. He advised that the Richmond, Huntington, Jackson, Memphis and other offices have been watching him to see where he was going. He stated they received a teletype from Jackson advising that subject had connected with some construction company at Hattiesburg, Mississippi, and that he was leaving at that time on a special project for this company over in Arkansas.

Late last night someone from the Department called the Assistant District Attorney in Huntington asking him to file a fugitive complaint in this regard. The Assistant District Attorney came to see the field office about it, and he was told the subject was no longer in this territory, that so far as they knew, he was in Mississippi. It is Mr. Kuhnel's understanding that he, the Assistant District Attorney, notified the Department to that effect. He also advised that they took no further action in this regard nor made further comment.

He was instructed to treat this indictment like the original indictment of the 28 individuals; that is, we make no comment relative to this matter and we file no complaints. If a marshal should call one of our offices saying he has a warrant and asks if we know where the fugitive is, of course, we will tell them like we would any law enforcement officer who inquires as to the whereabouts of a fugitive, but we will take no part in the service of this warrant.

Respectfully,

Re: GEORGE D. DEATHERAGE; KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE CAMELLIA; AMERICAN CHRISTIAN NATIONALIST PARTY; ESPIONAGE; REGISTRATION ACT; INTERNAL SECURITY - G.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to my telephonic conversation with Mr. MUMFORD at the Bureau on January 6, 1943, at which time I informed him that one ED CAMPBELL of the Associated Press, Little Rock, Arkansas, had telephonically advised me on the same date that he had received information that subject had been indicted by a Federal Grand Jury at Washington, D. C., along with others, charged with sedition, and further, he had received a tip that DEATHERAGE was to be arrested at Hot Springs, Arkansas; further, that immediately after Mr. CAMPBELL called this office, I received a telephonic communication from Chief of Police WELDON RASBERRY, Hot Springs, Arkansas, to the effect that he had noted subject's name in the paper on January 5, 1943, as being a person indicted in Washington, D. C., on a charge of sedition, and that he, RASBERRY, knew a GEORGE DEATHERAGE to be in Hot Springs, working with a construction company, who he believed was identical with subject and he desired to assist the Bureau in effecting his apprehension if desired.

DEFERRED RECORDING

As I pointed out to Mr. MUMFORD in my telephonic conversation with him, I informed Mr. CAMPBELL of the Associated Press that I had no comment to make in the matter, and I further pointed out to Mr. RASBERRY that this Bureau was not seeking to arrest DEATHERAGE, BUT I would make inquiry and pass the information along to the proper authorities. I also pointed out to Mr. MUMFORD that prior to the call from Mr. CAMPBELL and Chief RASBERRY, Special Agent DOUGLAS O. SMITH, Resident Agent at Fort Smith, Arkansas, had been advised by the Marshal's Office that Mr. JACK EAST of Little Rock, Arkansas, had telephonically communicated with the Marshal's Office at Fort Smith, to the effect that when subject was arrested he desired to be present to make his bond. The Marshal's Office had no record of the subject being wanted and desired to know if this Bureau had any record on subject.

Re: GEORGE D. DEATHERAGE; ETAL.

Mr. MUMFORD advised me this Bureau was taking no action in connection with the apprehension of DEATHERAGE or any other person who was indicted by the Federal Grand Jury in Washington, D. C., and in the event any requests were received to effect the apprehension of subject, this Bureau should take no action but the information brought to the attention of the Bureau as to subject's whereabouts should be furnished to the appropriate United States Marshal.

Subsequent to my conversation with Mr. MUMFORD, I telephonically communicated with Mr. C. E. AIKEN, Deputy United States Marshal, in the absence of HENRY ARMSTRONG, the United States Marshal, and advised him of the information received by this office as to the whereabouts of GEORGE DEATHERAGE. Mr. AIKEN informed me he has not received any official requests or warrants for DEATHERAGE, and he was at a loss to understand why a bondsman was able to call up the Marshal's Office before any apprehension was effected. He also informed he had received telephonic inquiry from the Associated Press on the morning of January 6, 1943, inquiring as to whether DEATHERAGE had been arrested. He could not understand how everyone could know about a person being wanted prior to the time the United States Marshal's Office had received any notice that a person was wanted.

No further action is being taken by this office in regard to this matter.

Very truly yours,

FRED HALLFORD, SAC.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. D. M. LADD

RE: GEORGE DETHERIDGE

SAC Hallford of the Little Rock Office called today with reference to the above case and advised that he had gotten information from Fort Smith, Arkansas, that a Bondsman from Little Rock had called and said that if Detheridge was taken into custody, he would make his bond. Shortly thereafter Mr. Hallford received a call informing him that Detheridge was going to be picked up in Hot Springs, Arkansas. About fifteen minutes after this call, he received a call from Hot Springs advising him that there was a George Detheridge in Hot Springs. Mr. Hallford did not know whether he was the same man who is wanted or not as they do not have very much information on him except that he is connected with the the Knights of the White Camilla.

I told Mr. Hallford that this was probably the same man, but that the Bureau has nothing to do with this case and if he receives any inquiry of any kind from the U. S. Attorney or from the Marshal, he should tell them that this is a case which has been handled exclusively by the Department and that the Bureau can take no action of any kind in it until the Department in Washington requests it. I told him to call the Marshal and tell him that he had received this call saying that George Detheridge is in Hot Springs and that he is merely passing the information on to the Marshal in case he is requested to apprehend the man. I told him that as far as newspapers are concerned he should make no comment whatsoever. I told him that we would have nothing to do with any search, seizure or arrest.

Mr. Hallford said that he would call the Marshal at ~~Fort Smith~~ Little Rock.

SEDITION

[redacted] 11/22/55 [redacted]

On January 11, 1943, Mr. Marshall W. Amis, Regional Director of the Federal Public Housing Authority, Electric Building, Fort Worth, Texas, telephonically contacted the Bureau's Dallas Field Division in connection with the case against this subject and specifically requested that he be advised as to whether the charge against Deatherage is of such a serious nature as to "preclude" his working on any Federal project.

Mr. Amis stated that Deatherage is employed as the General Superintendent for Newton and Glenn, contractors, of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, who are presently engaged on a project at Jones Mill, Arkansas for the Federal Public Housing Authority. He further commented that he had learned that Deatherage was released on bail immediately after his arrest on January 9, 1943, and indicated that Deatherage would probably continue his work with Newton and Glenn.

Mr. Amis requested that the reply to this inquiry be directed to the Federal Public Housing Authority at Washington, D. C., and as the Criminal Division is handling the case against Deatherage, I have informed Honorable Herbert Emmerich, Commissioner, Federal Public Housing Authority, that Mr. Amis' inquiry has been referred to you.

RE: GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE
REGISTRATION ACT
SEDITION

George E. Deatherage is a native born citizen, having been born November 15, 1893, at Duluth, Minnesota. He attended high school in that city and after his graduation pursued a course in Civil Engineering from the International Correspondence School, while working for contracting companies in the Midwest and in New York City. He married in approximately 1920, and has a son 19 years of age. He is permanently estranged from his wife and son, who live in Duluth, Minnesota.

Deatherage was for many years employed as an engineer in charge of construction for the Carbide and Chemical Corporation, South Charleston, West Virginia, residing in St. Albans, West Virginia. He was dismissed from this position in 1937 because of his Fascist activities.

In 1940 - 1941 Deatherage worked as a construction engineer at Camp Lee, Virginia, under the Construction Quartermaster. He completed his job there in March, 1941. In August, 1941, he was employed as executive engineer, Doyle and Russell Construction Company, U.S. Naval Operating Base, Norfolk, Virginia.

On February 23, 1942, the Secretary of the Navy invoked the provisions of Article 27 (C) of the contract between the Navy Department and Doyle and Russell, which provision allows the Secretary of the Navy to exclude undesirable persons from the site of Navy work, and Deatherage was discharged.

He thereafter sought employment with the Office for Emergency Management and a Special Inquiry investigation was conducted on him by this Bureau.

In 1934 Deatherage organized the Knights of the White Camellia, which organization was incorporated in the State of West Virginia in August, 1935, with Deatherage as National Commander. The chief source of finances for the organization was Deatherage's personal fortune of about $25,000 and what he could spare from his monthly earnings.

RECORDED

Deatherage organized the American Nationalist Confederation in 1937, ostensibly for the purpose of establishing liaison with other groups having the same objectives as the Knights of the White Camellia. This organization has never been incorporated and Deatherage concedes that the American Nationalist Confederation, throughout its existence, has been only a letterhead organization and did not seek individual membership. On a mimeographed bulletin put out by this organization dated April 23, 1938, the caption read,

53 MAR 2 1943 224

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED DATE 11/22/93 BY SP2 [illegible]

"Platform of the American Nationalist Confederation -- A Fascist Party." The official emblem of this organization was a swastika. Among those who affiliated themselves with this organization were William Dudley Pelley of the Silver Shirts, Gerald P. Winrod, James True, Charles B. Hudson, editor of "America in Danger," one Mrs. Frey, a West Coast pro-Nazi leader and head of the Militant Christian Patriots, Donald Shea of the National Gentile League, and F. W. Clark, of the National Liberty Party.

During 1937, 1938 and 1939, Deatherage was active in various Fascist movements, went on speaking tours, and on August 23, 1939 shared the platform at a Christian Mobilizer Rally with Fritz Kuhn and Joseph E. McWilliams.

A review of the Bureau's files regarding this individual indicates he is strongly anti-Communist and anti-Semitic, but that no evidence of any connection between him and a foreign principal has been developed. Considerable investigation has been conducted, his private papers have been searched and examined, but to date no evidence of value has been located. In the past two and a half years he has discontinued most of the activities which caused him to become the subject of Bureau investigation. He has not been head of the Knights of the White Camellia since November, 1939. Investigation shows that Deatherage's activities have been largely dormant since he declined the presidency of that organization in 1939.

It is noted that neither of the Sedition Statutes were in effect prior to June, 1940, at which time Deatherage was no longer active with the Knights of the White Camellia.

In view of the negative nature of the information developed by our investigation, an opinion as to prosecution of Deatherage has not been requested of the Department.

THE CASE OF GEORGE DEATHERAGE AND WOMEN UNITED

New York, N. Y.,

January 12, 1943.

The Hour can reveal that George V. Deatherage, who has just been indicted by a Washington Federal Grand Jury as one of the ringleaders in a conspiracy to sabotage the morale and discipline of the United States armed forces, maintained close contact with Women United, the unofficial ladies' auxiliary of the America First Committee which was organized with the help of the paid Nazi agent, Laura Ingalls. Women United was sponsored and supported by the America First Political clique in Congress - by Senators Burton K. Wheeler, Robert Rice Reynolds, Bennett Champ Clark, and Gerald P. Nye. Political activities of Women United were privately assisted by the Senators' wives: Mrs. Lulu Wheeler, Mrs. Robert A. Taft and Mrs. Bennett Champ Clark.

Behind the scenes, George V. Deatherage gave confidential instructions to Mrs. Geraldine Buchanan Parker, the Executive Secretary of Women United, on how Nazi anti-Semitic propaganda might be spread throughout the United States in a camouflaged form "acceptable" to the American public.

On April 14, 1941, Deatherage replied to a communication from Mrs. Parker and suggested how she might disseminate Nazi anti-Semitic propaganda without revealing herself to be an open adherent to Nazism:

> "Your literature does not need to state the word - Jew. All you have to do in order to place the blame where the people can understand it is to accuse the international bankers. The masses have now been educated to understand what is meant."

Urging Mrs. Parker to "put out 25,000 leaflets putting the blame on the international bankers," Deatherage wrote:

> "Sen. Holt (Senator Rush D. Holt of West Virginia) can give you the information, you can quote from the Congressional Record - it is there."

Deatherage's Career

George V. Deatherage was first exposed as a pro-Nazi propagandist by this newsletter on May 30, 1939. At that time The Hour made public the fact that Dr. Goebbels Propaganda Ministry, recognizing the role Deatherage was playing in spreading Nazi doctrines in the United States, had invited him to attend an international conference of anti-Semitic propagandists at Erfurt, Germany. Nazi agents from all parts of the world attended this Erfurt conference, at which Deatherage was enthusiastically hailed as the American delegate. He addressed the conference in English. His topic was: "Will America be the Jews' Waterloo?"

On his return from Germany, Deatherage proceeded to organize an American Fascist movement under the leadership of General George Van Horn Moseley. Deatherage called his organization, which was frankly fascist in character, the American Nationalist Confederation. He wrote to his associate James Campbell: "....the organization must be built around a propaganda organization now that can in a few hours be turned into a militant fighting force. That is the idea of the boss, also, but it must be kept on the Q.T."

In the intense political atmosphere which preceded the Axis attack on the United States, George Deatherage was particularly active in spreading the isolationist-appeasement propaganda of the America First Committee. Realizing that his earlier openly pro-Nazi propaganda was now out of tune with the times, Deatherage assumed the role of braintruster to the America First movement, instructing professional "isolationists" in the art of spreading Nazi propaganda without betraying its origin.

He was especially interested in guiding the newly-formed America First women's organizations which sprang up all over the country during 1940-41 as a result of the diligent spadework of such ladies as Laura Ingalls, who is now in jail as a convicted Nazi agent, and Elizabeth Dilling, Mrs. Leslie Fry and Mrs. Lois de Lafayette Washburn, all of whom are now under Federal indictment on charges of sedition and conspiracy to sabotage morale. Laura Ingalls, while on the Nazi payroll, took a leading part in the organization of Women United which was founded in New York City around the end of March 1941.

Re: ESPIONAGE CASES PENDING JACKSON FIELD DIVISION

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to Bureau letter of January 29, 1943, addressed to all Special Agents in Charge, No. 33, Series 1943, requesting a review of every case carried under the Espionage character in each office so that if the facts do not warrant that the case be carried as Espionage, consideration should be given to continuing the investigation under another character.

This is to advise that I have personally reviewed all of the cases in this office carrying Espionage in the character, and I find that we have no Espionage cases of which the Jackson Office is the office or origin. There are six Espionage cases pending in this District, which have been reviewed by the writer with the following results:

1. "HANS HELMUT GROS, was et al; ESPIONAGE - G", Los Angeles origin, pending in Jackson Office on a lead to circularize all Selective Service Boards. This case is apparently correctly carried as Espionage.

2. "GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE; KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE CAMELLIA; ESPIONAGE, REGISTRATION ACT; INTERNAL SECURITY-G, CUSTODIAL DETENTION". In this case Huntington is the office of origin. A referred upon completion report is ready for typing in the Jackson Office. Although this case is carried as a "61" case in the office or origin, it was opened as a "65" case in the Jackson Office.

RECORDED 97-649-180

3. "PACIFIC MOVEMENT OF THE EASTERN WORLD, INC., ET AL: INTERNAL SECURITY - J, SELECTIVE SERVICE, ESPIONAGE-J". St. Louis is the office of origin and a report has been dictated in the Jackson Office referring the case upon completion to the office of origin.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED DATE 11-22-99 BY SP4 MLW #44362

4. "MILTON MINES; ESPIONAGE". Birmingham is the office of origin. This case is pending in the Jackson Office on a lead, which is being held in abeyance pending a check at New York. This apparently is incorrectly carried as an Espionage case inasmuch as it involves an individual taking photographs from a train between New Orleans and Birmingham.

5. "ALBERT ERNEST GAVIN, wa; ESPIONAGE - G". New York is the office of origin. The case is pending in the Jackson Office on a lead. The Jackson Office does not have sufficient information upon which to base a decision as to whether or not the case is correctly carried as Espionage.

6. "VIRGINIA KERR MARKHAM, was; ESPIONAGE - G". Louisville is the office of origin. The case is pending in the Jackson Office on a lead. The Jackson Office does not have sufficient information upon which to base an opinion as to whether the character of this case is Espionage.

I wish to advise the Bureau that for the past year and a half I have required the Chief Clerk to secure my permission before opening a case carrying the classification Espionage, except where another office is origin, and they have already submitted a report carrying the case as Espionage. Because of this rule no Espionage cases have been opened in the Jackson Office until it appeared that there were grounds for considering the case as an Espionage case.

Very truly yours,

My Dear Mr Hoover:

In connection with your private letter, I am enclosing you the following- this may help your Bureau in solving the Dethrage Case. and in checking upon Mr Dethrage. I saw an article(in the Star stating he had secured Wendell Wilkie as counsel with a ten dollar fee as retainer) From the looks - it maybe he is a son or relative toth e one in the enclosed paper.

In 1904, My Father- was swindled out of his money thru the man in the accompanying paper - who was a promoter and who I have copies of letters and papers about. I think that he was associated with the Late John G Slater- his sons, Robert Slater & Charles Slater - and Oscar F Clifford Stock Promoters. My Father was a mining Engineer and Brokerage Business- and was a Director in Pan American Mining and Smelting Co of Parrall and Chihauhau- Mexico and its main office was in New York at 11 Wall St and later was removed uptown.

I hold stock certificates issued in my Father's name for vast sums of money and stock but my Father was completely clean ed out of his money.

I thought that maybe this might be a lead to some of the many intrigues of the dealings of maybe this man - The Deathrage in this paper was vastly interested in German interests in Mexico for control of mining amd metals Knowing as I do the little outlines I think that maybe this man may have been connected with James K Detriects that was the King of Promoters who operated all thru central America.

I was only a little girl at the time Father used to go back and forth to Mexico- in the interest of his mining interests and claims there, and in South Western Arizon and Nevada.- but I used to hear things said- and of late I have been reading over some old letters here in connection with those stock deals, and it struck me that maybe this might lead to some clue.

But the loss would be worth it, if all, I his daughter could help bring to justice the crimnals who have been fleecing the people for years and espeecially if they are working in the interest of Foreign Governments to the detriment of the United States.

Also I hold stock certificates of Central Gold and Copper Co and Pittsburgh Tonopah Company and other mines.

The accompanying letter will identy the statements above I have lots of Fathers old letters on these deals- - Should you wish to see the letters, I will bring them down.

Willkie to Return $10 To Deatherage If He Ever Gets It

14024-A

'Retainer Fee' May Be In Unopened Mail, Attorney Declares

Wendell Willkie, 1940 Republican presidential candidate, today promised to refund the $10 "retainer" reputedly sent him by George E. Deatherage—if it ever shows up. At the same time, the Government pushed plans for the trial of Mr. Deatherage, 49-year-old civil engineer, and 32 others, who are charged with conspiring to undermine the morale of the armed forces.

In the face of Mr. Deatherage's insistent assertion that he mailed a $10 money order to Mr. Willkie as part payment of a fee to represent him, the latter made this statement in New York, according to the Associated Press:

"I receive thousands of letters a week. I haven't the slightest notion whether Mr. Deatherage sent me $10 or not. If he did, it will turn up eventually in the mails and I will return it to him. At present, my office is two or three weeks behind opening all except very personal mail. As I said before, I don't know Mr. Deatherage."

Mr. Deatherage, one of six defendants who was arraigned and pleaded not guilty in District Court yesterday, told reporters that on November 16, 1942, he mailed Mr. Willkie $10 from Greenville, Miss.

Mr. Deatherage produced what he said was a postal money order receipt for the $10. A postal employe said the money order had not yet been cashed.

The defendant in the Government case said the money order was mailed, with an explanatory letter, to Mr. Willkie at 20 Pine street, New York City. He said he assumed Mr. Willkie received both the money order and the letter, but had not returned the money.

Mr. Deatherage announced in Hot Springs, Ark., Saturday that Mr. Willkie "is my attorney." He said he read Mr. Willkie's earlier statement in which the former Republican presidential candidate was quoted by the Associated Press as saying: "So far as I know, I have never heard of the man and never saw him. I have never been employed in the matter and would never accept such employment."

Mr. Deatherage answered: "If Mr. Willkie won't represent me I want my money back.

Others arraigned yesterday—all of them pleading not guilty—were William Dudley Pelley, who is serving a 15-year sentence for sedition; Victor Broenstrupp, who is in [illegible] in default of $10,000 bond; [illegible]oh Townsend, who is serving a [illegible]sente[illegible] plea of guilty to

...ion Committee was set up in November, 1940, and under its auspices zone conferences were held in 1941 with a view to achieving wage stabilization among workers in the industry.

These conferences resulted in the establishment of uniform wage agreements in four zones. In order to interpret and administer these agreements, the committee was increased to 31 members last August. The committee, however, had no power to issue orders on labor disputes, and lacked authority over wages in yards which had not voluntarily come under its stabilization agreements. These agreements fixed a wage rate of $1.20 an hour for standard skilled mechanics, but did not lay down a uniform schedule for other wage rates.

Acting as the agent of the WLB, the new commission has been given authority to approve or disapprove requests for voluntary adjustments of wage rates or salaries for any type of job in the shipbuilding industry. Under the board's order, it is instructed to apply zone standards to yards which have agreed to these standards.

The new commission will be under orders to follow the wage stabilization and other wage policies of the WLB. Rulings of the commission will be final, subject only to review by the WLB.

Educators Propose Program to Ease Teacher Shortage

State-Wide Surveys, Financial Aid for Students Sought

By the Associated Press.

EVANSTON, Ill., Jan. 13.—A definite plan designed to relieve the growing shortage of teachers in America's grade and secondary schools was proposed today by two members of Northwestern University's school of education, Drs. Frank S. Endicott and F. C. Rosecrance.

Pointing out that the expected shortage at the start of the 1943-4 year was estimated at 50,000, Drs. Endicott and Rosecrance suggested:

State Surveys Urged.

State-wide surveys by State Departments of Public Instruction to reveal the number and types of positions likely to be open at the beginning of the 1943-4 year.

Registration through local schools of all persons not now teaching but qualified to teach or able to qualify with three months of full-time training.

Special summer programs of all types of teacher education institutions to meet the needs of persons requiring "refresher" courses.

Dear Sir:-

Referring to the Quebradillas Mine; since March 1st, timbering and filling have been extensively carried on. The mine is now good working order. There are now employed around and in the mine, about 160 men. Development work has been crowded to its utmost, and from the 200 foot level to the 900 foot level development work is going on, or in other words 700 feet of the old developed ground drifts have been extended on veins, cross cuts to ore zones, and in every instance, we have discovered ore in good quantities, and in value running from $35,00 to $125,00 per ton! There is now being shipped from the mine, $2,500,00 worth of ore daily, and in thirty days more we will increase this output to 3,500,00 per day, and within four months the output will be so increased that we will ship $4,500,00 worth of ore per day. This increase will be kept up as rapidly as the new ground is opened up.

As soon as the new boilers and pump arrive and are installed, the water will be pumped out of the 10th, level where there is already a half million dollars worth of ore blocked out ready for extraction.

Additional boilers and pumps and machinery are now on order to carry the development work to a greater depth.

The central shaft, which is located 800 feet from the north end of the mine, is being timbered, and will be equipped with a hoist. Hoisting ore will then be carried on through this shaft as well as through the San Diego shaft. Also ore zone will be developed at this point, and carried on south of this shaft.

The Quebradillas Mine is holding up fully to my expectations, and in fact, in some instances, better, especially as to the vein ore that has been discovered since the company took this property over, and there is no question in my mind but that the Quebradillas Mine will be the greatest dividend payer in Parral.

Yours truly,

J. W. Pendar, M. E.

JAX. 65-60

Subject had been staying at the hotel from October 23, 1942 to November 17, 1942. When he left on October 23, 1942 he informed WILLIAM KING he was going to Memphis, Tennessee, and would return at a later date to the hotel. He left a forwarding address good until November 20, 1942, which address was c/o JAMES TAVE, Key Boulevard Apartment, 1803 North Quinn Street, Arlington, Virginia. Through the cooperation of WILKINSON and KING, it was ascertained that the subject had sent the following telegrams by way of Western Union from the Hotel Greenville:

On 10/28/42 - Telegram to NORMA BARTON, St. Albins, Virginia.

On 10/30/42 - Telegram to Charlotte, North Carolina.

WILKINSON related during his stay at the hotel he had sent a telegram to District Attorney CURRAN in Washington, D. C., which reads something like this: "Understand you want me to be a witness in a case. If you do wire money for transportation and expenses". WILKINSON did not know the nature of subject's activities in Greenville, Mississippi. He said subject was very quiet and had made no personal contacts in the lobby of the hotel and no telephone calls.

On November 20, 1942 and December 9, 1942, the subject received letters from BOB DEATHERAGE, 5525 Huntington Street, Duluth, Minnesota. On December 15, 1942 the subject received a letter from WENDELL L. WILKIE, 18 Broad Street, New York City, New York. It was learned from WILKINSON that subject had stayed at the hotel for one day on November 28, 1942. He took his automobile and said he would return to Greenville at a later date. WILKINSON, in conversation with him, found that he was going to Hattiesburg, where the main office of a firm, with which he was connected, was stationed. WILKINSON could not find out the nature of his business or the exact location of the subject in Hattiesburg.

Dear Sir:-

On my last investigation of the Granadena Mine, I find that the ore vein has practically been opened up about 500 feet in length on the 100 foot level, and shaft is sunk about 65 feet below this point, and is also in solid ore, and of a higher grade than on the 100 foot level, but all this ore has increased in value since my examination last October, as follows: Silver $2.25, Gold $5.50, and Lead 12%. This is an increase of $13.59 net value over the average of $9.32 of my October report, making a total net profit on the ore of $22.91 gold. The value of zinc in a crude ton of ore is $10.00 gold making total net value of $32.91.

Development on this property now would justify a concentrating plant [illegible] 75 tons capacity per day, making a net earning of $2,468.25 per day. [illegible]s this there would be 100 to 200 tons of high grade ore per month [illegible]d be shipped to the smelters direct, which would greatly increase [illegible]rnings. In this property, there is on a conservative estimate, [illegible] of ore which will, at the average price of $32.91, have a net [illegible]20.00 gold. Note that this is not bringing into account [illegible]re.

[illegible] you to my October report for the cost of mining, administering [illegible]nal boiler and pump, which have just been installed, [illegible] carried on more rapidly, and within the next four [illegible]e developments, there should be as much ore put [illegible]n in the past.

Dear Sir:

RE: 4595043-10 - GEORGE EDWARD DEATHERAGE

We have covered the above mentioned individual as an employe under a bond which we have written in favor of Mr. F. T. Newton, General Contractor, Hattiesburg, Miss., Mr. Deatherage filling the position of Project Manager located at Jones Mill, Ark.

Mr. Deatherage states that he is 49 years old, that his home address is in Hot Springs, Ark., that his father's name is Isaac Deatherage, Orlando, Fla., and that he was born in Duluth, Minn. on November 15, 1893.

During the course of our investigation of this individual, we learned that he has been quite notorious and outstanding as the founder of an organization known as the "Knights of the White Camelia", which is an Anti-Jewish and Anti-Negro organization, that he has been formerly employed by E. B. Badger & Sons Company and also at the Norfolk Navy Yards, and that he had been released from their employment because of his Anti-Jewish and Anti-Negro activities. We also have word to the effect that he was employed by Messrs. Doyle and Russell, apparently of Norfolk, Va., but word is received to the effect that Capt. C. H. Cotter, U. S. N., Norfolk, Va., stated that Mr. Deatherage was dismissed from the employ of that concern by direction of the Secretary of the Navy.

In each circumstance the indications are to the effect that Mr. Deatherage is a skillful engineer and that while employed, his work was apparently satisfactory in the highest degree.

The part that draws our particular notice is that we have also received word to the effect that he had been indicted by Federal Authorities for his subversive activities, and that he had not only been before the United States Grand Jury, but also before a United States Senate Investigation Committee.

If these statements are true, it is our belief that doubtless your Bureau has a record of this individual. We are wondering if you will not let us know whether it is true that he has been indicted for his subversive activities and if so, would you mind giving us what information you properly can with respect to the character thereof, etc?

Thanking you for whatever assistance you may give us in coming to a conclusion whether we can properly continue on this man's bond, I am

American Nationalist Inc., 2 West 45th Street, New York City, was organized by DUDLEY P. GILBERT. It was allegedly anti-Communist. It issued a paper entitled "The American Nationalist". This is not the same as the party headed by INGRAM HUGHES called the American Nationalist Party, however, the ideology is the same.

STANLEY A. SMITH of Houston Press, Haworth, New Jersey, advised that in December of 1937 he met G. ANDREW MORIARITY, now residing somewhere in the State of Maine, Dr. A. SOHLER BRYANT, 30 East 40th Street, ARTHUR GOADBY, East 37th Street, and Mr. RYERSON, at a dinner in the Harvard Club in Manhattan, at which time they agreed upon organizing the American Nationalist Party. The idea behind their move was to form a political organization to oppose Communism and to carry on the ideals of the American form of government. He stated that this was a patriotic organization and in no sense of the word was un-American; however, he agreed that the organization later become strongly anti-Semitic. SMITH was elected chairman, GOADBY treasurer, MORIARITY secretary, and their offices were first maintained at 17 East 49th Street.

This party was disorganized in March of 1938 but reorganized in October of the same year when JOHN H. TAYLOR, now deceased, was appointed director and SMITH returned as chairman and ADAM KUNZE was elected treasurer. From then until the late fall of 1939 meetings were held weekly. SMITH related that this organization embodied between 800 and 1,000 men in all. The groups were organized in the Bronx, Queens, Brooklyn, and Manhattan and the Manhattan group was the largest. The meetings of the party were held at various public halls and speakers were outstanding anti-Semitic, anti-Communist speakers, among whom were RUSSELL DUNNE, WILLIAM MEYER, JOE McWILLIAMS, WILLIAM HORKANS, and JOHN CECIL.

He firmly contended that this party was formed for the express purpose of advocating the American form of government and for the purpose of creating a more loyal interest in the government. SMITH advised his connection with the American Nationalist Party was severed in November 1939, at which time ANDREW TAYLOR, a leader of the faction which had continuously opposed him, SMITH, was elected to the chairmanship. He further stated that no inter-party relations existed between the Christian Front and the American Nationalist Party but did state that a number of the persons belonging have been members of both organizations.

GEORGE J. MINTZER, attorney at 39 Broadway, who possesses voluminous files pertaining to anti-Semitic activities in New York, made available the files in his possession which reflected that WILLIAM HORKANS was the chairman of the American Nationalist Party at the time it became inactive in the early part of 1940. Mr. MINTZER said that this party was anti-Semitic and that its creed was along the same line as that of the Christian Front but whose membership has never been large. He reported that STANLEY A. SMITH severed his connections with this party because of his failure to severely con[illegible] the Jewish race. MINTZER further stated that NELLIE POPE; Mr. and [illegible] JOHN BENDER; Mr. and Mrs. JOSEPH BLEES; WILLIE MEYER; JOHN NILSON, 6 West 127th Street; ADAM KUNZE, 212 Broadway; CAROLINE MEAD; JASPER IPPOLITO; JOSEPH ARMSTRONG; WILLIAM HORKANS; Dr. WILLIAM S. BRYANT; and EDWARD MEYER had been active leaders of the American Nationalist Party since its inception; that most of these persons have been close friends of all the anti-Semitic organizations in New York, and that KUNZE in particular is well known as a former Bund leader in New York City and that NELLIE POPE was believed to have been the secretary. MINTZER also informed that this party had factions in Brooklyn, New York which met in the Ridgewood Hall under the leadership of one LIEBLER, a Brooklyn attorney.

PATRICK J. McGUIRE advised that he had become a member of the Nationalist Party around September, 1938 but ceased to consider himself a member of this organization a few months later when he discovered that it had degenerated into a simple Nazi organization. He advised that he had attended some meetings of the Nationalist Party at the Innisfail Park, Manhattan but was present at only a few meetings after they moved to the Tri-Boro Palace. McGUIRE stated that after he left the Nationalist Party he became a close follower of JOE McWILLIAMS whom he originally considered an ardent patriot as well as an excellent speaker. McGUIRE stated that he and his neighbor, JOE CONLON, attended a rally sponsored by JOE McWILLIAMS, at which FRITZ KUHN and DEATHERAGE were honorary guests; that when KUHN mounted the platform he and his friend CONLON left the meeting in disgust.

Mrs. MARION SINGLETON, 750 Park Avenue, West New York, New Jersey, advised that the American Nationalist Party, which she stated was a pro-Nazi Fascist organization, first came to her attention the early part of 1939 through AUGUST ZUBER, also known as "BOB" WALSH, who is married to the niece of her husband. Through ZUBER, Mrs. SINGLETON met WILLIE MEYER who she stated was somewhat of a front man for the party and who addresses meetings for various members, which meetings are usually held in the homes of the members. She stated that MEYER was a former active member of the Bund and that MEYER told her it was the object of this organization to enlist as many Army and Navy officers aspossible and that ZUBER had remarked to her that it is assembling a number of officers, both Army or Navy, who are interested or who have become members of the American Nationalist Party.

EDWIN P. BANTA advised that he had attended one meeting of the American Nationlist Party which was held at Caravan Hall at 110 East 59th Street, on January 19, 1940. A Mr. HAWKINS spoke at this meeting and appeared to be one of the officers of the group. After the meeting HAWKINS informed BANTA that he had been expelled from the Christian Front but did not state the reason for his expulsion. BANTA stated that during this meeting discussions were anti-Jewish and anti-Communist and this group appeared to him to be an off-shot of the German American Bund. b7D

Confidential Informant [redacted] whose identity is known to the Bureau, turned over a flyer which advertised meetings of the American Nationalist Party. This flyer indicates the meetings were scheduled to be held at the New Ridgewood Hall, 1880 Menahan Street, Ridgewood, New York August 17 and 31, 1939; meetings scheduled for the Tri-Boro Palace, 137th Street and Third Avenue, Bronx, New York every Wednesday night; meetings in Jamaica, Long Island, Queens on August 22, September 5, 1939 and meetings in the Bronx at the Belmont Hall, 599 East 184th Street on August 10 and 24, 1939.

Files of the New York Field Division further reflect that at a meeting of the American Nationalist Party on June 28, 1939 attended by approximately 350 people, the principal speakers were STANLEY SMITH, NELLIE POPE, EUGENE DANIELS, WILLIE MEYER. Among the non-speaking personalities present was JOE E. McWILLIAMS. SMITH, the first speaker, read a clipping telling how in a certain school over one-third of the publis refused to salute the flag. This was followed by a suggestion to salute the flag, at which time the audience used the arm extended Nazi salute. SMITH after officially opening the meeting handed out petitions to be sent to State Senator JAMES A. MEAD, requesting him to vote against a Bloom and Pittman neutrality bill. NELLIE POPE in her speech was very anti-Semitic and gave long blasts on "Confessions of a Nazi Spy" and occasionally blasted Mrs. Roosevelt. The last speaker of the evening was WILLIAM MEYER. MEYER gave typical Nazi discussion, Jewish hatred, but put most of his effort into an attack on Britain and France. His talk concluded with the fact our true allies were Germany and Italy.

At a meeting of the same party on June 14, 1939 speakers were SEMPLE, BANTA, STNALEY SMITH and HENRY CLINTON. The usual tables of subversive material were on sale at the door, among which was a book being sold by a COLONEL SANCTUARY, the author, entitled "Talmudism Unveiled", JOE McWILLIAMS was also present at this meeting. SEMPLE's speech was illogical and his talk was sprinkled with typical phrases, such as "President Rosenfeld", "New York international Jewry". The main part of his speech was devoted to discussion of the fact that gold reserves should be turned back to the people as it was concentrated in vaults just so Jews could grab it all at an opportune moment. BANTA spoke of Jews forcing Christians out of business by high pressure methods. HENRY CLINTON spoke about need for armed force group and stated, "We need another organization to carry out our purpose."

The New York files reflect that RAYMOND JOSEPH HEALEY was born in New York September 25, 1913 and has engaged in anti-Semitic activities in New York, Florida, at various times has sought to organize an anti-Semitic movement, and is the author of a series of articles entitled, "I Did Hitler's Dirty Work" which appeared in the Chicago Daily Times. HEALEY testified before the Dies Committee that he published Healey's Irish Weekly in New York City, which was an organ with which he sought to foster a Fascist Gentile government in America for Americans. On October 15, 1935 HEALEY was charged with disorderly conduct in New York City, namely in hanging a sign to incite a riot. This sign read "Unite and Fight Jewish Talmudic Gangsterism".

In a letter to WILLIAM ALLEN WHITE, Emporia Gazette, Emporia, Kansas on December 13, 1940, HEALEY stated that for over eight years he had been at work in the ranks of the fifth column movement as a traitor to America, her people and traditions, organizing storm trooper squads, editing sheets of violence and of hate. In this letter HEALEY stated that KUHN and KUNZE of the Bund, PELLEY of the Silver Shirts, DEATHERAGE of the American Nationalist Confederation, Father COUGHLIN of Royal Oak were no strangers to him and that they were ready to strike whenever "Unserer Fuehrer" gave the signal.

A further review of the New York Files reflect that JOSEPH ELLESBURY McWILLIAM with alias was born in the United States and for the past eleven years has been identified with various movements designed to stir up racial and religious prejudices. He has expressed approval of Nazi philosophy and has violently attacked various government officials. Files further reflect that he did not come to any particular notice of the public until about 1937 or 1938 when he came to the fore among the pro-Hitler and anti-Semitic groups active in the Bronx and Manhattan. Afterthe conviction of FRITZ KUHN of the German American Bund, he moved into the Yorkville neighborhood in New York City and at one time there was talk of McWILLIAMS merging the German American Bund with the Christian Mobilizers. Instead, McWILLIAMS launched another organization which he called the American Destiny Party. In July of 1940 he was convicted in Magistrates Court of disorderly conduct because of a street meeting in which he made violent anti-Semitic remarks. In September of 1941 he was again in court for disorderly conduct and was committed to Bellevue Hospital for mental observation. Psychiatrists found that he was not insane or feeble minded and must be considered mentally responsible. He was released from the hospital and in October of 1940 received a sentence of seventy-five days in a work house on a charge of disorderly conduct. This conviction was appealed and he was released on parole.

A review of report from the Chicago Field Division dated April 13, 1943 entitled "JOSEPH ELLSBERRY McWILLIAMS wa; INTERNAL SECURITY - G; CUSTODIAL DETENTION; SEDITION" reflects McWILLIAMS had been associated with the Midwest Monetary Federation, Chicago, as an instructor in public speaking but that he severed these connections in the late spring of 1942. Subject continues to voice anti-Semitic sentiments in speeches to various groups and in a speech at a meeting of the Lincoln Park Branch of the America First Committee held March 27, 1942 at Chicago, stated there were only two possible results of the war, namely, "First, America will win the war at such a cost to this country that the Communists will take advantage of the reaction seeing in and the United States will have a Communistic government, or second, America will be so tied up with international groups, she will be forced to support the rest of the world, thus resulting in a tremendous decrease in the standard of living on this continent." In this connection he mentioned that we have put England on WPA and contended that it would be a desirable thing if the United States lost the Philippines, Java and other Eastern engagements and was driven back to her own shores.

A review of the New York files reflects that JOHN JOSEPH GEIS, born New York City December 26, 1902, resides at 379 Nassau Boulevard, West Hempstead, Long Island, New York. He is reported as editor of "American Way", an anti-Semitic paper which had been distributed from time to time by German American Bund organizations and sold at America First meetings. He has done considerable writing and lecturing in opposition to Communism. He also edits "The United Christian Front".

The file further reflects that GEIS formerly worked for the Paulist Fathers and at various times conducted stree corner meetings for the Christian Front, has also made various speeches under the auspices of the American Nationalist Party and Crusaders for Americanism. In one of his speeches, he denounced the anti-Christian forces which were in control everywhere, specifically "Rosenberg in the White House, the lady in the red bonnet in charge of labor and the Little Flowere in City Hall who is a relative of Bella Kuhn". Circulars demanding the impeachment of President Roosevelt appeared to have been printed and distributed by GEIS prior to December 7, 1941. One such pamphlet entitled "The Case Against Franklin Delano Roosevelt" is reported to have been circulated all over the county. The impeachment pamphlets apparently issued by GEIS bear the dates July 4, 1941, Memorial Day 1941, August 16, 1941 and October 16, 1941 respectively.

It was also stated that GEIS is distributing his magazine "The American Way" along the waterfront, New York City. "The American Way" is edited and published by GEIS at his address in Long Island and carries a cover which indicates the Christian Front sympathy of the publisher, motto being "For Christ and Country;" "Wake Up Americans, Keep America Christian;" "Fight Communism;" "America for Americans." Issues prior to December, 1941 were isolationist and in the October 1941 issue there was printed warm endorsement of Hitler's achievement in Germany. There is no record in the New York office of "The American Way" being published recently.

New York files reflect in October 25, 1940 Lieutenant DONALD M. DAVIDSON, U. S. Army Retired, 152 East 22nd Street, advised that JOSEPH GUY JUNEMANN was affiliated with the Creative Art Service and that JUNEMANN advised a CARL PAYNE TOBEY that he had so employed in the Creative Art Service Company to obtain the names of clients who paid for certain articles which were anti-Nazi. He stated that in doing so he was working under instruction of FRITZ KUHN. JUNEMANN also advised TOBEY that he had spent several weeks in Washington doing work for the Nazi Bund.

Records reflect JUNEMANN about forty-three years of age, was born in the United States, and was one of the traveling contacts for JOSEPH E. McWILLIAMS.

On October 1, 1941 WILLIAM J. POWDERLY, 351 East 29th Street, Brooklyn, came to the office and advised that JUNEMANN, a former associate of JOE McWILLIAMS, was contemplating publication of a paper to be known as the "Tommyhawk" which would have for its purpose the exposing of certain Washington governmental officials.

Confidential Informant [redacted] whose identity is known to the Bureau, reported on November 20, 1941 that JUNEMANN was endeavoring to promote himself as a so-called Little Fuehrer in this country. He apparently established headquarters in the Franziskaner Restaurant, 1591 Second Avenue, which is a hotbed of Nazi movement as well as the place most frequently visited by Miss MARGUERITE MAHER, the America First organizer for the Yorkville Section. b7D

New York files further reflect that JUNEMANN claimed to be a contact man for GEORGE DEATHERAGE in New York City and that JUNEMANN handles all business matters for JAMES TRUE in New York and was reported to be closely connected with McWILLIAMS and in American Destiny Party. JUNEMANN also reported to be in direct contact with a Baron CARL VON WRANGEL, a pro-Nazi White Russian leader, and one VON DER GOLTZ, and through the latter JUNEMANN is reported to be in touch with BORIS BRASOL and ANASTASE A. VONSIATSKY.

RE: UNITED STATES vs. GERALD R. WINROD, et al;
GEORGE L. DEATHERAGE, Defendant;
SEDITION

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to the summary report of Special Agent Ralph V. Reed, dated August 12, 1943, at Huntington, West Virginia, setting forth information in the captioned matter.

You will recall that it was stated in this report that copies of correspondence between Deatherage and several other individuals had been requested by teletype from the Norfolk Field Division. By a letter dated August 19, 1943, a copy of which was furnished your Office, Norfolk forwarded ten items of evidence to the Bureau. Neither the letter from Norfolk nor the summary report of Special Agent Reed gave any indication as to the source of these letters or the identity of the person who could introduce them into evidence. Several of the letters were submitted and simply stated to be typewritten with no explanation as to why the originals, or at least photostatic copies of the originals, were not furnished.

Inasmuch as this material should be included in the summary report on this matter, it is being forwarded to your Office for inclusion in another summary report which you are instructed to prepare in the immediate future. In addition, the evidence previously submitted with the referenced report is being returned for inclusion in this new report. The source of the evidence, the person competent to introduce it in court as well as the criminal record of the subject should be reflected in this report. Any facts you wish to call to the Bureau's attention that could not properly be put in the instant report should, of course, be set forth in a cover letter submitted along with the report. Since this case is due to be represented to a Grand Jury in Washington, D. C. in the near future, the preparation of the above requested summary report should receive expeditious attention.

REFERENCE: Report of ARTHUR J. PANSZE, New York, New York, dated June 28, 1943.

DETAILS: OWEN SODON, 5780 Moshalu Avenue, Bronx, New York, advised that he had known FRANK A. PARKER for 13 years, and thinks he is harmless. SODON referred to PARKER as a "crack pot" and a strong Republican. SODON stated he had seen a few of PARKER'S publications of the "Green Mountaineer", an anti-Roosevelt administration publication, but has seen no recent publications and does not believe it is being published at the present time.

JOSEPH MACKEY, 5655 Post Road, Bronx, New York, spoke of PARKER as being a "black" Republican and very bitter against the present administration. He stated PARKER was a captain in the United States Army of the first World War, and until recent years, had a very responsible job with a New York company, the name of which he did not know. He does not consider PARKER dangerous and has seen no recent publications of the "Green Mountaineer".

SEDITION

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to Bureau teletype dated September 23, 1943 requesting that a summary report be immediately submitted, in this case.

For the Bureau's information various exhibits forwarded to this office by the Bureau have been forwarded to the Norfolk Field Division to be reviewed by the persons from whom they were obtained so that adequate information might be secured for the introduction of these items as evidence in the trial of the case.

It is my understanding that some difficulty has been experienced by the Norfolk Office in obtaining the necessary data concerning these items in view of the fact that several of them were obtained from ONI, and it has been necessary to attempt to locate these individuals so that they might properly identify the documents and adequate information be secured from them so that a proper foundation might be laid for their introduction as evidence in this case.

The Norfolk Office is using every possible means to expedite this investigation, and immediately upon receipt of the information by this office, a summary report will be promptly prepared and forwarded to the Bureau.

Very truly yours

Subsequent to this release by the Carbide and Carbon Chemical Corporation, he was employed with the California Chemical Company at Palo Alto, California. DEATHERAGE later severed his connections with this firm allegedly because his activities on behalf of the Knights of The White Camellia became so extensive that he could not give his attention to both undertakings and preferred the latter.

EXCERPTS OF CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE AND JAMES TRUE

A persual of the correspondence exchanged between GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE and JAMES TRUE with whom he was collaborating in the formation of the American Christian Nationalistic Party, reflects that both of them are violently anti-Semitic, pro-Fascist and pro-Nazi.

In a letter written by JAMES TRUE dated April 19, 1941, directed to the Subject he anticipated a military dictatorship within the next eighteen months, and he indicates that high ranking officials knew of this. In a letter dated June 21, 1941, TRUE states "For several weeks the German Short Wave has been encouraging. We have licked hell out of the British in Egypt and are absolutely confident of victory. Hope you have been able to listen to their broadcasts. More than half of the British Naval and Merchant fleets have been put out of business. England is receiving considerable less than half of the usual supply of food and prices are way up to give the Juice a big profit. Certainly the end is not far off. There is a story rumored here that FRANKLIN and WINSTON have had a very unpleasant scrap and that WINNIE told the Big Jew where to go".

The photographic copies of the foregoing letters are being forwarded to the Bureau from the Norfolk Field Division where they were transferred from the Richmond Field Division December 23, 1941.

50 "WORLD SERVICE" PAMPHLETS MAILED TO MR. GEORGE DEATHERAGE, NR. 2 EAST, GORE STREET, ORLANDO, FLORIDA, U. S. A., RETURN ADDRESS "DEUTSCHE WELT-DIENST, FRANKFURT A MAIN, SCHUNDSTRATER", GERMANY.

On February 17, 1942, the Los Angeles Field Division advised the Bureau by letter that two packages of printed matter, the same being "World Service, #VIII/6 and 7", entitled "International Correspondence for Enlightenment on the Jewish Question" were secured by a Grand Jury subpoena and the same brought before the United States Grand Jury at Los Angeles, California. One package contained thirty copies of the "World Service" and the other package contained 20 copies.

The wrapper showed that these two packages were mailed to Mr. GEORGE DEATHERAGE, Nr. 2 East, Gore Street, Orlando, Florida, U. S. A., and the return address appearing on the wrapper was "Deutsche Welt-Dienst, Frankfurt A Main, Schundstrater", Germany.

The two wrappers in which the packages had been mailed and five copies of the publication are being forwarded to the Bureau as enclosures.

CORRESPONDENCE OF GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE WITH JAMES TRUE, ROBERT EDWARD EDMINSON AND OTHERS.

Copies of DEATHERAGE's correspondence with JAMES TRUE and ROBERT EDWARD EDMINSON are being forwarded to the Bureau as requested of the Norfolk Field Division by teletype on August 11, 1943 by the Huntington Field Division.

Dear Sir:

An examination of the files of this office in preparation of the summary report of Special Agent Norman L. Casey which is dated October 7, 1943 which is being submitted in connection with the above-captioned matter, reflects that the greatest part of the material which would indicate a conspiracy between DEATHERAGE and the other individuals to be named in the Federal Indictments charging a violation of the conspiracy section of the Sedition Statutes, was obtained from confidential sources and cannot be used in evidence.

Particular reference is made to the material set forth in the report of Special Agent John E. Kissner dated August 8, 1941, at Richmond, Virginia, captioned "GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE, KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE CAMELLIA, AMERICAN CHRISTIAN NATIONALIST PARTY, ESPIONAGE, REGISTRATION ACT, INTERNAL SECURITY - G." I have been advised by the Norfolk Field Division that this material was obtained through the assistance of the landlady of George E. Deatherage who was Mrs. A. H. Lawrence. She permitted George J. Coch of the Office of Naval Intelligence, and Detective Curtiss Merritt of the Norfolk Police Department, enter the room of the Subject while he was at work. This material as well as other material which was obtained under similar circumstances is not being set forth in the summary report prepared by Special Agent Casey inasmuch as it is believed that it cannot be used as evidence. The Norfolk Field Division is being requested to forward to the Bureau immediately the results of the mail cover maintained by that office in the early part of 1942 which reflects that the Subject George E. Deatherage was in communication with James True and Robert Edward Edmundson.

The San Antonio Field Division is being requested to forward the originals of letters obtained by Special Agent James F. Gardner addressed to Dr. Hugo R. Fack, 309 Madison Street, San Antonio, Texas, from George E. Deatherage.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter dated October 7, 1943, in which you advised that the greatest part of the material that would indicate a conspiracy between Deatherage and the other individuals in the instant case was obtained from confidential sources and could not be used as evidence. You particularly referred to the material set forth in the report of Special Agent John E. Kissner, dated August 8, 1941, at Richmond, Virginia, captioned "George E. Deatherage; Knights of the White Camellia; American Christian Nationalist Party; Espionage; Registration Act; Internal Security - C." According to your letter, this material was obtained through the assistance of Mrs. A. N. Lawrence, landlady of George E. Deatherage, who permitted George J. Coch of the Office of Naval Intelligence and Detective Curtiss Merritt of the Norfolk Police Department to enter the room of the subject while he was at work. It was further pointed out that this material, as well as other material obtained under similar circumstances, was not included in the summary report prepared by Special Agent Casey, inasmuch as it was believed that it could not be used as evidence.

In this connection it is desired that your Office in a letter to the Bureau point out all instances in this case in which evidence obtained from confidential sources cannot be used as evidence. You should specifically refer to the investigative reports in which information in connection with these instances appears. The present location of this evidence should also be set out in your letter. It is particularly desired that all other instances in which evidence was secured in a manner similar to that employed in the report of Special Agent Kissner be furnished the Bureau.

This matter should be handled immediately inasmuch as this case is to be presented to the Grand Jury which is presently sitting in Washington, D. C.

TITLE:	CHARACTER OF CASE:
UNITED STATES vs. GERALD B. WINROD, ET AL; GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE - DEFENDANT	SEDITION

SUMMARY REPORT

Subject GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE together with thirty-three others was indicted July 21, 1942 and again on January 4, 1943 on charges of sedition. It is being alleged at the present time that the Subject and the other thirty-three defendants were involved in a conspiracy to commit sedition, and it is contemplated that the information will be again presented to a grand jury in Washington, D.C. alleging a conspiracy in violation of the Sedition Statutes; namely, Section 11, Title 18, and Section 34, Title 50, United States Code.

PERSONAL HISTORY

GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE was born November 15, 1893 at Duluth, Minnesota, of American parents. He attended the Minnesota Technical College at Duluth, which school is now out of existence. He later studied engineering with the International Correspondence Schools, and was at one time general foreman of the Duluth, Minnesota Steel Company, which position he relinquished in 1916. After working one year for the McKenzie Railroads in Canada, he was subsequently "loaned" to the India Iron and Steel Company with offices in London, England, where he worked until the termination of World War One. In connection with his duties with this firm, he traveled extensively in Europe. DEATHERAGE for five and one-half years was general superintendent of the Carbide and Carbon Chemical Corporation in South Charleston, West Virginia, receiving a salary of $10,000. He severed his connection with that corporation in 1936 after receiving notice from the officials of the corporation that he would be given an opportunity to discontinue his writings and utterances of a very anti-Semitic nature or else relinquish his position. DEATHERAGE was later employed by the California Chemical Company at Palo Alto, California, but severed his relations with this corporation, giving as a reason his desire to devote his full time to the Knights of the White Camellia of which he became National Commander in 1934 and served in that capacity until November 2, 1939 when he publicly announced his resignation.

CONRAD H. FRANKLIN, JR.
622 Columbia Boulevard
Charleston, West Virginia, and presently of Fort Thomas, Kentucky

Can testify that he printed the materials obtained above by Special Agent ANGUS M. TAYLOR, and that he was approached by the Subject GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE and V.N.KOSITSIN on one occasion relative to putting out a booklet "The White Knight" featuring articles in connection with the "Jew Deal."

SPECIAL AGENT B. A. HORN
Federal Bureau of Investigation

Can testify as to admissions the Subject made when interviewed at the Subject's home on the evening of February 6, 1941. In this interview the Subject admitted that he had received solicited and unsolicited German anti-Semitic propaganda and distributed it. Subject admitted that he is an honorary life member of the Knights of the White Camellia and is also the past commander at St. Albans, West Virginia.

Mr. SOL PADLIEBSKY
News Reporter
"Charleston Daily Mail"
Charleston, West Virginia

Can testify that the Subject delivered a speech before the Exchange Club of Charleston, West Virginia on October 22, 1942 entitled "Post-war Economics." The text of the speech contained much material from a publication known as "Native Nazi." The Subject in this speech condemned the Government's economic policies and stated in part:

> "There is no question whatever as to our traditional and present system of government and business being gone forever--that we are moving towards something basically different during the war, and the old system just doesn't have a chance of being re-established at the end of the war. In place of that, we will have a system which may be best termed "American Fascism." We are fighting the war, therefore, not to determine what kind of a system we are to have in the future--we already know that--but to determine whether our particular brand of Fascism will be run by ourselves or by Germany."

Major BENJAMIN ROGERS
West Virginia Ordnance Works
Point Pleasant, West Virginia

Can identify the publication "Native Nazi" which appeared to be the source of a great deal of the Subject's material which was used in his speech before the exchange club at Charleston, West Virginia, on October 22, 1942.

SPECIAL AGENT JOHN V. MORAN
Federal Bureau of Investigation

Can introduce the evidence consisting of the magazine "Native Nazi" published by the Constitutional Educational League, Incorporated, with National Headquarters at 831 Chapel Street, New Haven, Connecticut. This publication has been previously forwarded to the Bureau.

Special Agent JAMES G. FINDLAY
Federal Bureau of Investigation

Can introduce copies of printed matter entitled "World Service, No. VIII/6 and 7, International Correspondence for Enlightenment on the Jewish Question." This publication appears to have been published in Germany and was contained in paper wrappers which can also be produced by Special Agent FINDLAY containing the return address "Deutsche Welt-Dienst, Frankfurt a Main, Schundstrater, Germany."

These pamphlets which were contained in the brown paper wrappers mentioned above, were mailed to Mr. GEORGE DEATHERAGE, Nr. 2 East, Gore St., Orlando, Florida, U.S.A. and were obtained by means of a grand jury subpoena. These materials were later produced before the grand jury by Special Agent FINDLAY.

Special Agents J.M.McGRATH and/or L.H. BARNARD and/or J.C. HOLMES
Federal Bureau of Investigation

Can testify that they witnessed on August 23, 1939 at about 7:40 p.m. the Subject GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE meet JOSEPH E. McWILLIAMS and another party in the lobby of the Commodore Hotel, New York City. McWILLIAMS, DEATHERAGE, and the third party were observed to go to Innisfail Park, West 240th Street, Bronx, New York, and attend a mass meeting which was being held under the sponsorship of the Christian Mobilizers. DEATHERAGE and McWILLIAMS were observed to go to a group of about ten individuals. McWILLIAMS introduced DEATHERAGE to those of the group whom DEATHERAGE did not know, and after approximately ten minutes, DEATHERAGE and FRITZ KUHN of the German American Bund walked away from the group and seated themselves at a table in an outdoor beer parlor located in the park.

When FRITZ KUHN spoke to the meeting, he stated that he was "shoulder to shoulder" with the Christian Mobilizers.

JOSEPH E. McWILLIAMS in speaking, condemned vituperatively Roosevelt and Mayor LaGuardia of New York, stating in his talk that in the event of war, England and France would "get the hell licked out of them," after which statement the members of the German American Bund who were in attendance were observed cheering. At the suggestion of McWILLIAMS, a collection was taken up to finance the activities of the Christian Mobilizers.

GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE who was the main speaker of the occasion, discussed the trampling and strangling of enemies, the hanging of officials from telegraph poles, and the furthering of what was described as a revolution already in effect in the United States brought about by International Jewish Bankers. He further stated that the Jews were using laborers, college professors, and professional writers and others to make slaves of the working classes of this country; and advised that at this time they control the administration of this country. The audience was worked up to such a high pitch after some of the remarks by McWILLIAMS and DEATHERAGE that exclamations were made to "hang the Jews" and "shoot them."

On August 24, 1939 GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE was observed having luncheon with FRITZ KUHN of the German American Bund.

On August 24, 1939 at 7:00 p.m. JOSEPH McWILLIAMS and GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE were observed by the Agents to leave the Commodore Hotel in New York City and proceed to Stouffers Restaurant at 100 East 42nd Street, where they had dinner. On the evening of August 24, 1939 Special Agents BARNARD and McGRATH observed JOSEPH McWILLIAMS and DEATHERAGE in attendance at a meeting of the Christian Mobilizers at the Triboro Palace located on Third Avenue, Bronx, New York. On this occasion McWILLIAMS referred to DEATHERAGE as one of the greatest men in the United States fighting for the place of Christians in the United States. He stated that at that moment DEATHERAGE was conducting business with a group of wealthy men who were going to give him money with which to fight for christianity. He further pointed out that DEATHERAGE during the time he was in London, England, was closely associated with an unnamed individual who had fought side by side with Adolph Hitler at the Munich Beer Hall Putsch; and by this reference he indicated that the organization greatly favored the political activities of Hitler and was striving to emulate him.

Special Agent JOHN E. KISSNER
Federal Bureau of Investigation

Can produce the results of a mail cover maintained by the Norfolk Field Division in February and March of 1942 which reflected that the Subject GEORGE E. DEATHERAGE was in communication with JAMES TRUE of Alexandria, Virginia, and ROBERT EDWARD EDMONDSON of New York City. The results of this mail cover are being maintained in the Norfolk Field Division at this time.

Special Agent JAMES F. GARDNER
Federal Bureau of Investigation

Can produce the original letters from the Subject addressed to Dr. HUGO R. FACK which were obtained from the residence of Dr. FACK on May 27, 1942. One letter dated April 12, 1939 was to the effect that the first think to be done at that time was to break the power of the Jew in this country, "for it is no doubt that we are going to have the very same situation that confronted Germany in pre-Hitler days." The Subject concluded "Whether we will have sense enough to solve it as the Germans have is problematical." In another letter dated October 7, 1940, the Subject expressed the firm conviction that the United States would be faced with internal chaos and an economic breakdown.

Dr. HUGO R. FACK
309 Madison Street
San Antonio, Texas

Whose credibility is unknown and who is probably an unwilling witness, can explain the significance of letters addressed to him from the Subject dated April 12, 1939 and October 7, 1940.

ENCLOSURES TO THE BUREAU: 5 copies of magazine entitled "World Service, No. VIII/6 and 7."
2 wrappers bearing the return address "Deutsche Welt-Dienst, Frankfurt a Main, Schundstrater, Germany."
1 copy of speech delivered before the Exchange Club, Charleston, West Virginia, October 22, 1942 by the Subject.

Spain's unsuccessful Attemt to solve the Jewish Question in 1492, and the resulting Catastrophy for the anti-Jewish States of Europe.

(As represented by the rise of the Jewish family Nasi, which had been expelled from Spain.)

I

We are today living in the beginning of a new [illegible]. With a revolutionary dynamic, not yet known in the history of mankind, the most radical changes in all spheres of the political, economic and cultural life of the nations of the European continent are at present taking place. The old wornout systems are overthrown and new and better ones are being born. A whole world is disappearing and a new world is coming into existence in its stead. The national-socialist and fascist "Weltanschauung" (world-order) are the strong piles upon which the coming Europe will be erected. The old and decayed world of liberalism must strike its colours before the victorious onslaught of the younger nations, Germany and Italy, who are bearing the banners of National-Socialism and Fascism, for it is condemned to sink back into the empty void.

Only at intervals of several hundred years or even after an interval of a thousand years, does Providence intervene in the affairs of mankind as it is doing today, and raise single men to the heights of genius. The era in which we are living has produced two such men, whose creative genius has conceived the idea of changing the face of the whole continent: Hitler and Mussolini.

The wheel of time is today moving at a rapidity which the world has never experienced in the past. Adolf Hitler, the Leader of the national-socialist Greater German Reich and Benito Mussolini, the Leader of fascist Italy, are making history, history of such tremendous dimensions and at such a speed as the world has never known and never considered possible.

It is easy to understand, that a revolution on such a great scale, as is today taking place in Europe, lays great responsibility upon the bearers of this new Weltanschauung.

The national-socialist Greater German Reich and its ally, fascist Italy have joyfully accepted this responsibility towards history, for they are strong enough in every respect to build up a new Europe, that will rest upon a solid and well-laid foundation, and that will march forward towards a great future. This new Europe will be freed from the exploiting hands of Jewish-British Capitalism and Imperialism, which in times past have plunged our Continent into so many wars and caused so much misery and sorrow.

The tasks, that Providence has set national-socialist Greater Germany and fascist Italy are gigantic. These problems must be solved —, and the solutions must be absolute and final, for upon them, to a great extent, the future of Europe and the length of the coming historical epoch depends.

One of the most important of these problems, which today awaits its solution, is the Jewish Question. This problem is a fundamental one, for it has been proved, that international Jewry; from the time that it invaded Europe, has been the chief agitator and disturber of the peace among the nations of Europe, and that these nations have international Jewry to thank for numerous wars, and for much misery and poverty and tears. Jewry has always understood how to check and disturb the progress and prosperity of the nations of Europe for its own selfish ends, and has continually attempted to realise its plans for world domination, which are based upon its so-called religion. Again and again the nations of Europe have come into conflict with Jewry and have tried to ward off this invasion, but Jewry has always managed to emerge as the victor in this fight of the centuries. Again and again Jewry has succeeded, for its own selfish ends, in instigating disturbances and wars, and again and again has it been able to incite the nations of Europe against [illegible] thus other[illegible] for the purpose of seizing the oppo[illegible] events have created to strengthen its own [illegible] war, whose instigator once more is international Jewry, which at present is fighting its last fight against the Greater German Reich and fascist Italy.

Above all it is certain, that we are today standing on the threshold of a new era. Jewry will not emerge from this war as the victor, as it has done in the past years and centuries, but together with its British protectors it will be completely destroyed on all fronts. The victor-nations will hold themselves responsible to history for having undertaken the solution of the Jewish Question. For only a final solution of the Jewish Question offers the nations of Europe the guarantee that they will in future be able to live and develop in peace.

The question arises: On what foundation shall this solution be based?

History is recognised as the best instructor of all nations. It also gives the reply to the question, as to how the nations in past centuries believed they could solve the Jewish Question. History first shows us, that these nations did not solve the Jewish problem, for in that case the question would not today still exist. We must therefore learn from the past and recognise what mistakes these nations made in handling the Jewish problem. We must recognise the reason why the historic attempts to solve the Jewish Question merely remained attempts and why they could present us with nothing concrete in the way of a solution.

The present time dare not merely venture a solution of the problem. It cannot allow itself to make the same mistakes as were made in the Past, as the Present demands an absolute and final solution of the Jewish Question for the sake of the Future. We must bear in mind, that a prosperous and happy Future is only possible for Europe if the Jewish danger is removed once and for all time.

We must be fundamentally clear on this point, that only a total solution of the Jewish Question can constitute one of the conditions for the coming new Order in Europe.

If we hold fast to this fundamental principle we will certainly come to a final solution of the Jewish Question.

II

We will now cite an historical example, which shows the mistakes made by the nations in their attempts to solve the Jewish Question and how the Jews over and over again managed to gain a firm footing, to gain more and more political power and greater influence and the way in which they misused this power to involve the nations of Europe in warlike entanglements and unrest.

At the end of the 15th Century, powerful Spain, then ruled over by King Ferdinand II. of Aragon (1452–1516) and Queen Isabella of Castile (1451–1504) tried to solve the Jewish Question by an Edict (March 30, 1492) demanding that the Jews should become Christians or leave the country. The Jewish Question was therefore, not at that time in Spain considered a racial problem, but purely a religious one, which, it was thought, could be finally solved by baptising the Jews to Christianity. Completely misunderstanding the facts, it was believed that Judaism, this expression of the Jewish race and character, could be exterminated by conversion to Christianity, and that by baptism the Jews could be gradually assimilated.

What was the result of this fundamental mistake made by the Spain of Ferdinand and Isabella? How did the Jews react to this forced baptism and what was the result in the time that followed?

The majority of Jews in Spain, seeing no other way out of the difficulty, obeyed the order and were baptised into feigned Christianity. They exchanged their Jewish names for Spanish names that were above suspicion, hereby outwardly becoming Christian Spaniards.

In reality these Marranos, as they were called, bound themselves together by closer ties than had formerly existed, regularly met in secret and carried out their Jewish customs with greater fanaticism than they had ever done before. But as they lived in constant fear that their secret practices would be discovered and that it would become known in public, that their conversion to Christianity was only a blind, the majority of them soon emigrated to escape the severe punishments prescribed against those who tried to evade this law. More and more Jews left Spain, their hearts filled with unbridled hatred against this land, that had dared a solution to the Jewish Question. The main stream of these Spanish-Jewish families overflowed into Portugal. Another section settled in the Nederlands, and the rest settled in the city-republics and city-states of Italy as well as in the Levant.

And so these Marrano Jews established themselves in the most important centres of the western world. Everywhere where trade flourished, in the great world-markets and transfer ports, these Marrano families arrived, founded great banking houses and commercial undertakings and laid their hands upon the riches of the then known world. From the very beginning their tactics were cunning in the extreme. Different members of one Jewish family immediately settled in the various trading centres to be able to spread out their business undertakings on the broadest basis possible. In spite of the dispersion they remained in close contact with each other, for their dispersal had only this one tendency, that of being able to do better business and amass still greater fortunes on an international basis. These tactics carried out by the Marranos were to be the source of undreamed-of Jewish wealth. These practices were facilitated by the fact that outwardly the Marranos appeared to be Christians and had taken Christians names at the time of baptism.

It must be emphasised, that the Marranos from the very beginning were animated by the one thought, that in spite of the Jewish expulsion from Spain, they would win this battle against the nations of the west. With the sure instinct, that wealth brings power, they set to work with dogged determination to increase their wealth, to procure influence with their fortune and systematically to increase and expand their powerful positions in the countries in which they were guests. In their hearts the Marranos maintained a glowing hatred against Spain. They longed for the day when their power would be so great, that they would be able to avenge themselves against this hated country.

From this sketch one clearly sees how fatal were the results of the mistake made by Spain in its attempt to solve the Jewish Question. It is true that by reason of the Edict of March 30, 1492, Spain gradually became outwardly Jew-free, but the Spanish Jews, disguised as Christians, had spread themselves over all the important trade centres of the western world, and had obtained the opportunity of amassing great fortunes, and of gaining great political influence, which, as we will see later, resulted in a great

It is no exaggeration to say that this mistaken attempt at a solution of the Jewish Question a the end of the 15th Century is the cause of the rise of Jewish capitalism in Europe and of the development of this capitalism to its present world-encircling dimensions. The Jews, it is true, were driven from Spain, but as fugitives they did not remain on the defensive, but advanced to a victorious attack upon the whole of the western world, to [illegible] become the capitalist rulers of [illegible] or the New World.

This is the historical and therefore truthful and bitter lesson we have to learn from the Spanish attempt to solve the Jewish Question at the end of the 15th Century.

III

It would be outside the scope of this treatise, if we were to detail how, in the course of the centuries, Jewry, living in the Diaspora as a nation, succeeded in first establishing themselves, and later in controlling the most powerful empires. We will now, from the mass of historical material at our disposal, take one example, that in a particularly plastic and instructive way, shows us the fatal results of the Spanish failure to solve the Jewish Question, and that also shows us what unheard-of influence the Jews, in spite of, or rather because of their expulsion from Spain, were able to exercise. This example, which in variations, in earlier and later history has often been repeated, at the same time gives us the opportunity of making acquaintance with Jewish methods, Jewish tricks and Jewish tactics. The lessons that we perforce learn from this example, and the knowledge we gain, do not only point out the direction, but also show us the straight road we should follow if we are to answer the question, as to how the Jewish Problem is to be solved within the narrow space of the European Commonwealth of nations and with an eye to the whole world, and solved in such a way that we succeed in finding a satisfactory and permanent solution.

We have already mentioned that the fugitive Marrano families from Spain emigrated to the various trade-centres of the Old World. One of these Jewish families was known as Nasi[1]). This family first of all emigrated to Portugal at the end of the 15th Century. One branch of the family remained in Portugal, the other settled in Antwerp at the beginning of the 16th Century.

From Antwerp this branch of the Nasi family emigrated to Lyons, from there to Venice, then to Ferrara and finally in the middle of the 16th Century they settled permanently in Constantinople.

Nothing proves the failure of the Spanish attempt to solve the Jewish Question better than the fact, that a member of this family, that had emigrated from Spain, could 75 years after the expulsion of the Jews from Spain, in Constantinople occupy a position of the greatest economic and political importance and act as the most trusted confidant and adviser of the Sultan Soliman the Great (1495–1566), the arch enemy of western culture and civilisation, and as such could exercise the greatest influence on Turkish economic life and foreign policy.

Therefore we will more closely examine this Jewish Marrano family Nasi and their fantastic rise to power. After the Nasi family had fled from Spain to Portugal, it adopted the Christian, Spanish name of Mendez. Two members of this family, Francesco Mendez and his brother Diego Mendez opened a Banking- and Commercial House in Lisbon, which principally concerned itself with financing and carrying on an extensive colonial trade. Francesco's brother Diego opened a branch of this Banking and Commercial House Mendez in Antwerp. In a few years he managed to oust the South German commercial houses from the Netherlands' market and to create a monopoly for his firm in all colonial products. The main firm in Lisbon ultimately purchased Indian spices and condiments to the total amount of 1,200,000 ducats annually. In Flanders the Commercial House Mendez secured the monopoly of this trade. In true Jewish fashion it exploited this privilege to the uttermost for the purpose of charging the most exorbitant prices for all colonial wares.

The Jewish firm Mendez actually succeeded in making the king of Portugal, brother-in-law to the Emperor Charles V. dependent upon it. Its power became so great by reason of its monopolies in colonial trade that it dared to forbid the King of Portugal to have business dealings with any other firms.

The firm Mendez bought whole harvests in the colonies. In this way it possessed a double monopoly: a buying and a selling monopoly. Before this Jewish economic power Kings and Emperors were forced to bow.

In vain did the Emperor Charles V., the ruler of an Empire on which the sun never set, try to break the selling monopoly in spices and colonial products as yet solely in the hands of the firm Mendez. He had to yield to the superior power of a new and rising Jewish capitalism, as he had been a debtor to Diego Mendez since 1527.

The economic position of the brothers, Francesco and Diego Mendez, had become so strong that they had been named the "Pepper Kings".

We will now sum up the position: A fugitive, Jewish family from Spain settles in Portugal and in a few years succeeds in gaining a double monopoly in one of the most important branches of the economic and commercial life of those times. Their power is so great, that they manage to make the King of Portugal, the ruler of the country whose guests they are, dependent upon them, even the most powerful ruler of that period, the Emperor Charles V., is defeated in a fight for power against this Jewish finance-dynasty, and all this in the space of a few years after the expulsion of the Jews from Spain.

But let us return to the Jewish family Nasi alias Mendez! We have already mentioned, that Diego Mendez in Antwerp had founded a Branch of the Banking and Commercial House Mendez. In this branch Diego appointed his nephew, Joseph Nasi, and a relation, who went by the Marrano name of Abraham Benveniste. When they removed from Portugal to Antwerp, Joseph Nasi changed his name to Don Juan Miguez, while Abraham Benveniste called himself Augustin Enriquez. By this means both men naturally wished to disguise the fact that they were Jews and hoped that the new names would do away with the possibility of recognition.

In the meantime Francesco Mendez alias Nasi had died in Lisbon. His wife, also a Jewess, whose parents had adopted the Marrano name Benveniste, settled in Antwerp in 1536 with her daughter Reyna, living in the house of her brother-in-law, Diego Mendez.

This wife of the late Francesco Mendez, Donna Gracia Nasi alias Donna Gracia Mendez, appeared in Antwerp for the sake of better disguise, under the aristocratic, honest, Christian name Beatrice de Luna.

The Banking House Mendez in Antwerp had by this time become the Bank of the Court of the Regent of the Netherlands, the widowed Queen Maria of Hungary, now extended over the Netherlands and as far as France. A branch was established in Lyons. This influential, financially powerful position enabled the family Mendez, whose members were all known under different names, to appear at the Court of Queen Maria of the Netherlands[2]).

Jewish writers go so far[3]) as to say, that Joseph Nasi alias Don Juan Miguez stood particularly high in favour with the widowed Queen.

In Antwerp, the sister of Donna Gracia Nasi alias Mendez alias Beatrice de Luna, named Hannah, married Diego Mendez.

IV

The number of Marranos in the Netherlands increased so rapidly in the first half of the 16th Century, that strong opposition on the part of the Dutch population began to make itself felt. The widowed Queen Maria of Hungary, who ruled the Netherlands from 1531–1555 took this opposition into consideration, when on Aug. 15, 1532, she decreed, that the new Christians (Marranos) were to be refused permission to settle in the Netherlands, and that the inhabitants were in duty bound, without further notice being given, of their own free will, to inform the police authorities of the presence of Marrano families, whenever such came to their notice[4])[5]).

From these decrees (see footnote 4/5), it is clear that the Netherlands government had realised, that Judaism continued to live in the hearts of the Marranos and that the Marranos in reality constituted a far greater danger for the State than the unbaptised Jews. The unbaptised Jews were, as such, known to the authorities, while the Marranos not only passed as Christians, but by setting aside their Jewish names, and by adopting honest non-Jewish names, understood how to disguise themselves in a particularly artful manner.

Only in this way was it possible for this Spanish-Jewish family Nasi alias Mendez, to dare to appear at Court. The most audacious of them was Donna Gracia, who passed herself off as belonging to the Spanish nobility.

Let us consider the following: A Spanish Jewess, whose parents adopted the Marrano name Benveniste, and who called herself Gracia, in Portugal married the Jew Nasi, who there bore the honest Spanish name Francesco Mendez; she emigrated to the Netherlands and there, in 1536 under the aristocratic name of Beatrice de Luna she appeared at the Court of Queen Maria, who, as early as 1532 had issued a decree that all Marranos were immediately to be reported to the police authorities.

The Nasi family, however, appeared to consider permanent residence in the Netherlands too dangerous. Gracia Mendez now tried to persuade the senior partner of the Banking House Mendez, Diego Mendez, to emigrate from the Netherlands. He agreed; but before he could carry out the plan he died in 1547.

After his death the Netherlands Government tried to confiscate part of the property of the Banking House Mendez. It stated as the reason for wishing to do so, that Diego Mendez had no male heirs and had been a New Christian (Marrano). The heirs to the fortune of Diego Mendez: Gracia Mendez, Juan Miguez, Samuel Miguez, the brother of Juan Miguez, and Abraham Benveniste, who was a relative of Gracia's, did all in their power to rescue the Jewish possessions. In this connection it will be of interest to quote two Jewish authorities, which – one openly and the other veiled – characterise the methods used by these Jews.

From the first authority we quote the following passage: "The deceased Nasi left no male heirs and immediately the charge was made, that as he had been a Marrano, his goods and possessions were by law to be forfeited to the State. Beatrice de Luna, the principal heiress, was fortunate in having the advice of her nephew, Joseph, and another relation, Abraham Benveniste, and these men, well acquainted with the steps that should be taken to teach the judges to see, not the injustice but the right (the spacing is ours. Ed.) knew how to induce the government instead of confiscating the whole fortune, to be satisfied with a loan of a large sum to be repaid after two years" [6]).

The above circumstance are related even more clearly by Dr. H. Graetz, for he openly acknowledges the methods of bribery used by the Jews: "Against the deceased Diego Mendez the imperial attorney-general brought the charge that he had secretly practiced Judaism. It may also have been known that he had, by giving advice and money, supported the enemies of the Inquisition in Portugal. As punishment for this, the whole fortune, as belonging to a heretic, should be handed over to the attorney-general, for strict laws against the toleration of Marranos in Flanders had been passed. Nevertheless the widow Mendesia (Gracia Mendez, Ed.) managed for the time being to check this greed by a generous loan and by bribing the officials" [7]) (Spacing ours. Ed.).

When the two years had lapsed, after which date the Netherlands government was to repay the heirs of the Banking House Mendez the loan they had received, Gracia Mendez and her daughter Reyna, very likely also Juan Miguez, Samuel Miguez, Abraham Benveniste and Gracia's sister left Antwerp and moved to Venice. There Beatrice de Luna, for the sake of disguise and fearing inquiries from Antwerp, once more called herself Gracia Mendez.[8]) Juan Miguez now approached the Senate in Venice with the request to grant him and his dependent one of the islands in the lagoon as a place of residence; but the request was refused. It is not likely that these Jews intended to remain permanently in Venice, but they wished to use their time of residence in the Venetian Republic merely to enable them quietly to regulate their widely distributed business in the Netherlands, Germany and France.

The Jewish family Nasi alias Mendez soon came under suspicion in Venice for it was thought that they were secretly carrying out their Jewish ceremonies. The French government officials also accused the Nasis of being adherents of the Jewish faith. The Venetian authorities therefore confiscated the property of this Jewish family. King Henry II of France also laid his hands on the fortunes of the Nasis' in France[9]).

But now Jewish solidarity proved itself, as it had so often done before. Joseph Nasi alias Don Juan Miguez appealled in the name of Gracia Nasi, to the Sultan Soliman II. the Great, for help, for he knew, that the court physician of the Sultan, Mose Hamon, was a Jew, who stood high in favour with Soliman II. Mose Hamon had accompanied Soliman II on all his wars and was also trusted with diplomatic missions by the Sultan[10]). The father of Moses, a Spanish Jew, Joseph Hamon, originally from Andalusia, had been court physician to the Sultan Selim I., the predecessor to Soliman II.

How Mose Hamon used his high position at the Turkish Court to further the Jewish cause, is told by the Jewish historian Simon Dubnow in his "Weltgeschichte des jüdischen Volkes", vol. 6, page 35, in the following words:

"Among the Jewish advisers of Suleiman the foremost was the court physician Moses Hamon, who was preceded in this position by his father. A constant companion of the Sultan on all his journeys, in peace or war, Moses Hamon had the opportunity of becoming acquainted with the requests and difficulties of his racial confederates, who were scattered over the whole of Turkey, and he could therefore represent their interests as legal adviser before the Sultan."

So it was possible for the Jew Hamon, as a single individual to persuade the Sultan to command "that in future no accusation, which claimed that the Jews were in the habit of using blood in their Easter cakes and suchlike stories, were to be accepted by any Judges" [11])

This decree meant nothing more or less than the absolute freedom for Jews to commit ritual murder without fear of punishment. The influence of this Jewish court physician Mose Hamon, at the Turkish Court was therefore very significant.

So it is not a wonder, that the request presented by Joseph Nasi alias Juan Miguez to the Sultan of Turkey, was successful, as it was laid before the Sultan by Mose Hamon. The Sublime Porte (Turkey) sent an ambassador-extraordinary (Tschau) to Venice, who obtained permission from the Venetian Senate, for the Nasi family to leave Venice, unmolested and with all their possessions intact. The Republic of Venice in this case was brought under direct political pressure by Turkey, and between the two countries relations became considerably strained.[12])

VI

In 1552, or thereabouts, the Nasi family left Venice. Gracia Nasi alias Donna Beatrice de Luna alias Donna Gracia Mendez moved to Constantinople with her daughter Reyna. The greater part of the inheritance of the Nasi fortune was therewith transferred from the Banking- and Commercial House Mendez in Lisbon and Antwerp into safety in Turkey.

The other branch of the Nasi family, Gracia Nasi's sister as well as her daughter, together with Abraham Benveniste and Joseph Nasi's brother Samuel Nasi, journeyed to Ferrara. Ferrara, at that time, was subject to the Duke Ercole d'Este II.[13])
